

PERSONAL

By John

In last week's column we wrote about the need in Farwell for an emergency vehicle under the guidance of the Volunteer Fire Department. We are happy to report that substantial progress has been made in this direction.

The City Council at its meeting last Friday evening went on record as approving the idea and took steps to speed the project along. It is possible that within a short time the community can have this additional protection.

The other project -- that of having a doctor in attendance at Farwell's home football games -- looks less favorable. The fault is not within the ability of us alone to solve.

We visited with the head of the Curry County Medical Society about this problem and came away rather discouraged. It is a problem not of our making but nonetheless a problem that we as a community will feel the effects of.

Nationwide, the medical profession is plagued with a rash of malpractice suits. At most any excuse, people are suing doctors for tremendous sums of money. More often than not the suit is dismissed, but the doctor, through his insurance company, must still pay the staggering court costs. In turn, the cost of physicians' malpractice insurance has not only skyrocketed but in some instances is becoming unavailable.

This state of affairs has made the physician very wary of exposing himself to this charge. A doctor rendering judgement in the middle of a football field is very vulnerable to this charge and some have apparently been the objects of such large suits. This naturally tends to diminish the physician's desire to render his service.

Hopefully, a doctor from the area will come to our rescue and be at our games this fall.

This penalty that we are paying is, of course, no reflection on our community or its schools, but is deeply symptomatic of the moral sickness that is afflicting the United States today.

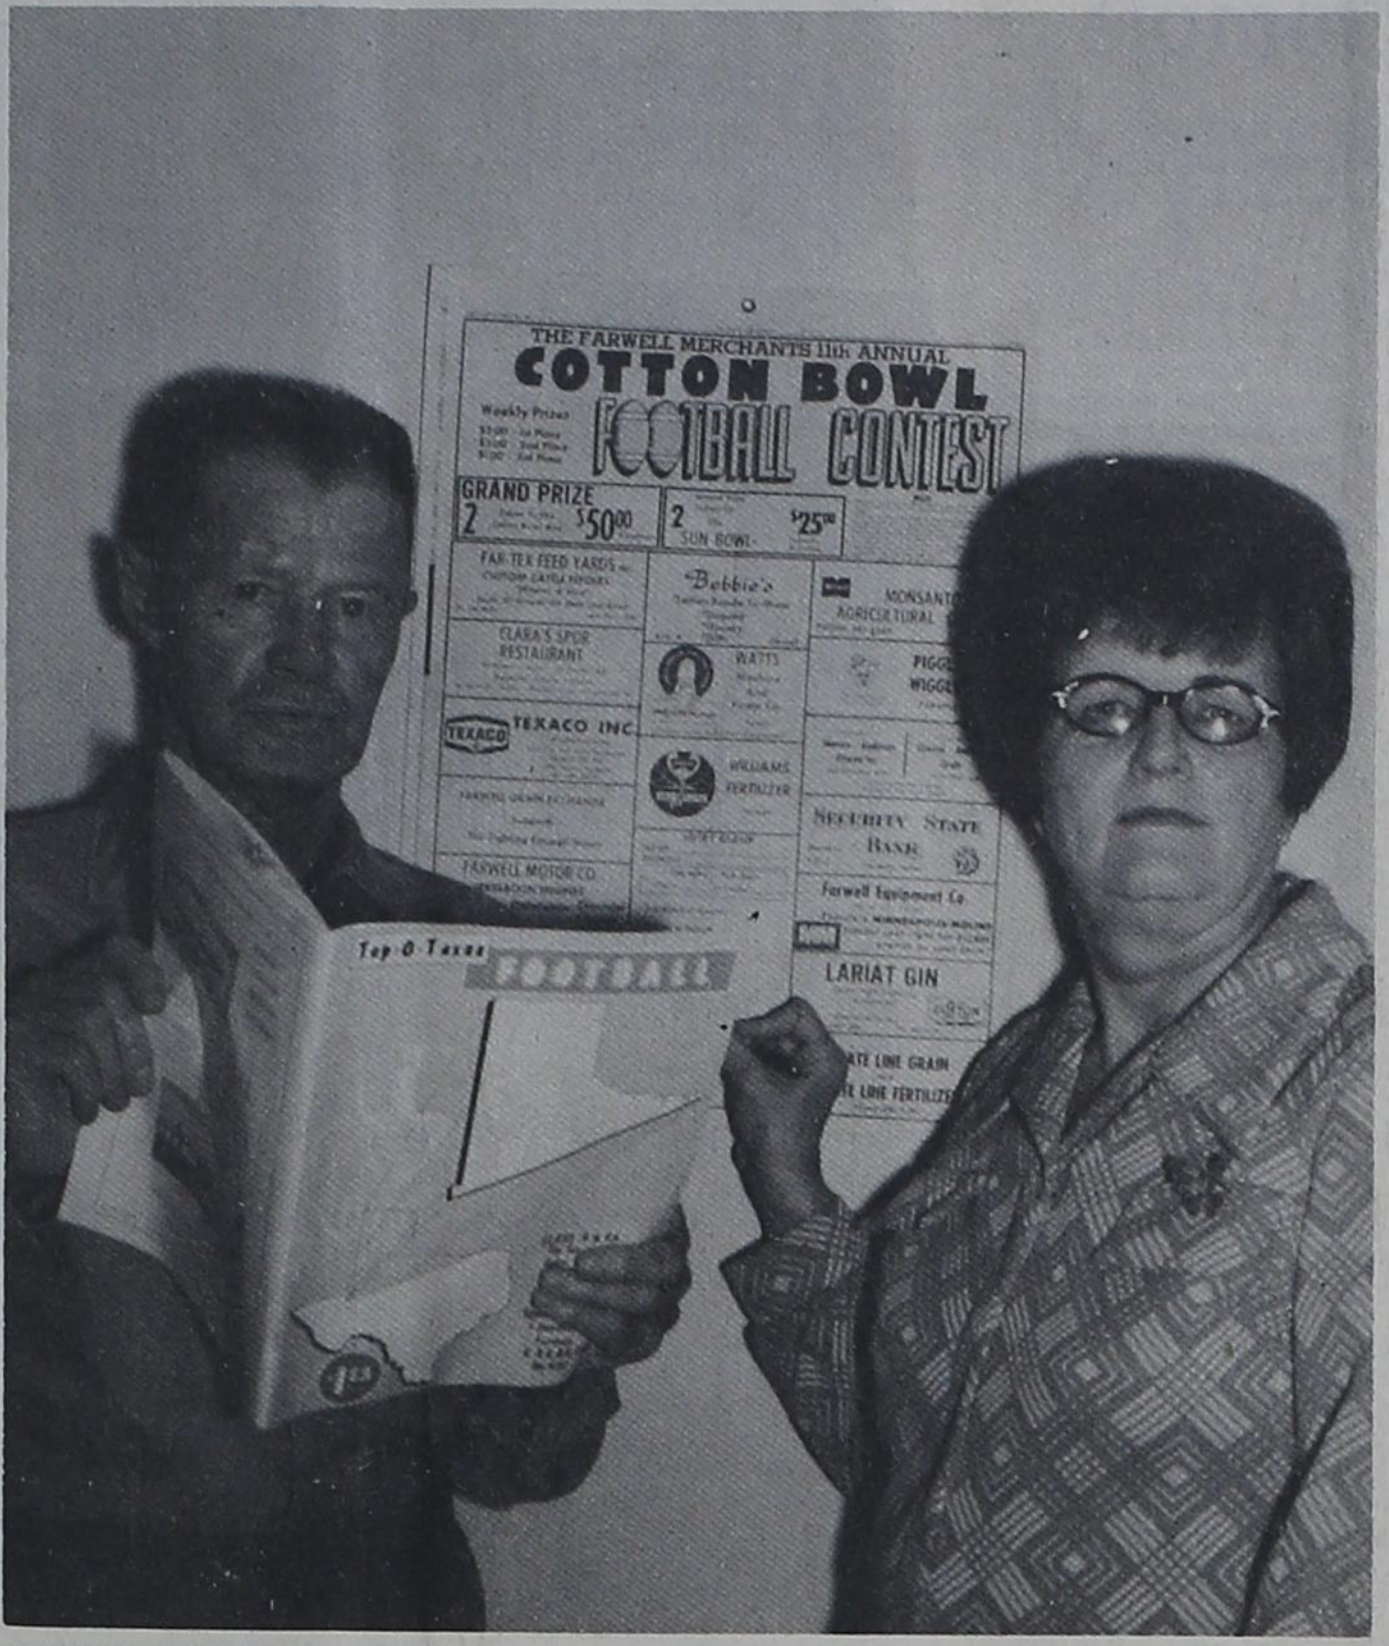

This drive to hire a lawyer and sue for every wrong -- some real and most imaginary -- is having great repercussions on every man, woman and child in America. Car insurance is an example -- the premium for the average car owner has almost got to the point that is impossible to be borne. This has led to interest in a complete change in the auto insurance field. Homeowners face the same problem. The cost of an insurance policy on a person's house has reached staggering proportions. A new system is being asked for in this field. Liability insurance for businesses and professional men is now prohibitive. And to think that this basically is a result of our own moral decline and avariciousness.

It also is a result of the legal framework in the country not being in the hands of people who have either conscious or scruple. It can be said that the legal profession had better clean its house soon or the people will do it for them. In that eventuality the legal fraternity and the general populace will both be losers.

The thing that differentiates a society from savagery is law. Without a framework of laws, justly administered, all civilization will disappear. We wonder if this drive to downgrade laws and law enforcement agencies is not part of a long range plot to destroy our way of life. The only way to foil this plan is for the citizen to govern himself according to the laws laid down by Moses long ago. Unless we have a great moral revolution we not only will not have a doctor at our football games, we won't have a society that will be able to have a football game.

NOTICE

Junior class members of Farwell High School announce two money making projects for this Saturday, Sept. 5. The juniors will be sponsoring a bake sale at Piggly Wiggly and Capitol Food from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. During the same hours they will have a car wash project in progress at the Suttle Enco station and Buz' Texaco Station. A fee of $2.50 per car will be charged and cars will be picked up and delivered. Class members urge everyone to take advantage of these services and help the class with their projects.

STUDYING UP TIME -- Everette and Fern Christian are two of the many husband and wife teams who enter the Merchants Football Contest in the Tribune each year. In preparation for the upcoming season, both have begun to read the pre-season information currently being published in newspapers and magazines. Everette says, "I need an early start as somehow I let Fern edge me by one point last year." The 12-week contest will begin in next week's paper. The 10 games in the contest on the first week will have to be from area high schools which begin their grid seasons before the colleges do.

Texico Boosters Begin Season

Texico Booster Club met for its first session of the 1970-71 season Thursday, August 27, in the school cafeteria with some 12 interested supporters of the Wolverine athletic program in attendance.

Main item of business was the election of the following officers to serve during the coming season: Bill Christian, president; Ken Harrison, vice-president; and Howard Whitener, secretary-treasurer. Melvin Burns served as president of the organization last year.

The group heard a financial report and made plans for fund raising projects for this year's operations. The club again voted to pay the costs of filming each of the Texico football games and appointed a committee to investigate the costs of providing the gridgers with distinctive parkas.

Members present agreed to have the club meetings each Monday night after a Texico game, at 8:30, when they will see films of the previous week's (Continued on Page 3)

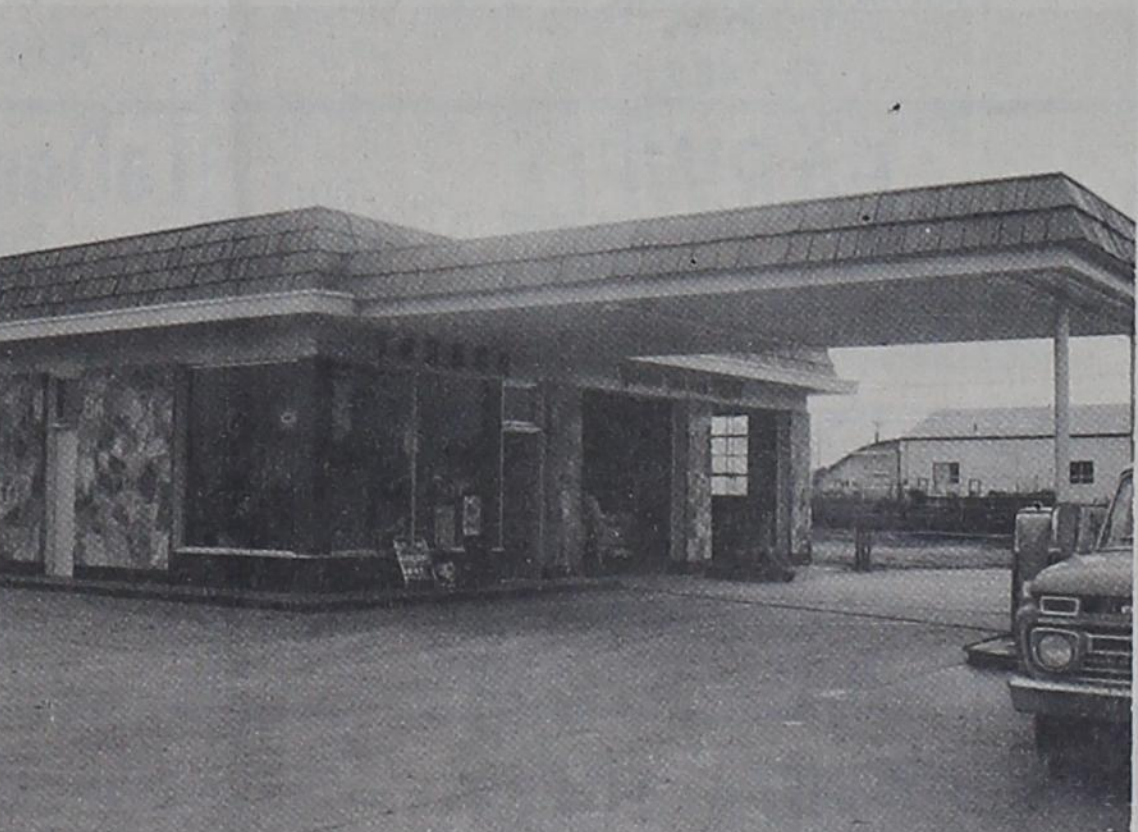

WOLVERINE BOOSTERS -- Heading the recently re-organized Texico Booster Club for the 1970-71 season are, left to right, Bill Christian, president; Ken Harrison, vice-president; and Howard Whitener, secretary-treasurer. The Booster Club met for its initial session of the year Thursday evening, August 27, in the school cafeteria. The Club will meet Monday evening at 8:30 p.m. to see films of the previous week's game and to hear a game commentary by Coach Jim Wynne.

New Look For Businesses Adds Luster To Farwell

Hughes Auto Supply Store, left, recently donned a new coat of paint and front sign as part of its contribution to a better looking business district for Farwell. Joe Hughes, owner, has also rearranged the inside shelving and display area for added merchandise space. Also included in the improvements are a new office and improved customer counter space. At right is the Texaco Service Station owned by Woodrow Lovelace and leased by Pershing "Buz" Busbice which has recently undergone a thorough face lifting. The exterior has been re-done in native stone and a newly-installed protective canopy over the pumps has been covered with green shingles. The inside of the station, located in east Farwell on Highway 70-84, has been painted green and white.

Contest

Merchant Madness Begins Next Week

The 12th consecutive running of the Merchants Football Contest will get underway next week. The football capitol of the High Plains will soon be engaged in the annual guessing game that gets entries from one out of every three adults in this area. If history is any guide, the novice guesser will stand as good a chance of winning the prizes as the coffee shop "pros." This year the first contest will be in next week's issue of the Tribune, dated September 11. The first Farwell game will be on that night against the Friona Chieftains at Steer Stadium.

A score for the Farwell-Opponent game will be necessary. This score will be used only to award prizes in the event a tie results in amount of other games called correctly. This score will also be used in breaking a tie at the conclusion of the 12-week contest. This was necessary in last year's contest when Greg Hargrove and Champ Porter ended the season with a tie of 91 correct calls. Hargrove was awarded the grand prize on the basis of being closer to the actual scores of the tie-breaker games.

To enter the contest a person must be 12 years old or older and his entry in to the Tribune office by 5 p.m. on Friday. Entries postmarked prior to that time will also be accepted.

Winners of the first three places in the weekly contests will receive prizes of $5.00, $3.00 and $1.00. The grand prize contest winner will receive two tickets to the Cotton Bowl game on New Year's Day plus $50 expense money for the trip. Second place winner will receive two tickets to the Sun Bowl game in El Paso, plus $25 expense money. A complete set of entry rules is given each week on the contest page.

The following persons have won the contest over the past 11 years: Bunk Phillips, Maxine Williams, Jerry Dee Owen, A. D. Kirk, Thelma Alexander, Dodie Atkinson, Mrs. L. C. Herington, Dee Owen, C. L. Mahaney, Mrs. Roy Everett and Greg Hargrove.

So far this year, the merchants who are sponsoring the annual contest include Lariat Gin, Farwell Equipment Company, Security State Bank, Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply and Gin, Sherley-Anderson-Pitman Elevator in Farwell and Sherley-Anderson Grain in Lariat, Piggly Wiggly, Capitol Foods, Worley Grain in Farwell, Monsanto Agricultural Center, Farwell Fertilizer, Nickels Gin, Watts Machine and Pump, Watts Oil and Tire Co., Castor Farms and Feed Lots, Kelly Green Seeds, Texaco, Inc., Hughes Insurance Agency, Clara's Spur Restaurant, Farwell Hardware, Bobbie's in Farwell, Far-Tex Feed Yards, West Texas Drilling Company, Williams Fertilizer, and Texico Feed Lots.

The State Line Tribune's Merchants Football Contest is the oldest of its kind in the area, having kicked off its long run in 1959 under the guidance of then editor Richard Hapke. Since then this local promotion idea has become so popular that almost every weekly paper and some daily papers in the Panhandle carry a similar contest.

As an historical note, in the first week's contest on September 3, 1959, there was a tie between Mitz Walling and Bunk Phillips, that year's eventual grand prize winner. The first contest featured nine local merchants as sponsors while last year's run attracted 26 sponsors.

GOVERNOR VISITS -- Walter Wade, District Governor of Rotary International, paid his annual official visit to the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club this week. Purpose of the Governor's visit was to review activities of the local club and to assist in laying plans for future Rotary projects. Wade, who became the District Governor in July, is from Alamogordo, N.M., where he is county agent for the New Mexico Extension Service. He is active in a number of Otero County civic organizations as well as the Rotary Club. Wade is past president of the Alamogordo club and has been in Rotary since 1945. Local Rotary president Bill Boling, left, assists Governor Wade in reviewing the local group's activities.

Enrollment Up -- Four New Teachers At Lazbuddie School

Enrollment of 352 students as of September 1 at Lazbuddie Schools showed an increase over last year's count, according to Superintendent Sam Barnes. Four new teachers have been added to the faculty and the school is also participating in the newly adopted kindergarten program this year. Eighty-eight students are enrolled in high school and 264 are enrolled in grades one through eight.

Fred Wilbanks, elementary music, Mrs. Ruth Wilson, science, math and junior high coach, Errol Johnson, head football, basketball and track coach and social studies instructor, Pat Casey, vocational agriculture, Scotty Windham, high school principal, Murrell Johns, and teacher aides, Maria Silvas and Sue Windham.

New faculty members include Marcella Jennings, who teaches business education subjects in high school; Tally Kelso, who teaches high school math, coaches girls basketball and is assistant football coach; Lanelle Spurgeon, who teaches high school English and Spanish; and Miss Audrian Martin, home economics teacher.

Mrs. Bobbie Mimms is tax assessor-collector for the school district and Mrs. Janie Johns is administration secretary. Some 11 persons are employed by the school as custodians, cafeteria personnel and bus drivers.

Death Claims H. H. Petree

H. H. (Hazel) Petree, 72, died in West Plains Hospital in Muleshoe early Thursday, August 27, after a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church where Mr. Petree was a member. Officiating were Rev. W. T. Perry, church pastor, and Rev. J. L. Bass, pastor of First Baptist Church, Farwell. Burial was in Sunset Terrace Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Steed-Todd Funeral Home of Clovis.

Survivors in addition to his wife, Mittie, are one son, Lt. Col. Wendell Petree, who is stationed at Udorn, Thailand; two daughters, Mrs. James (Mary Ruth) Willis of Brownfield and Mrs. Earl (Hazel) Taute of Albuquerque, N.M.; and nine grandchildren.

Broom Sale Set September 11, 12

Friday and Saturday, Sept. 11 and 12, are dates set for the annual broom sale sponsored by Texico-Farwell Lions Club. A van containing items to be sold by the civic organization will be parked at the parking lot of Holiday Store both days, and on Saturday, Sept. 12, club members will conduct a house-to-house canvass with their wares.

Free Photographs Offered By Tribune

This fall, the State Line Tribune is again offering a bonus to its subscribers. With each new or renewal subscription to the Tribune, the newspaper is offering free, one 8x10 color portrait. Even though you may have recently subscribed or renewed your subscription, you may take advantage of this offer and have another year added to your present subscription with the price of a renewal. These color portraits will be returned in time for Christmas and would make ideal family gifts.

All that is necessary to take advantage of this offer is to fill in the coupon contained in an advertisement elsewhere in this issue. Please indicate the time of day that will be most convenient for your family. The photographer will work as late in the evening as necessary to accommodate all those who wish pictures. Subscription rates to the Tribune are still $4.25 in Farmer and adjoining counties and $5.25 elsewhere. After receiving all the portrait coupons, a date and time will be set for making the pictures and persons will be notified of the exact time of their appointment. This offer was originated by the Tribune last year and several hundred area residents took advantage of it and expressed pleasure with the quality of the portraits they received. Persons wishing to see a sample of the portrait work may come by the Tribune office and look at some photographs on display. The pictures will again be made in the Tribune office.

Eat More Beef --
Clovis CowBelles Promote Local Livestock Industry

"Eat More Beef," "Beef is Best," and "Beef for Father's Day," are but a few of the slogans coined by the most avid of all promoters of the beef industry -- the CowBelles.

This national organization, with chapters in some 28 states, is an auxiliary to the American National Cattleman's Association and works on beef promotions with the Beef Industry Council of the National Livestock and Meat Board.

As Parmer County and surrounding area become more and more involved as a center of the beef raising business, the activities of this group become more important to persons in this area.

This territory is fortunate in being near a very active chapter of the beef boosting organization, the Clovis Cattle Capital CowBelles, whose members spend many hours showing and telling the public that "Beef is Best."

An example of their "show and tell" activities was at the New Mexico State Lions Club Convention this summer when the CowBelles made and served hors d'oeuvres at a coffee hosted by the Clovis Lionesses for ladies attending the convention.

Some of the tasty recipes prepared by these women are taken from the national organization's cookbook; some are from the state CowBelle cookbook, and others are from local CowBelles who took various recipes and adapted them to beef.

Most of the foods made from the following recipes were sampled by many area persons at a "Beef is Best Booster Buffet" held in May of this year where the Clovis CowBelles prepared and served these beef dishes:

- BULL WHIP
 (Did you ever drink beef)
 1 can Beef Bouillon juice of 1/2 lemon
 1/2 can water
 Worcestershire sauce

Combine Beef bouillon, water, and juice of lemon, add Worcestershire sauce. Taste! Worcestershire sauce and lemon should be used to individual taste. Vodka may also be added, and will be used according to taste. Serve hot or cold.

PICKLED BEEF WIENERS
 5 lbs. all Beef wieners
 1 qt. vinegar
 1/4 cup sugar
 1 onion thinly sliced
 black pepper
 pepper sauce
 peppers to taste

Place slices of onions and wieners - cut into bite size pieces - into jars. Heat vinegar, sugar, and pepper sauce to boiling. Pour over wieners - add black pepper and peppers (2 or 3 per jar) to taste. Cover (or seal) and let stand at least overnight.

SWISS CANAPES
 1 lb. American cheese
 1 8 oz. pkg. cream cheese
 1 cup chopped or ground nuts
 1/8 tsp. garlic powder
 dash salt
 chill powder
 4 oz. dried Beef
 Grind or grate all ingredients together and mix thoroughly. Make into rolls and roll in chili powder. Chill and cut in thin slices to serve on round crackers. Freezes well.

PARTY MEAT BALLS
 1/2 lb. ground Beef
 1 egg
 1/2 cup dry bread crumbs
 1/3 cup lemon-lime soda
 1/2 tsp. garlic salt
 1/2 tsp. onion salt
 24 small stuffed olives
 Mix all ingredients except olives. Shape meat around olives and broil or fry, turning once.

SWISS STEAK
 (Sauce for 50 servings)
 2 qts. tomatoes

4 large onions
 4 large sweet peppers
 3 cans mushroom soup
 1/2 cup Worcestershire sauce
 2 Tbsp. prepared mustard
 1 Tbsp. Accent, salt, and pepper
 If desired, add 1 can corn and 1 can English peas.
 Fry steak light brown. Put in roaster. Pour sauce over steak. Cook 45 minutes at 250 degrees.
 (May be cooked in electric roaster.)

BEEF TONGUE
 4-5 ounces per person
 8-12 servings
 1 fresh or smoked beef tongue (3-5 lbs.)
 cold water
 1 Tbsp. salt
 2 small onions
 whole cloves
 6 peppercorns
 1 bay leaf

Put tongue in deep sauce pot. Cover with cold water. Add salt along with one of the onions studded with cloves. Slice other onion and add with peppercorn and bay leaf. Bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer 2 1/2 to 3 hours or until tender. Drain meat, cool slightly, cut off bones and gristle at thick end. Slit skin on under side from end to end. Peel off skin by pulling from thick end to tip. Slice diagonally.
 May be served as a cold cut, with fruit or raisin sauce, or in a salad.

BRAISED OX TAILS
 2 lbs. disjointed ox tails
 1 large onion - chopped finely salt and pepper to taste
 Wash ox tails in cold water, put in cooking utensil. Add onion and cover with water. Simmer until done -- (at least 3 hours). Meat will come off bone and be tender.

BEEF BREAD
 yield -- 3 loaves
BOIL:
 1 cup water

"BEEF IS BEST" say members of the Cattle Capital CowBelles of Clovis. The group is part of the national organization of CowBelles whose members are the most avid of all promoters of the beef industry. Displaying some of their slogans are, left to right, Mrs. Jack Copeland, New Mexico CowBelle of the Year; Mrs. Stanley Williams, president of Clovis CowBelles; and Mrs. Benny Fulgham, chairman of a beef booster buffet last spring. The women are well-known locally. Mrs. Williams (Betty) is the daughter of Mrs. Elmer Bridges of Texico and Mrs. Fulgham (Wilma) is the granddaughter of H. S. Curtis of Farwell. Both are former residents.

CORNED BEEF SALAD
 1 - 3 oz. pkg. lemon gelatin
 1 3/4 cup hot water
 1 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
 12 oz. corn beef -- shredded
 1 Tbsp. sugar
 1/2 cup nuts - optional
 1 cup minced celery
 1 minced medium size green pepper
 3 hard boiled eggs - chopped
 1 Tbsp. lemon juice
 1/2 tsp. salt
 Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Beat until fluffy when mixture begins to thicken. Add salad dressing and remaining ingredients. Pour into 8" square pan and chill until set. 8 generous servings.

CASSEROLE RICE
 2 Tbsp. oleo
 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
 1 cup uncooked rice (long cook)
 2 Tbsp. instant beef bouillon
 dash salt
 1 medium chopped onion
 1 small can chopped mushrooms

2 cups hot water
 Melt oleo in heavy skillet. Add onion and pepper. Cook until soft. Remove to one quart baking dish. Put dry uncooked rice in skillet. Cook, stirring often, until rice is golden brown. Add hot water, bouillon and mushrooms. Turn into baking dish. Bake one hour at 350 degrees, covered. Serves 6.

MINCE MEAT BROWNIES
 1/2 cup butter or oleo
 1 cup sugar
 2 eggs (one at a time)
 1/2 cup mincemeat
 1/2 cup nuts
 1 1/2 squares chocolate
 1 tsp. vanilla
 1/4 tsp. salt
 Line baking pan with wax paper. Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees.

CABBAGE ROLLS
 Wash 2 large heads of cabbage (peel away heavy part). Cut leaves in desired size if necessary.

Steers Face Hereford In Friday Scrimmage

Farwell's 1970 edition of the Steers will see its second session of scrimmage in as many weeks when they host the junior varsity from Hereford this Friday night at 8 o'clock. Last Saturday night the Steers met the Portales Rams at Portales for their first action.

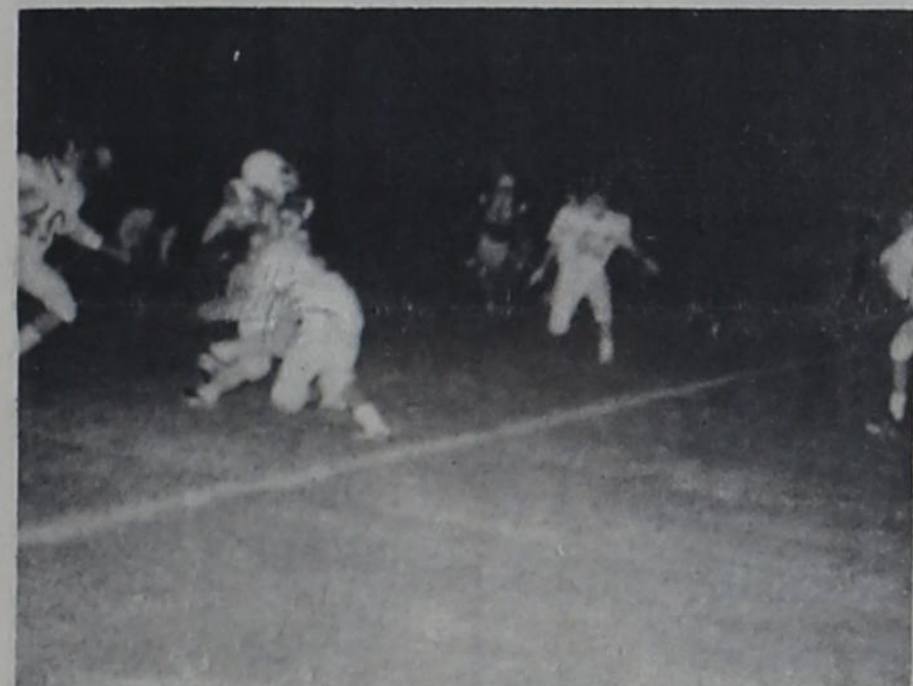

Head Coach Toby Booth commented that the boys looked fairly good in the Portales session and that they "hit real hard." This will be the long suit of the Blue and White defense this year because of the small size and inexperience. Mistakes are to be expected this early in the season, but overall, the team looked fairly good, said Booth.

The offensive line for the Steers will average about 160 pounds while the backfield, with an average poundage of over 170, will be the heaviest the Steers have had. Coach Booth does add that this group is the youngest and probably the most inexperienced he has had. Gene Sheets is the only two-year letterman on the squad.

The Steers will be running from an I or T formation and usually use the fullback more as a blocking back than a running back.

Probable starting lineup and further details on the Steers will be featured in next week's Tribune prior to their first regular season game against the Friona Chieftains on Friday night, September 11, at Farwell.

GALLOPING GARY -- Gary Irwin, fleet back for the Farwell Steers, ripped off some impressive yardage against a strong Portales team. The Steers scrimmaged the Portales team in Portales last Saturday night. First regular season game for the Blue and White will be Friday night, Sept. 11, against the Friona Chieftains.

Farwell Junior Varsity Gets Set For Friona

Farwell's Junior Varsity football squad coached by Larry Taylor will begin the 1970 season by playing the Friona JV at Friona Thursday night, Sept. 10, at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Taylor says he has eight sophomores back from the district champion junior varsity squad of last year, but that the team is relatively inexperienced with so many freshmen players. He adds that there is lots of material for a fine team but that the group needs more work on fundamentals.

Hopefuls for the guard positions will be Andy Bowery, Kie Watkins, Harold Jones, Greg Taylor, Ricky Williams, Jesse Cantu, Conda Jones and Felix Loera. Bowery and Harold Jones will probably be getting the starting nod.

Bill Johnson, Dexter Garner and Ty Phillips are among probable starters at tackle positions. Other tackles include Craig Capps and Dwayne Johnson.

Freddie Dale and Darvey Hargett are vying for the center slot with Dale probably getting the starting call.

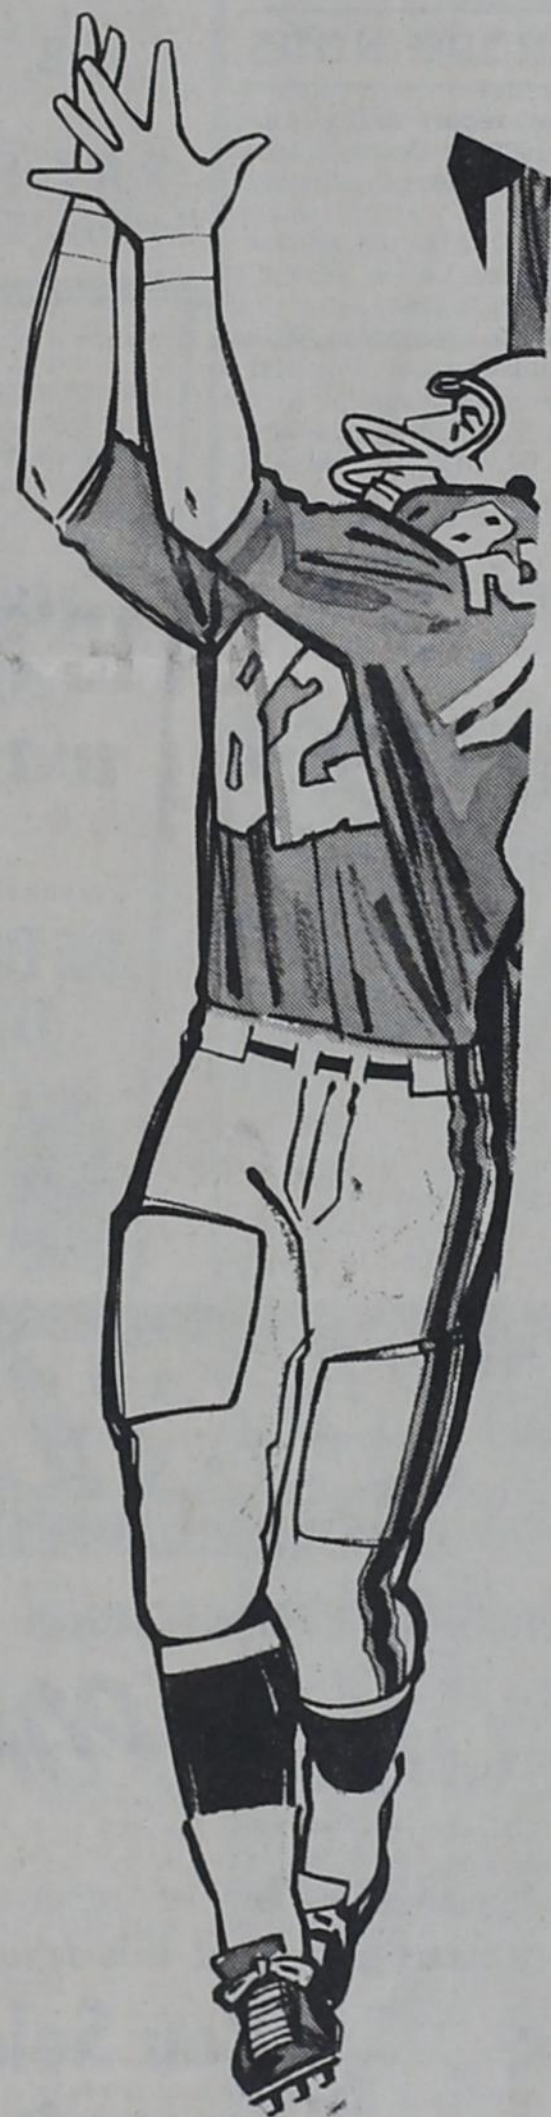

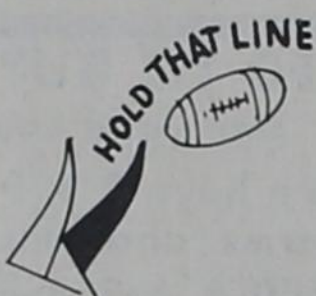

Included in the backfield will be Kevin Hargrove, Johnny Boling, Kevin Hardage, David Norton, Carl Kirkland and Winfred Long. Probable starters will be Hardage, Boling, Kirkland and Hargrove.

Trying out for ends are Mack McFarland, Steve Kaltwasser, Jimmy Birchfield and Doug Johnson. McFarland and Norton are the probable starters.

Complete schedule for the junior varsity season is as follows:

Wolverines Initiate 1970 Grid Season

Twin Cities residents get their first glimpse of the 1970 football season when the Texico Wolverines take on the Portales B squad this Saturday evening at Wolverine Stadium at 8:30 p.m. (CDST).

The Texico School will be starting its second season of football after a 30-year lapse. This year the Green and Gold will be playing an eight-game schedule beginning with the Portales game Saturday night and ending October 31 when the Texico team plays its final district game at Roy, Melrose is the other team in the district with Texico and Roy.

Coach Jim Wynne will field a team averaging 165 pounds in the line and in the backfield. Last year, the team operated from a shotgun formation but this year Coach Wynne has installed a Standard I offense. The ground game is expected to be the big yardage gainer for the Wolverines with the passing game a threat when significant yardage is needed. Coach Wynne reports excellent field goal kicking potential, but admits to only fair punting for this year's squad.

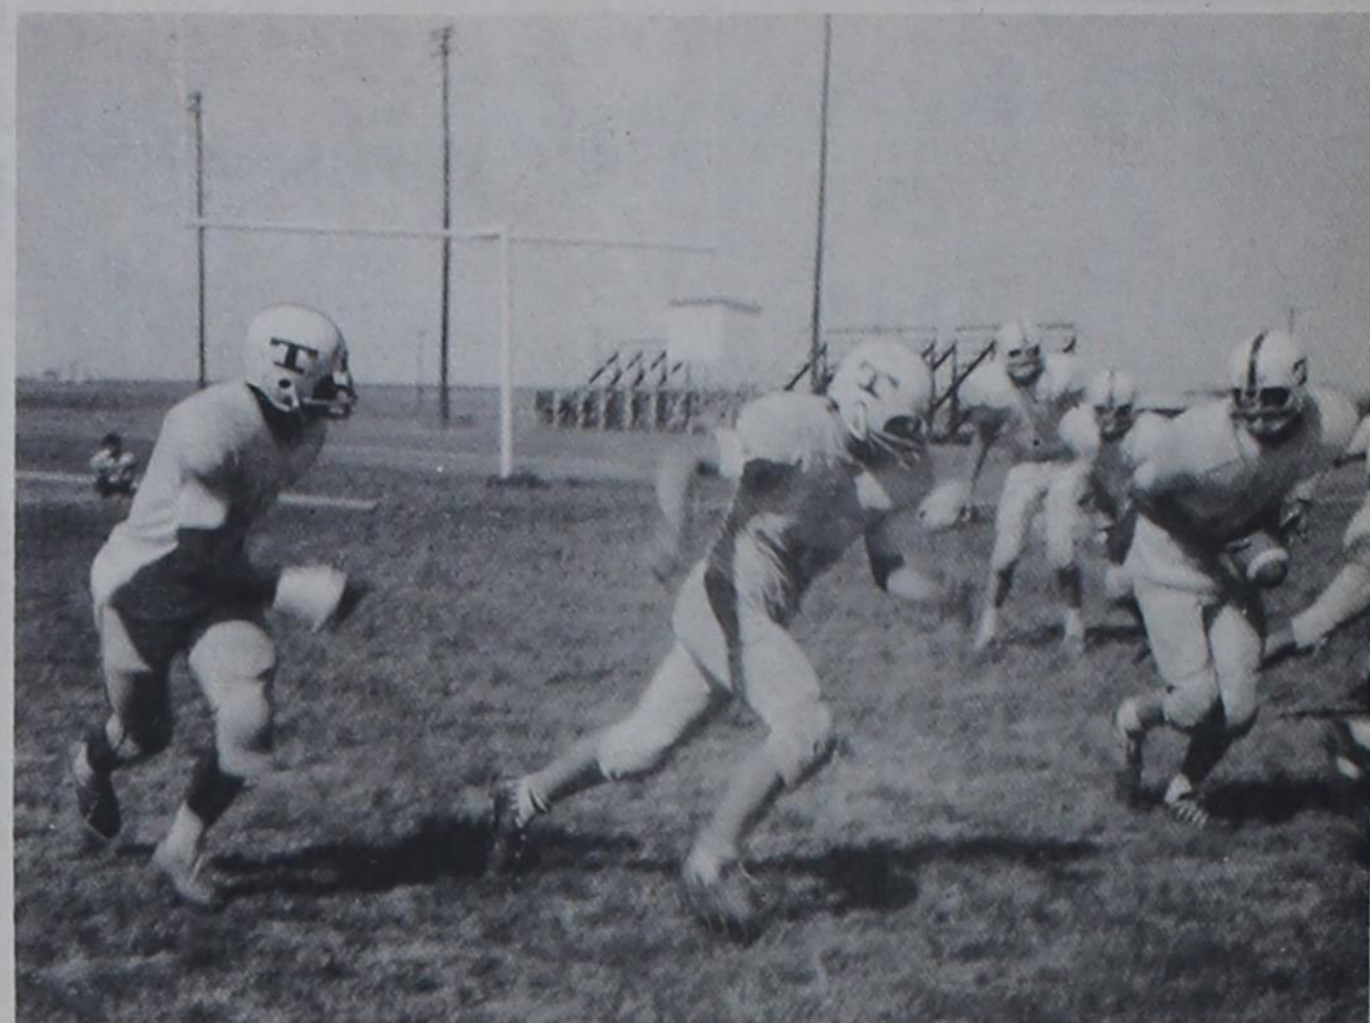

Not much is known concerning the Portales B team, but Coach Wynne says that he expects them to be very speedy and that they will rely on passes, option runs and deception. This will be a good test of our mobility and also our ability to cope with a varied offense, Wynne says.

Starting lineup on offense will include Roy Arnold at center; Randy Skaggs and Gerald White-ner at guards; Wes Clark and Mitch Turnbough at tackles; and Rick Pace and Johnny Dane at ends. The backfield will be composed of Marty White, full-back; Monty Lambert, half-back; Albert Steward, tallback; and Mike Casey operating as quarterback.

Seeing duty on defense will be Loren Gibbs, Alan Halle, Domingo Rojas, Jerry Askew, Bill Servatius, Terry Yell and Ronnie Winegeart. Ken Farmer, a standout with the team last year, is recovering from a knee injury and it is doubtful that he will see action in Saturday's game.

The Texico stadium has seen many improvements with increased seating capacity in the stands and the addition of an electric scoreboard. Donors of the new scoreboard are Worley Mills and the Citizens Bank. Admission to the game will be $1 for adults and 50¢ for children. All football fans in the Texico-Farwell area are invited to attend this season's opener.

A NEW OFFENSE -- Texico Wolverines are learning the variations of the new Standard I offensive formation this year under the tutelage of head mentor Jim Wynne. Quarterback Mike Casey is preparing to hand the ball to Monty Lambert or Albert Steward as they look for an opening over tackle. Wolverine fans will be treated to a new offense this year as the young squad prepares for its second season of grid wars. First test for the Green and Gold will be Saturday night at 8:30 when they host the Portales B team.

Pep Rally Friday

A pep rally is scheduled for Friday afternoon at 3:15 p.m. (CDST), September 4 at Texico. It will be held on the football field, weather permitting. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

New Set-Up For Game Admission

Officials at Farwell School are inaugurating a new system of admission to all the home football games for the Steers. The new method will go into effect at the first game, September 11. Admission to the games will be by ticket only. Three ticket booths will be set up for patrons to purchase tickets which they will present at the gates.

Locations of the ticket booths will be at the main entrance on the north side of the stadium, and one each on the east and west sides.

Gates will be opened for cars to be parked inside at 6:30 p.m. Fee for parking inside will be 50¢ per car.

Admission to the games will be $1.25 for adults and 50¢ for students.

Officials stress that the time of the first four home games will be 8 p.m. (CDST) while the final home game on October 30 will begin at 7:30. The time differential is caused by the change from Daylight Savings Time back to Standard Time on the last Sunday in October.

Schools Announce Enrollment

Enrollment figures for the Texico and Farwell Public Schools were released this week from offices of each of the school's superintendents.

A total of 441 students had enrolled at Texico as of September 1, according to A. D. McDonald, superintendent. A breakdown of this figure shows 241 students in elementary-kindergarten through grade six and an even 200 students in grades seven through 12. The 441 figure shows an increase over the total of 395 students attending the school last year.

Superintendent W. M. Roberts of Farwell says 668 students had enrolled there by September 1. One hundred and ninety-eight are in high school, 168 are junior high students and 302 are enrolled in kindergarten, elementary and special education. Supt. Roberts says the total figure is only one more than the number enrolled at the same time last year.

FIRST FIRING ORDER -- Texco-Farwell Boy Scouts are learning marksmanship and shooting safety on a target course they have constructed in the caliche pits north of Farwell. Firing each Monday evening during regular meeting hours, the boys are working toward individual awards in a contest sponsored by a national ammunition company, Troop 200 won the Rifery Award during week-long competition at Camp Wehnhayn this summer. Pictured (l. to r.) are Billy Roberts, Donnie Garner, Randy Stovall, Tim Bradshaw, Kevin Ford, and Mike McCully. Other boys participating in the activity include Chip Craft, Mark Parie, Terry Williams, Alan McCleskey, Scott Watkins, and Phillip Jackson.

Longhorn Roundup

by Mike Casey

Football's 1970 season is here once more and again the Lazbuddie Longhorns are confronted with the problem of replacing seven outstanding graduated seniors of last year's 10-2 Bi-District championship team.

As was the case at the start of last season, only one member of the offensive backfield returns. This year's lone returnee is Arthur Graves, a 160-pound sophomore.

Mark Barnes will be bidding for the fullback spot. Mark is a 175-pound sophomore and is a promising player who played a considerable amount on defense last year. Mike Casey will be given a try at the halfback spot vacated by Derrell Matthews. He is a 165-pound senior this year.

Competing for the job as signal-caller will be Ricky Seaton, a 150-pound sophomore who has seen considerable action as quarterback in the past. Charles Lee will also be trying for the job. Last year Charles stood out as an offensive end and defensive halfback. He made All-District and All-South Plains on offense.

The offensive line should be strong with guards Jimmy Noland and George Wilson leading the way. Jimmy has been an outstanding player since his freshman days and will be a junior this year. He weighs 190 pounds. Last season he made the All-District team on offense and did an outstanding job. His counterpart, George, made the All-State team on offense in addition to being named to the All-District team on offense. George and Jimmy should turn out to be a fine set of guards for Lazbuddie this year.

The tackles will probably be manned by Marty Moseley, a 175-pound senior who did start some at that position last year. At the other tackle spot will be Thomas Kirvin or Darrell Elliott. Thomas is a 175-pound junior who played "B" team ball last year and Darrell is a 175-pound senior who saw a lot of action last year on defense.

At one end position will be Loy Dale Clark, a 158-pound junior and a very competitive player. John Jones will play the other end position. John played "B" team ball last year but is expected to do a good job for the Horns this season. He is a 160-pound senior.

Defensively, the Longhorns should be particularly strong with the likes of George Wilson, Thomas Kirvin, Marty Moseley and Darrell Elliott heading up the line. They have some very staunch replacements in Randy Bush and Larry Cox. Linebackers should be Mark Barnes, Jimmy Noland, and John Jones. The cornerbacks will probably be Ricky Seaton and Arthur Graves. The rest of secondary will consist of Charles Lee, Mike Casey and Loy Dale Clark. Although lacking in depth, the Longhorns are counted on as being a top contender this season.

The Horns scrimmaged Lubbock Christian High School August 28 and defeated them three touchdowns to none. The Horns scored on runs of 80 yards and 60 yards by Mike Casey and an 80-yard pass from Charles Lee to Arthur Graves.

Defensively, the Horns had two standouts in halting L.C.-H.S.'s drives. They were Thomas Kirvin and Jimmy Noland.

Vacancies in Kindergarten

Farwell's Headstart-Kindergarten still has room for three or four more students, it was announced this week. Parents in the area who have children who were five and one-half years of age on or before September 1, 1970, and who are in need of the training that this program offers, are asked to contact the principal's office at Farwell Elementary School or call 481-9131.

The kindergarten is also in need of persons to help with various activities with the children. If you feel like jumping rope with a five-year old, Mrs. Kathy Weems, instructor, asks that you call her at the administration building, phone 481-3682.

Texico Class Officers Elected

Students at Texico School elected their 1970-71 class officers during the first week of school.

Wesley Clark was elected to head the senior class as president. Working with Clark will be James Burford, vice-president; Pat Smith, secretary; Bill Servatius, treasurer; and Betty Potts, parliamentarian.

Riding herd as the new junior class president will be Ricky Ketcherside. Terry Yell will be serving as the vice-president with Loren Gibbs as secretary; Frankie Tipton as treasurer; Douglas Harrison as reporter; and Terry Duncan as parliamentarian.

Elected to serve the sophomore class as their president was Arlene Servatius. Assisting her this school year will be Kim Pearce, vice-president; Debbie Flowers, secretary; Judy Yell, reporter; and Jo Pearce, parliamentarian.

Freshmen have elected Cheryl Lockmiller as their president with Regina Kelley as secretary, Kent Armstrong as treasurer, and Dwayne Kelley as parliamentarian.

Beverly Duncan was elected by her eighth grade classmates to serve as their president. Helping Beverly will be Elizabeth Pierce as vice-president, Elaine Kelley as secretary, and Albert Galvan as parliamentarian.

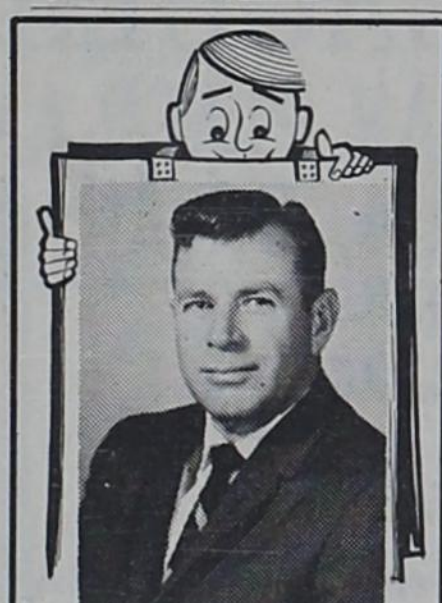

The new seventh grade officers are Spencer Turner, president; Robby Bradley, vice-president; and Vicki Snodgrass, secretary-treasurer.

4-H Clubs Plan Annual County Fair

The second annual Farmer County 4-H Fair will be held Saturday, Sept. 5, during the Maize Days Celebration in Friona. Every 4-H Club member in the county is eligible to have entries in the fair. Exhibits will be open to the public at 12 o'clock noon.

In addition to the exhibits, the 4-H'ers will be selling brownies and lemonade. Money obtained from these sales will be used for the 4-H Achievement Banquet in October.

The 4-H'ers may exhibit products in agriculture, baked goods, clothing, canned fruits and vegetables, and arts and crafts. Ribbons will be awarded to the top three entries in each class. The club that has the most entries will receive a special award.

Club members will be in charge of accepting entries and running the concessions.

The 4-H activities will be located in the rear of the Credit Union building.

Twin City Slenderettes Promote Diet Incentive

The Twin City Slenderettes of Texico-Farwell is an organization to which women, who feel they have a weight problem, can belong and attend meetings to discuss the correct way of dieting. Association with other women with the same problem gives an added incentive for losing weight. Object of the club members is to take off pounds until an average weight for the individual is reached and then to hold this desired weight.

The club was formerly known as the Weight Watchers Club, but this is a national organization, and since the local group is not nationally affiliated, it was decided to change the name.

Also, the time of the weekly meeting has been changed to Thursday from 6-6:30 p.m., so that working women can belong to the club and attend meetings. The group formerly met on Friday mornings.

At each weekly meeting, members weigh in and if they have gained weight, they are required to deposit in a pig bank a fine of 10 cents for each pound or portion thereof gained. Each member who has gained must also wear a pig pin for the next week. If she is seen not wearing the pin during the week by another member, she must pay a fine at the next meeting in the amount of 10 cents for each time she was seen without the pin and she must sit on the floor and sing the piggy song.

Members say the penalties for gaining seem rough, but therein is the most important incentive, and the rewards for losing weight compensate for the penalties. A queen is named for each four-month period. She is the member who has lost the most weight during these four months. All money that is paid in by members gaining weight is kept in the pig, and this money is given to the queen. Also, every eight weeks, there is an award to persons who have attended meetings eight straight weeks without an absence. The award is dues marked paid for the next month.

At each weekly meeting, a top loser is named and she is awarded a cash prize of 50 cents from the club treasury.

The club was organized in 1967, with the purpose to lose weight through will power. Members are encouraged to lose weight without the use of diet pills. Dues are 50 cents per month.

Officers of the Twin City Slenderettes are Sis Deeds, president; Beverly Pharis, vice-president; Bobbie Gilliam, secretary - treasurer; Ann Hammit, weight recorder; Alciddine Bradley, assistant weight recorder; and Reta Dollar, contest chairman.

Rene' Walser Weds Wisniewski

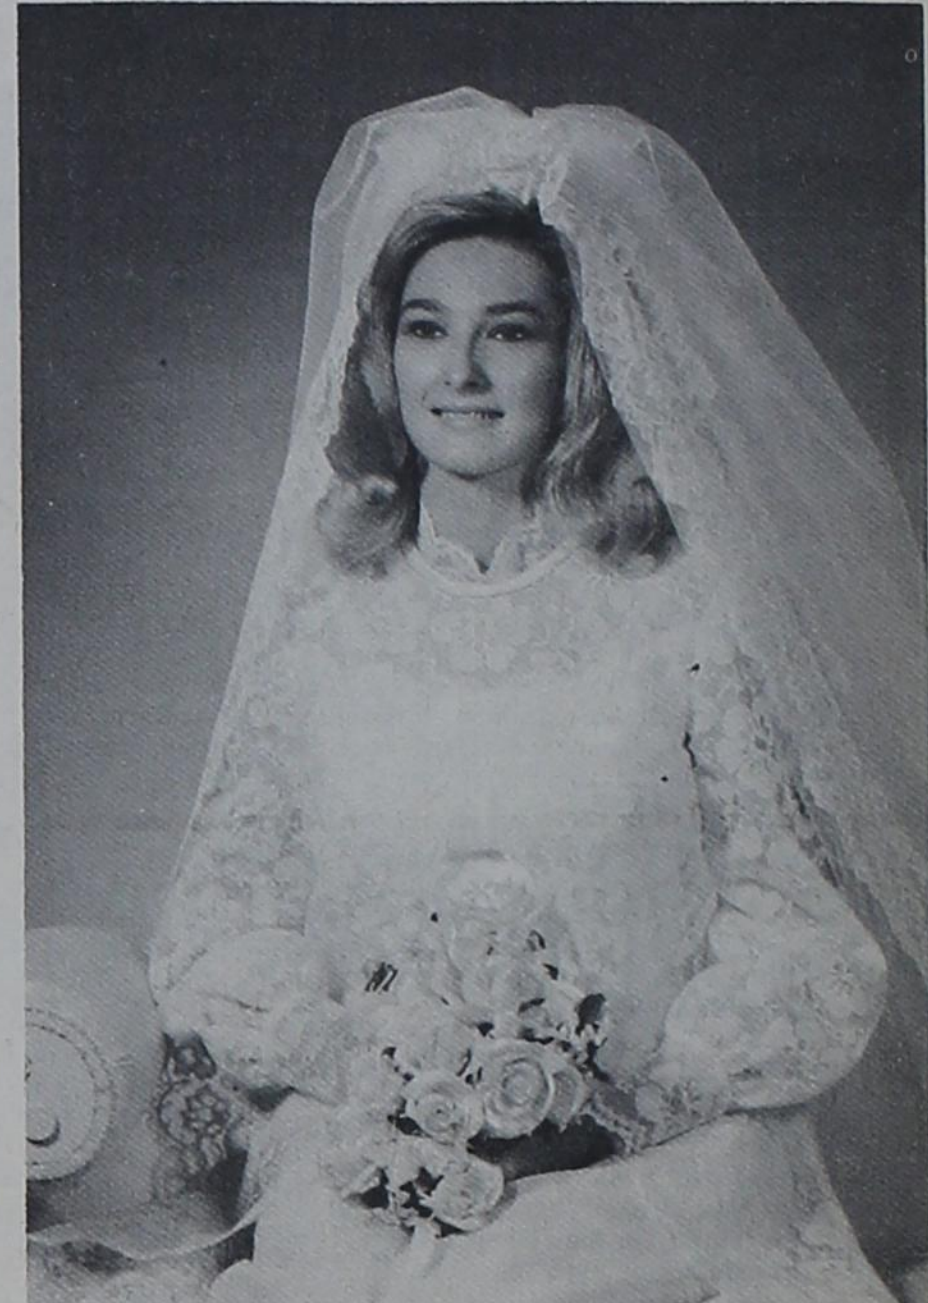

Miss Kathy Rene' Walser became the bride of Steve Stanley Wisniewski in a 7 o'clock ceremony August 22 in the First Baptist Church of Dougherty. Rev. J. L. Bozeman of Hereford performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with a brass spiral candelabrum backed by a brass stand holding a large palm of commodore foliage and flanked by two brass stands holding arrangements of white gladioli and white pom-pom mums and centered with white bridal ropes and a three-candle wedding vow candelabrum.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odus Walser of Dougherty, formerly of Farwell, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Cubine of Kermit.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal of Albuquerque, violinist, and Odus Walser, soloist, He sang, "More," and "Whither Thou Goest." Miss Susan Patrick of Farwell accompanied Mrs. Smith as she sang, "The Wedding Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Walser chose a pink lace

Wedding Reminder

All friends and relatives are reminded of the wedding of Nelda Winegeart and Delton Wilhite at the Oklahoma Lane United Methodist Church on Sunday, Sept. 6, at 2:30 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Winegeart and Mrs. Emma Lue Wilhite and the late Lonnie Wilhite.

Group Enjoys "42" Party

Enjoying last Saturday evening's "42" party in the home of the Harlin Obenshains were a group of their friends, including the Barthell Fords, Martin Chandlers, Leon Londons, Martin Kubes, Doyle Greens, Jimmy Castleberries, and Doyle Goldsmiths.

Members of the club who were unable to attend were the Richard Deel and the Truitt Hardage families.

Refreshments of sandwiches, chips 'n dips and coffee were enjoyed by the players.

MRS. JOHN N. ARMSTRONG

Mildred Gore, John Armstrong Married In Church Ceremony

St. James Episcopal Church of Clovis was the setting Saturday morning, August 22, for the ceremony which united Mildred Camille Gore and John Nichols Armstrong in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gore of 2615 Gidding in Clovis and the bridegroom is the son of John R. Armstrong of Route 1, Farwell, and the late Vera Elliott Armstrong.

The Rev. Joseph H. Fasel led the couple in their double ring vows. The ceremony was followed by nuptial mass conducted by The Rev. Dr. Almon W. Babbitt, uncle of the bride, assisted by Hal Bert Gore, the bride's brother.

Traditional wedding music was provided by Mrs. Stonewall Brandon.

The bride selected a formal gown of hand clipped scalloped imported French Chantilly lace, styled in an empire line with a redingote effect over peau de sole that swept to a watteau chapel train. Ruffles of lace encircled the Victorian neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was attached to a silk rosebud bow.

The bride carried a white lace-covered Prayer Book on which she carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis with white velvet streamers, together with a lace and linen christening handkerchief made by her aunt, Mrs. Almon Babbitt.

For something old, the bride wore an antique gold lapel watch given to the groom's grandmother on her 16th birthday and in turn given to the groom on his 16th birthday; something new was her wedding gown and a white gold cross which was a gift from the groom. Something borrowed was a six-pence from the groom's aunt, Mrs. Jason Gordon of Plainview, Tex., and also one from Mrs. Ralph Sanders of Clovis; and something blue was a garter, a gift from Mrs. Bill Muehlbrad.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Doris Babbitt Lindley of Prairie Village, Kan., cousin of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold Babbitt of Tulsa, Okla., cousin of the bride; Mrs. James Armstrong of Clovis, sister-in-law of the groom; and Mrs. Fredia Fry of Clovis. The matron of honor wore a gold sheer body lined, floor-length dress with high round neckline and set-in sleeves, softly gathered skirt and avocado velvet ribbon belt, and matching headband and shoes. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses and yellow carnations against a background of gold silk net. The bridesmaids wore dresses identical to the matron of honor except they were green in color. They carried colonial bouquets of lime miniature carnations against ruffled green net.

Best man was Robert Armstrong, brother of the groom. Groomsmen and ushers were James Armstrong, another brother of the groom, and Bill Billington and Max King.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gore wore a dress of avocado green French lace with three-quarter length sleeves and hem-length crepe sash, and matching accessories. Mrs. Jason Gordon, maternal aunt of the groom wore a crystal trimmed dressmaker suit of blue silk and matching accessories. Both women wore corsages of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The serving table was covered with a white nylon net over white satin cloth, made by Mrs. Jack Neal, aunt of the bride. The net was bordered with wedding bells of white net and each bell was decorated with silver and crystal beads. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with white roses, and topped with the traditional bride and groom figurines. Yellow and green mints, chosen colors of the bride, were served with the cake. The champagne punch was served from an antique crystal bowl belonging to the Armstrong family.

Serving at the bride's table was Mrs. Jack Neal of Edmund, Okla., and Mrs. Otto Rohr of Bartlesville, Okla., aunts of the bride.

The groom's table was covered with ivory Venice lace over gold. Coffee, dark cake, and nuts were served by Mrs. Jeanie Martin, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Almon Babbitt, aunt of the bride.

Also assisting with the serving at the reception were Mesdames Robert Boese, George Herrington, James Hill, Walter Hoskins, William Hoskins, Jr., James Moss, Jack McCullough, R. E. Nieves, and Bert Thrasher; and Miss Patsy Hoskins.

Misses Debbie Boese, Lisa Gaut and Susan Moss distributed rice bags of gold and yellow, which were made by Mrs. Harold Babbitt, Miss Sandy Lowery and Miss Linda Lowery. Guests were welcomed by Miss Nancy Davis and registered by Miss Sharl Herrington.

For travel, the bride chose a beige and white silk dress with full length coat of beige and white linen, and white accessories. After a snort wedding trip, the couple will be at home at Varsity Village in Lubbock, Tex.

The bride, a 1970 graduate of Clovis High School, is a freshman at Texas Tech. The groom, a graduate of Farwell High School and a Navy veteran of six years' active duty, is a junior at Texas Tech.

Pre-nuptial parties for the bride included a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Herrington. Other hostesses were Mesdames J. O. Barnett Jr., Rosendo Dodge, Nell S. Durham, James Barrows, Gerald Gunnels, James Hill, Walter Hoskins, John Krattiger, Jack McCullough, Reuben E. Nieves, and A. A. Saxe.

A lingerie shower was given by Misses Nancy Davis and Fre-

Car Collecting Can Be Expensive Hobby

Collecting and restoring antique cars is a most interesting hobby for quite a few persons in the Twin Cities. Although there are several area persons who share the same interest in old cars, each said that he became interested and began collecting antique cars on his own without knowing or becoming interested by anyone else sharing the same hobby.

FIRST CHOICE -- This 1925 Model T truck is the first choice of Ray and Jenoyce Ford when it comes to automobile exhibitions. Local people were able to see the truck with a load of appropriately costumed riders in the recent Border Town Days parade. The vehicle is in excellent condition with the carbide lamps even functional.

terested by anyone else sharing the same hobby. Joe Hughes, who runs Hughes Auto Parts in Farwell, and E.C. "Red" Prather, of Wheeler Avenue 66 Station and Red's 66 Station, each felt that his interest in old cars is a sort of sideline to his business. Hughes owns a 1932 Model B Ford pickup and a 1934 Oldsmobile. Hughes has been collecting old cars about two years. He obtained the pickup in Clovis and got the Oldsmobile in Hub, Tex. The pickup was running when he got it; the Oldsmobile had to be worked on before it would run.

Hughes said that it was generally easy to get parts for old Fords, but that it was sometimes very hard to get parts for other cars. He subscribed to the publication, "Spoke Wheels," which tells about old cars. "Each issue deals with a different type car," Hughes said. People who have old cars or old car parts advertise in this publication. This is how Hughes got most of the parts for his Oldsmobile.

He said the Eastern New Mexico Old Car Club in Portales has a swap meet each year in May when people bring various old car parts and trade for the ones they need.

The worth of an old or antique car, says Hughes, is determined by how much a person is willing to pay for it, and the oddity--how rare it is or how many of such cars were made.

Hughes said that he rebuilds his cars to keep and would not consider selling them. He likes his hobby because it is time consuming but he does not have to leave home to work on his cars. He said, however, that he probably would not get any more old cars because his wife, Gwen, did not want any more around the house.

Red Prather has two antique cars also -- a 1936 DeSoto coupe and a 1927 Chevrolet truck. He started collecting old cars about a year and a half ago. He said the DeSoto is just like it was when he got it. It was in good condition then. The Chevrolet, however, was bought from his brother's mother-in-law and the truck hasn't run for 30 years. She had purchased it new, but it hadn't been driven since her husband died some time ago, said Prather.

A member of the Eastern New Mexico Antique Car Club, Prather says the group meets once a month to discuss their old cars and whether or not they wish to participate in certain parades with them. Prather too says that an old car is whatever someone is willing to pay for it. It depends on how bad a person wants it, he said.

Ray Ford of Farwell has five old cars. He has a 1925 Model T truck, a 1929 Model A coupe, a 1931 Deluxe Roadster Model A, a 1930 Model A sedan, and a 1937 Dodge coupe. He has car hobblist. He has a 1923 Dodge Brothers car and a 1936 Chrysler Streamliner.

The Dodge Brothers car was the first of the two cars he purchased and all it needed was new tires. (A new tire and tube cost him $57.00.) Twelve years ago he traded an old slot machine which was worth around a 1936 Chrysler Streamliner. It has a six cylinder motor with overdrive and freewheeling that he says he would not hesitate to use at a moment's notice. The car was obtained through Leo Balles in the Hub community.

Hardage became involved with antique cars simply because of his love for rebuilding things. He belongs to the Eastern New Mexico Antique Car Club and participates in their activities of parades, meetings, and "swap markets."

A 1926 Model T Ford truck was the first antique car purchased by Herb Potts, another local antique car fan. He bought it for $500.00 with no intention of selling it. However, six months later a man inquired about buying the car. Herb doubled the buying price (thinking no one would spend $1000.00, and he did not want to sell it anyway). The man chewed his tobacco, walked around the car a few times and gave Potts a check for the $1,000. Thus, the first car Potts owned was sold and driven off without actually being "for sale" in the first place.

A 1925 Star and a 1928 Pierce-Arrow now grace the premises of the Potts home. The Pierce-Arrow was the first of the two cars Potts purchased and is truly a luxury Cadillac-bracket vehicle. This car sold a lot during the oil-town boom days and carried a price tag in the $5500 to $6000 neighborhood, thus making it equal to nine or ten Model A Fords.

This car has a backup light and a knob that can be pushed to grease the engine when so desired or needed. Herb worked on the motor when he purchased the car and most of the time it took to complete the job consisted of a six-month wait to have a head-gasket made in Los Angeles.

The Star is a four-door touring car (it has a cloth top

A DELUXE MODEL -- Windbourn Hardage of Farwell poses with his 1936 Chrysler four-door sedan. The car features the dual side mounted spare tires and is also equipped with overdrive and floating power. In addition to automobiles, Hardage is also well-known for his restoration work on old pianos, organs and other musical antiques. He often takes his car for a spin and has gone as far afield as Tucumcari.

work on the Roadster and says he expects to get around $3500 for it if he ever sells the car. Ford says he might sell one of cars if the price were right. Eut he has never sold one yet.

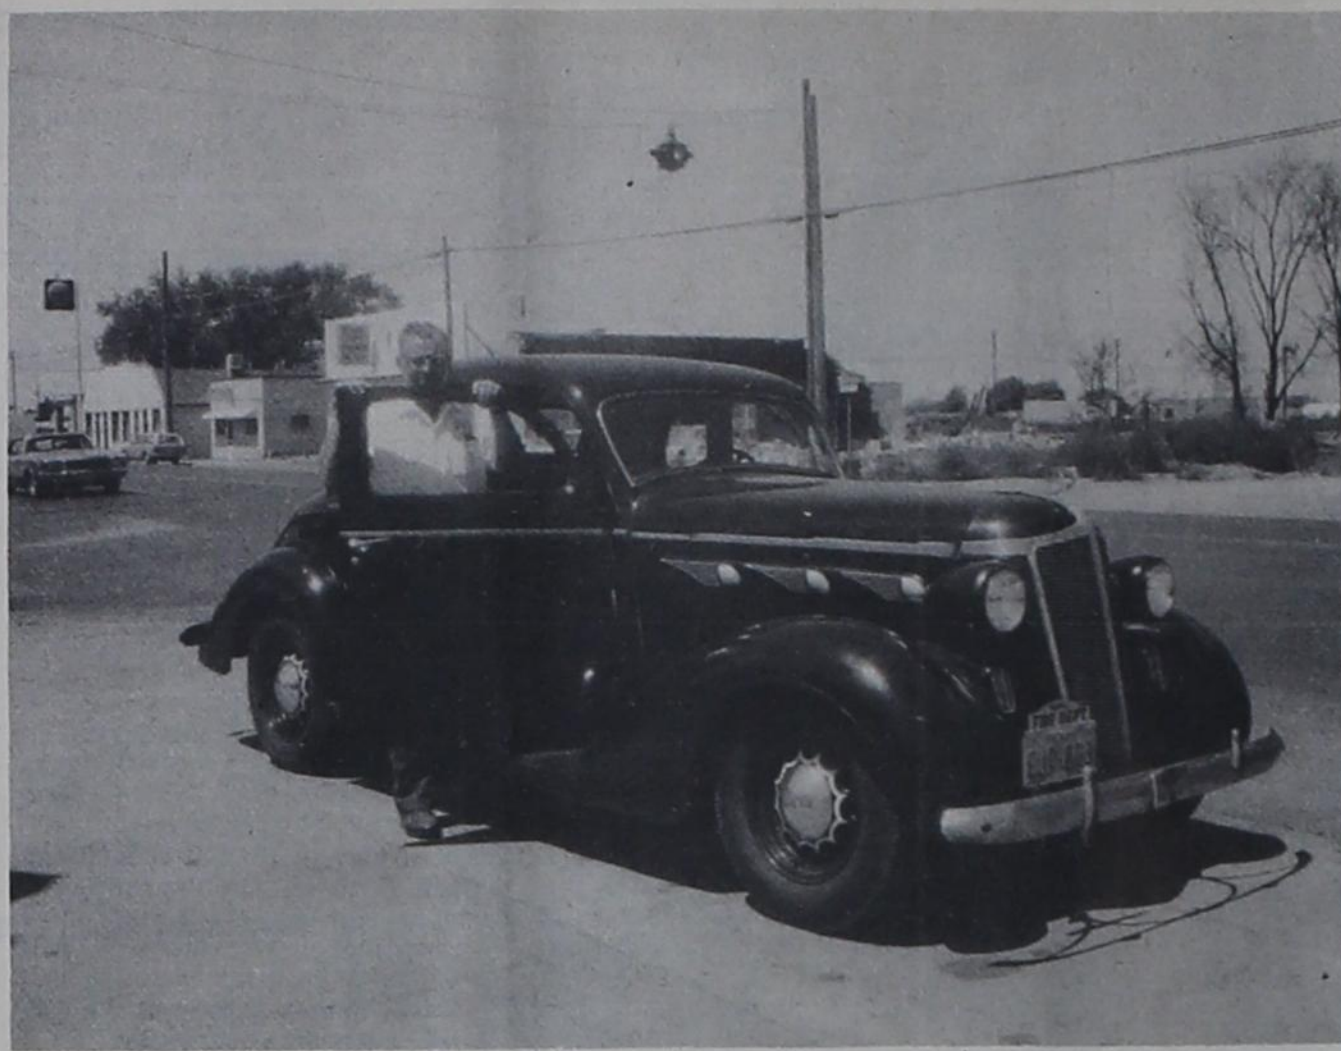

Ford's cars are stored in a barn in Texico. He said that his wife, Jenoyce, said his cars were like Fort Knox. "All of the money goes in, but none ever comes back out," Good original parts for the old cars are very expensive, Ford said. A new fender that would have sold for $7 or $8 when the car was new, sell for around $150 today. These are for the new parts. Non-original parts are cheaper. Ford is getting ready to send some old bumpers and headlights to Juarez, Mexico, to be rechromed, since he can get it done so much cheaper there.

Windbourn Hardage is a "trader" and as a result of this talent he is also an antique that probably originally sold for $450 or $500. Today it is in the $2500 to $3000 bracket, but a true price is hard to arrive on as it actually depends on the prospective buyer.

Will Durant was the man responsible for building the Star. He was president of General Motors at that time but was ousted due to this work. The Durant and Star models are credited to him and they are the first cars to be built on the assembly line procedure with parts coming from all companies. An interesting item found on the Star is the "fat man's" steering wheel. It was made moveable to accommodate those "more heavily endowed."

Both cars were purchased from the same person and are a source of pride and fascination to Potts as he always wanted antique cars. He is a member of the Eastern New Mexico Antique Car Club that makes one or two trips a year to the Capitan area. On this trip club members drive their antique cars and some persons come over 200 miles without so much as a flat tire. The club also sponsors "flea markets" with other antique car clubs. Here they bring "bits 'n pieces of parts" that one might not want but someone else absolutely needs.

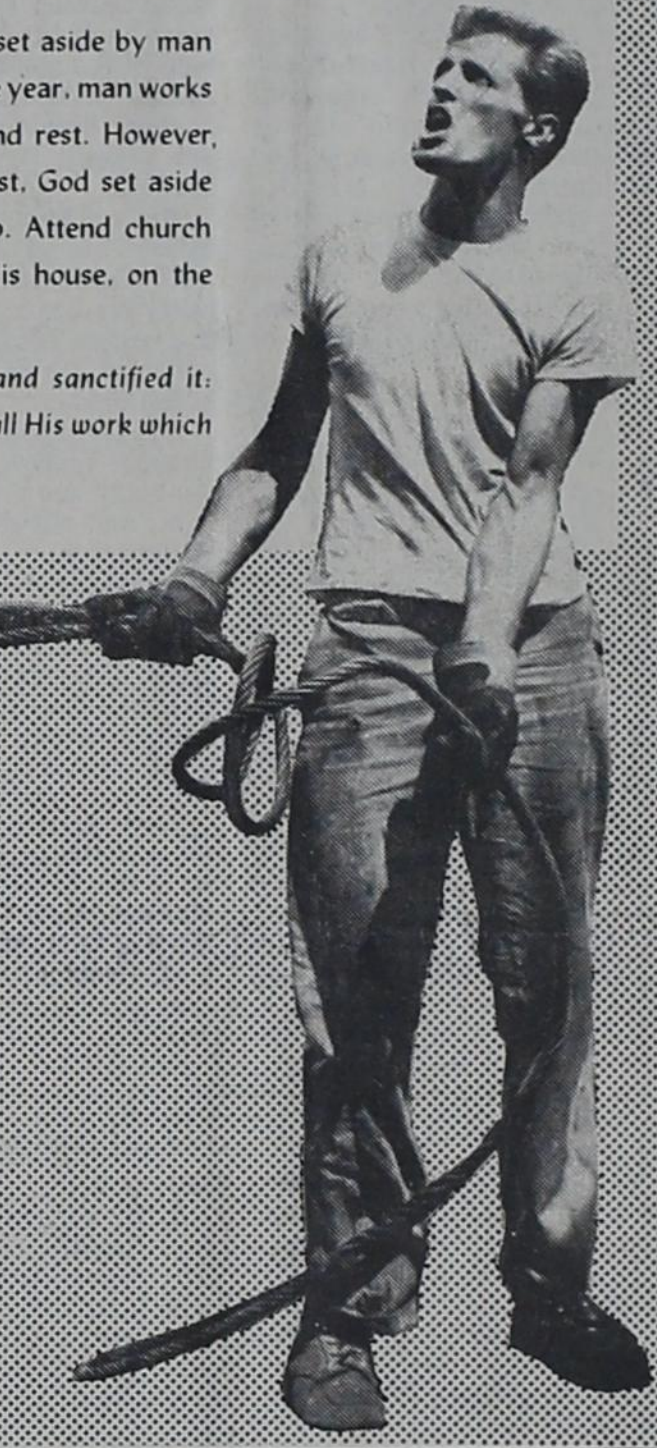

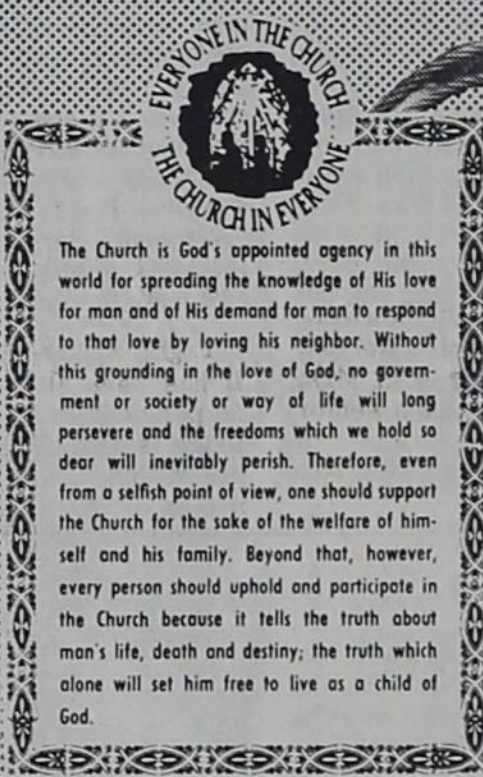

WHEE KIDS! -- A stylish car for the younger generation in those days was this 1936 DeSoto two-door sedan belonging to E. C. "Red" Prather of Farwell. Prather is another person who gets a utilitarian use from his hobby as he commutes in this car between his gas stations in Texico and Farwell. Currently Prather is rebuilding a 1927 truck to add to his automobile collection.

★ Honor God Sunday ★ Honor Labor Monday

SPECIAL DAYS ... Monday has been set aside by man as a day to honor labor. Throughout the year, man works hard and deserves this recognition and rest. However, even before man saw this need for rest. God set aside one day a week for rest and worship. Attend church each Sunday. Worship the Lord in His house, on the day that He set aside.

"And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it He had rested from all His work which God created and made."

PROUD POTTS -- Herb Potts, another of the local antique car buffs, stands beside his 1925 Star touring car. The Star automobile was manufactured by famed auto designer and builder Will Durant. For those who think that the movable steering wheel is a recent convenience, note the position of the steering wheel on this 1925 model -- it's a real swinger.

JOE'S PRIDE -- Joe Hughes, Farwell antique buff, is proud of his yellow and black 1932 Model B Ford pickup. Hughes says the Model B series was only manufactured in 1932 and these are rarer than the A model which was in production from 1928 to 1931. Hughes purchased this pickup in Clovis and it was in running condition when he obtained it.

Food for Thought: This is the time of year when well-tended home gardens give us luscious fresh vegetables. Whether you're lucky enough to get your vegetables right out of your own garden or not, you'll undoubtedly be using more since they are abundant now. So, this is a good time to vary your diet and try new ways of seasoning vegetables.

Potatoes, which are popular in many lands, can be prepared in dozens of ways. They're most often curried in India; buttered and sparked with caraway seeds in Germany.

In Colombia, potatoes are served with a cheese sauce spiced with oregano, cumin, coriander, black pepper and onions. In southern France, potatoes are cooked in olive oil, then seasoned with nutmeg, pepper, parsley, chives and garlic. Hungarians like to bake potatoes and then spice the mashed pulp with paprika and minced onion.

Tomatoes also lend themselves to a variety of preparations, and Mediterranean style is a version worth trying. Just fill hollowed out tomatoes with melted cheese which has been spiced with black pepper, red pepper, a bit of mustard and a little garlic. Heat through in the oven.

Want to try cauliflower in a new way? Borrow a recipe from Spain, and douse a cooked cauliflower with a sauce of olive oil, sauteed garlic, red pepper and a dash of vinegar.

Carrots are sometimes dull, but not the way the Indians prepare them; they're candied in sugar syrup with a smart bit of ginger added.

Thumb through cookbooks from other lands; you'll find how spunky and varied vegetables can be.

Fashion, USA: Fabulous fake furs with "the rich girl" look; that's the big news in coats this year, according to a fashion director of a large department store. The very image of real broadtail, seal, otter--the jungle excitement of jaguar, cheetah and tiger; all captured in store menageries. The styling news of belted and fitted shapes, trims of leather, the "wet look", -- all point to the fact that it's the year to own a new coat.

Light Makes A Difference: It has been claimed that about 80 per cent of a person's knowledge is brought to him through his vision. Thus, school work makes exceptional demand upon students' eyes during their academic careers.

Well-planned lighting, therefore, can make a significant contribution to education. It behooves parents to provide their school-age children with a well-lighted study center in the home.

Students need their own work surface which is always ready for the one to five hours of daily studying which may be required throughout the school year. Basic equipment for the home study center is a flat-topped desk or table, and a chair which brings the student's eye level at least 14 inches above the work surface.

The desk should be placed against a wall, never in front of a window. The desk top and wall should be light in color to reduce uncomfortable contrast between school work and the surrounding area. A blotter on the desk and pegboard on the wall can correct deficiencies in this area. About 70 footcandles, (lighting level available from a 200-watt light bulb) should be on the work surface. Portable lamps should be placed 12 inches back from the front edge of the desk and 15 inches on one side. This placement assures adequate light on the desk without reflection back into the student's eyes.

Area Visitors

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everette Christian this week is their daughter and her family, the Charles Bowers from Lindsey, Calif. They arrived Saturday with their two daughters, Tiffany and Gerri, and will be leaving this Sunday. Mrs. Bowers has also been visiting with her sisters and respective families, the John McFarlands and the Darrel Nortons.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe William Teel of Baltimore, Md., are visiting this week in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Teel in Texico. The Joe Teels arrived here last Sunday and will continue their visit until this Sunday.

Kyle Sheets returned Sunday to Dallas where he will be attending Christian College of the Southwest, Kyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheets, will be attending on a basketball and scholastic scholarship.

Electric Company Has Reorganization Program

Southwestern Public Service Company will reduce its number of division offices to three with a reorganization program which will take place immediately, it has been announced by Roy Tolk, president of the electric company.

Under the new alignment, the company's division offices will be at Roswell, Lubbock and Amarillo.

The division to be headquartered at Roswell, and known as the New Mexico Division, will include Clovis, Portales and Texico-Farwell in addition to the present district offices at Roswell, Artesia and Carlsbad. When the division included only these three districts, it was known as the Pecos Valley Division.

Joe Key, who has been the division manager at Roswell since 1955, will continue as manager of the newly-formed division.

Plans Made For Reunion

Planners of the Oklahoma Lane School Reunion remind all ex-students, ex-teachers, and ex-residents, as well as local persons, of the school reunion which will be held the Friday after Thanksgiving at the Oklahoma Lane Community Center.

Letters will be sent in the near future to all persons whose address is known. Anyone having information of exes is asked to contact Arlin Hartzog, Harold Carpenter, or Mrs. Wendol Christian.

Greg Hargrove and Steve Blair will be roommates at Texas Tech in Lubbock as they begin their freshman year of college studies. Greg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hargrove and Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blair.

Kyle Sheets returned Sunday to Dallas where he will be attending Christian College of the Southwest, Kyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheets, will be attending on a basketball and scholastic scholarship.

The Southern Division at Lubbock will include the Texas cities the company serves south of Friona and Happy. Prior to the reorganization, some of these communities as well as those now being added to the Roswell-based division, were in the Plains Division, which was headquartered at Plainview.

Tolk said the reorganization had been planned for October 1 when J. M. Collins, who had been Plains Division manager for 25 years, was scheduled to retire. The action has now been moved forward because of the untimely death of Mr. Collins on August 23.

Plainview will continue as a district office.

The Panhandle Division, which includes the communities Southwestern serves in Kansas and Oklahoma and those in Texas north of and including Friona and Happy, is unchanged in the realignment. The division headquarters is at Amarillo.

Faster transportation, improved communications, advanced technology and better trained and more skilled employees at local office level were cited by Tolk as reasons for the consolidation.

"When we put this company together in its present form 28 years ago we had six division offices. In the mid-50's we reduced that number to five and last year we cut it down to four. The purpose of the division office has always been to lend staff and administrative support to the local office, the one which serves the customer. We can get around faster now, we can talk more quickly on radio or telephone and we have better equipment and better employees. That lets us concentrate more on serving the customer more efficiently and economically and directly through local offices," Tolk pointed out.

Good Rainfall Noted In Area

Good rainfalls have been received in this area beginning last Thursday and continuing on through the first of the week.

D. Smith Day, a mile north of Clovis airport, received 1.25 inches Tuesday afternoon. Martin Kube at Texico Feed Lots north of Texico reported 1 inch for the same day.

South of Texico, John Hadley said Sunday through Tuesday .5 inch was received. Mrs. Barney Harding, who is located four miles south of the State Line Road, received an inch for the first of the week's total. Fred Chandler reported a total of .9 inch for the first of the week.

Alvin Mace of Farwell received .75 inch rainfall during the first of the week. Asa Smith at Lariat reported his area outdid others with a 1.6 inch rainfall this week. He also had .4 reading for last Thursday which brings his total to 9.4 inches for the year.

Send a letter to North Vietnam.

Right now hundreds of Americans are being held captive in North Vietnam.

A few prisoners have made it back. They talk about bamboo cages. Vicious beatings. Malnutrition. Humiliation.

But the North Vietnamese will tell us nothing. And it's this silence that makes our appeal more urgent.

For the families at home, there is no word on who's alive. Who's dead. Or even who's being held. There is nothing. Except the anguish of not knowing.

Maybe you can change this. By writing to the one man who can change it: The President of North Vietnam.

Ask him to release the names of prisoners, allow them to write to their families, and let the Red Cross inspect the prisons to insure proper medical treatment and living conditions.

Remind him that he is bound by the 1949 Geneva Convention which his country signed. And by the Istanbul resolution.

North Vietnamese leaders do care about American public opinion. And if they think they can gain something by bowing to it, they will.

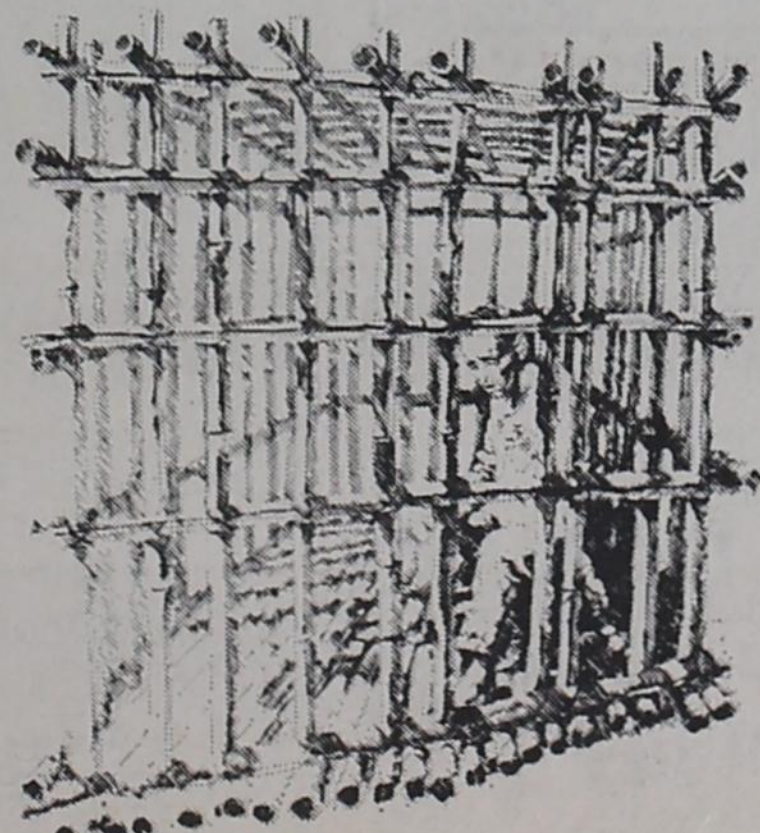

But one letter won't do it. Or a thousand. Maybe it will take millions. So we've got to write now. All of us. And often.

Write a letter tonight. And send it to: Office of the President, Democratic Republic of Vietnam, Hanoi, North Vietnam.

It'll cost you a quarter. But it might save a life.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

Maybe they'll open it.

Don't believe everything you hear about gas.

For some reason there's a few old wives' tales kicking around about gas. With about the same validity as the one about the moon being made of green cheese.

One we'd like to squash right here and now is that the vent on a gas clothes dryer is to carry away some kind of "evil" fumes.

Baloney.

A vent on a gas dryer is there for the same reason it's there on an electric dryer. To carry away hot air and the humidity that comes from the clothes as they're dried.

An electric dryer needs a vent just as much as a gas dryer does. To keep your laundry room from becoming a steaming jungle.

What you can believe is that gas dries your clothes faster (fast enough to keep up with your washer) and cheaper (costs about a fourth as much to use).

Now. Can you think of one good reason to dry your clothes any other way?

On The Farm In Parmer County

By R. MACK HEALD
County Agent

SWINE PRODUCTION IN PARMER COUNTY

Today the cost price squeeze situation so commonly talked about is bringing about a change in the thinking of our farm producers in the High Plains. This change in thinking is encouraging the production of red meats. Swine production has an excellent opportunity in contributing to the growth of this red meat production.

There are two factors that make swine production very suitable for Parmer County and the High Plains.

The first and probably most important factor is the availability of grain. Since grain makes up about 75 per cent of swine rations, this availability factor is very important. Parmer County and the High Plains are the leading grain sorghum producing county and area in the state. Approximately 152,000 acres of grain sorghum was planted in Parmer County in 1969.

Approximately 5000 head of hogs are produced in Parmer County yearly. This 5000 head of hogs is represented by all breeds. However, most producers are using crossbred sows in their operations.

Swine is one of the major livestock projects participated in by 4-H Club members in Parmer County. Some 4-H'ers are in the sow for pig production project while others enjoy showing and feeding out market hogs.

There are many essentials considered to be necessary to profitable swine production. Among these essentials are: (1) a desire to raise hogs (2) start small and grow into the business (3) get in and stay in (4) carry out a complete program (5) control diseases and parasites (6) adequate housing (7) produce hogs the market demands (8) raise large litters and (9) feed for rapid efficient gains.

Combining the advantages of having an available feed supply, and ideal climate, and striving to accomplish the nine essentials just mentioned, Parmer County and the High Plains can make swine production a profitable enterprise.

Pleasant Hill Achievement

Achievement Day for Pleasant Hill 4-H Club members was August 20 in the Community Center. During the business meeting demonstrations were given by Arlene Servattius, who told how to put in a zipper; and Justin Gaddis, whose topic was sheep.

Judging the various exhibits were Karen and Ann Locknane, Mrs. Leon Marks, Sharon Wixom and Billy Dictson.

Members winning ribbons and their projects are as follows: Rose Ellen Pattison - baking II, blue, and sheep, blue; Charlene Whitener - baking II, red, and rabbit, blue; Sammie Pip-pin - International foods, blue; Arlene Servattius - home improvement, red, jumper, blue, and muffins, blue; Don Pip-pin - photography, blue, and tractor, red; Elaine Kelley - home improvement, blue, jumper, blue, and sheep, blue; Also, Ellen Farmer - home improvement, blue, and scarf and tote bag, blue; Melinda Pattison - home improvement, blue, scarf and tote bag, blue, and sheep, blue; Diane Kelley - school dress, blue, hemmed patch, blue, sportswear, blue, overall patch, blue, and sheep, blue; Dwayne Kelley - sheep, blue, and electric II, blue; Justin Gaddis - sheep, white; Don Duncan - beef, blue; Gerald Whitener - electric I, blue, and welding II, blue; Richard Kelley - swine, red; Roger Pattison - sheep, blue, tractor, red, welding I, red, electric I, white, and woodcraft, blue.

Others attending the meeting were Sherry Clark, Mrs. Howard Whitener and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kelley, leaders, and mem-

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

A recent fact sheet by the Internal Revenue Service on levy action by IRS states this policy: "Recognizing that IRS could not discharge its responsibilities without some means of enforcing collection of delinquent taxes, and in fairness to the vast majority of taxpayers who properly meet their tax obligations, Congress has provided legal sanctions such as levy against property and rights to property of the taxpayers delinquent in payment of taxes." What this says is "Don't fool around -- pay your taxes." The document clearly brings out that Internal Revenue will be fair and reasonable but the law provides for collecting, and they will collect.

At Home In Parmer County

By Janice Miller
County HD Agent

With the beginning of school comes the beginning of monthly 4-H Club meetings. All six of the clubs in the county will be having meetings and getting their local club activities in full swing.

A county-wide event this coming week is the 4-H Fair in Friona. This is only the second year for this activity. It gives 4-H members a chance to exhibit some of the things they do in 4-H Club work. It also gives them a chance to develop some of their leadership abilities. Members have the responsibility of taking the entries and running the concessions. It is their fair, and they work at making it a success. The 4-H Bake Show will be held with the fair this year. The 4-H girls entering this event must turn in a foods project record and two baked products. This year the products will be two-crust pies and batter rolls. The girl with the highest score on these products and record will be eligible to enter the District Bake Show, September 19, in Amarillo.

The products are exhibited during the Tri-State Fair, On Rural Youth Day September 26, the District winner will be announced.

October 4 - 10 has been designated as National 4-H Week. The theme this year is "We Care." Watch for more news about 4-H'ers and their activities during this week.
