THE "HELPLESS" FEMALE driver need no longer be helpless if she learns and follows some of the more simple checks that make reliable, low-cost use of the car more certain.

You don't have to be driving your car to check the brake system. Press steadily on the brake pedal for 15 seconds. If the pedal feels spongy or starts fading toward the floor, then it's time for a professional to check the system. Failing brakes can be dangerous to you and others on the road.

The wheels of your car won't respond properly if the steering mechanism is not in good working order. If you have power steering you'll need to have the motor running to make this test. Turn the wheel sharply in both directions, if there's a sharp squealing noise it's a warning that something is not functioning properly. Professional service is re-

WHILE DRIVING, if you detect a slight shimmy or wiggle, it's an indication that the front end part linking the wheels to the steering column needs to be checked for wear. This wiggle is also responsible for excessive wear on the tires. The ball joints, a mechanical part of the car in the front end, controls this connection.

One of the newest servicing developments is a compound which in most cases, permits ball-joint repair rather than replacement cost. This compound developed by the 3M Company, is injected into the weight carrying balljoint chambers like grease. It then hardens to provide a snugger fit of the parts eliminating the wiggle of the front wheels.

CHANCES ARE your're going to have to drive in some rain. Windshield wipers are an important as well as obvious part of the car and they wear with age. Blades last about one year with normal use. Replace them in the autumn, for this is the season when they get the most use. If you live in a cold region remember to have freezeproof fluid put into the washer system to assure good visibility.

Besides getting occasional gusts of air, tires have to be checked for wear and tear. Hitting curbs, rocks or sharp objects take their toll on the life of the tire. Tread also wears down after continuous use. Postponing replacements is a dangerous bit of economy. Walk around the car and check for wornout treads, scrapes or cracks in the tires. If any of these are visible,

it's time for replacement. SPARE BULBS ADVISED

LIGHTS ARE IMPORTANT. Yet we take it for granted that they are always in proper working order. A bulb will go out without warning, so, frequent checks are advisable. This is easily done by turning on the lights and walking around the car. Check the headlamps for high and low beans.

Also check turn signals, parking and brake lights. If you can wield a screwdriver, it's not difficult to replace a burnt-out bulb. It's advisable to carry a set of spare bulbs in the glove compartment of the car to save you a trip to the service station. They are readily available at most gas stations and auto supply stores.

Besides these simple checks that you can make yourself there is a list of items in your owner's manuel that should be checked regularly. Keeping a records of these check-ups and adhering to it is the surest guarantee you have of reliable, low-cost use of your car.

MILLIONS DRIVE

NOW THAT YOU KNOW how easy it is to take care of your car, there's no reason in the world why you should have to play the helpless female. Unless you prefer it that way!

The helpless female stranded on the roadside is no longer considered chic in our automated, equally minded society. Women have made their stand for equal rights and part of that independence has been more mobility. Thus, more and more women are driving cars, their own or the family's. In fact, of the 102 million motorists in this country, 41 per cent are women.

Automobile maintenance is something that had always been left to the man. The implication was that understanding the working parts of a car was something for greasy-haired teen age boys with souped up jalopies. But today that is not necessarily the case. Low cost maintenance is something that you can take upon yourself without going to trade school or subscribing to a hot rod magazine.

Like anything else with moving parts, automobiles have to be checked regularly to serve you better. Breakdowns can be avoided and repair costs minimized by making some basic checks for yourself at regular intervals. Knowing what to look for will help you when it's time to have your car professionally serviced. BATTERY CHECK

BATTERIES ARE the No. 1 cause for car failure. They invariably pick the most inopportune time to conk out. Yet dead batteries are easy to avoid. The average life expectancy for a battery is two years. Knowing how long ago the battery was replaced is valuable information.

Here are some pointers on the care of the battery: Keep the water level high enough to cover the plates, but don't fill it all the way to the top. Drinking water is fine, but distilled water is preferable. Keep the terminals and cables free of corrosion. This can be done simply with water and wire brush (making sure the ignition is off before doing this, though) Lithium grease can be applied with an applicator, or a corrosionresistant spray is available. Just press

Olton school board member resigns due to vandalism

Floyd Prentice resigned from the board of trustees of Olton Independent School district Monday night, effective immediately.

In a letter prepared for reading at the end of the meeting, Prentice said, "I find it will be impossible for me to be an effective board member without placing my family and property in jeopardy. Therefore, I hereby tender my resignation as secretary and member of the board effective as of this date. The past two years and 10 months have been an enlightening experience and I enjoyed working with each of you. Wishing for you a more tolerable future, Floyd Prentice."

Prentice's resignation was prompted by numerous incidents of vandalism of his property.

His pickup was damaged Friday night as it sat in his drive way at his home west of Olton. Silver paint, tar and paint remover were poured on it and a note stating that he had voted the wrong way on the hair code was attached to the pickup.

Boards with nails pointing up were pushed underneath the tires.

Further investigation during the day Saturday, revealed that a well motor on the Prentice home placed had been damaged. Apparently the vandals had taken a hammer and beaten everything on the motor that could be hit.

Prentice, who operates a flying service, had a plane in his hanger located on Highway 70 west of town. The plane had also been damaged.

Authorities report that an investigation is being conducted.

The board accepted his resignation and agreed that since an election was forthcoming in April, there would be no need to appoint another person to fill the vacancy.

The board called for an election April 3. Doris Watt was named absentee election clerk with Edna Price as deputy absentee election clerk. Fred Hicks was named to serve as election judge. Terms of Johnny Hodges and Prentice expire in April. Hodges has filed for re-election.

We Can Make It

"THERE IS NOTHING TO DO" is one of the most plaintive cries to be heard. This is strange, because there are so many things to do. True, but the doing requires study, discipline, some sacrifice and continuing effort. There are many worthwhile things for all of us to do, if we are sincerely interested.

IDLENESS IS HARMFUL to us, and there is no reason for being idle. There are jobs to be filled, and people to fill them; but these jobs remain unfilled. These jobs may not be easy or prestigious, but they are honorable. There is self-improvement to be made, and we have the time, opportunity and everything else essential to this rewarding activity. Let us not continue o rewarding activity. Let us not continue on our foolish way saying, "there's nothing to do.'

THERE IS "SOMETHING TO". There are skills to develop, trades to learn, good books to read, and arts and crafts of all kinds to learn. There are all kinds of services to perform, and a thousand-and-one other constructive things to do. Could it be that the problem is not that there is nothing to do, but that we don't want to do what needs to be done? If it is, we must change our attitude.

IT MAY BE that too many of us are too concerned with petty, meaningless and frivolous activities; and permit these to take our time, energy, thought and abilities. If these were satisfying and rewarding, the people who are concerned with them would not be saying that there's

SOUTH PLAINS

Everyone knows the top corn hybrid for this area. PIONEERs brand 3369A is the most planted hybrid in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. Not everyone realizes, however, that there are other PIONEER hybrids that do as well as this famous one . . . even beat it in some respects. You should consider them, too. They'll help you get exactly the right hybrid mix for whatever mother nature has in store for this

This hybrid is grown on more acres of Texas, Okishoms and New Mexico corn land than any other variety. It has set yield records year after year, 3369A has excellent seeding vigor, good roots, stalks and ear retention and excellent toerance to blight, plus it dries fast and shells easily.

An exciting new hybrid that has an even greater yield potential than 3369A. The added yield potential comes, in part, from a little later maturity while having the root and stalk strength to stand until harvest. It stays green later, too. This one can add significant profit to your corn crop.

Another new, good yielding hybrid. It's a little earlier than 3369A with exceptionally fast dry down. It has made from $9 to $12 more profit per acre than ordinary hybrids because of its fast dry down. It has long siender ears on small. hard cobs . . . really great for combining.
