FIFTY-SIXTH YEAR

10 CENTS

Last Saturday, we think, qualified as the date of the first "norther" this fall. Therefore, according to the ancient Sayers of Sooth, we have only six weeks until the first frost. This makes for a mighty short summer and fall. We haven't measured the nut supply of the local squirrels to verify this prognostication but do plan to check the fur coat of the first chipmunk for a more accurate assessment of these infallible signs.

From the crowd at the new Country Club swimming pool this past weekend, you wouldn't have suspected that winter was in the offing. The new facility received a grand baptism and workout from several hundred patrons, mostly youngsters. We were not a minute by minute observer of the scene, but we did view the proceedings several times in the three-day span. From this observation, we concluded that 99 per cent of the bathers were under 21. We wondered where the more mature generations were keeping themselves.

Ye Olde Editor dashed out for a quick dip on Friday evening and thoroughly enjoyed himself in the process. But, as is said, misery loves company and those of us that are losing the sleek trimness of youth would like to see more of the fat and forty group in swimming, just for companionship, if nothing else.

Possibly a special time will have to be set aside to encourage the bulging bubbles to bathe. After all, we all aren't perfect, especially when the old endocrine system passes its zenith and begins to play us false by adding pounds where we once had muscle.

Last week, the Tribune carried an editorial concerning the low mental esteem that certain government agencies evidently have for the intelligence of the general public. This week, we would like to mention the most brazen display of hypocrisy that has come to our notice in a long time. We refer to the concern of some of our pontificating politicians concerning the "honesty" of the forthcoming South Vietnam election.

Here is a country engaged in a bloody civil insurrection, occupied to a large degree by enemy troops, even attempting to hold an election. This attempt in itself is a remarkable feat. Also, it is a country only recently out of colonial status to whom democratic processes is very new. Yet our bleeding heart politicians are expecting it to hold an election that will be a model of honesty and efficiency.

Our memory, short as it is, goes back to a rather questionable vote count out of Duval County in 1948. We recall that President Kennedy was a "minority" president and that the honesty of vote counting in Cook County, Illinois, was seriously questioned at the time, as in several other crucial areas of the country. In fact, we wonder if an accurate vote tally out of a heavily one party district is ever really possible.

We have been "practicing" democracy for some 190 years. Our delegation to "observe" the Vietnam election is being headed by Henry Cabot Lodge. Inasmuch as he has won few elections, we question if he is as conversant with vote fraud as some of our more knowledgeable politicians. But this is standard reasoning from our wonderful wizards of foggy bottom.

Get Out The Pencils --

Football Contest Begins Next Week

If you are too old or too young to get into the game of football any other way and like to take it easy and sit in the old armchair and punt, pass, or kick, in retrospect, then the game for you is the annual guessing game, the Tribune's football contest, sponsored by local merchants during the football season.

Winner of the contest, which will begin in the Tribune next week, will receive two tickets to the Cotton Bowl game as top prize along with $50 expense money at the end of the contest. In addition, weekly prizes of $5 (first), $3 (second), and $1 (third) will be given to the winners of the contest each week.

In order to get into the game, you must be 12 years of age or older and must have your entry into the Tribune office each Friday by 5 p.m. or have the entry postmarked no later than Friday, if mailed. There are no other rules and anyone not only "can" but is "urged" to enter the contest.

Each week during the football season, ten games (high school, professional or college) will be published on the contest entry. The Farwell game will also appear on the contest each week, but will be used only as a tie-breaker in case of persons calling the same number of games correctly. Contestants must pick the score on the Steer game. We repeat, it will not count as one of the contest games. It will not matter if the team picked as winners is right or wrong, only the point spread will be used.

Former winners of the contest are Maxine Williams, Bunk Phillips, Jerry Dee Owen, A. D. Kirk, Thelma Alexander, Dottie Actkinson, Mrs. L. C. Herington, and Dee Owen. Who will the winner be this year? It could be YOU!

Sponsors of the contest this year include Monsanto Agricultural Center, Lariat Gin, Farwell Equipment, Security State Bank, State Line Grain, Oklahoma Lane Farm Store, Sherley - Anderson - Pitman, Worley Mills, Piggly Wiggly;

Also Nickels Gin, Williams Fertilizer, Farwell Motor, Kelly Green Seeds, Texico Citizens Bank, Texaco, Inc., Shuman-

Haseloff, Farwell Grain Exchange, Capitol Food, Clara's Cafe, City Cleaners, and Continental Oil Co.

Farwell School Begins Monday

Students in the Farwell Public Schools will attend classes for the first time this term on Monday morning. Classes will begin at the regular time and buses will run at the usual hour, according to W.M. Roberts, superintendent.

Sixth grade and elementary students will register on the first day of classes, with high school students and seventh and eighth grades to register Thursday and Friday (this week). Seniors and eighth grade students were to register at 10 a.m. Thursday with juniors and seventh grade registering at 1 p.m. on Thursday. Sophomores will register at 10 a.m. on Friday and freshmen will register at 1 p.m. Friday.

First faculty meeting of the year was held on Wednesday morning.

All children who will be six years of age by Sept. 1, 1967, living in the school district, are eligible to enroll in first grade in Farwell. They should bring their inoculations (required by law) and should bring their birth certificate to school on the first day if they have not been previously enrolled. A pre-school enrollment was held last spring for beginning students.

Team Roping Set Labor Day

Farwell Arena Association is sponsoring a team roping on Labor Day, Sept. 4, 2 p.m. (the day after the matched roping in Clovis). All ropers in the area and visiting ropers are invited to participate in the event.

No admission will be charged and the public is invited to attend, according to Fred Chandler.

Nine new teachers have been added to the faculty this year. They include Mrs. Patricia Weaver, high school speech and junior high English; Kenneth Good, math, science and assistant coach; Mrs. Linda Whitson, junior high social studies and English; Ken Livingston, high school math, Eddie Booth, fifth grade, Mrs. Lynell Verner, third grade; Mrs. Penelope DeMore, second grade, Mrs. Ruth Durham, first grade, and Mrs. Ken Livingston, first grade. Charles Turner, former music director, has been moved to counselor.

Superintendent Roberts announced on Wednesday morning that William Lynn Burton, presently in the Army stationed at Fort Riley, Kan., has been hired as band director. Burton will not arrive in Farwell until Nov. 1, at which time he will receive his discharge from the Army. Until such time the high school band will be directed by Jerry Phillips, a senior student at Eastern New Mexico University. The junior high band will also be directed by a student from Eastern (until Nov. 1-name not available); however the fifth grade band will not begin work until arrival of the new director.

FARWELL CHEERLEADERS -- Farwell cheerleaders recently won awards at the Texas Tech cheerleading school in Lubbock. In competition with 18 other schools, including El Paso and three from Lubbock, they won three first places and two second places on their ability at leading yells. Cheerleaders are: Debbie Chandler, Cindy Phillips, Leslie Cooper, Sue Lawson, Linda Meeks, and standing, Connie Phillips.

IN THE GAME -- The Steers showed a fine spirit and put forth maximum effort in the pre-season scrimmage with Portales Rams on Friday night. According to the coach, "They looked good--both the young and the experienced players."

Steers Look Good In Scrimmage

Coach Toby Booth, in commenting on the Steer-Portales Ram football scrimmage held on Friday night, said "We are well pleased with the fine game played by the Steers; they were able to move the ball and the defense was good." He went on to say that the entire squad displayed a maximum effort against the Rams.

Coach Booth continued "we are looking forward to the first game of the season set for Sept. 8 with Friona at Friona."

Many of the Steer squad are young with only 11 returning lettermen from last year's squad. Returning to the squad are Lewey Bradshaw, quarterback; Bobby Chadwick, wingback; James Haseloff, tackle; Gerald Hanna, tackle; Ricky Stewart, end; Kyle Sheets, end; Al Phillips, half back; Randy Johnson, end; Charles Bowery, center; Randy Crooks, center; and Denny Lunsford, guard.

Migrant --

Discuss Labor Housing Project

At the Tuesday meeting of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, housing for migrant laborers was discussed at length; however no action was taken on the discussion and the project was tabled for future reference.

Plans for the 1968 Community Celebration were discussed and a committee was appointed to work with the Roswell Arena Association on the celebration, to be held in conjunction with the AJRA Rodeo next summer.

Heading the committee is Mrs. Mark Liehen. Working with Mrs. Liehen will be Mr. and Mrs. John Getz, Mrs. W.D. Prince and Mrs. R.W. Anderson.

Handbook Information

Student handbooks for Farwell High School have arrived and will be presented to each student in high school on the first day of school. Each student is held responsible for the information in the handbook.

The handbook is filled with information which should be helpful to the student, by answering some of their questions, and helping understand the operation of the school.

In the preface of the book is a message from the high school principal, Amos Tatum, in which he states that each student should strive to make the school a better place to live and work. "Remember the record you are making here will follow you the rest of your life," says Tatum, adding that not all of the lessons learned are from text books, but the development of character, forming habits, and acquiring knowledge is also a part of the school life.

Holidays listed by the school are Thanksgiving, Nov. 23-24; Christmas, Dec. 22-Jan. 2; Teachers meeting, March 8, and Easter, April 11-16. School is scheduled to end on May 24, 1968. The Texas Education agency requires that 175 days be spent in school. All days missed for any reason must be made up.

Students planning to participate in sports are reminded that they must be passing in at least three solid subjects the week prior to the contest. Any person with continuous failing grades (two weeks) will be dropped from the sport until his grades are brought up to passing.

Also included in the handbook are rules governing tardies and absences, automobile and scooters at school, smoking, truancy, student insurance, senior trips, pep rallies, student hours, dropping courses, graduation requirements, grading, tests, married students and discipline.

All students are invited to read the book and keep it handy for future reference.

4-H Bake Show Winner

Jan Jameson, 4-H member of the Friona 4-H Club, won the County Baking Contest held last week in the Community Room of First State Bank of Bovina. Jan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jameson of Friona.

Miss Jameson won first place with her yeast rolls and pound cake. She will exhibit in the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, September 16. She will compete with 20 other 4-H entries from District 1.

Karen Mimms of the Lazbuddie 4-H Club was alternate in the contest.

Winning red ribbons were Susan Mimms of Lazbuddie and Deborah Harding of Farwell.

ASCS Office Manager Receives Two Awards

Prentice L. Mills, manager of the local ASCS office for the past 11 years, was recipient of two awards at the recent ASCS Association convention held in College Station, Tex.

Each of the awards is presented annually by the ASCS County Office Employees Assn. in each state and area to the individual office manager whom they (members of the association) deem worthy. This is the first year in which both awards have been won by an office manager from Texas.

Mills was presented with the first award for distinguished service to agriculture in the State of Texas and the second for outstanding service to agriculture in the South Central ASCS area. The latter area is comprised of the states of Louisiana, Alabama, Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma.

Help Needed

Mrs. E.G. Williams, historian of Farwell Study Club, is asking the assistance of anyone who might have old newspapers or other information telling of the early days of the club (originally the Texico-Farwell Woman's Club).

She says according to the information she has been able to find, the club has been in existence some 30 years, and information of the earliest years of the club's existence is what is desperately needed.

If you can help, call Mrs. Williams at 825-2454.

ADMIRE AWARDS -- Prentice Mills, center, Farmer County ASCS office manager, receives congratulations from Joe Jones, vice-president of Security State Bank, on the two awards he received at the meeting of ASCS Association August 26 in College Station. Admiring the awards along with Mills and Jones is Herman Chandler, employee in the Farmer County ASCS Office and a close friend of the manager.

More Expected -- Enroll 379 Students

On Monday, the first day of school, some 379 students were registered at Texico school. One hundred sixty-five of the students are in the high school division and 214 in the elementary division.

High School Principal Jim Pierce indicated that the 165 is above the total enrollment for the high school last year. He also said several other students are expected to enroll late.

Superintendent A.D. McDonald warns all parents who have not enrolled their children that they must do so at once or face the consequences since the state law requires that all children who will be six years of age before Jan. 1, 1968, and not have had their 17th birthday must be in school (if they have not already graduated).

LIFEGUARD AND BATHING BEAUTIES -- Steven (Butch) Ford, lifeguard at the Country Club swimming pool, smiles happily as he is surrounded by bathing beauties, Teresa Quickel and Diane Lovelace, on one of the first days the pool was open for use by club members.

Entered as second class matter at Farwell, Texas, 79325, under the act of March 3rd, 1879. Published every Thursday.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES -- Farmer and adjoining counties, $4.00 per year; elsewhere, $5.00 per year Payable in advance.

Deal With China Now

Is war with Red China inevitable? The answer to this one question must of necessity be the determining factor in our policy toward China today.

I suggest, however, that the answer to this question is totally immaterial because it assumes that Red China can be pacified, a feat which I believe is totally improbable, if not absolutely impossible.

A few weeks ago, CBS television presented a news documentary on modern day Red China. After watching this, I have become more convinced than ever that war with Red China is unavoidable, and that the only question left to be answered is when will it take place.

The reason for the above conclusion is obvious. Red China is a country which has been totally captured, in the ultimate sense of the word, by one man, Mao Tse Tung.

Never before in the history of the world has one man so completely dominated the thought of a nation. No niche of the countryside is free from reminders of the ultimate wisdom of Chairman Mao.

The really frightening thing, however, is the children. Boys and girls, nine and ten years old, do not run and play like they do in America.

Right now, the United States has the capability to render China helpless without an American soldier having to set foot on Chinese soil. An invasion by Nationalist China supported by United States air strikes, and nuclear power, if necessary, could bring Red China to her knees within a week.

Time has changed us all a lot, and I can't be sure of the identity, although she thought when she first saw the picture it was her late step-father.

Most Identified

Mrs. Charlie Lunsford called to say that the man third from left, next to Z. W. Petree, is her late husband, Charlie Lunsford.

Mrs. R. S. Hines has identified the small man, center front with arms crossed, as John Woods who at one time trucked with her late husband, R. S. Hines.

The man on the far right has been tentatively identified as Doc Lovelace (no relation to the sheriff) by Mrs. Euel Smith whose husband is also pictured.

At this time a step-daughter of the late Doc Lovelace has a Tribune enroute to her mother to try to make positive identification of the man. She says,

"Time has changed us all a lot, and I can't be sure of the identity," although she thought when she first saw the picture it was her late step-father.

Other persons identified as being in the picture are Mr. Neighbors, father of Mrs. Lokey; Z. W. Petree, Karl Gast, Buster Gast, Val Baumgart, A. F. Hamm, and Euel Smith.

If anyone has any old pictures which might be of interest to the readers, bring them by the Tribune office and we will be happy to run them as time and space permits.

Association Holds Hamburger Fry

Farwell Arena Association held a hamburger fry at the arena in East Farwell Saturday night at which members of the association were hosts to their families.

Hamburgers, punch, tea and home made ice cream was served to some 75 persons. Following the meal, the men participated in practicing team roping and a husband and wife ribbon roping was held.

On Leave Before Going Overseas

SP4 and Mrs. Lester L. Harrelson and son, Kyle, who have been making their home at Fort Bragg, N.C., where Harrelson was stationed with the Armed Forces, arrived Sunday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harrelson.

Leader-News' Woman's Editor Experienced Newspaperwoman

Editor's Note

Miss Lovvorn, a 1952 graduate of Farwell High School, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lovvorn, formerly of Farwell, now of Miles, Tex. She is also a sister of Mrs. Bob Dollar, Texico, and M. D. Lovvorn of Farwell.

New woman's editor for The Leader-News, Miss Joella Lovvorn, is an experienced newspaperwoman who can do every process required to produce a newspaper edition--from going out and getting the story to preparing the paper for mailing or delivery to the customer.

And this includes the photography department. Joella can take the picture, develop the film and size and print the finished photo.

She is experienced with the teletype machines, proofreading, layout and mechanical operations. In offset printing, such as The Leader-News uses and to which more and more newspapers are converting, she is experienced both in "pasteups" and in the final processing.

Joella comes to The Leader-News from the Plainview Daily Herald where she worked as teletype operator and proof reader the past two years and, during previous employment there, was darkroom technician, church news editor and proof reader.

During her first term of employment with The Herald, she was transferred to the Muleshoe and Bailey County Journals where she was "just about the entire offset printing department." But that wasn't her only duty. She also was darkroom technician, photographer and reporter and operated a linotype machine.

After two years, she left W. Bradshaw, Lazbuddie, has completed basic training at Fort Bliss with the pay grade of E-2. While in basic training he was trained in handling small arms where he qualified as sharpshooter. He is in Air Defense school at Fort Bliss and is now serving his company as Colonel's Orderly-Pvt. Bradshaw graduated from Lazbuddie High School in 1965 and attended West Texas State University at Canyon.

Muleshoe and moved to Phoenix, Ariz., April 1, 1964, where she was assistant editor of the Baptist Beacon, the publication of the Arizona Southern Baptist Convention, serving one year and three months.

Time spent in Phoenix was one of the most interesting phases of her life. Working with a small church on the Gila River Indian Reservation -- as the only white member of the Indian Church called Blackwater Baptist Church in the village of Blackwater -- she would drive 52 miles from Phoenix each Sunday to participate in the services.

The Indian members, part of the Pima tribe, were in destitute financial circumstances and Joella's title meant much to the church. It paid a large part of the pastor's salary and eventually paid off a large stack of church bills.

The pastor was Edison Porter, himself an Indian, who attended Wayland College where Joella first became friends with him and his wife.

Joella said the reason the village is called Blackwater is because it primarily is inhabited by a family of that name.

Also while in Phoenix, she was invited to help organize a mission church in Paradise Valley, a northern suburb of the city. A handful of people began meeting in a store building there and organized the new church which Joella served as church clerk. A new building was completed and occupied one year and two months later. The church now is West Phoenix Baptist Church.

As a teenager, Joella had volunteered for mission work, preferably home missions with Indians. After her experiences in Phoenix, she decided to ask for a regular assignment but was told by the State Missions Board she would have to complete her degree. She lacked five hours.

This prompted her to return to Plainview and re-enter Wayland as well as returning to The Herald. Currently she lacks only one hour earning her degree in biology, with minors in English and art.

Joella has many other interests and hobbies, including oil painting and other art media, photography and mechanics.

Believe it or not, she can do most minor repairs to everything from cars to cameras.

She was born at Pep, received most of her schooling at Muleshoe but was graduated from Farwell High School.

Of interest to The Leader-News' farm families may be the fact that Joella grew up in farming and began driving a tractor at the age of five. She has planted, cultivated, listed, one-wayed and irrigated farm land.

Joella has been associated with The Leader-News the past two weeks and is establishing her residence here this weekend.

Back To School Party In Cooper Home

Nedda Foster and Leslie Cooper were hostesses for a "back to school" party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cooper Friday night following the football scrimmage.

Hamburgers, chips, dips, birthday cake, ice cream and soft drinks were served. Both girls had celebrated birthdays the previous day.

Several girls remained overnight for a slumber party following the departure of the male guests. Some 45 persons were in attendance.

Girls spending the night were Connie Phillips, Jeannie Williams, Deb Hargrove, Donna Kirk, Sharon Ensor, Kandy Meeks, Linda Meeks, Debbie Chandler, Carolyn Langford, Jackie Megill, and Harmony Bulls.

Agricultural Commodity Display

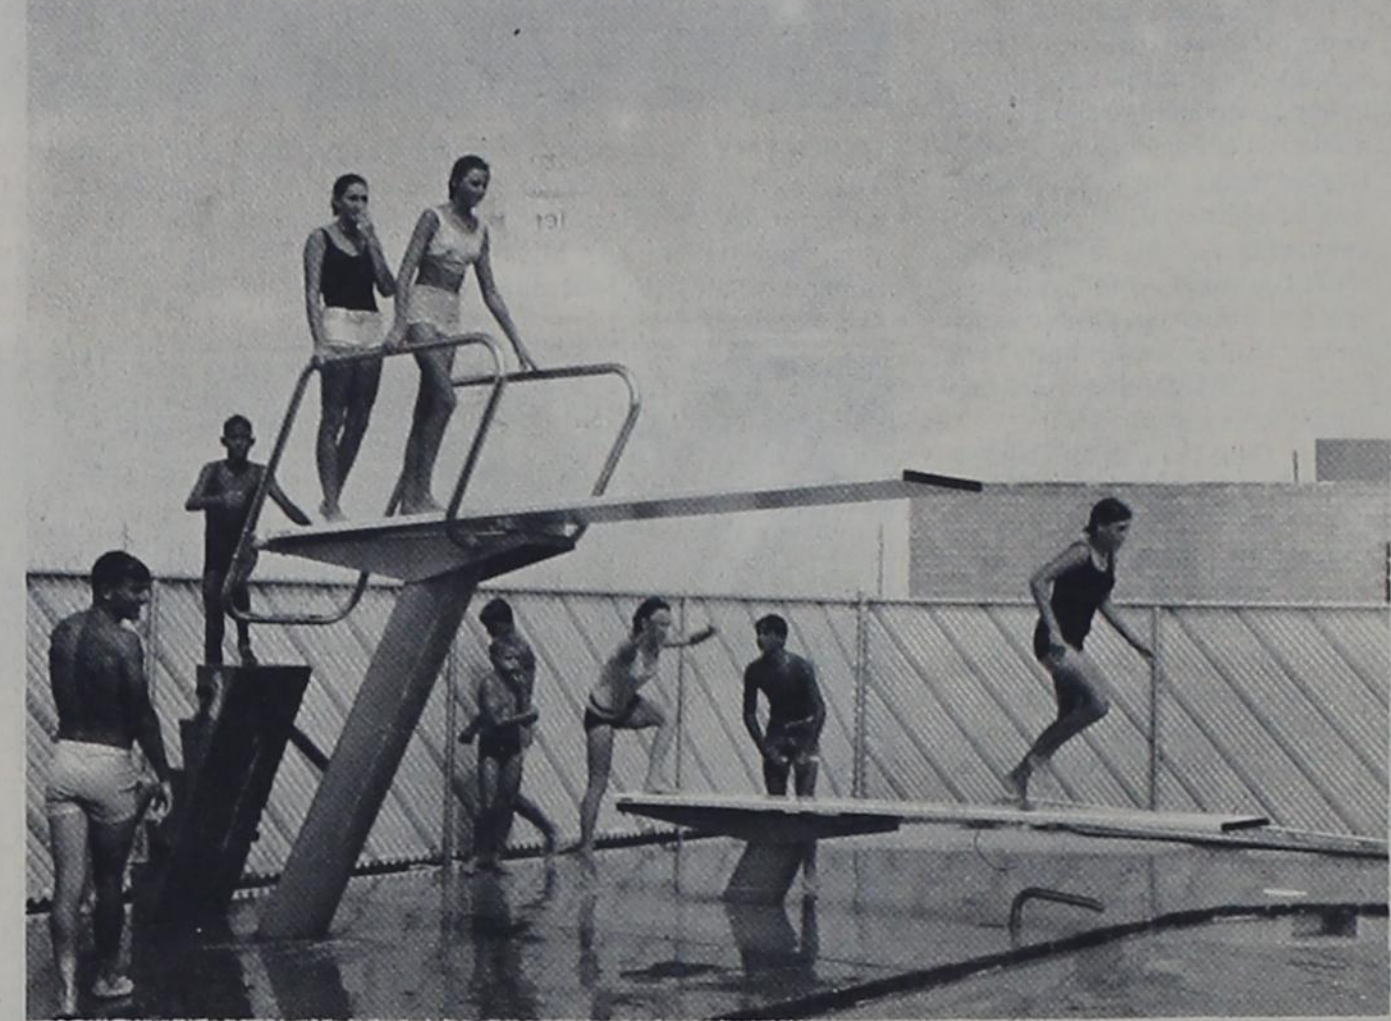

Agricultural commodity displays will be a new feature of the Field Day at Halfway. The wheat and small grain exhibit, including products of, and literature about, these crops will be a new display at the High Plains Research Foundation's Eleventh Annual Field Day on Thursday, September 14. This exhibit will be under the direction of Leo Witkowski, Hereford, who is Chairman of the Wheat and Small Grain Committee of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation. He will be assisted by members of his committee who will take turns during the afternoon as hosts at the exhibit. Literature on wheat, oats, and barley production and products will be available at the display.

The castorbean committee headed by Don Marble, South Plains, will display plants, products and distribute literature on this crop. He, too, will be assisted by his committee who will be on duty as hosts.

Visits In Mississippi

Ronnie Autrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Autrey, has recently returned from Gulfport, Miss., after a three week visit in the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Sherron and James Hampton.

Hampton is stationed with the Navy at Gulfport and Mrs. Hampton received her discharge from the Naval Waves some three months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Autrey visited in the Hampton home earlier this summer.

Youngsters and adults were enjoying the swimming pool at the Farwell Country Club over the weekend as guest days were held. Almost as popular as the pool were the diving boards. Background for the pool is a white lattice work fence with markings of brilliant turquoise blue.

Red Sez

The foreman was angry and demanded, "Why is it that you carry only one plank while all the other men carry two?" "I guess," said Red, "they're just too lazy to make two trips like me."

The 4-H'ers in the Bull Town Days Parade last week did themselves proud. They looked fine on their horses with their green vests and white and green emblem. The horse project has been a popular project for many boys and girls. Laura Doshier, Farwell 4-H Club, the smallest in size has not been "small" in accomplishments -- she came out third place in Halter Class in the State Contest -- that's no small accomplishment either.

4-H Leaders Dinner Meeting -- Saturday, September 9, at 8:30 p.m., at Hub Community Center. Leaders and Agents will discuss 4-H plans for 1968, and eat fried chicken, salad and melons.

This week, two 4-H'ers worked on Home Improvement projects. Jan Jameson refinished a small article of furnishing, and Ute Blalock started work on bedroom improvement.

Contest Winning Is Not Everything -- Just winning a contest is certainly not the most important factor in 4-H club work. Contest events do offer opportunity and incentive for youth to excel, but members learn to do by doing and enjoy using acquired knowledge and skills for personal satisfaction.

Deborah Harding, an enthusiastic 11-year-old 4-H'er of Farwell 4-H Club that has three years of club work behind her, uses her skills learned in projects by making dresses for school. Since the County Dress Revue, Deborah has made three school dresses of which she is truly proud to wear. She was not a blue ribbon winner in the County Revue, but that did not mean she was not good. Think what this means, not only in the savings in cost of dresses, but in personal satisfaction. She is a winner anyway one looks at her 4-H accomplishments. Deborah has won her share of blue ribbons and county contests too.

FASHION NOTE
Belts Back -- That's the big news in fashion. Fall will see belts on dresses again, worn for any or all occasions. Women can again show their waists, circled by one to three-inch creations. I'm not so sure that women are anxious to reveal their waists -- some are much too thick after a summer of over indulgence of home-made ice creams and other delectable eats. Anyway, grained, wavy or split cowhide styles accessorize a casual costume; while jeweled interpretations are for dress-up. Or for a different idea, some belts will feature a watch that runs or a mini-purse clipped on.

New Pink Grapefruit Drink -- There's a new punch drink on the way from USDA to you. It's a grapefruit drink designed to meet everyone's taste. It's sweet to suit youngsters, yet has a moderate to high acidity; to suit sophisticated palate of adults. It's pink because people like pink drinks. The new frozen concentrate, combines grapefruit juice, strawberry puree, lemon concentrate and sugar. This is loaded with nutrition - vitamin C - that is Don't serve empty calories to your children - artificial bottled beverages are popular, but very short on nutrients.

ENROLLMENT -- Mrs. Frances Scott, first grade teacher in Texico, listens intently as Mike Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval K. Scott and no relation to the teacher, explains that his mother went that way to pay his meal ticket and will be back in a few minutes to finish the enrollment procedure (take care of insurance and workbook fees).

OLD HAND AT THE JOB -- Stepping into this classroom of Texico first grade students, taught by Mrs. Hazel Stewart, on Monday morning, one would never have guessed that this was the first day of school for this group of children. They were hard at work within minutes after the bell had sounded.

Texas Farm and Ranches Increase In Size And Value

Texas farms and ranches continue to grow in size, value, and products sold, according to Tom E. Prater, Extension farm management specialist at Texas A&M University. Farm and ranch value (buildings and land) reached $79,625 per farm or ranch in 1964 as compared to $51,707 per unit in 1959. The value of buildings and land has increased from $82,11 per acre in 1959 to $114,20 per acre in 1964. Prater said the 1964 U.S. Census showed investment per farm or ranch in buildings and land alone exceeded $100,000 in 117 Texas counties. An investment of $200,000 was exceeded by 46 counties, and 14 counties exceeded an investment of $300,000 per farm or ranch for land and buildings. The average size of the Texas farm or ranch increased 60 acres from 630.7 in 1959 to 690.9 in 1964. Farm products sold in 1959 amounted to $2,108,880,646 as compared to $2,227,339,392 in 1964. The average per farm or ranch for 1959 was $9,306 and in 1964, $10,859. Hale County sold $61,815,031 in farm and ranch products in 1964 to lead the state in total value of products sold.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Williams, Galveston, arrived for a visit in the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. (Bill) Prince and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams, Saturday. They will return home Friday.

Bill Prince and son, Danny, spent the weekend in Ruidoso. They did a "bit" of golfing while in the resort town. They returned home on Sunday.

Harvey Winkles, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Winkles, before leaving for an overseas assignment in Guam, left on Sunday morning. He expects to be in Guam for approximately 14 months.

Mrs. Mozell Martin, Roswell, visited briefly in Texico-Farwell with Mrs. Chris Moss on Tuesday. She was enroute to Oklahoma where she will serve as school nurse and head resident in a boys dormitory at Connor Junior College, at Warner, Okla.

Marriage Licenses Issued

Three permits to wed have been issued from the office of the Parmer County clerk within the past week. They went to Larry Travis Stowers and Janice Gail Boothe, Aug. 22; Gary Hunter Mims and Julia Jan Dennis, Aug. 25; and David Lee Carson and Carolyn Herring Aug. 26.

knits, and raincoats are a few of the recent fashions which have been exuberantly adopted by American women at all economic levels. Fashion is no longer the exclusive province of the rich, as American ready-to-wear takes over styles leadership.

SUMMER PROJECT -- Susie Hammonds paints a house number on the walk at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whitesides while Mrs. Phyllis Herington gives instructions on the proper way to apply the paint. This is a part of a summer fund raising project for the two members of Theta Rho Chapter of ESA.

Meals, Not Mealtime Affect Weight

Eating six meals a day and still maintaining weight may be an idea difficult for some weight watchers to "digest," but research reports indicate the amount and kind of food consumed, not how many meals per day is the deciding factor. Frances Reasonover, Extension foods and nutrition specialist, Texas A&M University, said that Agricultural Research Service nutritionists have found that as long as weight-watchers control the amount and kind of food they eat, it doesn't matter whether they eat two light meals and a heavy one, three meals of equal size or even six meals a day spaced through the waking hours. The 20-day experiments included 15 coed volunteers, in groups of five, eating meals in three routines. Mealtimes for two groups came at 7:15 a.m., 12:15 p.m. and 5:15 p.m., with one-fourth of the diet served at breakfast, one fourth at lunch and the remainder at dinner for the first group and equal portions at each meal for the second group. The third group was given six equal but smaller meals at 7:15 and 9:45 a.m. and 12:15, 2:45, 5:15 and 7:45. The total daily food intake was the same for all routines. Meals consisted of muffins baked from a special-batter containing nutrients in specific proportions.

On The Farm In Parmer County

By RONNY McNUTT

FARM LABOR ACT
Many farmers have or will become "encountered" with the Fair Labor Standards Act concerning hired farm workers and minimum wages. Every farmer that employs farm workers should become as familiar as possible with all the rules and regulations governing the Act.

Three pamphlets entitled "Hired Farm Workers Under the Fair Labor Standards Act", "How to Keep Time and Pay Records" and "Child-Labor Provisions" are available from the County Agent's office in Farwell. These pamphlets have some good information on farm labor and minimum wages.

Also forms for keeping daily and monthly field labor records are available from the County Agent's office.

If you need any of this information drop by the office and pick it up.

SOIL TEST
Farmers should not neglect preparations for fall seeded crops and this includes soil tests. If you intend to fertilize your wheat this coming season you still have time to soil test and get the recommendations back in a minimum of time. Soil test information sheets and boxes are available at this office.

FIELD DAYS TO ATTEND
North Plains Research Field will hold its Field Day at Ester beginning at 1 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 8.

Seven scientists associated with studies at the field will discuss the work being carried on with grain sorghum, soybean, castor, and vegetables. The production of the area's major cash crops and the use of herbicides will be highlighted at the Annual Field Day at the South Plains Research and Extension Center to be held Tuesday, September 12, from 1 to 5 p.m.

Make plans now to attend one of these field days.
MIDGE INCREASES
Lyndon Almand, area Entomologist from Lubbock, was in the county this week checking the midge infestation.

We found plenty of midge in every field observed. All grain sorghum which was blooming or will bloom will likely suffer some degree of damage. As soon as the blooming period is complete for a plant, midge damage is over.

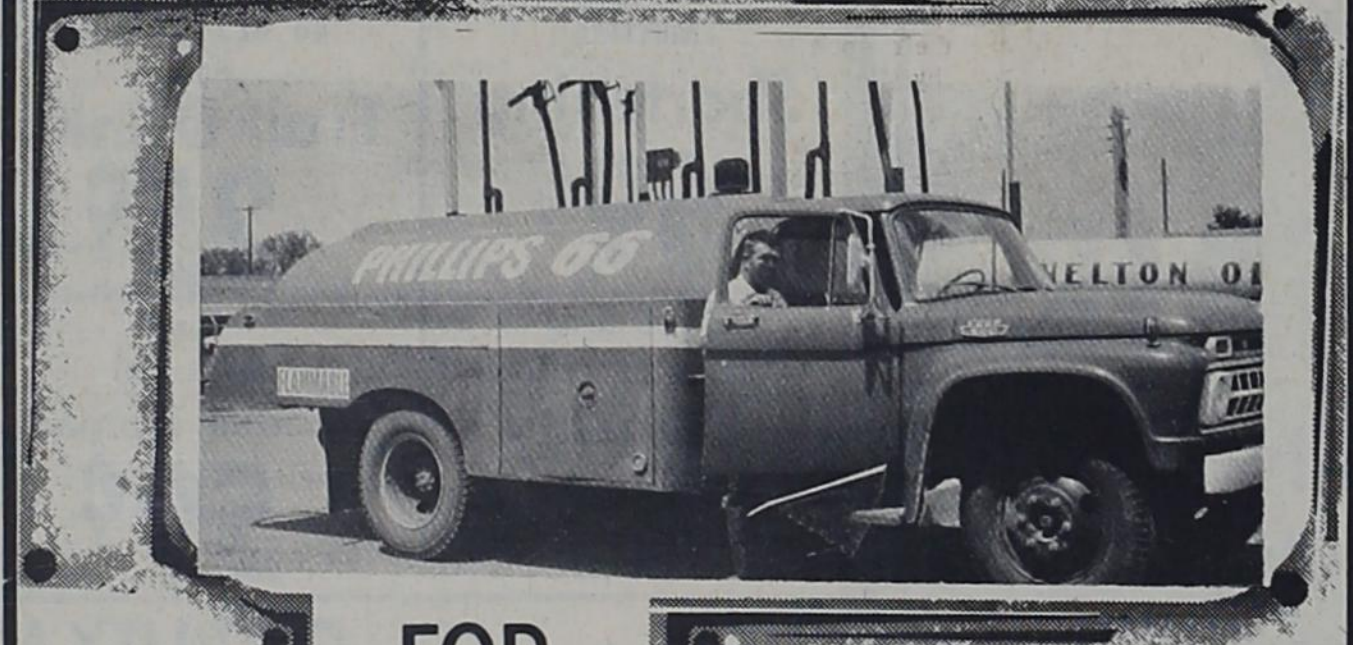

Mrs. E. R. Coffman has been hospitalized for the past week with an asthmatic attack. She was under oxygen for several days but is responding to treatment and hopes to be able to return home later this week.

Fashion Snobbery Put In Place

In the world of fashion where snobbery has long held court, democracy is quietly, and effectively, gaining control.

According to Miss Rheba Boyles, Extension clothing specialist at Texas A&M University fashion in its best sense is no longer limited to French rooms, with watered-down imitations trickling down to the lower-priced levels. Fashion is happening at every level, with the greatest strides being made in the middle brackets. Since the birth of the American ready-to-wear industry, the traditional source of design has been in Paris. Recently, however, the tide has been turning, as the Paris couture keeps a discerning eye on what is happening here. This has encouraged American designers to develop their own point of view. In dresses that sell for $25 to $50, incoats and suits for $100 and under, the feeling of originality and experimentation frequently over-shadows the work by designers who sell suits for no less than $500. Callalya Roberts, Wayne Hudnall United In Candlelight Ceremony

Callalya Ann Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Roberts, Texico, became the bride of Wayne Harvey Hudnall, son of Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Hudnall, also of Texico, in an impressive candlelight ceremony read by the father of the groom Friday night at the Texico First Baptist Church.

The double ring service was read in front of a setting of three 15-branch arch candelabra holding azalea pink tapers, bouquets of white gladioli and mums accented by azalea pink ribbon bows on white fluted pedestals, backed by sunburst plaques of greenery. Palms of emerald greenery were interspersed throughout the entire arrangement. Focal point of the altar decorations was a kneeling bench entwined with greenery. The couple stood on a white crushed plush throw to exchange vows.

Candles were lighted by Margaret and Kelly Fain, twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Fain, Littlefield, cousins of the bride. They were attired in soft green dresses of crepe overlaid with chiffon in matching hue. Their shoes were white and they complemented their ensembles with white corsages.

Kathy White, organist, played appropriate nuptial selections preceding the ceremony, "The Wedding March" as processional and recessional, and also accompanied Clyde Powell, soloist, when he sang "O Perfect Love," "When He Gave Me You," and "Wedding Prayer".

Gary Benton, fraternity brother of the groom from Tulsa, Okla., served as best man. Ushers were Johnny Warrick and Robert Harmon, brothers-in-law of the groom, Portales; and Sam Fain, cousin of the bride, Littlefield. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Pam Roberts, Texico.

The maid of honor was attired in a floor length empire waist dress of dusty rose peau de soie with a bodice of lighter pink lace featuring caplet sleeves and scalloped sabrina neckline. Front of the empire bodice was enhanced by appliques of lace. Her head piece was a short veil of pale pink tulle held by a bow of dusty pink satin. She carried a cascade of pink carnations and white roses.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length wedding gown of satin and lace. The gently flowing high rise empire caplet stem designed with a bateau neckline featured alencon lace on the cape and bodice front. The detachable wateau train was attached at the waistline. Her shoulder length veil of white silk illusion fell from a sunburst headpiece of lace accented by seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, Vernona pink roses and stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Following tradition, the bride wore for something old a lavender worn by her maternal grandmother and her mother at their weddings; new was her bridal ensemble; borrowed was a pair of white gloves from her mother; and blue was a garter made by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Sam Randol. Mrs. Roberts wore a two-piece suit of mint green linen with navy accessories. A white rose corsage complemented her attire.

Mrs. Hudnall chose a beige sculptured brocade dress with deep purple accessories. Her corsage was also of white roses. Janell Hudnall, sister of the groom, registered guests at the wedding and reception. Centering the registration table was an arrangement of white daisies, pink roses and minute white clusters of mums accented with greenery in a silver bowl, a gift from a close friend, Mrs. Harold Holland.

A reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snodgrass immediately following the ceremony. In the receiving line with the bride and groom were their parents, Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Hudnall, and Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Roberts, Pam Roberts and Gary Benton.

Serving table was laid with white lace over azalea pink and centered by an epergne candelabrum holding azalea pink candles, white pixie carnations and verona roses. The four-tiered wedding cake, topped by white satin bells and decorated with pink roses was served by Mrs. Jimmy Vernon and Linda Campbell, close friends of the bride and former classmates of the bride and groom. Floating hostesses were Mrs. J. R. Fain, Margaret and Kelly Fain.
