Littlefield High School and high school students "walked a mile for a dime" Saturday morning. Sponsored by the LHS Business Club, the group hiked 15 miles to raise funds for the March of Dimes and the MOD's fight against crippling birth defects. The walk was organized by the "walkers" who were raised by the "walkers" who each agreed to pay the various amounts for each mile. Friends, neighbors, businessmen and business establishments made the walk a success. People started "walking for a dime" from a starting point at the REA Building at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Food and water were available at checkpoints and a vehicle was used to pick up walkers who dropped out during the 15-mile walk. At the end of the walk, there was to be a cash drawing for those who collected the most money, the first prize being a television set. Other prizes were slated for the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third, twenty-fourth, twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, twenty-seventh, twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth, thirtieth, thirty-first, thirty-second, thirty-third, thirty-fourth, thirty-fifth, thirty-sixth, thirty-seventh, thirty-eighth, thirty-ninth, and fortieth prizes.

ONE SCENE from the play, "Know One's Self", which was written by Littlefield sixth grader Christa Beth Bradley, depicts an 11-year-old's attempt to sell drugs to two young friends. The five-scene play will be taped in Lubbock Friday, April 2, and will be shown on Channel 5 television later the same day. Shown, left to right, are 'Joe', played by Dewayne Hayes, 'Steve', played by Richard Rogers, and the pusher, 'Dave', played by Paul Harlan.

Local Kids' Drug Play Headed For Stardom

A cast of 21 fifth and sixth graders at Littlefield's Elementary II will present a free public performance of "Know One's Self" in the Junior High School Auditorium at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The five-scene play, written by Christa Beth Bradley, a sixth grader, takes place in Middletown U.S.A. and deals with the drug problem among the youth of the average cities in our nation.

The play involves three families, the Landons, the Hendricks and the Martars, whose children are associated in the drug contacts. Some are involved in "popping pills," while others are tempted to begin taking them from an 11-year-old pusher.

As the story moves on, the pusher takes an overdose, becomes hysterical, upsets the families and friends, and is taken to the hospital by an ambulance crew.

Points of the play emphasize three things: 1. who am I?; 2. self discipline; and 3. ambition characterization.

Representatives from Channel 5 television will be in Littlefield Monday afternoon to view the play, and the staff will go to Lubbock Friday to tape the play in the studio there.

The students will be back in Littlefield in time to see themselves on the channel later-- the time is not known at present.

Moderator for the play is Mark Roden, who introduces each scene in its setting. Director and production manager are Leigh Kirby and Blake Wood respectively, and adult co-ordinators are Mrs. Rhea Bradley, Mrs. Barney Klein and Mrs. Stanley Aaron.

IN MEETING HERE

County Clerks Oppose Voting Law Changes

District and county clerks from 32 Texas counties were in Littlefield Wednesday for an area clerk's meeting.

Clerks from as far away as Houston, Galveston and Beaumont were present for the discussion of pending legislation and problems concerning their posts.

Kenneth Douglas, county judge at Corsicana and the president of the county judges and commissioners association of Texas, and Charlie Lawrence, county government program specialist from A&M, were guest speakers.

County and district clerks met in separate sessions after a noon buffet to discuss recently introduced bills in the Texas Legislature.

County clerks present opposed two bills,

51 and 60, which would amend all election codes, saying what they would amount to is the re-writing of Texas' election laws. Clerks said that the more than 60 bills pertaining to Texas elections left county clerks "in a state of shock."

One bill which drew the most criticism was a unitary primary proposal which would combine the Republican and Democratic primaries under the jurisdiction of local county clerks.

Another introduced bill would eliminate requirements for absentee voting, opening up voting in advance to any registered voter wanting to cast his ballot early.

The only proposed bill the county clerks

Local Food Stores Take Check Portion

Is the average Lamb County family spending more money for its daily living than families in other areas with similar incomes?

How closely does the local spending pattern conform to the guideline budget set up by the Bureau of Labor Statistics? The amount of money a family needs for food, shelter, medical care, clothing and the like is subject to the living costs prevailing in its community.

For food, for example, the American Institute of Public Opinion recently reported, on the basis of a poll, that the typical non-farm family in the East now spends $8 more a week than its Midwestern counterpart and $5 more than similar families in the West.

The spending picture in Lamb County, according to the most recent findings of the Standard Rate and Data Service, shows food stores getting an average of $20 per week per local family.

This is more than is being spent per family in many parts of the country, especially the non-urban areas. The average in the West South Central States is $19.

The figures apply to the average family. Those with special needs or wants spend more for food than others, adjusting their remaining expenditures accordingly.

In areas where consumer spending is at a high level, the answer lies in the fact that incomes there are generally at a better

Amputee Waits On Rest Home Residents

By NILAH RODGERS

"I've had waiting on people in my blood all my life," Mrs. Jesse Cantrell said, "and I can't get shed of it."

And although Mrs. Cantrell is 78 years old, has only one leg and is a resident herself at Amherst Manor, a rest home for senior citizens, she still waits on the more than 30 residents all she can.

"I read to them a lot," she said, "and sing." "Some are blind or can't see to read. Some are so lonely, and my heart goes out to them. They need to be entertained in some way."

Mrs. Cantrell was just 13 when she had to take over household duties because of her mother's illness. "Mother was never well," she said, "and she had 10 children."

Even after Mrs. Cantrell married and had a family of her own she didn't shirk caring for her neighbors.

She got her first social security check shortly after her husband died 32 years ago. And at an age when most people are retiring, Mrs. Cantrell cashed her first social security to pay her way to California, and took her first paying nursing job.

"Some people say 65 is too old to work," she said, "but I got a job. Then when I came back to Texas I moved to Plainview and took care of another woman until she died."

Mrs. Cantrell understands sickness because she has been so seriously ill that twice she wasn't expected to live. In both instances she credits the "Man upstairs."

Mrs. Cantrell wants to leave these and many other experiences for her seven children, 25 grandchildren and soon-to-be nine great grandchildren.

She started writing a book about her life after her leg was amputated three years ago. These experiences are recorded in five notebooks which she hopes to have ready to be typed and mimeographed by the end of this year.

After beginning the book she said she decided to see how much she could write and put in six hours one day, but was too exhausted the next day. But if a thought comes to her in the night, she gets up and puts it on paper.

Important things she wants to leave to her children and things more on the brighter side of life are going into Mrs. Cantrell's book. It is a religious book, filled with experiences like Mrs. Cantrell's daughter reading her Bible to her and singing a hymn to bring her out of a coma and start her on her way to recovery after losing her leg.

Mrs. Cantrell said she has had a strong faith since she found God when she was 12 years old. "Dad taught us that God knows all about us, watches over us and never forsakes us," she said. "Papa said I'd find Him, and I'd been looking for Him. It helps you to live a full life. You can find Him anywhere if you're looking," she concluded.

MRS. JESSE CANTRELL reads her Bible a lot, and when she runs across something that might help another patient at the Amherst Manor rest home, she takes time out to go read to others. She also sings to the residents. Such activities have slowed down her efforts to write a book on her personal experiences. She started the book three years ago. "And I'm going to finish it," she declares, "even if it never gets published, I'm going to get it down on paper. I can't quit now."

ITCH IN THE GITALONG--This old sorrel horse ain't what he used to be, and neither is the John Deere, so it looks like a question of which is going to furnish the horse power--the tractor or the horse. The horse is owned by Verdell "Lefty" Burton, and was found sunning himself in his lot inside the city limits of Amherst, and looking like he had replaced the tractor instead of it being the other way around.

Flower Talk

By Kip Cutshall

THE SIZE OF FLORES The tiny ducky blossom can be seen under a microscope because it is only 1/16 inch in diameter, while victorian water lily native of the Amazon River, has a lovely bell that measures eleven to twelve inches across.

The leaves of the lily grow to be six across, and some can weigh up to 200 pounds. One victorian pad could 7,000,000 duckweeds. It is not the quantity means the most at. On occasions a single in a vase says more garland. The setting behind the floral effect is important. We prefer our flowers with the mind.

THINK SPRING! Let's go by way of the sea and fetch some king crab, shrimp and a little bit of tuna—take them home—combine them with some other tasty ingredients for quick seafood casseroles.

Take your pick—there are three different ones to choose from—all three accented with that delightful zesty flavor of cheese.

Interesting tablemates to pick up along the way—vegetable soup, rice, canned chow mein noodles, and some springy crisp salad greens, for a delicious salad, to complete the casserole menu.

Come on gals—get spring fever—let's have something different for supper tonight.

Cracker Barrel Brand Sharp Natural Cheddar Cheese
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Dash of pepper
6 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
1 lb. (2 1/2 cups) cooked shrimp
Paprika
Parsley

Make a cream sauce with margarine, flour, milk and seasonings. Add cheese, stirring until melted.

Alternate layers of egg slices, shrimp and cheese sauce in a 1 1/2 quart casserole.

Bake at 350 degrees, 20 to 25 minutes.

Garnish with paprika and parsley. Makes 6 servings.

THIS "Saucy Shrimp Casserole" is a tempting example of the tasty contribution cheese makes to countless hot dishes. Serve with hot rice or canned chow mein noodles, and green salad.

SAUCY SHRIMP CASSEROLE
1/4 cup Margarine
1/4 cup flour
2 cups milk
2 cups (8 ounces) Shredded

GIVE THIS "king crab" entree that special touch by adding macaroni and cheese—results a delicious casserole to serve at supper or buffet. Complete with soup and a crisp salad.

KING CRAB MACARONI AND CHEESE
1 (7 1/2 oz.) can King crab or 1 (6 oz.) package frozen King crab, thawed
2 cups elbow macaroni

Our Symbol

One of our most treasured relics is the Liberty Bell. It is so-called because it was rung on July 8, 1776 to summons the citizenry for the terse announcement that the Declaration of Independence had been adopted. Today, it remains the greatest symbol of a nation free from tyranny in government and intolerance in religion.

But one fact often overlooked is that when the historic bell was originally cast its makers turned to the Bible, to Leviticus, for the words inscribed around its contour: "Proclaim Liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof." What a beginning! What a heritage! What a privilege to be a son or daughter of Freedom's Land. What a blessing to be an American.

How great is our Symbol!!!

PAUL HARVEY Young Votes

PRESIDENT NIXON, already in gear for the 1972 presidential campaign, is planning more travel, more activism, more news conferences, more Cabinet meetings, fewer vacations. These are "cosmetic" changes.

UNLESS the President is to be chased out of office by 11 million 18-, 19- and 20-year-olds, he'd better throw our unwanted war into full-speed reverse.

It has been eight months since American troops went smashing across the Cambodian border, ostensibly seeking the Communist underground headquarters for the Vietnamese war.

THEY NEVER DID find anything like the "nerve center" they were seeking. Another monumental intelligence snafu.

And though our President got our troops out of Cambodia on schedule, South Vietnam troops have had to rush to the rescue of the Cambodian government.

THIS HAS RESULTED in hair-pulling intramural squabbling between those ancient enemies-Cambodia and South Vietnam-with allegations of atrocities by South Vietnamese against Cambodians!

And further, though the Cambodian intrusion was intended to hasten withdrawal of American troops-it can't-because American troops must fill in back home for the South Vietnamese troops now in Cambodia.

MORE DEVASTATING to Administration self-respect is the deteriorating morale of the third of a million American troops still over there. Not even the Pentagon pretends any

THE PHILOSOPHER Confused

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm reacts in his own way to the controversy over the Supersonic Transport this week.

Dear editor: Although I'm not clear in my mind what the canceled SST jet airplane was for-oh, I know it'd go 1,800 miles an hour and would get people from New York to Paris 4 hours quicker than they can go now, but that wouldn't do any good, most of 'em would come back-still I have been following the debate in Congress as close as I could, what with there not being many interesting sports events on television now anyway and political scandals in the papers are so frequent they're becoming monotonous.

I'll admit I've never been able to understand the financial part of it, like why the government would pay a private company to make an airplane to sell to private airlines to haul private passengers in, and even less have I been able to understand why a private company would undertake the job on the impractical hope that Congress wouldn't change its mind half-way through its financing of the project. You'd think people running a big company like that would have more knowledge of Congressmen.

They could have asked any farmer, whose government checks this year aren't going to be nearly as much as they've been in the past. I learned long ago a man's got to learn to live with Congress and dig in when he has to.

Another thing about the SST is that it's an airplane three stories high and as long as a football field, and I got to thinking, if it didn't fly, why couldn't they use it for an inclosed stadium? But then I got to checking up and while it's true it is 100 yards long, the same distance as a football field, some designer goofed and didn't leave any room for the end-zones. Somebody'd get killed crashing over for a touchdown and going through the nose or tail of the thing.

There are a lot of things about government I don't understand. Yours faithfully, J. A.

HONNY GRYS

WE'RE ALWAYS faced with the ravages of the passing of time. No one wants to face up to the fact that he's getting old.

One of the sure signs is that we get impatient with the young. But, one of the encouraging things about the situation may be, we know that age affects some of us in different ways.

FR' INSTANCE, some things merely mellow with age, while others rot! So, we'd be affected by age according to the material we're made of.

BEAUTIFUL, INDEED, is the personality of one who mellows with the passing years, rather than just souring on the vine!

Of course, we lament the evident failings of the physical body, as we watch it deteriorate with time. However the well

What Our Readers Think

Both Sides

Mr. Editor, I love my parents and try to honor them second only to God and His commandments.

Yet, I still cannot help but get a little warm under the collar when, upon seeing a young man with longer than average hair or sideburns, they say, "Man! Look at that hippie," or, "I'd sure like to get a hold of him with some shears."

This exemplifies the mistaken attitude that many people have; that is, any boy or young man with longer than average hair or sideburns is a hippie.

Many clothing stores use the advertisement, "Clothes make the man." They are feeding you nothing but horse feathers!

Extra hair is not going to change the way a person thinks or acts. What determines this is his upbringing.

When a boy becomes true hippie or thug, it is not the hair that made him do it. That came as a secondary step. The first step was the goof that HE and his parents made somewhere down the line.

There are two sides to every coin just as there are two sides to youth and hair.

But then--there are two sides to every group of people. In order to get a true picture, one must look at BOTH sides.

A WOMAN'S VIEW

The Light

By PEARL BRANDON

MY BROTHER works with boys and has been ever since he came back from World War II. He works with Scouts and the boys of the church. He is really very good with boys of all ages.

Once the family had a reunion at Possum Kingdom. He slept in a tent near us with a bunch of the little boys of the family.

It was a strange new place for little boys and a tent can be awfully dark in the night with no windows. Even the moon and stars are shut out. I heard him talking to the little boys before they turned out the light.

"NOW YOU BOYS look all around while it is still light. It will be just like this when the lights are out...the only difference will be the dark. We can't see in the dark.

See, the beds are here, and there is the water and the snacks. Here is the opening to the tent if you need to go outside. My bed is here, if you are afraid in the night just call me, or come to my bed."

I KNOW those little boys felt much better, especially when they learned they were not expected to be brave and that being afraid was more or less taken for granted.

Sometimes little boys grow to be men still feel they are expected to be brave when they are fearful inside. It is dark ahead and they cannot see the way.

IT IS NATURAL to be afraid at times. Jesus knew this and tried to reassure us when He said, "Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid...I am the way, the truth and the Life."

He was saying, "If you are afraid call me."

"But", you say, "That is all very well for you to talk about not being afraid and quoting the Bible. This is 1971 and times have changed."

YES, TIMES have changed since Jesus walked the dusty roads of Palestine but the problems are the same. A man still has to support his family; he still has to care for his sick wife or his afflicted child.

He still has aged parents to care for and children to educate. But the same Jesus is still here even though He was crucified nearly two thousand years ago.

WHEN IT IS DARK we can still call to Him and if we listen we can hear His voice saying, "Let not your heart be troubled. It is dark now and you can't see, but morning will come and it will be light again. Lo I am here...be not afraid."

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Fair To Self

By BOB WEAR

FAIR PLAY is a topic about which we write and speak constantly. It is usually fair play in our treatment of others, and the emphasis given to this spirit of thought and action is certainly justified.

IT IS OBVIOUS, however, that in most of this good admonition one person is overlooked, and it is a serious oversight. While we are stressing the need for fairness in our treatment of our fellowmen, we should not neglect to include the great need for fairness to self.

IT IS JUST as important that we be fair to self as it is that we be fair to others. In fact, if we continue to be unfair to self we will be less and less inclined to follow the rules of fair play in our associations with other folk.

We are people, too. If it is fair to be kind to others, it is fair to be kind to self. If it is fair to make sure that we have true expectations of others, it is fair that we have true expectations of self. If it is fair to be considerate of others, it is fair to be considerate of self.

IF IT IS FAIR to forgive others, it is fair to forgive self. If it is fair to give others the benefit of the doubt, it is fair to give self the benefit of the doubt.

NONE OF THIS means that we should relieve self of any right duty or obligation. Too many people are too critical of self. Many times we are dissatisfied with our accomplishments when we have done our best. This is not fair.

When we do our best, we must be pleased with self. We often expect too much and seek goals that are beyond our reach. This is being inexcusably unfair to self.

We sometimes try to do things that we are not capable of doing. This can be, and often is, cruel. It is most unfair.

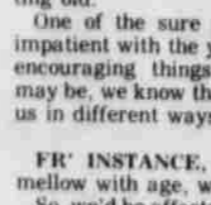

WE OFTEN OVERLOOK and minimize what we accomplish, and foolishly fail to give credit to self when it is justly due.

We must never be so unfair to self, because it can cause eventual discouragement with life.

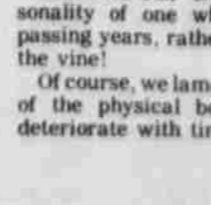

WE WILL NOT accomplish much by being fair to others when we are unfair to self. In fact, we are more likely to be genuinely fair to others; when we are always fair to self.

Roundup Gin To Be Honored

The Roundup Gin at Anton in Hockley County will be among ten Texas cotton gins April 5 to receive recognition for compiling outstanding accident prevention records.

The gin management will receive a special award for completing 11 consecutive seasons without a lost-time injury.

The award will be made during opening ceremonies of the fifty-eighth annual meeting of the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association in Dallas, Otto Pfluger, Association president, said. The Association conducts a safety awards program for cotton gins in the state and this year will recognize outstanding safety records for over-200 gin plants.

The gins completing 11 consecutive seasons have compiled nearly a quarter of a million man hours of operation without a lost-time injury.

Each gin places extra emphasis on worker safety during ginning season and maintains inspections to minimize operating hazards.

The gin will receive a gold on ebony plaque which is symbolic of the top award given by the Ginners' Association.

Since 1902 when President McKinley was assassinated, the U. S. Secret Service has been charged with guarding the President.

JACK EDWARDS

Staff Sergeant Dwight L. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Allen of Littlefield, is a member of the 313th Tactical Airlift Wing at Forbes AFB, Kan., that has earned the U. S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award.

Sergeant Allen is an electrical power production technician with the unit that operates C-130 Hercules transports for the tactical airlift of combat-ready personnel and cargo as part of the Tactical Air Command commitment to provide air support for U. S. ground forces.

The 313th, with a five-year accident-free flying record, was cited for exemplary mission accomplishment during a two-year period. It was specifically commended for its support of a 1969 NATO training exercise in Norway and deployments to Rhein-Main AB, Germany.

The unit was equally honored for its humanitarian role—frequently of international significance—during disaster relief operations that included delivery of 24,000 pounds of supplies to Costa Rican victims of a volcanic eruption and aid to flood victims in Rossville, Kan., both in 1968.

Sergeant Allen will wear a distinctive service ribbon to mark his affiliation with the 313th.

The sergeant previously served at Korat Royal Thai AFB, Thailand. His wife is the former Samorn Srisaard from Thailand.

U. S. Air Force Staff Sergeant Jack O. Edwards Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack O. Edwards of Westminster, Calif., has graduated from the Aerospace Defense Command (ADC) Noncommissioned Officer Academy at Hamilton AFB, Calif.

Sergeant Edwards, who received advanced military leadership and management training, is a fuels supervisor at Tyndall AFB, Fla., with a unit of ADC.

The sergeant is a 1964 graduate of Waynesville (Mo.) High School.

His wife, Sandra, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perkins of Springlake.

MARINE MASTER Sergeant Benn C. Kinslow, husband of the former Miss Janie Caldwell of Littlefield, is now serving with Force Logistic Command in Vietnam.

Boaters Are Warned Of Spring Dangers

"Spring time in Texas can be a time of great enjoyment for boaters, but it can also bring some special dangers," according to the general manager of the Texas Safety Association.

Lloyd F. Palmer says the "most significant danger to Texas boaters is the unpredictable nature of spring weather."

"The best advice is to not venture out in a boat if rough weather has been forecast," said Palmer.

"The most important rule to remember," urged Palmer, "is to stay calm. Panic can kill in the water."

"In truth," said Palmer "there is no reason for any boating accident to occur. During the spring and early summer in Texas, boaters should keep an eye to the skies for any sudden changes in cloud formations."

"They should be on the lookout for thunderheads and low, fast moving clouds. They should also be alert to any sudden shifts in wind direction and speed."

"If a boatman stays alert and follows the rules of boating safety, there is no reason why the spring and summer should not be a time of real enjoyment for water recreation."

FOOD

Just how much is needed to maintain a typical urban family of four on a moderate scale and how much is actually available for spending, after payment of personal taxes, are revealed in figures from the Bureau of Labor Statistics and SRDS.

For those families with net earnings of approximately $8,300 a year, which is close to the Lamb County average, the BLS budget provides for about 29 percent of it to be spent for food.

The remainder is apportioned among such other needs as transportation, medical costs, education, social security and miscellaneous.

The BLS reports that living costs for the family of four have risen 5.8 percent since its previous budget analysis, released a year earlier.

TO KEEP US FIRST... now we've added SERIOUS SERVICE

YOU SHOULD KNOW THAT:

- Four ounces of unbalanced weight in one spot around the tire causes a force of 35 pounds to act up and down, forward and backward on the wheel as it turns.
- High speed driving on unbalanced wheels is dangerous because of the high rate of wear to bearings, ball joints, tie rod ends and suspension arm pivots.
- Imbalance shortens tire life as much as 50%.
- Industry authorities recommend balancing every 5,000 miles or at least twice a year and, every time tires are changed or wheels rotated.

Serious... in that we have just installed the largest (1 1/2 tons-12 feet wide), newest, fastest, most accurate Wheel Balancer in the world for your safety.

While you wait — this new exclusive Drive-On machine uses automation and electronics to balance all four wheels on your car... in but a few minutes! And does it more accurately than any other Wheel Balancer in town.

Serious... because you are riding to real danger if your wheels are out of balance. At 60 miles an hour you can be heading for an accident because one ounce of unbalance is like a 10 lb. sledge hammer hammering at your tires and front end parts.

Serious... because these constant blows cause premature tire wear and abnormal wear fatigue of front suspension parts that are so critical to steering control and safety. Come in for a balancing check... so you can be sure... so you can have peace of mind... and, most importantly... so you can be safe.

That's serious service!

We handle any make... any model car on the road, including foreign cars.
