

Thanksgiving Day: An American Heritage

by David Echols, Jr.
Farwell Church of Christ

Nov. 26, 1992, Thanksgiving Day.

This day is more than a legal holiday celebrated in the United States on the fourth Thursday of each November. The annals of American history testify that this is a day for giving thanks to God! Our fathers and mothers before us recognized that we are the recipients of gifts and blessings bestowed by God. From generations which now lie silent new families have learned the tradition of Thanksgiving "in the good old-fashioned way."

What is Thanksgiving Day? It is an American Heritage - a heritage of gratitude with national, family and spiritual ties, to which we have fallen heir as creatures of God, and sons and daughters of the Republic.

This heritage reminds us annually of the gifts that we have received as God's creatures. In this respect, conviction about Divine Providence transcends national and family tradition. On Oct. 3, 1863, Abraham Lincoln called the nation to Thanksgiving (observed Nov. 26, 1863) because the gifts of God compelled a spirit of gratitude: "The year that is drawing towards its close, has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added, which are of so extraordinary a nature, that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful providence of Almighty God."

The Giver of gifts, God Himself, has born witness to the abundance that He bestows on His creatures. Life itself is appraised in the Holy Scriptures as a divine gift: "Then the Lord God formed man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living being" (Gen. 2:7). Job acknowledged that "...the life of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind" is the hand of the Lord (12:10). It is in God that we all live, move and exist (Acts 17:28). Even the seasons and the rains, which supply our tables with an abundant feast on this day, testify to God's good gifts to His creatures: "and yet He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good and gave you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying your hearts with food and gladness" (Acts 14:17).

Lincoln observed in the above Presidential Proclamation that God's gifts to us are things which we did not possess before the gift was made: "No human counsel that devised nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the gracious gifts of the Most High God, who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath nevertheless remembered mercy. It has seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and one voice by the whole American people."

The heritage of Thanksgiving Day also compels us to reflect upon the national context in which God's gifts of life and prosperity have been received. In fact, the history of Thanksgiving Day can be appreciated only against the background of momentous events in the evolution of our country. Before "our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty," their fathers in the Plymouth colony were giving thanks for a meager harvest. In spite of the lean, summer harvest, Governor William Bradford convened the Pilgrims and neighboring Indians in the autumn of 1621 for a three-day festival of prayer, rejoicing and feasting in gratitude for the season's produce.

When our fathers did bring forth a new nation, they did so with the price of their own blood. Yet even then, during the years of the American Revolution, the Continental Congress found occasion to recommend days of thanksgiving. After the establishment of a constitutional form of government, President George Washington issued a proclamation that Thursday, Nov. 26, 1789, should be a nationwide day of thanksgiving and prayer to God. In the years from the Revolution to the Civil War, however, there was no uniform date on which all celebrated this festival.

While the nation was "engaged in a great civil war,"

Cloud tops 12th football contest

Four participants in last week's Area Merchants Football Contest got 10 games picked correctly.

Last week was the 12th and last contest this season.

The four entrants with 10 right were Stephen Cloud, Truman Kittrell, Doug Hill and Derek Abell.

By virtue of being closest to the tie breaker - Lazbuddie 25, Valley 16 - the winner of the $10 cash prize for first place was Cloud, of Pleasant Hill. He was 6 off the tie breaker.

Winning the second place cash prize of $5 was Kittrell. He was 28 off the tie breaker.

Hill was 41 off the tie breaker and Abell was 62 off.

Results of last week's contests were:

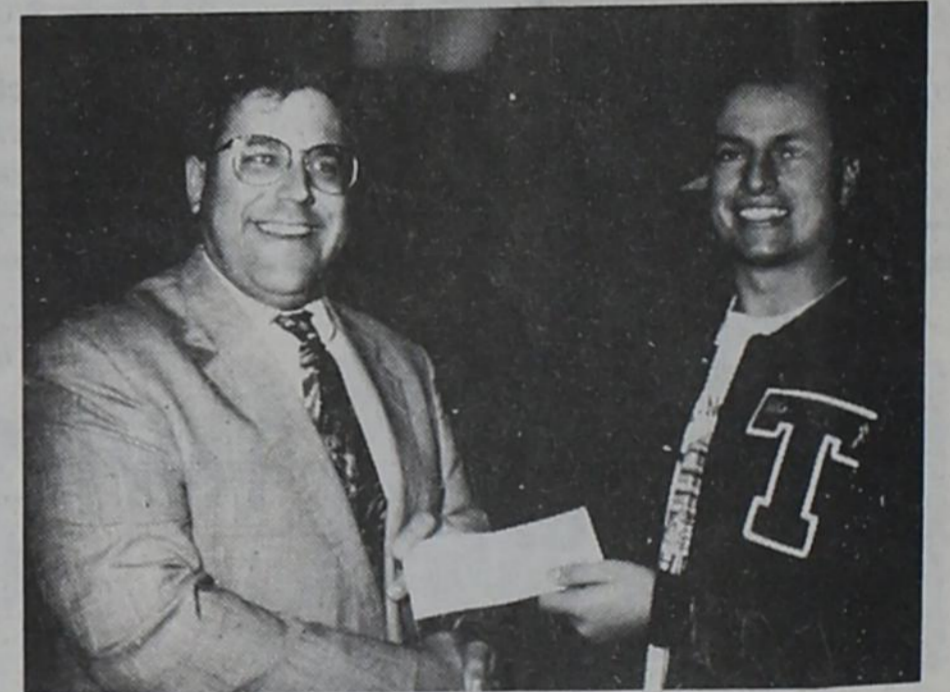

Plains over Wink, Springlake Earth over Memphis, Sudan over Spur, Baylor over Texas, SMU over Arkansas, Miami over Syracuse, Michigan and Ohio State tied, LA Raiders over Denver, Philadelphia over NY Giants, Miami over Houston, Detroit over Cincinnati, and San Diego over Tampa Bay.

The 1992 football contest is history, and 604 persons, 12 years and older, participated.

The overall winner was Joannah Gartin, of Lariat. She had 8 right last week to end with 95 points.

This is one of the lowest

My favorite holiday

Thanksgiving is my favorite holiday.

Each one of us has much to give thanks to God for.

It doesn't matter how difficult our lives are. It doesn't matter what trials and tribulations we must face every day. It doesn't matter how much self pity we wish to wallow in.

What counts is simple, that God has given us our existence and it's our duty to make the best of it by living the kind of life we believe that Christ wants us to lead.

Each one of us has so much to give thanks for. But it always seem that the problem 2 percent of our lives commands 98 percent of our attention. That shouldn't be the case.

We need to put into perspective our problems. We need to realize that although we must devote a lot of time toward them, we cannot let them consume us.

We need to concentrate on all the wonderful things in our lives, whether it be family, our home, or our personal relationship with God.

Like I said, Thanksgiving is my favorite holiday. It's a time when I reflect on many things, and improve my perspective. I hope you do, too.

How hard was the Farwell Steers' football schedule this year?

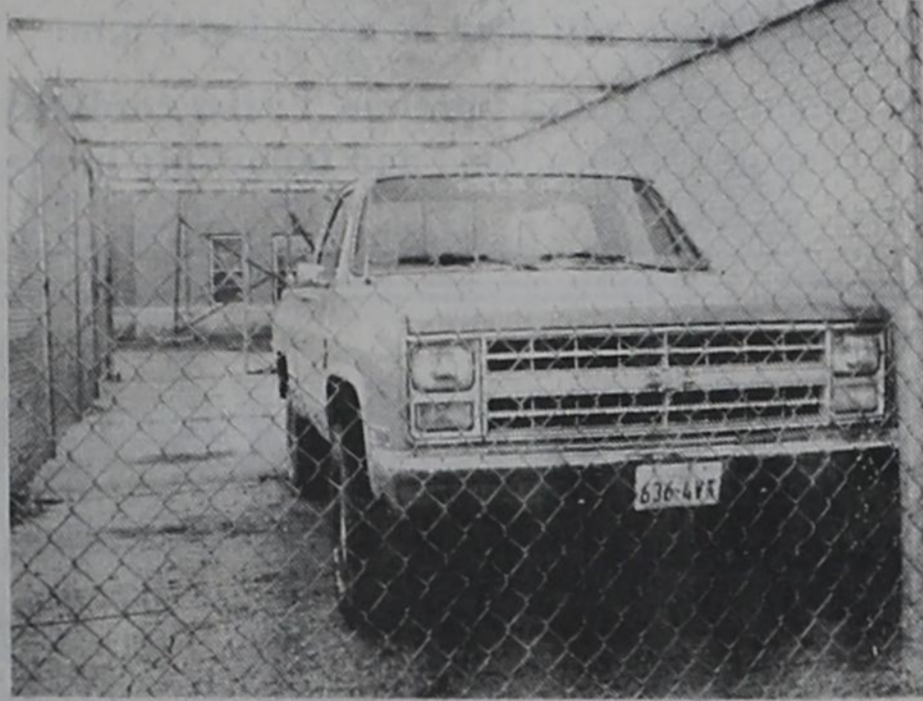

Did you notice that Plains, Sudan and Hart have all advanced to the 3rd round of the state playoffs?

And if Nazareth hadn't lost that coin toss, I'd bet they would be up there, too.

Thanks to all the entrants in this year's football contest. We hope you enjoyed it.

We look forward to the contest each year. It's a family affair where parents and kids can sit around the dinner table, arguing which teams will win - and why.

Ans a special thanks to the businesses that support the contest. Without them, it wouldn't be possible.

The Parmer County Sheriff's department seized this pickup truck which was used in at least one alleged drug-related felony. The pickup has been locked up in the sheriff's department compound.

Pickup truck impounded

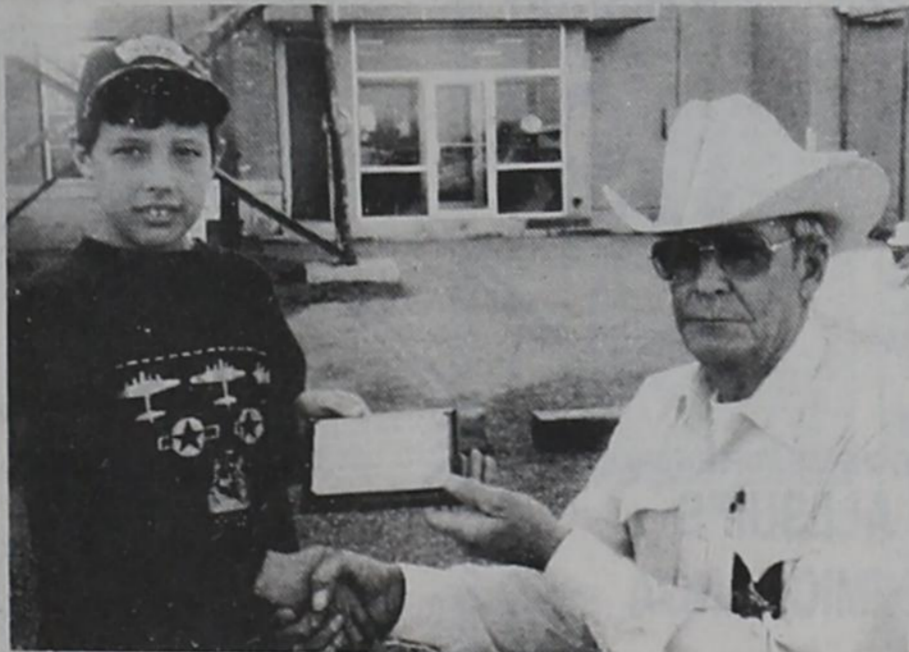

A 1986 Chevrolet pickup truck was impounded by the Parmer County Sheriff's department after it allegedly was used in at least one felony.

The truck is owned by a Friona man.

"I've been using some DPS agents - narcotics people - here in Parmer County for the past few years," said sheriff Rex Williams. "This incident has been under investigation for over a year. The agent made several buys from a person in this vehicle."

"Under Texas law, if you commit a felony in a vehicle or a house, we can seize it. In Lubbock and Amarillo they have seized some homes. If we can get it done through the court system, the pickup will be ours for the Parmer County Sheriff's Department."

Williams indicated that property used in the commission of a felony may be taken even if the owner was not the person who committed the crime.

Chadwick honored

Tyler Chadwick, 11, son of James and Tanya Chadwick, received a special plaque Thursday from Parmer County Sheriff Rex Williams for assisting the sheriff's department in the apprehension of an escaped suspect. The suspect bolted from deputies when brought to Farwell, and Chadwick assisted in the capture.

- Thanksgiving Letters -

from Mrs. Montgomery's 4th Grade Class

Thanksgiving is fun!
 We get to hop, jump, play, and run
 It is loving and sharing
 And being thankful for Family and friends coming in the door.
 Watching TV on the floor, the popcorn soars as the Cowboys score!
 We sit on the couch
 as we smell the turkey.
 Everybody is chewing on some tough beef jerky.
 Grandpa sitting in a seat
 says, "Pass the bird for me to eat!"
 (Hasn't he had enough of that meat?)
 The pumpkin pie is very sweet,
 Turkey's hot and good to eat!

Students in Mrs. Faulkner's 3rd Grade at Farwell Elementary School were asked to list the things for which they were thankful. Each answer is listed below.

- I am thankful for my family. Thomas
- I am thankful for my parents. Sarah
- I am thankful for our life. Anna
- I am thankful for everything. Waylon.
- I am thankful for shelter. Justin
- I am thankful for my family. Franando
- I am thankful for my animals. Mathew
- I am thankful for my puppy. Angelica
- I am thankful for my parents and pet cat. Rachel
- I am thankful for my church and friends. Daniel
- I am thankful for my animals. Kevin
- I am thankful for my teacher. Brandi
- I am thankful for everything. Angela
- I am thankful for the teaching. Erica
- I am thankful for everything. Cassie
- I am thankful for a wonderful school staff. Mrs. Faulkner winning totals ever, since it was a year of upsets in the contest games. It means that Mrs. Gartin averaged a fraction under 8 correct answers a week. Normally, it takes about 8.3 to 8.5 per week to win it all.

She won by 2 points. Tied for second with 93 points were Matthew Williams and Roger Johnson.

Mrs. Gartin had taken a slim lead at the halfway mark in the contest and staved off all challengers. She usually led each week by 1 or 2 points. Going into the final week, she was ahead of Williams by 1 and Richard Carpenter by 2.

In the last week, Williams got 7 right and Carpenter had 6 correct, so neither could catch her.

Mrs. Gartin will receive a night's lodging at the Radisson Hotel in Dallas for two. The package includes prepayment of room and tax, two free drinks, and a pregame brunch. She receives two game tickets to the Dallas Cowboys - Chicago Bears game Dec. 27 at Texas Stadium. And she gets transportation to and from the stadium.

Also, Mrs. Gartin wins $50 in cash.

This is all made possible by the support of the advertising sponsors for each week's football contest page.

Here's how the final leader board shaped up:

95 points - Joannah Gartin.
 93 - Matthew Williams, Roger Johnson.

91 - Richard Carpenter, Doug Hill, Derek Abell, Lance Castleberry.

90 - Lance Anderson, Pam Carpenter, Adam Hobbs, Roy King, Robert White, Todd Lingnau and Texico Junior High U.S. history 4th period class.

The Tribune keeps all ballots for at least a month after the contest ends so if any entrant wishes to check his or her ballots, please stop by the Tribune, 404 3rd St., Farwell, during regular business hours.

BOLDLY tell everyone what GOD has done for YOU!

Rev. Hennings is coming from Austin to help St. John Lutheran Church of Lariat to celebrate their Thanksgiving - Mission Festival on Sunday, November 29.

The theme of the Celebration will be "BOLDLY tell everyone what GOD has done for YOU."

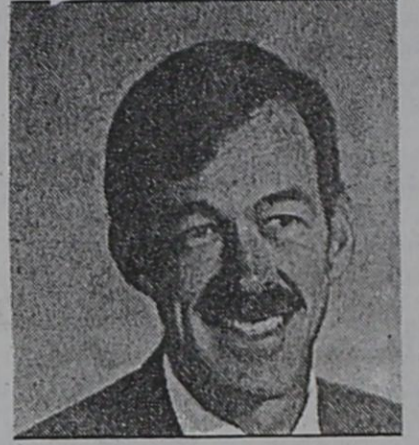

The day will begin with a worship service at 9:30 a.m. and the festivities will continue throughout the day.

Rev. Hennings will speak about "Proclaiming God's Wonders" at the 9:30 service. He will then lead a Bible study at 10:30 and discuss various aspects of outreach in home missions. A complimentary pot-luck dinner will be served at noon.

The day's activities will continue at 2:30 with Rev. Hennings speaking on the topic of "Expanding Your Vision."

A light supper will then be served at 4 p.m.

St. John Lutheran Church of Lariat cordially invites you to join with us for a time of worship, food and fellowship in sharing the good news of Jesus Christ.

by Isaac Nicolas
Thank you for all my hands can hold: apples red and melons gold, yellow corn both ripe and sweet, peas and beans so good to eat.

by Michael Lucio
I am thankful for all the trees and even the bees. I am thankful for Thanksgiving dinners. I am thankful for: everybody because we are winners. I am thankful for candy so sweet. I am most thankful for my family that can't be beat.

by Sandra Galvan
I'm thankful for every person here in Texas, and I'm thankful for food we can eat, and I'm also thankful for water so we can eat.

by Ivi Eastwick
Thank you for all my eyes can see, lovely sunlight, fields and trees, white clouds, boats in sea- deep sky soaring birds and butterflys.

by Clint Corn
Thanksgiving is fun, 'Cause you eat at your grandma's house. If you eat too much, you'll blow up on your fluffy couch.

by Angela Papa
I am thankful for food. I think it is very, very good. I love to eat it. I love every bit. I eat it all day long.

by Erin Norton
I am thankful for my parents and my kinfolks. I am thankful for Thanksgiving and for all my friends.

by Chelsi Kaltwasser
I am thankful for: tractors, combines, plows, headers, barns, sprinklers, irrigation motors, corn, wheat, cotton, milo, elevators, gins, houses, churches, parents and food.

by Shane Roberts
I am thankful for a community and a nation that is free and not at war. I am also thankful for the freedom to go to church where I please, too. And, to live in a community where all men are created equal. This is why I'm thankful.

Recipe of Week

Cheese bites

- 3 Tbs. grated parmesan cheese
- 3 Tbs. grated sharp cheddar cheese
- 3 Tbs. grated swiss cheese
- 1 pkg. (10 count) biscuits
- 1/4 c. melted butter
- dash of Worcestershire sauce
- dash of Tabasco
- paprika

Mix butter, Worcestershire and Tabasco together. Cut each biscuit into four pieces. Roll each in butter mixture, and then into cheeses. Place on a baking sheet. Dust with paprika. Bake at 425 degrees about 8 minutes each, or until golden brown and puffy. Serve hot.

by Eva
I am thankful for friends, TV, food, school, Christmas, Halloween, everything.

by Pam and Con
Thanksgiving is the time for giving and a time for eating. When friends and relations visit and eat. It is the time for the Indian and Pilgrims long, ago and a time for joy.

by Tyler Chadwick, Grant Oppliger, Jerimiah Foley
Oh Thanksgiving, Oh Thanksgiving, I so like the food. It puts me in the Thanksgiving mood. Oh Thanksgiving, Oh Thanksgiving, it's on the 26th. It makes me feel so great, oh yea!

Trees and birds are wilderness, but Thanksgiving is a lot of bliss, when families are all forever, rain sunshine or any weather, Thanksgiving brings us all together.

by Jami
I am thankful for my family, my friends, my food, my boyfriend.

by Brittany Duffield
Fall is orange. Turkeys are brown. Thanksgiving is near. Thanksgiving is here.

by Eleisa Loera
I am thankful for my family. I am thankful for my food. I am thankful for the house I live in, but most of all I'm thankful for you.

by Kacey
What are you thankful for my family and friends. Also I'm thankful for my pets. My last thing I'm thankful for is my being an American.

by Humberta Garcia
I am thankful for my family, my teachers, Mr. Owens, and mostly my Lord God for giving me my life, friends, shelter, food to eat, and clothing.

by Shara Taylor
I am thankful for Thanksgiving and my family. I'm thankful for my mom and my dad for helping me and my brothers. I'm also thankful for my brothers even though they are mean to me. Those are just a few things I am thankful for.

by Timmy Taylor
There are lots of things I am thankful for. The first thing I am thankful for is my family. The second thing that I am thankful for is my teacher, Mrs. Gregory. The third thing I am thankful for is my home. The fourth thing that I am thankful for is the U.S.

Lazbuddie rolls again!

The Lazbuddie Longhorns passed another difficult task as they won the Region 1 semi-final last Friday at Silverton. Lazbuddie, 12-0, downed Valley, 25-14, to advance to the regional finals.

The Longhorns now take on Dell City (9-2) in the state quarter-finals at Tunnell Field in Lenorah at 8 p.m. Friday (today). Lenorah is 22 miles south of Lamesa.

The cost is $2 for students and $3 for adults. Also, a pep rally is scheduled Friday afternoon.

Rainy conditions caused a total of 15 turnovers. But once again, QB Brett Thomas was on the mark, as he completed 12 of 19 passes for 156 yards.

Valley opened the scoring on a 32-yard TD run in the first quarter. The kick was blocked and Valley was up 6-0. But Lazbuddie responded with two TDs in the same quarter. First, Leland Brockman tallied on a 32-yard pass from Thomas; the kick failed. Then, Jon Colby Miller scored on a 4-yard pass from Thomas; the pass for extra point failed. So Lazbuddie went ahead 12-6 at the stop.

The second quarter saw only one TD - when Matt Cozby took in a 13-yard TD pass from Thomas. The extra point scored on a pass from Mario Zamora to Shannon Bomer. At the half, Lazbuddie led 19-6.

The third quarter was scoreless. In the final period, Valley scored on a 7 yard pass, followed by a kick. Lazbuddie's lead was cut to 19-14.

A key play then happened with 2 1/2 minutes left. Dee Martinez caused a Valley fumble, recovered by Miller at the Valley 33. The drive was capped by a 1-yard TD plunge by Miller capped the win with 1:22 left. The pass for the extra point failed.

Individual statistics included: rushing - Miller, 9 for 60 yards; Zamora, 8 for 12; Cozby, 1 for 7, and Thomas, 13 for -55. Passing - Thomas, 12 of 19 for 156 yards; Zamora, 1 for 1 and 12 yards. Receiving - Zamora, 4 for 47 yards; Cozby, 3 for 64; Martinez, 2 for 28; Miller, 2 for 17, and Brockman, 1 for 12.

Team statistics were: first downs - Lazbuddie 11, Valley 5; rushing - Lazbuddie 31 for 24 yards; Valley 47 for 167; passing - Lazbuddie 13 of 20 for 168 yards; Valley 1 of 8 for 15; punting average - Lazbuddie 36 yards, Valley 23; penalties - Lazbuddie 6 for 32; Valley 5 for 20.

Texico and Farwell schools were both closed Tuesday due to an additional 2-3" of snow.

Farwell's basketball games against Morton Tuesday were cancelled.

Lazbuddie Schools started two hours late.

Roads were slick and snow covered, causing several accidents along the highway.

 Waste Management did not pick up trash earlier this week as they usually do. All Texico trash will be picked up on Friday.

 Rex and Susan McCloy and children of Stinnett were holiday guests in the home of Susan's parents, Gil and Jean Patschke.

Friday afternoon the group toured Cannon Air Force Base. They were joined by Ken Harris and sons from Gruver who flew in to see the planes. Fred Espinosa, a close family friend, and public affairs officer at Cannon conducted the tour. Mike, Craig, Jennifer, Laura and Jon enjoyed a snowy day playing games and eating dinner.

 Between 2 and 3 inches of snow covered the Twin - Cities Sturdy morning, making several of the streets slick.

 A financial seminar for farm wives and women land owners will be held Dec. 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the 9th Street Church of Christ in Farwell.

Speakers include Curt Miller, Jack Allen Kirkland and Mike Ratke. It's free to the public.

Marshal's Report

The Texico Marshal's office has been busy assisting with weather related traffic accidents.

Marshal Fry Urioste asked that residents be especially careful around the school. Katherine Street is now a one way street. "We almost had some run the wrong way," said Urioste.

Urioste also reminded residents that the speed limit around the schools is 15 miles per hour. "We've had some people trying to go about 35 miles per hour, and we just can't have that. We have to give tickets for that."

Attend confab

Two members of the Texico chapter of Future Homemakers of America, Tasha Cochran and Peggy Kelley, participated in a weekend leadership training conference in Albuquerque Nov. 13-15.

Chapter advisor Kendale Burch accompanied the members to the Albuquerque meeting.

A Thanksgiving Message

We are thankful for our friends, who help us to look forward to every day ... for our neighbors, who make life pleasant ... for our churches, which give meaning and hope to us ... for our schools, which help build our next generation toward better lives and higher accomplishments ... for our community, in which we find comfort and safety ... for our land, which provides sustenance to us all ... for our freedoms, which give meaning and value to our individual lives. May we never take these blessings for granted.

Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day finally found its niche in the American calendar. Sarah Josepha Hale, editor of the American Ladies' Magazine and then Godey's Lady's Book from 1837 to 1877, persistently urged President Lincoln to make the annual day of Thanksgiving a national festival. Therefore, on Oct. 3, 1863, President Lincoln issued a Proclamation of Thanksgiving which states in part,

I do therefore invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens. And I recommend to them that while offering up the aspirations justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to His tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand to heal the wounds of the nation and restore it as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquillity and Union.

The following year President Lincoln issued another Proclamation of Thanksgiving, dated Oct. 20, 1864, appointing the last Thursday in November "as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to Almighty God the beneficent Creator and Ruler of the Universe." Thanksgiving Day was not, however, the only occasion for which Lincoln issued a Proclamation of Thanksgiving. He made a Proclamation of Thanksgiving for Victories on April 10, 1862, which was to be observed by the people of the United States on their next occasion of public worship. Then again on July 15, 1863, Lincoln "set apart Thursday the 6th day of August next, to be observed as a day for National Thanksgiving Praise and Prayer..." Apparently, God deserves to be thanked more frequently than once per year.

Succeeding presidents, from 1864 until 1939, annually proclaimed the last Thursday in November as the day of national thanksgiving. President Franklin D. Roosevelt parted with tradition in 1939, however, and appointed the fourth, but not the last, Thursday of the month, Nov. 23, as Thanksgiving Day. Many states resisted the change and observed Thanksgiving Day on Nov. 30 that year. Roosevelt continued through the Thanksgiving season of 1941 to appoint the next-to-last Thursday of November as Thanksgiving Day in order to leave more time between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

In December 1941, however, the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives adopted a joint resolution officially designating the fourth Thursday of November as Thanksgiving day. President Roosevelt approved this resolution on Dec. 26, 1941, 19 days after Pearl Harbor. This is the heritage of Thanksgiving Day, a heritage fashioned in triumph and tragedy, prosperity and hardship, union and adversity, freedom and sacrifice.

Where we begin to learn about and experience Thanksgiving Day, however, is within our own families. There a thankful mother and father teach son and daughter every day, in one way or another, about gratitude to God. We learn that the giving of thanks to another is pleasant and rewarding. It is as members of families the we learn that thanks may be given even in hardship, adversity and sacrifice. We rejoice in what we have, rather than grumble about what we do not have. Helen Keller exemplified this attitude when she said, "So much has been given to me; I have not time to ponder over that which has been denied." This quality of gratitude derives only from a humble spirit that marvels that it can be so well thought of and treated.

As families gather for Thanksgiving day they bring with them a mixture of old and new. Traditions, old and familiar are revived and reinforced in new generations. Pleasant aromas emanating from the kitchen, reminiscent of mom's cooking, whet appetites so keenly that the turkey would tremble if it was not already past all fear. Famished bodies crowd about the dinner table with voracious intent. "Thanksgiving Day!

Let all give humble, hearty, and sincere thanks now, but the turkeys" ... Pudd'nhead Wilson's Calendar, by Mark Twain. Adult and children alike become like Stuffy, one of Louisa May Alcott's characters in Little Men, who "leaned to the popular belief that Thanksgiving must be kept by coming as near apoplexy as possible, and escaping with merely a fit of indigestion or headache."

It is inevitable, though, that thoughts turn to "memories of voices sweet, of beauty fresh and eager feet that will not run again our way" (Adelaide R. Kemp). Empty chairs are but symbols of the places that loved ones, now silent, filled in our families and in our hearts. But the heritage of love and gratitude which they received and passed down now enriches their families beyond words. As the end of Thanksgiving Day came in Little Men, the flock of children encompassed Father and Mother Båher, singing,

*Summer days are over,
Summer work is done.
Harvests have been gathered
Gaily one by one.*

*Now the feast is eaten,
Finished is the play,
But one rite remains for
Our Thanksgiving Day,*

*But of all harvest
In the dear God's sight.
Are the happy children
In the home tonight*

*And we come to offer
Thanks where thanks are due,
With grateful hearts and voices*

Father, Mother, unto you.

So, the sweet fragrance of thankfulness joins the aroma of a feast devoured. But this is a fragrance, and an American heritage, born from love. "For love is a flower that grows in any soil, works its sweet miracles undaunted by autumn frost or winter snow, blooming fair and fragrant all the year, and blessing those who give and those who receive"...(Louisa May Alcott).

I am thankful for the grass that grows and the wind that blows. I am thankful for the school that teaches me how to read and write and all the Pilgrims that gave us Thanksgiving.

by Megan

I Am Thankful for : My friends, my family, my dog, for God and most of all for Thanksgiving.

by Lorisa Littlejohn

I'm thankful for my teachers. They stand up on the bleachers and cheer right on for us. Not one time have I heard Mrs. Taylor fuss. She takes a lickin' but always keeps on ticking. But, best of all, she never lets us down!

by Becky Nechell

I'm thankful for the education we get in this school, my family and my friends, for the food and the animals on this earth. Why am I thankful for these things? Because God made them.

by Dennis Dilbeck

I am most thankful for my family, they buy our food and house. I am also thankful for my savings account. It will help pay rent when I get enough money in it. That is what I am thankful for.

Thurmond joins sheriff's department

Bryan Thurmond

Bryan Thurmond, 23, is a new member of the Parmer County Sheriff's Department.

Thurmond got into law enforcement in a rather round-about manner. He was assigned to a combat engineering unit with the U.S. Marine Corps, but when Hurricane Hugo hit Puerto Rico he found himself quickly cross-trained to serve with the military police.

"Mostly we were patrolling and watching for looters," said Thurmond.

Thurmond returned to Cherry Point, N.C., for a short time before his unit was called to serve in Operation Desert Shield and Desert Storm. When the boiler of the USS Iwo Jima had problems, his unit disembarked at Bahrain, and then started going north.

"We built hospitals and disarmed mines," he said. Thurmond also served with a Tactical Rescue of Air Craft Personnel while he was in the Marines. "I've had enough excitement, I'll tell you that," he noted.

Here in Parmer County, Thurmond will learn more about civilian law enforcement procedures while he works in the Sheriff's Department. He also hopes to find some time for his hobbies - rodeo and golf.

Thurmond is looking forward to achieving some long range goals. "I would like to get into a canine division and work with dogs, maybe 8 or 9 years from now," he said. "Some day I'd like to go home to my own home county (Carson County) and run for sheriff."

I am most thankful for my family because some kids don't have a family or some kids don't have a mother or father.

The next thing I'm thankful for is my home. Some families don't have a home. I am lucky to have these things.

by Natasha McIntosh

I am most thankful for my family. We can live our lives and be together. I am also thankful for my friends. Friends mean I won't be lonely. I'll have someone to play with and someone to talk with about important stuff. I love both of these things dearly.

by Chris Hall

I'm thankful that I have a house, a mom and a tv. That's all you need in life. I am thankful for my family because they love me and I love them. I am thankful for my friends because we play, ride bikes, and come to my house sometimes. These are just two of the things I'm thankful for.

by Jesus Retana

I am most thankful for my family, uncles, and friends. They come to my house and play with me. They are nice to me.

I am thankful for God because he made me thankful. I live God, too.

by Denise Whitener

I am most thankful for my family. They are great. They are loving. They are caring. They take time out to be with Dustin and me. They take time out if we have any plays. My mom goes on my field trips.

I am also thankful for my brother because he cares for me. He looks after me; he corrects me, and he loves me. I am glad I have a family and a brother.

Sheriff's Report

Here is the weekly report from Parmer County Sheriff Rex Williams:

On Nov. 23, Richard Padilla, 20, Bovina, was arrested by the sheriff's office on a charge of theft by worthless check. The case is pending in county court.

On Nov. 21, the sheriff's office, Texas Highway Patrol and state crews worked all day to try to keep the highways clear in Parmer County during the snowstorm.

A lot of vehicles ended in ditches, and the highway to Amarillo was closed in Parmer County for five hours.

In 287th District Court, with Judge Jack D. Young presiding:

- On Nov. 20, Procuo Lomas Rocha, 20, Friona, charged with failure to stop and render aid, received 3 years unadjudicated probation.

- On Nov. 10, Gregorio Portillo, 23, Friona, charged with DWI, received a sentence of 5 years probated. In a separate case, Portillo, charged with DWI subsequent offense, received a sentence of 3 years probated.

- On Nov. 10, Salvador Salas, 23, Dimmitt, charged with aggravated assault, received a sentence of 3 years in the Texas Department of Corrections probated.

Fire Calls

On Nov. 18, the Texico Fire Department ambulance made a non-emergency transfer from Texico to Clovis Hospital at 9:44 p.m. mst.

The Farwell fire department was called out twice Nov. 21.

At 4:29 p.m., they went to a power pole on fire east of Farwell.

At 10:11, the ambulance went to 903 4th St.

Thank You

Yes, this is that special time of year during which we give thanks for our many blessings — for health, happiness, our loved ones, our homes, our jobs, and many things that enrich our lives. And on this special day, we want to say "Thank you" — to our many friends and customers. We want you to know that we will continue our efforts to give the finest service, any time and always — whenever you call upon us. Many, many, thanks and —
A HAPPY, HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Farwell Elementary PTA Christmas Greeting Project

Dear Parents:

Farwell Elementary PTA is once again sponsoring the Christmas Greeting project.

For those not familiar with this project, we are asking for a donation. In turn, we will place your name or your family members' names in the special State Line Tribune Christmas greeting card issue, wishing all your friends and relatives in the area a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. It will save you the time and money that are usually spent on sending individual cards.

Farwell Elementary PTA will use your donation for playground equipment to be used by all of your children.

Below is a form for you to fill out and send back with your donation. We would like to have these back by Dec. 17th. Please send it to the Farwell Elementary School office.

Thank you for your support.

We would like to donate $ _____ to the Christmas Card project. This is how I would like for my (our) name(s) to appear in the State Line Tribune:

- Thanksgiving Letters -

by Joel Barrett
I am thankful for the people that created Thanksgiving. I am thankful for the turkey. I am thankful for the people that come. I am thankful for the pilgrims that ate the Thanksgiving.

by Kriston Coates
I am thankful for many things. One of them is family and friends. Also, I'm thankful for school so I can learn. I am also thankful for my house so I won't have to stay out in the bad weather.

by Michael Hernandez
I am thankful for many things. I am thankful for my family and my blessings. Thanksgiving is a time to be with your friends. I am thankful for all the food on the table.

by Karissa Foster
I'm thankful for my family because they keep care of me and love me. I'm also thankful for my beautiful country and state that I live in. I'm thankful for the animals like cats, dogs, rabbits and sheep. I'm thankful for the whole USA.

by Cade Christian
These are the things I'm thankful for. I'm thankful for my family. I'm thankful for my house. I'm thankful for my pets. I'm thankful for everything.

by Ashlee Hunt
What are you thankful for? I am thankful for my family. I am even thankful for my brother even though he bugs me all the time. I am also thankful for my pets. Now tell me what you're thankful for.

by Kolby Kimbrough
I'm thankful for my teacher even though she gives us homework. But it isn't too hard, usually. She is very nice, and she lets us do fun art.

by Amanda Galvan
I'm thankful for a lot of things; for example, the clothes on my back, the food I eat, and the house I live in. Those are only a few of the things I'm thankful for. The other things I'm thankful for are my sisters, my brothers, my niece, and my dad. Those are the things I'm thankful for.

by Lane McFarland
I'm thankful for God and Jesus. I'm thankful for my family. I'm thankful for Mrs. Gregory, my teacher. I'm thankful for all the people. I'm thankful for everything.

by Jennifer
What I am thankful for is my family, friends and blessings that God gives us. When Thanksgiving comes I will remember all of the things I am thankful for.

by Megan Johnson
What are you thankful for? When it comes to Thanksgiving, I begin to think of what I'm thankful for. I know I've always been thankful for my family that always helps me when I need help. Then I'm thankful for any friends who always make me smile. Now I have my house which is nice and warm to live in. I am glad that God made all these things to be thankful for.

by Chris Hart
I am thankful for a bunch of things. Mostly I am thankful for my Lord and family. I am also thankful for clothes, shelter is least important to me, but I'm thankful for it too.

by Kristin Rana Ford
I am thankful for so many things. I am thankful for Emma, Texan, and Chelsie who are my pets. I am thankful for my family, my friends and everything I have. I have a lot compared to most kids. I am thankful for my environment, it's great! Most of all, I am thankful for animals, and the Lord, Jesus.

by Christopher Sena
Something I'm thankful for is sweet, loving, caring. That something I'm thankful for is my dad.

Something I'm thankful for is friends, cousins, aunts. Something I'm thankful for is my mom.
Something I'm thankful for is kind, nice, friendly. That something I'm thankful for is my baby sister, a house, clothes. That something I'm thankful for is food.

Something I'm thankful for is toys, shoes, to get to play basketball. That something I'm thankful for is to get to play baseball.

by Nicole Espinoza
Something I'm thankful for is small, black haired, and sweet. That something I'm thankful for is my mom.

Something I'm thankful for is tall, black haired. That something I'm thankful for is my sister. Something I'm thankful for is black haired, big, sweet. That something I'm thankful for is tall, strong.

That something I'm thankful for is my brother.
Something I'm thankful for is people, chairs, teachers. That something I'm thankful for is school.

by Michael Rivers
Something I'm thankful for kisses me, likes me a lot. That something I'm thankful for is my Mom.

Something I'm thankful for gives me money, loves me a lot, and lets me do stuff. That something I'm thankful for is my dad.

Something I'm thankful for cares a lot, loves me a lot, gives me a lot. That something I'm thankful for is my brother.

Something I'm thankful for looks out for me, cares for me. That something is my brother.

Something I'm thankful for loves me, cares a lot, looks out for me. That something I'm thankful for is my brother.

by Josh Garcia
Something I'm thankful for is red, metal, fast, no trouble. That something I am thankful for is my Ferrari.

Something I am thankful for is funny, brown, eats a lot, and shakes hands. That something is my cousin's dog.

Someone I am thankful for is funny, nice, playful, happy. That someone is my cousin Tyler.

Something I am thankful for is nice, kind, best. That someone is myself.

Computer approved

The Parmer County Commissioners Monday approved a computer for the Farwell Justice of the Peace.

They also gave the go-ahead to the sheriff to buy a new car, and accepted the bid of West Texas Equipment for a motor grader for Bovina precinct.

Something to think about:

Happiness is the result of discovering that you do not have to have what you want.

Earn 10% interest* on a unique Valley Time CD.

- Order a system now.
- Let your system investment work for you all fall and winter at 10% APR.
- Take late delivery, too.
- So lock in your best price.
- And lock in a delivery date now.
- Act before December 31st - see your local Valley dealer for full details.
- Remember - the sooner you act the more you'll save!

*The "interest" on a "Valley CD" is intended to be a rebate from the selling price and not interest income on an investment. Offer expires December 31, 1992.

Steers defeat Whiteface

The Farwell Steers upped their record to 2-0 Saturday with a 67-48 win over Whiteface at home.

Farwell originally was to play Plains, but that game was cancelled because Plains is still playing football. So Whiteface signed up, instead. The Steers applied full court pressure the entire game to cause a multitude of turnovers. Up by only 5 at the half, they turned it on in the 3rd quarter, eventually winning by 19.

Scoring were: Brent Harrison, 13; Ryan Williams, 11; Kade Kent, 9; Eric Delgado and Jeremy Ortiz, 8 each; Derrick Haseloff, 3; Clay Corn, 7; Troy Cunningham, 5; Rob Pomper, 2, and Shawn Haseloff, 1. Jon Cunningham played but didn't score.

Varsity Girls

Farwell's varsity and JV girls didn't play Saturday because the bus bringing the Whiteface girls turned back at Morton due to the snow. The bus with the boys had arrived in the morning before the weather got too severe.

JV Boys

Farwell's JV Boys beat Whiteface Saturday, 47-28.

Scoring were Reagan Williams, 17; Lupe Garza, 11; Nash Armstrong, 4; Jason Lusk, 6, and Blaze Hardage, 9.

9th Boys

Farwell's freshman boys lost to Whiteface Saturday, 47-41.

Scoring were Jared Franse, 2; Chase Hardage, 16; Nic Ketcherside, 2; Brock Taylor and Jerry Landrum, 4; and Landon Lunsford, 13.

8th Boys

The Farwell 8th Grade boys beat Melrose 63-34 in the first game of the Melrose tournament.

The rest of the tourney was called off due to bad weather. The teams may face off again later in the season.

Upcoming Sports

Saturday, Nov. 28
Farwell basketball teams (JV boys, varsity girls and varsity boys) host Floyd at 5 p.m.

Monday, Nov. 30
Texico 7-8 (9B) boys basketball teams host Marshall at 3:30 p.m. mst; 7-8 (9B) girls basketball teams play at Marshall at 3:30 p.m. mst.
Farwell Junior High basketball teams play Bovina. Boys (7 & 8) will play in Farwell; girls (7 & 8) will play in Bovina. Games begin at 5 p.m.
Lazbuddie Junior High basketball teams play at Happy starting at 5 p.m.

Tuesday, Dec. 1
Farwell (JV boys and girls and varsity boys and girls) plays at Muleshoe at 5 p.m. mst.
Texico 7-8 boys/ girls play at Dora at 5 p.m. mst.
Lazbuddie basketball teams play at Vega starting at 4 p.m. All high school teams play.

Hospital Notes

Jack Glenn is home from the hospital.

Jean Wozencraft - Ormelas, choir director at the Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church, had surgery. She is now home from the hospital.

Area police 'featured'

An article in the recent issue of "Easyriders" Magazine for motorcyclists featured the chase in Parmer County last summer of two kids on cycles, who were finally cornered in a cornfield.

The article notes that police involved included Parmer County sheriff's office; Texico; Curry, Deaf Smith, Castro, and Bailey counties; state troopers and a helicopter from Lubbock. Plus cowboys from a nearby feed lot and neighboring farmers on ATVs.

The article, which poked humor at Texas, noted the Texas charges were resisting arrest and failure to wear protective headgear. The article was entitled "Hard-Ass Texas Cops."

Thanksgiving

It's a time for lifting grateful hearts in prayer... and for taking joy in all life's little miracles.

'Christmas on Parade'

Ricky and Roene Stewart served up hammer and saw shaped cookies at Farwell Hardware.

Lori Stanley, Miss Bordertown Days, and Santa Claus were on hand at the Texico Community Center.

Beauty Box's Mardee Grissom (left) and Frances Kube had a booth at JMC Company.

Peggy and Chris Gikas greeted guests at their open house Sunday with a big smile.

Donna and Mike Ratke wrapped lots of presents during the Christmas open house at Farwell United Drug.

Unwavering!

God loves you. The greatest fact in the world today is that God loves us individually. He is waiting to do something for us, to bless us, and to help us.
