

Every trade organization manages to sponsor a national "week" promoting its products. Generally speaking, we give most of them short shrift. This time we have come across an observance that we think will be of interest to the residents of the Twin Cities. March 20-26 is National Lawn and Garden Week. We rightfully brag of the beautiful homes in our community, but have little to say in regard to the business districts. This reminder this week is designed to bring about improvement in appearance of homes, neighborhoods, business districts and entire communities through proper planting and maintenance of lawns, shrubs, flowers and trees -- all green and growing plants -- not just for one week, but for all the year.

While we may claim an A-plus for our homes, we cannot do the same considering the community as a whole. This would be an excellent time for some of our civic eyesores to be cleaned up and shrubbery and trees planted in place of the weeds and trash.

In addition to horticultural additions, we need to haul off the unsightly accumulations of plain junk. We have several locations, especially on Main Street, which need this treatment. It is a pity that some businessies try so hard to be clean and neat while others do not try at all.

Some time ago The Tribune picked up a subscriber in Ann Arbor, Michigan, by the name of Gerald P. Martin. Apparently Mr. Martin is quite disturbed at the high jinx going on both in the local high school system and at the University of Michigan which is located in Ann Arbor.

Martin has sent us several batches of clippings from the local paper called the Ann Arbor News. Reading these press clippings almost gives one the feeling that the task of educating our younger folks is going to be impossible. Apparently the radical and the leftist student can so disrupt and control a great university, and incidentally, a local school system, that there is no time left for formal education.

Reading these accounts makes you sick at the stomach. Sick for the people involved, sick for the addeheaded administrators, and sick for the authorities as they try to bring order out of chaos. Finally, it makes you sick to think that our great country has sunk to such a low level of moral rotteness. We do not have the space to reprint all these reports, but do have them on file in our office and will welcome all who might like to see what anarchy is sweeping other parts of the country. It may not make you happy, but it will better inform you on the perils currently surrounding our country.

Propose Area Fine Arts Program

A Regional Fine Arts Council comprising the towns of Farwell, Bovina, Friona, Muleshoe and Lazbuddie has been proposed at meetings held in these towns within the past few weeks. Purpose of the Council would be to encourage cultural programs for all those who care about such arts; to promote education for appreciation and participation in the arts; to make the arts accessible to all persons in every walk of life; and to raise the level of quality of arts presented to the public.

Such cultural programs shall include, but shall not be limited to, music, theatre and drama, dance, painting, sculpture, literature, architecture, and horticulture. To achieve its objectives the Regional Fine Arts Council, if organized, would stimulate public interest and cooperation through radio, television, newspapers and other news media and also through public assemblies and by promoting and encouraging all aspects of a cultural program by continually improving education for appreciation of the fine arts through educational and art institution; and by developing and maintaining a program to attract and retain resident artists, writers and performers. The Council would be responsible for building a well-rounded regional cultural program and for co-ordinating the programs.

The Regional Fine Arts Council would have an equal representation of people from each town represented. Federal and State grants are available to fine arts programs, according to Mrs. M. A. Snider Jr., one of the leaders in the drive for the fine arts council, who cites the MAADD program in Lubbock which is in its fifth year of expansion, due to the cooperation of citizens, Chamber of Commerce, schools and service clubs, as an example of what can be accomplished. At least 1000 family memberships would need to be sold in the five-town region to get the program participation necessary for establishment of

Globe News Choice --

Hargrove Outside Player Of Year

Greg Hargrove, 5'11" Steer athlete of uncanny versatility, has been named as the Amarillo Globe News' Outside Basketball Player of the Year. The fact that Hargrove played the last half of the season under the basket, where the points come easier, aided his achievement for a player of the year award.

After moving to post man for the Steers, Hargrove increased his average to 16 points per game for the season. He had a district average of 23 points per game and added 21 points to his record in the regional game with Clarendon -- winning him a place on the All-Regional team.

Steer mentor Vernon Scott was named runner-up as Coach of the Year, following behind Carl Irlbeck of Clarendon. Clarendon's Charles Louis was named Inside Player of the Year. Receiving honorable mention for the inside player of the year award was Steer Dean Stovall, who led the Steers in rebounding for the season.

New Members Assume Duties --

Texico Council Has Busy Session

The newly-elected Texico mayor and town council assumed their duties at the March 10 meeting of that body. Mayor Perry Winkles presided over the meeting. In attendance at the meeting were all commissioners, including Wm. Wesley Enggram, Donald Caillouet, Manford Turnbough, Bill Christian, and police magistrate Sam Lewis, water superintendent Morgan Billington, fire chief Lewis Cooper, town clerk Mrs. Clara Wiehl, city attorney Harry Patton, and town marshal Butch Foster. Mr. and Mrs. Don Cross and Bob Spears were visitors to the meeting.

The request of Mrs. Don (LaDonna) Cross for a permit to operate a beauty salon at her residence at 610 Katherine Street was given the stamp of approval.

Town fathers discussed the livestock ordinance (no. 146) and instructed attorney Harry Patton to get copies of similar ordinances from other nearby towns in order that the local town fathers might use them as a basis for making revisions in the present Texico livestock ordinance.

Town Marshal Butch Foster was instructed to issue warnings on ordinance 159 dealing with trash disposal, removing the bodies of wrecked or unused automobiles, weeds and other unsightly debris from their property. If, after a warning has been issued, a property owner fails to comply with the ordinance, he will then be issued a citation.

Sunday At Sunrise --

Crim Weather Forecast Slated

Annual weather forecast for this area and a prediction of crop prospects for the coming year will be made by J. W. "Indian John" Crim at his annual March 22 sunrise forecast this Sunday morning at the family home 18 miles east and two miles north of Farwell, or two miles east and two miles north of Clay's Corner. Crim has been making the forecast for the past 45 years, as he reads signs from a ceremonial fire which is lighted as the sun rises.

"Indian John" was taught the art of reading the signs from the fire by his father who had learned the art from the Indians.

According to legend, a tepee-shaped fire burning at sunrise on March 22 will give signals of a good or bad crop year in wind direction and the way the smoke carries.

The public is invited to attend the ceremony on Sunday morning and learn firsthand what "Indian John" reads in the smoke signals as he makes his annual weather prognostication.

A committee composed of two members each from the Woman's Club, Chamber, Texico Fire Department and city officials, are meeting tonight, March 19, to make additional plans for the July 4 event.

The Church Plants and WATERS...

The church plants the seed of faith. waters and tills the soil. These are the things that a church can do, and no more... then God provides the love and life-giving essentials. The growth then depends on the type of soil... is it barren... mediocre... or fertile. Your life with God will grow according to your will and desire.

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord: and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Hog Meeting Creates Interest

Eighty interested persons attended the hog meeting at Hub Community Center March 11, according to Ronny McNutt, County Agricultural Agent. Purpose of the meeting was to inform both prospective hog producers and producers already in business of the potentials for money in hogs.

Dr. Bill Thomas, Extension Service swine specialist from College Station, first speaker, stated "the initiation of a hog enterprise can be justified by one of the following conditions (1) marketing home-grown grain through hogs (2) utilizing labor more efficiently and (3) substituting swine production for an unprofitable farm enterprise."

Dr. Thomas presented a discussion on factors to consider when going into the hog business. One factor to consider is adequate financing. This is absolutely necessary due to the lack of income for at least six months after initiating a new hog enterprise, according to Dr. Thomas.

Type of operation was another factor Dr. Thomas discussed. Alternatives are many and some of the common types are as follows (1) purebred production (2) feeder pig production (3) finishing pig production and (4) complete farrow through finishing.

Other factors that a producer must consider and decide on are as follows, Dr. Thomas pointed out: (1) confinement, or pasture operation (2) size of hog operation (3) considerations for confinement buildings (4) selection of breeding animals (5) feeding programs.

"Estimated costs and returns for alternative swine enterprises" was the topic discussed at the meeting by Ed Garnett, Extension Service area farm management specialist from Amarillo.

Three money lending agencies representatives appeared on the program and discussed how their organization can help in financing hog operations.

Joe Montgomery, vice-president of Security State Bank of Littlefield, discussed how this bank handles the financing of its hog producers.

Also, Robert Neeley, manager of Production Credit Association of Friona, explained how that organization can help in the financing of an operation.

The Farmers Home Administration was presented by George James, county supervisor from Tulla. James pointed out in addition to his discussion on financing, that anyone going into the hog business should first secure a waste water discharge permit. These permits are required by law and permits may be obtained at the county agent's office in Farwell.

such a Council to begin operation. Approximate cost of the memberships would be $5.00 or $10.00. National Endowment and state funds would match the funds to provide talent needed for such productions.

In addition to presenting several programs each year in each of the towns, prior to a production, teams from the companies would spend some time in the schools so that students could become acquainted with the fine arts, assisting them to better understand the performance through direct contact and assembly programs.

One purpose of the program is to bring arts and humanities into the schools -- by providing assemblies to enrich lives of the students in forms of travel-slides and lectures, film and live performance programs. Many of the programs are related to history and the sciences.

The programs would not cost the schools anything, but would give the students a chance to see and hear some outstanding programs each year. Students would not be taken away from their classes, but the assemblies would be presented at a time which would be convenient for students and teachers.

The word "long hair" must be shorn from the creative arts and a lessening of emphasis on such vaguely inclusive terms as "culture" and "fine arts" and a fresh workable, practical and livable approach to an acceptance of the creative arts as a vital fundamental in our civilization must be realized by the welding of all participating and contributing factors into a unified, dominate progressive whole.

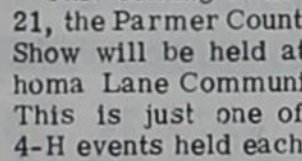

It can be done, it will be done, if all the people of the region work together to make the area a better place in which to rear their children by getting behind the Fine Arts program . . . In this way and in this way only can a Regional Fine Arts Council be organized to bring outside programs to the area during the coming years, says leaders of the proposed organization.

It will take the cooperation of each individual, each civic group, the Chamber of Commerce and city government to bring the program to the area. Bovina Schools held a special called meeting for its board to make a decision on the matter. The board went on record as approving the idea of a Fine Arts Council, stating, "we are for anything which will benefit our children."

The Friona board is also reported as being in favor of such a movement. No reports have been forthcoming from Farwell, Lazbuddie or Muleshoe since the program was explained to them. However, the program can be brought to Parmer County alone if all towns in the area will get behind the leaders for a Regional Fine Arts Council and give their support.

Twenty-five such councils are now functioning in Texas with the ones nearest to this area located at Lubbock and Amarillo.

At Home In Parmer County

This coming Saturday, March 21, the Parmer County 4-H Food Show will be held at the Oklahoma Lane Community Center. This is just one of the many 4-H events held each year in the county. I would like to say thank you to the girls who planned this activity; Audrey Magness, Cheryl Gohlke, Deborah Harding, Carrie Haseloff and Lee Ann Williams. These girls are working on one objective of the food show -- to develop leadership.

Deborah Harding, County Council Delegate, attended the District I 4-H Council Workshop March 13 and 14. The Workshop was held at Amarillo and included work on District Committees, 4-H Councils, recreation, and ways of improving 4-H activities throughout the District. Delegates from the 22 Counties in District I attended this annual activity.

Patrolmen To Check Drivers License Daily

Figures just released by the Texas Department of Public Safety reveal that many of the more serious accidents are involving unlicensed drivers.

Highway Patrol Sergeant Bill Wells of Hereford stated that all of the men under his command will be checking driver licenses while on routine patrol. He also stated that this is not meant to be harassment of the licensed legal driver and

Register Vehicles

AUSTIN -- The deadline is passed to order 1970 Texas motor vehicle registration plates by mail, but there still is time for motorists to register their vehicles without a lot of the bother of former years.

The cutoff date for mail orders was March 1. But the three-part computerized form which all Texas vehicle owners received just after January 1 still will save time -- if motorists act quickly.

All one needs to do is to take the registration application to his county tax collector's office or sub-station with the fee. The process is greatly simplified and the lines -- if any -- are fast-moving.

That's still no guarantee there won't be long lines facing those who wait until the last few days before the midnight April 1 deadline. Each year, thousands of motorists put off registering their vehicles until the last minute.

CLEAR THE TRACKS!! -- Troop 200 Scouts Donnie Garner and Lionel Garza watch as Assistant Roundhouse Foreman Jim Carr of Clovis gives them a first-hand lesson in railroading. High aboard a diesel engine, the boys were treated to a ride and much information. Scouts Brad Owens and Lynn Kittrell were allowed to solo on the controls, while being watched closely by their somewhat apprehensive buddies.

Santa Fe Helps Troop 200 Scouts Learn Railroading

Texico-Farwell Boy Scout Troop 200, sponsored by Farwell First Baptist Church, began work on individual railroading merit badges this week, assisted by Santa Fe officials in Clovis.

Monday afternoon 16 boys were present as the troop toured Santa Fe's large facility. First came a climb on spiral stairs to visit the tall control and observation tower which overlooks the entire city of Clovis and Texico-Farwell. An easier trip down was made by elevator.

After forming smaller groups, troop members then boarded the cab of a big diesel engine which was provided for inspection. Following instructions from the engineer and a ride down the yards, one Scout in each group was allowed to pilot the train himself.

Boys next walked to the middle of the huge roundhouse track which turns to change direction of train engines. An engine then joined Scouts on the turning track as both boys and train were rotated to the opposite side of the roundhouse. Inside those present viewed equipment used to change wheels and repair all rail units.

Finally came a tour through the dispatcher's building where the group saw around 20 trains being controlled at such remote points as Belen and Carlsbad.

SPRAY WEEDY WHEAT FIELDS NOW

The time to spray weedy wheat fields is now, according to Dr. Frank Petr of Amarillo, area agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Recent precipitation has increased prospects for winter wheat grain yields and grazing. But winter annual and other broadleaf weeds can compete rapidly for moisture needed by the wheat plant and should be eliminated as soon as possible.

Not all wheat fields require spraying as good stands of vigorous wheat shade the ground early and discourage establishment and growth of weeds, points out the agronomist. Heavily grazed fields or fields with a reduced stand due to drought or insect pests will probably need to be sprayed for weed control.

Weed control measures should be taken promptly before weeds can affect the po-

40 Boys Out For Track At Farwell

Coach Toby Booth states that approximately 40 boys are out for the track and field teams at Farwell School this year. However, only four members of the 1968-69 cinder squad are back this year. Boys from last year's team returning this year are Dean Stovall, Gene Sheets, Greg Hargrove and Jay Herington.

Eighteen members of the cinder team were in Abernathy to attend a meet last Saturday. Next Saturday, March 21, the group will be in Hereford for an invitational meet and the following Saturday they will journey to Roosevelt for an evening invitational meet.

On April 4 the Steers will be in Kress for an invitational meet and on April 11 the district track and field meet will be held in Kress. The regional meet is slated for April 25.

Coach Booth states that the team has had little time to practice since the end of the basketball season, but he is expecting them to make a good showing during the season.

This year the freshman track and field teams are participating in different meets to those participated in by the varsity squad. The freshmen participated in a meet at Jal two weeks ago, bringing home several first, second and third places.

Floyd Robinson has been arraigned and his bond set at $2,000. He is in custody and awaiting grand jury action. The boys were released on Tuesday. Robinson had formerly lived in the Lazbuddie area but is presently making his home in Clovis.

Eddie R. Baker has been returned to Farwell by sheriff's officials to face a charge of burglary in connection with the theft from Tide Company earlier this year. Date for his trial has not been set.

tential yield of the crop. Research on weed competition has been conducted by Dr. Allen F. Wiese at the USDA Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland. His studies that one weed per square foot can reduce wheat yields by 10 per cent. If a potential yield of 40 bushels per acre is assumed, the yield loss would be four bushels or approximately $5 at current prices. With an estimated spray cost of $1.50, this could mean an extra income of $3.50 per acre for controlling the weeds.

When two weeds are present per square foot, the estimated yield loss is 20 per cent, continues Petr. Assuming a 15 bushels per acre yield on dryland, the loss would be about three bushels of wheat. This would pay a $1.50 per acre spray cost and still provide the farmer with an additional $2.25 per acre income from the weed control practice.

One-half pound per acre of 2,4-D will control tansy mustard and most annual broadleaf weeds found in wheat at this time. Wheat yields will not be reduced if the spraying is done when the wheat is fully tillered but before vigorous spring growth starts. Spraying can be done either with aerial or ground equipment with good results.

In many fields weed populations are greatest near the edges where weed seeds have been blown in from roadsides and fence rows. In such cases spraying a few swaths around the field may eliminate the heaviest infestation and make it unnecessary to spray the entire field, concludes Petr.

Letters To The Editor

March 14, 1970
P. O. Box 103
Texico, New Mexico

Mr. John Getz
State Line Tribune
Farwell, Texas

Dear Mr. Getz:

I would like to add my sentiments to those so aptly expressed by Mrs. Eason concerning cruelty to cats.

Another activity besides the one Mrs. Eason reported, being engaged in which is referred to as "sport" is one so cruel that it is inconceivable to understand the sickness in soul and body of those who would participate in this insidious method of cruelty to God's creation.

This cruelty that I speak of is that of setting traps to catch cats and then turning a pack of dogs loose on one cat at a time. This is how they train their coon dogs to kill.

One instance which was reported to me some time ago concerned a beautiful white Persian which had been caged and a heavy weight applied to its neck to keep him from holding his head up. It would seem that a pack of dogs to one cat is not good enough odds, the cat must be tortured in this fashion to insure the dogs catching the cat. Immediately upon hearing this sadistic horror, I contacted county officials and begged them to stop this inhumane insanity.

I was promised they would, but I later learned they had not, and the noble cats fate was death by a pack of dogs.

Another incident reported to me by a Citizen of our Town was the discovery of a cat that had been hung by the neck in a tree at the City park to be strangled to death in his efforts to get free. By some miracle the cat had managed to brace himself somehow and was still alive when the good hearted Citizen found and released him. We know he must have hung in the tree all night and you can imagine the pitiful condition he was in when found the next morning.

It is not inconceivable to understand that some people do not care for animals if they are not cruel in their dislike or disregard for them, but a person who could be so want only cruel or allow their children to be, as in the situations cited above is beyond any capacity of mine for understanding and in fact fills me with such revulsion that anything other than contempt would have to come from a power more tolerant than I. I do not so much pray that God will forgive these people who defile His creations so much as I pray that He forgive me for my loathing of them.

Very truly yours,
Clara L. Wiehl

Track And Field Team --

Bill Hardage Leads Wayland In Rebuilding Program

The 1970 season can be classified as a rebuilding year for the Wayland Pioneers track and field team coached by Bill Hardage, but the outlook for a good season is bright, with seven lettermen, two transfers, five freshmen, and three former members of the team who missed last season. The Pioneers are expected to be able to compete in every event this year.

Hardage, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hardage, Farwell, begins his fourth year as Wayland track and field coach with hopes that the Seventies will be as prosperous for his thinclads as the last three years of the 1960's.

He is optimistic about the coming season, despite the loss of four outstanding seniors. A crop of younger, newer and relatively less-experienced personnel provide a new challenge for the crew-cut coach, who at 26 years of age, was a track star only a few years ago.

Hardage graduated from Wayland in 1965 and while working on a master's degree at Texas Tech spent a year's internship under the man who laid the ground work for the Pioneer track program, Vernon Hilliard. Hardage coached the Tech freshman team to a fourth place finish in the Southwest Conference.

Vicki Lunsford Vies For Beauty Title

Vicki Lunsford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Lunsford and a 1968 graduate of Farwell High School, now attending South Plains College, Levelland, will be among the 31 young ladies seeking the title of "Miss Caprock Beauty" at the March 19 beauty pageant at the college.

Each of the contestants will appear four times during the pageant. Their first appearance will be in casual attire; second in street wear; and the third in formal evening wear. At their fourth and final appearance they will answer a question put to them by the master of ceremonies, Jim Dandy.

Miss Lunsford is appearing as an independent candidate in the pageant.

Also among the candidates is Nancy Fowler of Bovina. Miss Fowler is being sponsored by the Flaming Spurs.

He came to Wayland in the fall of 1966 and in the past three track seasons the Pioneer teams have turned in fine showings, with national honors for individuals among the rewards. Wayland has been represented at the past three national NAIA outdoor and indoor meets. Since Hardage took over the Pioneers all but two school records have been broken, some more than one time.

As a student at Hardin-Simmons, Hardage competed in football and track from 1961-63. He anchored the mile relay team which clocked 3:16.4, which is still the school record. He was a stellar member of the Wayland track team in 1964-65, setting school records in the 220, 440 and broad jump.

Wayland will defend its High Plains Invitational title on March 21 against Eastern New Mexico University and West Texas State University.

Hardage and his wife, Susan, have a three-year-old son, Tim, and a three-month-old daughter, Cindy.

Electric Coop Receives National Recognition

James T. Hull, manager of Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative, accepted the National Accreditation Committee's Certificate of Excellence at the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association annual meeting held recently in Las Vegas, Nev.

Hull was presented the certificate by H. L. Custer, Director of the Retirement, Safety and Insurance Department with the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association.

The fact that only 62 other rural electric systems out of nearly 1000 total systems have qualified for accreditation makes the award a distinct honor. Only four other cooperatives in Texas have been awarded accreditation.

To qualify for accreditation, Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative had to pass a difficult set of standards. The cooperative was inspected and evaluated by an observation team.

To maintain this rating, Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative must be reviewed every two years.

Milton Walling Takes Field Trip To Louisiana

Milton Lee Walling is among the 40 Diesel Club students from Oklahoma State Tech at Okmulgee who will be making a field trip to Louisiana March 19-22. In Louisiana he and the other students will visit Halliburton Services at Morgan City and Kerr McGee Oil Co. at Cameron.

The students will observe shop practices and off shore drilling operations. Although the students gain practical experience in their modern classroom-shops equipped with the latest in instructional equipment, field trips enable them to gain first-hand information of major industrial operations and see the actual job situations into which they will enter upon graduation.

Oklahoma State Tech is one of a few residential vocational technical schools in the nation and is a branch of Oklahoma State University.

12 Accidents On Rural Highways

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 12 accidents on rural highways in Parmer County during the month of February, according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in four persons injured and an estimated property damage of $9,865.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first two months of 1970 shows a total of 17 accidents resulting in no persons killed, five persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $19,535.00.

In an all-out effort to stem the rising toll of traffic accidents in Texas, the Department of Public Safety is increasing the ranks of its uniform services.

One hundred and twenty men between the ages of 20 and 35 are needed to start training for the position of patrolman on May 5, 1970.

All interested young men should contact any DPS office or patrolman for an application.

Chefettes Have Lessons In Food Preparation

The Lazbuddie 4-H Chefettes, a group of sixth and seventh grade girls, met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Demp Foster, last Thursday for the start of a study in the art of cooking. Included in the study will be planning nutritious menus; four basic food groups, and outdoor cooking and good breakfasts.

LeAnn Farley, Karen Mimms, Rita Davis, Susan Farley and Susan Mimms enjoyed testing their first lesson in hot breads and cereals which consisted of cornbread, chilli butter bread, bran muffins and garlic bread. How to cook cereals was also included in the lesson.

On Saturday the lesson was in outdoor cookery, including foods which were prepared in the oven but could be prepared later on an outside grill. They prepared two menus, the main foods being barbecue chicken, broiled potatoes, garlic bread, and saucapan cookies; also a dinner in foil was prepared consisting of hamburger and vegetables with broiled fruit slices and applesauce bread.

Room decorations included blue, pink and white cellophane bubble gum streamers and balloons. The gum and balloons were later given to the children attending the party as favors. Party napkins, cups, plates and tablecloth with the words "Happy Birthday" added to the decor.

Attending the social were the honoree, Elayne, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Horner, and Lesa Langford, Polly and Lu-

Longhorn Roundup

by Mike Casey

The Lazbuddie Longhorns and the Meadow Bronchos collided in a practice game in Littlefield on February 24, and the Bronchos chalked up a victory, defeating the Longhorns 56-54.

The loss was a disappointment for the Lazbuddie team as they trailed by 10 points at halftime and had to overcome this deficit. Midway through the last quarter the 'Horns gained a slim lead. Numerous violations and bad passes proved to be their downfall in the final period of play.

Charles Lee led Lazbuddie scorers with 16 points, while his teammates scored as follows: Gall Morris, 13; Mike Casey, 11; Darrell Matthews, 7; Monte Barnes, 7. The Bronchos' top scorers were Terry Wilkes with 17 points and Rodney Curtis with 14 points.

Lazbuddie was defeated in their bi-district game with Three Way March 2. The defeat was a great disappointment since all through the game it seemed they were just on the verge of capturing a substantial lead. At halftime the score stood 30-29 in favor of Three Way. The final score was Three Way 52, Lazbuddie 42. Gall Morris took scoring honors for Lazbuddie as he tallied 16 points. Other players figuring into the scoring column were Mike Casey, 11; Monte Barnes, 7; Charles Lee, 6; and Darrell Matthews, 2. Leading the Eagles attack was Johnny Ferguson with 14 points, Mike Roberts, 12; Mike Lynskey, 12; and James Partlow, 8.

The junior class has received the stadium cushions for which they were taking orders a few weeks ago. If you ordered a cushion and have not received it, please contact any member of the junior class.

Lazbuddie placed two boys and two girls on the 5-B All-District basketball teams this season. Making first team for the boys were Monte Barnes and Charles Lee. Monte is a 6'5" senior and Charles is a 6'4" junior.

First team selections for the girls were Vicki Robinson and Theresa Seaton. Congratulations should be given to these players who played a big part in Lazbuddie's successful season.

The Longhorn track team competed in the Idalou Relays on March 7 and finished third in the final meet standings. This was their first meet of the year and they made a good showing in competition that included 25 teams in their division. Capturing a first place medal in the 120-yard high hurdles was Charles Lee. Monte Barnes placed second in the discus and fourth in the shot. Larry Hodges was second in the high jump. George Wilson came in with a fourth place in the shot put.

The title of this year's one-act play to be given in district competition is "The Terrible Meek." The play concerns three people who were seriously affected by the crucifixion of Christ. Doyle Weir portrays the Roman captain who ordered the crucifixion; Larry Cox plays the part of the soldier who actually carried out the crucifixion; and Rhonda Trieder plays the part of Christ's mother. "The Terrible Meek" is a deeply moving religious drama, with the setting on a hill where the crucifixion took place. Last year's cast performed for several churches and Wayland College and met with considerable success. This year's cast has been working diligently on the play and appear confident of putting on a good performance.

South Plains College was the site of the track teams' meet on March 14. The Longhorns finished fourth in the final standings behind Sundown, Borden County and Wellman.

Charles Lee again finished first in the 120-yard high hurdles. Monte Barnes placed first in the discus and shot put; George Wilson took second in the discus and fourth in the shot put. Mike Casey was first in the 440 yard dash and Arthur Graves was fifth in the 440.

Tourney Nets $650

Approximately $650 was realized from the outdoors volleyball tournament held at Farwell School over the weekend. Sixteen ladies teams and 14 mens teams participated in the event.

Proceeds from the tournament will be used to purchase eight 5'x10' tumbling mats for use by the Junior High school students. The mats can be placed end to end or side by side to make a tumbling area 20'x-20', according to James Craig, Junior High School principal.

Craig expressed his thanks to donors of the trophies for the tournament and also to the parents of sixth, seventh and eighth grade students, who manned the concession stand on each of the three evenings of the tournament. Trophies were donated for the tournament by Rose Drug, Hughes Auto Parts, Worley Grain and State Line Grain.

Winners in the men's division were the Lumberjacks from Muleshoe, first; Earthmen from Earth, second; and Sledgehammers, Muleshoe, third. In the ladies division first place winner was Earth Oil and Gas; second, Clovis National Bank; and third, Lariat Gin.

Teams participating in the event were from Muleshoe, Friona, Bovina, Lazbuddie, Farwell, Earth, Clovis and Lariat.

Save Irrigation Water Through Recovery Pit

Are you a farmer who is interested in s-t-r-e-t-c-h-i-n-g your irrigation water this summer? Then read this advice from the Soil Conservation Service:

Marion E. Clark, SCS Technician at Friona, says the best way to save irrigation "tailwater" is through the use of a tailwater recovery system. Such a system saves farm irrigation water by collecting that water which runs off the surface of sloping fields and making it available for re-use on the farm.

According to the SCS, tailwater recovery systems are adapted for use and work best on land that is served by a surface irrigation system which has been properly designed and installed. Such a system makes it easier to save soil and water where there is excessive irrigation runoff.

"Tailwater recovery systems can be used in conjunction with either a graded furrow or graded border system," Clark advised.

Storage pipes should be well protected from erosion and damage from rainfall runoff. In addition, sediment traps should be installed where needed.

Some way must be provided to return the collected tailwater to other systems for re-use. This may be either underground or aluminum pipelines or open ditches.

For help in "stretching" your irrigation water through a tailwater recovery system, see any of the SCS technicians assisting the Farmer County Soil and Water Conservation District.
