DRUG DOGS IN FARWELL?

As you no doubt have seen and heard, DRUG AND SUBSTANCE is the number 1 concern in schools across America. (followed by teenage pregnancy, runaways, suicide, etc.) You have seen First Lady Nancy Reagan talk about in commercials and on talk shows. EVERYONE is concerned about drug and substance abuse because DRUGS ARE EVERYWHERE. THE PROBLEM FOR SCHOOLS IS: WHAT SHOULD WE DO ABOUT IT?

Basically, there are two different approaches to controlling drug/substance abuse; unfortunately, they serve totally different needs. One is directed toward teaching students how to have the self-discipline to stay away from drugs; the other is designed to serve as a deterrent and keep drugs away from our kids. The first method-preventative maintenance-takes a long time to be effective. The other - Intervention/Deterrent - is quick but does not teach children how to discipline themselves. They need to be taken together; neither is totally effective alone.

1. Preventative/Maintenance: Low self-esteem and Family trauma (divorce or separation) are the two greatest causes of teenage drug/substance abuse in America. To combat these and fulfill a preventative maintenance program, work must be done in and throughout the entire curriculum. This process is very good, but it takes months or years to note any significant degree of success.

2. INTERVENTION/DETERRENT: What should be done by schools to remove drugs from the scene and keep it from being brought on campus? These methods work very well for short term effects, but must be coupled with long term training in order to see long term results.

Far and away, the most EFFECTIVE technique used in schools has been the introduction of dogs trained to detect illegal substances on campuses. Please note that I said effective, not desirable. The use of drug dogs on our campuses is not a pleasant thought, but neither is the thought of someone bringing drugs onto our campuses undetected. And detection without some form of professional assistance is almost impossible for the average layman.

If we utilize a deterrent without a maintenance program, we are keeping it away from our schools, but we are doing nothing to help our students cope with drugs after they leave the campus. If we use the maintenance program without some form of intervention, we will always have the possibility that drugs can be introduced at any time, by a new student, a visitor, or maybe even one of our model students that is going through some type of personal or family trauma.

Our main objective at the Farwell ISD is to provide an environment where our students--your children-- can feel safe while being educated. We do not mean to imply that we suspect any of our current students of being "dopers" or "pushers". We love and respect our students as you do as parents. But, how can we provide this safe environment without some type of deterrent?

This is the problem that the Board of Trustees has been wrestling with for some time. WHAT SHOULD BE DONE? If we do nothing because we don't know if we have a "real" problem NOW, are we just sticking our heads in the sand and HOPING that we don't have a problem? Or, should we wait for action until a "real" problem presents itself? WILL THAT BE TOO LATE?

Many schools in our region are already utilizing the drug dogs--with a great deal of success. They may well have a greater problem with drugs than what we may have in Farwell, but do we wait until we have a "problem." Bovina, Friona, Dimmitt, Nazareth and a host of other schools have introduced the dogs in their schools for one stated purpose--KEEP DRUGS AWAY FROM OUR CHILDREN AND OUR SCHOOLS. The message is clear--"If you do drugs, stay away from our schools".

We do not wish to become policemen or go around implicating our students or look for criminals, but we do wish to provide an atmosphere where you can send your children safely because you know that we are doing all that we know to do to stop drugs before they get to our children. IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT THE DOGS DO NOT GO AROUND SNIFFING CHILDREN. THEY SNIFF ONLY ARTICLES OF CLOTHING THAT HAVE BEEN REMOVED, LOCKERS, AND AREAS AROUND THE CAMPUS. (parking lots, etc.)

The Board is very concerned about this issue and would like to know your thoughts and feelings. We know we can't protect everyone from all problems. WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Please take a few moments to fill out the short form below and send it to us. After all, it's your school, your children and your tax money. The cost of using the drug dogs for one year is approximately $4500. Is it worth it to provide this type of protection for the children?

Yes, I think the schools should use the drug dogs as a deterrent to drug abuse.

No, I do not think this is the way to combat this problem.

Ask for a permit

Odds and end today, folks: Here's a message from Farwell Mayor Chris Gikas:

He says some sales people have been going door to door and pushing jobs on folks.

He said residents should use caution and make sure the salesmen are licensed to do business in Farwell. He said you should ask to see their permit.

I hear that the Great American Race, featuring antique cars at least 50 years old, will be coming through Texico - Farwell about the Fourth of July weekend.

I'm anxious for more information on that. It should be a lot of fun watching those oldies but goodies pass through.

A couple of local youths were on the soccer team (8 years and under) that won a Panhandle area championship in Amarillo last weekend.

Girls sought for BTD queen contest

The Border Town Days Queen Committee invites girls living in the Texico and Farwell school districts who will be attending Texico or Farwell High School next year to participate in the 1987 Queen Contest.

All eligible girls are asked to join the committee at Luce's Restaurant for a Coke party to receive a schedule of events and activities on June 9 at 7:30 p.m. (CDT). Door prizes from local merchants will be given away at the party.

A highlight of the Queen Contest this year will be the short essay competition instead of the talent competition. Anyone who will not be able to attend the Coke party may pick up an application form at the Farwell Dental Clinic, 303 3rd Street. The deadline for entering the 1987 Queen Contest is June 15.

The person chosen Queen at the Border Towns Days festivities July 25 will receive, among other gifts, a scholarship for the college of her choice, and will represent the twin cities in area parades and activities during the upcoming year.

The Queen committee includes

BTB Committee to meet

The Border Towns Days Committee will meet Monday, June 1, at 8 p.m. CDT at Luce's Restaurant.

All civic and social organizations in the Twin Cities, plus the churches are urged to have their representative present at this third planning session for Border Towns Days Celebration, which will take place July 24 and 25.

Each committee member is asked to invite and bring another person from his or her group to this meeting, so that more input of ideas and suggestions can be made toward the planning of the celebration.

We hope to run a picture of the champs next week with more information.

It's too bad that Texico depot has to be torn down because the tracks have to be moved.

I commend David Kube for giving it a shot to save the old building. Although he (or anyone) could have bought it for a song, the fee for moving it was astronomical.

In many cases, old buildings can be saved. But not always. Judy and I were down in Southern New Mexico a couple of weeks ago for a wedding in a place called Rodey, just outside of Hatch.

The wedding took place in a church built in the 1600s. Do you know what the building is used for today? It's a warehouse for broken pinball machines.

(Yes, the machines were removed before the wedding and the place was cleaned from top to bottom.)

Bobby Foster, formerly of Oklahoma Lane, stopped by this week to say hello. His wife, Jenine, will be leaving us next month as the Foster family moves to Dallas.

Bobby has been working in Dallas for a couple of months and is doing very well. I owe Bobby a lot for his help when we set up out printing business. We will miss the Fosters.

Southwestern Public Service Co. is exploring the feasibility of forming a wholly owned subsidiary to comprise most of its Oklahoma and Kansas operations.

SPS says the change, if approved, would mean little to customers and employees except for a name change. A name being considered is Black Mesa Power Co. Black Mesa is a prominent geological formation in the Oklahoma Panhandle.

Lightning Tuesday night blew out the Farwell High School main phone line. If it is still down by the time you read this, try calling 481-3352 instead.

Here are the winning contest essays

Several students from the Farwell Junior High entered the U.S. Constitution Essay Project with four students winning places with their essays.

Here are the winning entries:

What the U.S. Constitution Means to Me and Our Country

by Greg Actkinson

The Constitution of the U.S. affects all American citizens in one way or another. It protects and gives us rights and freedom. It provides a strong central government and a system of justice.

Under the Constitution and its Amendments, we as citizens have the following rights and freedoms: freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion, right to bear arms, right to speedy trial by jury, right to privacy, right to vote, right to happiness, and a few others.

The Constitution also provides a balance of power between the three branches of government. Our government uses a check and balance system to make sure no one branch gains more power than what they are allowed for their needs.

To me, the Constitution means that I have the rights and freedom to do just about whatever I please, providing I don't abuse others' rights and freedoms. It also means that I probably don't have to worry about the government taking complete rule and telling me what I can and can't do. It also reminds me how lucky I am to live in America where I'm free protected by a fair system of justice and a strong government.

by Miguel Arce

Our Constitution means a lot to us citizens. I myself, think it is generous to have a well written document. It is the oldest and the best in the world.

My father had just become a U.S. citizen a year ago. He is very proud to have the freedom which some other countries don't. He has been waiting for that moment for a long time. He went through a lot of processes to be a proud U.S. citizen. He is the only person in his family to be a citizen. He wanted his older brother to go, to see how easy it was and to set an example for him.

I am proud of our forefathers who wrote the Constitution. They went through a lot of work to write the articles, sections, amendments, and Bill of Rights. The law of the land was also worked out by our forefathers. We have the right to do anything we want without harming the Constitution's rights. The Checks and Balances were written by our forefathers. This means it is the limits of power place on each of the executive, legislative judicial branches of government.

I have tried my best, as our forefathers had, to write this paper. I appreciate what they have given me. I appreciate those people who are doing their best to keep this written document. I also appreciate those at Washington. One last thing I'd like to say, "I love this country!"

by Andy Baca

My essay on what the Constitution means to me and my country is mainly going to tell about our rights, security, and voting.

Education is one of the rights. If we want to learn, we can learn for free. We can also live where we want to. No one can tell us where to live. We also have the right to eat where we want to. All races can eat where they choose.

We need security to protect us and help us. The Constitution provides us that security. Policemen are one of our means of security. They help fight crime and keep people out of trouble. Another type of security is guards. They protect valuable things for people. Body guards and watch dogs are used to protect certain people or things.

When we turn 18, we can vote. No one can tell us who to vote for. When we vote, it is our choice to vote for whomever we want.

When you get to know the constitution, you get very close to and understanding of how we govern ourselves, you understand the United States, the aspirations of the people, and why we now have such preminent spot in Free World Leadership. so when I grow up, I would like to have the same rights as we have now.

by Monty Delgado

Freedom means a lot to me because you could work anywhere. You don't have to go to college. You get to go anywhere or when you want to.

Freedom means much to my country. People could talk to each other or talk about what they want. They could drive around in a car wherever they want.

Rights mean a lot to me too. You have the right to assemble and petition the government. The right to bear arms, the right to a trial by jury. you also have the right to have a fair and speedy trial and the right to have protection against excessive bail and unusual punishment.

The Common defense has powers relating to defense including powers for raising and supporting armed forces. Also, Congress had the powers to declare war and to send troops to trouble spots.

Texico reinstates planning unit

The Texico City Council Tuesday reinstated its Planning and Zoning Commission.

The council had set up a commission last year but not enough of its members met in order to organize. Then, the council abolished that membership.

But Tuesday, Clint and Georgia Tharp came to the meeting because they were concerned with residential property values.

They said when businesses are placed in residential areas it lowers the property values. Thus, the Tharps were protesting occasions when variances are given to place businesses in residential areas.

After further discussion, the council voted to reinstate the Planning and Zoning Commission and named as its members Clint and Georgia Tharp, Lewis Cooper, Jim Burrows and Charlotte Pierce. They also will ask Bob Lydick of Clovis to serve as a consultant.

With such a commission functioning, it would mean that when someone seeks a variance, they must first go to it. Then the commission gives a recommendation to the council on whether the variance should be approved.

In other business, the council:

- Heard Lewis Cooper say that the 30 mph speed limits in Texico should be lowered to 20 or 25 mph. Mayor John Hadley said the council will look into it.

- Heard Cooper say that the county might not financially support the senior citizens center in the future. Hadley said the council will look into it.

- Approved the budget for the 1987-88 fiscal year, with pay raises for all city employees of $75 a month, effective July 1.

- Agreed to have councilman Butch Tharp check into the cost of fixing the water line leak from the city swimming pool. Tharp estimated it costs the city between $500 and $600 a year in lost water.

- Thanked Parmer County Commissioner Robert White for cleaning the ditch along State Line Road.

- Heard Hadley say that he met with Clovis contractor Johnny Eastwood about street repairs. Eastwood will get back to the council with cost estimates.

Farwell Convalescent Center Chit Chat

BY LYNNE GANN
Activity Director

For families who care for an elderly or disabled relative, theirs is a labor of love.

Respite care is a program that allows individuals admission to the center for a short period of time. This program will allow the individual or their responsible party to remain as the primary care giver but will provide an opportunity in the center for periods of respite or restful care.

For many families who care for an elderly relative or friend, theirs is a labor of love. In many cases the most suitable arrangement is within the family home. This can present a problem for family members who suddenly find themselves unable to leave town or their own home for any extended period of time.

Our respite care program allows the family to admit their relative or friend to the center for a short period of time, whether that be two days or two weeks. The individual can then be readily placed back at home when the family returns.

An application for respite care should be made at the earliest possible date to assure the availability of a room. Admission is restricted to hours between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays.

A request can be made to visit with our administrator to assist the individual or the family determining if the program will appropriately meet their needs.

All programs and services are open go respite care participants.

MEALS ON WHEELS

Farwell Study Club issues annual report

Here is the Farwell Study Club's annual report, from president Eunice Crume:

"We have made monetary contributions as follows: $250 to help pay for the Mural; $500 scholarship; $225 for Girlstown; $75 for Boys and Girls State; $100 for the Parmer County Welfare Board; $75 for Neighborhood Watch signs; $197 for a coat and hat rack at the Community Center, for a total of $1,422.

"Other donations include 3 large boxes of childrens clothing and shoes to the welfare board; 3 boxes of clothing for a needy family; 3 boxes of clothing and shoes for a church group for Mexico; 5 boxes of clothing for Girls Town; and 19 pairs of shoes, jewelry and notebook paper; and also for Girls Town, 35 pairs of slacks, 8 sweaters, 21 blouses, suits, skirts and 50 pieces of jewelry, plus miscellany.

"We hosted the Caprock Fall Board meeting and a style show. Also, the film on crime; made float for Border Town Days, and had booth in park. Sold brownies and made $68.20. Several members entered exhibits in county arts and crafts fair. Many hours were spent in getting ready and having garage sales. In 1986, we made $2,775 on our sales.

"Four members attended the Caprock District convention in March. Our club won several awards: first place in project - school division; 2nd place in program - crime prevention; 2nd in program - Americanism, and 2nd - program leadership division. The yearbook was graded 92. Two members entered the arts and crafts there and won 4 blue and 1 red ribbon with their five entries.

"The rummage sale for 1987 has finally materialized. We had a time finding a building. Many hours were spent in hauling in merchandise, tables, chairs, racks, etc., as well as pricing the items. I spent 63 hours so far this month and some members have spent as much or more time in getting ready for the sale.

"The two days we have been open we have taken in $209 which is more than enough to pay our expenses, so the rest should be profit. Rent on the building for 2 months was $150. Water turn on fee was $15. Electric deposit (refundable) was $50. We will have water and light bills later.

"There is much ahead to be done this summer. The quilt, which Mrs. Peiman pieced and donated, is to be quilted. The float for Border Town Days is to be made. The rummage sale is to be continued through June."

Farwell Junior High students compile their own newspapers

The Farwell Junior High students have been hard at work compiling their own school newspapers.

They have composed three editions. The headlines for their papers are "The Texas Times", Farwell, Texas Civil War Time; "The Brass Monkey", a paper that looks back on the 1950's; and "Lost In The 50's".

The Texas Times, Farwell, Tx. Civil War Times is composed of several different sections. These Sections include stories on the Emancipation Proclamation, by Amanda Curtis; Invention, Change the Lives of Americans, by Cynthia Beavers; Is Cotton Still King? by Mary Ann Ancira; Battles In Texas by Kartha Roberson; The Peculiar Election of 1800 by Mike Loera; The K.K.K. Invades The Panhandle by Lanette Turner; Editorials on Lincoln and Slavery written by Cody Monk, Robin Ray and Lanette Turner; Business Financial News with stories such as The Chisholm Trail and Cattle Movement by Ray Haseloff; Cattle Industry Hit Hard by Civil War by Cody Monk; and Close Up On The Cattle Roundup by Ruben Lucio.

Invention Change The Lives of Americans by Cynthia Beavers

After 1865 the United States became a leading industrial nation, a country of mills and factories. The number of inventions to improve ways of transportation and communication increased. The railroad was the way that most people wanted to travel. It was faster and safer than the stagecoach.

More Farms and Factories began to use the new machines. People left their farms and small shops to find work in factories. Goods were produced in greater amounts than ever before. The cities grew even larger. New inventions really have changed the lives of Americans.

Close-Up On The Cattle Round-Up by Ruben Lucio

The round-up started yesterday in the panhandle. They should start branding the cattle tomorrow. Three thousand cattle will be going through the town Wednesday. The rumuda (the cowboys that direct the cattle) will be following them. The chuckwagon will have to go around the town. By Friday they will have reached the ranch.

The Emancipation Proclamation by Amanda Curtis

We, in the spring of 1864, remember back to the Emancipation Proclamation issued by President Lincoln in September, 1862. All the slaves controlled by the South were set free on January 1, 1863. But in only applied to the areas not under Federal control. We can see what this did to the South. The slaves are free and now there is no hope for getting them back.

This gave the Union many advantages. Many blacks joined the Union army because of the emancipation. They deserted their plantations by the thousands. Eventually, 110,000 blacks served in the army. Lincoln's proclamation prepared the way for the abolition of slavery.

Editorials were also written:
Slavery
by Cody Monk

Slavery is a main topic of conversation in the United States and the Civil War today, that must be dealt with. Slavery is a terrible calamity that goes on around the U.S. and Texas especially. Blacks are being taken advantage of and this isn't right. The United States is a free country, and nobody needs to be taken advantage of just because of their skin color.

I know slavery is legal, but an act must be taken to stop it. Blacks should have the right to vote and be citizens of the U.S. just like the white man. Blacks are no more or less than whites, but an act must happen to stop this terrible crisis around the United States today.

I applaud President Abraham Lincoln's proposal, the Emancipation Proclamation, to end slavery in the U.S. Finally a person has cared enough to stop this crisis. Blacks should be free people just like whites, and Lincoln has taken a step in the right direction.

I feel very strongly against slavery, even though I know it is legal. People have taken blacks for granted, and now they need to show them a little respect, for a change. Slavery should be abolished in the United States, and all people should be treated equally, black or white. The U.S. is a free country, and I don't want it to go down as "The Country That Hated Blacks." I feel slavery should be abolished, and a lot of people would agree with me.

It is my conclusion that the U.S. should abolish slavery forever. The United States of America is a free country, and not one person, even blacks should be slaves. Slavery should be abolished.

Lincoln Wins Election by Robin Ray

We, in Parmer County, are possibly going to withdraw from the Union, along with the other counties of Texas and other states in the South, because the Republicans won the election. A farmer in the southeastern part of the county says, "We've had our slaves, they're ours, and we wanna keep 'em. No one's got the right to take away slavery just 'cause they're some bigshot of the government."

Most people are displeased with Lincoln's victory, because he wants to abolish slavery. Many farmers and other residents have slaves that they don't want to free. Therefore, we are seriously considering withdrawing from the Union.

Business and financial news included: The Chisholm Trail And Cattle Movement by Ray Haseloff

A businessman named Joseph McCoy convinced Texas to drive their cattle further west. At Abilene, Kansas, McCoy built corrals and loading pens near the Kansas Pacific rail line. He sent messengers south to Texas ranches to encourage ranchers to drive their cattle to Abilene for shipment eastward. In 1867, only 35,000 longhorns passed through Abilene stockyards. By 1869, the number of cattle sold in Abilene was more than 350,000.

Cattle was herded to Abilene from Texas on the Chisholm Trail. Jesse Chisholm was a trader who blazed part of the trail while traveling Indian Territory. The new trail started close to San Antonio and moved toward Austin. It passed just west of Fort Worth, went through Indian Territory, and then to Abilene.

Also included in this paper under the section entitled Lifestyles were stories written on Lifestyles, by Kartha Roberson; Paloduro Canyon by Cynthia Beavers; A Life of Hard Labor by Ray Haseloff and A Paradise Called Texas, by Mary Ann Ancira.

Here is one of the stories, A Paradise Called Texas;

Mina and her family prepared for their long journey to Texas from Germany. Mina's father felt that Texas was a Godsend for them- the answer to their prayers. They were moving to Texas for a better life.

Summer came and there was much to be done before leaving for Texas. Boxes had to be made for packing, clothes had to be sewn, dishes carefully packed in straw- a thousand jobs.

Classified Ads Get Results

Mina wanted to move to Texas with her family, but hates to leave her friends.

She looked back through blurry eyes. The group of people all waving was growing smaller. The tears streamed down Mina's cheeks as the wagon rolled out of Wehrstedt, and Papa's arm tightened around her shoulders.

At last the sobs were finished. Mina straightened up and looked back. She took a last look at the wooded hills. Then she turned around and never looked back again.

Here is some of the advice that was given in the Advice column;

Dear Advice, What's the style these days? How and where do you get inexpensive, but in-style clothes? From Unstylish

Dear Unstylish, Look in the new catalogs and magazines. You can go to the material store and look for patterns and materials there. It's real cheap and easy to make. Advice Giver

Dear Playboy Hater:

You say you and your husband have had 15 wonderful years, and now he wants to get a Playboy girl. Hard case. Well, my advice to you is to get as beautiful as you can and win him back. And if that doesn't work, give him what he wants. The Great Adviser.

Other columns included were Horoscope, Puzzles, Obituaries, Sports and Classified ads.

In the Brass Monkey publication some of the columns were World News, the Nation, State News, Weather, Local News and Obituaries.

Some of the title stories were Holly Dies by Brandy Martin; Laura Ingalls Wilder (1867-1957) by Tina and Ruby; Marilyn Monroe by Manuela Ortega and Fads by Greg Atkinson.

There was also an Advice column with advice for the young and forlorn, plus horoscopes, an entertainment section; Business and Comics.

Lost in the 50's was another publication from the Fifties.

Age brackets for the AAU girls are 13 and under; 15 and under; and 18 and under. Coach Larry Gregory said,
