County Spelling Bee Scheduled March 15

Lamb County's annual Spelling Bee has been scheduled for 1:30 Saturday afternoon, March 15, in the District Courtroom of the Lamb County Courthouse.

Students are now memorizing words and practicing for the annual event, and attempting to see who will represent their respective schools at the meet.

Winner of the county bee will represent Lamb County in the 23rd annual regional event, slated for 1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 5, in the Smylie Wilson Junior High School auditorium in Lubbock.

According to the Avalanche-Journal of Lubbock, sponsor of the regional spelling bee, the mother of a Pennsylvania speller discovered a misspelled word in the booklet for this year's contest.

The word was "confiscate", which is spelled "confuscate" in the booklet.

More than 500 word changes were made in this year's word practice booklet.

County School Superintendent C. Roy Stevens is serving as director of the county spelling bee, and Dr. Harvie Pruitt, assistant to the president at Lubbock Christian College, is serving as regional director.

Winner of the regional competition will be awarded an individual plaque and an expense-paid trip to the National Spelling Bee in Washington, D.C., June 2-7. Regional winners compete for prizes worth more than $5,000.

Commissioners Court Considers Salary Increases, Maintenance

aturation session of the commissioners court this week, department heads made personal appearances to present their budgets.

In every instance, both elected commissioners and various employees requested salary raises for themselves and their deputies and hired help.

Commissioners voted to keep elected salaries at the present scale, but voted the majority of the county employees' salaries up 3 percent.

A 10 percent increase in the percentage of the time spent on courthouse maintenance was approved for $12,000 per year. An order was passed placing Silbrestre "Shorty" Rangel on the county payroll as courthouse custodian at a salary of $6,500 per year.

Last year's maintenance contract was for $14,000 with Cal Harvey paying for cleaning supplies and paying Rangel $100 a week.

Commissioners said the increase is reflected in the increased cost of cleaning supplies, and the addition of mandatory workmen's compensation, hospitalization and retirement for Rangel as a county employee as opposed to working for an individual.

Other matters of business included the drawing of names from past grand jurors to serve on the 1975 salary grievance committee. Drawn to serve were Raymond Harper of Sudan, John Breedlove and Hubert Henry of Littlefield. These grand jurors will be notified, and can accept or reject as committee members.

Holidays for county officials and employees for 1975 were set as follows:
Memorial Day, May 26; Independence
Day, July 4; Labor Day, Sept. 1; Veteran's Day, Oct. 27; General election day, Nov. 4; Thanksgiving, Nov. 27, 28;
Christmas, Dec. 25, 26; and New Year's,
Jan. 1.

School Board Extends Superintendent's Contract

The Littlefield School board of trustees disposed of their six item agenda in short order Monday night with most of the matters being of routine business.

Superintendent Jack York was given a new two year contract on a 5-1 vote of the trustees with Mickey Ratliff, Benny Zahn, Doug Walden, Werner
Birkelbach, David Hampton and Doyle Winfield voting "for" the contract and Dickie Hopping voting "no" on the contract.

A motion by Walden for a one year contract died for lack of a second and Ratliff made the motion for the contract to run from August 1, 1975 to July 31, 1977 and Zahn seconded the motion with a $700 per year overage payment.

Presently York's salary is at the state minimum salary of $18,300 with no local overage payment.

In other matters, the trustees approved the financial statement, discussed the progress on the new central office location, accepted a bid from Littlefield Service Center for replacement of a public address system for Elementary I that was destroyed by vandalism and approved the textbook committee.

Members of the Textbook Committee are Ethel McBride, Edith Settle, Nettie Belle Hilburn, Erma Dean Waters, Linda
Elms, Teresa Hayden, Nina McBride,
Janie Webb, Judy Ingram, Madge
Cannon, Will Pylant, Daphne Smith, Nancy French, Carol Chantry, Harry
Ford, Linda Campbell, Leon Burch, Kenneth Largent, Alma Faye Carter and Lena Lewis.

The board also approved a resolution to Rep. Bill Clayton concerning school finances.

"Much has been said by many groups concerning restructuring Texas Public School Financing, especially since the U.S. Supreme Court overturned a U.S.
District Court decision and wrote on March 21, 1973.

"The need is apparent for reform in tax systems which may well have relied too long and too heavily on the local property tax. But the ultimate solution must come from the lawmakers and from the democratic pressures of those who elect them."

This decision states in clear language that a source of funds other than the property tax should be used to finance public schools. The sales tax a desired source of such financing. One of the major inequities of most plans is the reliance on 100 percent market value of taxable property, without recognizing the existence of taxable intangible property and failure to provide a method of taxing such intangible properties. In order for equity and fairness to prevail, all properties tangible and intangible should be equally taxed, or all taxes should be raised on the state level utilizing such method as the sales tax.

Heart Association To Meet Tonight

American Heart Association will hold its regular meeting tonight at 7 p.m. in the Willy Room of the Lamb County Electric Co-Operative.

"Ram" and "Whistle", his fine wool Rambouillet, are excited about the show too, and were jumping around in the pen just before this picture was made. (Staff Photo)

'Arsonist' Hits Chief's Business Establishment

Fire Chief Leon Durham's T.V.
Corner was the target of arson early Tuesday morning.

One of the local policemen observed Wednesday morning that "We may have a firebug on our hands."

Estimated damage to the television retail and repair shop is preliminarily set at $15,000 to Durham's inventory and equipment and approximately $7,000 to the building owned by Clinton Byers.

Durham has been fire chief for the Littlefield Fire Department for the past 12 years and has served as a volunteer fireman for approximately 25 years.

Durham's inventory included seven new console colored television sets and 17 good used tv sets.

The fire was discovered at 3:12 a.m.
Tuesday while Littlefield city policemen
Martin Velenzuela and John Depres were patrolling in the 400 block of W. 3rd and noticed smoke coming from the west of Byer's Grain.

Investigation revealed that a hole had been drilled through the stucco on the west side of the TV Corner building at a height of about four feet.

The hole appeared to be bored with a wood brace bit. Complete circles of shavings were on the ground beneath the hole.

It is believed that a liquid combustible material was poured into the drilled hole so the fire would start from the inside of the building.

Extensive damage was done to appliances, walls, rafters, flooring and repair equipment.

Almost at the same time the TV Corner fire was discovered, policemen noticed a flame across the tracks to the north.

Volunteer firemen answered a call to a vacant house on Texas Street.

Lawmen admit there is a strong possibility that the fire in the "flats" was set to deflect attention from the TV Corner, since the house fire was burning faster and already blazing at the time smoke was observed at TV Corner.

Firemen and lawmen suspect arson in the razing of the old Littlefield Hotel recently.

Recognition of past and present District committees, individual and unit recognitions, All-American Round-Up Awards and District Merit Awards made up the program. Dan Butler, District Scout Executive, presided over the dinner.

Guest speaker for the affair was "Chief" Frank Runkles, who has been the Camp Post Ranger the past 25 years. Chief Runkles spoke on the development of Camp Post from the time C. W. Post acquired the land until its present structure at this time. Chief Runkles retired as ranger of Camp Post Jan. 1, 1975 after 25 years as ranger. The chief, as he became known after teaching scouts how to do Indian dancing while a scoutmaster, was the founder of the Nakona Lodge, Order of the Arrow. He holds many awards in Scouting such as the Silver Beaver, Woodbadge Beads, Fifty-Year Veteran Award, and the Vigil Honor in the Order of the Arrow.

Troops and Packs recognized for reaching their all American round-up goals were Pack 608, Pack 610, Pack 620, Pack 622, Pack 625, Pack 629, Pack 635, Pack 638, Pack 640, Pack 641, Pack 642, Pack 644, Pack 659, Pack 673, Pack 675, Pack 676, Troop 600, Troop 601, Troop 608, Troop 612, Troop 613, Troop 614, Troop 625, Troop 635, Troop 639, Troop 640, Troop 641, Troop 642 and Troop 673.

Appreciation Awards were presented to Claude Burnette, Earnest Kyke, B. T. Kisner and Roland McCormick. Troops and Packs were also recognized for their participation in the District events. Jim Blasingame was installed as the new District chairman and B. P. Robinson was recognized for the outstanding work he has done as the past District chairman.

In 1974 four District Merit Awards were presented. This year two Scouters received the District Merit Award. Glenda Wright of Levelland and Leroy Dunlap also of Levelland were the two honored Scouters. Mrs. Wright began her Scouting career as a Sea Scout Advisor in Exploring Ship 163 in 1960. In 1972 she became a Den Leader for Pack 625 of Levelland. She is also serving the district as a Roundtable Chairman and Den Leader Coach. She serves on the Council Cubbing Committee, was on the 1974 Cub Pow Wow staff, and is a member of the Council Leadership Development Committee. She has been to Philmont Scout Ranch for training for two years. She received training in Roundtables in 1973 and Cub Leader Development in 1974.

Leroy Dunlap began his Scouting career as a Scoutmaster in 1955. He is still Scoutmaster of Troop 625, Levelland. He is recognized as a leader in the Council as well as the District. He has received such honors as the Scoutmaster's Key and the Silver Beaver. During this Scouting career he has been active in Scout Leader Development and the Order of the Arrow.

A special award was presented to the Troop or Pack which had the most people attending. Roland Bell, Scoutmaster of Troop 641, of Littlefield received the Roaming Coffee Pot presented by the Roaming Coffee Pot Patrol, for having the most people present.

To The EDITOR

Dear Editor,
 There is a very bad thing going on in this town, and it has been happening a lot on my street.
 That problem is the poisoning of animals, especially dogs. My dog was poisoned while I was gone, and I know of some other people in this vicinity that have had their dogs poisoned also.
 My dog might have barked a lot, but I don't think that is much of a reason for someone to poison him. I know that there isn't much anyone can do about it, but I just wanted you to know just how I felt.
 Now I'm even scared to get another dog that I can love and get love and loyalty in return, in fear that it will get poisoned.
 Well, I think the people will get my point. Thank you.

CRIMESCOPE

By LEE SIMMONS
 Littlefield Police Dept.

The police and the community are inseparable. Neither can function of effectively without the other.
 From the community, the police draw much of their authority and the support necessary to carry out their responsibilities. The community relies on law enforcement performance for its safety and the protection of life and property.
 No effective program to control crime and preserve the public peace can exist without the police and the community united in the effort. Therefore, this weekly article is aimed at improving police-community relations, informing the community of police and public safety programs and laws that effect the community.

 This article is an effort to acquaint the community and the police with each others' problems and to genuinely seek solutions to these problems. Its primary goal is to stimulate a spirit of trust and confidence, vital to reducing lawlessness.
 Community relations is a necessary rung on the "Ladder of Law Enforcement Professionalism."

Simpson Family Left Homeless

The Billy Simpson family, of five miles northwest of Enochs, lost their home Sunday in a fire, and area friends and neighbors are busy helping them with clothing and other needed items.
 The Simpsons fled their home Sunday morning before a blaze engulfed it, spreading so fast that fire units from three area towns could not contain it.
 A fireman at the scene said bitter cold hampered efforts to save the house. "While the fire burned inside water was freezing on the outside walls," he said.

"The nozzles were freezing on our equipment."
 Left without most of their belongings, the Simpsons took their children, ranging from 1 1/2 to 16 years old to stay with relatives in Morton.
 Friends of the Simpsons gave them a gift shower Wednesday in the Three Way School home economics classroom.
 In addition, a disaster fund has been set up at the First State Bank in Morton. Donations are also being accepted at the Maple Glen.

Marriage, Divorce, Death Rates Down In '74, Births Up

In the love and war game in Lamb County this year, it looks like cupid may be losing ground with marriages down. Divorces are down, too, however.
 The county clerk's office recorded 150 marriages during 1974. That is 22 fewer marriages than were recorded in 1973 when 172 marriage licenses were issued.
 The district clerk's office recorded 48 divorces this past year, nine less than the 57 divorces granted in 1973.

But life is going on at a faster clip this past year than the one preceding, with the county birth rate spiraling higher in 1974.
 There were 345 births recorded in 1974, compared to 288 births in 1973. That is 63 more babies born this year.
 And fewer people died during the past year than in 1973. One hundred fifty-one deaths were recorded in 1974 compared to 179 the year before.

Sheriff's Office Books 16 Recently

Sixteen persons have been booked into the Lamb County jail recently on various charges.
 Amherst, Lubbock, Muleshoe and Olton men have been charged with driving while intoxicated.
 A Littlefield youth and an Olton man have been charged with possession of controlled substances and misdemeanor possession of marijuana.
 Two Amherst youths have been charged with three burglary counts each, being accused of burglarizing residences and a service station. They were still in custody Tuesday.
 A Merkel man has been charged with felony theft, a Littlefield man has been charged with misdemeanor theft, and a Littlefield woman has been charged with misdemeanor theft.

In other activity, men from Anton, Littlefield, Hart and Springlake have been charged with drunk, and a Littlefield man was charged with check law violation.
 The only activity reported by Department of Public Safety officials was a pickup turnover about 11 a.m. Tuesday.
 Willie Lee Williams of Sudan was driving about three miles east of Littlefield. The pickup turned over on its right side after the driver hit a dip in the road and lost control.
 A passenger, James Long, of Rt. 2 Sudan, was taken to a hospital for treatment of minor injuries.
 THP Joe Young of Muleshoe made the investigation.

Worth It

PUBLISHERS THESE DAYS have a lot on their minds, like how to meet the paper bill, pay the help and get enough advertising to keep the wolf away from the door.
 Sometimes it all seems like a thankless task.
 BUT THEN SOMEONE comes along with an encouraging word about the free press being "the voice of the public conscience" or "the watchdog of freedom" and the like.
 There's really more than a grain of truth in such words.

 NAPOLEON BONAPARTE is quoted as having said, "A journalist is a grumbler, a censurer, a giver of advice, a regent of sovereigns, a tutor of nations. Four hostile newspapers are more to be feared than a thousand bayonets."
 Tyrants and other such criminals in and out of public office have always feared a free press. It's worth sticking around just to insure that they always do.

CLIPS & TIPS

By JOELLA LOVVORN

A REFRESHING green salad makes a good change from holiday fare, and salads are a pleasant way of getting essential vitamins and minerals. They're easy to prepare and help save on the food budget.
 Also, leftover meats added to an ordinary salad make it even fancier and more nutritious.
 In selecting salad greens, consumers should remember these guidelines:
 —Choose only crisp, tender greens.
 —Remove wilted or bruised sections immediately.
 —Wash greens thoroughly in lukewarm water, drain in salad basket, on a wire rack or paper towels, or dry them in a soft towel.
 —Store in a vegetable crisper or plastic bag in refrigerator.
 —Store watercress and parsley in a covered jar to prevent bruising.

covered jar to prevent bruising.

 HERE'S A SALAD my sister-in-law made for Christmas dinner at my mother's, and this is enough to serve a "bunch" of people. It utilizes all raw vegetables, and is very tasty. I had never thought of eating raw cauliflower, but it's good—and better for you, because the vitamins aren't cooked away.
CAULIFLOWER SALAD
 1 head cauliflower
 7 green onions package of radishes
 mayonnaise
 dash of salt
 Slice the cauliflower, onions and radishes into thin small pieces and stir in the desired amount of mayonnaise.
 *****
 I DECIDED I'D answer Turn Row's request for some weight reducing recipes. These are more salads—most of which utilize low calorie mayonnaise or salad dressings, which may be used on the recipe above too. I'll be including other recipes later.
 Here's another version of the cauliflower salad. It serves 4, with each serving being 36 calories.
 *****
 2 cups cauliflower, sliced thin
 1/2 green pepper, sliced thin
 1 carrot, chopped fine
 4 stuffed olives, sliced
 6 Tbsps. 1100 Island dressing
 Combine ingredients in bowl. Add 6 Tbsps. 1100 Island dressing and mix well. See Next recipe.
1100 ISLAND DRESSING
 1 cup mayonnaise, see below
 1 hard cooked egg, chopped
 1 tsp. chopped pimento
 1 tsp. minced onion
 2 Tbsps. chili sauce
 Combine all ingredients and mix well. Chill before serving. Good on all green salads. This makes 254 calories, 22 calories per Tbsp.
 *****
MAYONNAISE
 1 egg yolk
 1/2 tsp. dry mustard
 1/4 tsp. paprika
 1/4 tsp. salt
 pinch cayenne pepper
 1 Tbsp. vinegar
 1 drop liquid sweetener
 3/4 cup yogurt
 Beat egg yolk until lemon colored. Combine egg yolk with other ingredients and mix well. Chill before using and keep in refrigerator. This provides 11 calories per Tbsp.
 *****
SHRIMP SALAD
 1 lb. shrimp, cleaned and cooked
 1 cup celery, diced
 1/4 cup pimento, diced
 1 Tbsp. lemon juice
 salt and pepper to taste
 16 lettuce leaves
 2 sprigs parsley
 1/2 cup low calorie mayonnaise
 Be sure all ingredients are cold. Place all ingredients except seasoning in large bowl. Add mayonnaise and mix well. Add seasoning to taste. Serve in lettuce leaf cups of two lettuce for each serving. Garnish with small sprig of parsley.
 *****
SPINACH-EGG SALAD
 5 tender spinach leaves, raw and shredded
 3 green onions, diced fine
 3 anchovy fillets, cut fine
 1 hard cooked egg, sliced in circles
 6 Tbsps. vinegar dressing, see below
 *****
 Place spinach, lettuce, onions and anchovy fillets in bowl. Add 6 Tbsps. vinegar dressing. Toss lightly and served topped with egg slices.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Keep Planning

THE PRESENT IS VALUABLE for a number of reasons. It is valuable for itself, and because it is the only time of which we can be certain.
 Yesterday is gone forever, and tomorrow belongs to an uncertain future. We have no guarantee that there will be a tomorrow; however, this fact must not be permitted to disturb us.
 THERE IS A WISE VIEW and an unwise view toward the future. There are many helpful observations to be made, and they are certainly worthy of our consideration.
 It is not the purpose of this writing, however, to explore all of the facets of these different views; but to emphasize one of the very necessary ones.
 WE MUST "KEEP PLANNING" for tomorrow, and the other possible or probable tomorrows. There is no better way to make today a satisfactory one, because today cannot be all that it has the potential to be; unless we have something to which we can look forward with pleasant anticipation.
 Of course, this planning must be reasonable and sensible. It is not to be done with anxiety, but with the greatest possible degree of wholesome concern.
 "EVERYTHING THAT LOOKS to the future elevates human nature; for life is never so low or so little as when occupied with the present." —Landon.
 THE PLANNING WE DO need not be anything elaborate, but just something that is constructive and worthwhile. In fact, generally speaking, it is for us if we do avoid all planning.

 Above all else, the expected involved must be reasonable. The considerations which must be served, in order to make us serve the best purpose in the present and the future.
 LONG-RANGE GOALS essential in the kind of "planning" will help us, but there must be range goals; too. These are their own value, but they are supportive as we move toward range goals.
 Some persons may be able to do more than others, but all of us must "keep planning". We must have a goal or perhaps a number of goals to which we can look forward.
 WE DO NOT SLIGHT the present when we "keep planning"; but we do enrich the present. In fact, the mistakes that can be made in the present.
 One mistake is in thinking the present is all there is, and no given to the future. The other is in overlooking the valuable present to be always promising ourselves we will do better tomorrow.
 LIVING WILL BE more enjoyable, more rewarding, when we are present in the very best way. We "keep planning" for the distant future.

JUST LISTENED TO the Presidents message on his plan for whipping our economic problems.—Some of it sounds good, on the air.
 I'm not about to offer criticism at present, because, it seems that, at least, he's been thinkin' about us.
 AS USUAL, THERE'S some good, and some bad.—The good being the part where WE may be getting a little kick-back. The bad is the part where it's evident we're goin' to have to kick back the kick-back.
 At any rate it's quite clear that the problems won't all be solved by tomorrow night. If you've been putting off going to the grocers, you'd as well dig down in the ol' sock and take off.—Otherwise you're liable to be gettin' pretty hungry before you can eat at reduced prices.
 OF COURSE, ALL this plan must be okayed by his antagonistic congress.—This may take some doing;—Especially the part that calls for no new programs by the government.

 Anyway, by mid-summer we get a hint as to which side is buttered on, provided we spread to butter and if we butter.
 FINALLY GOT a little row— Does he see a little row you??
 YES, VIRGINIA, there is Claus.— We've been gettin' lately—
 WENT OUT TO the car morning and was grateful that had whipped the snow away to open the door without wading to top deep.
 When I opened the door, and tumbling OUT of the car and my feet.— The window had part-way down.
 SOME DAYS IT just don't outta' bed—!

I LEARNED SOMETHING this morning at the Early Risers Lions Club meeting that helped clarify the increase of divorces. The reason for more divorces today than days of old when our grandparents and great-grandparents were living is that many were living when the life expectancy was about 47 years as compared to a life expectancy of 70-plus years today.
 Many, back then, just didn't live long enough to get around to filing for or getting a divorce.

This calls to mind a quote I passed to me: "Women have many, Men have only two. They say and everything they say."
 CONGRATULATIONS are due Honorable Billy Wayne Clayton for his popularity in Austin. Of course to please everyone all the time he has a few things going for him. He became our state representative even be considered for "Speaker House" is an honor and a compliment.
 I'm not going to do like some major towns in the area do by he came from Littlefield. Clayton is a resident of Springtown lives about a mile or so west of community on Highway 70.
 Noticed that the city east of Littlefield, recording and recording Waylon Jennings, but he was of Littlefield when he first singing and his first step toward was right here at our station. His mother and his brothers still live here.
 Several other natives of Littlefield have been successful and made their fields and became national figures.
 Some of us (Cornball) were persons are so old we were during the days of inhibition.

Clayton Wins Speaker's Post, 112 To 33

By JOELLA LOVVORN

Citizens from Bill Clayton's 74th Legislative District of Texas were in Austin Tuesday to see Clayton elected and sworn in as House Speaker of the 64th Texas Legislature, beginning 140 days of lawmaking.

Two chartered flights left the Lubbock airport Tuesday morning, taking 146 of Clayton's supporters from his home town of Springlake, as well as Earth, Muleshoe, Plainview, Dimmitt, Hereford, Olton, Morton, Lazbuddie, Friona, Bovina, Lubbock, Slaton and Littlefield to the historical event. Included in the group were Clayton's mother, brother, sister, brother-in-law, nieces and other family members.

Clayton, the 46-year-old conservative Democrat, defeated liberal Representative Carl Parker, Democrat from Port Arthur, 112 to 33, with three representatives voting only "present".

Administering the oath of office for Clayton was District Judge Pat Boone Jr. of Littlefield, and serving as chaplain of the day was Clayton's pastor, Rev. Glenn C. Smith of Springlake's First Baptist Church.

Clayton's first address to the House of Representatives and to his friends is recorded here.

"Mr. Secretary, Judge Boone, fellow members of the House, honored guests, ladies and gentlemen: It is with a sense of profound gratitude and deep humility that I stand here before you. Being chosen Speaker by my peers in this House is perhaps one of the greatest moments of my life. It has been a long, hard race, and believe me, I'm glad it is over. I gained a lot of experience from this venture and have been impressed by the fact that people are concerned about the future of our government.

"One of our great political leaders, Franklin D. Roosevelt, once said, 'The future lies with those wise political leaders who realize that the public is interested more in good government than in just politics.'"

"Perhaps as never before in our legislative history, we, as members of this House, have an opportunity and a duty to prove ourselves as providers of good government.

"From the smallest local board to the highest national office, we face unprecedented dilemmas—scandals, hints of scandals, charges, countercharges. All have caused the most severe case of apathy among our citizens. As we approach our nation's 200th birthday, many are losing faith in our system.

"At such times it is perhaps wise to draw upon the strength of our founding fathers—the great desire they had to see this country build herself into the greatest of all nations.

"It was Jefferson who offered our infant nation the ideals of faith. Faith in progress. Faith in reason. Faith in education. Faith in the concept of government as the servant rather than the master of the individual. And most of all, the unbounded faith in America's future.

"This legislative body, a part of that belief, has a duty to renew that spirit of Jefferson. We must not forget that we are elected by the people—to work for the people. Their cause is our cause. President Lincoln put it another way when he wrote: 'The legitimate object of government is to do for a community of people what they cannot do for themselves.'"

"However, to do this job, it takes the active involvement of the people. We must encourage their involvement. We need participation from every part of our economy and from every part of our society.

"Within that participation, even within our own body, we must realize we have a common goal for this state. We are all Texans, whether we are poor, rich, black, white, Chicano, man or woman. To function, we must respect varying backgrounds among us.

"It is with this spirit, this faith, that we, the legislators of this 64th Legislative session, must meet the challenges of today head-on. The news media has predicted this session to be 'one of the toughest legislative sessions in history.'

"They list a number of problems that we must face—such as: school finance, property tax reform and energy conservation. We also have a large surplus to zealously guard.

"As we read in the eleventh chapter of Proverbs, 'A false balance is an abomination to the Lord, but a just weight is his delight.' I believe this is what Texans want from their state government. With a surplus in

NEWLY-ELECTED Speaker of the House of Representatives Bill Clayton receives applause from family members and friends behind him as he completes his first address as Speaker.

BALLOT COUNTING holds the attention of interested parties.

FAMILY MEMBERS presented Clayton with a "This Is Your Life Gavel" Tuesday while in Austin. The gavel was made from wood from the old home place and made by James Packard of Springlake. The sounding board is decouped with Clayton's first campaign card on the top and oath of office on the back. The gavel contains various pins, tie clasps, etc. reminding him of his 46 years since birth. Making the presentation were his sister, Mrs. Donald Kelley, left, his brother, Don Clayton; and his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Clayton.

DR. B.W. ARMISTEAD of Littlefield and Billy Wayne Clayton raise their hands in a "victory" designation during a reception at the capitol Tuesday following the election and swearing in ceremony. Armistead led in getting the charter trip to Austin, and has aided in seeking finances for the speakership.

Child's Emotional Health Explained In New Booklet

There are no easy formulas for raising mentally healthy children, and parents should not be misled into believing there are.

In the process of reaching maturity there may be confusion, anxiety and growing pains for both children and their parents.

Since each child is unique, there is no system of child-rearing that will produce predictable results. But there are some basic factors that seem to play an important part in a child's psychological development.

In a new booklet, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare discusses these factors. A copy of "Your Child's Emotional Health" may be obtained for 25 cents from Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

Among the topics discussed are the influences of heredity and environment. Today experts are just beginning to understand that heredity and environment are so deeply entwined that they discipline is best; what leads to child abuse; and what is the effect of parents being away from home.

Other topics include: What constitutes "normal" behavior in a child; the difference between an emotionally disturbed child and one who needs more firm discipline; the major symptoms of mental illness in children; what causes over-aggressive and anti-social behavior in a child; how a parent can handle aggressive behavior; what kind of Tickets for the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show Rodeo, Jan. 24 through Feb. 2, in Will Rogers Coliseum at Fort Worth are well ahead of previous years, reports W. R. Watt Jr., general manager.

Four rodeos, 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 25, and 8 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 25 and Feb. 1, and 8 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 2, have been sold out, Watt said. A good selection of seats remain for the other 16 rodeos, however, Watt suggested that persons ordering tickets by mail should express an alternate performance "just in case better seats can be made available at the other rodeo performance."

Watt added that the "best tickets are available during the week." All night rodeos and weekend 2 p.m. performances are priced at $4, with all other rodeo seats at $3.

Defensive Driving Course Improves Driving Skills

Governor Dolph Briscoe has urged Texas motorists to take a Defensive Driving Course at their earliest opportunity as a means of improving their driving skills, while at the same time reducing the driver's automobile insurance premiums. The Defensive Driving Course, a joint venture of the Texas Safety Association and the National Safety Council, is a statewide campaign to reduce highway deaths, injuries and property damage through driver improvement training. The Defensive Driving Course is offered in Lubbock under the direction of Lubbock Citizens Traffic Commission, Box 2000, and Lubbock State School, Box 5396, the local authorized training agencies. "This course, which is offered throughout Texas, will not only improve the driver's ability to cope with emergencies while driving, but will give the driver an automatic 10 percent insurance discount for a three-year period on policies written by companies which are rate-regulated by the State Board of Insurance," Governor Briscoe said.

The eight-hour classroom course teaches crash avoidance techniques used by professional drivers. About 400,000 Texas drivers have taken the course since Sept. 1972. Studies have shown the Defensive Driving Course graduates have fewer accidents after completion of the course, the Governor pointed out. Further information about the Defensive Driving Course is available from any District Office of the Texas Department of Public Safety or the Texas Safety Association, P. O. Box

9345, Austin, Texas. "While the State Insurance is to be commended for their efforts in making automobile insurance rates increase well below the inflationary level, motorists can take steps on their own to cut down on insurance costs, and it is important that these steps be taken," Governor Briscoe said. "The 10 percent discount provided graduates is certainly an incentive in these constantly rising costs."

A SENSE OF VALUES

An old yellow tabby cat has a bank account of $200,000 says my morning paper. A woman died and left her entire estate to her cat. Orphaned children? Other lonely, elderly people? Mission causes? No, just to an old cat.

When one loses ones sense of values, one often makes the same kind of mistake. Most likely and almost certainly, this woman, and others just like her, had no place in her life for God. I'm not implying she did an evil thing, though God may judge otherwise. I'm saying she had lost her sense of values toward things.

"But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you" is not just a promise from bur Creator. It is the establishing of an order of importance from the greater to the lesser. It puts life—all of life—in proper perspective.

If a person hates all mankind so much, so that at death she figuratively spits in their faces by leaving her fortune to a cat, that person has not only misused her money, she has misused her life.
