Action Boils Up Over 600 Mile Russian Front

LONDON, July 14 (AP)-The German command announced today the abandonment of Pinsk in the western Pripyat marshes and the Berlin radio asserted that the Russians had twice broke into the old Polish bastion of Grodno, 20 miles from the Suwalki triangle of East-Prussia

West of Luck, the German communique announced a new retreat ever the rolling southern plains of old Poland, a historic invasion route through Warsaw toward German Silesia.

Pinsk is 200 miles directly east of Warsaw and 100 miles east of Brest Litovsk.

By these accounts, action was boiling on 600 miles of the Russian front, from near the Baltic Sea to Luck, which lies 210 miles southeast of Warsaw and 110 miles south southwest of the first infantry division which his father once served as deputy commander, also will be present. The Fourth division band will give a musical salute.

Gen. Roosevelt came ashore with the Fourth division on in-asion day under fire as assistan mmander.

Henry T. Gorrell, representing the combined American press, said in a dispatch from Normandy that Roosevelt was in one of the first waves to hit the beaches of Cherbourg peninsula on D-Day, and was the first general to land.

"He emerged with only a slight scratch on his left thumb," the correspondent said. "With him was his side, Lt. Marcus O. 'Stevie' Stevenson, son governor of Texas."

Yesterday and Today

We challenge you to read this ad through carefully and slowly applying its arguments to your own life today and for all the future. The theme for meditation is, THE CHURCH GOING HABIT. Going to church does become a habit, and staying away from church also becomes a habit. Habits are strange things, first we make habits then these very habits which we have made turn right around and make us. We ARE the sum total of our habits. Make good habits and they in turn will make us good; make bad habitsand before we know it they have made us bad. What kind of person do you want to be ten or twenty years from now? Well, the answer is in your hands. Greate and cultivate a set of good habits for your daily living today, and tomorrow this process will develop you into the kind of person you want to be. We make bold to say, the church going habit is the best habit on earth, because so many other good habits grow out from it. In church you leave more burdens, find the solution to more problems and the answer to more questions and breathe the purest moral atmosphere on earth. If in the world you are not finding peace and satisfaction, we offer the church with its worship in song and sermon and prayer and Christian fellowship as the complete answer. Try it thirty days and find out for yourself.

Jesus is, Himself, the greatest example in all that is good. Here is what Luke says about Jesus' church going habit, "And He came to Nazareth, where He was brought up: and He entered, AS WAS HIS CUSTOM, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day." And, as Peter says, "He has left us an example that we should follow his steps." Plan now to worship somewhere next Lord's Day.

ger B. J. McDaniel had occasion to cite figures on nption by the city's largest consumer, the T. & P. railway.

In March the company used 3,935,000 gallons. In June it had been cut to 419,000-a remarkable figure in the light of a record of carrying a demand up to 10,000,000 in some summer months.

This means only one thing. The railroad, although faced with intense wartime responsibilities, has cooperated splendidly with requests from the gity to cut its consumption. It means that the railroad has watered its trains elsewhere whenever possible and has hauled in the greater part of the ter on which it operated here.

Certainly one can imagine that this was not a happy chore for the railroad, but it was a voluntary therefore willing one. The record is impressive. It sets a mark of good citizenship for individuals to shoot at,

Credit For A Good Start

News that Dudley Mann, who opened the Soil Conservation Service work unit here and who has recently served also as district conservationist, is to be transferred to another field of action focuses attention to the good work accomplished under his

Mann took over the work unit here in 1940. The district was new and so was the program. Farmers and ranchers naturally were conservative if not slightly suspicious. An unhappy start could have set the cause of conservation back in this

But in his steady, easy-going manner, Mann let farmers and ranchers convince themselves. He wisely started with a small demonstration area. This paid off in drouth and in preventing erosion under the impact of heavy rains. Indeed, although some terraces were damaged, the entire project turned out to be a regular flood control bulwark for the northside of Big Spring.

From that, other producers in separated watereds began to get interested. The planned area on the county maps began to become checkered and gradually solid in areas.

The job is by no means complete, but a tremendous start has been made. Agriculturalists have become convinced that the SCS boys know what they are doing and that it pays to use them. No little credit for this, we believe, goes to the quiet, unassuming Mr. Mann.

The War Today

WASHINGTON

by Dewitt Mackenzie

Hitlerdom in its hour of desperation has east aside its last pretense of civilized conduct and has served the world with the awful notice that in order to defend Germany it will turn Europe "into a maelstrom of destruction where only one cry is heard-the cry for blood."

The meaning of this barbaric declaration, broadcast yesterday by the German military radio, is terribly clear. The frustrated fuehrer -abnormal-minded whelp of Prussian militarism-wants his enemies to believe that he is prepared to put civilian Europe to the sword and torch in an effort to force the Allies to make terms with the reich.

No more diabolical project ever was conceived the dargest ages, and if anybody but Hitler backed it in these days of supposed enlightenment one would put it down as propaganda calculated to frighten the United Nations into stampede. Probably the Nazi dictator hopes it will have the effect, but if it doesn't produce this result-what then?

We can't dismiss it as an empty threat. It fits perfectly with the character Hitler has dis-played in his bestlal massacres of helpless civilians in occupied countries and his ensiavement of millions of others.

We have full proof from his past deeds that his evil heart won't stop at murder and devastation. I believe he is fully capable of undertaking to pull Europe down to destruction with him with all the horrors of a blood-bath.

greatest program ever put forth by any nation to make work for its millions of hungry jobless. On the other were all the charges of "boondoggling," graft, politics and wasteful extravagance which anti-New Dealers levelled against that program. Perhaps those records someday will provide answer to the question of whether the New Deal or its opponents were right.

It's more likely that no one will ever take the trouble to dig through and digest them—at least not until another depression rolls around and the past has to be unearthed to provide new New Dealers with the experience of their predecessors.

In the midst of global war, it would be pretty hard to stir up an argument over whether the nation-wide art project, the WPA theatre, the raking of leaves and the moving of dirt were good or bad for the national economy and the public pocketbook,

Although billions are still going out for the war effort, the and the latter about ten millions.

On paper at least, PWA also has made a little profit on its bonds. In the process of financing works projects. PWA bought approximately $825,000,000 in cour municipal bonds that neither bankers nor individuals in those days wanted any part of, PWA now has, through RFC, dis posed of more than 600 millions of them to those same bankers and individuals.

Like the millions who once were on WPA rolls and employed by PWA, the 35 left in the organization didn't find themselves out of work when it was all over. The their agencies folded, they started receiving their pay checks from Maj. Gen. Philip Fleming's On the one hand there was the Federal Works Administration.

Demo Convention Chairman Knows How And When To Rap The Gavel

By THOMAS W. MADDOX

AP Features INDIANAPOLIS—Samuel Dil-INDIANAPOLIS—Samuel Dillon Jackson, who said he "felt like a new bride" when sworn in as U. S. Senator a few months ago, should feel thoroughly at home nevertheless as permanent chairman of the democratic national convention in Chicago.

The 49-year-old Fort Wayne, Ind., lawyer's oratorical ability has been acclaimed. As to the job of keeping a political convention under control armed with only a gavel and personal finesse, Jack-son was initiated in that department as permanent chairman of the Indiana democratic convention A Judicious Thumper

Hoosier Democrats are wonder-ing if convention history may be repeated. Jackson made ju use of his gavel at the Indiana 1936 convention which nominated M. Clifford Townsend for governor. He took over as permanent chairman with feeling running high as some delegates clamored for the nomination of Townsend's opponents. Jackson "cooled off" convention by recessing it for a 20-minute song fest. Result: Townsend's momination on the Jackson's friends lauded his appointment on the ground that he would bring youth to the national leaders advanced the idea that National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan had looked over the midwest, found the republican trend there strong and decided Indiana was one state in the area that could be captured by his party - if the proper prestige were extended to Sen. Jackson in his current campaign for governor of Indiana.

A Fourth Term Man In Jackson the democrats found supporter for any fourth term plans of President Roosevelt. The senator, speaking at the recent convention in Indiana, predicted Mr. Roosevelt would run again and would win by almost as large a margin of electoral votes as in

However, when interviewed after his appointment as permanent chairman, he commented only: "I ume President Roosevelt will e our nominee." Of the convention itself, Jackson reported plans were being made to wind it up in three days He added: "Any talk of a longer convention presupposes contests."

Gov. Schricker appointed Jackson to the Senate Jan. 28 to succeed the late Sen. Frederick Van Nuvs. (If Schricker and Jackson tare elected next fall, they'll swap democratic senatorial and guber-

Committee OK's Priority Hiring Program In Area

An opinion that the priority referral program of the War Manpower Commission can be administered in accordance with standards approved by the group was expressed Thursday in Abilene by the management-labor committee for the Abilene area.

C. E. Belk, Austin, state WMC director, attended the session. Big Spring's representative, A. V. Karcher, was prevented by prior engagements from participating.

engagements from participating.
Administration of the priority referral program along lines passed by the committee can be done without working hardships on employers or workers, yet can contribute to the overall objective male employers must be hired upon referral by or in accordance with arrangements with the US Employment Service. The com-mittee gave an OK to arrangements with the civil service com-referring workers.

Meat of the plan is that workers will be referred to jobs in their highest skill with employers who have the highest priority rating. If not needed in that rating, the worker may be referred to lower priority ratings.

Employers have the right to reject workers on an occupational basis and workers may refuse referral for certain causes, among them personal hardship or not utilizing his highest skill. Any person has the right to appeal from any action or decision concerning him, the committee minded. Complete information minded. Complete information may be had by calling H. A. Clark, manager of the Big Spring district office of the USES.
