Border Banter

By Mike Pomper

Way to go, Craig Zinck

Since my son is a Farwell band student, we got a letter from Craig Zinck, Farwell band director, last week notifying us of the practice scheduled for band members so they can march in the parade.

I think I can speak for many Farwell residents when I say how pleased I am that a Farwell band director is taking the time to try and get some students in the parade. Texico has done an outstanding job at having their band march each year. Without it, the BTD parade would have been lacking in music (except for Gladys Hardage's callopie).

Oddly enough, this year might not see the Texico band perform due to the sudden resignation of Jerry Sadberry, Texico band director, because of illness in the family.

I ran into Zinck at a restaurant last week and he said he would call Texico Schools and offer his services.

That's the true BTD spirit!

We'd like to congratulate the local Scholar - Athletes that were named by the U.S. Army Reserve.

The list they sent the Tribune includes Bovina's Denver Riddle and Joanna Clayton and Lazbuddie's Scott Miller and Jonessa Jennings.

We reported earlier that Texico's Leslie Steward, Tracey Askew, Andria Chadwick, Brett Patrick, and Keith Harrison received scholastic athlete awards from either the U.S. Army or the U.S. Marines.

Nobody from Farwell was listed.

There are 23 exhibitors now signed up for the arts and crafts fair at Border Town Days, said committee chairman Lynne Mahaney.

Anyone else who wants to display their hand made wares at BTD July 29 should contact Mrs. Mahaney at the Farwell post office.

The number of booths signed up for the Day in the Park at BTD has climbed to 16.

The latest signups are: Pleasant Hill 4-H, hot dogs and lemonade; and Knights of Columbus, hamburgers, and taco and tamale plates.

I ran into David Lynn this week.

Why did he resign as Texico Elementary School principal and take a coaching post at Hagerman? For the obvious reason: he wanted to return to coaching.

For you Tribune readers who no longer live in this area:

We hit a heat wave this week. The temperature Monday in Lubbock was 105 degrees. I don't think Texico - Farwell was far behind.

Clark Stanley will celebrate his 70th birthday in the Farwell City Park on July 29 at Border Town Days. Stop by to wish him happy birthday, and you might get a piece of his birthday cake.

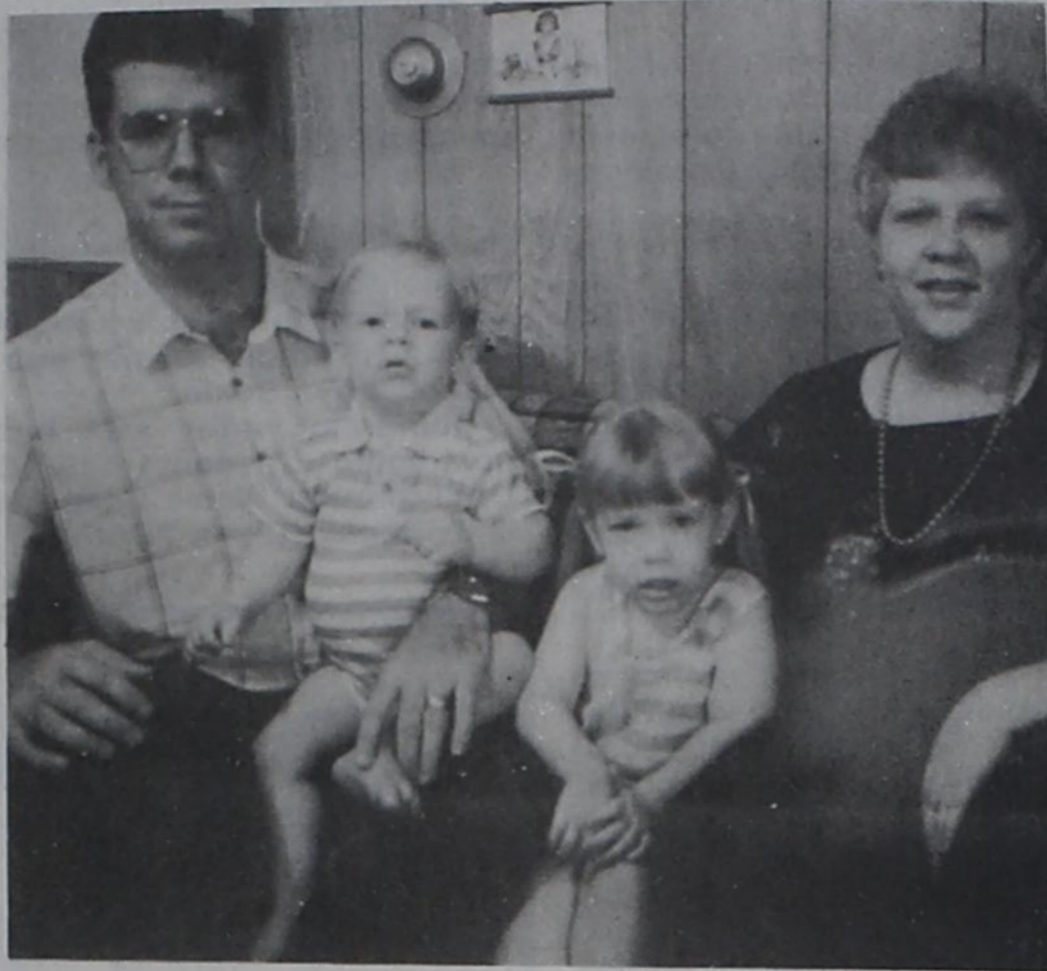

Tom Paul McCuan brought in some pages from The Clarke Courier, which is the newspaper for Clarke County, Va.

Tom Paul's son, John, is principal of Boyce School in Berryville, Va., and one of the articles mentions him several times.

The articles were especially interesting for us because we lived in Virginia for 5 years. We have visited the western part of the state where McCuan lives.

The area has been farmland for a centuries, and

Echols new minister here

Bro. David Echols, the new preacher at the Church of Christ in Farwell, is the son and the grandson of preachers.

He has to scratch his head a bit when he is asked where he comes from because his family moved around quite a bit when he was young. Most of the places he mentioned were in Texas.

Echols has lived in towns smaller than Farwell and in cities. He believes that he can adjust to whatever comes along. But, he has been very pleasantly impressed with the Twin cities so far.

"It's a nice clean community, and the people are friendly," he says.

Bro. Echols quickly told about the pounding the church gave for the family, and the help they had received moving in to the parsonage.

"It must have taken me 12 hours to load the U-Haul by myself. When we arrived here, the congregation unloaded it in about 1 1/2 hours. They took care of everything, and then they served us a big lunch at the church."

Echols attended the Brown Trail School of preaching for 2 years and Abilene Christian University for 3 years. It was at ACU that he met his wife, Jonalee. They have been married for 7 years.

Mrs. Echols is a 1980 graduate of Clovis High School. She is happy that their two children, Kaylen, 3, and Cameron, 14 months, will be close to their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Maberry of Clovis.

Mrs. Echols says that most of her activities revolve around their children at this point in their lives. Bro. Echols enjoys gardening and fishing when he can find the time.

Bro. Echols has had a number of church related experiences in the past few years. He also has 5 years experience working in banking. He enjoyed the experience in the trust and estate planning department, but "At church, I try to leave the financial matters to others."

Bro. Echols has a few goals in mind in his work with the congregation. He would like to see the congregation develop what it has here. He'd like to see an increased participation and commitment by all of the members. He would like to help develop the leadership abilities of the members of the congregation. And when those things are done, he would like to see some growth in the size of the congregation.

Right now his immediate goals include getting to know people in the community, and discovering what is here. He is also establishing a routine for studying, and visiting members of the congregation, and other facets of the preacher's work.

Teachers Dunn, Cooper resign

Resignations from teacher Diane Cooper and Nita Dunn were accepted by the Farwell School Board Tuesday night. Both are accepting teaching positions in New Mexico.

The board voted to petition Parmer County for the release of $14,979 of permanent school funds to be used on the window replacement project. The windows have not been energy efficient in the past. Board member Katherine White cast the only dissenting vote.

The board also accepted a bid from the Bible Baptist Church of San Antonio for the sale of a 1974 school bus.

In other business, the board: - Voted to accept the same student accident insurance coverage company as they have used in the past.

Chamber plans auction to help renovations

The Texico Chamber of Commerce continued its work of helping fix up the city's community center Monday.

On the heels of a successful garage sale last weekend, the Chamber voted to have an auction July 22 to raise more funds for the renovation.

The auction will be at 10 a.m. MDT at the community center. Brent Byrum has volunteered to be auctioneer. Items left from the garage sale, plus more items being donated, will be auctioned off.

Persons wishing to donate items for the auction are asked to call Lewis or Ann Cooper and arrange a pickup.

Chamber secretary - treasurer Ann Cooper reported the garage sale brought in $1,185. Plus, the Texico Volunteer Fire Department donated $500 toward the renovation (this money came from the department's recreation fund - no tax money is involved).

The estimated costs the Chamber are looking at are these: $2,500 to repair the inside walls; $1,800 for new floor tile, plus bathroom and door work. Thus, the Chamber already has raised $2,685 toward this.

Also, the city has earmarked $2,500 for center repairs. The city has said it will fix the outside east wall, which badly needs repairs.

In discussing the garage sale held at the center, Mrs. Cooper said she was surprised that it needed a lot of cleaning before the sale. Lewis Cooper will attend a City Council meeting and say that the center should be checked by city employees before the $25 deposits are returned so that groups using it clean it properly afterward.

Coleman home from hospital

Bovina Chief of Police Gary Coleman is home from the hospital, and "looks good," in spite of being shot in the face last week.

According to Parmer County Sheriff Rex Williams, Coleman had stopped a vehicle driven by Travis Gene Lambert, 24, of De Soto, Mo., about 11:30 p.m. on July 13 because the vehicle had only one headlight working.

A check of the vehicle's license plate showed an irregularity - either the vehicle or its license plate had been stolen.

Coleman directed Lambert to sit in the back of the police patrol car while he walked to the truck to search it. He returned to the patrol car to ask Lambert about some shells that were in the vehicle.

As Coleman bent over beside the police vehicle, Lambert allegedly shot him in the face. The bullet traveled through the officer's sinus cavity, nose and throat.

Lambert escaped from the vehicle while the officer was down. Coleman reportedly recovered quickly enough to shoot the fleeing man in the leg twice in spite of the fact that the officer's glasses had been blown off his face when he was shot.

Coleman reportedly walked up to Lambert and disarmed the man. The weapon was, according to Williams, still loaded with one bullet in the chamber, and one in the clip. The weapon was put in the patrol car.

While Coleman was inspecting the weapon and putting it in the patrol car, Lambert fled.

Williams arrived minutes after the shooting while Coleman was being loaded into an ambulance.

"It made me feel good that so many people responded that quickly," said Williams. It is estimated that 17 law enforcement officers from at least 7 different agencies in two states responded to the call for assistance. "It was really amazing the way people responded to it."

It took about 4 hours before Lambert surrendered. He was discovered atop a building in Bovina.

Lambert has been charged with attempted capitol murder. Bond is set at $150,000. The case is pending before the grand jury.

Farwell Farm Supply expands operations

Farwell Farm Supply has expanded its operation to house DORL, Inc., which manufactures floats to level the ground before plowing.

The floats are manufactured from high tensile strength steel.

"We need steel with 100,000 lbs. of tensile strength to build farm equipment that will last," said production manager Waverly Coates.

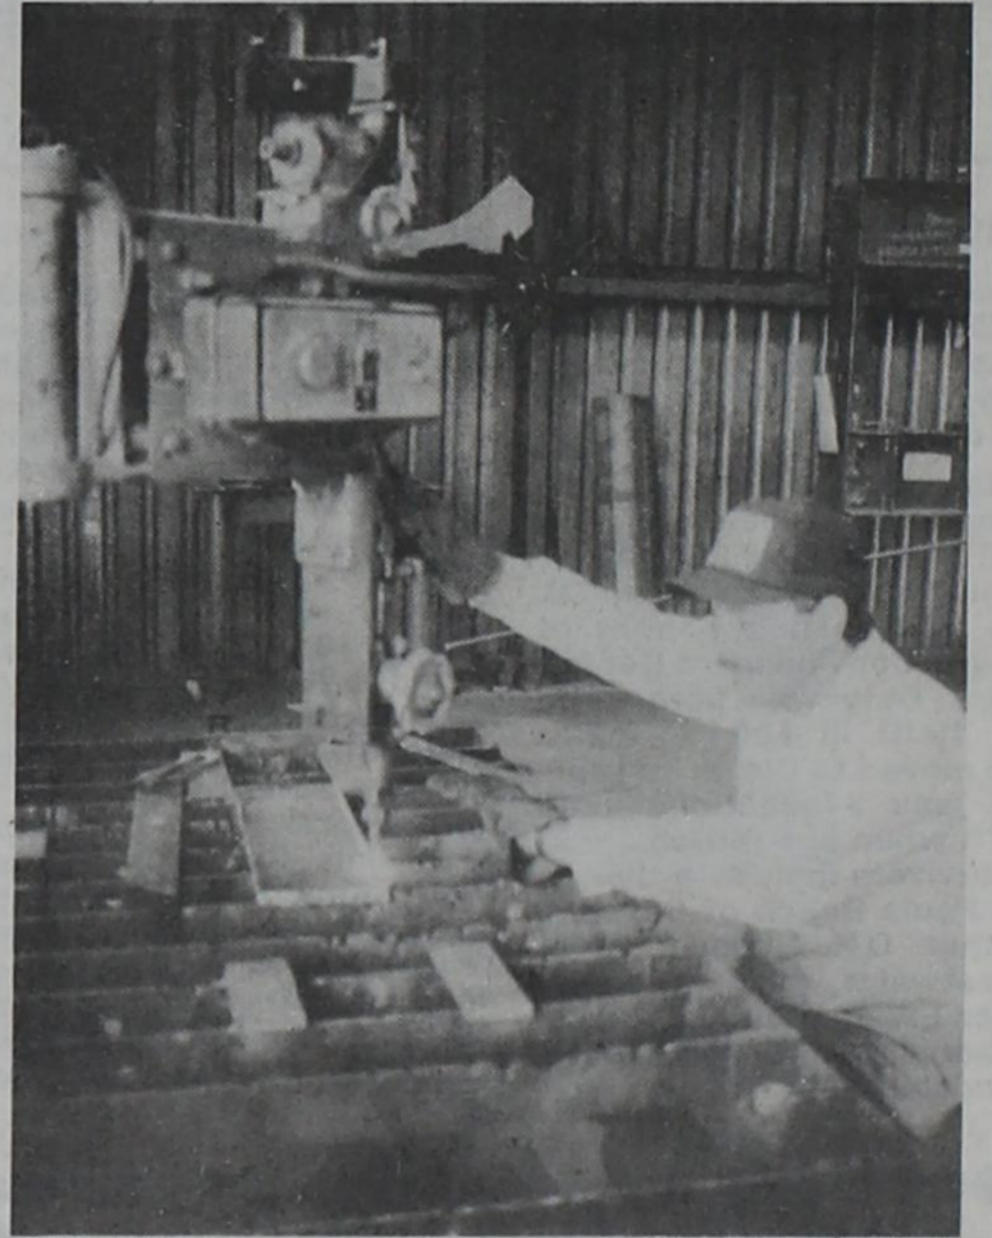

DORL began manufacturing the farm equipment about one year ago. About six months later they started making tool bars as well.

The farm equipment can be manufactured to suit the needs of the farmer. The floats come in 20', 24' and 28' widths normally, but they can also be manufactured to the buyers specifications. They can also be painted to match the color of other equipment that the farmer owns.

DORL also repairs broken farm equipment. They repair shredders, wheat drills, and other equipment.

"We'll build or repair anything," says Coates confidently.

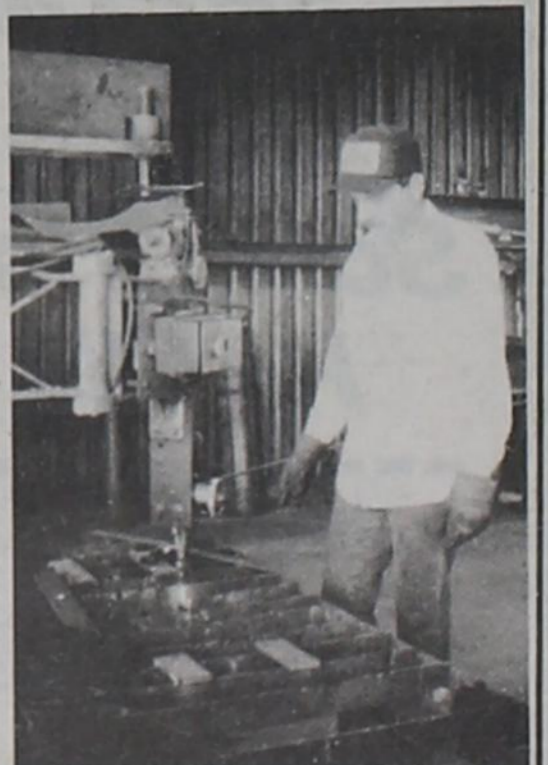

DORL's staff includes: Floyd, Kendale and Waverly Coates, Bob Gerles, Louie Longoria, Rene Terrazas, Felix Vega - Loya, and Lorrie Haseloff.

Bob Gerles adjusts the flame on the pattern torch.

Rene Terrazas paints the assembled pieces

Once the torch is set up, all you have to do is step back and watch it cut the piece of metal.

New bike top prize of contest

All area youngsters are reminded that registration starts Monday for the Border Town Days Decorated Bike Contest at Texico City Hall.

This year offers a special incentive: Ted Lopez of Tedson Trailers is donating a brand new bike to the winner of "Best of Show" - the bike judged as best decorated regardless of age category.

This year's BTD theme is "Around the World in One Day."

Everything is ready at the city hall in Texico for registration," says Ann Cooper, who is in charge of the bike contest.

The registration deadline is 3 p.m. Friday, July 28.

She said that youths planning to enter the decorated bike contest in the parade need to register, giving their name and age, if they are to be eligible for cash prizes to be awarded.

In addition to the new bike, prizes totaling $50 will be awarded.

No motorized bikes will be allowed in the bicycle contest.

All riders must have their bikes at the empty lot west of "Little Mexico" at 9:45 a.m. Texas time, and line up for judging on the southwest corner of the lot.

"You must be on time or you will not be judged," added Mrs. Cooper.

Other rules are:
* All participants must continue to Farwell city park, and then park their bikes. No riding will be allowed in the park area. A bicycle rack will be provided in back of the First Baptist Church.

* You must be present at the park to receive your cash prize.

There will be two divisions in the judging:

Division A: Best decorated bike, ages 7 - 12.

Division B: Best decorated bike, ages 6 and under.

Judging will be based 50 percent on originality and theme; 30 percent on neatness, and 20 percent on use of color.

Judges will be Frank Murray, Kenneth Jones and Rusty Mears, members of the Clovis Rotary Club.

Water tests important

Heavy rainfall runoff from thunderstorms can transport contaminants into rural domestic water wells through cracks in pumpbases or through rodent holes.

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 urges rural residents who depend on groundwater for their drinking water supply to have an annual bacteriological test of their domestic water wells to ensure their family's health.

Dan Seale, High Plains Water District Engineer - Technician, has investigated several cases where rodent holes and other openings have allowed contaminants to enter domestic water wells.

"I checked a well in a garage and found nothing about its outward appearance to suggest a contamination source. Yet the well owner specifically complained that the water was muddy whenever it rained. After closer examination, I found places where the rainfall runoff from an adjacent cow lot was entering the well through rodent holes. Proper chlorination has made this once - contaminated well safe to drink from," says Seale.

Upon request, the High Plains Water District samples domestic well water for contamination within its 15 county service area. The testing will detect the presence of fecal coliform bacteria from the intestines of warm - blooded animals.

When a bacteriological test reveals fecal coliform bacteria, Seale says the first priority is to notify persons to quit drinking the contaminated water and switch to bottled water. "After the persons are on an alternate water source, we try to identify the contamination source and make recommendations to solve the problem. Once the contamination source has been removed, we recommend chlorination of the entire water distribution system from the well to the faucet," he says.

If the contamination has been removed, the chlorination will normally disinfect most wells and make the water safe for use. If the contamination source still exists, the well may become recontaminated.

Seale says wells that tested positive for fecal coliform bacteria should be sampled immediately after chlorination, as well last six months later, to be sure that the contamination source has been eliminated.

"The best advice I can give people is not to put anything in their well houses that they don't want ending up in their water supply. People shouldn't store any fertilizers, herbicides or pesticides near their well sites. Also, it's important that people keep their well houses clean. Allowing things to stack up may provide rats with an ideal nesting place," says Seale.

Domestic water well bacteriological sampling may be scheduled by contacting Dan Seale at the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District office, 2930 Ave. Q, Lubbock, Texas 79405 or by calling (806) 762-0181.

Paper

now the sprawl of Washington, D.C. is starting to encroach upon the area. It was interesting to read the articles which reflect exactly the kinds of problems our own county in Virginia - Prince William County - faced a few years ago when we lived in that area.

Here in the wide open spaces of the west it is difficult to realize how fast urban sprawl is swallowing up farm lands back east. But it is just as difficult for people back east to realize how much open land still exists here.

One of the pages of The Clarke Courier relates that in the year of its founding, 1869, one could purchase a subscription to the newspaper by trading almost any kind of product. They do admit that they "cannot in good conscious take dogs, but nearly anything else is acceptable."

It's a good thing that the Courier people didn't have to worry about computing income tax on the chickens and sacks of flour they took in trade for their newspaper subscriptions.

Concert sponsored

The Farwell Convalescent Center Auxiliary will sponsor a concert at 8 p.m. on July 28 in the Farwell High School Auditorium featuring Charlie "Sugartime" Phillips as part of the Border Town Days celebration.

Phillips is famous to most of the world for his 3 million selling song "Sugartime." But he is famous here because he is a hometown boy. Phillips wrote "Sugartime" while driving a tractor on the family farm near Farwell. He recorded it in the Norman Petty Studios in Clovis with Buddy Holly playing guitar.

Phillips is the son of the late Kate Phillips of Farwell. He attended Farwell High School where he studied music under Irma Jobe who encouraged many students like Phillips who had a natural talent for music.

Since that time, Phillips has become internationally known as a writer and Country/Western singer and has appeared on the Grand Ole Opry, Ozark Jubilee, Louisiana Hayride, the Big D Jamboree and many others.

Phillips has recorded for several major record companies including Columbia, Reprise, and Coral. Some of his other hits are "I Guess I'll Never Learn," "Be My Bride," "Welcome to the Wedding," "Later Tonight," "Souvenirs of Sorrow," "Twenty Fools Ago," "Going Away," "The Wild Side of Houston," and the song sometimes called the "Cowboy National Anthem"- "The Big Ball is in Cowtown".

Phillips and his band, "The Sugartimers," are a top attraction whenever they appear and have a reputation for being one of the top traditional Country and Western/Western swing dance bands in Texas.

Phillips has made his home in Amarillo since 1960 and along with "The Sugartimers," still plays every Saturday night at an Amarillo landmark, The Aviatrix Ballroom.

His hobbies include collecting old cars and skiing. He also is interested in broadcasting, real estate, and farming.

The Farwell High graduate will be joined on the program by Ed Hardage of Texico at Phillips request since Hardage was his inspiration when he was getting started. He will also be joined by the "Country Strings," a group which includes Joe Hughes, Calvin Rippee, Hurschel Parker, and Charlotte McMurtry. The Country Strings play gospel, and songs in the tradition of Bob Wills and the Sons of the Pioneers.

Profits from the program will be used to furnish and decorate the new sun room addition to the Farwell Convalescent Center.

Tickets for adults are $5 in advance, $6 at the door, and for children under 12 are $2.50. They are available at many local businesses.

Two fairs slated in September

The Bailey County West Plains Fair will be held Sept. 7, 8, and 9 at the Bailey County Coliseum.

Anyone who plans to enter a project should contact Kandy McWhorter or Spencer Tanksley at the County Extension Agent's office in the Bailey County Courthouse for a list of the categories.

The South Plains Fair will be held in Lubbock Sept. 23 - 30. Information about the fair can be gotten from the South Plains Fair office, 105 E. Broadway, Lubbock, Texas, 79401.

Christian elected to PCG committee

Newly named to the executive committee of the Lubbock - based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. is Donald Christian of Farwell.

PCG directors met on July 12 and approved a 1989 budget of $294,075, almost nine percent above the $270,000 budgeted for 1988 -89 and the largest budget since 1986.

The new figure is the projected amount needed to conduct the producer organization's wide range of research, legislative and other services to cotton producers in its 25-member counties on the High Plains.

Funding for the organization's activities come from 25 cents per bale producer's dues, supplemented by dues from oil mills, compresses, banks and others either directly or indirectly benefiting from cotton's contribution to the High Plains economy. PCG calculations show a farm level value of the area crop in excess of $1 billion for each of the past two years.

In response to a query from area members of the House Agriculture Committee in Washington, the PCG group decided on what was termed "the lesser of three evils" under discussion in a hearing where the committee is deliberating a budget reconciliation measure to reduce farm program cost.

Posed for consideration were (1) a five percent cut in the 1990 target price, (2) a five percent increase in the Secretary's 25 percent maximum acreage reduction program allowable, or (3) a two percent origination fee on Commodity Credit Corporation loans.

Board members first voiced an emphatic "none of the above" vote. But, if forced to choose one of the three, the group agreed that No. 3 would be least costly. It was noted that either of the first two options would result in an inescapable five percent reduction in deficiency payments, whereas market conditions might permit the loan origination fee to be avoided.

Scholarship fund begun

An account has been set up at Security State Bank for the David Garner Memorial Band Scholarship.

This on-going scholarship will be for a college-bound Farwell High School student who will major in music.

It is in memory of David Garner, son of Jeeter and Lillis Garner of Farwell, who died recently of pneumonia.

Texico reunion coming

A gigantic reunion is being planned for former Texico School students and teachers of classes 1965- 1977.

The date has been set for Aug. 4 and 5.

On Aug. 4, each class will be on their own and a representative from each class will be in contact to let everyone know what has been planned for that class.

On Aug. 5, there will be two functions planned.

Clovis. This will be for the entire family.

Then "The Big Bash" will get under way at the Clovis Room of the Clovis Holiday Inn at 7 p.m. MDT. There will be entertainment as well as an awards program. This will be for the adults only.

Giveaway under way

Forty-seven Twin City businesses will be participating in the eighth annual Border Town Days Merchants Giveaway program held in conjunction with the annual BTD celebration's park activities on July 29.

This year's giveaway will take place throughout the afternoon of the Saturday festivities at Farwell city park.

Debra Looper, chairman of this year's event, said, "Any merchant that wasn't contacted but who wants to participate in the giveaway should call me at 481-9027 immediately. There's still time to enter."

Each participating business has a box in which customers may register for the prize to be given away by the merchant. A person may sign up once each time he is in a store until July 28 when the boxes will be picked up and taken to the park for the drawing.

Drawings will be held from each individual merchant's box, and the person whose name is drawn will be allowed ample time to claim the prize. However, in the event that the person does not show up to claim the prize in the allotted time, another name will be drawn so that all prizes are awarded that afternoon. It is essential that a winner be at the park to hear when his name is called.

No purchase is necessary at any of the participating merchants in order to register for the many prizes. Registrants must be 12 years of age or older.

Activity Director

We have added more music to our scheduled activities. Bill and Ester Burch have been coming to conduct their sing-along Thursdays at 6 p.m. Mrs. Burch plays piano beautifully while Mr. Burch leads the singing. There are hymns and songs shared from years past.

We are happy to announce Pappy and the Old Timers Band are with us again. We missed their cheerful music for several months and are happy they're back.

Our trip to the ostrich farm was exciting. We had a long ride - it's about 10 miles from Dora, and the van air conditioner gave out about 5 miles north of Portales. We rolled down windows and braved the heat to be rewarded with the sight of four 8 to 10-foot ostriches and 2 baby ones about 2 feet tall.

Farm owner Barry Walker was kind enough to herd an ostrich close to the fence for us to see. Mr. Walker answered several questions asked by our residents, giving us a clearer insight into what the feathers, eggs and productivity of the ostrich is.

Our sincere thanks to Mr. Walker for making our trip a very enjoyable one indeed.

Garza qualifies

Three local youths from the T Minus 10 track team of Texico qualified at the regional Athletic Congress - Junior Olympic Track meet in Tucson last weekend for the National Junior Olympic meet in Spokane, Wash., on July 29-30.

Farwell's Lupito Garza and Bovina's Kody Wilson and Amber Willard have qualified for the national event.

Garza was second in shot put with a throw of 37'. Wilson qualified in two events; he was third in long jump with a jump of 4.17 meters and he was 3rd in the 400 m. run with a time of 1:01.7.

Nine year old Willard was third in the high jump with a jump of 3' 8".

Coach Randy Harrison of Texico is proud of their accomplishments as well as those of the entire team. "I had a couple of others who could have qualified if different things hadn't happened," he said.

Harrison is accepting donations to help the three go to Nationals.

Farwell Band to practice

Farwell Band Director Craig Zinck has announced that the Farwell Band will practice for the Border Town Day parade from 8 - 9:30 p.m. on July 27. They will meet in the band room for that practice.

"I hope everyone will come early so we can get the instruments and music passed out," said Mr. Zinck.

He asked that those students who have Band T-shirts wear them with shorts or other comfortable clothing.

Bass to preach at crusade

Rev. J. L. Bass will be the featured speaker at the Border Town Crusade sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Farwell July 30 - Aug. 2. Music will be led by Grady and Dorothy Sorley. The event will begin with the Sunday services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. There will be noon luncheons and devotionals on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, and nightly services at 7:30 p.m. Nursery services will be provided.

Parmer County team second

The District Two 4-H Trap Shoot was held in Lubbock on July 7 and 8.

The Parmer County Junior 3-Man team of Andy Stormes, Brett Thomas and Shane Branson was second in skeet and third in trap.

Andy Stormes took 1st in trap, 1st in skeet and overall high point. He won three Montana Silversmith belt buckles. He shot a perfect 25 straight in skeet.

The sub juniors competing were John Stormes and Jason Thomas.
