

School Grounds To Be Improved

WORK STARTED THIS WEEK on a project that will eventually see the barren playgrounds surrounding the Littlefield Elementary Schools improved with a complete landscaping program. The City of Littlefield and several Littlefield citizens donated time and trucks this week to get the first loads of soil on the area before cold, icy weather halted the operation late in the week. Grass is to be planted on the grounds plus trees will be planted to replace the Elms that were recently removed. School officials report that more trucks for hauling soil are needed.

East Texas Humorist Olton Banquet Speaker

Speaking "real good East Texas" and "fair English" country humorist Bob Murphey entertained an Olton Chamber of Commerce crowd Monday night with his homespun philosophy about America.

Filling his talk with dozens of East Texas jokes, Murphey, who lives in Nacogdoches, settled down to a theme of "hard work" to cure the problems of America. Encouraging Olton CC members to "roll up their sleeves" and promote their community, Murphey said in his flat East Texas accent... "they haven't found a substitute yet for plain old hard work. We have computers, calculators, gadgets, electronics and space programs... but it still takes hard work to get the job done right."

Murphey was the featured speaker of the program which was highlighted by the naming of three Olton citizens for special awards. Royce Collins was named Farmer of the Year, Frances Redinger as Woman of the Year, and Gene Trotter as Man of the Year. Master of ceremonies was Wendell Potts with incoming CC President Dale Cary introducing past president, Larry Garvin and the new CC directors.

Murphey began his talk in usual fashion with a couple of jokes on the master of ceremonies. It was then he repeatedly fired one joke behind another, rarely giving the audience time to recover in between.

Murphey said he has spoke to a group of Georgia farmers only the week before and congratulated them on having a speaker from Texas, "which is the birthplace of George Washington, father of our country."

"Now y'all are laughing at that, just like those Georgia boys did," Murphey said as the audience smiled. "It's time we set the record straight. Old George was from Texas."

Murphey then told about the elder Mr. and Mrs. Washington homesteading in the dry Rolling Plains of Texas where there was little vegetation except for Mr. Washington's pet cactus plant, which he loved and cared for. However, the elder Mr. Washington came home one day to find the cactus plant cut down. He asked young George who cut down the cactus plant. "I cannot tell a lie," Murphey said imitating George's voice. "I done it with my little bowie knife." Murphey said it was then that the elder Washington loaded up his family belongings with Mrs. Washington and young George and headed for Virginia.

On the trip to Virginia the father told young George: "Any man who cannot tell a lie has got no business living in Texas."

Murphey then described some of his East Texas friends which included "Christmas" Whitehead, who was a tall, slender young man.

"He was six-foot, eight-inches tall," said Murphey. "He was so skinny he could have taken a bath in a shotgun barrel. If he had growed another inch he would have begun to fork out."

Murphey then related another humorous incident about a friend who recently went to Dallas in his car—a '56 Pontiac.

"Now don't y'all laugh," Murphey said. "He had new points and plugs in it and brand new retread Firestones."

The speaker thanked the banquet committee for not serving chicken at the banquet. He said he used to like chicken until an incident happened to him as a boy. Murphey drew out a long story about visiting an aunt for a large Sunday dinner and her preparing an extra large meal with "lots of that fried chicken. If Col. Sanders could take lessons from Aunt Lucas then he would be a General instead of just a Colonel."

Murphey said he had already eaten several pieces of chicken when his mother told him to let other guests have some before he ate anymore. But Aunt Lucas came to his rescue.

"She said to my mother— 'Let that child have all the chicken he can eat... My chickens here (are sick) and have been dying off faster than we can eat them all anyway.'"

"Never have cared much for chicken since."

Murphey bragged on the "culture" of East Texas and said that two women from Dallas stopped by Nacogdoches to hear the local orchestra play. The concert was in a small barn-like concert hall and the women were trying to determine what the orchestra was playing.

One argued that it was a "waltz from Horowitz." The other woman said she thought it was a "minuet from Mozart." Still another Dallas woman thought it was an "overture from Bach."

The women then noticed a poster at the front of the concert hall and one woman went to read it to see what the orchestra was playing. She came back and told the others: "We were all wrong— it's a 'refrain— from spitting.'"

Murphey then told about watching men at a convention playing hopscotch— "and using real Scotch." And then about how women are taking over the business world. He said women were responsible for 80 percent of all the spending that goes on in America— "and I'm confident they're charging the other 20 percent."

Murphey then used several humorous examples to point out how "motivation" plays an important role in developing a community.

"You not only have to have high goals and aims— but you also must have people willing to pull the trigger."

Using a humorous approach, Murphey criticized the government's programs of welfare to "encourage us not to work." He asked if Chamber members had gotten into a rut— a grave with both ends kicked out.

"Things have changed and we should be ready to change with them to stay ahead. There are two types of farming today— the scientific farming approach and the nonprofit farming approach."

"We all must pay the price of hard work if we expect life to be what we want it to," he said. "That's what makes the free enterprize system what it is— people who want to work a little harder because their proud to."

UNCLE SAM
Is Visiting Littlefield

Uncle Sam Will Visit Tomorrow At LJHS

Uncle Sam is coming to Littlefield Monday.

Tomorrow at 2 p.m. Uncle Sam in Action (USA) will give a program for the third through seventh grades in the Littlefield Junior High Auditorium. Monday night he will be a guest of the Littlefield Girl Scouts when he provides the entertainment at their annual Father-Daughter Banquet at the Community Center.

Uncle Sam in Action is a unique and provocative program developed and created by Lois Dunlap of Abilene, an unashamedly patriotic man who felt a positive attitude toward citizenship should be promoted in America.

Since American Education Week, in October, 1970, he has devoted himself to a personalized portrayal of our nation as Uncle Sam complete with red, white and blue costume, tall hat, and whiskers.

The governing board of Uncle Sam in Action consists of 24 active and vitally interested citizens of the Big Country who also "stump" for Uncle Sam.

Chartered as a non-profit organization on January 11, 1971, Uncle Sam in Action has grown into a viable and valuable asset to schools, parent-teacher groups, 4-H clubs, scouts, and civic and service Clubs of the state of Texas.

Last year alone, Uncle Sam traveled thirty-five thousand miles, gave three hundred and thirty-five programs to approximately fifty thousand people. Ninety percent of this work was done with America's youth.

Uncle Sam makes himself available as often as possible to present his programs to any group which requests them. At the present time a small fee to cover travel and lodging must be charged because the organization exists solely on donations from interested citizens.

Involvement is the secret of Uncle Sam in Action's success with youth and adult groups. He makes them feel important by treating them as important. He asks questions, he probes, he encourages people to discuss their viewpoints, to see differing sides to key issues. These techniques stimulate real thinking, and thinking dispels apathy.

Uncle Sam in Action is designed to make government and civics come alive to participants, and to restore their interest in and understanding of the principles of democratic government. Democracy can only survive when controlled by a vital and active citizenry. Uncle Sam attempts to revive the vitality and potency of real representative government; and to instill a new understanding of the future leaders.

Uncle Sam treats civics as a totality of the "whole" person: his environment, his reasoning, his behavior, his comprehension, his health, and his acceptance of and into society. Basically, Uncle Sam in Action promotes good citizenship through doing NOW in training for being later.

DEALERS SEEKING NEW MISS FORD COUNTRY

That attractive blonde that you have seen on television, in the newspaper, and on outdoor billboards could very well be a redhead in 1976... or a brunette... or perhaps another blonde. "The verdict will be out by mid April when the 'Spirit of '76 Miss Ford Country' is chosen", a contest official said.

The current Miss Ford Country, Sandy Lankford from Lubbock, Texas, will assist in the selection, visiting major dealers to publicize the program.

"Being Miss Ford Country has been a lot of fun... I've learned a lot and meeting so many nice people throughout my travels has been just great", Sandy said... She continued "it's a lot of hard work but it's a great opportunity for a girl to get valuable experience, making television commercials, personal appearances and working with so many talented people."

"We are encouraging everyone to enter, and the contest itself will be a lot of fun. You can register at Carlisle-Oldham Ford in Littlefield, include a recent picture and then get ready for a call to come to the regional contest in early April and the final judging in Dallas on April 16th... I have had a great time and look forward to crowning the new Miss Ford Country"... Sandy concluded.

The contest closes on March 27th and will be followed by regional contests in Lubbock, Waco, Odessa, San Angelo, Longview, Sherman and Wichita Falls during the first week in April. Regional winners and runnersup will travel to the Le Baron Hotel in Dallas, contest headquarters, for the final judging April 16th and 17th.

LCC Homecoming Activities Set

More than 3,000 persons are expected to pack the Lubbock Christian College campus the weekend of Feb. 14 for Homecoming, Master Follies, and High School Day.

Except for the LCC Lecture-ship, held each year in the fall, Homecoming weekend draws more than any other event.

The weekend will officially get underway with a 8 p.m. performance of Master Follies on Friday, Feb. 13. The show includes a combination of skits, singing and choreography by members of the campus social clubs who will be competing for top honors. Students started practicing in December for this year's show.

Other Master Follies performances will be at 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on Saturday. Tickets, which are priced at $1.50 for students and $2.50 for adults, are still available for the Saturday morning performance. The other two shows are sold out.

Special guests of the college at the Saturday morning performance will be children from the Children's Home of Lubbock and from Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Lubbock.

Former students will start Homecoming day early by having breakfast with their former social clubs at several restaurants in Lubbock. Exact time and places of social club breakfasts may be obtained by calling Director of the Ex-students Association, Terry Brown at 792-3221, ext. 304.

From the breakfasts, ex-students will register at the Greenlawn Church of Christ, located adjacent to the college campus, between 9 and 9:30 a.m. A special chapel for ex-students will be at the church at 9:30. Bob Crass, a former student at LCC who is now a minister at Canyon, will be the main speaker.

Other activities will include reunions for the classes of 1961, 1966 and 1975 and an alumni baseball game against this year's team.

High School Day will get underway with a mixer in the Betty Hancock Campus Center between 9 and 10 a.m. The high schoolers will attend Master Follies at 10 a.m., chapel at 1:30 p.m., go to a concert at 2:30 and attend a 3:30 movie. Both lunch and dinner will be served to students in the college cafeteria.

Counselors will be available to answer students' questions concerning programs available at LCC, financial assistance and other matters.

Both Homecoming and High School Day will conclude with the basketball game against the College of Santa Fe at 8 p.m.

The Homecoming queen will receive her crown at halftime ceremonies. Finalists in this year's competition are Gail Meeks, of Farwell; Mary Lou Phillips, of Lubbock, and Laurie Rizan, of Roswell, N.M.

Until the ceremonies, only the judges will know who will receive the crown. The other two queen candidates will serve on the court with freshman attendant Jackie Brown, of Truscott, and sophomore attendant Beth Flow of Austin.

Rodeo Club Plans Dance

The Amherst Rodeo Club will have a Valentine's Dance at the Community Center on February 13th from 8 to 12:00 p.m.

This dance is for junior high and high school students in the area.

The admission is 75 cents per person. Money will go to help build an arena.

The parents of the members of the rodeo club will chaperon the dancing. No drinking will be allowed.

Rock and western music will be played.

State Of The Union

Presidents, CBS, NBC, and ABC New York City, N.Y.

Gentlemen:

Through your networks, we have heard the State of the Union by Republican President Gerald Ford. Then, Tuesday night, under the fairness doctrine, we heard the State of the Union from Democrat Senator Muskie of Maine.

Under that same fairness doctrine, don't you think perhaps we should hear a State of the Union from Mr. Taxpayer?

Since he wouldn't be running for election this year, we might actually get a down to earth, grassroots picture of the actual state of the Union.

And unfortunately, since you three gentlemen have all chosen to headquarter in Manhattan instead of perhaps locating one network on the west coast and another in the Midwest, the actual state of the union is far from the picture regularly painted.

We think a state of the union addressed by Mr. Taxpayer would reveal a consensus among taxpayers of this nation that things are in one helluva of a mess.

And most of the mess can be traced to the actions or inactions of the federal government.

You might find that most of us compare the federal government to cockroaches: it's not what they eat and carry off but what they fall into and mess up.

Our taxpayer state of the union would reveal that most Americans believe that the federal government, once away from their constitutional field of defense and foreign policy, is the nation's least likely candidate to conduct any program properly, efficiently, or economically.

Education is a case in point.

Dear Wade:

I would like to use this column to express the school's 'thanks' to everyone that has helped us so far on our program to improve the playgrounds surrounding our Elementary Schools.

A special word of thanks to the City of Littlefield, Bobby Nelson, Jerry Tunnell, Barry Armes, Ronald Dutton and Jimmy Jones for their work in hauling many loads of soil this week.

We still have a long way to go but we will get it done.

Anyone who would like to help in this project will be certainly welcome.

Sincerely,

HISTORICAL DRAWINGS BY JOSEPH BOGGS BEALE (1841-1926)

"BATTLE OF TRENTON"

When the British opened the way for an invasion of New Jersey, Washington was forced to evacuate his troops across the Delaware River. Winter was coming on, and instead of going after Washington, British General Howe ordered his troops into winter quarters. The British had left a garrison of Hessian troops to guard Trenton. General Washington, running out of time because the enlistment period of many of his soldiers was running out, ordered an attack on Trenton on December 26, 1776. The attack was successful, and the American army took more than 1,000 prisoners. From the collection of American National Insurance Company, Galveston, Texas.

A Woman's View

PEARL BRANDON

I RECEIVED A NOTE this week from a very dear person who has had a lot of sorrow in her life. She said her mother's motto was "Brighten the corner where you are," and that her mother lived that philosophy and taught it to her children.

Isn't it wonderful about mothers, especially good ones. They stand by you under all conditions. When reading about criminal cases in the news, it is the mother sitting on the sidelines praying for her son or daughter, no matter what they have done.

It is the mother who lays awake at night until they come in and are safely in bed. It is she who rejoices when her children are living right and doing good in the world.

I have a sister-in-law who has raised a fine bunch of children. When her children brought in fine report cards or did something outstanding, she was never surprised. She would just say, "Of course, I knew you could do it."

THERE IS MUCH TALK now about woman's lib. I hope they don't change the way of women too much. We are the mothers of the race. We need good homes and fine husbands for protection while going through the bearing of the young and caring for them through the tender years of their lives. A baby needs its mother and they both need the love and protection of the father.

I like being a woman and receive the little courtesies from men, like opening the door for you and helping you with your coat. I like the little compliments from men and I am an old woman. I like for my sons to be concerned about me—as they are.

We don't have to act strong when we feel weak. Most men feel they do. We can cry and no one thinks less of us, although I confess I cry very little.

THE MOTHER OF JESUS followed him to the cross. Many other mothers have suffered greatly too. And not just mothers, fathers suffer too where their children are concerned; like the parents of Patty Hearst. I feel so sorry for them. The last two years have been a nightmare for them. I pray for them—money doesn't keep you from suffering.

FOR THE DEAR LADY who sent me the poem by Helen Steiner Rice, I am using the last few lines.

"So at the place God placed you, begin at once to do,
Little things to brighten up the lives surrounding you.

For if everybody brightened up the spot on which they are standing
By being more considerate and a little less demanding.

This old world would very soon eclipse the 'Evening Star'
If everybody brightened up the corner where they are!"

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Better Behavior

By BOB

MORE AND MORE is being written and said about the problems and difficulties of the time in which we live. It is relatively easy to get the feeling that there is nothing in present-day living but troubles. Worse than this, there doesn't seem to be very many solutions. In fact, the whole view has a very heavy tone of hopelessness. When the felt despair is added to the normal concern about these problems and difficulties, we have put ourselves in a predicament.

THERE ARE TROUBLES, and there will be troubles always; but there is much in our living experiences that is pleasant and very worthwhile. Of course, the troubles are very real and our concern about how to deal with them is certainly justified. Nevertheless, we must never permit them to overshadow the pleasant and worthwhile things of life. Let us see the problems and difficulties as they are, but never make them or let them become more than they are.

A BETTER WORLD is the aim and the desire of the majority of people, and many persons are constantly planning and working for this. The interest and the efforts must be continued, because they are not in vain. Of course, it is unrealistic to expect a paradise here; but we can have a world in which we can live and function with reasonable success. Much of the real satisfaction of life is found in the knowledgeable, sincere and continuing efforts to make the world better.

"BETTER BEHAVIOR" will be a better world. It may be that we have very little to correct, or improve, or manage the behavior of others. There is something significant to do. We can be constantly improving and wisely managing our behavior. This may not seem to be very much help, when compared that is obviously out of order in a human scene; but it is something that will usually be more than it seems to be, because, when you and I have "better behavior", our influence and improvement is stronger. This spread.

"A BETTER WORLD begins with me" is an observation which has been made often by many persons. If taken seriously, as it should be, problems will be solved and difficulties will be overcome. Troubles will not vanish, but they will be less and less worrisome.

IT IS SELF-EVIDENT that the world is never going to be the improved world most people desire, until "better behavior" becomes the desire and aim of great numbers of persons. Underlying most of the troubles we see and hear about, can be seen a faulty behavior that causes and ports them.

WHEN ENOUGH PEOPLE have the strong enough desires for a better world to move up to "better behavior" there will be a better world.

LOOKS LIKE WE'RE in pretty dire straits. Being caught between Ol' Jack frost and the gas company can be pretty uncomfortable. Unaccustomed as I am to longhandles and thermal underwear, they're beginnin' to look pretty temptin'.

And you needn't turn to the electric company for help. When you use their wares for heatin' purposes, you're just turnin' the other cheek.

HOW WE ENVY those guys livin' in the vicinity of a large dam and generatin' plant!— Just let the fallin' water generate the electricity and be able to stick your tongue out at the fuel companies.

Of course that's just wishful thinkin'.— Meantime, back at the ranch, I'm beginnin' to think about a fireplace. Don't know just where I could come up with enough cow-wood or mosquito stumps to fire the thing (Goodness knows $100 and more for cordwood is pretty high, itself). Then maybe I could find some use for the paper in all that junk mail I'm gettin'.

MEANTIME, I SUPPOSE, I'll keep shiverin' before a turned-down thermostat, and practically have a stroke when I get my fuel and light bills!

I'M NOT SURE IF I want to play with Turn Row anymore, or see what he called me in his gibberish?— An animal, that's what I didn't think was clever or benevolent in the least.

I'm sure he was born of good parents or they'd have drowned him an early age. I'm tryin' hard to be forgiving in my heart for him.

WHEN, AND IF I do, I just want to send him a new fire plug as a token of peace.

NOTICED THAT UNION Carbide's Bound Brook, New Jersey, chemical plant has been coordinating a two-year contract for pencils - $20,000-worth-manufactured by the Blackfeet Indian Writing Company of Browning, Montana, near Glacier National Park. As its name suggests, this is a company run by Indians - and it is delivering a high-quality product.

Which all goes to prove the point that companies run by minorities can play a part in the American economy - and what's more can perform admirably when they get the right bread!

Auto Validation Stickers Something New For Texans

This year it is "something old, something new" for most Texas license plates.

The something old is the five-year license plate issued in 1975 already mounted on the vehicle. The plates were designed to last for at least five years, being made with more durable materials than the one-year plates issued in earlier years.

The something new will be a red, white and blue validation stickers to be affixed in the embossed rectangle at the upper left-hand corner of the license plate issued a year ago. Affixing the sticker will make the plate good for another year's driving.

The new system not only saves the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation $8.5 million over the five-year period, but it relieves the burden of learning a license number for most of the state vehicle owners, not to mention the chore of removing and replacing the entire license tag.

Holders of personalized plates and other special license plates will receive a new plate, but the majority of Texas vehicle owners will receive stickers and keep the same registration numbers.

The vehicle registration was stated Feb. 1 and continues through March. The new stickers must be affixed by midnight April 1 or drivers will be subject to arrest and penalties.

Vehicles must be registered with county tax assessor-collector of the county of the owner's residence. All counties operate substations which registration fees may be paid

Church Ceremony Unites Ann Mackey, Steve Taylor

Ann Mackey and Steve Taylor were united in marriage Saturday afternoon on January 24 at the First Church of Littlefield. The ceremony was performed by Pastor Kenemer, pastor of Mrs. Thomas W. Taylor of Littlefield.

bridgroom is the son of Mrs. Don Garrard of Borger, and the grandson of Mrs. Hubert Taylor, of Amherst.

The vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with two large spiral candelabra containing ivory cathedral tapers and centered by an arrangement holding a memory candle. Each candelabra was flanked by a large basket of blue and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of champagne batiste. The dress yoke, which extended nearly to the waist band, was centered by a panel with pearl buttons down the front. Each side of the yoke was embroidered. Yoke, panel, waistband and neckline were all edged in narrow cotton lace. The full lantern sleeves were gathered onto a wide band which had an embroidered ruffle that fell over her hands. The skirt had three tiers of slightly gathered ruffles which were put together with narrow cotton lace.

She carried a tapered bouquet of Frenched champagne carnations with touches of blue. Her bouquet rested on a white Bible borrowed from Mrs. Dirk Reel. For something old she wore a cameo belonging to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Carl Lewellyn of Lubbock. The traditional blue garter was worn, and in each shoe were pennies minted the year of the bride's and groom's birth.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Marvin Matthews of Lubbock, and Mrs. Randy Miller of Amherst was bridesmaid. They wore identical formal length dresses of medium blue India muslin with fitted bodices and rounded yokes which had three banks of champagne lace and were edged with the same lace which was gathered. Their lantern sleeves had three rows of lace around the band. The A-line skirts had a 12-inch ruffle at the bottom. Both carried colonial bouquets of champagne, maple sugar and blue daisy mums.

Best man was Randy Miller of Amherst; Larry Seago of Borger was groomsmen. Ushers were Deno Sullins, brother of the groom, and Mark Brantley, brother-in-law of the groom, and both of Amherst.

Mrs. A. J. Kennemer accompanied Miss Mary Curnutt of Borger who sang "Sunrise, Sunset" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Guests were registered by Miss Carrie Ware of Littlefield.

The mother of the bride wore a formal length dress of light coral. She wore a corsage of cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother wore a formal length dress of medium avocado. Her corsage was also of cymbidium orchids. The bride's mother was escorted by her son, Alan Mackey of Lubbock.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. The bride's table had ecru lace runners centered by a silver candelabra which held the bride's bouquet and was flanked by the attendants' bouquets. Mrs. Alan Mackey served the three tiered cake. The punch was served from a silver punch bowl by Miss Leigh Kirby of Littlefield.

Mrs. Virgil Morton of Anton and Mrs. Mark Brantley of Amherst served coffee and devil's food cake at the groom's table. The table was centered by a treasure chest of fruit atop a crocheted tablecloth. Virgil Morton played the piano and rice bags were distributed by Bryan Lester of Lubbock, cousin of the bride.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Harley Bussanmas, Mrs. Bob Rogers, Mrs. Bryan Lester and Mrs. Raymond Mackey.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of Littlefield High School. The groom is a 1974 graduate of Amherst High School and is employed by Gunn-Campbell Well Service of Borger. The couple will reside at 118 McGee in Borger.

Study Club Heals Oriental Program

ANTON— Mrs. Charles Edgemon provided experiences of the Orient for the Anton Study Club Monday night through slides, discussion, and food samples.

Mrs. Edgemon and her husband visited Australia and Hong Kong. She contrasted the two places describing the roominess of Australia to the crowded conditions of Hong Kong. Australia was originally settled as a penal colony from Great Britain. So the people of Australia are fierce fighters and lovers of freedom. She said, "The national anthem of Australia, 'Waltzing Matilda' depicts this love of freedom where it says, 'You'll never take me alive!'"

She said that they were impressed by the lack of trash on the Australian streets. There were no signs concerning trash. "The people don't throw trash around," she said, "because of their pride in their country."

Describing their visit to a zoo, she said that there are 300 varieties of kangaroos. Hong Kong was crowded, and dirty. Most of the people live in high rise apartments with usually more than one family in an apartment.

The food she served included: bean jelly, preserved olives, sesame seed hard candy, sweet and sour dried plums, dried peanuts, and a tea cake. She demonstrated and taught the use of chopsticks. In the business meeting the club voted to give Mrs. Anton Cemetery money for upkeep, and to repair of the Social money raised from sale.

Mrs. Dewey Hillfield, invited the club's installation at May 3. The last of the Fenton glass plates commemorating the club was received. This plate is "King of Freedom." Orders taken for those who plates. They are either white.

Mrs. Emmett Hillfield, hostess for the refreshments were Mrs. Pat Byrum and Landers to 17 members two guests, Mrs. and Mrs. Kenneth C. The next meeting February 16 at 7 p.m. school cafeteria. A luncheon will be served to and guests. The program presented by Landers on "Following the National Trails."

Musical Lions Performers

A Lions Club group from Floyd, N.M., which has sponsored a three-night jamboree annually for 19 years, will be guest performers for the next South Plains College Country Jamboree, announced Nathan Tubb, SPC academic dean and a jamboree organizer.

Boasting eight musicians and five vocalists, the Lions Club group has made their jamboree a community affair, said Tubb. "The 'Cool Water Trio' from Lubbock also are tentatively scheduled to perform for the monthly jamboree, slated Feb. 28 in the SPC Auditorium.

Yet the double standard set by Saturday night's, Jan. 31 jamboree may be hard to beat.

"We had the best attendance ever, more than 400 persons, at Saturday night's performance," Dean Tubb reported. "And audience reaction revealed it was the best jamboree we've had to date," he added.

Farmers Losing Policy Control

Farmers are finding it increasingly difficult to be heard in Washington.

"Producer interests in agricultural policy are taking a secondary position to interests of foreign policy, consumerism and labor. Secretary Butz is no longer calling the shots on farm policy. Unless farmers are able to take charge, farm programs may actually be a noose around the producer's neck."

That's the contention of Dr. Ronald Knutson, economist in marketing and policy for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, who spoke at an Extension Service Press Day banquet at Texas A&M University Jan. 13.

"Producers must consolidate if they are to regain a position of control over agricultural policy," emphasized the Texas A&M University System economist.

Knutson listed two critical policy questions on which producers must evaluate their position: (1) In whose interest is agricultural policy going to be made? (2) How much government involvement should there be?

The economist noted that the overriding concern of producers is the question of the conditions under which they will have access to international markets.

"Food has become an integral part of the policy of detente. As such, it may be used either as a carrot or a stick in diplomacy. The carrot policy involves freely exporting to make foreign governments more dependent on the United States as a source of supply. The theory behind this is that a foreign power will not bite the hand that feeds it.

"On the other hand the stick policy makes access to U.S. grain dependent on support of U.S. policy by the recipient government. If food is used as a stick, the producer is in danger of being denied free market access from time to time."

While food diplomacy receives a lot of attention, organized labor and consumerism stand as even greater threats to producer access to foreign markets, argued Knutson. In both 1973 and 1975 the impact of exports on domestic food prices was the primary reason for export controls. This reflects the fact that President Ford listened to George Meany more than to producers of Secretary Butz.

"Target prices, food reserves and the future of commodity programs stand as the major domestic farm policy issues," noted Knutson. "Farmers feel that in return for full production there must be reasonable assurance that prices will not fall below production costs. They are opposed to reserves because they lower prices. Commodity programs such as those on rice and peanuts appear to be on the way out.

"For agricultural producers to get a fair shake in future farm policies, they must make their voices heard—as one strong body rather than as individual commodity groups. Farmers need a strong right hand in Washington or else they will have to continue catering to the whims of those who desire to use agriculture as a pawn," emphasized the economist.

Burial Benefits Offered By VA

Deaths of 358,000 veterans during fiscal year 1975—209,000 with World War II service—has prompted the Veterans Administration to encourage 29 million living veterans and their families to become familiar with survivor benefits to which they may be entitled.

The FY 1975 death total was 61,000 higher than the total of veterans' deaths recorded in FY 1970. The World War I veteran population fell below the million figure to 963,000 in FY 1975 with the deaths of 108,000 veterans of that era.

Veterans should make dependents aware of survivors' benefits, such as dependency and indemnity compensation for service-connected death or nonservice-connected death pensions for widows and certain children, Jack Coker, VA Regional Director, said.

Burial benefits for wartime and certain peacetime veterans include a maximum $250 burial or cremation allowance, plus a plot allowance not exceeding $150 for veterans buried outside national cemeteries. In lieu of these benefits, an $800 burial allowance is authorized if the veteran's death is service-connected. Claims must be filed two years after burial or cremation.

Burial flags and headstones or grave markers are available for many veterans. The VA provides about 800 applications for headstones and markers, Coker said.

Veterans service organizations, veterans county officers, and local VA offices should be contacted for complete information and assistance in applying for benefits. Such documents include divorce decrees, guardianship or child custody orders, marriage and certificates should be available to validate claims.

Couple Sets Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Waymon Lewis of Littlefield and E. L. Nicholson of Amherst announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Karla, to Glenn Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Peterson of Porto de Luna, N.M.

The wedding will take place Friday, March 5, at 7 o'clock in the First Christian Church of Littlefield. No invitations will be sent. All friends and relatives of the bride and groom are invited to attend.

MR. AND MRS. Herbert Dolle received a windmill replica from their son for Christmas. Mrs. Dolle decided the windmill should be painted red, white and blue for this bicentennial year since the windmill played such a vital part in the settling of this country. Here they show off the finished product in their front yard at 503 E. 12th. [Staff Photo]

Malawi Persecutes Jehovah's Witnesses

"Thousands of Christians are now under brutal persecution in Malawi," declared Augustin Perez, presiding overseer of the Local Spanish Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

"Starting August 19, 1975, more than 34,000 Jehovah's Witnesses from Malawi who fled as refugees to Mozambique in 1972 because of severe persecution were forced to return to Malawi and now experience brutal persecution again. All of this is because of their refusal to join a political party."

Mr. Perez said he had received a report from N. H. Knorr at the Brooklyn Headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses. Knorr said that when a group of Jehovah's Witnesses arrived at the Malawi border, the Minister for the Central Region, Mr. Kumbweza Banda, greeted them: "We welcome you with both hands. You left Malawi of your own accord and now you have returned of your own accord. The Malawi Congress Party is still in power in this country. Go back to your home villages and cooperate with the party officials." Then, referring to the members of the League of Malawi Youth, he said: "My boys are here to see that you do cooperate with the Party." Soon roads in the north and central regions of Malawi were filled with Jehovah's Witnesses on their way back to their home villages.

In some instances the Witnesses were allowed to enter their villages and take up occupancy of houses they abandoned in 1972. However, in most cases Youth Leaguers soon called to ask if they were prepared to buy political party cards. Referring to Jesus' example of political neutrality, the Witnesses refused. Immediately beatings, rapings and other atrocities began again and many were driven from their homes. In Kancheche six Witness women were all raped by several men. In Sosola village a group of men and women, including the local Member of Parliament, Mr. Elson Muluzi, seized the possessions of the Witnesses and drove them from the village.

Early in September youths under the direction of the Kasonjola branch of the Malawi Congress Party visited homes of Jehovah's Witnesses in six villages, demanding they buy party cards. When they refused, the youths stole all their belongings and took them to terrible conditions the Witnesses stripped naked, burned off their bodies and beaten to come out of their noses. This happened in Chimasongwe village long ago under the local chairman Youth League, M. pukupuku, while the members of the Malawi Women.

Because no one was them, many Witnesses were forced to wander cities by day, and nearby forests at the ward of 4,800 fled toward Zambia, but just received say the repatriated to Malawi.

Dr. H. Kamuzu Banda, President of Malawi, instructed the Malawi round up adult Witnesses and put them in detention camps. They are being left behind to stay with relatives or themselves. The government applies this order nursing infants. They have ruthlessly executed. Whole congregations of Witnesses, men and women, have been rounded up in detention to further sure them into buying party membership cards to prevent flight from according to the latest

David Thompson Seeks Commissioner # 3

Dear Friends and neighbors of Lamb County.

I would like to take this opportunity to say it has been a long time dream of mine to, in some way, better serve my community, and the people in it. As commissioner of Precinct 3, I would be in a position to do so.

My wife, Donna, and I have been residents of Lamb County for more than 20 years. We have two daughters, Davida, 13, and Dawnita, 10.

Most of my life my business has been in dirt work, therefore I feel I am fully qualified in the maintenance of the roads in our precinct. But I would give equal time to the other aspects of the office as well.

In our growing community, which I am proud to be a part of, I ask for your support in the upcoming election. I will, to the best of my ability, be the kind of Commissioner, you the people want in that position. Thank you, and again I ask for your much needed support.

'South Pacific' At Wayland

No matter what the climate is outside Wayland Baptist College's Harral Auditorium this week, the inside will sway with tropical breezes carrying native tunes and the aroma of coconuts.

Harral Auditorium will be the setting for the recreation of Rodgers and Hammerstein's Broadway musical, "South Pacific." It will be presented by Wayland's Division of Fine Arts during the Homecoming weekend, Feb. 12-14.

"South Pacific," which opened in 1949, is probably the most universally admired achievement of Rodgers and Hammerstein. In a realistic wartime setting, they created a warm, credible romance between a worldly French planter and a naive Army nurse from Little Rock, while managing to keep this somewhat idyllic relationship in perfect balance with the far-from-idyllic circumstances that brought them together.

The production will be under the direction of Roland Myers, professor of drama, and will be performed at 8:30 p.m. on Feb. 12 and 13, and at 1:30 p.m. on Feb. 14. Tickets will be $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students.

The cast will be headed by John Burke, sophomore, in the character of Emile de Bacque, a French planter who transplanted himself to an island in the South Pacific where he captures the heart of Army nurse Nellis Forbush, played by Carolyn Murphree, a junior. Thirty-nine other students will complete the cast.

County Building Committee Meets

At a meeting of members of the Lamb County Program Building Committee Thursday morning, committee members decided to sponsor a film on extension work for interested clubs and various programs and to incorporate bicentennial efforts toward recognizing outstanding ag students, 4-H members and various agricultural efforts in earlier days of Lamb County's history.

Sub committee reports were given from the family living, crops committee, livestock committee, 4-H committee, and extension agents gave reports.

Waymon Lewis reported that U.S. government priorities are against livestock producers to the extent that producers no longer have faith or confidence. He noted that if priorities are not turned around soon Americans will be eating potatoes like the Russians. He mentioned difficulties including lack of financing, high rates of interest and low or no profits from raising livestock.

Eldon Golke chaired the meeting. Others present were Lewis, Warren Dayton, with Southwestern Public Service; Joe Blevins, SCS executive; W. E. Mitchell and Marvin Bowling, farmers and agricultural board members; Bill

Farris, ACSC county executive director, and three extension agents, Buddy Logsdon, Burch Lobban, and Dorothy Powell.
