Border Banter

By Mike Pomper

Grid contest starts in only two weeks!

Was there any question?

What can I say? Every Tribune reader knows that I predicted the Chicago Cubs would win the World Series back in April. I bet there weren't too many other prognosticators who thought likewise. Of course, I have been making that same prediction each spring since 1952 - to no avail.

Yes, I realize that there are several weeks left in the season and the Cubs certainly don't have a lock on first place. But, heck, I can dream, can't I?

So what happened? Why aren't the Cubs dead last as usual? For a couple of reasons:

One was the big trade with the Texas Rangers. This worked out well for both teams. But the Cubs got a stopper in Mitch Williams - what they sorely needed. And they didn't lose anything in giving up Ralf Palmeiro, a top-notch hitter, because of the emergence on the scene of two rookies - Jerome Walton and Dwight Smith.

As I write this, Walton is a cinch for Rookie of the Year honors as he carries a .309 batting average and a 23-game hitting streak. Smith has been hitting over .300 all year and is mainly used against right handed pitchers.

Add to that mix a 30-year pitcher named Bielecki who is having his best year, the emergence of another bullpen stopper, a rookie named Lancaster. Then toss in the regular good players like Grace, Sutcliffe, Maddox, Sandberg, Dunston and Dawson and, voila, you have a first place ball club. (And don't forget Harry Carey!)

I love it. The Cubs are America's team. It's fun to watch them on TV, say at Atlanta, and sometimes it seems there are more fans there rooting for the Cubs than for the Braves. Unbelievable.

I know that most Texico - Farwell folks who are interested in baseball root for the Rangers and Astros. That's okay. They're just missing out, that's all.

As I wrote a long time ago, Cub fans are different than fans for any other team in any other sport because for the past 40 years they didn't go to Wrigley Field to see who would win, but rather to enjoy the aura of the park.

If you are a Ranger fan, would you go to Arlington just to enjoy the aura of the park, not caring if the Rangers won or lost?

Since the Cubs have been such a poor team over the past 44 years (with a couple of exceptions - 1969 and 1985), fans stopped wondering how the team would do (they would lose, obviously) and began to enjoy the most beautiful ball park in the world. And after awhile, it became almost a pilgrimage to a sacred site, like Mecca.

I've already written my letter to the Cubs organization requesting a block of free tickets to the World Series. Since the Cubs are owned by the Chicago Tribune, I just signed my request "Mike Pomper of the Tribune."

Sounded okay to me... Rumor of the Week: an amusement park coming to Clovis.

For the football fanatic, it's THAT time again. The always popular Area Merchants Football Contest will begin its 30th year on Sept. 1.

Last year, almost 700 persons, ages 12 and up entered the contest. That figure alone testifies to the popularity of the contest, given the number of local residents who are over the age of 12.

This is when prognosticators probe the sports columns, read the charts and check with their favorite arm-chair quarterbacks.

In order to have a strong chance at the grand prize, it's important to enter every week. So be sure to watch for the first week's contest, starting Sept. 1.

The top prize for the winner of the 12 week contest will again be two tickets to see the Dallas Cowboys play at Texas Stadium. They play the Los Angeles Rams on Dec. 3.

The grand prize winner will also get $50 in cash, a night's lodging for two at the Dallas - Fort Worth Hilton hotel, free use of all recreational facilities at the Hilton, game day breakfast, two welcome cocktails, tour of Cowboys Center, transfer to and from the game, and transfers to and from the airport.

The recreational facilities include indoor pool, Nautilus center, indoor tennis courts, sauna, racquetball courts, etc.

And the reason the Tribune is able to offer the contest, the weekly cash prizes ($10 for first, and $5 for second) is due to the following sponsors:

1. Town and Country Insurance
2. Friona Motors
3. Kirkland & Co., CPA
4. Sherley Grain-Lariat
5. Sherley Anderson Pitman
6. Caprock Industries
7. Security State Bank
8. EXCEL Corporation
9. Citizens Bank, Texico branch
10. Farmers Cooperative Elevator, Muleshoe
11. Wienerschnitzel
12. Jones Pontiac
13. Bison R.V.
14. Tri-County Tire
15. Kelly Green Seeds
16. Farwell United Drug
17. Lovelace Oil
18. Nutri-Tech
19. Capitol Food
20. Target Fuel Stop
21. Farwell Hardware
22. Williams Fertilizer
23. Dura Bilt
24. C & H Equipment, Muleshoe
25. Wood Equipment, Clovis
26. Stuckey's
27. Oppliger Land and Cattle
28. Kirkland Pump
29. Hamilton Nursery, Clovis
30. Holly Sugar
31. Juanito's Restaurant

Rules for the 1989 contest will be the same as in the past. A person must be at least 12 years of age to enter. Entrants must choose the 12 teams they think will win the selected contests.

Games will be divided among high school, college and professional ranks. In case of a tie game, unless a tie is predicted by the entrant, that game will not be counted.

Each entrant must remember to pick a tie-breaker score, a very important feature of the contest since many weekly winners (and overall winners) have also been determined by the tie-breakers.

The person naming the most games correctly each week will receive a check for $10; the second place winner gets $5.

Each week's scoring is tabulated and kept on record at the Tribune office. The standings are posted each Monday and may be seen during regular business hours.

Entry blanks must be turned in to the Tribune office by 5 p.m. CDT Fridays, or if mailed, must bear a Friday postmark.

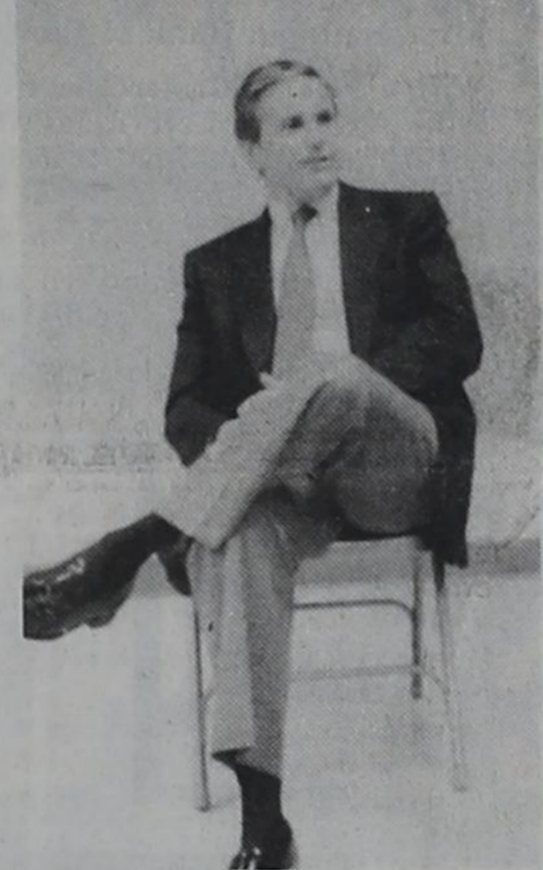

It's very important that you enter each week's contest to have a strong shot at being the overall winner. Even if you never pick an 11 or 12 to take the weekly prize, you may take the overall prize with a consistent 8 or 9 weekly tally.

Entry blanks for the first contest will be in the Sept. 1 issue of the Tribune, and also at the Tribune office.

Last year's winner was T. J. Kittrell of Farwell. Other winners have been:

David Dannheim, Bunk Phillips, Maxine Williams, Ken Horn, Jerry Dee Owen, Gay Goettsch, Thelma Alexander, A. D. Kirk, Dodie Atkinson, Greg Hargrove, Dee Owen, Doris Herington, Ruth Scott, C. L. Mahaney, Mrs. Roy Everett, Cheryl Scott.

Also, Terry Craft, Beck Taylor, Willie Roberts, Jerry Roddam, Dale Sikes, Erlene Porter, Rusty McFarland and Sam Gonzales.

Congressman Larry Combest

Combest fields questions here

Cong. Larry Combest answered questions on a variety of topics when he conducted a town hall meeting at the Farwell Community Center on Aug. 10.

Below are some of the questions and answers that were given.

Tom Nichols asked: "How will the new disaster program work?"

Combest: "This is the first time that we've ever passed a disaster program before the disaster happened."

The final bill has passed the House of Representatives, but it had not been signed by the time Combest spoke.

He indicated that the total amount allocated this year for disaster relief will be limited to the $885 million that had been saved on this year's farm program. This money would be split among those who have had disastrous losses. The program covers all crops, not just program crops. After the bill is signed, the regulations for its implementation will be drafted.

Steve Breckenridge asked about discriminatory pricing

Higher school taxes on tap

The Farwell School Board Tuesday unanimously adopted a budget of $2.31 million which will bring the local tax rate to $1.29 per $100 of evaluation. This is an increase of 7.99 percent.

The 1989-90 school year budget eliminates the local sick leave bonus for teachers, reduces the career ladder allotment, and changes the method of teacher appraisal. It also eliminates the Developmental First Grade program, and one special education teaching position.

"Based upon our 1987-88 annual performance report, our expenditure per student have been comparable to the group classification we are put in for comparison," says a budget report note by Supt. John Grigsby.

Grigsby started the evening with a budget hearing during which he presented charts to show that Farwell's expenditures were in line with state averages for schools of our type.

Tom Nichols, a visitor, asked, "Why is Bovina's tax rate effectively 29 percent lower than ours?"

"They are entitled to a large amount of federal dollars we are not able to get," Grigsby replied.

Nearby communities have higher numbers of low income students. More state and federal funds go to those communities. The formula for computing the federal funds and state compensatory funds that go to a school system is based upon the number of students who qualify for free and reduced price lunches.

Farwell has fewer low income students, therefore its residents must pay higher local taxes to support the school system's costs.

Grigsby also noted that although Bovina and Farwell have about the same number of students enrolled in the schools, current enrollment at Bovina includes more students in elementary school and fewer in the high school than Farwell does.

"It costs $200 - $300 more per child to educate a high school age child than an elementary student," said Grigsby. He noted that high school programs such as driver's education and computer science are more costly than the activities in elementary school classrooms.

Grigsby noted that some school systems in our area are getting about 10 times as much federal funding as Farwell is getting.

He also noted that the average age of Farwell's buildings 35 years, and that old buildings require more maintenance than newer buildings do.

According to Grigsby, last year the school system dipped into reserve funds to pay the actual cost of educating the children of the community. The proposed budget will fund the school system's expenses while maintaining the reserve funds.

The proposed budget is almost a 12 percent decrease over last year's budget in terms of dollars spent per pupil.

In other business, the board:

- Adopted the high school and junior high schedules.
- Voted to extend a full time contract to administrative assistant Gwen Corn.
- Set the budget hearing for the proposed 1989-90 school year budget at 7 p.m. on Sept. 5.

- Heard Grigsby's recommendations that the board hold hearings in compliance to a new law that was House Bill 82 which exempts non-income producing personal property from the school's tax rolls. He indicated that the school system needs all the taxable income it can get.

- Heard Grigsby report that he will attend a meeting on Aug. 18 in Lubbock to explore the possibility of forming a district for baseball competi-

3% pay hikes planned for county employees

The county budget was the main topic of discussion when the Parmer County Commissioners met on Monday.

The tentative budget will grant a 3 percent raise for county employees, but no increase in taxes, according to Precinct 3 Commissioner Robert White.

"Things are looking to be in pretty good shape," said

The Farwell Booster Club will meet at the Farwell High School football field Tuesday at 8:30 p.m.

All parents and other supporters of high school athletics are encouraged to attend. The Booster Club supports the football, boys and girls basketball and track programs at the high school level. The meeting will last approximately 30 minutes.

Combest

on drugs.
Combest answered that if there are violations of the federal trade agreements, the question should be pursued through the Federal Trade Commission.
A man asked a question about a specific person's Social Security claims.

Combest indicated that congressmen regularly check on such problems all the time.
"What we need is a letter explaining the situation. Send it to my Lubbock office, and my office will check into it," he said.

Gary Carter asked, "How can our county become eligible for Economic Injury Disaster Loans through the SBA?"

Combest answered "I don't know, we'll find out and let you know." Then he added, "The day of disaster programs is short lived. We are probably going to get all these programs under one umbrella."

A man asked about CRP regulation which require planting grass in standing crops. He asked if there was a way to get around waiting until the standing crops died.

Combest answered, "That's why we have county committees." He also told the man that if he gets permission to plant without waiting for the cover crop to die and the grass fails, he will be liable for the entire cost of the planting of the grass.

Troy Christian asked a question about the Bumpers-Pryor-Kasebaum-McConnell amendment to the Farm Credit Act of 1987.

Christian noted that under the Farm Credit Act of 1987 the Farm Credit Association in Plainview had been assessed $2.4 million of the $177 that was assessed nationally because Texas was in a strong position then. The association was then notified that they would bet back 70% of the assessment because of the Bumpers amendment. They put the money back into the Plainview budget, but they have not received a penny.

Combest said that the money would not be coming out of the USDA budget. He would look into the answer of the question.

He was asked about Savings and Loan industry problems.

He answered that "it is unfortunate that it came about. It should have been taken care of 10 years ago. If we ever lose that full faith and credit in our system, ... we are gone."

Combest said that re-imposing strict regulation on the savings and loan industry would help. Savings and loans would have to increase the number of investments, and increase their FDIC insurance funds. They would not be allowed to figure any "good will" into any loans.

"We probably made a mistake when we deregulated savings and loans," said Combest. "Savings and loans were initially established as places for home loans and savings accounts." Deregulation moved the industry into other areas.

"For those who went under because of fraud, we put $75 million in (to the budget) to encourage the Justice Department to go after them."
Troy Christian asked how the GAT talks are progressing.

Combest indicated that while the GAT talks are progressing, but the agriculture committee will not let the GAT talks drive the farm bill. He said that foreign trade is not equal because several of the nations in the GAT talks subsidize their farm products heavily.

He indicated that his office will be keeping an eye on the GAT talks. He also said, "We won't do away with price supports."

He was asked about the outlook for farm legislation this year.

Combest indicated that "this year will be environmentally driven." Questions about the environment will be hot topics in Congress this year. He hoped that farmers and environmentalists do not wind up as adversaries.

"Farmers are some of the best environmentalists we have." But by the same token, Combest quoted the adage, "If we cut out all herbicides and pesticides, we will all starve to death in clean air."

Gary Carson asked about new regulations about solid waste removal.

"This is getting more and more difficult," said Combest. He indicated that the plan is to make regional landfills. And, he said, "Megabucks will be spent on the handling of trash."

Combest added, "We'll go

through a period when we won't know what to do with it (solid waste)... and then someone will come up with the technology to take care of it. They'll probably burn it."

Congressman Combest encouraged everyone to write him about problems. He added that mail to congressional offices at the Longworth Building in Washington D.C. was running 8 weeks late this spring because there was so much mail coming in about catastrophic health insurance. He asked everyone to be patient if his office is late in answering.

County

White. "As long as we don't have any big bills or major equipment break down, we should be able to cut in some areas and still afford a pay raise for county employees," he indicated.

No official action was taken on the budget. It will be voted upon on Aug. 28.

Representatives from the four county fire departments petitioned the commissioners for additional money to be added to the county budget this year for fire fighting. The commissioners listened to their requests, but they did not take any action.

It was reported to the county commission that the second public hearing was held in Lazbuddie to find out how local citizens feel about the grant to improve water safety in Lazbuddie.

The county may now file for help from the state because those who attended favored the grant. Contaminated wells has caused the problem and a sewer system is needed.

The commissioners voted to make the Muleshoe Area Hospital District the mandated provider for indigent health care for those residents in the Lazbuddie area who are in the Muleshoe Area Hospital District.

The prorated amount of money to be spent for indigent health care for the remainder of 1989 is expected to be about $2,911.90. They tabled the motion to set a rate on indigent health care.

In other business, the commissioners:

- Voted to add additional rent to the MHMR Center in Friona so that they can move to larger quarters.

- Voted to rescind a motion that was passed on May 8 to seek funds for assistance for indigent heating and cooling bills. They noted that the paper work involved would be too time consuming for the amount of money they would recover.

- Voted to add $5 to the license tag fee in compliance with Senate Bill 28.

Oklahoma Lane Class of 1939 has reunion

The 1939 senior class of Oklahoma Lane met for their 40th class reunion July 28-29. Thirty-four class members, former members, teachers and guests met at the Golden Corral Steak House in Clovis on Friday evening for a meal and greetings, then they went to the home of Maxine and Hoyet Brown for visiting, pictures, and reminiscing. Many old pictures were on display as was a friendship quilt that Lois McGuire Billingsley made during the class's senior year. The quilt features the names of class members and teachers and has a lot of class information on it. Jimmy McGuire had his Oklahoma Lane sweater. Everyone brought a white elephant gift to exchange which created a lot of laughs. Guests in attendance were: Evelyn Beard Williams and C.E. Williams of Raton, N.M.; Elva Mills Roark of El Paso; Dorothy Harris Brown and Dee Brown of Muleshoe. (All except Dee were teachers at Oklahoma Lane.) Class members attending were: Malcolm 'Pete' Hanna of Carlsbad, California; James 'Sonny' Roach of Bovina; Douglas Jenkins of Muleshoe; Jimmy McGuire of Lubbock; Maxine Robertson Brown of Clovis; Alene Thompson Chandler of Broadview, N.M. Jean Repley Paine, and Lois McGuire Billingsley of Farwell. Former class members were: James Berry, Condy Billingsley, Mildred Hammonds Davies, all of Clovis; Irene Ginnings Wall of Portales; and Keith Levy of Plano, Texas. Others present were: Hoyet Brown; Mary Ruth Sudderth Redden; Ruth Donaldson Boone and J.C. Boon, Sula Moore Berry, and Mozelle Moore Bond all of Clovis; Norma Thomas Levy, Plano; Wanda Hanna, Carlsbad, California; Ed and Johnnie Hughs of Ft. Stockton; Dot Foster Roach of Bovina; Joyce Doshier McGuire, Lubbock, Nova McGuire Robertson of Mt. View, Missouri; Francis Robertson Bruns, Muleshoe; Avis Donaldson Carpenter and Harold Carpenter of Farwell. Another former member, Raymond Martin of Farwell visited the group at the park on Saturday, as did Donald Watkins, Farwell and Geneva Hanna Henson of Clovis. A number of friends went by their tables to say hello and visit for a few minutes. The class members rode in the Border Town Days parade on Saturday and met at a reserved spot at the park for the activities of Border Town Days. Only two class graduates were absent- Velma Kube Zoch of Clovis and Mary Belle McCowan Clements of Dalhart. They sent letters of regret, as did former teacher, David Sides of Austin. The group also received a telephone call from former Supt. E. W. Harper of Lubbock.

40 Steers turn out

About 40 high school athletes turned out for the first day of practice for the Farwell Steers Football team Monday. "We had a good workout," said athletic director Rex Cumpton. "They are all apt to be a little sore in the morning." A few others are expected to join the team when they return from vacations. The first day routine included warm ups, offensive passing plays, and conditioning exercises. "We practice at 8:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. each day. Everyone who is interested is invited down to watch the practices," said Cumpton. Cumpton is assisted again this year by coaches Larry Gregory, Fred Libby and Kendall Devault. The Steers have been picked by the "Top 'O Texas" as the third place team in district, but Cumpton remains cheerful regardless of their opinion. "It is the consensus of all who are supposed to know that Abernathy will be the team to beat this year," said Cumpton. But he indicated that Farwell will be competitive. Farwell will have several experienced players returning to play this fall including seniors: Bruce White, Kyle Stancell, Clint Kelley, Trent

Schilling, Vince Smith, and Sammy Herrera.

Fiskes arrive in Alaska

(Editor's note: Before Virgil Fiske left Farwell's Church of Christ for Alaska in June, the Tribune asked him to send periodic reports on his evangelistic efforts there. His address is P.O. Box 775009, Eagle River, Alaska 99577. Here is the Fiske family's first report.

Dear Brethren,
We are slowly settling into our new home and surroundings. It is impossible to describe how beautiful it is. The mountains look completely different almost every day because of the way the clouds are floating around them or the unique way the sun is shining on them. Sometimes the clouds roll in a mist at the bottom so that you can only see the peaks. At other times little puffs sit on top making it look like a sundae with whipped cream on top.

There was quite a bit of work to be done on the house when we got here. We painted the inside walls and ceilings, fixed the heater (which does run occasionally even in the summer), and carpet and linoleum laid, then sat back and waited for our things to arrive. Six weeks later they did - or at least most of them did.

We've just about gotten everything arranged and it is beginning to feel more like home. This house is quite a bit smaller than ours in Farwell, but also a bit newer. The brethren are discussing an add-on. I'm keeping my fingers crossed.

The people here have made us feel so special. Seldom a day goes by that someone doesn't show their pleasure that we're here. It's a small group with few children, but the kids have made many good friends here already.

Having Virg's uncle and aunt here has really been a blessing. They've treated the kids like grandchildren and shown us some of the sights around Anchorage.

We leave for "Family Camp" next Tuesday. Virg (or "Lee" as I'm known here) am to be the evening speaker. We are looking forward to this. It is in "the valley" where they grow 75-lb. cabbage. The Turnagain (Turn - Again) church is hosting it. It is a group consisting of many of the people who used to come here from Anchorage. They meet in a Church of God building Sunday afternoons. They are closely tied to our people and several have worshiped with us in the past.

At unexpected times we get a pang of homesickness for people that are quite far off (which is almost everyone). The kids received letters from Farwell friends which made them happy as well as sad.

The guys have done quite a bit of fishing. We have eaten fried, grilled, baked, creamed, and smoked salmon. It was all delicious, even the kids loved it. We have also eaten halibut (which is better than salmon) but you have to charter a boat to catch them. It costs over $100 per person. Which isn't much when you catch one- they usually weigh well over 100 lbs.

The wildlife is so varied. A moose ran across the highway in front of us. He looked so awkward- until he got off the pavement. The male population does little else than hunt,

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Snodgrass

50th anniversary to be celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Snodgrass of Oklahoma Lane will celebrate their 50th anniversary on Aug. 20 with a reception from 2-4 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Texico.

The reception in their honor will be hosted by their children. All friends are welcome to attend. The couple requests no gifts, please.

The Snodgrasses were married on Aug. 28, 1939 in San Jon, N.M. They have three children, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gene Snodgrass of Fort Mill, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Snodgrass of Tulsa, Okla.; and Mr. and Mrs. Parker Stewart of Buda, Texas. They also have five grandchildren.

Kelley honored on 90th birthday

Homer Kelley of Pleasant Hill was honored with a birthday party celebrating his 90th birthday Aug. 6.

The afternoon was hosted by his three children, J.D. and Bertha Kelley of Pleasant Hill; Bobby and Irma Jo Englant of Bovina, and Glenn and Kay Kelley of Roswell. It started with a picnic lunch at the home of J.D. and Bertha and was followed by volleyball, horseshoes and lots of fun.

A total of 58 guests attended the celebration. This include Homer Kelley's wife, Drusilla, his three children and their spouses, 9 of his 12 grandchildren and their spouses, 17 of his 18 great-grandchildren, as well as one brother, one sister, one niece, several great-nieces and great-nephews, and also friends.

1989 Property Tax Rates in Parmer County

This notice concerns 1989 property tax rates for Parmer County. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

'Slot machines are everywhere'

by Juanita J. Hadley

As in many parts of the world, Okinawan students are easily identified by their uniforms, a different one for each day of the week. Everywhere Mrs. Zinck and the family traveled, they noticed many students, especially at Expo 76, where the youngsters were so numerous that Mary Lou uses the term "milling around" to speak of them. The Farwell resident isn't sure why the students were out and about, but surmises that her visit must have fallen during a school holiday of some sort.

As a teacher, Mary Lou was fascinated but not entirely surprised to learn that public education on the island does not mean education for all. In fact, at a fairly early age students are judged according to potential. Only those young people who display strong academic abilities are further educated.

As Mrs. Zinck and her son's family traveled about, she marvelled at the amount of gambling they encountered. Casinos are found in each town, with an entire section given over to such establishments in the city of Naha, where neon, Las Vegas-like lights bedazzle. And, slot machines are everywhere, Mary Lou reports. Even the convenience stores on base offer a small room for any patrons who wish to spend time and money on the one-armed bandits.

Though gambling is evidently common, religion is another important part of life on the island of Okinawa. Shrines dot the streets, usually featuring a small fenced, cement area. Most of the time there is a domed structure with a huge decorative piece which reminds Mary Lou of a fan. She also notes that marble accents have been added to some of the shrines. Since there are three major religions—Shinto, Buddhism, and Confucianism—the Farwellite can't be sure which beliefs the shrines support or even that they represent only one set of beliefs.

Besides being religious, the Nationals are also highly superstitious. A case in point concerns the small shopette on base where Mary Lou's daughter-in-law Tammy works. Several of the other employees are Okinawans. The Nationals refuse to work any shift alone for fear of the ghost which supposedly haunts the place of business. The spirit is no vague white specter but represents a specific individual, a black serviceman believed to have been killed where the convenience store was later built.

When asked about Okinawan food, Mrs. Zinck explains that most of her meals were strictly American since Michael and Tammy take advantage of the military commissaries. Off base the trio treated their taste buds to a meal in a Japanese restaurant. Mary Lou enjoyed the cuisine, the experience, and even mastered the chopsticks well enough to get most of the noodles all the way to her mouth.

She adds an interesting footnote on chopsticks. The plastic variety is readily available and may be bought in nearly any store, but the better Japanese restaurants provide their clientele with the real thing, wooden chopsticks.

One rainy afternoon the family decided to try one of the American fast food franchises. A and W, McDonalds, and Burger King are represented, and there may be others which Mary Lou can't remember off hand. They chose the handiest, A and W, partly because the drive-in provided carhops and they didn't particularly want to have to get out in the rain. She explains that the three adults' meals were a little on the expensive side, $25 in American money—and they only had hamburgers.

One American commodity that is in great supply is the canned soft drink. Mrs. Zinck comments that there are vending machines everywhere, even on the golf courses. Just about brands are offered and all have two things in common: all cans are tall and skinny, containing approximately 8

It's easy to see why Naha Falls, on the island of Okinawa, is one of the most popular recreational areas for military personnel and their families.

Lazbuddie Class of 1959 meets

The Lazbuddie class of 1959 met at the Lubbock Plaza Hotel Aug. 11-13 for its 30th reunion.

Those attending were: Bobby and Jane Blackburn, Shallowater; James and Shirley Carpenter, Houston; Freda and Cyrus Dale, JeDon and Kitty Gallman, Friona; Bob and Betty Hall, Portland; Madalyn Fuqua, Hugoton, Kansas; Clifford and Sondra Hugg, Portales, N.M.; Sussie Hammonds, Albuquerque, N.M.; Smitty and Sherry Lawrence, Wolfforth; Dennis and Judy Nelson, Spearman; Edward and Carol Pruitt, Morton; Carolyn and Charlie Pilgrim, Baltimore, Md.; Marie and Clyde Redwine, Bovina; Carolyn and David Sanders, Portales, N.M.; Dwayne and Faye Teague, Berryville, Ark.; Dean Watkins, Dallas; Katherine McKenzie, Longview; Wanda Williams, Cairo, Egypt; Ted Smith, Lazbuddie; and class sponsor Mrs. Dodavah Lawrence, Lubbock.

Lady Spikers being practicing

About 18 Lady Spikers returned to Texico High School for the annual volleyball practice that started last week.

The team will include returning varsity players like: Jennifer Gentry, Jennifer Williams, Valerie Cavallero, Denise Gonzales, Penny Pierce, Krystala Cross, and Amy Chadwick.

"We don't have any returning superstars, but we have a shot at the district if we play as a team. We just don't have a top gun this year," said coach Michael Littlejohn.

Littlejohn pictured last year's Lady Spikers as over-achievers who won 16 games in a row last year to finish the season at 17-3 when no one had expected them to do so well.

Texico will have some stiff competition in last year's champion, Floyd, and also from Melrose and Elida. Littlejohn looks for improvement in the Dora team this year. He hesitates to guess at Tatum's chances because they will have a new coach and a team that is being rebuilt.

Littlejohn hopes that experience will be on his side this year, since 5 out of 6 of his starters are returning varsity players.

"Our spikers have improved, and the setters have played a year. They know what they are doing," he said.

Magness reunion held

The Magness families came back to Farwell July 29-30 for their family reunion.

They are the children of George and Cordie Magness, Silas, Mamie Magness, Willis and Mattie Magness.

Everyone came for the Border Town Days parade. After a long day in the park, visiting new and old friends, everyone moved to the Farwell Community Center for more visiting Saturday evening. Then again on Sunday, they met at the Community Center for a deli-icious meal and more visiting.

Amy Magness was the oldest family member. She came from Grand Falls, Texas.

Earl Magness was the oldest grandson of G.W. Magness to attend the reunion. He came from Harrison, Ark.

Janie Bowery of Farwell was the oldest granddaughter of Sie Magness to attend.

Caron Wells traveled the farthest- he came from Indiana.

Max Magness came from Grand Falls with a team of mules and a wagon which he entered in the parade.

The Magness clan is looking forward to next year's reunion already. They will meet again in Farwell during Border Town Days.

Max Magness of Grand Falls, Texas and Scott Magness of Hobbs, N.M., returned to Farwell with this mule team and wagon for the Magness Family Reunion and the annual Border Town Days celebration.

18 go out for cross country

About 18 Farwell High School girls turned out for the first day of cross country practice on Aug. 14.

"We had a good first day's practice," said coach Fred Libby. The same girls will probably participate in the school's basketball program later this year.

1989 Property Tax Rates in Farwell Hospital District

This notice concerns 1989 property tax rates for Farwell Hosp. Dist. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

To get no-service-charge checking, just sign here.

At Sunbelt, you have two ways to get a checking account with no monthly service charge.

No monthly service charges until 1990:
 Just so you'll try Sunbelt's simple, affordable checking accounts, we'd like you to take advantage of our special offer. Open a checking account before September 30, and pay no monthly service charges in 1989.

No monthly service charges after 1990:
 Stay with us after this special offer expires and you'll see that Sunbelt makes it easy to continue to avoid monthly service charges.
 For example: Open your account with only $100. Stay above the $250 minimum balance on regular checking or $500 on interest checking with cancelled checks held in safekeeping, and you pay no monthly service charges. Go under the minimum, and you won't get hit with some unreasonable fee. Just $3 or $5 a month.

Because we believe a checking account should be a simple thing. Deposit money. Write checks. No "per check" charges. And no shocking service charges.

It's a simple offer, straight across the board, from Sunbelt Savings, the uncomplicated banking bank.

'Surviving the move up'

Editor's note: the following article appeared in "Texas Coach" Magazine. It was entitled "Surviving the Move Up."

By Rex Cumpton
Farwell Schools
Athletic Director

When the UIL announced the realignment in the winter of 1988, we at Farwell High School waited with great anticipation. We knew that it was going to be close as to whether we stayed in Class A or moved up. Well, we moved up. When we told our athletes this, there was a mixed reaction.

After all of the figures were tallied, it was discovered that we were the smallest enrollment AA school in Texas. That can lead to some "heavy" thinking when you're preparing for the year.

Our football season opened well, but we had some key injuries and ended up with a 5-5 record. We lost our five games by less than an average of five points per game. Eight points was the biggest margin of defeat that we suffered. The players went through the entire season with a good attitude and good work habits and had an outstanding effort in each game.

We went into basketball season with fresh hope. Many of our players that competed well in football also played on our basketball team. Once again, we started off well. Our basketball team lost only two games going into district. We were able to go through district with a 7-3 record and finish tied for second. In an extremely exciting game, we defeated Abernathy for the runner-up position.

Our good fortune continued as we were able to advance through the playoffs all the way to the state semi-finals. We were defeated in the semi-finals by the eventual state champion, Edgewood, 67-64 in overtime. This capped off a great basketball year for us because this was the first team Farwell had ever been to the state tournament.

As we moved out of basketball into the spring, our athletes continued to compete well. Our boys' track team won a couple of invitational meets and was able to finish second at the district meet, only 16 points out of first. We qualified athletes to the Regional Meet in eight events, the most for us in a long time. We qualified two girls to the Regional Meet, the first in four years. Our girls' golf team placed second in district and our boys' golf teams placed third and fourth.

I am proud of the way our athletes competed this year at Farwell High School. There was some apprehension and some anticipation when the year started. I feel that they did very well to be the "smallest" AA school in Texas. I would like to thank our coaching staff - Larry Gregory, Fred Libby, Kendall Devault and Patsy Camp. They did an outstanding job for the 1988-89 school year. We are looking forward to next year.

fish, or think and plan to do so. Moose, elk, deer, caribou, black and grizzly bear and wolf are all fair game at some time during the year - unless you're a native, then it's almost anytime.

We had several weeks of great weather. Everyone kept telling us that this was very unusual. Lately, we've had "normal" Alaska summer days - wet and chilly. It doesn't slow the kids down or even keep them in doors. But we can't seem to work up an enthusiasm for biking or hiking in the rain. It seems that most people just go about their business as though it was dry. So I'm sure we will too, in time.

The weather reminds me of what it was like before Noah's flood; "a fine mist watering the land." The kids shoes and socks are always wet and muddy. It is customary for everyone to remove their shoes before coming inside. I didn't understand this until the rain began. Now I see this is a very useful custom.

The flowers are gorgeous here. I guess it's the extended daylight. But, what ever the cause, I love it. Wild roses are like ground cover. Daisies grow wild as well as bleeding hearts and several others I can't name yet. The gardeners don't use pesticides due to the lack of bugs. Next year I hope to have a little garden. Broccoli and cauliflower do especially well.

We are excited about school starting. Alaska has the funds to have some great programs - both scholastic and sports. Gymnastics, cross - country skiing, hockey, basketball, baseball, wrestling, judo, football, figure skating, speed skating, track all work to keep a kid busy. Needless to say, our kids picked a dozen sports to participate in. I hope they can narrow this down a tad!

I think Caleb became a teen - ager this summer. He stays up as long as he has a fishing pole in his hand.

Jacob is still a little down about leaving Farwell. His prayer at supper tonight really proved the point - "please help us like it here this winter." Poor guy!

Sarah adjusted fastest. Tonight she is feeding the fish and said, "Wow! They must be hot in there. Its almost 80!"

We have replaced most of the furniture that was we planned to. We couldn't believe the garage sale bargains. We ended up with much nicer things for less money. This was one of our more pleasant surprises.

We miss you all so much and would love a visit. Keep those cards and letters coming in. We love and think of you often, The Fiskes, Lee (Virgil), Jacki, Caleb, Jacob, and Sarah ounces, and they are all expensive. Each drink costs around 70 cents American, depending upon the exact rate of exchange that day. By the way, the average canned soft drink in the U.S. holds twelve ounces and costs about fifty cents.

Another typically American taste treat is also an Okinawan taste treat: ice cream. While Mary Lou doesn't claim to be an expert, she does point out that chocolate tastes about the same here and there. On the other hand, she notes that both strawberry ice cream and lime sherbert taste uniquely different on the island.

However, the Farwell resident's sharpest memories are not of thing but of people. As she discusses her stay in Okinawa, she frequently returns to the words "honest," "friendly," and "courteous."

Michael Annuziato explained to his mother that honesty is more than an idle boast. Though there is bound to be the stray exception, basically the Nationals do not steal. He even felt strongly that if a person dropped a wallet, it would be in the same place two days later with the money intact.

He offers another example by first explaining that though there is constant road construction that workers carry their lunches in brown paper bags. Usually there is a wire fence of some sort near the construction site and crew members hang their lunches on the fence. Regardless of the number of bags, when lunch time comes, each unmolested sack is where it was left hours earlier.

Mrs. Zinck observed the friendliness and courtesy of the people first hand. One of her first experiences in the country set the tone for the entire visit. After the long flight and battling jet lag induced by the fourteen - hour time difference, Mary Lou completed the first of the two - step process of entering Okinawa. She filled out all the necessary forms and moved on to the young man waiting to inspect her luggage. To his questions, Mrs. Zinck answered that she had no food products among her belongings and began to stammer her way through a general explanation of the kind of things she had with her. She glanced up to see an enormous smile on the young man's face, followed by a gentle waving of his hand and the welcome words, "Go on."

During her time with Michael, Tammy, and Berry, the family was in constant contact with their hosts, and Mary Lou states that everyone she met treated her well. Perhaps because of her Southwestern background, she especially noticed that strangers on the street greeted the family with a nod and a smile.

Because Michael and his family will remain about two more years in Okinawa, there is a possibility that Mary Lou Zinck will one day find herself on another plane winging once more toward the land of lushness, a nod, a smile of hello, and the love of a baby.

Cunningham writes from WTSU

Editor's note: Troy Cunningham of Farwell has spent the summer participating in a special camp at West Texas State University this summer. He wrote this letter to tell everyone about his experiences.

Dear Friends of Farwell,
To all my dear friends, I would like to ask how are all ya' doing? As some of you all know, I am attending camp at WTSU. I have been going since June 14, and will leave Aug. 12.

Now to tell you what I do. Well, at 5 a.m. I wake up and go to early bird workout. I return back to my room at 6:15 a.m. and at 7 a.m. I go eat breakfast. After breakfast at 7:30 a.m. I have my first class. My first class is English I. We have a 10 minute break at 8:30 a.m. Class is over at 10:30 a.m. Our teacher is good and lots of fun. Next I go to Algebra which I am not so hot at, but I have made it.

Again, after the first hour we have a 10 minute break. Our classes are 2 hours long, which can eventually get boring. But we are all there to liven it up. After class at 11:30 a.m. we go to lunch. After lunch we have Job Club. Job Club is a club that tells about how to get a job and how to do it.

At 12:45 p.m. we go to work. I work at the courthouse, which is really fun at times. I only work 20 hours a week. After work is dinner. Sometimes we eat a lot. Then we have electives. Those are fun. It all depends on what you take.

Art is really neat, but I prefer basketball. After electives, which are 2 hours long, we have a meeting from 10 - 11 p.m.

We talk about problems and about how our days have been. At about midnight - 2 a.m. we are getting ready for bed.

Some of our rules vary. We cannot fight or we get sent home. We have visiting from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sundays. We also cannot just leave anywhere just when you want. You have to make sure its a good reason. Well, I would just like to say thanks to Farwell Schools for helping me get here and God bless all of you. Can't wait to see you all.

Your dear friend,

Troy Cunningham

Recipe of Week

Creamed Spinach

1 lb. fresh spinach
2 Tbs. flour
1/2 c. evaporated milk.
salt and pepper
Wash spinach thoroughly. Shake water out of the leaves. Tear leaves into bite-size pieces. Place in a saucepan. Cover. Cook over low heat for 8 minutes or until tender. The water that clings to the leaves is enough to cook the spinach. Drain. Sprinkle flour over spinach. Stir to evenly coat the leaves. Add evaporated milk, salt and pepper. Heat until the sauce thickens. Makes 4 servings.

Cleanup urged

Dear Editor:
I recently spent a few hours in Farwell. This is a very nice town. The lawns are clean and nice. The homes are well kept and painted. Everything is really nice with one exception - the main street or highway.

Had I not went down by the courthouse and several side streets, I would never have known how nice the town is. The buildings, vacant lots, etc., on the highway surely don't do justice to the rest of the town.

It sure would be nice to see it cleaned up.

Cook optimistic about Wolverines' chances

Twenty-seven Texico High football players are working out this summer for the upcoming season.

"That's about the same as last year, and we have as many returning players as anybody," said coach Curt Cook.

Last season Texico fielded a very young team; this year they will have 18 returning varsity players. The nucleus of the team will include: Byron Martin, RB, TB; David Johnson, FB; Benji McDaniel, QB; Warren, OG; Mark Holmes, RB; Dwayne Hamilton, OT; Scott McCreery, OT; Hector Orozco, OG; Rusty Foreman, C; Tom Derouin, OT; Larry Powell, QB; Josefre

Gonzales, LB; Rick Hernandez, LB; Kenny Shaw, Split End.

Cook ranks Texico as one of the teams to beat in the district this year.

"There is good parity in the district this year, but we will be as good as anybody," said Cook. The seasoned players will be a great asset. Texico will have a shot at the district championship if they are not plagued by injuries.

"We're always leery of Tatum. You have to respect them, because they have a good team regardless of how many kids they have," said Cook. He also noted that Springer, Tatum and Hagerman can be tough.

It will be interesting for Texico to play Hagerman this year since it will be coached by former Texico coach David Lynn.

One negative aspect of Texico's football situation is the fact that Cook will be shouldering the coaching burdens alone this year. He does not have an assistant to help share the coaching load.

Substitute teachers' workshop set

There will be a workshop for all substitute teachers for Texico Schools at 8 a.m. on Aug. 23 in the Education Complex.

The requirements for being a substitute teacher, and the duties involved will be discussed.

Teacher In-Service meetings will begin at 8 a.m. on Aug. 24 for all Texico teachers.

Physicals will be given to all Texico student athletes and bus drivers who need them at 1:30 p.m. on Aug. 25 in the gym.
