THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Our Response

By BOB WEAR

OUR RESPONSE to what is going on around us can be whatever we want it to be.

We can be indifferent, we can be overly concerned about it, or we can respond by becoming intelligently interested in doing something about it.

WE CAN ALSO CHOOSE the way in which we respond to the things which happen to us. We can appreciate the good things, but always with a spirit of humility.

We will probably be discerning enough to appreciate some of the undesirable things, too.

The undesirable things we do not appreciate must be responded to as philosophically as possible, and forgotten with the greatest haste.

IN ALL SITUATIONS, we have the privilege of choosing our response. In fact, we can anticipate most of the possible happenings, and know before-hand the best response to make.

We may not be able to attain perfection in our response, but we can realize a behavior pattern that will make us effective and efficient human beings.

LIVING BY REACTION is about the most undesirable manner of living know to us. It means that we are being controlled by the people around us.

When they are kind and thoughtful toward us, we usually react by being kind and thoughtful to them. If, however, they are unkind and thoughtless toward us, we are inclined to be unkind and thoughtless toward them.

PLANNED RESPONSE is the most desirable manner of behavior, and it is the most practical and most profitable way to behave.

It is also relatively easy to accomplish. We can develop an open personality rather than a defensive one. We can condition ourselves so that we are not overly sensitive, and this will lessen to readiness to meet the imagined need to protect ourselves.

We can lay aside suspicious attitudes, and can do so without becoming naive and glib; and thus be able to make a more appropriate response.

FRIENDLY RESPONSE, properly guided by discretion, is much more satisfactory than the unfriendly response that people often make for self-protection.

In fact, much of the dissipating friction found in human interaction can be eliminated by a friendly response that is not overdone.

THE RESERVED RESPONSE is usually the most desirable and most effective.

This holds true whether we are responding to the action of other people, or to situations in our life experience. It will be friendly, but not too friendly.

It will be a concerned attitude, but not overly concerned. It will be adequate for wise action, but not strong enough to cause us to overact.

THE WAY WE RESPOND to the actions of people, and to the happenings in our environment is more important to us than the actions and the happenings themselves.

What is happening within us is more important than what is happening to us. Therefore it is important that we respond with the greatest possible prudence and calmness.

We can learn to do this, and we must learn this in order to live with a reasonable degree of satisfaction.

CHOOSING OUR RESPONSE, and we can choose our manner of response, means that we can choose our manner of life as nearly as this is humanly possible.

Tax Revenue

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm reports he has been doing some thinking about taxes this week. Some people may not agree.)

Dear editor:

It doesn't make any difference what newspaper turns up out here, every one of them will have an article or two about the dire necessity of finding a new source of tax revenue.

All levels of government are desperate for new tax money, cities, towns, counties, states, Washington. State governments alone right now are hunting ways to raise over six billion dollars in new revenue. That's 15 per cent more than the 48 billion they raised last year. In Washington the story is even worse.

I have been wracking my brain to find a new source of government revenue, knowing that if you leave it up to most office-holders they'll just come up with an increase in the old taxes, apparently believing that for example raising the sales tax a penny or so constitutes original thinking, or maybe cutting the property tax rate 2 per cent and raising property valuations 50 per cent is a new idea.

But I have actually found a new source of government revenue that won't cost the tax payers a cent. It's simple: charge all office-holders office rent.

You take a Congressman. He's now making $42,000 a year, plus free postage and free stationery, plus an allowance for travel and telephones, and pays nothing to heat or cool his office or to even have it cleaned up.

Surely he could pay a little office rent. You take say a lawyer and guarantee him $42,000 a year and he'd be delighted to pay his own office rent.

He's doing it now, frequently on less. The same goes for most professions and businesses. I know there are millionaires in Congress, but I know there are a lot of Congressmen making more in Congress than they could make out. Why couldn't they all pay office rent?

Now I don't know how many office-holders there are throughout the country but it's a pretty good sized figure. If they all paid office rent you can see how much revenue would mount up.

Furthermore, since the people who are the landlords, whenever office-holders raised their salaries, all we'd have to do is hold our own in raise their rent.

If you think this idea is worth promoting, I'm afraid to let Judge Sides and President Nixon know about it.

Thelma Hukill Honored At Dinner

A dinner honoring Mrs. Thelma Hukill on her 38th anniversary of service with the Telephone Company was given Friday night in the Flame Room. Mrs. Hukill was presented a small wishing well containing a gift of money from friends and telephone employees and an individual gift from her supervisor, Mrs. Ed Trimmer.

Mrs. Hukill completed 38 years of service with the telephone company on Oct. 1, 1970 but chose to retire at the end of February of this year.

During her years with the company, Mrs. Hukill worked in the various positions of operator, chief operator and central office clerk. She has seen many changes over the years--in the type of equipment used, the increase in number of personnel and the different work locations.

In 1932 the switchboard was located in the First National Bank building, then in 1938 relocated in the building now occupied by the commercial office.

In 1960 the final move was made to the present location at 600 E. 5th.

Now Mrs. Hukill is anxious to see Direct Distance Dialing become a reality in this area. Mrs. Hukill resides in Littlefield with her mother.

DEANA REAST, right, president of the YWA's of First Baptist Church in Littlefield sits down with Pam Stafford, member, to discuss the success of the YWA's Focus Week, observed Feb. 14 through the 19. Bakeries

LEADER-NEWS SOCIETY EDITOR

THE GIRL SCOUT cookie sale will begin this Friday, Feb. 26, and continues through March 11. Those little ones all decked out in their green or brown attire will soon be knocking on your door with their tasty variety of Girl Scout cookies for sale.

You probably always wonder what to do with so many cookies—well here are a few suggested ideas and recipes released from Southern Biscuit Company to the Caprock Girl Scout Council in Lubbock.

CRUMBLE THEM, crush them, roll them or whatever your heart desires to turn them into crumbs—then put them to use with some of the following recipes.

THE BUTTER FLAVORED shorties can be crushed and mixed with shortening to make wholesome and delicious pastry for pies such as custard, lemon, butterscotch, chocolate cream, etc.

THESE GIRL SCOUT cookies may, also, be used to line a mold to be filled with your favorite gelatin desserts.

COOKIES are very good if topped with a marshmallow and dot of butter and browned quickly under a broiler.

TURN A 22-ounce can of cherry pie filling into 9-inch pie plate. Press 6 to 8 butter flavored shorties lightly into surface. Heat in 400 degree oven until bubbling, for 15 minutes. Spoon into dessert dishes, with cookies on top of each serving. Serve warm with cream. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

APRICOT WHIP—Using

DATE AND NUT ROLL—Using butter flavored cookies, 1 dozen Girl Scout cookies, (broken), but not too fine, 3/4 cup chopped dates, 14 marshmallows-cut up, 1 cup chopped nuts, 1/2 cup whipped cream. Combine the above-saving 1/2 cup crumbs, mix well and roll up with 1/2 cup crumbs on the outside. Wrap in waxed paper and put in refrigerator at least 5 hours. Cut in slices and top with whipped cream.

I WILL RUN some other Girl Scout cookie recipes in my column in this Sunday's edition of the Leader-News.

COOKIE SOUFFLE—Using butter flavored shorties, 1 cup scalded milk, 12 cookies (broken), 4 egg yolks, 1/2 tsp. vanilla, 4 egg whites, pinch of salt. Pour milk over cookies, add well beaten yolks, and cook in a double boiler until thick. Cool. Add vanilla and stiffly beaten whites and salt. Put in a pudding dish in pan of warm water to bake for 35 minutes at 325 degrees. May be served with chocolate sauce.

Jehovah's Witnesses Planning Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Lowery and their family will be among the 800 delegates attending a three-day convention of Jehovah's Witnesses in Wichita Falls this weekend along with several from this area who will assemble in the Hirschi High School auditorium.

Lowery described the sessions as Bible oriented and sponsored by the Watchtower Society who arrange three conventions every year. "These are a valuable aid in helping parents and their children to solve the problems they face. Being a good parent is a big job, especially in these days," Lowery said.

"Stress is placed on the Bible as an aid to help parents cope with the conditions faced by parents and their children alike and the sessions in Wichita Falls will offer encouragement in how to deal with family matters," he said. "There is an urgent need to go to the best source of encouragement available today. Namely, the Bible which provides all the answers for modern living even though it was written nearly two thousand years ago."

Commenting on the practical aspects of the assembly in Wichita Falls, Lowery said that sound counsel will be provided in an effort to help parents cope with the pressure cooker atmosphere that exists today.

"After all the Creator of man and woman originated marriage and he initiated the producing of children by giving men and women the ability to have offspring, so who, then knows more about how to handle the job of being a good parent?"

"This is why many parents today feel it makes good sense to go directly to the Originator of the family for the best advice," Lowery added. "This advice is contained in His inspired Word, the Bible, and one of the best Scriptures that prove this can be found at 2 Timothy 3:16."

Pointing to the program to be featured on the opening night of the assembly in Wichita Falls, Lowery said that one of the talks to be presented by a Lubbock minister is entitled, "Children Need Parents' Help." Other talks Friday night will follow the theme, "Helping Others To Do God's Will."

According to Lowery, the convention highlight will come Sunday afternoon when L. M. Dugan, traveling minister from New York, will present the main Bible lecture on the subject, "What Is Behind the Spirit of Rebellion?"

Other family groups from this area who will attend the convention in Wichita Falls are, the Sam Stantons and Alvin Tinsleys.

Shelley Grant Named '71 Basketball Queen

Shelley Grant, brown haired, blue-eyed, 5' 3", sophomore, was named 1971 Basketball Queen, during the time between the Junior Varsity-Oilton game and the Varsity-Oilton game.

Shelley was escorted by Albert Sanchez and crowned by Kim Hill who also presented her with the traditional red roses.

Her attendants were Junior Debbie Hafley, escorted by Wendell Horn and Senior Kay Armistead, escorted by Keith Slaughter.

All four boys are seniors on the Littlefield Varsity Basketball team.

Shelley serves as the sophomore class treasurer and is active in Girls Athletics, Kat Klub, and Future Teachers of America. She served as junior high cheerleader two years.

She lists her favorite book as "To Kill A Mockingbird", her favorite movie as "Anne of a Thousand Days", and her favorite color as blue.

Shelley says her pet peeve is people who gripe all the time. This friendly, always-smiling sophomore spends most of her spare time participating in and watching most any sport, and being with a certain junior boy.

Debbie Hafley, junior candidate for Queen, is active in Girls Athletics and Kat Klub. This brown-haired, blue-eyed 5' 3" junior is new in Littlefield High School, moving from Levelland at the first of the year. Debbie is kept busy after school working at Brittain's Pharmacy.

Kay Armistead, senior nominee for Basketball Queen, has brown hair and blue eyes.

Kay has been a varsity cheerleader for three years, and is a member of the National Honor Society, serving as vice-president; Future Teachers of America; Student Council, serving as publicity director; Annual Staff, and Wildcat Band.

Kay enjoys all sports, playing the piano, and spends much of her spare time being with a certain senior boy.

TOM HOLLINGSWORTH, counselor, presents Kathie McBride with a charm from the Betty Crocker Company. Kathie was recently named the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Miss McBride Is Named Homemaker

Katherine McBride has been named 1971 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for Littlefield High School. She was chosen on the basis of her score in a Dec. 1 written knowledge and attitude examination for which 650,000 senior girls throughout the country were enrolled.

From General Mills, sponsor of the annual education program, she will receive a specially designed award. Additionally, her selection makes her eligible for state and national honors, including one of 102 college scholarships totaling $110,000.

The 1971 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow--the national winner--will be awarded a $5,000 educational grant. She will be selected this spring from 51 senior girls representing each state and the District of Columbia during an expense-paid educational tour by these State Homemakers of Tomorrow. Each will be accompanied by a school adviser of Washington, D. C., and Colonial Williamsburg, Va. Second-, third- and fourth-place winners nationally will receive $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 scholarships. The other state winners will be awarded $1,500 grants.

State judging centers performance of school in the Dec. 1 test, with observation and during the tour added to the awards for state and national Homemaker of Tomorrow, second girls in each state receive scholarships, and State Homemaker of Tomorrow are awarded piety sets of Engraved Britannica by Engraved Britannica, Inc.

All judging and winners is done by Research Associates, which also contracts grades the written exam.

The only national program exclusively school senior girls, the Crocker Search for American Homemaker of Tomorrow was instituted by General Mills in the school year to emphasize importance of homemaker career. Since its inception almost seven and a half million girls are enrolled, and with grants, scholarships will total in excess of a million.

Cyd McKinnon Places First At District DE Meeting

participants for one of the 14 first places. The test consisted of taking a written test and doing a 1/4 page advertising layout.

The choices for the ad layout were hardware and children's clothing.

Each student was responsible for his or her brand name, store's name, and placement of material. Their own art work could be added if desired.

Winning first place entitles Cyd to enter the state meet at Fort Worth. If Cyd should win at State she would then be eligible to go to the National DE Convention at San Antonio.

The state meet will be held March 4 through March 6. Mrs. Henry, Cyd McKinnon, and voting delegates Frances Castillo, Ann Hopper, and Jackie Howell will go on chartered bus with other DE students from this area. The delegates will vote for State DE officials.

Seniors Take Test Saturday

Seniors from area high schools took the American College Entrance Test (ACT) Saturday, Feb. 20.

They were registered from 8 to 8:15, books were passed out and instructions were given from 8:15 to 8:30.

This is a test given by the American College Testing Program of college entrance tests, and is required in several area colleges such as South Plains, West Texas State, Texas Tech and Wayland.

The ACT test consists of four separate tests: English Usage, Mathematics Usage, Social Studies Reading, and Natural Science Reading.

Approximately 60 students registered for this test from Littlefield and surrounding areas.

It is a national test given five times a year.

Track Season Is Underway

Littlefield hosted a practice track meet here Friday, Feb. 19, after school.

Anton, Springlake, and Amherst track teams were present, and Littlefield, as well as the other teams, participated.

The next track meet that Littlefield will enter will be at Brownfield, Saturday, Feb. 27. This will be their first competition meet for points.

God's Psychiatry

A DEVOTIONAL

By WAYLAND HUTTO

Pleading for answers to their questions, millions of human beings are finding themselves lost in a world overflowing with problems caused by a lack of spiritual vision.

Throughout our world, young people have revealed their intense dislike for the world as it is. They have adopted the idea: "stop the world--I want to get off."

Every day has become a hell on earth for this generation that has--in its attempts to uncover and solve problems--plunged into one of the most problem-oriented periods in history.

Our beloved Christianity has been twisted around to fit the desires of each individual. The kind of love, faith, and hope that Christ spoke about is becoming nonexistent.

Our first failure was that when we attempted to give up our sin, we did not replace the sin with anything; consequently, the resulting emptiness gave Satan a fine opportunity to tempt us and fill us with sin again.

In addition, we have taken too much credit--and too little blame.

A man once said this: "I've never seen an evil man I didn't resemble too much--nor a good one I resembled enough."

For years one of the most common criticisms of churches has been that its members are hypocrites. Granted, this is an unfortunate truth; however, it is even more disturbing to observe those who lack the vision to realize their hypocrisy.

The only hope left for us is to return to prayer and to the Scriptures for guidance back to the Lord. God intended for to be removed from the world spiritually--but not physically.

It is time that Christians right themselves with God and dive into the flooding sea of confusion.

In other words, our plea should be "stop the world--we want to get on!"

"Give me one good reason to wait and band Caparol when I plant my cotton."

It'd be quicker to give you the only good reason why you shouldn't.

Giving you all the reasons why you should switch from broadcasting a pre-plant cotton herbicide, to banding Caparol® pre-merge, takes longer. Because there are at least seven good ones.

1. You don't have to tie up money in weed control months before you need it. Banding Caparol pre-merge at planting, keeps your options open until the seed goes in the ground. And you're using money over a shorter time period.
2. The economics of banding Caparol, instead of broadcasting and incorporating a pre-plant, is the only reason some growers need. Caparol is the best answer yet for the problem of tight money, cheap cotton and weed control.
3. Caparol is easy to apply. Just mount a spray nozzle behind each planter wheel and you can plant and spray in one trip. When the cotton is in, the herbicide is on.
4. Planting can't mess up a Caparol treatment. Busting too deep or knocking off too much soil with the planter can undo even the best pre-plant incorporated treatment. But not Caparol. It's sprayed behind the planter. The last thing to go on the seedbed.

5. No incorporation is needed when you pre-merge Caparol. You save the cost of incorporation, and you save soil moisture, as well.
6. In addition to great carelessness control, Caparol controls annual morningglory. Pre-plant herbicides just can't touch it.
7. You can rotate to sorghum or follow again with cotton without danger of injury. Caparol doesn't cause a carryover problem.

Now if you only needed one reason to wait and band Caparol when you plant your cotton, you have plenty to choose from. All of them are worth checking into. When you do, it's a better than even chance you'll join the switch to Caparol.

The only reason not to, is if a severe grass infestation is likely to be more of a problem than broadleaves. This is about the only reason left for broadcasting a pre-plant herbicide.

Check it out for yourself. Put Caparol to the test this year. See why the switch is on to Caparol.

CLEARING A DRIVE was a man-sized job for Steve Friday. But after the work came the play, with school dismissed all day Monday because of the Sunday blizzard.

Ice, Snow Cause Wrecks

Highway Patrolman Weidon Parson investigated three area wrecks Sunday, and all three were attributed to snow and icy road conditions.

At about 9:30 Sunday morning, Raymond Lynn Williams, 17, of Route 1 Sudan, was traveling four miles east of Littlefield on U.S. 84 in a 1964 Chevrolet when he skidded off the road into the median and struck a metal reflector post. The post hit the driver's door.

About 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon there was a two-car wreck seven and one-half miles west of Littlefield on U.S. 84. An Albuquerque, N.M. man, Leland Bowen, driving a 1969 BMW, was east bound on 84 with visibility about zero. Donald Cantero of Wichita Falls was driving a 1963 GMC pickup. When he saw the car, Cantero applied his brakes and went into a broadside skid. The right side of the pickup hit the rear of the auto. Damages were estimated at $500 to the foreign car and $200 to the pickup.

Another one car accident was checked about 9:30 Sunday night. Dr. Glen Gay of Lubbock was traveling east on U.S. 84 and skidded off the road about four and one-half miles west of Littlefield. His 1970 Oldsmobile hit a metal post and the left rear bumper clipped off the end of a culvert.
