Border Banter

By Mike Pomper

A wrestler who pinned himself

For awhile, in Germany, I was sports editor of the 3rd Infantry Division (the Marne Division) newspaper. At the end of the year's tenure, I wrote a column about some of the humorous events I had witnessed. I thought you might enjoy it, so here's a rerun of my column entitled "A Checkered Flag" from July 1968:

For you non-military types, "USAREUR" stands for "U.S. Army - Europe." These were the European championships for all Army personnel.)

A weird USAREUR Combat Cross Country race was held in Augsburg last November. The Marne speedsters were favored and hopes were running high for us to capture a USAREUR title. But in setting up the course, someone forgot to properly stake it out. As a result, the top three runners, two of them from our division, got lost and ran miles out of their way. Result: 2nd place.

The team that represented the 3rd Division in the USAREUR Tennis Tournament would best be quietly forgotten. Although a full squad of six was entered, they failed to win even a single match. I must give credit, though, to the two players who did manage to win one set apiece.

I'll always remember the bus driver of the Army team coming from Vicenza, Italy, to Wildflecken, Germany, for a basketball game. She managed to lengthen what is normally a 15-hour trip into 24 hours. And that doesn't count running out of gas 10 miles from Wildflecken.

In the USAREUR boxing finals, Jerry Bonardi's shoe laces became undone. Frantically, he tried to get the ref's attention. His opponent took advantage of Bonardi's inability to maneuver to score points on a variety of punches. The ref finally got the message and stopped the match to tie the laces. Too late. Bonardi lost the decision by a single point.

Paul Risley was having a fine round in the USAREUR Golf Meet. He was two strokes in back of the leader going into the 18th green in the third round. His second shot landed in a sand trap, but he made a magnificent recovery, blasting out to within two feet of the pin. Only problem was that he hit the wrong ball. Seems another golfer on a bordering fairway had sliced his drive into the same bunker. Risley's 8 put him out of contention.

In Bob Jorgenson's first match of the USAREUR Wrestling Tourney, his 4th Armored Division opponent became incensed over one of the ref's calls awarding Jorgenson a point. So the guy flopped down on his back, put his shoulders on the mat and pinned himself.

At a parachute jumping meet in Schweinfurt, one of the planes being used was damaged - while on the ground. A very distraught sky diver not only missed the bull's eye, but managed to plant both his feet through the wing of a plane sitting stationery on the ground.

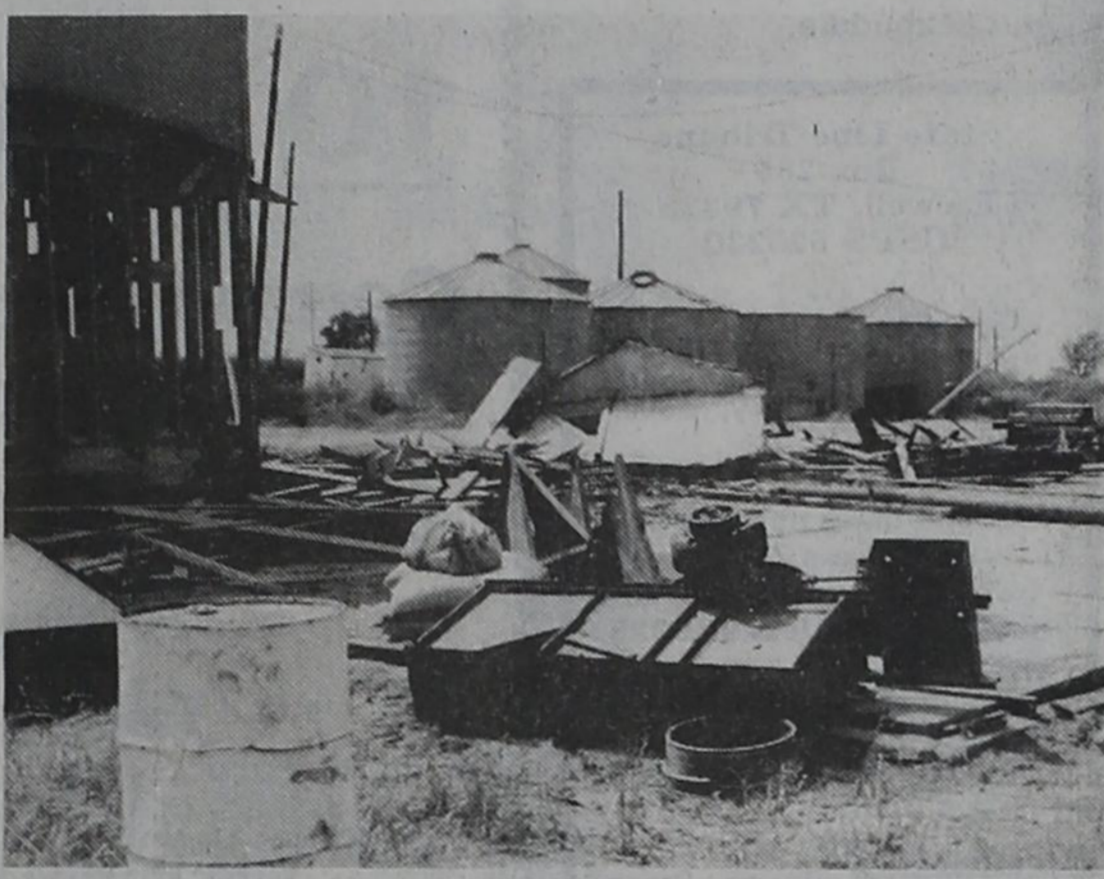

Down in Garmisch, two fellows from the 3rd Armored Division were awaiting their turn to compete in the USAREUR Skiing Championships. Just as they reaching the starting gate, a courier raced up the slope to let them know that the pair had just received orders for Vietnam. I forgot how they did.

And, lastly, there was the time they had to stop play during a USAREUR basketball game. Apparently to get a better view of the match, a tiny 9-month-old baby had crawled out on the court. It was a pretty funny incident since the kid was my daughter, Patty!

Texico cleanup

A major cleanup has been under way this summer at Golden Grain Corp. (formerly Golden West Seed) on the highway in Texico. Jerry Monk, one of Golden Grain's owners, said a couple of more old structures will be torn down before the cleanup is complete. The site is being used to store grain.

Texico discusses zoning problems

The Texico City Council may seek to implement its ordinance dealing with mobile homes and manufactured housing.

At Tuesday's meeting, the council asked City Attorney Duane Hamar to check into the local ordinance and state laws to make sure they can be enforced. He also will check into penalty provisions and who can enforce it.

The topic arose when Mayor Steve Chancy noted that the council had passed the ordinance in 1987 but had never implemented it. Among other things, the ordinance calls for a landscaping plan and an aesthetic review permit for such housing.

"Some of these here now are dangerous fire traps," said Chancy.

In other business, the council:

- Told Hamar to request a hearing with the State

Corporation Commission to find out what Texico still doesn't even have a basic 911 emergency number - and must wait until at least 1991 to get the enhanced 911 number.

- Awarded a contract to a Clovis man to re-stucco the east wall of the community building for $1,900.

- Decided to meet with the cemetery board at its next meeting.

- Received a report on the street patching program. One-half more block will be done before the materials are put away until next year.

- Received a report on the swimming pool attendance. Out of each charge, 10 cents goes to the city, so the city received $264.40.

- Heard councilman Oran Jay Autrey inquire into placing a water fountain at KKR Park. City employees will check into the feasibility.

Kristi Stanton, Sonya Curtis, April Haseloff

Twirlers join band

The twirlers for the Farwell High School Band are Sonya Curtis, April Haseloff and Kristi Stanton.

The three girls bring much twirling expertise to the band - they have 13 yards combined experience. April has been twirling for 6 yards; Sonya 4 and Kristy 3.

Ex-twirlers Tammy Jones and Brenda Jones taught the girls their twirling skills. Now the twirlers, themselves, help each other fine tune their routines. They practice Tuesday and Thursday nights for 3 hours.

Last summer they practiced individually and as a group for 1 to 1 1/2 hours every day. "I enjoy twirling because it relieves tension," said April.

Before performances, Sonya says, "Sometimes I get nervous, but I get absorbed in my twirling and forget the crowd is there."

Tarbet captures 4th grid contest

It looks like the Tribune football contest operator made last week's competition too easy: seven entrants picked all 12 games correctly!

By virtue of being closest to the tie breaker (Jal 22, Texico 0), the $10 first place prize went to Val Tarbet. He was 2 off the tie breaker.

Winning the second place prize of $5 was Jim Berry. He was 8 off the tie breaker.

Others with 12 correct (with the total off the tie breaker in parentheses) were: Joann McDonald (24), D. Holley (27), Chip Grissom (22), Tori Meeks (15), Mark Liethen (22) and Teresa King (23).

With 11 right were: Sharla Blanton, Rita Loflin, Ann Liethen, Fred Libby, Truman Kittrell, Donnie Gustin, Gay Goettsch, Barbara Franse, Richard Carpenter, Theresa Gonzales, Janene Berry, Farwell Ag class (7th period), Esther Arnold, Red Lonsdale, Robbie Williams, Terry Brigham.

Here's a look at the leader board at the one-third mark in the contest:

39 points - Teresa King

38 - Brent Ross

37 - Rhonda Grissom, Dutch Quicke, Dale Rubio, Ryan Williams, Farwell English I (Gregory).

36 - Janene Berry, William Brigham, Rex Crompton, Donnie Gustin, Sammy Hererra, Tori Meeks, Amy Jo Murray, Champ Porter.

35 - Jim Berry, Bill Brigham, Sheree Montgomery, Carl Parker, Tex Smith, Mark Williams, Carl Dean Goettsch.

34 - Sharla Blanton, Roy King, Ann Liethen, Pam Monk, Thad Phillips, Lynn Roberts, Marcus Sullivan.

Results of last week's contests were:

Farwell over Gruver, Denver City over Muleshoe, Bovina over Groom, Clovis over Albq. Highland, Texas Tech over Oklahoma State, Penn State over Boston College, Notre Dame over Michigan State, Baylor over Kansas, Buffalo over Houston, San Francisco over Philadelphia, NY Giants over Phoenix and Washington over Dallas.

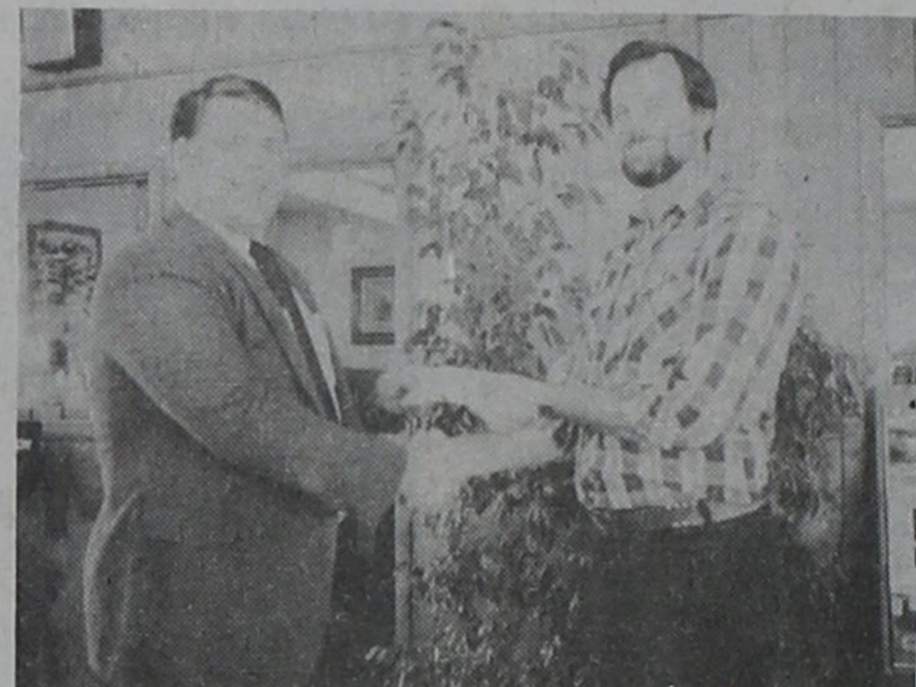

Election approved

The Farwell School District has received verbal approval from the U.S. Justice Department to hold a special election to fill the school board post vacated by Vick Christian, School Supt. John Grigsby said Wednesday.

The election will be held Nov. 7 at the Farwell Community Center in conjunction with the state election.

Persons wishing to file for the post can sign up at the school administration office. To file, a candidate must be a legal resident and registered voter of the school district.

The deadline for filing is 5 p.m. Oct. 9.

Career ladder sways in wind

Tuesday was an off night for the Farwell School Board.

Earlier that day, School Supt. John Grigsby had invited teachers to the board meeting to hear what would be done with the career ladder program.

Eleven teachers and the three principals showed up at 7 p.m. But the board called an executive session and didn't reconvene publicly until 10 p.m.

Executive sessions normally are legal for individual personnel matters, legal problems and land acquisition.

It appears the board discussed the career ladder program and budget reporting procedures in the executive session. District auditor De'Aun Willoughby attended part of the executive session.

It seems some thought that the career ladder program would touch on individual personnel and the budget reporting procedures would do likewise, so the executive session was called for.

At 10 p.m., when the meeting was opened to the public, the teachers present said they had only come to hear what the board intended to do about the career ladder and the method of appraising them.

At 10:10 p.m., the board went back into executive session.

The board re-convened at 11 p.m. and approved a motion to set stricter performance standards for teachers to meet for the career ladder. They raised the standards to 184 (a perfect score) on all 4 levels.

The standards may be reviewed at the end of the school year, and lowered so that a score less than 184 will qualify a teacher for the career ladder if there is money in the budget for that purpose.

President Doyle Johnson noted that the projection from the state calls for $41,000 to come in to the school system for the career ladder. Currently, it would cost $44,000 to fund the career ladder.

Grigsby said Wednesday that if the board had not taken action before the Sept. 30 deadline mandated by the state, it could have cost the local school system over $63,000 for the program. He said this would have added $22,000 to the budget problem.

Board member Roberta Johnson moved that the career ladder be for full time personnel only. The motion passed unanimously.

It was noted that standards for qualifying for the career ladder can be reviewed later and set downward, but they cannot be raised this year once they are set.

Grigsby planned to meet with the teachers Wednesday afternoon to fully explain the board session mix-up.

In other business, the board:

- Accepted the early dismissal days as proposed on the school calendar. Oct. 12, Jan. 18, and April 19, will be early dismissal days so that parents may pick up report cards and meet with teachers. Nov. 22, Dec. 20, and May 31 will be early dismissal days before holidays.

- Accepted the guidelines for making teacher appraisals as proposed by Grigsby.

- Discussed House Bill 82 which sets forth the procedures for changing the taxing methods for the school system. The board had discussed at an earlier meeting the possibility of taxing automobiles as Friona and Bovina do. They indicated that this can wait until next spring.

- Heard High school Principal David Reynolds suggest two proposals.

1) The board passed the first proposal to offer Farwell High School students the option of earning an Advanced High School Honors diploma. Under the new program, English IV-A, Spanish III, Physics, Computer Math, Trigonometry, and Elementary Math Analysis would be designated as honors courses. If a student completed 5 of these 6 classes, they could have their transcript stamped to show that they had completed a program above and beyond the advanced diploma.

2) The board tabled the second proposal, to give local school credit to teacher aides for the work they do for the school. The board tabled it because they wanted to find out if students helped or hurt by dropping elective classes to be aides.

Lazbuddie has tie

Forced to use several freshmen, the Lazbuddie varsity football team fought to a 20-20 tie with Silverton in an away game Sept. 22. The Longhorns are now 1-1-1.

Two starters were out for Lazbuddie - Kevin McGehee, due to a concussion, and Kirk Jesko, due to a back injury, said coach C.W. Williams. Also, some players had the flu.

Lazbuddie opened the scoring in the first quarter with an 18-yard TD run by Eddie Zamora. The kick failed.

In the 2nd quarter, Michael Williams flung a 41-yard TD pass to Doug Barnes. The kick failed.

Then Silverton scored on an 11-yard pass from Kendall Minyard to Denny Hill. The kick failed and Lazbuddie led 12-6 at the half.

In the 3rd quarter, Williams tossed a 28-yard scoring pass to Barnes. Williams also kicked the points after and it was 20-6.

But in the 4th quarter, Silverton came back. First, Wayne Henderson scored from the 6 yard line. The conversion failed.

Then Bradley Brunson barreled over from the 2. Brunson kicked the points after, tying the game.

Floyd turns back Lady Spikers

The Texico Lady Spikers lost a tough match with Floyd, 10-15, 2-15, and 8-15.

"We didn't play overall very well," said Coach Michael Littlejohn. "We need to play better. We didn't play up to our capabilities that night."

Floyd is Texico's nemesis in volleyball. They often vie with one another for district, regional, or state titles.

Jennifer Williams had 1 ace, 13 excellent passes, 2 kills, 2 saves, and 3 blocks. Penny Pierce had 17 excellent passes, 11 kills, 2 saves, and 4 blocks. Valerie Cavallero had 1 ace, 13 excellent passes, 4 saves, 11 assists, and 2 blocks.

Krystala Cross had 5 excellent passes, 2 kills, 2 saves, and 4 blocks. Jennifer Gentry had 1 ace, 16 excellent passes, 7 kills, 2 saves and 4 blocks. Denise Gonzales had 6 excellent passes, 4 saves, 9 assists. Amy Chadwick had 5 excellent passes, and 1 save. Marsha Hamilton had 1 excellent pass.

The team had 12 serving errors, 22 receiving errors, and 18 errors attacking - far more than normal for this team.

Texico plays Tatum on Tuesday, Elida on Thursday, and they will have a special match against Capitan on Friday night. Normally Texico only sees Capitan at the Capitan tournament at the start of the season and occasionally in state playoffs. This year Capitan is playing in the Melrose Tourney on Saturday morning, and they decided to play an extra game. They will play the Lady Spikers in the Wolverine gym on Friday night to get the kinks out after the long bus trip up here to play in Melrose.

Cavallero home from Brazil

"I had a blast," says Sarah Cavallero of her year in Brazil as a Texico - Farwell Rotary Club foreign exchange student. Much as she loved her trip, Sarah was glad to be home.

Sarah's flight home started at 9:45 p.m. on Aug. 5. It took her from Sao Paulo, Brazil to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil to Los Angeles, Calif. to Phoenix, Ariz., to Albuquerque, N.M. Her family met her at the Albuquerque airport, and greeted her with lots of hugs and tears. It was late in the evening on Aug. 6 before she was home in her own bed again.

The Cavalleros celebrated Sarah's arrival by eating a pizza in Albuquerque because American style pizza was a food that Sarah had missed.

"In Brazil they make it different. They have a thin crust, and they put eggs on it. They use a cheese like cream cheese and they put corn on pizza," she explains. She quickly adds that Brazilian pizza is good- it's just different from American pizza.

Another thing Sarah missed during her months away from the U.S. was Dr Pepper. She could get other soft drinks in Brazil, but she never found Dr Pepper there. Little things mean a lot when you are far from home.

According to Sarah there were some little habits that she had that "freaked out" her hosts. "They thought it was really strange that I'd eat catsup on everything like meat or french fries." And, her hosts were surprised when she put ice in her drinks. "They drink everything warm. They buy milk in plastic sacks or boxes that you leave on a shelf. They add chocolate syrup or strawberry syrup to their warm milk. I'd add ice cubes to mine." Learning to appreciate each other's differences is part of the foreign exchange experience.

Sarah learned to enjoy the wonderful fresh fruits available in Brazil, some of which are not available in this part of the U.S. And, she learned to enjoy the daily luncheons that featured several types of barbecued meats along with beans and rice. She will especially miss the pleasant evenings she spent with friends playing games or singing along to guitar music. Sarah is glad to be home with her old friends and family, but she will miss her Brazilian friends and host families, too.

Many things seemed unfamiliar to Sarah when she returned home to the U.S. She was surprised by several little every day things about her home country that she had never noticed as a child growing up in the U.S.

"It was weird hearing everybody speaking English," she says.

She also noted that people here look different than they do in Brazil. "It was strange to see so many blondes again," she laughed. She also noted that, "the Brazilians are very relaxed and natural. They don't wear a lot of eye makeup. They just wear lipstick. They just take a shower and fluff their hair a little bit." Sarah noted that it was really strange to see American girls at the airports here spraying their hair with hair spray and applying layers of makeup. Yet, it was something she herself had done just a few months before.

While Sarah was in Brazil, she lived with three different host families. Each was different, and each taught her about Brazilian life. By living with three different families she was able to learn which traits were common in the Brazilian culture, and which were particular to one family.

She also learned to speak Portuguese while she was there. "Everyone says it is similar to Spanish, but I don't really speak much Spanish."

"I can understand everything people say to me in Portuguese and I can usually say what I mean pretty well, but writing is a lot harder." Sarah found spelling and conjugating verbs especially tricky in Portuguese.

"Because I had graduated from high school before I left Texico, I did not have to take my classes for credit in Brazil. I only took tests to see how my Portuguese was coming along." This took pressure off her and allowed her to enjoy her stay in Brazil.

At times on her first day back in the United States, Portuguese came to her tongue more easily than English did. Shifting from one language to another made her exclaim, "I can't think of the word!" a few times. At other times a Portuguese phrase would come out of her mouth before the English equivalent would.

Steers score 2nd whitewash of the season

The Farwell Steers improved their record to 3-0 with a 20-0 whitewash of Gruver at Amarillo Saturday.

It was the second Steer shutout of the season. Farwell hosts Hereford JV tonight (Friday).

"Defensively I felt we played real well. We controlled what they did best. Their top receiver coming into the game caught only one ball. We also took the run away from them. They averaged only 3 yards per snap," said Coach Rex Cumpston.

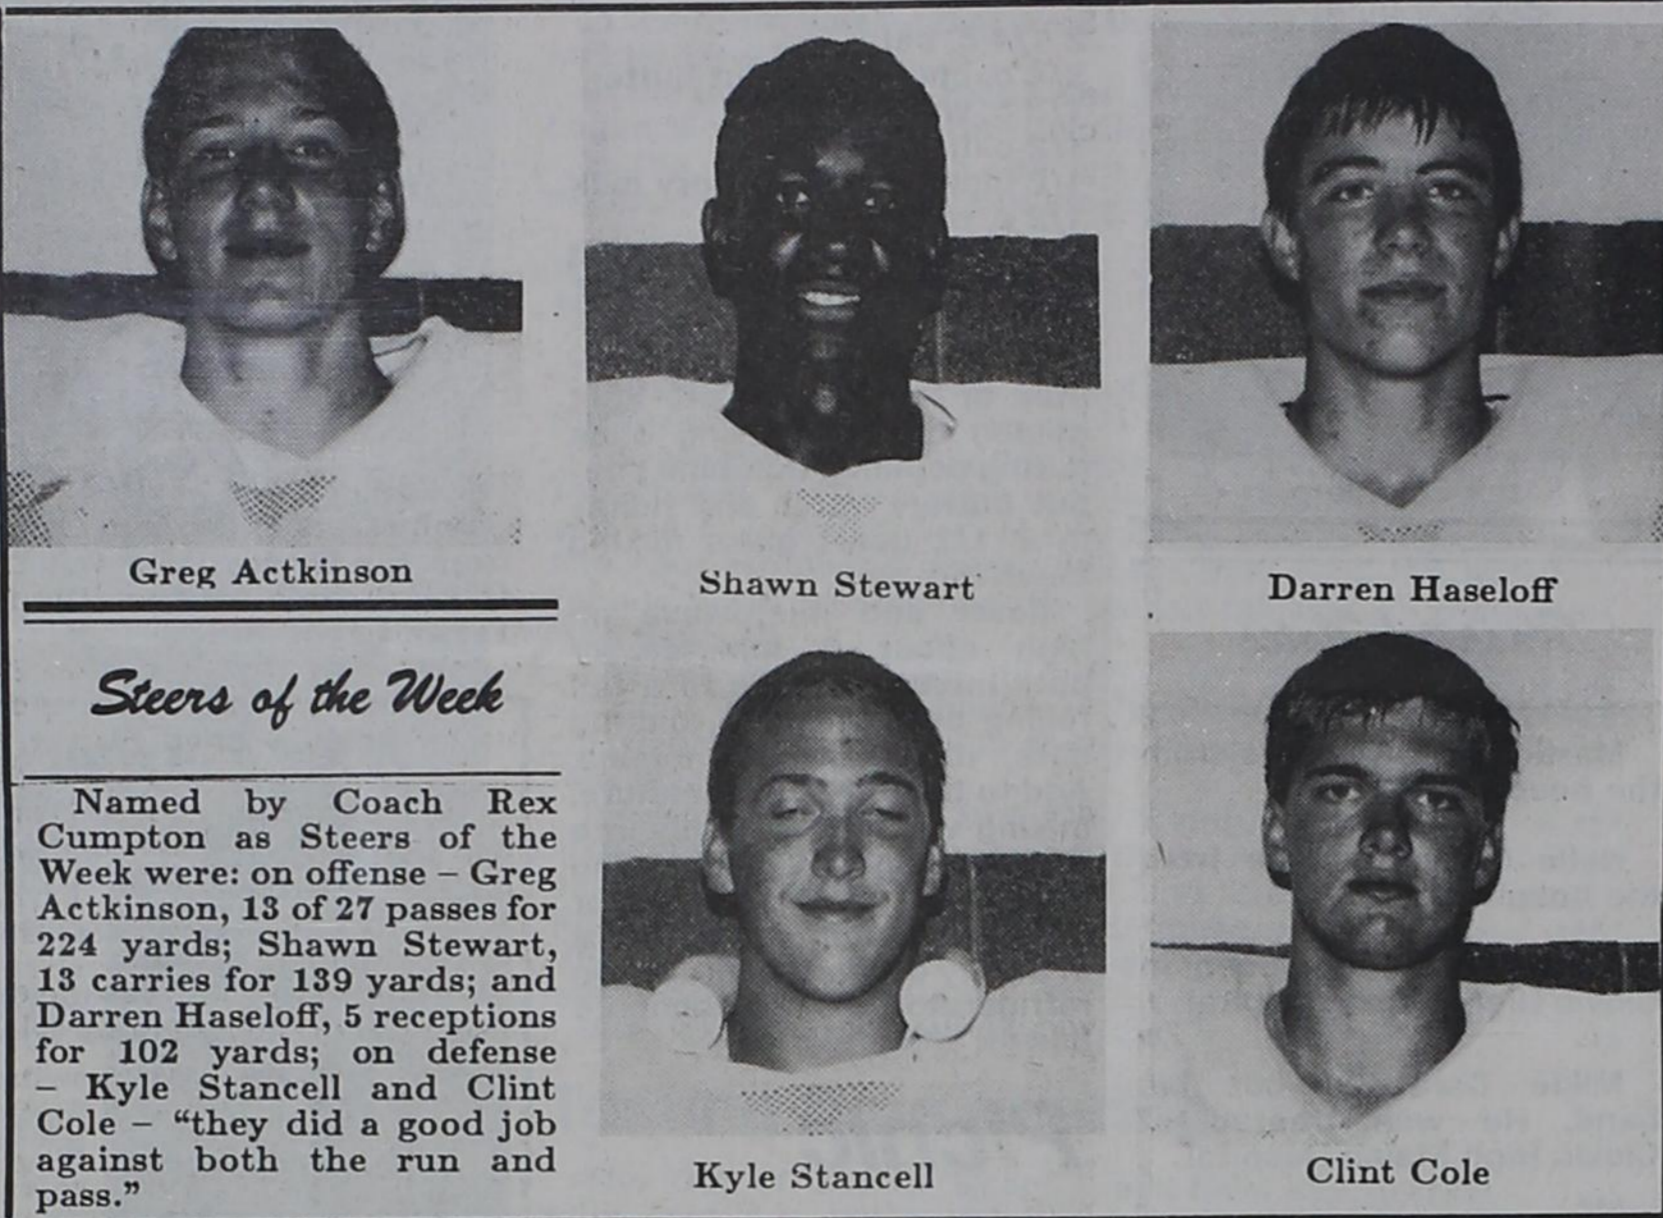

"Offensively, we made a lot of yards but didn't capitalize. We also were responsible for too many turnovers. We had six penetrations and scored 3 TDs. We need to improve on that. The yardage production was good but we need to put it into the end zone."

Farwell kicked off and held Gruver. Farwell was stopped on an interception. But a QB sack stopped Gruver.

Chad Byrd returned a punt to the Steer 30. Monty Delgado caught a pass but a fumble was lost on the 50. Farwell got the ball back on its 34.

Runs by Clint Kelley, Shawn Stewart and Greg Actkinson, plus a pass interference call helped the Steers move downfield until being stopped on the Gruver 20. But Gruver fumbled and Farwell recovered on the 5.

Kelley rambled 4 yards to

Steers of the Week

Named by Coach Rex Cumpston as Steers of the Week were: on offense - Greg Actkinson, 13 of 27 passes for 224 yards; Shawn Stewart, 13 carries for 139 yards; and Darren Haseloff, 5 receptions for 102 yards; on defense - Kyle Stancell and Clint Cole - "they did a good job against both the run and pass."

the 1 and Delgado punched it over at 1:48 of the first quarter. The kick was missed.

In the second quarter, Greg Actkinson had the first of his three interceptions at the Steer 35. A reception by Delgado and runs by Actkinson moved the ball to the Gruver 10 before a lost fumble.

Gruver punted and Farwell moved to the Gruver 27 on a 4th down reception by Darren Haseloff. Farwell was stymied on the Gruver 18.

Actkinson's 2nd interception gave the Steers good field position but were held again.

Actkinson then picked off his third Gruver pass. He then passed the ball to Byrd and Haseloff to get the ball to the Gruver 19. Byrd ran for 9 but the Steers were stopped at the 11 at the half.

The third quarter opened with a bang - Stewart had a 77-yard TD run at 11:42. The 2 point attempt failed.

After Gruver punted, Farwell moved again on runs by Delgado, Actkinson and Haseloff - who broke several tackles in getting to the half-yard line. Delgado went over for the TD at 6:32. The extra point run by Stewart was good.

Although there was no more scoring, some individual stand-out plays were made: Stewart and Byrd recovered fumbles, Joel Smith made some good runs, Haseloff had an interception and quarterback sacks were made by Clint Cole and Kyle Stancell.

Team statistics were:

Rushing - Farwell 40 for 211 yards; Gruver, 25 for 51; passing - Farwell 13 of 28 for 224 yards; Gruver 10 of 32 for 127 yards; first downs - Farwell 21, Gruver 12; penalties - Farwell, 6 for 45 yards; Gruver, 3 for 35; punts - Farwell 2 for 33 yard ave.; Gruver, 6 for 27 yard ave.

Individual statistics were: Rushing: Stewart, 14 carries for 139 yards; Kelley, 9 for 27; Delgado, 5 for 14; Actkinson, 10 for 49; Smith, 2 for 16; and Byrd, 1 for 9.

Receiving: Delgado, 3 for 59; Stewart, 2 for 1; Haseloff, 5 for 102; Byrd, 3 for 62.

Producers upgrade their efficiencies

Approximately 150 producers within the 15-county High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 have upgraded their irrigation application and distribution efficiencies since 1985 with funds from the Pilot Agricultural Water Conservation Equipment Loan Program. The improved efficiencies have resulted in water savings in excess of 25,000 acre-feet of water.

The program can best be illustrated by describing how one irrigator eliminated annual water losses of 159 acre-feet by upgrading his irrigation system from furrow irrigation to a seven-tower LEPA center pivot system. He previously had open ditch losses from deep percolation and evaporation of about 25 acre-feet per year before the water reached the field. Deep percolation and evaporation from the furrow stream equaled about 125 acre-feet of the water that was delivered to the field. Tailwater runoff from this farm had been about nine acre-feet per year.

By changing his irrigation methods from furrow irrigation to a LEPA center pivot system and eliminating open ditch and tailwater losses, this irrigator was able to realize an annual groundwater savings of 144 acre-feet - even though the LEPA system had a water loss of 15 acre-feet. Water savings of almost 1,500 acre-feet should be realized during the LEPA sprinkler system's 10 or more year life expectancy. Fuel and labor costs are also reduced as a result of the improved water application efficiency.

"Considering that one acre-foot of water is equal to covering an acre of land with water one foot deep, the groundwater saved through the Pilot Agricultural Water Conservation Loan Program is quite significant," says Ken Carver, High Plains Water District Assistant Manager. Deep percolation, evaporation and tailwater runoff have historically resulted in high water losses for irrigators on the Texas High Plains. By taking advantage of the low-interest loans available through the Pilot Loan Program, producers have purchased water conservation equipment such as underground pipelines, surge valves and center pivot irrigation systems to reduce these water losses to a very minimum.

In 1985, the Texas Legislature approved the Pilot Agricultural Water Conservation Equipment Loan Program. A two-year time limit was given to evaluate the pilot program; and in 1987, the legislature extended the evaluation period to August 1989.

Thanks to everyone for their prayers, cards, flowers, visits and concern during Martin's hospitalization.

Texico PTO holds 1st meeting

Texico Elementary School PTO held its first meeting on Sept. 14.

Mr. Schwartz's class presented a program which included a sing-along.

The PTO will sponsor a reading club at the school to encourage the children to read more. They will provide refreshments for all the children who read a specified number of books.

There will be a party for kindergarten and 1st grade children, and one for 2nd and 3rd grade, and another for 4th and 5th grade children.

Principal Joel Pate spoke for a few minutes about the importance of reading at home. Among the important points he made for the group is that "most children will learn how to read. Whether they will read depends in part upon encouragement from their parents."

"Independent reading is probably a major source of vocabulary growth. A synthesis of available evidence suggests that children in grades three through twelve learn the meaning of about 3,000 words a year. One group of researchers has argued that, beyond the third grade, children acquire the majority of the new words they learn incidentally while reading books and other materials."

Pate noted that in our society, "reading is a basic life skill." He hopes that the reading club will help encourage reading, and that the parents will help the reading club help their children.

The PTO will continue its ongoing program of upgrading the playground. A committee of about six dads was formed to help build some equipment later this school year.

Farwell finishes 16th

The Farwell Cross Country team participated along with over 300 youths from Class 1A, 2A, and 3A schools around the area last weekend in Hereford.

Robin Ray finished the 2 mile ladies' course 38th, and Amy Murray finished 74th.

Dickey Sosa placed 32nd on the 3 mile course for the fellows. Phillip Valdez finished 54th.

"We finished 16th as a team out of 19 teams, but that was better than we have done in the past," said coach

Fred Libby. "We ran real well and bettered ourselves."

Katrina Stewart, Rosa Lara, Molly Miller, Angela Cenicerros, and Sharla Lingnau also competed for Farwell.

The Farwell Cross Country Team will run in a cross country meet at Thompson Park in Amarillo.

Scholarship info handy

Farwell Counselor Carol Sullivan reports that she has information about several scholarships in her office.

She will be meeting with seniors to find out what school they are interested in attending, and what they plan to study. It is easier to get scholarships if the students know what they plan to do.

She passed along the following information:

- Saturday, Oct. 7 is High School Seniors Day at Baylor University.

- Oct. 21 is Junior - Senior Day at ENMU, Portales.

- The military services have ROTC Scholarships available for those who plan to join a branch of the military.

- Seniors interested in a career in government services might be interested in applying for the Washington Crossing Foundation Scholarship.

- There is a Century 3 Leaders Program Scholarship available, but applications are due by Oct. 19.

- There is also a full scholarship exchange program for a student who would like to spend their sophomore or junior year of high school living in Germany as part of the Congress - Bundestag Youth Program. The deadline for applications is Nov. 4, 1989.

Mrs. Sullivan stressed that there are lots of scholarships available, but most come through the colleges. It is important to start your scholarship search early.

Birthday

Mrs. Ebb Randol celebrated her 90th birthday Sept. 23 with her daughters, Madeline Spurlin of Olton and Wessie Edwards of Clovis and grand-daughter Nina Williams of Olton. Her birthday is Sept. 27.

Wood collected

The Farwell freshman class is collecting wood for the annual homecoming bonfire.

Anyone who has wood to donate should call class parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Lingnau, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kirkland, or Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Pool, so that it can be picked up.

Fire Calls

The Texico Fire Department ambulance answered two calls.

On Sept. 23, Texico answered a call to assist an ill person 6 miles south on State Line Road at 6:34 a.m. MDT.

On Sept. 24, Texico assisted a fall victim at 410 Hudson at 7:21 p.m. MDT.

Time to start shredding

"It is time for all C.R.P. participants to begin shredding to control weeds that will cause off-site damage. All fields that need to control damaging weeds will be shredded by Sept. 30," said to John Fancher of the Soil Conservation Service.

"I would encourage anyone who has a question about if their land needs shredding to call our office at 247-2220." If the land is not shredded by Sept. 30, it will be in danger of being in non-compliance and turned over to ASCS for further action, Fancher said.

Screening set

During October, the Clovis High Plains Radiology Department and Dr. Martin Goodwin's office will offer screening mammograms for Texico School employees.

Wolverines stopped

By JANICE JENKINS

The Texico Wolverines were defeated 22-0 Sept. 21 by Jal.

The Wolverine defense had a hard time stopping Jal the first quarter and Jal was able to score 14 points.

Their first TD was by No. 33; the kick was no good. Then No. 22 scored and they ran in their extra points for a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Texico's defense was able to hold Jal scoreless in the 2nd and 3rd quarters but the offense was not able to move the ball. Texico had minus 25 yards rushing to Jal's 151. But Texico was stronger on passing yardage as the Wolverines made 97 yards to Jal's 35.

In the 4th quarter, with 10:26 left on the clock, Jal struck again when No. 22 scored a third and final TD of the game. Again, Texico's offense was unable to score. Texico's Benjy McDaniel had five completions to receivers Greg Akers, Joe Pierce and Mark Holmes. He flipped one pass to Holmes who then passed to Warren Martin. Larry Powell threw one completion to receiver Pete Fuentes and gave the Wolverines' 6 completed passes to Jal's one.

Texico will be traveling to Springer Saturday.

Team statistics were:
 First downs - Texico 4, Jal 10; net yards rushing, Texico, -25; Jal, 151; net yards passing, Texico 97, Jal 35; net yards gained, Texico 72, Jal 186; passes, Texico 6 for 21, Jal 1 for 8; passes intercepted by, Jal 2; punts and average, Texico 5 for 33 yard ave., Jal 5 for 32 yard ave.; fumbles recovered, Texico 2, Jal 1; penalties and yards penalized, Texico 8 for 30, Jal 10 for 100.

Individual statistics were:
 Rushing: Fuentes, 7 yards; Pierce, 17; Hector Orozco, 7; McDaniel, -15; Powell, -8; Holmes, -4.

Receiving: Akers, 1 for 40 yards; Martin, 1 for 39; Fuentes, 1 for 8; Pierce, 1 for 4; Holmes, 2 for 6.

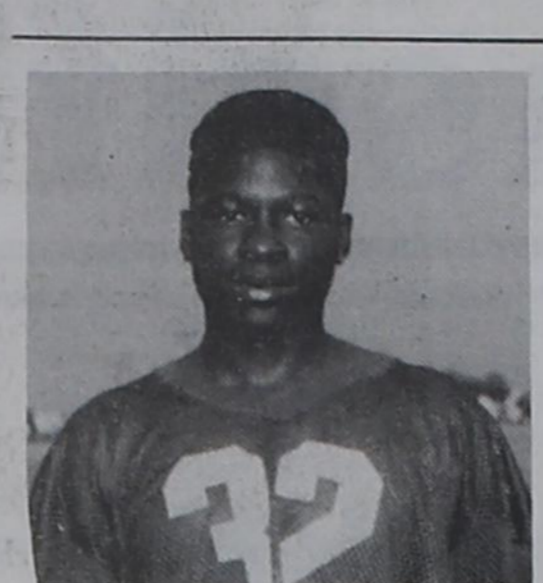

"We didn't play very well," said coach Richard Luscombe "We didn't block well offensively or defensively. Jal wasn't that much better of a team than we were."

"We passed the ball better against Jal than we did in previous games, but we were forced to throw."

"We had some kids home sick with the flu; I expect that they will be back in shape by our next game," said Luscombe.

Texico Junior High football team has a 1-1 record. They beat Marshall, but lost to Yucca.

Wolverine of the Week

Mark Holmes is the Wolverine of the Week. He had two important receptions and he threw for 40 yards in the game against Jal.

"They are working hard. It takes a little while to get everything going," said coach Richard Luscombe. "They are trying hard and they have a good attitude."

Texico plays Melrose on Sept. 28.

The Texico Junior High Student Council raised money through a bake sale for one of their service projects. Sky Byrum, middle, is shown passing out pencils the Student Council bought and distributed to everyone at Texico with the slogan "Say No to Drugs" on them. Cade Christian and Shilo Thornton are shown receiving the pencils. They are in Mrs. Rucker's first grade class.

Fund-raisers held
 Texico Junior High School has started the school off with 2 money-making projects, a bake sale and a sale of picture buttons.
 The money from the bake sale will be used to purchase pencils which bear the message "Just say no to drugs," for every person in the school system.
 The money from the picture button sale will go toward the baskets given to the needy at Christmas time. This is an annual project that the Junior High Student Council conducts.

Trips changed
 The Texico sixth grade students will be taking a writing assessment test Oct. 3 and 4.
 The Texico band has cancelled its annual trip to march in the Aspendade parade because it conflicted with a football game. The band goes instead to the Eastern New Mexico State Fair in Roswell.

Higher taxes?
 Farwell Mayor Chris Gikas said someone has put out posters saying Farwell residents are paying for a marshal but don't have one. He said residents are not paying for a city marshal and if they want a marshal it will mean higher taxes.

Texico's Burnett honored

Principal Ken Shaw of Texico High School announced that Virginia Burnett has been named a Commended Student in the 1990 National Merit Scholarship Program.

A letter of commendation from the school and the 1990 National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which conducts the competition, will be presented to this outstanding senior.

About 35,000 Commended Students nationwide are being honored for their outstanding performance on the 1988 PSAT/NMSQT, which ranks them in the top five percent of more than one million students who entered the 1990 Merit Program by taking the qualifying test. Commended students scored slightly below the level required to continue in the 1990 competition for Merit Scholarships, but they have shown exceptional academic promise.

Webb to receive degree

Mrs. Jamie Webb of Little Rock, Ark., was selected as a new member of Outstanding College Students of America by the OCSA staff at Washington, D.C.

She was picked due to her "outstanding merit and accomplishment as an American college student."

She will be listed among the top college students in the U.S. in the OCSA directory.

Mrs. Webb will receive her master's degree in "Masters in Education of Hearing Impaired Children."

She is the daughter of Mike and Darlene McManigal of Mabelvale, Ark., formerly of Farwell.

Grandparents are Audie McManigal of Mabelvale, formerly of Farwell, and Charlie and Gladys Hromas of Farwell.
