Time to attack the cause

Just like you did, I felt awfully good to see our jets intercept that plane carrying the terrorists and deliver it to Italy.

The problem of dealing with the Palestinians is most vexing. I can appreciate the need for a Jewish homeland and I support Israel, one of our nation's closest allies.

But I also feel that the Palestinians deserve a homeland of their own.

When hundreds of thousands of Palestinians fled the new nation of Israel in 1948 (or were booted out, depending on whose version of history you support), an international problem was started. The Palestinians were placed in camps in surrounding nations, like Jordan and Lebanon.

But they were -- and still are -- considered foreigners by their fellow Arabs. And decade after decade they were kept in their isolated camps, a breeding ground for terrorists.

Eventually, Jordan kicked them out. And the Israelis, in their attack on Lebanon last year, pushed out the most militant of them. But those Palestinians still remaining in Lebanon and Syria and elsewhere -- plus those who live under Israeli jurisdiction on the West Bank -- feel the need for their own homeland.

I feel that unless their needs are met, we can expect terrorism from that quarter to continue. Because it seems that's the only weapon the Palestinians feel they have to keep their cause in front of the world. Sad.

I think we are seeing a movement on the part of Arafat's Palestinian faction, which to my way of thinking is the leading voice of the Palestinians, to accept the fact that Israel is here to stay. Once that occurs, I would hope that Israeli leaders and the Palestinians can sit down at the negotiating table and come up with a way of establishing a Palestinian homeland.

Perhaps, an autonomous region within the West Bank might be an answer. I really don't know. I do know how suspicious the Israelis are of what kind of autonomous government might develop so close to them; considering the fact that Israel has fought several wars since becoming independent, that's understandable.

But there comes a time when trust is needed. And current policies toward the Palestinian militants are not working.

This is not to say that I condone terrorism. I definitely don't. But I am sitting in the safety of a peaceful community within the confines of the world's greatest democracy.

Try putting on the shoes of a man who has spent 35 years living in a refugee camp, being given just enough sustenance to survive and being treated with contempt as a foreigner. Consider how your family would deal with that situation on a longtime basis. As I said, this is an ideal breeding ground for terrorists who feel there is no other way to gain their end, which they consider honorable: a home.

There are other ways to deal with terrorism, of course. But most are reactions, not actions. The better way, I feel, is to take action at the root of the problem. In the case of the Palestinians, that means a home is needed. Until that happens, I'm afraid, hijackings of ships and planes will continue to be commonplace.

Obviously, there are other terrorists abounding in the world: the Red gangs in Italy and West Germany, the Libyans, the Iranians. I just don't put them in the same boat with the Palestinians. To me, they are more short-term problems that can be dealt with effectively through other means. But the Palestinian problem has been with us for almost 40 years and will continue to be a major world concern until actions -- not reactions -- are taken.

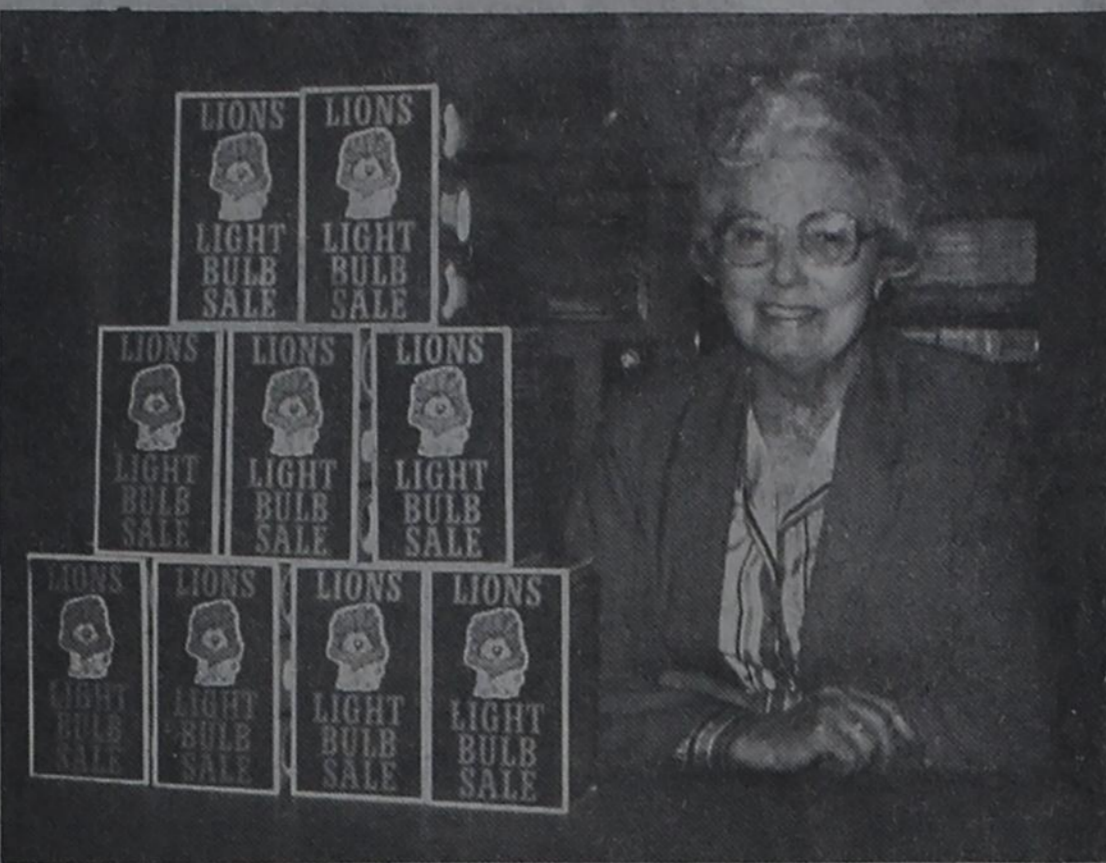

Summing up, I again applaud President Reagan for his decisive use of our air power to put the ship terrorists in a place where they can stand trial for their crimes.

Now it's time for actions.

I got to see my first Texas Tech football game last weekend, now that I'm a "Red Raider Dad."

It was disappointing. On one hand, I thought the players did a very good job against No.

Texico wins

Texico's Wolverines won a thriller over Hagerman at Texico's Homecoming last Friday, 20-17.

The win in overtime brought Texico's record to 5-2 on the season and 2-0 in district. The Wolverines play Melrose in an away game tonight at 7:30 MDT.

Against Hagerman, Texico opened the game with a quick TD with less than three minutes gone on the clock. After moving the ball downfield, Stanley Cross rushed for a 1-yard touchdown. The two point conversion was good on a Charlie Bibbs' run.

Hagerman came back a few minutes later, as Adan Ornelas scored on a 3-yard scamper. The run failed, leaving Texico ahead 8-6.

Still in the first quarter, Cross had a 4-yard TD run. His extra point kick was blocked, making the score 14-6.

Before halftime, Hagerman was able to tie the score as Manny Quiroz caught a 17-yard pass from Frank Salas. The two-point pass featuring the same duo was good.

The second half was a defensive struggle with neither team scoring. Hagerman missed two field goals, with one in the closing minutes blocked by Mark Meeks.

With the score tied at the end of regulation play, an overtime was held. First Hagerman got the ball at the Texico 20. On fourth down, Quiroz kicked a 26-yard field goal.

Then it was Texico's turn. After a long run by Kyle Snipes, Cross dove over from the 1 yard line to give the Wolverines a victory.

According to Coach David Lynn, "This was a physical battle. It was a contact game. Everyone played hard."

"Hagerman was ready to play. But we played the best ball game of the year. We made mistakes, but we overcame them.

"I feel real good. The credit goes to the team. Also, coaches Roy King and Borde Williams did super. A coach is about as good as the players out on the field."

Individual statistics for Texico were:

Rushing: Charlie Bibbs, 30 for 177 yards; Stan Cross, 13 for 30 yards; John Thomas, 6 for 10 yards; Larry Dudley, 1 for 0 yards, and Kyle Snipes, 4 for 19 yards.

Passing: John Thomas, 7 of 11 for 87 yards and one interception.

Receiving: Eric Harding, 1 for 15 yards; David Loera, 1 for 27 yards; Kyle Snipes, 2 for 8 yards and Stan Cross, 3 for 37 yards.

Texico stops Portales

The Texico Junior High seventh and eighth volleyball team defeated Portales 15-0 and 15-10.

The Texico's eighth and ninth defeated Portales 15-12 and 17-15. The junior high lost to Floyd 15-11, 9-15 and 15-13 on Oct. 15.

"The junior high teams played real well. They served and ran the offense as well as we have all year," said Coach Michael Littlejohn.

Big Lick Awards

The recipients of the Big Lick Award for this week are Texico's Jesse Garcia, left, John Thomas and Cory McDaniel. Garcia played well offensively and had seven tackles on the defense. He did an excellent job blocking, said Coach David Lynn. Thomas played a super job as quarterback. He made six tackles. He hit seven out of 11 passes. McDaniel played real well offensively, said Lynn.

Homecoming dinner

Above, RaDonna Snipes and De-lores Meeks help serve the barbecue supper Friday night at Texico Homecoming. The event had a large turnout. The supper was put on by the Texico Booster Club.

Vega blanks Farwell Junior

The Farwell Junior High football team lost to Vega 18-0, Oct. 10.

"We probably would have won if not for the turnovers, fumbles and interceptions," said Coach Gary Cates.

"We had three times as much yardage as Vega. The kids played well. We looked better offensively and defensively. The offensive line has improved."

All of Vega's touchdowns came from good field position, said Cates. Monte Delgado cracked his elbow and will be out for rest of season.

Greg Actkinson has been moved to linebacker.

Bruce White, fullback and Shawn Stewart, tailback, ran real well against Vega, said Cates.

6-ranked Arkansas in a 30-7 loss. The game was very close through three quarters until the Hogs pulled away.

Tech has an able young quarterback who threw the ball very well. But he was very slow on the run. So what kind of an offense did the coaches design for him to run? The wishbone, which calls for a very fast quarterback and one who doesn't necessarily have to pass well.

I always thought it a maxim in football that an offense was designed for the type of players it uses. It seems Texas Tech has that backwards.

The federally-funded cheese and butter giveaway for Precinct 1 of Parmer County will be Oct. 17 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Farwell Community Center.

Smallwood, Martin wed

Miss Sheranette Elizabeth Smallwood became the bride of William David Martin, Jr., in a double ring ceremony Sept. 7 in the First Baptist Church of Farwell. The wedding ceremony was performed by Bro. Pat Riley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Smallwood of Farwell. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Martin of Lariat.

The vows were exchanged at the altar which was centered with a brass wedding arch draped with silk stephanotis garlands and greenery holding column of baskets with white mums and gladiolus, dusty rose carnations and baby's breath. A halo topped the arch with seven votive cups filled with dusty rose candles.

Two larger baskets of silk coordinating flowers flanked the wedding arch. Draped banisters with silk garlands of greenery and small bouquets of accenting flowers complimented the altar. At the foot of the altar, two brass votive stands decorated with silk greenery and dusty rose baby's breath joined the altar and banisters. The altar background was designed with silk palm trees and parlor ferns.

The parents' pews were decorated with silk greenery and stephanotis, dusty rose pixi carnations and baby's breath accented with a votive cup and dusty rose satin bow.

The unity candle, featuring an array of silk flowers, held a place of honor by the guest book table in the church foyer. The two tapers were lighted before the ceremony.

The wedding music was presented by organist Marjorie Watkins. Soloists Jack Smallwood, brother of the bride, sang "My Love For You"; Lonnetta Hudgens, cousin of the groom, sang "You're My Only Love"; Rusty and Jack Smallwood, brothers of the bride, sang "To Me."

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her father. The bride's formal gown of white silk organza featured a fitted bodice and full skirt. The bodice was enhanced with Alecon lace motif with seed pearls outlining the sweetheart neckline and stand up collar. Pearl buttons fastened the back of the bodice and the wide cuffs of the full gathered sleeves. The A-line skirt fell to a lace trimmed hem, sweeping to backfulness and forming a Cathedral train. Lace appliques and pearls trimmed the skirt front panel and train. Her Alecon and satin pearl beaded pancake style hat featured a French net blusher with a pearl studded waltz length veil.

The bride's bouquet was a soft flowing cascade of silk white gladiolus, dusty rose filler flowers and rose buds with clusters of white satin and lace ribbon with satin and lace streamers attached to mini "Kissi balls" of co-ordinating flowers and bows. The bouquet was accented with pink satin and pearl hearts.

Serving as maid of honor was Rhonda Dale of Farwell, cousin of the groom. The bridesmaid was Shelley Ford of Farwell. Their dresses were waltz length gowns made of dusty rose Chantilly lace over taffeta featuring a round neckline cut low in the back, with shirred lace sleeves and a taffeta bow accenting the waistline. They carried nosegays of silk white carnations, dusty rose pixi carnations, satin and lace ribbon tufts framed in lace complimenting the brides bouquet.

The best man was Danny Davis, cousin of the groom, of Clovis. The ushers were Paul Fulcher, cousin of the bride, and Gary White, both of Farwell. The groomsmen were Rusty Smallwood, brother of the bride, from Levelland.

For something old, the bride wore her great-great-grandmother's gold wedding band; something new was her dress; something borrowed was an ivory rose necklace and earrings borrowed from Peggy Goettsch; and something blue was her garter.

The mother of the bride wore a chiffon dusty rose street length dress with scalloped neckline. She wore a corsage of open roses with rose buds and baby's breath accented with opalesque ribbon.

The groom's mother wore a cream colored polyester crepe street length dress. She wore a corsage of open roses with rose buds and baby's breath accented with opalesque ribbon.

The reception was held in the recreation hall of the First Baptist Church. The bride and groom table was covered with dusty rose satin underlay with soft pink lace overlay enhanced with mini rosebuds and satin bows adorning the corners. The centerpiece was the bride's bouquet. To one side was crystal punch bowl with greenery draped around it, on the other side was the three-tier cake which was decorated with dusty-rose roses and a bride-groom caketon. After cutting the cake the bride and groom lit the unity candle signifying the two becoming one.

The unity candle, featuring an array of silk flowers, held a place of honor by the guest book table in the church foyer. The two tapers were lighted before the ceremony.

The bride's going-away attire was a blue plaid prairie skirt and blouse to match. The groom wore a western style shirt made of matching material made by the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Farwell High School. She attended Eastern New Mexico University and is employed with Aldridge, Harding, Aycock, and Actkinson law firm of Farwell.

The groom is a graduate of Farwell High School and is now farming near Lariat.

After a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M. the couple is at home at Lariat.

In rushing, Lance Akers had 6 carries for 20 yards; Spicer Lewis, 9 carries for 30 yards and one touchdown; Larry Powell, 1 carry for 4 yards; Keith Harrison, 2 carries for 56 yards; Mark Homes, 1 carry for 1 yard and Benjy McDaniel, 1 carry for 1 yard.

In receiving, Akers had two catches for 17 yards; Harrison, one catch for 17 yards, and Bill Daniel, one catch for 14 yards and one touchdown.

In passing, Larry Powell, hit 4 of 6 for 48 yards and one touchdown.

"Keith Harrison had a fine game on offense, while Larry Powell played well on defense," he said.

The next game is Oct. 19 at 10 a.m. (MDT) against Tucumcari 8th.

Lady Spikers defeat Floyd

The Texico Lady Spikers defeated Floyd in straight sets Tuesday to improve its district record to 4-2 and season record to 9-3.

The scores were 15-9, 15-11 and 15-2.

According to Coach Michael Littlejohn, "We got behind early in the first two games and came back to win. We had a few problems with our serves but stuck together and straightened them out and then began to play like we are capable. We were down 11-1 in the second game and came back and won 15-11. It was a super comeback effort. I only wish we wouldn't get in those situations. In the third game we just turned it loose and went after them."

"Loretta Gonzales had a super night setting. She is the best setter in Class A in New Mexico. No errors and 27 assists. She also was 100% in her serving and passing. No errors all night. Also, she had six saves.

"Kelly Lynn had her best spiking night, collecting 16 kills in 28 attempts with no errors and two stuff blocks.

"Helen Jo Boarman had an all-around good night with only three total errors. She served 85%, passed 100% with 18 excellent passes. She also had eight kills in 16 attempts, four blocks and five saves.

The Parmer County Commissioners Monday ordered voting booths for the November election.

In other business, Parmer County Sheriff Bill Morgan said new state requirements will mean that the jail will get new paint and lighting fixtures. He is checking into what is available.

Farwell loses

By DeAnn Curtis

In its first district game of the season, Farwell's Steers lost to a powerful Vega team, 17-6, at Vega. The loss drops Farwell's record to 3-3 for the season and 0-1 in district. Farwell took the opening kickoff. After being penalized, the Steers lost a fumble on its own 12 yard line. Farwell's defense dug in but Vega kicked a field goal with 8:33 left in the first quarter to take a 3-0 lead. The Steers were stymied again when Vega intercepted a pass meant for Eric Williams. But then Farwell recovered a Longhorn fumble. After a short Steer possession, Vega began moving down the field.

The Longhorns scored a TD with 1:07 left in the first quarter. The extra-point kick was good, making the score 10-0 in Vega's favor. The second quarter was scoreless. Several penalties were called on both teams and Vega scored a couple of quarterback sacks. In the third quarter, Farwell was still unable to move the ball toward paydirt and Vega scored again at the 4:51 mark. The kick was good and the score became 17-0. The Steers again were stopped and punted. Eric Williams intercepted a Vega pass to regain possession for Farwell. Blake Kelley completed a pass to Williams but the drive stalled and Vega took over at the 50 yard line. Three more penalties were called on Farwell in the final minutes of the game. Here's what Coach Monte Barnes had to say: "We received a lot of penalties for holding. The officials got overly-involved in the game. The officials would penalize us when the play would be away from the ball.

"Our kids became flag-shy. They played hard and well although we midhandled a punt and we fumbled on fourth and one."

Statistically, Barnes said Farwell had 14 first downs, to Vega's six. Farwell had 222 yards on total offense to Vega's 180.

Farwell hosts Lazbuddie at 7:30 p.m. tonight (Friday).

Texico JV splits pair

The Texico Junior Varsity volleyball team lost to Portales 15-4 and 15-6, Oct. 10.
