

Wildcats swallowed by Tigers, 47-7

By JERRY TIDWELL

Taking advantage of every Littlefield miscue, the Slaton Tigers roared to a 47-7 victory here Friday night.

Slaton showed the large shirt-sleeve crowd the reason for their top ranking in the area by scoring in every quarter.

Littlefield lost the services of Ben Davidson for the rest of the season when the sophomore suffered a leg injury while covering a punt. Davidson was rushed to Medical Arts Hospital. Coaches feared that his left leg was broken.

The Wildcats travel to Lockney next Friday night and tangle with the tough Longhorn defense. Kick-off is set for 8 p.m.

FIRST QUARTER

The Wildcats lost the first of five fumbles on the third play from scrimmage and the Tigers set up shop on the 'Cats 44. Mike Tumlinson hit Rocky Smith with a 17-yard pass and then connected on a 10-yard gainer to Brad Eblin.

Tumlinson rambled for 11 yards to the four-yard line on a keeper but a clipping penalty moved the ball to the 19. The Tiger quarterback then hit Michael Piwonka for a 16-yard gain and then Smith scored from three yards out with 6:31 left in the first quarter. Tracy Angle added the extra point.

Littlefield took the kick-off and again fumbled on the third play. Slaton moved the ball 28 yards in five plays for the score. Jim Bourn scored on a 12-yard pass from Tumlinson. Angle added the PAT and Slaton upped the lead to 14-0 with 2:28 to go in the initial stanza.

SECOND QUARTER

Following a Littlefield punt, the Tigers scored again in nine plays. After eight running plays the Tigers were faced with a third and three situation from the 30. Tumlinson hit Bourn with a pass at the 20 and he zipped down the sideline for a TD. Angles EP made it 21-0 with 8:51 left in the half.

The Wildcats then scored their only touchdown. On third and 13 from their 22, Rudy Ayala lofted a perfect pass to Rudolph Smith. Smith caught the ball at the Tiger 40 a step ahead of the defender and raced to the end zone. Ralph Mendez's kick was good and the 'Cats trailed 21-7.

Slaton needed just eight plays to move the ball 72 yards for their next score. Eblin's 34-yard scamper was the big play of the drive. John Johnson capped with a one-yard plunge. The PAT was blocked by Ronnie Milligan and the Tigers held a 27-7 half-time lead.

THIRD QUARTER

A punting duel opened the second half. Slaton punted three times and Littlefield twice. A Wildcat fumble at their own 5-yard line resulted in Eblin scoring on a pitch-out around left end on the next play.

Angle's kick was true and the Tigers enjoyed a 34-7 lead.

FOURTH QUARTER

Following another Slaton punt, the Wildcats again turned the ball

10 students expelled at Springlake-Earth

HAIR CODE VIOLATIONS

According to Springlake-Earth School Superintendent Bill Mann, only 10 male students were expelled Wednesday for three days after their refusal to get hair cuts in compliance with the high school's hair and dress code.

One report stated that 16 had been expelled, while another report said there were 13.

Six of those are football players and five of them are starters.

When the Leader-News asked Mann Friday if they would be back Monday, he said, "Well, we won't know." And when asked if that meant they wouldn't be back until they comply with the rule he stated: "We still have the policy!"

He continued, "I think this thing is just about depleted! We've had local coverage on it, and the Lubbock paper ran a story about it, and I feel that nothing more should be said about it! All our local people know about it, and that should be enough!"

The expulsions came after Principal Bob May made his weekly hair length checks, and discovered the students had hair over their collars, according to Ardis Barton, father of one of the youths, and who reported the incident to the Leader-News. Every Wednesday has been designated as hair inspection day at Springlake-Earth.

Barton said most of the parents involved support their sons' actions and don't feel the school board has a right to enforce a hair code. The board met Monday and did not change its policy.

Barton says he thinks the action violates Title 9 of the Education Amendments of 1972.

Barton said, "It's not May's fault! He's just enforcing a silly little thing that's been going on here for 8 or 10 years. It's the school board's policy. At one time, you couldn't have hair that touched your ears, then they allowed it to the middle of the ear, and now it's the collar."

The board's next meeting is scheduled for Oct. 11, but possibilities are that a special meeting will be called before then.

Swine Flu vaccine not available here

According to Lamb County Health Officer Dr. J. H. Oyer, the high-publicized Swine Flu has not reached this area, and the vaccine is not available here.

Dr. Oyer said "We've been having some strange bug, but I don't think it is flu." He also said this area is expecting some of the Swine Flu vaccine for inoculations by the end of this month, and some even later, but so far, this area has not been recipient of the vaccine.

Heart Association board hears reports of action

Board members of the Lamb County chapter of the American Heart Association met at noon Thursday for their regular business session.

Brenda Denton, campaign chairman, presented a report on funds raised for the purchase of Resuscitation, Resuscitation Baby and a Cardio-pulmonary Resuscitation teaching film, which will be used throughout the county by various organizations to teach life-saving techniques and to certify instructors.

According to Mrs. Denton, funds are still needed to complete the purchase, and donations are being accepted. Some organizations are to be approached for donations.

Nelda Blackwell was introduced as the new vice chairperson for the campaign.

Nina Talburt, chairman of the program committee, secured volunteers to help with the Health Fair Saturday, Oct. 2. They will aid registered nurses in taking blood pressures, and will show films and distribute literature.

Evone Oliver advised of the regional meeting to be held in Lubbock Wednesday, Oct. 20, from 5:45 to 9 p.m. in the South Park Inn.

Members decided to meet at night on Thursday, Oct. 14, for their next session, when they will undergo training for certification.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

See it now

IF WE WAIT until all that is lovely is removed before we see the lovely things; we will never see the lovely things. If we wait until all of the evil is dispelled before we see the good things; we will never see the good things.

If we wait for all of the wrong things to go away before we see the right things; we will never see the right things.

IF WE WISH TO SEE the lovely; the good in life; the things that are right about our world; we must "see it now". Too many of us have the poorly formed notion that we are going to be able to see these things at some later time.

We seem to forget that, if we can't or won't see the desirable aspects of life now, there is no basis for assuming that we can, or that we will do so at some future time.

WE AGREE that there are ugly things, and evil things, and wrong things. More than this, much happens in the daily conduct of human society to keep these things before us.

Our attention is called to them in many different ways. We must not, however, permit these things to become our total view. There are other things; lovely things, good things and right things to be seen; to be appreciated; to be enjoyed; and to help make life worth the living.

Add to that, that we have a generation coming on that have had their major education in "welfare". They too, have the power of reproduction. Thus, we shall see the welfare load continue to grow, rather than shrink.

SLOGAN FOR NOVEMBER

A Woman's View

By Pearl Brandon

WELL, HERE I AM home again after an 11-day stay in the hospital.

As always, it is very good to be home again, however, they were very good to me at the hospital, even down to their cleaning people.

I would like to mention a Mexican woman in particular. I don't even know her name, only heard someone call her Cruz.

EVERY MORNING she would come into my room and say, "hello, Mother Goose." I would return her greeting by saying, "Hello, Grandma Wolf."

All day she goes around making people smile with her sense of humor.

She reminded me that regardless of our station in life, we can spread happiness. I loved her and looked forward to her coming.

One day she came in and "now, I will tell you a story. Once a woman came to our hospital that I loved very much. She calls me Grandma Wolf and I call her Mother Goose, but I love her. Then she kissed me twice on the forehead. Can you imagine how happy that made me? Probably not, but I still feel good when I think of her.

IN FIRST Thessalonians Four, Paul says, "This should be your ambition to live a quiet life, minding your own business, and doing your own work, just as we told you before. As a result, people who are not Christians will trust and respect you, and you will not

Dear Mr. Tidwell,

I would like to start a drive to pick up all the old refrigerators and freezer's in town and I am in hopes that your publishing this letter in the Lamb County Leader-News will help accomplish this removal of junk which is a very real danger to the children of this community.

If any of you people reading this letter know where this danger exists, please call 385-5011 or 385-5611 and we will pick up the refrigerator free of charge as soon as we get our list compiled.

In an article in today's Lubbock Avalanche Journal there is the very sad story of two Bovina boys who suffocated after they apparently closed themselves in an abandoned refrigerator.

Do we need to wait until this tragedy happens to one of "our children" or are we going to do something about it now?

After the refrigerators are picked up we will sell them for scrap and any proceeds will be donated to the Littlefield Public Schools for playground equipment, etc.

Please Help,

Dear Water, Incorporated Member:

The Texas Water Development Board is in the process of revising and updating the Texas Water Plan. As a part of that revision process, some 20 public forums are being conducted around the state, one of them in Lubbock.

As your representative, Water, Incorporated will of course be presenting a statement at the forum. It would be gratifying if we were backed up by several hundred Lubbock area members.

The signal purpose of the forums is to gather citizen input for consideration in the Water Plan revision. I can assure you that your attendance will be rewarded with solid information on the direction water development in Texas will be directed during the coming years.

The Lubbock forum is slated to get underway at 7 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 21, in the Board Meeting Room of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District building at 30th and Avenue Q.

Please try to attend. It will only take about two hours of our time, but your presence will demonstrate the solid support in the area for an importation project.

Re: The Death Penalty

Honorable Sirs:

God places great value on human life. This can be readily seen in the great commandment, "Thou shalt Not Kill". Certainly we should not even entertain the idea of taking someone's life. But what is God's will concerning someone who, in fact, does murder another person? I believe the Scriptures plainly teach that God wants that man's life taken.

God said, "Thou shalt not kill". Many today, especially they who are opposed to the death penalty, use this verse exclusively to show that it is wrong to put a man to death for any reason. I believe Christians should do as Paul always did, "... declaring unto you the whole counsel of God". Acts 20:27. Or as the Psalmist declared; "The sum of thy word is truth, and every one of thy righteous ordinances endureth for ever." Psalm 119:160 (ASV)

"Thou shalt not kill" was not God's only statement concerning the taking of human life. Before knowing God's will in the matter, we need to examine more than just one Scripture.

The first taking of human life is recorded in Genesis chapter four. Cain, Adam and Eve's firstborn, slew Abel, the second son. God pronounced a curse on Cain for his actions and sent him away.

The next time murder is mentioned is in Genesis chapter nine. Here is a very significant passage of Scripture concerning God's attitude toward killing another person. (Remember as we read chapter nine that there are only eight people alive; the earth has been cleansed; there is no sin evident; and God is talking to all mankind.)

Now notice particularly verse 5: "and surely your blood, the blood of your lives, will I require; at the hand of every beast will require it: and at the hand of man, even at the hand of every man's brother, will I require the life of man." Genesis 9:5.

After the giving of the "Law of Moses" on Mt. Sinai, what we commonly call "The Ten Commandments", God continued to give Moses various laws concerning crimes of violence. Notice Exodus 21:28: "And if an ox gore a man or woman to death, the ox shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten. . . ."

In Genesis 9:5, God promised to "require the life of men. . . at the hand of every beast. In giving the Law to Moses God restated that position and, in fact, clarified it.

Now notice Genesis 9:6: "Who-so sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man."

When we take the life of another human being, we destroy the image of God. When we destroy the image of God, it is God's will that we be put to death.

In Numbers 35: 9-15 God appointed "cities of refuge". These cities were to be used as sanctuaries for anyone who "unwittingly", or as we would say, accidentally, took a life. In these cities the accused would not be put to death until a trial had been conducted and judgment was passed by the congregation. But a murderer was to be put to death! Read also Numbers 9: 16-21.

There were also other offences which were punishable by death; eg. the smiting of one's father or mother; adultery; sorcery and many others.

God commanded his people not to kill. But God also gave other laws which need to be considered along with that one. God is not opposed to "capital" punishment.

Thank you for your consideration of this article.

Pioneer Hearing Request Dismissed

The Texas Railroad Commission, on the request by "Stipulation" filed by certain cities and Pioneer, took under advisement the dismissal of Pioneer Natural Gas Company's application for a hearing that had been scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 14.

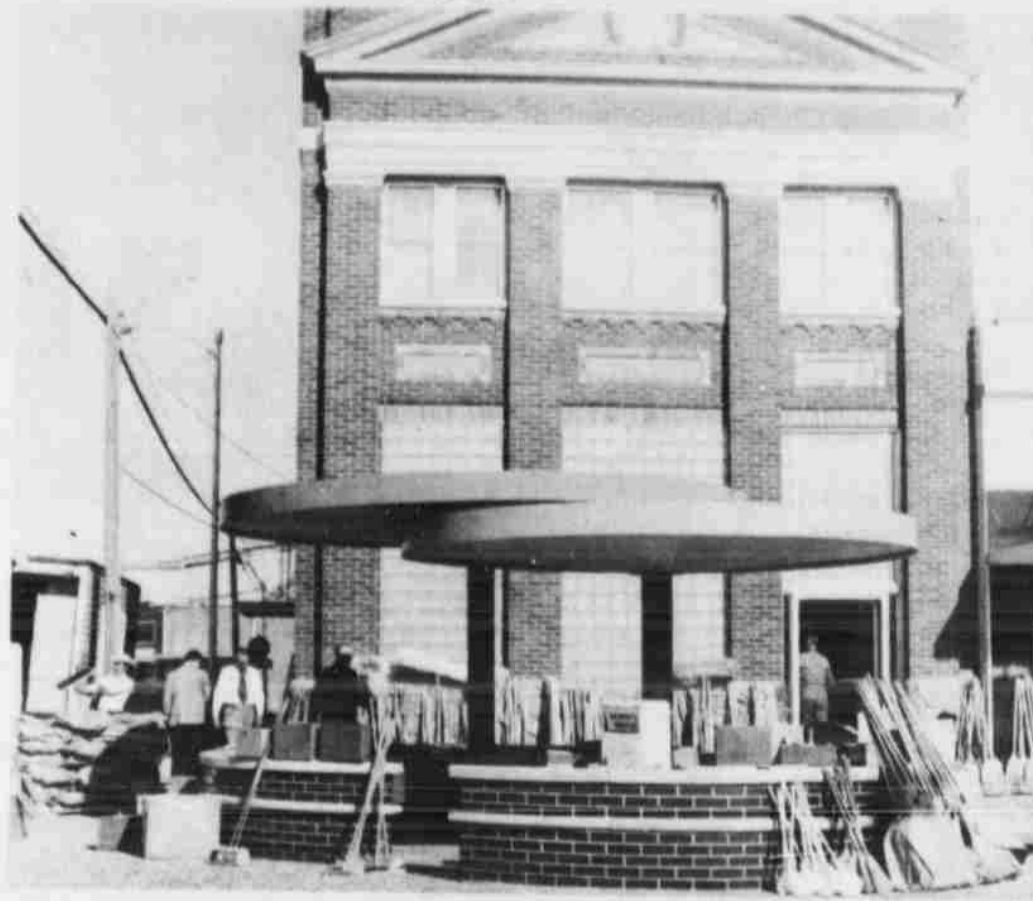

The filing stated that the cities through their representatives have examined the testimony and exhibits of Pioneer in Docket 706 and have no dispute with the correctness of the Company's cost of gas as reflected by the contracts and exhibits submitted.

In announcing that Pioneer had joined in the Stipulation to dismiss the application, K. B. Watson, company president, said, "When we asked for this hearing in July it was our intention to have a constructive review of the manner, policies, practices and procedures, methods and techniques which Pioneer has employed in maintaining its gas supply. We provided all interested parties with our proposed testimony and exhibits about 30 days ago, and after study of our material, the parties to the new filing agreed they have 'no current controversy' with Pioneer's methods in maintaining its gas supply."

Watson went on to say, "Even though all the cities on the West Texas System were not involved, in view of the position of the cities in the 'Stipulation', and the request of all other participants to dismiss the hearing, the productivity of further proceedings for all parties at this time was not apparent when compared with the possible time involved for all parties, and Pioneer joined in the motion to dismiss."

Watson concluded his announcement by saying, "As Pioneer stated in making the application to the Texas Railroad Commission, the company believes it has been prudent in acquiring its gas supply in a market of rapidly rising prices over the past three years. We have succeeded in maintaining an enviable gas supply situation for our customers for the continued economic health and future growth of our area."

"Due to the practices which Pioneer has employed, Pioneer has one of the lowest—probably the lowest—average cost of gas of any of the larger gas companies in the State of Texas even though it has added more gas reserves than its sales of gas in each of the past two years."

BROOMS AND MOPS by the hundreds were on sale Friday and Saturday in front of the First National Bank building. Manning the caravan of sales for the blind were various Lions Club members. Proceeds go to help the blind, and for various Lions Club projects. [Staff Photo]

Tumlinson scored on a 65-yard romp on the first play after a Wildcat punt. He was corraled around the neck once but swung free and upped the score to 46-7. Angle's kick was good.

The Tigers took a Wildcat fumble and drove to the four before Vernon Johnson recovered a fumble to end the scoring threat.

The 'Cats were lead on defense by Milligan, Jack Speck, Tony Cowan, Blake Wood and David Jones, Johnson and Lewis Willey.

Last-minute TD gives Eagles win

Three Way, now 2-0 for the season, rallied in the final stanza to edge Cotton Center, 32-25, in six-man football, Friday at Cotton Center.

The Eagles had a comfortable lead in the first half, 25-6, as the Cotton Center team came back in the last half to tie the score with about four minutes left in the game.

Three Way started a drive that ended by fumbling the ball, got the ball back by holding the Cotton Center defense, drove again, got three penalties and were set back to their two-yard line. In desperation with 38 seconds left in the game, QB Adam Rodriguez bombed to Eddy Rodriguez for a 78-yard pass play and the winning TD. Louie Key ran the extra to give the Eagles their 32-15 lead.

The first quarter was dominated by Three Way with Jerry Waltrip scoring on a ten-yard run, PAT was no good. Albert Rand scored on a 34-yard scamper, again the kick was no good.

Cotton Center came back in the final minutes of the quarter and mustered a score on an eight-yard pass from Garcia to Gomez. The attempt for the extra was no good.

Three Way widened the gap in the score in the second quarter as Rand made another touchdown on a 34-yard run. Again the extra was to the side. Louie Key scored again for the Eagles on a 19-yard pass play from Donnie Young. Rand ran the extra point to give the visiting team a 25-6 half-time lead.

Cotton Center started their comeback attempt in the third quarter when Phillip Garcia scored from one yard out. The kick after TD was blocked.

In the opening minutes of the fourth quarter a pass from Garcia to Ashly netted a 16-yard pass play and another Cotton Center TD. The run after the six-pointer was good as Cotton Center trailed by six points.

The score was tied by the host team when Gomez hit Johnny Davis on a three-yard pass play. Points after were no good and the score stood, 25-25.

A 78-yard pass play from Adam Rodriguez to Eddy Rodriguez highlighted the game in the final minute of the game to give Three Way their second win of the season. Key ran the extra point conversion to ice the win.

Three Way travels to Whitharral Friday for more football action.

Panthers devour Christians

Whitharral chalked up its third win of the season in fine fashion as they roared past West Texas Christian Academy of Lubbock 51-20.

During the first half, the contest was more like a track meet than a football game as the Panther ball carriers raced through the shattered WTC defense virtually untouched. In fact, Whitharral purposely fell on the ball so that the game would not be called because of the 45-point difference rule that applies to six-man football.

On the first play of the game, Whitharral's Jimmy Polk fielded the kickoff on his own 22, veered to his left then cut back to the right for a 58-yard return for a touchdown. Gary Chavez booted the two-point conversion and with 9:46 left in the first quarter, it was 8-0.

On WTC's first possession, a fourth down punt was blocked and on third down from the five, Polk raced around left end to make it 16-0. WTC got on the board next with a safety when the Whitharral snap on the punt was fumbled in the end zone. But Polk was not through in the first half as he added touchdown runs of eight and 40 yards which put Whitharral in front at half time, 31-2.

Whitharral played its second team offense for the entirety of the second half, and the passing combination of Roger Reding to George Nickelson kept the Panthers on the move.

Whitharral advanced the score to 45-2 when a pass interference call in the end zone set up a one-yard burst by Mark Bryant. The Whitharral defense, sparked by a series of good open field tackling, kept the WTC offense in check most of the game. The touchdown scored by WTC offense was a yard run by Randy Y. The other WTC touch came on another Whitharral fumble in the end zone. Whitharral's final came on an 18-yard play from Reding to son.

Looking at the game in glance, Whitharral amassed 262 total yards and 13 first downs and 7 first downs WTC. Each team had turnovers.

After the game, coach Jerry Miller credited his team's success to over-all team play, as sixteen of his Panthers proved that Friday night.

Hornets sting Bulldogs

MACHA... rivalries meet, one fall and this year Amherst as the Hornets stung the 24-14, in football play at Amherst. The first half the Hornets employed the run-Williams, Jerry and Kyle Martin yards but in the half it was mostly through the exceptional. Actually, in the half, Martin carried 19 out of the 42 yards played the ball. The re- of the time it was, Ricky Stanford, Williams, Jerry Wil- Matt Hanna, Edgar with an occasional quarterback Craig the Hornets to punt on a fourth down situation, who in turn took the ball on their ten yard line. They punched out yardage and came within a couple of feet from the first down and gambled on the fourth down but the deck was stacked as the Hornets read the mail and stopped the series of plays for Amherst. It was one-two-three punch and that is what Martin did as he punched through from the two-yard line to give Sudan a 12-7 lead. The two point conversion attempt failed. At half time, Sudan led 12-7. It was almost a different ball game as Sudan took control of the ball in the second half for 42 plays from scrimmage to Amherst's 25.

Bulldog six-pointer with 35 seconds left in the game. The PAT was done by McDaniel to make the score, 24-14 in favor of the visiting Sudan team.

IN HEART-STOPPER

Longhorns gore Mustangs, 12-7

Olton played their third heart-stopper in a row, but this time the Mustangs came out on the short end. Lockney halfback Danny Clark scampered 65 yards with only three minutes remaining to give the Longhorns a 12-7 upset win. Olton was the number AA area team going into the contest and they dropped the Ponies record to 2-1. The Longhorns opened the scoring in the first quarter. Quarterback Glen Lane zipped in from the eight-yard line. The extra point kick was wide to the left and the 'Horns led 6-0. Olton tied the score when fullback Leslie Gray rammed over in fine fashion from the 11. Brad Allcorn's toe was true on the all-important PAT and Olton owned 7-6 half-time advantage. Neither team tallied in the third period and then Clark's run of 65 yards with only three minutes to go gave Lockney the narrow win. The Mustang offense was throttled most of the night by the swarming Lockney defenders. The Longhorns, aided by a fierce pass rush, picked off four Olton passes and allowed only 40 yards through the air. Olton was able to gain only 117 yards on the ground and picked up 11 first downs. The Mustangs are on the road again this week. They travel to meet always tough Floydada Friday night. Anton floods Valley, 20-0

Anton padded their win column by downing Valley, 20-0, Friday night at Valley. The Bulldogs, now 2-1 for the season, had rather easy picking as they took a 12-0 half-time lead and went on for another eight points in the last quarter to ice the win. Lon Timms started the scoring attack for the Bulldogs as he scored on a 15-yard sweep. The point after went wide. Rex Jones added to the Bulldog scoring attack in the second quarter on a seven-yard power play. Again the kick after TD went wide. Neither team scored in the third period but the Bulldogs did come back for their final score in the game in the fourth period when Timms drove over from the three and a two-point conversion was made on a pass from Timms to Jones to give the Bulldogs a 20-0 win. Anton entertains Meadow Friday.

Littlefield's new denim plant aiding state's growth pattern

The ideal state in the growth of industry, according to the Joint House Committee on Development in Littlefield's textile plant has admirable growth

With special programs for the Texas Commission and prior to the committee the state's 19 percent of cotton, as well as petroleum and industry, to point out abundant supply of resources to form of the textile than 700 apparel firms operating today producing more than $1.2 billion in goods annually, more than $200 million of fabric. Yet this of the fabric was shipped from out of state.

Textile mills are fabric in Texas. The state's supernatural resources, site locations, outlets can 200 textile mill

Textile Industry has among its promoting the expansion of textile mills in service to the mills. The Committee also will encourage research into the quality of fibers and fiber blends, development of new products and expanded market outlets.

"All areas of the state are able to support one or more phases of the textile industry," Heath said. "One major textile mill is located on the Guadalupe River close to an abundant water supply, which is important to many phases of production, especially the dyeing process. But Littlefield, on the high plains near Lubbock, is supporting a new denim mill with no problem at all."

One of the keys to the success of the denim mill, Heath said, has been the support of the area cotton producers and ginners who own the plant and the surrounding communities which are anxious to bring in new industry to utilize cotton crops and provide more jobs.

"This mill utilizes the newest technology available in a modern building—designed to accommodate this new technology—which is a cheaper way to go than trying to remodel existing antiquated structures," Heath said. "Our acres and acres of industrial sites in Texas, as well as financial support for developing the sites, are a magnet to the out-of-state and foreign textile lead-

Top level technology to design and operate the various phases of textile milling is at a premium. Training the rest of the labor force is being facilitated through the Industrial Start-Up Training programs offered by the Industrial Commission and Texas Education Agency. These two state agencies are working with industry to design training programs for specific application to the textile industry.

Ongoing research into better quality fibers and fiber combinations is aiding the quality of Texas fabrics. Such organizations as the Textile Research Center at Texas Tech University, the Natural Fibers Economic Research at The University of Texas at Austin, Texas Woman's University and Texas A&M University are continually striving to improve Texas products.

"The Committee includes representation from these organizations, as well as marketing experts and industrial development specialists. The Committee membership will promote the sharing of research finds and dissemination of technology to producers, and lure more industry to the state," Heath said.

Lay members of the Committee in addition to Heath are Carl Cox, executive director of the Natural Fibers and Food Protein Commission; Bill Harris, director of the Natural Fibers Economic Research Department of The University of Texas at Austin; Dr. Herb Grubb of the Governor's Division of Planning Coordination; and Marvin Segal, director of the Southwest Apparel Manufacturers Association based in Dallas.

Legislative members are Rep. E. L. Short of Tahoka, Sen. Grant Jones of Abilene, Sen. Kent Hance of Lubbock, Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells, Rep. Forrest Green of Corsicana and Rep. Don Rains of San Marcos. Senior advisors are Armer Earwood, president of Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association; Dan Davis of the Plains Cotton Cooperative in Lubbock; and Fred Walker of the Walker Estate Ranch in Comstock.

"Through the Committee's combined efforts of technology and industrial development, a tremendous surge will be experienced by the Texas economy," according to Short, chairman of the Committee.

The current cotton production of 2.4 million bales for the 1975-76 season could easily be expanded to a total of 3.6 million bales, according to Harris. This increase of 1.2 million bales could support 17 textile mills with a direct employment of more than 7,000 employees with a $51 million payroll and a generated employment of more than 4,700 jobs. The annual state and local taxes generated would exceed $7 million, revenue to producers would exceed $390 million and revenue to agribusinesses would be almost $1.5 billion.

Texas wool and mohair production could easily be increased to support nine mills using both the fibers individually or in blends. They would employ nearly 900 new workers with a payroll of $6 million annually, and would stimulate nine new businesses with 60 new jobs in firms providing services to mills and employees. The mills alone would increase the annual state and local tax revenue by more than $178 thousand. Sheep and goat raisers would increase their income by $10.2 million, and agribusinesses throughout the state would experience a $36 million annual expansion.

Currently, there are no textile mills in Texas producing man-made fiber or yarn.

"As the natural fiber mills expand in the state, more and more of them will begin to use man-made fiber in combination with the natural fibers to produce durable blends," Heath said. "The fact that Texas leads the nation in production of feedstock for synthetic fabrics is one more important reason to expand the state's textile mill operations."

Polyester fabrics are made from ethylene and glycolethylene, acetate fabrics from butane and ethylene, acrylic fabrics from propane gas and propylene, vinyl fabrics from ethylene and nylon fabrics from benzene or cyclohexane. Of the total national production of

A Banker's Viewpoint....

If the current contest for the presidency has brought out one single sentiment from the American people, it is this:

"Cut down the size and the activities of the federal government and get the bureaucrats out of our hair."

Both major party candidates have emphasized that government is too big, too costly and too powerful, and the cheers that these sentiments generate are ample proof of their popularity.

Yet the chance that effective action will be taken, we believe, is remote, no matter who wins. Proliferation is built into government — any government. This has always been true.

A major complaint of colonists, that brought on the American Revolution, was that the bureaucrats of King George III made life miserable for the colonists. Thomas Jefferson stated the case in the Declaration of Independence. He wrote a list of complaints against the king and emphasized:

"He has erected a multitude of new offices and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance."

Jefferson would be amazed by the self-generating expansion of our government that he did so much to create.

A federal office never dies, and neither does it fade away. Instead, the bureaucrats within it continuously dream up new projects which call for more people to do more things, a big percentage of which would be better left undone.

Their cost, in both tax money and irritation, as in Jefferson's day, eventually brings an overwhelming public demand for correction of the problem.

Such is the case today. American taxpayers have watched a ten year performance by their federal government during which time its expenditures have gone up 180 per cent while revenues climbed only 130 per cent. The annual deficit — the item that causes inflation — rose from $3.8 billion in 1966 to $70 billion this year.

Even so, in spite of pious promises of greater economy, politicians, including members of Congress, are pushing for new spending programs that would boost expenditures of your and my tax money to a total of between $140 billion and $170 billion. These programs include national health insurance, a guaranteed jobs program, guaranteed income and housing assistance. This 30 per cent increase in spending would have to be paid for through increased taxation or increased inflation, or more probably a combination of the two.

Every self-supporting person in the country would be forced to pay his share of the cost of taxes and suffer his share of the evil of inflation. Yet, unless there's an overwhelming public outcry against it, the crippling process is likely to go on.

these chemicals, Texas supplies 60 percent of the ethylene, 54 percent of the propylene, 51 percent of the benzene and 87 percent of the butadiene.

"The market for Texas' finished garments is virtually unlimited," Heath said. "The 1976 fall women's and children's clothing display attracted 13,390 buyers representing 44 states and 14 foreign countries to the Dallas Apparel Mart. On top of that, Texas has the nation's third largest population, giving the state a ready-made customer pool of 12.05 million people.

"With Texas' vast supply of natural resources, garment manufacturers and market outlets, the missing link is in the textile mills," Heath said.

Six Flags begins fall

Six Flags Over Texas has begun weekend-only operation for the fall months on the heels of the most successful spring and summer seasons in the theme park's 16-year history.

Through Labor Day more than 2,217,000 persons had visited the Arlington entertainment center, topping the old record by more than 200,000 visitors.

General Manager Dan Howells credited the attendance spurt to the introduction this year of the Texas Chute Out, a 1.5 million dollar parachute drop.

"The parachute ride is the most spectacular addition to the park in several years," Howells said, "and there's not a doubt in our minds that it has been the key to the unprecedented attendance we've enjoyed so far this year."

Six Flags Over Texas will be open Saturdays and Sundays only through the last weekend in November. Hours on Saturdays will be 10 a.m. until midnight in September; 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. in October, and 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. in November. Hours on Sundays, September through November, will be 10 a.m. until 8 p.m.

City receives HUD grant

—Jim Bridges, mayor of Anton, has been named by George Mahon, U.S. Representative, to receive a $100,000 grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development for the City of Anton. The grant is earmarked for updating the sewer system for the City of Anton. The grant was secured through the dedicated efforts of Louis Boothe, Anton grain operator, who is a city councilman and member of the South Texas Association of Governments board of directors.

Bridges and Boothe met with representatives from the Dallas regional office of Housing and Urban Development to discuss plans for the use of the grant.

Bridges said, "Anton's lift station is badly in need of replacement. The grant will be used to replace the lift station and replace some of the sewer lines with larger lines. We will also be making extensions of the sewer system to areas in the city that has not had sewer services."

Work will begin on making the improvements as soon as proper authority is delegated.

Child care licensing requirements simplified —to meet child care requirements under new standards being adopted by the State Department of Public Welfare.

—Effective immediately, requirements for facilities, lowered, paperwork reduced, number of staff required to care for a number of children is reduced and other changes to requirements are expected according to Registrar Nathan.

Provisional standards had been adopted last January after the state legislature passed the Child Care Licensing Act of 1975, broadening the State Department of Public Welfare's responsibilities as a licensing agency.

Comments gathered during subsequent public hearings indicated widespread feelings that the standards were too strict, too pervasive, and required too many written records. "The new standards are simplified, and now provide bare minimum requirements to protect the health, safety and well-being of children," Martin said.

"The standards do require, in all instances, that children be supervised and under control at all times, and that facilities cooperate in providing information for statistical reports which we are required to make."

Space requirements are lowered from 35 to 30 square feet per child.

City adopts rule changes; Affirmative Action Plan

In their relatively brief meeting Thursday night, Littlefield's city council, voted to adopt changes in personnel rules and regulations, and adopted the new Affirmative Action Plan. They then went into executive session to discuss pending litigation.

Janna Stehlik's appearance before the council to discuss the need for a day care center was postponed until the next meeting, due to a work conflict in her schedule.

Rules for personnel were last adopted in January 1974, and according to City Manager Jim Blagg, "We've seen a need to change the rules within the past three years. The entire document has been reviewed and all sexist tones have been changed to 'employee' or 'it'," he advised.

Other items changed were related to the pay period, injury leave, reimbursement for use of private auto for authorized travel for the city, and rewording changes on the specific grounds for dismissal.

Blagg explained the Affirmative Action Plan, which was outlined in an 18-page document. His introduction of the plan begins:

Equal employment opportunity, as mandated by federal law, is the right of all persons to be considered for employment and to be evaluated as employees without regard to race, religion, sex, age, color, or national origin. To assure that personnel practices are not discriminatory on these bases, it is necessary for employers to demonstrate that they have taken positive steps to eliminate any intended or unintended discrimination. Additionally, it is necessary to eliminate the effects of past discrimination.

Affirmative action is necessary because past efforts to improve the opportunity of women and minorities have not had the effects desired by Congress. To stimulate greater efforts at providing such opportunity Congress prohibited discriminatory employment practices through passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 as amended by the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972. The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) was created to enforce the legislation. EEOC and anyone claiming to be discriminated against were given the opportunity to go to federal court to pursue the claim. In addition to this legislation, employers have been required to make personnel decisions on the basis of EEO criteria through executive orders, agency directives, court decisions, and state legislation. The state of Texas prohibits discrimination by Article I, Section 3 of the State Constitution and by a 1967 statute — Article 6252-16. Thus, equal employment opportunity is clearly the law and employers will find that affirmative action is the easiest method of complying with the requirements of EEO.

Affirmative action plans also are necessary for local governments to receive many federal grants. Cities and counties applying for grants for programs such as community development (Housing and Community Development Act of 1974) are finding that affirmative action plans are being required as evidence of the jurisdiction to equal employment opportunity before grants will be made. Current proposals in Congress to extend revenue sharing provisions making it possible to suspend revenue sharing to jurisdictions found to be discriminating in their personnel practices and in the use of revenue sharing monies. Therefore, affirmative action plans soon be required as a condition of receiving revenue sharing. At the least, EEOC and the courts can require adoption of an affirmative action plan as part of a settlement in a case where discrimination is found.

In developing affirmative action programs it is necessary to reverse discrimination. Affirmative action does not mean the employment of anyone unqualified. White males have been successful in the courts pursuing claims of reverse discrimination.

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS GENERAL ELECTION NOV. 2, 1978

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 49)

Repealing Sections 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution, S.J.R. 49 amends Section 49-c of Article III of the Texas Constitution to provide for and authorize an additional $400 million in Texas water development bonds that may be issued on approval of two-thirds of the members of each house of the Legislature for such water development purposes as the Legislature may prescribe.

The amendment contains a specific prohibition against the use of state funds for the development of water resources from the Mississippi River and also requires that before any single water development project may be undertaken requiring the expenditure of more than $35 million in bond proceeds, it must be approved by resolution of the Legislature.

The amendment removes the constitutional requirement that certain revenues must be used to retire water development and water quality enhancement bonds and removes the constitutional interest rate limit on such bonds.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing an increase of $400 million in the amount of Texas Water Development Bonds that may be issued on approval of two-thirds of the Legislature; amending and consolidating portions of Sections 49-c, 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution; and repealing Sections 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution."

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 99)

H.J.R. 99 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to increase from $100 million to $150 million the aggregate principal amount of Texas water development bonds which may be issued or outstanding by the Texas Water Development Board to provide grants and loans for water quality enhancement purposes as established by the Legislature.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"A constitutional amendment to increase the amount of $100 million to $150 million the amount of Texas Water Development Bonds that may be issued for water quality enhancement purposes."
