Letter To The Editor

Mr. John Getz, Publisher, STATE LINE TRIBUNE, Farwell, Texas 79325

Dear John: I wish I'd seen your "Purely Personal" column of April 12 before we'd visited at the Panhandle Press meeting.

I think Hearing Examiner James H. Cowden was very fair to Lubbockites and citizens from the surrounding area who came to protest the railroad's proposal to discontinue that unprofitable passenger service.

That afternoon several ladies from Slaton came to the hearing room; two or three of them were going to testify.

So you see, John, while the public witnesses had no attorney to represent them at the hearing, their interests were well protected.

Now, regarding your conjecture that the hearing examiner, the railroad and labor union personnel all drew their salaries during the hearing, I can't speak for the others but I received a much-welcomed paycheck about April 16 which included the day at Lubbock.

Sincerely, George T. Grader

Mr. Mike Getz, State Line Tribune, Farwell, Texas

Dear Mike, Now that the smoke has cleared in many of our larger cities, I'm glad that someone said (in print) what needed to be said about the national debacle that followed the assassination of Martin Luther King.

One good thing did come out of this national disgrace, Mr. Bobby Kennedy proved that his political integrity is a lot thinner than his hair.

Mr. Kennedy has been labeled a political opportunist and this would seem to bear it out.

Sincerely, Carthon Phillips

Dear Chris, How is the gang at the Tribune office? We sure enjoy the Tribune then pass it on to Shirley, Koleta and Kenneth.

County 4-H Contest, one of the big events of the year in 4-H work, is over. Last Saturday was a big day for 4-H'ers throughout the District when contests were held on the University Campus at Canyon, Parmer County took their share of honors with the big honor going to Jan Jameson of Friona. She will compete in the State Contest June 5 for national honors and we are really counting on her taking that honor, too. Saturday was a big day for parents and 4-H'ers and we were proud of all those who took part in the district contests.

Now that school will soon be out, 4-H interest turns to Clothing and Sewing projects. With new 4-H members, this calls for more adult help in leadership. Anyone interested in working with their 4-H members and other 4-H'ers in the group should contact the Extension office. We can always use leaders to help in these worthwhile projects for training youth.

Sewing machine training for adult 4-H leaders is on the agenda for the second week in May. Seven leaders will be given training on the "Use of the Sewing Machine." This training will be given to the 4-H members by the leaders prior to starting the Sewing project work. It's going to be a big busy summer for some, with 4-H and the HemisFair competing for time.

GOOD CITIZEN -- Gerald Gohlke, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Gohlke and a seventh grade student at Farwell Junior High School has been named "good citizen" for the week April 29-May 3. Gerald stresses the fact that being a good citizen is quite important in every day living. He was formerly a student at Littlefield, moving here with his parents at beginning of the last school semester.

CATTLE GRUBS

The common cattle grub is the larval stage of the heel fly. The non-feeding, sexually mature adult heel fly, about the color of a honey bee and nearly twice as large, emerges from a puparium in the soil during warm sunny days of late winter and early spring.

Common cattle grub adults most often approach a reposing animal and attach their eggs to hairs on the udder, legs, esutcheon, belly or side without noticeably disturbing the animal. It is not uncommon, however, to see animals fleeing wildly, standing in water up to their bellies or in dense shade to protect themselves from heel fly attack.

Eggs are attached in rows of two or three to as many as 25 or 30 along a single hair. Females usually produce 400 to 800 eggs with an average of 500 eggs per fly. The eggs hatch in 2.5 to 6 days and the larvae crawl down the hair and begin to penetrate the skin, usually at the base of the hair.

The first instar larva apparently spends about eight months migrating through connective tissues. The grub spends most of this time in the submucosa of the esophagus (gullet), but it has been found in connective tissues.

Upon reaching the back, the grub secretes an enzyme creating a hole in the skin through which the grub obtains oxygen. Natural mortality of grubs in the back is commonly 50 per cent or more and may be as high as 100 per cent in some animals.

After developing one or two months in the warble, the fully-grown grub squeezes through the breathing hole in the skin, drops to the ground and seeks shelter under ground trash, leaves or other debris.

Grubs normally appear in animals' backs from October to February, varying according to location in Texas.

Cattle are the only important hosts of the common cattle grub.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rolland of Amarillo were weekend visitors in the home of Rolland's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Rolland, and also visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Darby.

Horses are sometimes infested but there is no record of a grub completing its development in a horse.

Some authorities feel cattle grubs cost the livestock industry $100-300 million per year in the U.S., all factors considered. Loss of flesh and reduced milk production results as animals flee from flies and are unable to graze normally. The migration and parasitism of the grubs within the animal's body cause irritation and nutritional losses. Warbles in the back lower carcass values, and breathing holes in the skin reduce the hide's leather value.

For effective grub control, treat cattle with systemic insecticides-chemicals absorbed into the animal's body where they control grubs by contact action. Systemics are available as sprays, dips, backline pour-ons and feed additives or mineral mixtures. The choice of insecticide and treatment method depends on the type of operation. Administer treatments after heel fly activity and before grubs reach the animal's back. In most areas of the state, treat between May 1 and September 1. In all areas, better control is obtained by treating soon after May 1.

Severe systemic insecticides effectively control cattle grubs. Sprays that are recommended include (Co-Ral) Ruelene 25E; and (Neguvon). These materials also control horn flies and lice, and coumaphos controls ticks as well.

This may require up to one gallon of spray for grown animals and proportionately less for smaller animals.

Presently only coumaphos (Co-Ral) 25 per cent wettable powder is recommended as a grub control dip.

Hand treating individual animals with ready-to-use, pour-on formulations is a rapid, convenient method for gentle herds or when cattle can be held in a crowding pen or driven through a chute. Handling and exciting the animals is minimized. A few ounces of chemical applied to the backline give excellent grub control and also control horn flies by contact for one to three weeks. Little control of ticks and lice can be expected except by direct contact with the insecticide.

Recommended ready-mixed pour-ons are four per cent coumaphos (Co-Ral), 9.4 per cent Ruelene (Ruelene 8R) and eight per cent trichlorfon (Neguvon).

Materials containing ronnel can be fed to animals for systemic cattle grub control. Rid-Ezy and Steer-Kleer, containing 5.5 per cent ronnel in a mineral block or loose granules, are fed free-choice to range animals for a 75-day period.

Exercise caution when handling systemic insecticides to avoid injury to yourself and to cattle. Follow explicitly all label directions for mixing and applying and heed the recommended precautions. Observe strictly all slaughter intervals and other restrictions to avoid creating illegal residues in meat and milk.

Troop 179 Has Many Activities

In February, Troop 179 Texico-Farwell Boy Scouts visited the historic ruins of Old Guadalupe, N.M., where only two buildings are left standing. The old mission was built in 1880 and is kept in good repair with a custodian making the rounds each Saturday to see that everything is in order.

Services are held at the mission once each year, on Easter Sunday. Troop members told of their surprise at finding the mission so well preserved. They spent some time viewing the guest register, checking to see where visitors were from. They saw the names of visitors from New York, Ohio, Michigan and many other states.

Following the visit to the old mission, the Scouts moved to the Pecos River to set up camp. After the camp had been established, part of the Scouts went wading in the river and others climbed a peak taking about one and one-half hours for the climb. Later, Scouts worked on their various scouting requirements, some working on Tenderfoot requirements and others working on second class requirements, while others studied various scouting requirements.

Making the trip to the old Mission were Scoutmaster Ernest Foreman, Jr., Mrs. Foreman, Bob Winegart, M. H. Askew, Duane Foreman, Gery Payne, Jerry Askew, Domingo Rojas, Curtis Lindley and Alan Halle.

Later in the spring, the Scouts took a trip to Plant X, near Earth, Tex. At Plant X, the Scouts learned during a two and one-half hour tour how electricity is generated and distributed to area towns.

After the tour, Scouts set up camp in the sand hills near Plant X and then worked on some of their Scouting requirements. Several of the Scouts passed their Tenderfoot requirements while at the camp. Games were led by Scoutmaster Foreman, with the Scouts learning several new games.

During the night the wind got up, blowing at times as high as 45 miles per hour. However, the next morning the Scouts went on with their planned activities, cooking breakfast in the wind and blowing sand. As one Scout puts it, "We ate more sand than food." Following breakfast, a worship service was held. Later in the day a sand slide was built and Scouts spent much time playing on the sand hills. Scoutmaster Foreman said, "If you haven't camped in a sand storm, you should try it sometime."

Scouts and adults making the trip were Scoutmaster and Mrs. Foreman, Wesley Ingram, Harold Hall, Jerry Askew, Tim Ingram, Roland Goforth, Duane Foreman, Bobby Goforth, Curtis Lindley, Domingo Rojas, M. H. Askew, Alan Halle, and Ronnie Winegart.

Troop 179 was organized in January with five members and has shown a steady growth with 17 members at this time.

Limping Easy At HemisFair-Time

Aching feet can be a drag on HemisFair fun. Sunny days and sizzling sidewalks call for footwear that will keep you cool and dry, reminds Cricket B. Taylor, Farmer County Extension Agent.

Filmy non-porous canvas or plastic shoe materials can trap moisture and heat, multiplying foot discomfort, says the Extension agent.

Leather has a built-in "air-conditioning" system. Its million of tiny natural pores permit a continuous change of air inside the shoe, while simultaneously absorbing foot moisture. The breathing action keeps feet dry and helps prevent chafing and blistering.

For sightseeing, the current crop of leather pumps and sandals prove good. They're available in leather, from sporty brushed, waxy and antiqued leathers, to the dressier smooth, suede and real patent leather finishes.

Good walking shoes need not be dull.

Color at your feet for Summer '68 includes the pales, (grey, pink, banana cream, nude) and the brights (poster green, yellow, orange, azalea), reports Mrs. Taylor. Also stepping lively will be navy, dark brown, red and, of course, white.

Wear the right shoes and have fun at the HemisFair.

NURSERY NEWS

By Alvin Woodburn
Garden Center Nursery
Clovis, N.M.

In our column the last couple of weeks, we have discussed the mechanics of landscape. This week I would like to deal with the reasons for and benefits of landscape.

In the first place, one can hold a grudge or stay out of humor for very long at a time while he is working with soil and plants or just working in the yard? The therapy effect which comes from some place for rest, relaxation -- as well as a place of beauty -- helps immeasurably to drain away tension and perplexities of modern living. Often we feel a person can get closer to his Creator in the garden or yard, than in any other place.

There are many in Clovis (or any other town) who would not be with us today, had they not started yard work to help the body replenish what it needs to carry on its functions. One man who comes to us has told me that he was brought to Clovis some time ago to spend the rest of his days, which were not expected to be long. At that time he could not walk and was not expected to live much longer.

But his determination to set one more row of plants, and later the same determination to take care of the plants, has been very rewarding. The subject was brought out in a manner we would not often expect. A friend was chiding him about his expensive garden. He replied that this was a lot cheaper treatment, and he didn't consider it expensive at all.

Those who believed the promises of spring now have a real good start on this year's garden. We saw some English peas the other day that were blooming. Some just wouldn't believe that winter would last all year.

They went ahead and planted things such as spinach, radishes, and some other vegetables; and now they're enjoying them very much. Spring is so welcome, even if it's late, we are always ready to enjoy it.

ELECT Ben Barnes Lt. Governor
(Pol. Adv. - Paid for by The Committee to Elect Ben Barnes Lt. Gov., Ralph Wayne, Chrm.)

What Does It Take To Build A Church?

Perhaps you glance at the church on the corner once in a while and wonder what it would be like to visit during a service. What is it that draws those people to that particular building every week? What built that church?

The only possible answer is -- the love of God. Their love of God prompted them to sacrifice and give so that the sanctuary might be built. The love of God compels them to meet there with others who serve Him. Their love of God compels them to "go, and tell others".

We pray that you will be drawn to such a church this week and that you will align yourself with it. You can help build it into something even better.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Animal Clinic Successful

Mrs. Clara Lee Wiehl, Texico town clerk, reports that the animal clinic which was held at the Texico town hall last Wednesday was the most successful in recent years. Some 52 animals were inoculated against rabies and given other necessary shots.

She indicates that another animal clinic will be held in the near future, to assist area pet lovers in getting the necessary inoculations for their animals.

Both Texico and Farwell have ordinances against dogs or other pets running loose in the town. Animal owners should keep their pets in their own backyard, and should a pet be found running loose, it will be impounded without further warning to the owner.

All pets should also have a town license tag, if kept inside the town limits of either Texico or Farwell.

The leg was broken in the fall; however after the leg was set and the infant kept in the hospital overnight for observation she was described as in satisfactory condition and released to return home on Tuesday morning.

Grandmother of the injured infant is Mrs. Clara Wiehl, Texico town clerk.

Final two games for the Steer baseball team will be played this week. District standing at this time is 2-0. Final two games are with Bovina and Silverton (district games).

Last week Farwell took a win from Silverton 11-1 with Dean Stovall, pitcher, credited with the win. Greg Meeks hit three for three in the game. Earlier in the week, the Steer squad was defeated by the Clovis Wildcat team 20-6. Greg Hargrove was losing pitcher.

Greg Hargrove is leading batter with a .440 average for the season.

Little League Association Organizes

Persons interested in forming a Little League Association met Tuesday night, and officers for the Association were elected. Heading the Association this year will be James Craig as president. Other officers elected were vice-president, Chic Conway, secretary, Mrs. William Brigham, and player agent, Billy Meeks.

The group voted to become affiliated with the National Little League Association and selected the name Lions League of Texico-Farwell for the association.

A meeting will be held in the next few days to select a Board of Directors for the Association, according to James Craig.

Thou hast put more joy in my heart. -- (Psalms 4:7.)

Joy is something that is a part of us. It is not something that we put on but, rather, that we release. When we feel the least joyful, we need most to let go and let the joyful Spirit in us well up, bubble up, in us. We do not have to put on a joyful spirit, we do not create it -- it is there within us, a well-spring of joy. There is a joyous spirit in us, a spirit that sings its song of joy in spite of external happenings, that cannot be quenched even when the going seems difficult.

CONNALLY AT HEMISFAIR'68

HemisFair's biggest booster took the word on the April 6-Oct. 6 World's Fair to New York City last week, and 300 top travel industry executives responded at a luncheon of the American Society of Travel Writers.

Governor John Connally, commissioner general of the international exposition, combined the newly unveiled Texas travel trails with HemisFair, showing there is more to the Lone Star state than the six-guns and sagebrush portrayed by television westerns.

Connally used a series of slides to outline the off-the-beaten-path scenic routes which offer visitors to Texas everything from the beauty of Palo Duro Canyon to deep sea fishing on the coast.

The governor used color slides of the various areas to invite the writers not only to visit HemisFair but to take time out for a side trip and enjoy the scenic natural and historic wonders around the state.

The lake at HemisFair'68 will have canoe tilting, tree topping, and water ski shows for the millions of visitors to the six-month World's Fair.

HemisFair'68 advance tickets and bonus books are on sale in 37 states and 11 foreign countries.

The famous folk art toys of Alexander Girard will be displayed at HemisFair'68 in San Antonio.

LONDON BRIDGE IS FALLING DOWN was a popular game played by children who accompanied their parents to the pre-school registration on Friday. Some 40 children were enrolled for first grade in Farwell school next year at the pre-school registration day activities. Games were directed by girls from the home making department.

Enroll Now For Headstart

Jack Williams, elementary school principal in Farwell, is asking that parents of children who are eligible to attend the headstart program at the school this summer, contact him at the elementary school office as soon as possible, in order that final plans can be made for the summer program.

The program will begin on June 3 and continue for eight weeks.

Williams also announces that the elementary school will hold an all-school program on May 28, closing day of school, with the hour of the program to be announced at a later date.

At the pre-school registration held on Friday, some 40 children were enrolled for the coming school year.

A commemorative stamp promoting Central America's participation in HemisFair will be available at the five-country pavilion.

The entire cast of the Grand Ole Opry will perform three shows daily from April 30-May 13 at HemisFair '68 in San Antonio.

For Jobs --

Packing Plant Interviews Set

Texas Employment Commission in Friona began interviewing applicants for jobs at Missouri Beef Packers Monday morning, and will continue until May 6, according to Fred Jackson, office manager.

A total of 220 men will be hired at the new packing plant, and several women for office work, although the number is undecided.

The greatest need is for large-sized men to be employed in the packing and shipping departments, Jackson said.

Production at Missouri Beef Packers will begin May 6.

Jackson said people have come to his office from all over this area, as well as from East Texas and other states, Missouri, Arkansas and New Mexico.

In relation to the work of Texas Employment Commission, Jackson pointed out that the office makes no charge of any kind for placing workers in jobs, since it is a state supported service.

He also says that the response has been very good in Parmer County and that many have been placed in a variety of positions since the office opened recently.

GERANIUMS FOR COLOR IN HOME LANDSCAPING -- Geraniums are excellent plants for mass effects in the landscape. They may be planted any time after the night temperature remains above 50 degrees F., says E. E. Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist. They should do well in any well-drained soil with several inches of coarse peat moss and 2 to 3 pounds of a balanced fertilizer per 100 square feet should be worked into the moss and soil to a depth of 6 inches. He suggests trying some of the new All-America selections now available at garden centers and nurseries.

FARMERS ADVISED TO KEEP TAB ON THE CONSUMER'S FOOD CHOICES -- Votes are cast every day in America's food stores, Farmers, says W. E. Black, Extension marketing economist, should become more interested in how these votes go. Consumers have the power to accept or reject a commodity or service, taking into account its cost and value. Changes in food marketing and processing result from the votes cast by consumers, and, emphasizes Black, farmers cannot afford to ignore them.

RANGE GRASSES CAN SURVIVE PROLONGED FLOODING -- Bermuda, buffalo, vine-mesquite and knotgrasses can survive more than 20 days of flooding, B. J. Ragsdale, Extension range specialist, reports that tests in Oklahoma indicate that these and other grasses are suited for establishment in the retention basins of upstream retention dams. They might also prove valuable on lands which are subject to overflow during certain seasons of the year, he said.

MORE SCREWORM CASES REPORTED -- Warmer spring temperatures and continuing damp weather are providing near ideal conditions for fly increases. Officials of the eradication program emphasize the need for stockmen to be even more alert for possible screwworm cases and to take worm samples from wounds found for transmission to the laboratory at Mission.

NEW! For clean Sorghum... spray weeds when you see them! with BANVEL HERBICIDE

VELSICOL announces Banvel herbicide for control of all hard-to-kill weeds of major importance in grain sorghum. This includes carelessweed (pigweed), sunflower, lambs-quarter, purslane, morning glory and other annual broadleaf weeds. Banvel herbicide is applied post-emergence, so there are no wasted sprays in years when rain is scarce and weeds are not a problem. With Banvel you see your weed problem and then spray—all in plenty of time to give young sorghum plants plenty of opportunity to grow.

Banvel is sprayed onto weed leaves and translocates to the roots... for new, total control of weeds. Just apply Banvel between the 10th and 25th day after emergence of grain sorghum (approximately 4 to 12 inches tall).

Banvel is not dependent on soil moisture for its effectiveness, so its results are dependable. And it's a liquid that won't clog your sprayers; nor does Banvel need constant agitation.

Banvel increases yields. It's excellent for use on grain sorghum, wheat, barley, oats and field corn. Order Banvel herbicide to get full potential from your valuable, high-yielding sorghum seed.

See your dealer today. You'll be glad you did!

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

- by Vern Sanford
- SAFETY-PIN HOOK-HOLDER
You can keep small hooks organized in your tackle box by threading eyes through a safety pin or by sticking them on a good bar magnet.
 - KEEPS THE WALLET DRY
Before going out in a boat or fishing, slip your wallet in a sealed plastic bag and replace it in your pocket. You may get wet but your billfold won't.
 - KEEP MINNOW BUCKET CLEAN
Clean your minnow bucket periodically with baking soda and your bait will live longer.
 - AMMONIA STOPS STING
Creatures like wasps, yellowjackets and red ants are a hazard in camp. Carry along a small bottle of ammonia. A quick dab on a sting neutralizes much of the acid and cuts down on the pain.
 - DRYING THE TACKLE BOX
Next time you get the inside of your tackle box wet and you don't want to completely clean it out (to prevent rust) use your vacuum cleaner. It has a reverse on it that blows air, instead of sucking. Blow air inside the tackle box for a few minutes and watch the moisture dry up.
 - PLASTIC PREVENTS DAMPNES
A small square sheet of plastic doesn't take up much room in your tackle box, but it's mighty handy when you want a dry seat in a wet boat or on a stream bank.
 - PILL BOXES FOR HOOKS
Small plastic pill bottles, available for little cost at the drugstore, make handy storage containers for things like hooks, swivels and tiny sinkers.
 - RID RATTLE WITH RUBBER
Glue some strips of inertube rubber to the bottom of your tackle box and it won't rattle around in your boat.
 - DUAL PURPOSE FOR BOBBER
Thread a small fishing bobber on your key chain. Then should you accidentally drop the keys overboard the bobber will float, thus enabling you to retrieve the keys.
 - COFFEE CAN AS WORM BOX
Make a handy worm container by cutting both ends off a pound-size coffee can and put one of the plastic lids over each end. Now it is a simple matter to retrieve worms no matter which end is up.
 - SILICA PREVENTS FOGGING
Silica cream, available at any Army-Navy store, rubbed on your glasses or scope, or binoculars will prevent them from fogging.
