Littlefield Hospital 'Serious' About Baby Week

Littlefield Hospital and Clinic takes special proclamations seriously—officially National Baby Week. From May 1 through May 3 was the week dedicated for the wee ones, as Dr. Klein can very well attest. He delivered eight babies in 24 hours

Monday and Tuesday—seven of these babies were born in a 10-hour period. When the Leader-News checked on the baby situation Thursday morning, May 1, the girls were ahead six to four. But then National Baby Week was only at mid point, and Dr. Klein was well aware that the little ones had all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday to event the statistics.

Scoring for Dr. Klein's team during the first half of National Baby Week were baby boy Parmer. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Parmer, he weighed in at 7 lb., 9 oz.; baby girl Franco at 6 lb. 7 oz.; Mr. and Mrs. Noah Gaitan's 7 lb. girl; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oxford's 9 lb. girl; Mr. and Mrs. John Rodgers had a 5 lb. 14 oz. girl. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kilby had a 7 lb. 3 oz. boy; the R. E. Morgans had a 6 lb. 15 oz. girl; and the Joe Rivera's had a 6 lb., 9 oz. girl.

Ten babies in the nursery at one time is the biggest baby boon Littlefield has experienced since The Pill.

Littlefield Youngster's Death Ruled Accidental Hanging

Justice of Peace Stanley Doss ruled the death of 9-year-old Willie Lee Walker, Jr. accidental due to strangulation by hanging.

The black youngster and five younger brothers and sisters aged 3 to 8-years old were playing in a seed house Monday afternoon after school. There were some nylon cords hanging from the open rafters.

According to Sheriff E. D. McNeese,

Doss, and the Walker children, young Willie tied a nylon cord around his neck and jumped for a pile of seed. The boy missed the seed and he strangled to death.

Brady Helm's son-in-law, Larry Waters, cut his hand trying to break the nylon cord. Waters also administered mouth to mouth resuscitation.

The accident occurred 2 1/2 miles east of Littlefield on the Spade Highway.

Frank Rogers Celebrates 83rd Birthday With 18 Holes Of Golf

By NILAH RODGERS

Frank Rogers celebrated his 83rd birthday in just about the same manner he has since he was in high school—he played 18 holes of golf.

Rogers has been retired 12 years, but he still goes to his desk each weekday morning at Littlefield Federal Savings and Loans where he is president of the board. Then he spends his afternoons golfing. And he can break an 80 on the golf course, too.

Rogers arrived in Lamb County at the Amherst Depot on July 4, 1924, right in the middle of a big celebration. He was wearing a straw hat, Panama suit and white canvas shoes when he stepped from the train into a mid-summer blizzard. Halsell Cattle Company officials who met him at the depot were wearing overcoats.

The swaggering young bachelor was just "getting away" from Venita, Okla. for a while. He had no intentions of staying in West Texas.

He had been planning to go to Saint Louis when neighboring Oklahoman W. E. (Bill) Halsell asked Rogers if he'd like to go to Amherst to keep books for the Halsell Land Company.

His short stay became a long one. The second year at Amherst he met the pretty first grade teacher who is now Louise Rogers. Rogers is now a 51 year Lamb County resident.

Rogers stayed with the Halsell Land Company until the Federal Land Bank took over the book work 13 years later.

During this time, 150,000 acres of the Sod House and Springlake Divisions of the XIT Ranch were cut up into farms and sold. The land was priced at $25 per acre and sold very fast with some 230,000 acres selling within three years after being put on the market.

Rogers saw many firsts for Lamb County while in Halsell's employ. Bill Halsell built the first cotton gins at Amherst and Earth. The first irrigation well in Lamb County was drilled at the Halsell Ranch headquarters.

Antelopes roamed near the Amherst townsite when Rogers first went there. As the land was settled and the people built half dugouts, the antelopes moved back into the sandhills.

Rogers became acquainted with just about every farmer in the county while with the land company. These people became his customers when he became a John Deere dealer in Littlefield in 1938. He stayed in the implement business until 1964.

Several of Louise and Frank Rogers longtime friends were present last Sunday to help him celebrate his 83rd birthday and present him with a plaque in recognition of his birthday and his favorite recreation.

Mr. Wade A. Warren
News Editor
Littlefield Leader-News
Littlefield, Texas

Dear Mr. Warren:

In the near future the Texas Department of Highways will be dismantling a Harolds Club sign, located 2 1/2 miles south of Anton, as part of the nation's highway beautification program.

Harolds is the largest user of outdoor signs affected by the program and the dismantling might be a story of interest to your readers.

District engineer George Wall will contact me regarding the exact time that the sign will be taken down. I will phone or drop a note to you containing that information so you would be able to photograph the event if you're interested.

The story has nostalgia interest for Texans as Lady Bird Johnson was instrumental in developing the program.

Leading Death Cause

HEART AND BLOOD vessel diseases will claim the lives of 51,000 Texas residents in 1975, it is predicted by the American Heart Association.

Nationwide, an estimated one million will be victims of America's leading cause of death.

DEATHS FROM heart and blood Stolen TV, Stereo valued at $260. The theft was reported last Monday. After some questioning by the sheriff's office this week, Jaso called sheriff E. D. McNeese early Sunday morning and said when they returned home the missing tv and stereo had been returned and placed on the porch.

Four arrests were made over the weekend. Three aliens were held for border patrol authorities and an Amarillo man who had been probated from Lamb County on a burglary charge was arrested for irrevocation of probation.

vessel diseases in this state represent 49 percent of the 105,700 deaths from all causes.

More than 28 million Americans— one in eight— suffer from some type of heart and blood vessel disease. The common forms are heart attack, high blood pressure, stroke, rheumatic heart disease and congenital heart defects.

Estimates for Texas show that these diseases afflict more than 1,245,000 persons.

BESIDES THE HUMAN loss and suffering causes by these diseases, they will place a $20 billion burden on the economy this year, including lost wages, hospital and medical care and medication.

Early diagnosis and treatment can reduce the incidence of heart attack and stroke and area residents are advised to ask the Lamb County Heart Association for information in the early warning signs and risk factors of these two major killers.

CLIPS & TIPS

By JOELLA LOVVERN

MANY PEOPLE are obsessed with their daily need for protein—the nutrient necessary to make bodies grow.

According to a specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the average man needs only 56 grams of pure protein each day. That can be obtained by eating two 2 1/2 ounce servings of meat group foods daily.

Each ounce of meat gives about seven grams of pure protein. So two 2 1/2 ounce servings along with other foods will give more than 56 grams.

Children ages 1-10 need only 23-36 grams daily and women need 46 grams daily. However, during pregnancy, an additional 30 grams are necessary and during lactation, an additional 20 grams.

Body building proteins can be found in meat and meat group foods such as fish, poultry, dried peas, beans and nuts. Milk and milk group foods such as cheese and cottage cheese also contain protein.

Breads and cereals provide small amounts of protein. And the best way for consumers to fill their daily protein requirements is by eating a wide variety of foods each day from the Basic Four Food Groups.

This should include two servings from the meat group, two-three servings from milk group, four servings from bread and cereal, and four from fruit and vegetable groups.

GOOD THINGS often come in small packages—and this is especially true of dry split peas.

"Dry peas are an excellent source of protein. And when combined with protein from meats and other animal origin foods, they make an unbeatable 'protein team'," says Mrs. Dorothy Powell, County Extension Agent.

Green dry peas and yellow dry peas may be used in the same way. The small difference in their flavor isn't enough to change the recipe ingredients, she explained.

"Consumers often wonder how split peas get split. When specially-grown whole peas are dried and their skins are removed, the peas have a natural break which splits them apart," she said.

GUIDELINES for loading a freezer are simple and logical—designed to keep food rotating and the freezer temperature at 0 degrees.

Be careful about adding too much "new" or unfrozen food at one time. Three pounds of food for every cubic foot of storage space is reasonable addition.

Another way to determine the amount of food to freeze at one time is to add no more than 1/15 the capacity of the freezer. After this amount is put in, wait 24 hours before adding more.

For fast freezing, new food should be placed near the walls or bottom of either chest or upright types of freezers.

Keep similar foods together in baskets or on shelves. Foods also may be organized in heavy plastic or mesh bags.

Label all home frozen food with name and date stored. Masking tape makes a good label for this. Also, it's a good practice to date-label commercially frozen foods.

If the freezer is large, keep an inventory. Add each new food to the inventory sheet when it is put into the freezer.

Keep one page for each food category—meat, fruits, vegetables, baked goods, and any others.

As items are used, deduct them from the inventory sheet. This systematic storage helps keep track of foods that should be cooked and lets the homemaker know when she's running low.

TIPS AND TIDBITS:

An "instant" Sauce Supreme to crown asparagus or broccoli? The secret... a can of rich Chicken Gravy! In a saucepan, gradually blend 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) Chicken Gravy and generous dash pepper into 2 tablespoons sour cream. Heat; stir occasionally. Makes about 1 cup. Delicious with friend chicken and rice, too!

Bring on the Black Forest Sandwiches—quick, German-style fare for supper feasting: In saucepan, combine 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) Chicken Giblet Gravy, 1/4 cup chopped apple, and 1/4 teaspoon caraway seed. Heat; stir occasionally. Place 4 servings hot sliced cooked chicken, ham, or pork on 4 slices rye bread; pour sauce over all. Makes 4 open-face sandwiches.

Confetti Spaghetti 'n' Sausages—a speedy family-pleasing favorite: In saucepan, cook 1/2 pound link sausages, cut in half, until done; pour off fat. Add 1 can (15 ounces) Spaghetti in Tomato Sauce with Cheese and 1 can (about 8 ounces) corn with sweet peppers, drained. Heat; stir occasionally. Makes about 3 cups.

Beefy Sandwich Sauce—great perk-up for burgers: In saucepan, combine 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) Beef Gravy, 1/4 cup ketchup, and 1/2 teaspoon prepared horseradish. Heat; stir occasionally.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Cover Yourself

FROM DIFFERENT SOURCES, we receive impressions, of varying degrees, which lead to the conclusion that we are being unjustifiably self-centered if we think about our own welfare. Of course, it is possible to be overly concerned about one's self; and this must not be permitted.

On the other hand, we can be too unconcerned about our well-being; we can let ourselves become too vulnerable, we can leave ourselves open to attack or damage.

There is no merit in this. It is so much better to "cover yourself", so you can maintain your most effective life situation.

EFFECTIVE LIVING is somewhat like financial investments. Whenever we can do so, we "protect ourselves from loss by a counterbalancing transaction".

We don't make an investment without "hedging". In the management of our lives, it is even more important to handle our living actions so that we are protected.

We may not be able to make ourselves, or our position as well-covered as we would like; but we can try. It is certainly foolish to carelessly leave ourselves open to hurts, insults, losses, failures, recriminations, and such like.

PRUDENCE IS THE KEY to the real success in the action taken to "cover yourself".

It involves the sensible and reasonable aims and plans for one's life; it includes conscientious concern about keeping promises and taking care of obligations; and it enables us to protect all of the justified ways. "PRUDENCE IS A DUTY owe ourselves, and if we will owe our enemies as to neglect not to wonder if the world is discharging their duty to us. man lays the foundation of others too often are apt to Fielding.

"MOST OF US cause our own is an expression heard frequently to some extent, this is true. To extent it is true, it can be condition can be reduced to give to us some of the protection.

Making promises that creating financial obligations meet; saying unwise and things that cause us trouble ourselves in situations everything is stacked against some of the actions that will trouble.

IT IS VERY URGENT more thought and planning purpose of protecting ourselves.

NONE OF US know all the future, and it is best that we do know some things. There one of us should have, as our "cover yourself".

There is no reason why ourselves by letting ourselves toward immediate or distant needs and happenings, with our very best to be prepared.

NOW IS THE TIME for all good citizens to come to the aid of their communities' various baseball programs. Most all leagues have started regular baseball season, with the exception of the Pee Wee League, and work day has been called for this weekend in the Pee Wee Park.

So bring your rakes, hoes, shovels, hammers etc. and pitch in. Anyone wishing to donate some old lumber or rolled roofing to cover the tops of the dugouts may do so by letting some of the Pee Wee officers know of your contribution, or you may call me at 385-3870 and we will pass the word on.

In order to have a good baseball program, all who are involved should help some in preparation as well as during the program.

I have been told that there is an individual who worked 44 days in the concession stand last year, and has been consistent in getting things ready and working this year. To top it all off, I understand that this person does not have a boy in the program. So the next time you go to the baseball concession stand for something to eat or drink, tell Janna "Thank You" and offer to donate a few hours to help the program.

DON'T FORGET ABOUT the Little Dribblers' Tournament that is being held this week in the Junior High Gym.

Finals will be played off Friday. There will be a regional play all the All-Stars from various this region playing next week in Littlefield. Congratulations to the Little Dribblers officers and involved for landing this tournament in Littlefield.

I'd like to take this opportunity to welcome all of you to come and watch basketball at its finest. The various leagues will then state and national finals.

Merchant Acquires Direct Computer System Linkup

Richard L. Wall, owner of the Western Auto Store in Littlefield, has installed electronic equipment in the Littlefield Western Auto Store, linking it directly with the computer in Kansas City, Mo., containing the inventory records of all Western Auto Distribution Centers in the United States.

Wall explained that his affiliation with the Direct Inventory Availability Line of the Western Auto Supply Company now makes more than four times as much inventory immediately available to Littlefield and Lamb County customers.

Wall further explained, "We keep about 3,000 items in our store at all times. Western Auto keeps about 16,000 items available to me at all times. With the use of our new equipment, we can tell our customers within 30 seconds the availability of any major item handled by Western Auto. Should the customer desire that we order the merchandise, the order can be placed and verified within an additional 10 seconds. We believe this to be the most modern system of its kind and we welcome any opportunity to demonstrate this equipment."

Wall, a resident of this area for many years, has recently purchased the local Western Auto Store. Many will remember Mrs. Wall as the former Norma Chisholm of Littlefield.

GREAT AFFIRMATIONS OF FAITH

A young minister was unexpectedly asked to teach a Sunday School class of youngsters. "What shall we talk about?" he brightly asked the class. After a slight pause, one student asked, "What do you know?" How very apropos. "What do you know?"

An old Christian told a modernist pastor, "All your 'think so's' don't add up to equal just one of my 'know so's'."

Views, instead of the Good News, is like feeding chickens sawdust. The flock will eat it but they will die.

The Bible is composed of great affirmations.

- * I am thy God.
- * Before Abraham was, I am.
- * Thou art a great God and greater than all other Gods.
- * Though he slay me, yet will I trust him.
- * I know that my Redeemer liveth.

Why then, does not the pulpit ring out certain sounds, not uncertain waverings?

Scouts Start Spring Roundup

Hundreds of boys are preparing to enter the third grade in just a few days and many of them would like to be Scouts.

Since the requirements for Cubbing are completing the second grade or 8 years old, Scouting is to complete the fifth grade or 11 years old, it is time to invite prospective new members now. Scouting means fun and adventure to many boys with summer activities summer camp, and many outdoor events.

The World Series Roundup started May 1, and will continue until July 31, 1975.

Each unit has developed a game score of new boys to invite into Scouting. Each boy recruited means a home run for the unit he joins. Units achieving their number of home runs they have set will receive a coffee cup for the leader. Each Scout now registered that recruits a boy, scoring a home run will receive a recruiter patch.

All boys wishing to become Cubs, Scouts or Explorers are urged to visit a unit near their home or school. If you are not aware of any unit near you call Bill Yohner, 385-5605 or 385-4294.

Farmers Union Women Promote Farmer-Consumer Alliance

A group of 100 Farmers Union women from Minnesota, North Dakota and Texas converged on the Texas Capitol to participate in the campaign to national food policy. The new "Alliance for Food, Employment and Resource Policy" was the focus of the women from Lamb County area was (Betty) Harlan of the four-day trip, the women in the "Women's" attended an all-day briefing session by the National Farmers Union staff, visited their own congressional delegation, as well as over half of the other Congressional offices on Capitol Hill, met with officials at the U.S. Department of Agriculture and squeezed in time for some sightseeing in and around the national capitol.

the Capitol; also with Congressman Jack Hightower. They also paid a visit to the offices of Senator Lloyd Bentsen and John Tower; also Congressman Omar Burleson. They had an especially nice visit with Larry Meyers, who is Senator Bentsen's aide, and he is a Muleshoe native. All of these lawmakers pledged their support of a long-range farm policy and approved of the new Alliance.

Coast Guard Issues Warning On Life Jackets

The U.S. Coast Guard recently issued a warning to all recreational boaters that wearable personal flotation devices (PFD's), such as life jackets, life preservers and special purpose devices, should be purchased according to the size of the wearer.

Personal Flotation Devices should fit the individual without any major adjustments in order to provide the proper buoyancy for the wearer. For example, types I, II and III PFD's are intended to aid the wearer in keeping his head above water. Any alterations to the device by the potential user, aside from rendering the device non-approved, could very well void the designed buoyancy characteristic.

"Selection according to the size of the wearer is most important," says Rear Admiral John F. Thompson, Chief of the Office of Boating Safety, in Washington, D. C. "This is definitely one case where the bigger the better is not necessarily true. All PFD manufacturers must design PFD's according to size specifications and all recreational boaters should pay close attention to size requirements posted on each PFD for proper fitting to the user."

Scouts Plan High Adventure

Sixty Scouts and Explorers will leave the Lubbock area for Philmont High Adventure Camp located at Cimmaron, N.M.

Thirty Scouts and leaders leave July 3 for a 12-day trek with another 30 Scouts and Explorers leaving Lubbock on July 12 stated Jack Callaway, Council High Adventure Chairman.

"A number of other Scout Troops and Explorer Posts will visit New Mexico, Davis Mountains, Grand Canyon, Colo., and the Pecos Wilderness for weeks of High Adventure," commented Callaway.

of Minnesota. They both made speeches pledging support to the new Alliance and a belief in the farmer being the backbone of our country's strength. Mrs. Harlan was able to have a short visit with Senator Mondale before the breakfast, and heard him talk about his fight for a strong farm bill.

Milt Hakel, Editor of "Minnesota Agriculture", described the goals of the "Alliance for Food, Employment and Resource Policy". He said the new farmer-consumer alliance is working to establish a comprehensive farm and food policy, to put America back to work, and allocate scarce resources and credit to productive uses.

Wendy Bauman, an administrative assistant for the Alliance, said that while the National Farmers Union and the United Auto Workers union originally announced the Alliance at the Farmers Union convention in Portland, other organizations are now being invited to join in the effort.

As an example, Mrs. Bauman said, the National Independent Bankers Association and the Minnesota AFL-CIO have joined the Alliance and have passed resolutions calling for a national food policy. She also said the U.S. Conference of Mayors and other national organizations are considering similar resolutions.

In their meeting with Department of Agriculture officials, the women received a pessimistic forecast on the agriculture situation for the next few months.

Orval Kerchner, assistant deputy administrator of the Food and Nutrition Service, asked the women for help in the outreach program to bring the food stamp program to the attention of needy persons not now being assisted.

Pressed by the women on problems surrounding farm credit, Irwin Johnson, information director for the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), admitted that FmHA was having difficulty servicing the demand for farm loans and that the agency is seeking the help of commercial lenders in assuming part of the load.

"My impression of the Washington visit," Mrs. Harlan said, was "the United States would come out of this time of trouble caused by the Viet Nam War as a strong and wiser nation." Most everyone she talked with or listened to felt like a strong farm economy was one way to keep the nation strong, and "asked us to try to go out into the nation and tell the consumer the farmer's problems; and also to listen to the consumer's problems. They all complimented the idea of the Alliance for Food, Employment and Resource," she continued. "Washington is a very beautiful city, and our lawmakers very cordial in their treatment of us," she concluded.
