He walked out of the airplane and paused for a moment, looking all around the tropical countryside that lay before him. He and his group of fellow travelers were about to embark on the journey of a lifetime. They were the members of T.A.L.L. and the experiences that they were about to encounter would forever change their lives.

If this sounds like the beginning of an action adventure story to you, then sit back and read on. The adventure of a lifetime really happened for Vick Christian, of Oklahoma Lane.

Vick is a member of T.A.L.L. which is the acronym for "Texas Agriculture Lifetime Leadership." It is a program developed by the Texas A&M University Extension Service that was designed to further educate and develop agricultural industry leaders. Vick was selected for membership into T.A.L.L. through an application and several interviews. He even underwent a personality study as part of his placement into the T.A.L.L. class.

The program was started in Texas eight years ago after A&M Extension officials saw the need for agricultural leaders within the state and national governments and political processes. The entire goal of the program is to enlighten, educate and develop class members into leaders within their particular section of the agricultural industry.

Vick was informed about the program by David Cleavinger, a T.A.L.L. alumni and his cousin, Randy Darnell. He got an application from then-Parmer County Extension Agent Gary Patterson. His application was selected to be one of 80 people to advance to an interview session. Over 500 applications are received from all over the state.

After a lengthy interview, Vick was chosen to be one of 30 class members for T.A.L.L. 4. Each class is two years in length and it requires commitment and participation.

Vick's class consisted of 2 lawyers, 3 full time farmers, 2 ranchers, 3 TDA employees, 4 bankers, 1 broker, 1 crop consultant, 1 Realtor, 1 farm show manager, 2 seed salesmen, 1 implement dealer, 2 environmental consultants, 1 rep. of the Wheat Growers Association, 1 soil conservationist, 1 farm broadcaster and 1 electrical power company executive. Out of the thirty class members, four of them were women. This program seeks people from all aspects of ag related industry.

The T.A.L.L. class consists of classroom "field trips" to various locations within the state of Texas. There is also one trip to Austin to meet with state government officials and two out of state trips. Each place they travelled to had speakers and topics that were pertinent to that particular area.

Vick and his classmates travelled to McAllen, Texas and toured citrus operations and the American owned businesses that operated over the border in Mexico. They also went to Lubbock and Amarillo. When they went to Austin, they met with Gov. George Bush, Jr. and State Rep. Teel Bivins. They also met Dolph Brisco and State Supreme Court Justice Jack Hightower.

The class went to East Texas to tour various timber industry sites. The Temple Inland Co. donated the entire seminar to T.A.L.L. and hosted the class members to meals, lodging and tours. There Vick got to see first hand the dilemma that the timber industry is in due to the differences in private, inherited and government forests.

"I firmly believe that loggers are the best environmentalists," said Vick. "They are true guardsmen of the land and its resources. The problems that they are facing due to the bad practices or neglect in private and inherited forests are monumental."

The problems due to neglect and poor management are in large part caused by a bug. The Pine Beetle is killing trees and without the cooperation of private foresters, the larger corporate and government forests are in danger of the blight and death of their trees. The solution is very simple, but gaining total cooperation is difficult.

While Vick's class was in Houston, he got to observe three open heart surgeries being performed by renowned surgeon Dr. Cooley. He also had his eyes opened to the crime situation in Harris County while riding all night long with a pair of Houston Police officers.

"Eighty percent of the crime problem in Harris County is drug related," Vick said. "I also got to see the love-hate relationship between the police and the citizens of the drug-infested areas."

The class was also taught all about Body Language by expert Jan Hargrove. "I never knew the messages that a simple handshake can send!" Vick said.

When the class gathered in San Angelo, they participated in tours of sheep and goat ranches around the area. The wool and mohair industry is growing by leaps and bounds in the region. The class also heard a dynamic speaker by the name of Jack Jackson. Jackson is a former airline pilot. His area of expertise is in training and preparing executives and leaders for change. His speech hit home with many of the class members because agriculture and its related industry are on the forefront of dynamic changes for the future.

The group also toured a deer farm called "Venison World." Axis deer are raised just like cattle and they are harvested for their meat. One difference is that they are actually hunted, rather than live-loaded and taken to a slaughterhouse.

The highlight of the T.A.L.L. class experience was the international trip that the group took in March of this year. For three weeks, Vick and his classmates toured Indonesia, the Philippines and Hong Kong.

The first stop was the island of Bali. Here the T.A.L.L. members saw that a large farming operation was 1/2 to 1 hectare of rice. (One hectare is 2.6 acres.) The rice farmers belonged to a "Subok" which is the Indonesian equivalent of a farmers' co-op.

"We also saw a feed lot operation," Vick said. "Their idea of a feed lot was 2 to 4 cows in a bamboo pen. The animals were hand-fed native grass in a feed bunk made from a carved-out tree."

Surprisingly though, the conditions were very clean around the feed lot. Women or young men, swept the area clean of manure and mud several times a day.

The tour then went to the village of Sulawesi and Ujung Padang where they saw more rice farms. The tiny village of Palopa was an interesting stop for the group. The villagers had seen very few Americans and were very curious about them. Once they were accustomed to them being in their village, they opened their homes and businesses to them.

Along the roadside outside of Palopa, Vick and his classmates were invited to taste Durring Fruit. This is a very bitter tasting, pungent fruit that seems to have a narcotic effect on the person eating it.

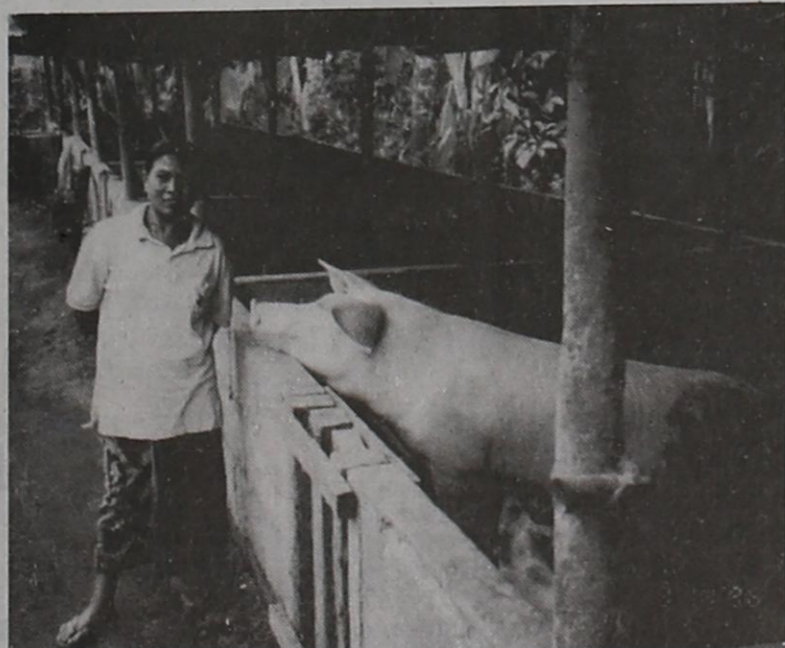

"I took one bite and knew right away it wasn't staying in my mouth!" laughed Vick. He spit it out, as did the others! The fruit is not good at all, but is very popular with the villagers.

The tour then went to the town of Bone-Bone. Here they met with Indonesian government officials at the transmigration offices. Transmigration is a program in Indonesia that gives its citizens a chance to live on the land. Each family that applies is given one hectare of land and a satellite dish. They are allowed to farm the land and make what they can off of it for a set time. If they are successful, they can stay, if not, the government takes the land back over and places another family on it. The original family is then sent back to the city, where it is extremely hard to find jobs and good money.

"The people were all very happy though. It was hard to believe that they were happy living like they did." Vick said.

Tana Toraja was the next stop and it was like stepping back in time. This village lies in the dense forest and was once the home of head hunters. There are a few Christian people that inhabit the area.

The main livelihood of the village people here is woodcarving. Ornate and intricate carvings adorn every home and statues from the village are sold in the cities.

One morbid, yet fascinating sight in Tana Torajia is their village burial grounds. They are built into the sides of the cliffs that lie behind the village. The bodies are put into wooden boxes and stacked on top of each other in cut-outs on the cliffs. But this is only after the body has been left for one year "lying in state" in their house. If a child dies, after their body has been in the house for a year, their clothing is taken off and put onto a wooden statue that sits or stands in a group of statues in the cliffs. The body is put into one of the wooden burial boxes. If a baby dies, the Muslim tradition is to put the body into the trunk of a growing tree. Their spirit will grow up with the tree.

The group then went to Jakarta, the largest city in all of Indonesia with its population of 192 million people. The Indonesians are hungry for American products and industry. Their economy is getting better and stronger and smart American businesses will want to make Indonesia a major market for their services and products. The American Cotton Growers Association has already begun negotiations

Missing classmates sought

The Farwell Class of 1966 is looking for a bunch of missing classmates.

The class will be in the Border Town Days parade on July 27. On July 26 at 7 p.m., they will have a hamburger cookout at the home of Jimmie and Angie Mace in Farwell. Before the parade, classmates have been invited to the home of Doyle and Susan Johnson in Farwell for doughnuts and coffee.

To RSVP, contact Edith Ann Walling Bradley, 1056 Fairway Terrace, Clovis -- (505) 762-3970, or Mike Camp, Box 596, Farwell -- 481-9491.

And if you know where any of the following are, please contact Mrs. Bradley or Camp:

with them and the prospects for a strong market are in the cotton farmers' favor.

In Jakarta, Vick and his classmates got the long awaited opportunity to watch Texas Tech play Georgetown in NCAA Sweet Sixteen basketball playoffs!

The tour then travelled to Manila, in the Phillipine islands. They saw rice farming operations, weaving factories and a silversmith factory. Everything was done by hand and the

by Debbie Parmer

Those of you who missed "Harmony" the gospel/country music group really missed a nice evening of beautiful music.

"Harmony" sponsored by the auxiliary for the Convalescent Center was enjoyed by all who attended.

We want to thank "Harmony" for the beautiful concert and for their willingness to do a fund-raiser for FCC. Special thanks to the auxiliary for arranging and sponsoring the musical. Many thanks to those of the community for participating by buying tickets, attending and giving donations.

The residents who attended the concert enjoyed it so much they are still talking about it.

Residents enjoyed special music June 11th provided by children of the First Baptist Church of Farwell. The children were under direction of Mrs. Laverty, Mrs. Littlejohn and Mrs. Martin.

These children sang in the lobby, the special care unit, and went to several residents rooms. I don't think anyone enjoyed them anymore than the special care residents. It was a delight to see them smiling, clapping and so attentive to these children singing. Thank you First Baptist Church!

Can you believe the month of June has already past? June has been a beautiful month, especially with the rain it brought.

July will be a busy month with July 4th celebrations and Border Town Days fast approaching.

We want to remind everyone now about the annual benefit concert/dance put on by Charlie Phillips and band, the week-end of Border Town Days. Tickets will soon be available. Everyone plan to attend, its to benefit residents of FCC.

Just a reminder to auxiliary members: your quarterly meeting will be held Monday, July 8th at 4:00 in the chapel. All members plan to attend. Part of the discussion will be landscaping the patio of Jericho Road.

We have 3 new residents: Arlis Bell, Geneva Sain and Catherine Bilderbach. We welcome these residents and look forward to getting to know them.

Have a safe and happy 4th!

expertise and craftsmanship was excellent in everything they saw. One booming industry is in the conversion of old World War II Army Jeeps. The Jeeps are turned into a "Suburban style" extended vehicle called a "Jeepa"

They also had the chance to see Mt. Pinatubo and the path of devastation that the volcano caused. While they were in Manila, they visited several universities and spoke to their officials about agriculture in their country.

The last stop for the T.A.L.L. class international tour was Hong Kong. Here they were able to relax a little bit and enjoy more of a social atmosphere. Vick was shocked at how expensive the hotels and restaurants were in the city. But, the bargains on pearls, watches, perfumes and other nice things in the market areas made the city a nice place to end the tour and gave them a chance to bring home some great souvenirs to the families they had left behind for three weeks.

Vick will now graduate from the T.A.L.L. program in a formal graduation ceremony. From this point on, he will be a member of the T.A.L.L. Alumni Association which stays actively involved in the program.

"I'll never forget the people I've met or the experiences that I've had through this program," Vick said. "I have many goals that I hope to accomplish in my life and this program has given me the opportunity and the knowledge of how to achieve them. It has changed my life and given me hope for the future of agriculture and agri-business."

There was a good turnout Saturday for the fourth annual $1 million hole-in-one golf shoot-out at the Farwell Country Club.

The Texico Chamber of Commerce sponsors the fund-raiser to provide for two $1,000 scholarships to Texico students each year.

During the day, golfers tried their luck from 130 yards out on the club's No. 2 hole. The 10 closest each won a prize:

- 1st) Jack Kirkland, 2 inches, Ping Zing 2 iron set.
- 2nd) Don Aragon, 1'2", $225 cash.
- 3rd) Sue Kirkland and Earl Quintana, 1'4" (tie), they split $375 cash.
- 5th) Rick Dollahan, 2'3 1/4", %150 cash.
- 6th) Jesse Trevino, 2'10", $100 cash.
- 7th) Doris Ford, 3'3", golf bag.

- 8th) Shawn Rouse, 3'11", golf bag.
 - 9th) Jeff Fontanilla, 3'11 1/2", putter.
 - 10th) Fuji Ortiz, 4'2 1/2", 2 dozen golf balls.
- The top 10 golfers each had one shot at the $1 million, from 150 yards out. The closest anyone came was 8 feet.

Fire Calls

Farwell firemen were called out three times.

On June 29, they went to a house fire at 709 Ave. E at 11:11 p.m. A porch light had caught on fire.

On June 30, the ambulance went to the post office at 8:23 p.m. where a vehicle accident had occurred. A person was taken to Clovis hospital.

On July 1, the ambulance went to the Farwell Convalescent Center to transport a person to Muleshoe clinic at 10:37 p.m.

And still more rain falls!

Rain totals for the end of last week and weekend were as wide and varied as the region the wet stuff fell on.

Sherley Steinbock at Sherley-Anderson grain elevator in Lazbuddie reported only a "sprinkle or two" on June 29 and then .2" the night of June 30.

The Lariat area received .61" said Yolanda McFarland at the Sherley-Anderson grain elevator there.

Rain totals for Farwell varied from .2" to .4"

The humidity levels have been elevated due to the moisture the area has received, thus increasing the dew point levels. Because of this, the residual ground moisture has somewhat stabilized the drought conditions that were plaguing the area in recent months.

Police Report

Here is the weekly report from Farwell Police Chief Roy McGaa:

On June 24, a woman was reported missing. On June 25, a complaint of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle was filed against the missing woman.

On June 28, a tree trimming service from Friona accidentally cut an SPS wire near Farwell Junior High.

On June 29, a harrasment complaint was received from a 7th Street resident.

On June 30, a traffic accident occurred at Avenue B and 3rd Street.

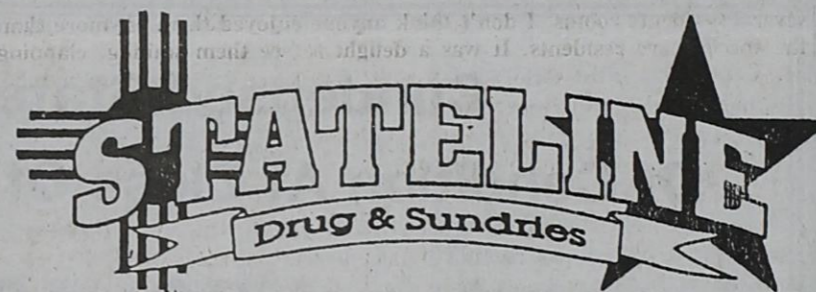

McGaa said a vehicle driven by Mike Sosa, 34, Farwell, and a car with three teens in it collided. The three teens were taken to Clovis hospital for checkups.

Sosa was cited for failure to stop at a stop sign and no driver's license.

ROPER CONSTRUCTION METAL BUILDINGS & ROOFING METAL

BEAUTY • DURABILITY • ECONOMY

LONG LIFE Long lasting beauty in a variety of colors plus 20 year paint warranty and 26 gauge, 80,000 P.S.I. steel.

ENERGY EFFICIENT Metal roofs reflect heat and may reduce cooling requirements up to 40%.

LIFE EXPECTANCY Because it's steel, you can expect a much longer life than with either composition or wooden shingles. Plus, metal roofing is fire proof.

HAIL RESISTANT Since we live in a hail prone area, you can expect longer service due to the fact that a metal roof will hold up to severe hail storms with only cosmetic damage. This saves on insurance and necessary replacement costs.

GREATER WIND RESISTANCE Metal roofs can withstand up to 90 plus MPH wind velocities. This offers peace of mind and less damage due to leaks.

ECONOMY More home owners are beginning to realize the many advantages of metal roofing and find it to be the best roofing value around today!

A DURABLE ALTERNATIVE Metal roofing can meet your needs as a durable alternative to composition shingles and can be installed over your existing roof.

Producers don't pay boll weevil assessment on failed acreage

Producers going about the unhappy task of certifying and failing cotton acreage DO NOT have to pay a boll weevil assessment on failed acreage.

According to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers (PCG) some producers are concerned, and rightly so, that they have been billed for assessments on cotton acres that had been failed out.

Officials at the Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation have confirmed that invoices are printed automatically as soon as certification information is received from USDA's Farm Service Agency (FSA).

Fortunately the situation appears to be under control and producers can easily clear their account with the Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation by providing two easily obtained documents.

"The message we are trying to get out to all of the FSA County offices and to producers is that when they fail their acres they will not owe an assessment even though a bill may come in the mail," explains Tom Allen, Chief Financial Officer of the TBWEF. "All we need to clear these accounts is a copy of two forms the producer can get at the time they certify their acreage - a copy of FSA Form 574 and TBWEF's Proof of Crop Destruction Form."

Allen notes that producers simply need to fill out these forms and return them to TBWEF's Abilene office and their account will be changed to reflect the failed acres.

Producers filling out the TBWEF form should simply include their name, address, farm number, and acreage figures, both planted and failed. That and their signature is all that is necessary.

PCG officials expect to hear on Friday a final decision on whether or not any other signatures will be required on the Proof of Crop Destruction form.

"We have been working with the TBWEF since this issue first came up a few days ago to develop a workable solution for High Plains producers," says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson. "As a result of this effort it appears that the Foundation will indeed eliminate the requirement for any additional signatures on the form and accept them with the producers signature only."

Another important piece of information is that when a producer sends in these forms it will clear all accounts associated with the individual farm numbers. Landlords do not have to send in a second form. Any accounts that have payments received prior to receipt of the FSA 574 and the Proof of Crop Destruction forms will be reviewed and refunds issued automatically.

Marshal's Report

Here is the weekly report from Texico Marshal Gil Holguin:

On July 2, he arrested Jesus Retana, 47, Texico, on a warrant from Texico Municipal Court for failure to appear and failure to pay a fine. He was brought to Curry County Jail.

Holguin said Retana also was cited for three traffic violations.

On June 30, deputy Larry Garrison responded to an ac-

BTD group to meet Monday

The Border Town Days Committee will meet on Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Spur Restaurant.

This is the final meeting before BTD and it's important that all committee heads attend to report.

The public also is invited.

cident call with injuries near Pleasant Hill. He assisted state police.

On July 3, Holguin spoke at the weekly meeting of the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club. He noted that Texico police average about 65 calls a month, with the county getting another 10 to 20 per month when no Texico officer is on duty.

Also, there are three finalists, all from Clovis, for the third police officer's post. Mayor Nathan Tharp will be interviewing them.

Producers who want to have 1996 cotton production eligible for the upland marketing loan program, or who would like to receive Loan Deficiency Payments should they become available, must certify their 1996 cotton acreage prior to August 15.

According to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, the FAIR Act of 1996 does not require a producer of program crops to certify acreage except in specific instances. One of those instances happens to be loan eligibility.

Some producers are electing to certify their crop acreage in order to keep their Farm Service Agency files as up to date as possible even though they are not specifically required to do so by law.

"Most producers are already in the habit of certifying their acreage and will continue to do so voluntarily," notes PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson. "With the situation that currently exists regarding farm programs, it may be that producers who keep these records up to date will be in a more favorable position down the road."

The Latest

Texico School Supt. R.L. Richards reminds all Texico athletes that it's time to have their physicals taken by Dr. N.B. Chasteen at the Farwell Medical Clinic.

A report from Ogden, Utah: The New Mexico Speed girls' basketball team, which includes several local girls, lost their opener by 2 points, then won their second game by 13.

They lost to California, but beat Indiana and Maine, and were to continue play in the consolation bracket Wednesday afternoon.

Jesse Trevino, son of senior golf pro Lee Trevino, participated in the $1 million hole-in-one golf shot-out sponsored by the Texico Chamber of Commerce at the Farwell Country Club Saturday.

He also played a round on the course.

Club pro Chris Fontanilla reported that Trevino praised the Farwell course, especially noting that the greens were better than the ones he played on in Orlando, Fla., where he lives.

Trevino was in this area visiting friends in Earth, Texas.

The Farwell Country Club clubhouse will be undergoing extensive renovations this summer.

The manager's office will be moved to another side and the shop made into a more extensive area.

The Massage Therapy Clinic is now offering chair massages Friday afternoons only for $10.

You have to be careful of "getting a birdie" when you tee off No. 6 at the Farwell Country Club.

Geese have been introduced into the area.

The Farwell Convalescent Center Auxiliary will meet at 4 p.m. on Monday at the center chapel.

Good news for the kids: we will have pony rides at Border Town Days this year!

Charlie Phillips wants everyone to note that his fundraiser on July 26 at the Clovis Holiday Inn will be a dance, not a concert.

The dance starts at 9 p.m. cst.

Mrs. Doug Landrum called to say that her son-in-law, Staff St. David W. Long, was in the building in Saudi Arabia that was blown up by terrorists, resulting in a dozen U.S. casualties.

Mrs. Landrum said Long suffered some injuries and had his eye glasses blown off in the blast.

He is married to Cindy Landrum, the Landrums' daughter. They live in Farwell a few years ago.

It was a tough week last week for Roy and Tommie Snodgrass of Texico. Roy had his appendix taken out. And Tommie is recovering from pneumonia.

If Farwell Police Chief Roy McGaa seems to be in a very good mood lately, ask him about his new golf driver!

The New Mexico livestock board voted to keep the current mill levy.

The current levies are 8 mills for cattle, 4 mills for dairy cattle, 4 mills for bison, 16 mills for sheep and goats and 9 mills for horses.

The board must set the mill levy by July 1 each year.

The Tribune got a postcard last weekend from the youths on the Texas Panhandle Phenoms basketball team at their tourney in Denver.

Writes Scottie Brown, Ramsey Bennett and Staci Foster: "We beat Wisconsin by 13, will play Colorado today and California on Wednesday."

Then into the bracket games Thursday, possibly into Saturday. It's a neat, congenial group of girls and we're enjoying being together here. Went to the Denver Zoo and Fun Plex rec center last night."

Lariat Church of Christ will have Vacation Bible School July 15-17 from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

It's for youths age 2 through 6th grade. For more information, call 825-2658.

Ted Engram celebrated his 86th birthday July 1.

Attending camp at the Sacramento Methodist Assembly last week from Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church were:

Grant Gregory, Katie Howell, Robbie Tabb, Whitney Harrington, Carrie Stevenson, Lacey Actkinson, Curt Christian, Gage Gregory, Lindsay Milloy, Jade Mahaney, Christi Tabb and Kristen Ford.

Denise Christian helped with transportation.

Ruth Owen of Muleshoe, and Farwell residents Lori Haseloff and Teresa Mesman attended the Texas District Lutheran Women's Missionary League Biennial convention in Bryan, Texas, last weekend.

Ruth was the voting delegate. Lori and Teresa were the Young Women Representatives from the High Plains Zone.

Lori and Tom Baldwin of Snyder, Texas, and a large group of their friends put their funds together and came up with the winning combination to win the Texas Lottery last week. Lori is a cousin to Teresa Mesman of Farwell.

Ben and Mary Mesman travelled to Albuquerque last week with their grandchildren

Ashleigh and Taylor to visit their daughter and aunt, Johanna.

Ben attended a meeting of dairy farmers from around the region to discuss the Federal Milk Orders.

Johanna is a nurse at West Mesa Hospital outside of Rio Rancho.

Bob Haseloff, a former Farwell resident serving in the military, was on site of the bombing that took place in Saudi Arabia last week. He luckily escaped with minor injuries.

Also present was Mike Springer of Florida, who is a brother-in-law to Edie Kalbas of Farwell. He also received minor injuries.

Recipe of Week

PINA COLADA CHEESECAKE

- 1-1/2 cups vanilla wafer crumbs
- 1 cup flaked coconut, toasted
- 1/3 cup margarine, melted
- 1 can (6 oz.) DOLE® Pineapple Juice
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 3 packages (8 oz. each) cream cheese, softened
- 3/4 cup plus 2 tablespoons sugar, divided
- 1/4 cup dark Jamaican rum or 2 teaspoons rum extract
- 3/4 teaspoon coconut or vanilla extract
- 2 cups frozen non-dairy whipped topping, thawed
- 1 can (20 oz.) DOLE Crushed Pineapple
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch margarine in medium bowl. Press mixture on bottom and sides of 8- or 9-inch springform pan. Chill.

• Pour juice into small saucepan. Sprinkle gelatin over juice; let stand 5 minutes to soften gelatin. Cook and stir until gelatin dissolves; remove from heat. Set aside.

• Beat cream cheese and 3/4 cup sugar in large bowl until smooth. Beat in gelatin mixture until well blended. Beat in rum and coconut extract until blended. Gently fold in whipped topping. Spoon into prepared crust. Chill 6 hours or until set.

• Combine undrained pineapple, cornstarch and remaining 2 tablespoons sugar in small saucepan. Cook and stir until mixture boils and slightly thickens. Chill. Spoon over top of cheesecake. Garnish with additional toasted coconut, if desired.

Thank You

The family of Joe A. Helton wishes to thank you for expressing your sympathy to our family in so many thoughtful and "continuing expressions" of your love and friendship during this time of our loss.

Your prayers, visits, cards, flowers, food, telephone calls and so many acts of kindness, memorial donations and attending our memorial services are deeply appreciated.

We wish to especially thank you for your support and patronage during the past 49 years that we have lived in Texico and worked with so many outstanding friends and customers in the surrounding area.

Many of you have expressed your loyalty and love to our "Joe." We will continue our friendship and business relationship with you.

Your love and concern has been, and continues to be, most comforting to us. We will miss him greatly and we know you will, too. Thanks with love,

July means Border Town Days

Welcome to July -- and that means the 30th annual Border Town Days are on tap.

As always, things are looking good for a fun day for the family. We're going to have lots of new games at the Day in the Park that the kiddies are sure to enjoy.

The special fun this year has been watching the Border Town Days Express come together. When you see the Twin Cities' new train chugging around the park, with its bell a-clangin', you'll get a real kick out of it.

Meanwhile, it's time to get the lead out and sign up for the various activities:

-- If you are an artisan or crafts person, it's time to contact Farwell postmaster Lynne Mahaney to show your wares at the arts and crafts fair.

Border Banter

By Mike Pomper

-- If you are a member of a group, like a local church, why not put together a float for the parade? We give out good cash prizes for the top floats -- so it's a chance to make some good money! Just call Leigh Ann Woods at Kirkland, Crozier CPA to sign up.

Has your group signed up yet?

It's countdown time for Border Town Days on July 27. There's lots of activities and events your group can participate in. Here's a rundown:

Concessions

Cynthia Thigpen is taking reservations for concession at the Day in the Park. She can be contacted at Farwell City Hall at 481-3620.

One of the best sellers each year at BTB is homemade ice cream. So far, only one group has signed up to sell it. More are needed.

- Signed up so far have been:
- San Jose Catholic Church, Texico, fajitas, burritos, Pepsi.
 - Texico 4-H, hot dogs, Pepsi, diet Pepsi, orange, homemade ice cream.
 - TCAO, water polo, dunking board, ice.
 - Texico cheerleaders, square board contest with $500 prize.
 - Beta Sigma Phi, Cokes, diet Cokes, Dr Pepper, sno cones.
 - Pleasant Hill 4-H, hamburgers, chips, homemade pie, pickles, tea, lemonade, Dr Pepper.
 - Texico United Pentecostal Church youth group, burritos, taquitas, Coke.
 - Parmer County Crime Stoppers, softball pitch.
 - Farwell Convalescent Center Auxiliary, popcorn, baked goods.
 - Texico-Farwell Rotary Club, barbecue.

Parade

Leigh Ann Woods, who works at Kirkland, Crozier & Co., CPA, is in charge of signing up groups and individuals for the parade. She can be contacted at 481-3321.

The parade theme is "When I Grow Up, I Want To Be..." Cash prizes are given for the top floats.

Arts & Crafts

Lynne Mahaney reports about 20 booths have signed up so far for the arts and crafts show. Folks wishing to sign up for a booth are asked to call her at the Farwell post office, 481-3601, or write her at P.O. Box 471, Farwell, TX 79325.

Volleyball Tournament

The volleyball tournament will be limited to 12 teams. Women may play on the 6-man teams.

The tourney will start at 3 p.m. and use the Rally format -- a point is scored each time the ball is served. There will be no time limits because the games go quicker.

The cost is $40 per team. T-shirts are given the top teams. To sign up, contact Richard Carpenter at (806) 225-4055 or Byron Mayfield at (505) 683-5229.

Pickup Giveaway

This year's major giveaway will be a new pickup truck, sponsored by the Texico Volunteer Fire Department. Tickets cost $20 and are available at local businesses.

Charlie Phillips Concert

The Farwell Convalescent Center Auxiliary will again sponsor a benefit dance by Charlie Phillips of "Sugartime" fame. It will be held at the Clovis Holiday Inn the night before BTB, on Friday, July 26, at 9 p.m. cst. Frances Kube is heading this event.

-- If you have a youngster at home, it's time to start planning for the bicycle contest, with its special prize (yet to be announced). The theme for the parade and bicycle contest is the same: "When I Grow Up, I Want To Be..."

-- Concessions are always big at BTB. It's the major fund-raiser for many of our local groups. We only permit local non-profit groups to sell concessions in the park.

If your group would like to make some good money, contact Cynthia Thigpen at Farwell City Hall.

One good item that there's never enough of is homemade ice cream. There's ALWAYS a need for more groups to sell it. Normally, ice cream sells out midway through the afternoon. And, so far, only one group will be offering it.

-- And if you are a volleyballer, Richard Carpenter and Byron Mayfield is waiting to hear from you.

We cut off this contest at 12 teams so if your group wants to enter, you better get on the stick.

-- This year's pickup giveaway is being handled by the Texico Volunteer Fire Department. The $20 tickets are available at many local businesses.

Everyone in the Twin Cities always needs to support our two volunteer fire departments. Do you notice how many calls they go on every week? There aren't too many families here who haven't needed their services.

So let's show them our appreciation. Buy a ticket. Even if you don't win one of their top prizes, at least you know that you aided an organization that is essential to our community.

-- Speaking of giveaways, starting Monday, you'll be seeing our BTB buttons at several locations in Texico and Farwell.

We ask $2 donations for these buttons. Each has a number printed on the back and a winner will be picked at BTB -- worth $50.

These buttons are the major fund-raiser for BTB and allow us to put on the event.

I don't think you can find a better way to spend the day, full of entertainment, games, and fellowship. And it's all free. Not a bad deal, huh?

So we ask that you buy a BTB button for $2 to defray our expenses.

BTB is non-profit and our only goal is to break even financially. Please do your part.

Computer Consulting & Tutoring

I help people get the right computer software and hardware for their home or business needs.

I also tutor people on IBM compatibles and all Apple computers. You don't have to have a computer to learn about them.

Texico, Farwell city workers appreciated

These "heroes" are not usually even given a thought unless there's a problem.

Problems like a broken water line (then they come, dig out the pipe and make needed repairs); an alley needs cleaning (then they come and haul away unsightly trash, junk and debris); a skunk or other unwanted critter takes up habitation underneath someone's house (then these guys come and set traps or devise some other plan to make said intruder want to take up residence elsewhere); grass needs tending in the city parks (they come with tools and machinery to mow, fertilize, water).

These are but a few of the problems of the towns' citizenry that are taken care of by a small group of fellows who are not immediately recognized, but are expected to be at the site of a problem RIGHT NOW! In other words, they do the dirty work necessary to help keep a town running. They are the water superintendents and maintenance crews of the Twin Cities, trying to keep the water flowing (and at the right amount of pressure); helping to make our towns cleaner, safer, more desirable places to live.

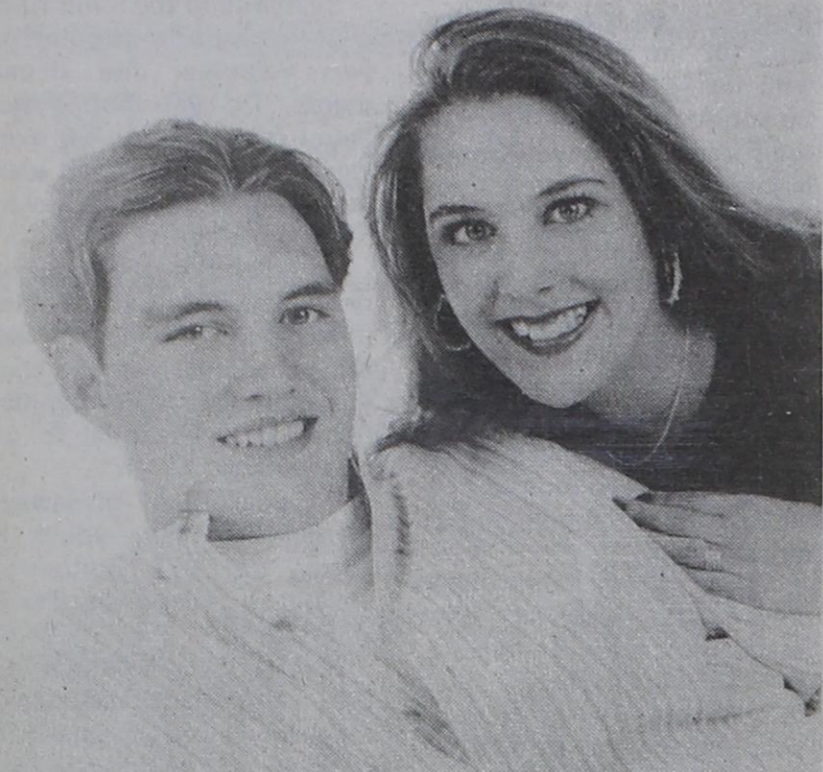

These employees are joined on the cities' work forces by secretaries, clerks or aides who man the city offices, fielding questions and complaints, accepting payments for utility bills and doing the mountains of paper work necessary in today's world. They take the flak from the resident who thinks his utility bill is too high, the person who reports the stray animals running loose, the person whose animal is running loose (it's never his fault) and all the other things that citizens gripe about. All in a day's work.

Other city employees include the law enforcement officials who have to be on call at all times and the judges who have to hear the cases of those apprehended by the law officials. The "cops" likely have the most thankless tasks of all - they're sure to offend someone no matter what their decisions. They get little respect, yet the citizens expect them to stop every speeder, quiet all the noise in the park at night, protect their homes from thieves and burglars. They are also saddled with tons of paper work which takes time from their other duties.

Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church this week would like to say that we do appreciate all of you city workers and we do know how much you mean to the upkeep and well being of our towns. Forgive us for not taking time to say "Thank You" more often.

Those being honored: Farwell - D.E. Hammit, Jr., Jose Servin, James Johnson, Juan Vidaurri, Cynthia Thigpen, Roy McGaa. Texico - George Herrington, Gilbert Holguin, Larry Garrison, Marie Christian, Glenda Mosier, Matt Meeks, Clarence Smith and Joe Goforth.

Lori Phillips and Brandon Renner

Approaching marriage

Dewayne and Debbie Phillips, of Farwell, and Conrad and Susan Renner, of Friona, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their children, Lori Christine, of Farwell, and Brandon Chad, of Canyon.

The prospective groom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Everett McBroom, Lazbuddie, and Mr. and Mrs. Junior Renner, of Friona.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ritchie, of Sudan, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Phillips, of Morton.

The couple will exchange wedding vows on Aug. 10 at 3:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Farwell. A reception will follow in the church fellowship hall.

The bride-elect attended Texas Tech University and is employed at Bender Honda-Nissan in Clovis. The prospective groom attends West Texas A&M and is employed by the Hot Tub Store in Amarillo.

All friends and relatives are invited.

Marriage Licenses

The Parmer County clerk's office recorded one marriage license last week, for Scott Vandeflier and Krista Tucker.

Cattle, calve numbers down

The Texas Ag Service reports that the number of cattle and calves on feed for slaughter in Texas feedlots totalled 2.18 million head on June 1, down 13 percent from a year ago.

There were 1.76 million head of cattle and calves in the northern High Plains, 81 percent of the state's total.
