PERSONAL

By John

We recall the solemn expression of the President as he gravely informed us that the times were too perilous for the playing of partisan politics, that he would rise above the muck and mire of political life and conduct the remainder of his term of office in a manner befitting the gravity of our times.

We shudder to think what might have been inflicted upon the unsuspecting public if the nominations of Abe Fortas for Chief Justice and Homer Thornberry for Associate Justice can be called non-political. These are political friends and personal cronies of the Chief Executive, and their influence should end with the ending of his administration. Instead, by this back door method, this administration's political philosophies will be saddled upon the American political scene for innumerable years to come.

These appointees will continue and amplify the process of judicial legislation. No, Virginia, that is not a contradiction in terms, but an explanation of our present day perversion of the Constitution. This is the crassest politics coming at a time when the signs portend a change in political thought. If you recall, a certain Senate Majority leader jammed a "sense of congress" resolution decrying such a move by Eisenhower -- a move Eisenhower did not make. Ah so, we know morality has changed; ask the National Council of Churches.

Lest you think we are latter day prognosticators of gloom and doom, let us quote from a political patron saint, one founding father, Thomas Jefferson. We quote Mr. Jefferson, "The germ of dissolution of our Federal Government is in the . . . Federal Judiciary; an irresponsible body . . . working like gravity . . . gaining a little today and a little tomorrow, and advancing its noiseless step like a thief, over the field of jurisdiction, until all shall be usurped from the States, and the government of all shall be consolidated into one. When all government . . . in little as in great things, shall be drawn to Washington as the center of all power, it shall render powerless the checks provided of one government on another, and will become as venal and oppressive as the Government from which we separated." ("The government from which we separated" refers to England's rule over our colonial forefathers.)

As an indication of the change of the people's thinking, in this area at least, Congressman Bob Price's poll showed these results to this question, Q. In dealing with crime and civil disorder, do you favor (a) stricter law enforcement and prosecution or (b) more rehabilitation and slum improvement programs? Poll results: (a) 89.8% (b) 5.7%. The balance gave no answer. We think a 90% vote as reasonably conclusive of our area's thinking. This preponderant expression will not get a chance to give articulate voice to its sentiments if this court-packing plan succeeds -- as we are sure it will.

Ah sweet politics -- what crimes are committed in thy name.

Complete Wheat Harvest

Wheat harvest in Texico-Farwell area is virtually completed, according to elevator men in Texico-Farwell. The harvest this year began around June 8 and was almost completed by the end of last week, except for small patches here and there. Early Monday morning, several custom combine operators were noted loading their equipment and heading north, where the harvest is a little later.

In checking with local elevator men, most are in agreement that 50 to 60 bushels per acre was the average yield and that the harvest was about the same as last year, or about as expected.

Herb Potts, veteran elevator man, reported that he had handled some of the heaviest wheat this year that he had ever had the privilege of receiving. "It weighed 65 lb. per bushel and I didn't know they made it that heavy," he quipped. Potts was also of the impression that all of the wheat this year was a little better quality than that received last year.

Fred Chandler at Sherley-Anderson-Pitman said he believed the wheat was better than last year, but not as good as two years ago.

Mrs. Lola Standefer at Golden-West Seed stated that many area farmers had brought in wheat which averaged no more than 20 bushels per acre while others brought in wheat averaging 50 bushels per acre. She was of the opinion that the hail and hot dry winds had damaged the wheat to some extent.

Bill Dollar at State Line Grain stated that the highest yield he had reported to him this year was 66 bushels per acre. He was of the opinion that the wheat this year was not as good as two years ago, but better than last year's crop, due to the late freeze last year.

YEAH TEAM FIGHT -- This group of Farwell Varsity cheerleaders will leave Sunday for Texas Tech for a week of intensive training in cheerleading techniques at the annual cheerleader workshop. They will compete with other cheerleading teams from area schools for honors at the workshop. In previous years they have brought home many blue ribbons for their efforts. Back row: Jana Bass, Debra Wardlaw, Cindy Phillips, Rene' Walser; standing center, Debbie Chandler; in front Linda Meeks, head cheerleader.

Joe Nail, project engineer for the recently completed work on FM 108 running north from Texico and joining the paved road running east and west by Rhea elevators, takes a few minutes out to visit with Bob Lebow from Texico at the barbecue dinner held for state dignitaries and dignitaries from Texico and Clovis last week. The road project was open for inspection to state highway officials, state representatives and dignitaries from the two towns and members of the press.

Work On FM 108 Completed

Approximately 75 people representing the New Mexico Highway department, the Clovis city council and the Texico city council, both Chambers of Commerce, and several other dignitaries including David Norvell and Hoyt Pattison, state representatives, gathered on the highway project 17 miles north of Texico on Wednesday to view the completed project. The group were guests of the highway department for a barbecue meal.

The highway project includes a new bridge which spans the Frio draw and which was built at a cost of $445,477.99, by K. Barnett and Sons. In addition to the bridge, the project included paving of several miles of highway which tied the road in with the pavement running east and west to the Rhea elevators.

Joseph Nail was project engineer.

Five Teachers Hired By Farwell School

The School Board of Tax Equalization will hold its meeting at the office of Superintendent W. M. Roberts on July 22-23 between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. All persons having business with the board are invited to come in on one of the days.

Two vacancies exist on the Texico school faculty at this time, according to A. D. McDonald, superintendent. Teachers needed are in the math department and an assistant coach. Supt. McDonald stated that anyone who could teach math and could also do work in another field should contact him immediately if they are interested in teaching in Texico School.

The school is still in need of a girls' basketball coach, a junior high school English teacher, and a high school math teacher.

Two Vacancies On Texico Faculty

Among local students attending Eastern New Mexico University who were named to the dean's honor roll for the spring semester were Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips and Mrs. Mildred Franse.

Students Named To Dean's List

Cpl. Stanley W. Kelm, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kelm, arrived in Farwell Saturday from Vietnam where he had been serving for the past 11 months with the Marine Corps. Following a 20-day leave he will be stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Larry Taylor, a 1968 graduate of McMurry College, has been hired as assistant coach and science teacher.

The school is still in need of a girls' basketball coach, a junior high school English teacher, and a high school math teacher.

Cpl. Kelm received three Purple Hearts for wounds received in combat in Vietnam. The Kelm's other son, Stephen Ray, will report to Lackland Air Force Base July 10 to begin basic training with the U.S. Air Force.

Dry June Recorded

"Never have I seen it so hot and dry," is the way most area residents answer the question as to how much rainfall the area had in the month of June. Most residents could not recall that it had rained any during the month just past; however, one brave soul said, "I remember that it did rain about .7 of an inch one afternoon and also came a light hail.

July began with rainfall on the first day, so maybe, just maybe, the hot, dry weather of the past month has been broken. On Monday, rainfall in Texico was reported by Golden West Seed Company at one-half inch, while in Farwell, Fred Chandler at Sherley-Anderson-Pitman elevator reported only one-tenth inch of moisture.

We are inviting our readers, who have kept record of rainfall during the month of June to call us or write us giving the average rainfall for the month in previous years and also their records of rainfall during the month of June this year.

While the absence of rainfall during June did much to allow wheat farmers to complete harvest, a good rainfall at this time would be a big boon to row crop farmers and those getting their land plowed following the harvest.

Association To Sponsor Bridge, Bingo Parties

The regularly scheduled meeting of Farwell Country Club Ladies Association was held at the club house Friday morning. Hostesses for the informal coffee were Mmes. Lillian Aldridge, Reba Bonds, Dickie Chandler, Lillie Christian, Frances Boling and Dot Christian.

Officers of the ladies organization are meeting with the Country Club Board of Directors this week to work out final details for the bridge and bingo sessions.

Members also approved having a float in the Border Town Days celebration parade. They will work in conjunction with the Ladies Country Club Golf Association on the float, according to Mrs. Bernice Norton, Association president.

Next regular meeting of the Association is set for July 26, 9:30 a.m., at the club house.

O. C. McBride

Dear Turnrow Tunkel . . .

MANY LABOR unions are demanding longer vacations for workers. Do you approve? No, I think two weeks is long enough. This allows a week of travel, which is about all anyone can afford, and a week of hanging around the house listening to the vacuum cleaner, which is as much as any man can stand.

DID YOU know that according to safety experts, women are more careful drivers than men? If that's true, newspapers are probably responsible for women driving so carefully. They usually publish the ages of drivers involved in accidents.

I READ where an insurance executive said smokers are considered more dangerous risks than non-smokers. Don't you think all smokers will eventually have to pay higher premiums? Probably. It might help a little if those Tareyton smokers would keep out of fights, and Marlboro smokers would stay off of horses.

I UNDERSTAND that due to the fear of riots and crime, fewer vacationers will visit large cities this summer. You can't blame them, New York, for instance, is a nice place to visit, but I wouldn't want to die there.

WHEN THE atomic bomb was perfected, many experts thought it would end all wars, since no nation would want to risk starting a nuclear conflict. What happened? The A-bomb didn't stop wars, but it stopped the U. S. from winning them. We settled for a draw in Korea, Cuba and now apparently Vietnam, because we were afraid if we tried for a knockout or even a decision we would have to take on their manager, Russia.

DID YOU know that when Columbus discovered the New World, the entire cost of his expedition was $14,000? Yes, but the round trip took 8 months, Chris was probably like a farmer -- he didn't figure anything for his time.

Tourists, Watch Out

It is a sad commentary on the trend of community thought, when the citizens of a town, any town, allow their law enforcement agency to fall into ill-repute because of over zealous enforcement of traffic laws. Because of its proximity I am particularly thinking of our sister town of Texico. However, there are many small towns throughout the country where too technical enforcement of traffic laws becomes a town industry.

For the past several years, the situation in Texico has steadily deteriorated. We have seen an endless procession of town marshals come and go, but all seem to have one common purpose -- stick the tourist, usually the Texans. The news, however, that the present town marshal of Texico has now acquired a radar unit is really the icing on the cake. The only possible use for a radar unit in a town the size of Texico is to hook the unsuspecting motorist.

I am not speaking only from hearsay, but from personal experience. A couple of years ago, I too was hauled over by the town marshal of the time, lights flashing and all, and kindly informed that I was doing 70 mph past the port of entry. The determination of my speed was a pretty good trick in itself, since the town marshal was going the other way at the time of the alleged violation. I would in all probability have been stuck with a twenty dollar speeding ticket had we not taken the case to court. The honorable Sam Lewis, thank goodness, was wise enough to distinguish fact from fiction and found me not guilty. I wonder, however, just how many citizens have simply paid the ticket and left, vowing never to return to Moriarty, er, Texico.

I would urge the citizens of all small towns on major highways to take stock of their situation and see to it that undue and overstrict enforcement of traffic regulation is not going on. No community should allow such a shadow to be cast over it, and thusly drive off much profitable tourist revenue.

This is not to say that traffic laws should not be enforced, for surely they must. It is possible however to distinguish between reasonable and sensible enforcement of the law and down right open season on unsuspecting motorists. Speed traps breed nothing but contempt for the law and if there is one thing we do not need in this country, it is more contempt for law and order.

Outdoor Party Honors Bobby Field

An outdoor party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheets last Friday evening honoring Bobby Field, former Farwell resident and member of the Arkansas Razorback football squad.

Hamburgers were grilled over an outdoor fireplace and homemade ice cream completed the meal. Most of the evening was spent in reminiscing about former days at Farwell school. Twenty-nine former school mates of the honoree were in attendance. Special guests were Coaches Toby Booth and Vernon Scott and their families.

On Sunday, Bobby Field left for his home in Missouri accompanied by Kyle Sheets, who will remain in Missouri for a two-week visit.

Visit In

Billington Home

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Billington are their children, SP5 Billy Billington and Sgt. and Mrs. Jimmie Armstrong.

SP5 Billington has recently returned to the States from 18 months duty in the Philippine Islands. Following a 30-day leave, he will be assigned to the Pentagon.

The Armstrongs will return to Ogden, Utah, where he is serving with the Air Force, following their visit in Texico and Farwell. They are also visiting in the Johnny Armstrong home.

Uncle Ray's "Hot Air"

Considering what experience costs, it should be the best teacher.

Tolerance is your ability to keep your shirt on when you're hot under the collar.

"It's not the work I enjoy," said the cab driver, "it's the people I run into."

Run into Uncle Ray's store for your summer picnic needs. Best selection in town.

Letter To The Editor

Mr. John Getz,
State Line Tribune,
Farwell, Tex.

Dear Sir:

Your readers may be wondering about the background of the statement by Bill Clayton in last week's issue relating to a debate.

The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce contacted both Mr. Clayton and me offering us the opportunity to discuss the issues that concern the people of this area before the crowd at their 50 Year Anniversary and 4th of July Celebration.

This was an honor to both of us, and an opportunity for the people of the area to hear our views. I accepted this offer, and through an honest misunderstanding, a story was carried that the debate had been set.

It was my hope that Mr. Clayton would be able to attend, as the voters have a right to know our stands on taxation, daylight savings time, education, and other state issues. However there was no effort made by anyone to pressure Mr. Clayton into accepting such a debate.

Upon learning of the mistaken story, I sent my expression of regret that it happened, which was printed in the Lamb County Leader. But as Mr. Clayton sent his press release to all news media, including a dozen or so which were in no way involved, and whose readers and listeners knew nothing of the original story, perhaps this letter will help in clarification.

It is my intention to try to make my campaign an asset to all the people of this district, with emphasis on ideas which might help our towns to grow and our people to prosper, so I hope that no further questions of honesty or motivation will arise in the discussion of issues which are proper and necessary if we are going to begin to find answers to the many problems which now beset our Country.

Sincerely,
Frank Ford
Republican Candidate
State Rep., 72nd Dist.

The public speaking contest was held in conjunction with the annual Curry County 4-H Club "dress revue."

Alicia Bourlon-Gerald Bailey Wed In Home Ceremony

Alicia Ann Bourlon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bourlon, became the bride of Gerald D. Bailey, Clovis, Route 1, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bailey also of Route 1, Clovis, in an impressive double-ring ceremony in the home of her parents at 7:30 p.m. June 7.

Don Tarbet, former Farwell Church of Christ pastor and now pastor of a Church of Christ in Paducah, read the ceremony in front of a 15-branched candelabrum holding 15 lighted tapers entwined with banks of emerald greenery, flanked by palms at either side.

Billy Bourlon, brother of the bride, lighted the candles preceding the ceremony. Appropriate nuptial music was provided by Earl Roberts of Farwell at the organ. Roberts also sang "If God Left Only You," and J. R. Sewell sang "Whither Thou Goest" as a benediction.

The bride entered the room on the arm of her father, walking down an aisle decorated with wedding bells, yellow streamers and stephanotis. A large arrangement of yellow and white majestic daisies accented the archway. Parents' chairs were marked with miniature wedding bells and stephanotis.

The bride was attired in an A-line street length champagne colored crepe dress, featuring a boat neckline and re-embroidered lace sleeves that extended to the wrists. Her veil of white illusion fell from a headpiece of re-embroidered lace flowers accented by seed pearls and crystal droplets. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis with lace streamers atop a white Bible, borrowed from a college friend, Mrs. Ramona Parker.

Following tradition, something old was a ring belonging to Mrs. T. W. Hart of Farwell; new was her wedding attire and a pearl droplet, a gift from the groom; borrowed was the Bible; and blue was the traditional garter. The groom also wore a garter on his shirt sleeve, which featured a ball and chain, a gift from the bride. She also carried in her shoes for luck, coins minted in the year of her birth and that of the groom.

Maid of honor was Susan Patrick, longtime friend and former classmate of the bride. Her dress was identical to that of the bride, except in a pastel yellow color with accessories in matching hue. Her headpiece was tiers of yellow lace falling from a large bow of material matching the dress. She carried a nosegay of yellow and white daisies accented by yellow lace streamers.

Best man was Roger Baughman of Clovis, brother-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Bourlon wore, for her daughter's wedding, a beige double-knit belted sheath accented with bone accessories. Her corsage was of yellow daisies.

Mrs. Bailey, mother of the groom, chose a two-piece lace dress of beige, bone accessories, and a corsage of yellow daisies.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. Serving table was laid with an antique white linen cloth accented around the table edge with wedding bells, stephanotis and yellow ribbon streamers. The tiered wedding cake was set on lacy columns and decorated with love birds, yellow roses, and wedding bands. A large wedding bell accented the bottom layer of the cake and a miniature bride and groom under an archway of stephanotis topped the cake. Yellow punch and yellow butter mints were served with the cake.

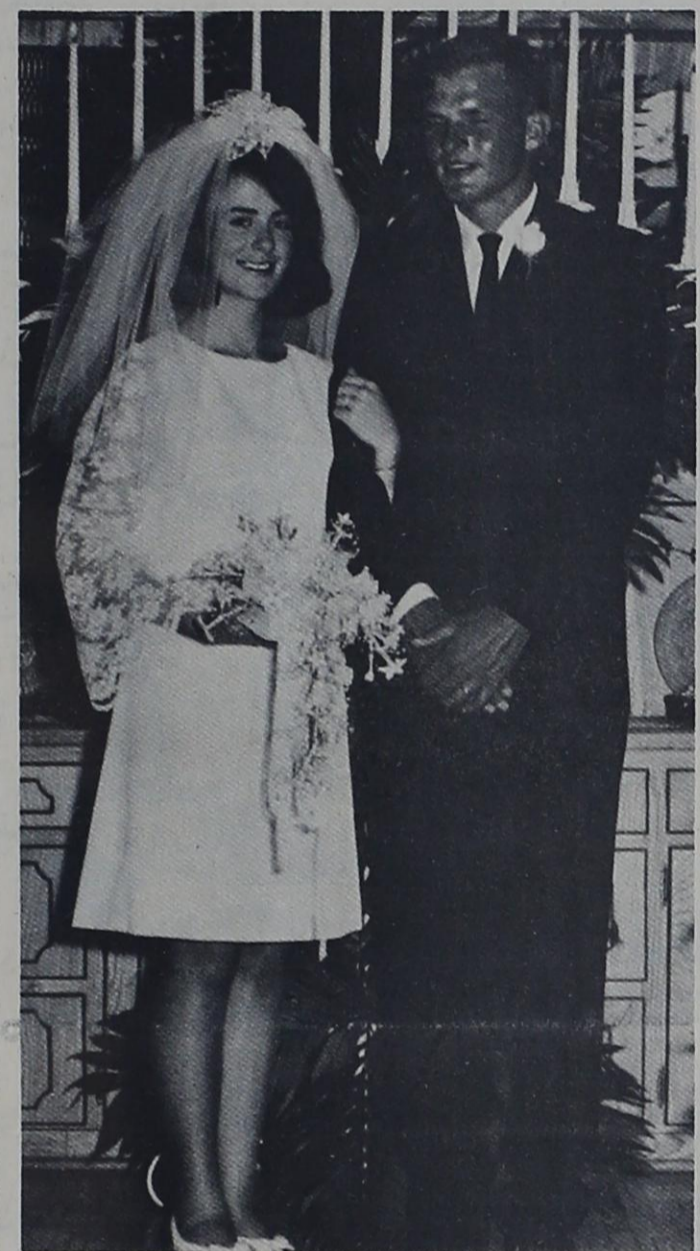

The groom's table was centered by an arrangement of yellow daisies and held a large chocolate sheet cake, iced in white and decorated with yellow roses and bearing the names "Gerald and Alicia." Napkins bearing the names "Alicia and Gerald" and crystal table appointments completed table decor. Mrs. Suzette Baughman, sister of the bride, Mrs. Jackie Bailey, sister-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Larry Baughman, presided at the tables.

Guests were registered by Jo Ann Bailey, sister of the groom.

When the couple left for a short wedding trip, the bride wore a mint green linen dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was lifted from her bridal bouquet. Following the wedding trip to points of interest in Texas, the couple is now at home at Carl's Apartments in Clovis.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dempsey and Shana, Albuquerque; Mr. and Mrs. Don Tarbet Paducah; Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Bigler, Floyd, N.M.; and Mrs. Sybil Smith and children, Jackie and Butch, Yucca Valley, Calif.

Bluebonnet Girls State

by Ellen Herington
 Welcome to Girls State! Those were the words we heard when we first arrived. As can be expected we were a little afraid and confused. What exactly was Girls State and what was the purpose? During the next ten days we were to find that Bluebonnet Girls State was establishing our own city, county and state governments and electing officials for each. Actually running our mythical 51st State by the laws that we set up. It was an opportunity to make new friends, to understand politics, it was the thrill of campaigning for an office, but most of all it was our voice, our vote, our action, and our thinking in our government. The girls from the Panhandle area left Amarillo on June 11 around 8:30 a.m. by chartered bus and arrived at St. Edwards Un. in Austin around 6:30 that evening. Upon arrival we were assigned to a city and county, a political party (Nationalist or Federalist) and to the house or senate. We deposited our money in the Girls State bank and checks were available for use in the Girls State store. The orientation of cities came first. There were nine cities with between 45 or 50 girls in each one. Each city drew up their own charter and elected their own officials who started to work immediately setting up city laws, parks, hospitals, and of course the city jails. All 450 girls had to register to vote and had to show their voter registration at all elections. Filing for county offices caused more excitement. Each county heard speeches from their candidates with the election following. When filing was complete for state offices, party primaries were held to select one candidate for each office which appeared later on the general ballot. Members of the senate and house convened and committees were appointed. During the first session bills and resolutions were introduced on the first reading. Each day began with reveille at 6:30 followed by flag raising. Then we had several hours of government study with many guest speakers which included Debra Brock, 1967 Girls' State governor; Allen Keyes, President of Boys Nation; Preston Smith, Paul Eggers, Senator Barbara Jorden, Anne Hodges, librarian for Library of Congress; Jack Cox, and R. T. Davis Jr., Director of Texas Youth Conference. The day ended with flag lowering and devotional. Other special activities included a visit to the Library and Archives, the Court building, State office buildings, the Governor's Mansion, and the capitol building where we watched the house and senate in session. Our group was introduced in both house and senate as special guests. At noon the inauguration of the Bluebonnet Girls State officers took place in the capitol rotunda followed by a barbecue on the capitol grounds. On the last day of our stay, we enjoyed a basketball game between the counselors and the citizens. That night a talent show was given by the citizens. As the bus rolled into Amarillo on Friday, June 21, there were 37 happy girls aboard; for the Panhandle for the second year in a row was fortunate to have the governor and the lieutenant governor selected from their midst. I wish to thank everyone that had a part in selecting and sending me to Girls State. It was a memorable and very enjoyable experience that I will never forget.

Girls' State 1968 was a major event in the life of Ellen Herington, Farwell delegate, who says, "It was an experience that I shall always treasure."

NURSERY NEWS

By Arvin Woodburn
 Garden Center Nursery

It is at this time of year that fungus is beginning to make headway in blue grass yards. We are actually marginal as to zone for growing blue grass anyway and the heat of summer makes it harder on these plants to look good. By saying we are marginal means that people in a zone warmer know better than to plant blue and the ones in a zone cooler do not have the problems we do.

Often we say that the next two months are the critical time on blue grass; actually, we could have headed off a lot of our trouble as early as last fall. There is one yard in town that has had a real good conditioner applied every fall and a light application each spring. So far, the yard has not been bothered by fungus or even worms. The conditioner used has the trade name "Sulfasol," main ingredient of which is iron, with 20 per cent sulphur. When fungus has killed about half -- or even a large spot in the yard, a person should use a cure. But, to make certain that he doesn't need a cure, sulfasol is quite effective.

Watering a blue grass yard makes conditions in which fungus will multiply; but if you don't water, you don't have any grass. Personally, we like to water to a depth of four inches and then wait until the top one inch is dry and then water to a depth of four inches again. The amount of water depends on the amount of wind, heat and a number of other things.

Some people like to water in the afternoon and others in the morning. Again, the main thing is to apply enough water at one time and then let the ground breathe for a short period and then water again. The time of day does not matter so much if the soil has time to dry on top and break the fungus spore.

HIS FAVORITE...

Ah! Just smell that... This is his favorite... prepared just the way he likes it. He's in for a real treat. Everyone has certain foods that they prefer over others and this is his.

Many people have favorite scriptures... these words can excite and satisfy the soul as certain foods satisfy the taste palates.

The soul needs nourishment too. The church offers the best opportunities to satisfy your spiritual needs.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God. Jackie Seaton, Gary MacWhorter Wed In Impressive Ceremony

Jacquelyn Sue (Jackie) Seaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Seaton, became the bride of Gary Craig MacWhorter, Lubbock, son of Mr. and Mrs. George MacWhorter of El Paso, in an impressive ceremony at Lazbuddie United Methodist Church June 21.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Harold Morris of Anson, Tex., before an altar setting of lighted candles flanking an archway of greenery made of fern from which wedding bells were suspended. Adding to the beauty of the nuptial setting were large baskets of yellow gladioli and white carnations set on fluted pedestals and a memory candle which was lighted by the bride and groom. Focal point of altar decorations was a white kneeling bench on which the couple knelt for the benediction.

Tamra Jennings of Lazbuddie, organist, played appropriate nuptial music preceding the ceremony and also accompanied Brenda Tanner of Muleshoe, soloist, when she sang "Hawaiian Wedding Song" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Candles were lighted by Bill and Brent Tanner of Muleshoe, Mike and Frank Hinson, long-time friends of the bride, were ushers. Serving as best man for his son was George MacWhorter. Groomsmen were John A. and Ronald MacWhorter, brothers of the groom. Ringbearers were Steven MacWhorter, nephew of the groom. Matron of honor was Mrs. Darrell Stevens of Lazbuddie, close friend and former home making instructor of the bride; maid of honor was Johnnee Seaton, sister of the bride. Serving as bridesmaids were Olena Seaton, sister of the bride, Susie Tanner, close friend of the bride, and Sheryl MacWhorter, niece of the groom, Debbie MacWhorter, another niece of the groom, served as flower girl.

All of the bridal attendants were attired in identical formal length gowns of yellow lace over taffeta. Their veils were of yellow tulle held by a large yellow taffeta rose and they each carried a single yellow carnation. The flowergirl was attired similarly and carried a white lace basket filled with yellow rose petals which she threw in the path of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal A-line empire wedding gown of white angelmist and Alencon lace, designed with a bateau neckline, flared elbow-length sleeves, and a full skirt in back accented by a large bow at the waistline. Lace rose appliques enhanced the front of the dress and the sleeves and a full court train fell from the shoulders. The train and dress were accented by iridescent sequins.

Her veil of white silk illusion fell from a headpiece of lace petals and daisies outlined with seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white and yellow rose buds atop a white Bible, a gift from the officiating minister when the bride was three years of age.

Following tradition, the Bible served as something old; new was the bridal gown; borrowed were coins minted in the years of the birth of the bride and groom and carried in her shoes; and blue was the traditional garter.

Mrs. Seaton wore for her daughter's wedding a navy blue shift dress designed with a pleated lace yoke and sleeves. She wore black shoes and carried a black bag and wore a white hat and gloves. Her corsage was of white carnations tied with yellow ribbon. Mrs. MacWhorter, mother of the groom, wore a beige lace two-piece dress with pink hat, and beige bag, shoes and gloves. Her corsage was also of white

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Serving table was centered by an arrangement of white carnations and white gladioli. The tiered wedding cake, which was served with nuts, mints and punch, was topped by a bride and groom figurine and adorned with minute flowergirls and groomsmen, yellow confection roses and white wedding bells. Presiding at the reception were Mmes. Tom Lambert, Hereford, Kay Dixon, Amarillo, and Neta Marsh, Texline, all cousins of the bride. The bride and groom, their respective parents, and wedding attendants were in the receiving line.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Clovis, the bride wore a lime green lace shift dress trimmed at the neckline and sleeves with accordion pleated lace. Her hat was also lime green and other accessories were white. Complementing the ensemble was a corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds are now at home in Lubbock.

The bride attended school at Lazbuddie throughout her school years completing her high school work by correspondence. She plans to attend beauty school and later attend college.

The groom, a graduate of Austin High School in El Paso, attended college at the University of Texas in El Paso for two years and is presently a senior at Texas Tech. He is employed in Lubbock by Big State Mercantile Co.

Out of town guests attending the wedding included Messrs. and Mmes. Roy Phelps, Ponca City, Okla.; John M. Anderson, grandparents of the groom, El Paso; Mrs. Sarah Payne, grandmother of the bride from Muleshoe; Mrs. H. J. McBride, Alpine; Mrs. L. O. Smalley, Scottsdale, Ariz.; Mrs. Frank Geyer, Charlotte, Tex.; and Messrs. and Mmes. W. J. Scarbro and Eddie Ford, Scottsdale, Ariz.; J. H. Marsh and Neta, Texline; Tom Lambert, Hereford; David McDonald and family, Hereford; Leroy McDonald and family, Hereford; John A. MacWhorter and family, George MacWhorter, and Miss Darlene Williams and Ronald MacWhorter, all of El Paso.

Uncle Reads Ceremony Uniting Ginger Anderson - Gerald Foster

A double-ring wedding ceremony at First Methodist Church in Quitaque on June 15, read by Rev. Billy Joe Foster of Knox City, Tex., united in marriage Ginger Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Anderson of Quitaque, and Gerald Wayne Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Foster of Farwell, Route 1. The officiating minister is an uncle of the groom.

Rita Spencer of Fort Worth, cousin of the bride, served as candlelighter and ringbearer was Tim McWilliams of Quitaque.

Preceding the ceremony, Pat Herrington of Quitaque presented nuptial music on the organ and also accompanied Larry Byrd of Amarillo as he sang "Love, I Come To You," "The Twelfth of Never" and "Wedding Prayer."

Best man for his brother was Lyndon Foster of Farwell. Groomsmen were Gary and D. H. Foster, Farwell, brothers of the groom, and Rex Anderson, Quitaque, brother of the bride. Ushers were Royce Barnes, Lazbuddie, and Andy Andrews, Dumas.

Maid of honor was Pat Hoey of Brownfield. Bridesmaids were Nedda Foster of Farwell, sister of the groom, and Linda Keisling, Sunray. Flower girl was Kelly Hawkins of Quitaque. All of the bridal attendants were attired in floor length princess style gowns of blue satin. Their minute veils of blue tulle were held by halos of daisies. Each attendant carried a cascade of daisies.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal wedding gown of summer crepe designed with a high-rise bodice flowing free from a yoke of scalloped lace. It was designed with long lace fitted sleeves which terminated in petal points at the hands. The sanctuary train of Venice lace was attached to the dress at the shoulders. Her full length veil of French illusion fell from a crown of orange blossoms and Venice lace adorned with pearls.

She carried a cascade of miniature chrysanthemums surrounding a single white orchid atop a white lace and satin covered Bible, a gift from her late grandfather.

Following tradition, something old was the Bible; new was her wedding dress; borrowed were pennies bearing the date of her birth and that of the groom; and blue was the traditional garter.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall at the church immediately following the ceremony. Wedding cake and punch were served by Mrs. Cynthia Blevins, Amarillo, and Miss Sondra Brown of Wheeler.
