Majority of 259 Accorded $200,000 Issue In Tuesday Balloting; To Rush Project

982 Votes Cast, 620 of Them in Affirmative; City Commission Calls For Purchase of Bonds; Local Labor Specified

By giving an overwhelming majority far beyond expectations of proponents, voters of Big Spring Tuesday stamped their approval to issuance of $200,000 in bonds to construct a municipal building.

There were 982 votes cast. Of these, 620 favored issuing the bonds, while only 361 opposed it, a majority of 259. The lead was established during the morning and opposing votes were never able to overcome it. City officials announced today that the work would be rushed to begin construction of the building as soon as possible.

Several steps must be taken before actual construction can be launched, City Manager V. R. Smith said today.

CALL FOR BIDS

Advertisements for bids on the bonds will be mailed this afternoon. Following this, the plans and specifications

Depression Has Touched Bottom, Roger W. Babson Tells Convention

NEW YORK, June 17 (AP)—Roger W. Babson, noted economist who predicted the stock market crash before the October, 1929, crash, is "willing to state his opinion" that the depression has touched bottom and that "within a reasonable time" the nation again will enjoy prosperity.

"Irrespective of what happens to the stock market in the next year," said Babson in his statement read for him today at the convention of the Advertising Federation of America, "I am willing to stake my reputation, based on 30 years of experience, that the business has seen its worst."

"That, although the change will be slow, it will be in the right direction.

"That, within a reasonable time this country will again enter a period of marked prosperity.

"In short, statistics point today to another period of prosperity, the same as they three years ago pointed to the present period of depression.

"As you go back home, tell your merchants that now is the time to advertise and give their customers an opportunity to benefit from present low prices. Some day these merchants will take your advice and be so pleased that they'll have these ads of 1931 cut out and framed.

"The country today is like a man lying on his back—there is only one way that he can look up, and that is upward, if he looks honestly and is not short of stock."

"The most conservative economist," he stated, "who were heard a few years ago, are bullish now as far as the future is concerned. The only 'real' bears on business, are the 'old out' bulls of a few years ago. These, however, now have neither money nor advertising to 'sell' certainly hold out no hope for the future."

must be arranged by the architect. When these are completed advertisements for bids on construction will be arranged. The plans and specifications are being drawn by Peters, Strange & Bradshaw, local architectural firm.

After contractors have submitted their bids on the erection of the building, the city commission will open them and award the contract.

If the successful bidder is an out-of-town contractor, he will be allowed to bring with him his superintendent. The rest of his employees must be taken from local labor, with a minimum salary wage of forty cents an hour for unskilled labor. Should the contract be awarded to a local bidder, all labor will be taken from ranks of Big Spring men.

LOCATION UNDECIDED

It is not known just how long it will be before actual construction will start, city officials declared today.

The definite location of the building has not been selected, but, according to Smith, this will be done in less than two weeks.

The building, when completed, will contain all city offices, a jail, a central fire station and a municipal auditorium.

Watson made announcement of the manufacturers exhibit and merchants institute to be held here, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

Watson declared the way to promote additional industries in Big Spring was to patronize the present ones.

"To popularize the spirit of cooperation we must first practice and then preach the doctrine of patronizing home industries and manufactured goods," Mr. Watson said.

He urged the club members to attend and participate in the exhibit and institute.

"The spirit of Big Spring residents assembled here Tuesday night, following a meeting with Chamber of Commerce officials, Monday night.

Examiner In TPN Case To Report Soon

Initial Recommendation Far from Final, It Is Pointed Out

Haskell P. Davis, Interstate Commerce Commission examiner, expects the reporting examiner to file a report with the body this month, according to Garland A. Woodward, attorney, who conferred with Davis at San Antonio.

Mr. Davis did not indicate whether the report would be favorable to the commission. He declared, however, that it contained "certain recommendations."

Mr. Woodward, who aided with the hearing held at Lubbock months ago, explained that the initial report of the examiner in no way affects the decision of the commission.

After the examiner's report is filed, the advise party has the right of appeal to division four of the commission. This body consists of four of the commissioners, and handles all problems of the southwest appealed to it.

A twenty-day period is allowed the losing side to file an appeal. The decision of the divisional body can also be appealed to the entire commission. Thirty days is allowed to formulate the exceptions.

The commission consists of eleven men.

"There is a possibility," Mr. Woodward declared, "that the first report of the reporting examiner—not the one that contained the hearing—will be adverse, but it is by no means final.

"I believe that even though the report is adverse, ultimately the application will be granted."

HOME TOWN TALK

By BEDDY

We have an appeal from a husband and wife, just past middle age, who wish to find a place to live in Big Spring under conditions whereby they can do work for their room or house rent. Any reader having a proposition for this couple is urged to call the Herald.

Well, the city's fire-fighting equipment was moved into the street Tuesday to make room for holding of an election.

The election was used by the people to shout vociferously in the affirmative to the question: Shall Big Spring spend $200,000 at a time when indication of new money into local channels of trade is badly needed?

In answering that question, the citizenship threw its face toward a future whose bright in their hearts through faith in its own power to overcome periods, interferences, and in the powerful natural resources placed at the command of a hardy people.

We climbed to a little gas on heads above clouds brought on by collapse of the slide oil market and other numerous influences upon business, assured the world in unmistakable fashion that Big Spring has the stuff that won't be licked.

The election resulted in a decision that will be cited throughout West Texas as one of the first real signs of revival of the prosperity we all seek.

We joined Roger W. Babson in the belief that better days will soon be upon us.

What's more, we did something to help hasten those better days instead of waiting for providence alone to bring them.

It made us feel great Wednesday morning when the first man we heard comment upon the result of the election proved to be one of the oldest residents of the community.

He said "I feel much better now. We have a town here that is supported by resources that give us the right to expect development to continue through the years. Therefore, since construction work is so directly needed right now, it is a blessing that this building is to be erected. If our town was due to dwindle instead of develop it would be a different matter. But, this municipal building will fill a need that will become greater, as the years go by."

Decision of the treasury and postal departments upon location of the federal building here should be announced in a few days. Expenditure of a total of $365,000 for the federal and city buildings is bound to have a good effect.

All of which weakens any reasons that a few of our people may have for being too quick to throw in the sponge and lob about waiting for bats and owls to begin

Court Affirms Death Sentence

First Sale License On Printed Matter Is Issued By City

Although Big Spring dealers printed matter were required to obtain a city license by June 15, only one license has been found, according to city officials.

The license was given to Robert Peyton Gayle, 214 Main street.

There is no charge for the license, according to city officials. They may be obtained at the city hall.

City Manager V. R. Smith declared today he would notify Chief of Police E. A. Long to warn drug store and newsstand owners to obtain a license immediately.

A new censor board to succeed the original one has not been appointed, Smith said.

The board, consisting of Mrs. Ira Driver, Mrs. Charles Koberg, and Mrs. J. P. Dodge resigned recently.

The ordinance requiring a license and censorship of magazines was passed recently by the city commission because it was believed by the body that certain magazines now on sale were "indecent and immoral."

Funeral bearers were E. H. Jones, H. C. Porter, G. W. Dabney, H. E. Dunning, W. C. Everett and O. B. Hull.

'Let's Do It Again,' Many Merchants Urge On Checking Results From 'Downtown Day' Advertisements

"Let's do it again!" That was the consensus of merchants and shoppers alike at the end of business Tuesday. "Downtown Day," which was sponsored by The Herald as a special marketing plan.

More than a score of business firms presented special bargains of every type to the buying public through advertisements in Monday's Herald. It was agreed that the largest Tuesday crowd since the Christmas holidays was downtown, attracted by bargains.

"I hoped we would do some special business, but I never dreamed it would be rushed throughout the day as we have been," said the owner of one shop specializing in women's and children's apparel.

A drug store which offered a special lunch "sold out" and had the largest noon-time crowd in the store that it had had for months.

Cafes participating in the day's campaign reported more local people as guests than they had enjoyed in many months.

"They gave us a grand rush all day"—that was the verdict of an energetic salesman in a dry goods and ready-to-wear store.

Al Capone Faces Prison Term and Heavy Fine After Pleading Guilty

CHICAGO, June 17 (UP)—Al Capone, his underworld empire established by the U. S. government, pleaded guilty today to defrauding the nation of almost $200,000 in income taxes and conspiring in a $200,000,000 beer combine to violate the prohibition laws.

The plea of the fallen gangster marked the climax of the government's effort to stamp out syndicate crime in the country's second largest city—a drive started when city and state governments seemed helpless to smash Capone's strangle hold.

Sentence of the gangster was deferred by Judge James H. Wilcox until June 20, at 2 p. m.

The indictments carry a possible total of 34 years in prison and $90,000 in fines for the swagging gangster, who before today always had adopted an airy attitude in his infrequent court appearance.

It was understood that Capone's terms would be set at two and one-half years with a stiff fine—probably $10,000.

Capone, wearing a tan suit and a white hat, walked into the courtroom 10 minutes before his case was called.

During the short wait, he stood calmly in low tones with his companions.

The portly entrance and elevator of the federal building were jammed with hundreds of curious spectators. Many girls and women were in the crowd, standing on tiptoe to catch a glimpse of the gang leader.

Capone took his place before Judge Wilcox and his head slightly bowed.

Six policemen stood in a circle about him. Deeply marred were distributed around the room, waiting for the district attorney in charge of the income tax, faced the gangster and asked in legal terms:

"Did you violate the United States income tax laws in 1927?"

Capone dropped his gaze and hesitated a moment. The courtroom was silent. Then he said, hardly above a whisper:

"Yes, I'm guilty."

Not a stir was heard in the courtroom as he made the admission. Capone wet his lips and raised on his toes.

Green then went through the same questions for the years 1928, 1929 and '30. Each time the gangster, facing the only power that ever had threatened him with a stiff sentence, said in low tones:

"Guilty."

Then Vidal Tarr, first assistant district attorney, who was partly responsible for bringing the "swart gangster" of all time before the bar of justice took up the questioning.

BUT BLACKYARD—THESE PEOPLE ARE ALL MY EMPLOYEES—HONEST HARD-WORKING PEOPLE! WERE POSSIBLE OBJECT COULD ANY OF THEM HAVE FOR MURDERING BLACKYARD? I KNOW ALL OF THEM PERSONALLY!

WE NEVER REALLY KNOW ANYBODY! EVERYONE IS A POSSIBLE CRIMINAL! ANGER, FEAR, HATRED—ANY EMOTION MIGHT POSSIBLY UPSET A MAN'S REASON LONG ENOUGH TO MAKE HIM A KILLER! SOMEWHERE AMONG THESE PEOPLE MAY BE A MAN WHO HAD A REASON TO KILL BLACKYARD AND IF WE CAN ESTABLISH THAT REASON THE REST MAY BE EASY! WE'LL DO A LITTLE QUESTIONING LATER ON! THERE'S OFTEN A BIG SURPRISE IN THESE THINGS!

WHAT AM I GOING TO DO IF THEY ASK ME IF I KNOW OF ANYONE WHO HAD A REASON FOR KILLING BLACKYARD? I OUNT TELL ON THE BOSS—BUT TELL THE ONE WHO SURE HAD A REASON!

"It helped me wonderfully"

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S Vegetable Compound has helped me wonderfully. I was weak and rundown and tired. Often I would have to go to bed.

"I read about the Vegetable Compound in the South East Missouriian. I have taken six bottles with good results.

"Now I am able to work every day. I will recommend your medicine to my friends.

"You can use this as a testimonial if you value it."—Miss Zelma Bellinger, R. R. No. 1, Box 15, Selig, Wickville, Missouri.

Lucey Named Chairman Of Oil Committee

TYLER, Texas, June 17 (UP)—Capt. J. F. Lucey, Dallas, was elected chairman of the East Texas oil arbitration committee after the members had spent several hours considering the Cranfill proposition plan, which was ratified yesterday at a mass meeting of operators.

Major J. R. Parten, Shreveport, La., was named secretary of the committee, which includes Underwood Nazro, Gulf Production Company; Fred Stuckey, Longview; Dr. A. J. Deason, Henderson, and Bert Shaw, Wichita Falls. Following election of Capt. Lucey and Maj. Parten, the committee issued a statement, which was telegraphed to Governor Sterling and Chairman C. V. Terrell of the state railroad commission, as follows: "In compliance with the request of Governor Sterling, the East Texas oil arbitration committee uses the producers in the East Texas field to a rate not to exceed 300 barrels per well per day, as provided by the plan adopted at the Tyler meeting, and this committee also recommends to the railroad commission that it issue an emergency order to that effect pending such time as this committee may be able to perfect a recommendation to the railroad commission of Texas of a proper order to effectually enforce the plan adopted at the Tyler meeting, tending toward orderly development in the East Texas field for the purposes of conservation, the prevention of waste of oil and gas, and the prevention of water intrusion in the field."

How's your HEALTH?

PROPER POSTURE
 Posture influences health and health affects posture. But both health and posture are inclusive of many covering factors.

Good posture is of value in all cases, but most of all in the growing child. It is during this age that the child probably receives the least attention.

Many, too, believe that good posture is a matter of good will, and so they pound the little ones with constant commands to stand up straight or to pull the chin in.

Defective vision such as a strabismic, short or long-sightedness and astigmatism, may affect posture.

Improperly fitted shoes and worn shoes at school or at home, may affect posture.

Carrying heavy books in one hand, or writing slanted with the spine curved to one side, which will affect posture.

Palms facing cause the feet to be "spread out" in walking and standing and thus throw the body out of its normal position.

Mad Pursuit

BY JESSIE DOUGLAS FOX

SYNOPSIS: When Nora Lane learns that David Lindsay, the man of her dreams, has been abandoned, she goes to New York to find him. She finds him in a hotel, but he is not the man she remembers. He is a different man, a man who has been through a great deal of trouble. She tries to help him, but he is too proud to accept her help. She finally gives up and goes home, but she is not satisfied. She decides to go back to New York to find him again.

Chapter 31
 FROM FROM DAMON

There was in Damon's words a certain quality of sincerity that made me feel that he was not lying. I had never before seen a man who was so honest. He was a different man from the one I had known in New York. He was a man who had been through a great deal of trouble. He was a man who had been through a great deal of trouble. He was a man who had been through a great deal of trouble.

CUSTARD DESSERTS WILL BAKE BETTER IN SMALL DISHES

Coffee is Also Better When Roasted in Small Lots—Hills Bros.' Method

The smaller the dish, the more evenly and quickly the oven heat can penetrate to the center of the custard. Such results cannot be equaled upon when large baking dishes are used.

Applying this principle to roasting that fine blend of coffee, Hills Bros. found the way to develop uniform flavor in every ounce. A constant stream of green coffee is introduced into the roaster in automatically measured lots of about three pounds. Each passes through a steady flow, roasting a little at a time. There is accurate control of both the flow of coffee and the temperature.

This process, patented by Hills Bros.—Controlled Roasting—develops a delicious uniform flavor no other coffee has. The ordinary method—roasting in bulk—usually lacks in control.

Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee in the vacuum can that keeps it ever-fresh. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed from this can and kept out. Coffee packed in ordinary cans, even if air-tight, does not stay fresh. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arabid trade-mark—on the can.

The colleges can breathe easier, so far as Bulletin 26 of the Carnegie Foundation is concerned.

For example: "In the south... one university president believes subsidizing and recruiting to be the most serious problem in that region, while another holds it to be secondary to academic eligibility."

New York university was among the institutions sharply criticized in the famous Bulletin 22 that furnished food for debate throughout the winter of 1929-30.

All, presumably, will have been forgotten or forgiven by the time the boys report late in August or early in September for football drill.

NO "LILY WHITES" Another thing, the Carnegie investigations would like to rectify the impression that it was setting forth a list of "lily whites" when Bulletin 23 noted 21 American and 7 Canadian colleges at which "no evidence was found that athletes were subsidized by any group or individual."

The footnote in Bulletin 26 says: "The list... was not a white list or 'put list'..."

"At some of the temptations to subsidize are less strong than others. At some there has been subsidizing in the past. Of any one it is impossible to say there will not be subsidizing in the future. Possibly also, at the time of the field visit subsidizing existed without being discovered."

In other words, let Chicago, Cornell, Illinois, Marquette, M. J. T. Carleton, Massachusetts Aggies, Rochester, Trinity, Tufts, Bowdoin, Bates, Emory, Reed, Tulane, West Point, Virginia, Wesleyan, Williams, Wooster and Yale get high heat about that, if they can.

Bulletin 26 is pronounced in its criticism of broadcasting of college sports events, night football and post-season gridiron contests.

Ohnaga Peons Look On Fearfully As Gyro Leaves for El Paso

PRESIDIO, TEXAS, June 17 (UP)—Several scores of fearful but interested Mexicans cheered as the autogiro in which Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoffman left for El Paso, Texas, from New York to Santa Barbara, Calif., left Ohnaga at 11:40 a. m. today.

The machine had been held by Mexican authorities since it wandered over the border here Sunday after Hoffman followed the Orient instead of the Southern Pacific Railroad from Marfa.

An order from Mexico City released the gyro today and the curious natives turned out to see it depart. Several white-haired peons crossed themselves as the machine took the air.

Troops were posted about the gyro during its stay to prevent the curious damaging it.

El Paso was scheduled as the best stop on the route of the Hoffmanns.

Willy Williams. Curtis Bishop, bespectacled racket wizard who should be called Willy Williams, was the only player to have a hand in the match.

An interested-very interested-football fan informs us confidentially that a few flattering offers have come Bill Flowers' way.

Flowers is a crack basketball guard, and could develop into a fair crack prospect. Bill Stevens whipped the youth into shape as a member of the high school quintet, and this year he should be one of the outstanding guards in the state.

He has a nice hovering "ribble," a quick pass, nice footwork, and a great spirit of aggressiveness. He had only one falling last year. He was inclined a bit toward favoritism, leaving Hopper standing out in the cold on a number of occasions while he passed to Tommy Hutto. This, however, is nothing much compared with the things Flowers can do in an athletic way.

Bishop Downs Dunagan To Make Clean Sweep Of Sand Belt Tennis Tourney

A slender Big Spring lad reigned as absolute monarch over the tennis courts of the Sand Belt as Curtis Bishop defeated H. B. Dunagan in the deciding set of their last round singles match that had been delayed from Monday as darkness found them tied at two sets each.

The victory completed Bishop's "sweep" of the tournament championships as he had retained his junior singles title Thursday and paired with George Dabney to cop both junior and senior divisions of the doubles play.

Though the single set lasted but thirty-one minutes the lead changed hands twice, with Bishop staging a rally after trailing 3-4 in games. Two lucky breaks enabled the youngster to tie the score.

The match brought to an end the seventh annual Sand Belt tennis held every year by the Big Spring Tennis Club, and marked the fifth consecutive time that the championships have been held in and upon the local courts.

Though Dunagan was unable to carry his tendency to upset favorably into the finals the round Big Spring business man was easily the more colorful of the pair of finalists. It was he who entered the tournament a complete dark horse, completely ignored in earlier draws because of an ankle broken last fall and lack of practice, and upset in succession players like George Dabney of Randolph College, Russell Snaper of Colorado College, and Ferguson, both of Midland.

Stoner Expected To Be Powerful Factor In Putting Cats In Race

FORT WORTH, June 17. (UP)—The return of L.H. Stoner to the Fort Worth Cats by the Philadelphia Athletics, brings back to the Texas league a man who pitched an earned run average of .54 in four games last year, and a man who won 14 and lost 4 games for the Cats last year.

Stoner's return gives the Cats their big three of last year. It was Stoner, Dick McCabe and Dick Whittworth who pitched the Cats into the second half pennant last year and then beat Wichita Falls in the play-off. This season, Whittworth and McCabe have been winning more than their share of games, but have had little help from other Cat hurlers, but with Stoner back in the fold, Manager Phelps is confident that his three stars will prove as good this year as last.

Stoner thrived on night baseball last season. He will get to pitch more under the moon this year because more clubs have installed lights. On July 30 last year, Stoner established a modern Texas league strikeout record when he fanned 18 San Antonio batters in a night game. In that game, San Antonio used ten pitchers and all except Leslie Flippin struck out at least once.

Stoner has always been something of a sensation in the Texas league, and if he is anywhere near his old pitching form, the Cats could not have secured a better man to help them regain pennant ground lost the last several weeks because of indifferent pitching.

SPARKY ADAMS, MIDGET, PROVES A GIANT AT THIRD AND AT BAT

NEW YORK (INS)—One of the young men quite overlooked in the general run of explanation for St. Louis success this season is none other than Earl J. Adams—Sparky to the boys—who has traveled the baseball highways, and byways for more than ten years.

Sparky is a third baseman and has been turning in a rather neat job of it for Gashby Street & The Park corner was tagged as the one weak cylinder in the Cardinal machine in the pre-season baseball calculations, one of the spots which would bog down the St. Louis drive for another pennant.
