We fumbled one in this week's football contest. Game 12 has two teams that aren't even playing each other. The game will be counted as correct for everyone regardless of how you mark your entry.

The Wildcats were sidetracked by a good Slaton crew Friday night. This came only a week after the 'Cats played great against the best team Levelland has fielded in years. Littlefield still has a shot at being a district contender but they still must face three tough non-district foes. Lockney is tough and is ahead of the 'Cats at this point. Our unguaranteed prediction: Lockney 21-Littlefield 14.

The cold front early this week caused us to think of winter. When you speak of winters, we've heard various reasons all our life of whether the winter would be vicious or mild.

Supposedly, people with a long, close association with the outdoors often claim they can feel coming weather changes with a sixth sense—and all sorts of animals are supposed to know in advance whether or not a winter will be hard and long.

In other words, the signs say it will rain: If, say within three days the horns of the moon point downward; If, leaves show their backs; If crows are lying down in the pasture; If smoke goes to the ground; If birds fly low; If the sun sets with clouds etc. etc. There is no end to the "signs" you might like to follow.

On the other hand, the winter will be mild if you hear a screech owl; If smoke rises; If crickets holler. Most of the time, if you wash the car you know the weather is going to get foul.

Perhaps the best omen of the winter months is the winter will be bad if the fur or hair on animals is thicker than usual, if squirrels build their nests low in the trees, if squirrels begin gathering nuts early, if birds huddle on the ground, if butterflies migrate early, if there are a lot of spiders in the fall.

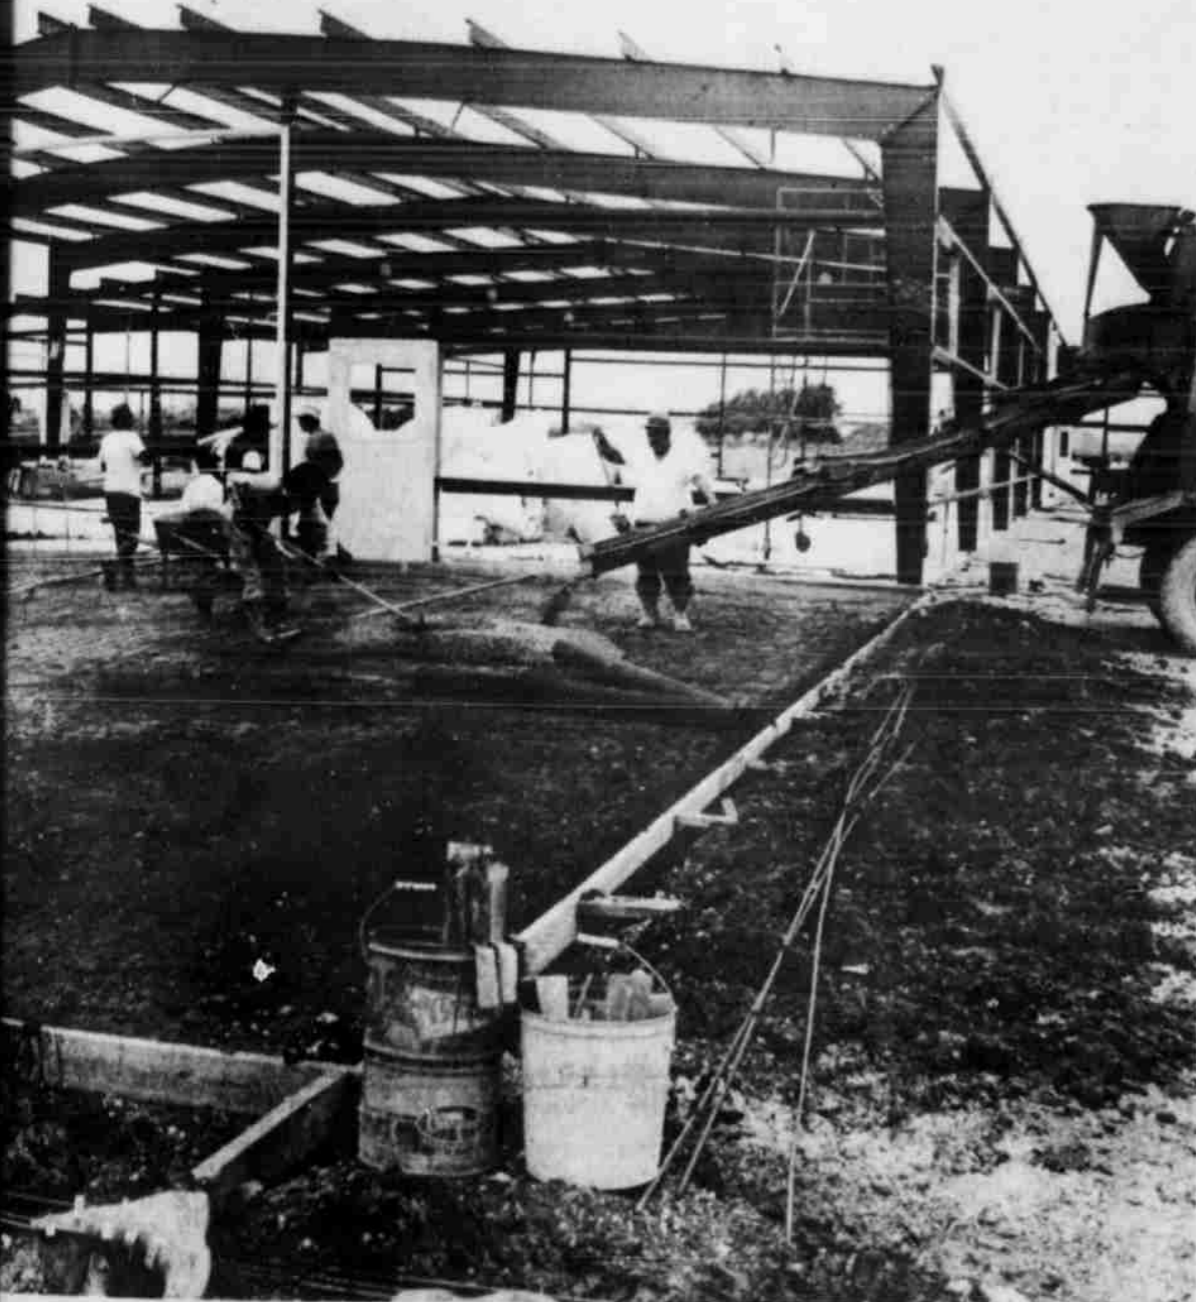

But, the best way of all seems to be what grandma used to tell us years ago—the surest way to know of a hard winter is to see if the woolly, woolly worm wore a heavy, heavy overcoat!

'Cause, grandma is the same gal who used to pour a few drops of coal oil on a spoonful of sugar too to eliminate the cough and cold symptoms. The fact that a person lived through such times is proof enough that some of the signs of winter may be exactly right!

Lamb County's economy shows business upswing

Lamb County's economy moved into gear in the past year, according to a national survey of economic activity, just released. The added momentum was principally, by heavier activity on the part of local business, most of whom had money at their command the year before and less about using it.

Statistics and figures on income trends in the area, with available data for communities in other parts of the country, are included in a copyrighted study by Sales and Marketing Management. It is called "Survey of Case Power."

What the overall income of Lamb County residents was at a level. Net earnings, after payment of personal taxes, totaled $66,069,000, topping the previous year's total of $60,000,000.

What this was equivalent to, for the individual family, is shown by the median income per household, which marks the midpoint on the local income scale. It came to $8,723 per household. The year before it was $7,627 per household.

The various surveys and economic studies that have been made recently seem to agree, almost without exception, that the business outlook is bright for the near future.

They expect that, with income rising faster than the cost of living, which has been the case lately, with unemployment declining somewhat and with inflation staying within bounds, the confidence of consumers will improve and they will return to their freer spending habits.

Their ability to do so is enhanced by the fact that most of them have more savings than usual salted away, due to their cutback in spending during the recession.

And, the reasoning goes, since consumer spending is the backbone of our economy, once it gets into full swing again, industrial production will increase to meet the demand, opening up job opportunities for more people.

In Lamb County, the improvement is already under way, the figures show. In the past year local retail stores recorded gross sales of $33,721,000, as against the prior year's total of $31,658,000.

Wildcats face Lockney Friday

The Littlefield Wildcats will try to regroup this Friday night in Lockney after taking a 47-7 pounding at the hands of the Slaton Tigers.

Lockney sports a 2-1 record while the Wildcats are winless in two outings. Lockney lost the opener to Post by a 12-6 count and beating Friona 18-0 and Olton 12-7.

Coach Jerry Blakely compares the Longhorn defense with Slaton's. The defensive line is anchored by Greg Taylor and Joe Delgado. Taylor is a 235 pound senior while Delgado weighs 10 pounds less.

The Longhorn offense is led by a stable of good running backs. The 'Horns attack centers on the running game and not the pass.

Nose guard Riddley is described as a big play artist. "If we aren't careful, Riddley will spend more time in backfield than we will," Blakely said.

The Wildcat Coach said that the Lockney ground attack must be

MRS. JANE OWENS showed us this idea for saving onions through the winter. Store them in old hosiery, root end up. After each onion is placed down into the hose, tie a knot to separate them. This way, they won't rot and will get plenty of air. When an onion is needed, cut below the knot of the onion above and leave the remaining hanging.

Mrs. Jones to lead Cystic Fibrosis fight

Mrs. J. A. Jones of Littlefield is leading the fight against crippling lung diseases in children. The job can't be left to dedicated parents of Cystic Fibrosis and lung-damaged children alone.

Mrs. Jones is organizing the Cystic Fibrosis "Kiss A Baby Campaign" now. Everyone can help. She will give you information on turning concern for these youngsters into active help to change the odds against them.

A little more than 20 years ago, parents whose children were diagnosed with cystic fibrosis (C/F) were sadly advised to go home and enjoy their children while they were still alive. Then, few children with C/F survived even to the first grade. Even today no cure for this baffling and complex genetic disease has been found. Yet parents now have a great deal more hope that their children with C/F can be expected to live to be adults.

The outlook for this first generation of C/F adults is brighter than ever before, for research is leading to a better understanding of this complex genetic disease and more hope for a control or cure.

But there is still a long way to go to really beat the odds against lung-damaged youngsters. There is still the cure or control for cystic fibrosis to be found. And, for the children living with C/F today, the need for a cure is right now.

Watch that school bus!

"This school year, as in the past, the School Bus Loading Laws confuse many drivers," states Major C. W. Bell, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

The Uniform Vehicle Code in Texas states that the driver of a vehicle, meeting or overtaking from either direction a school bus displaying red flashing warning lights that is in the process of loading or unloading passengers, shall stop until the school bus starts moving, the red lights are no longer flashing, or the bus driver directs motorists to proceed.

"Freeways and divided highways add to the drivers' confusion," Major Bell added. "If a bus is on an access road, only the traffic on the access road must stop. However, if the bus is on a divided highway and pedestrian traffic does not normally cross the median or barrier then only the traffic on the portion of the roadway occupied by the bus must stop."

"It is most important that drivers observe the School Bus Loading Laws for the protection of our school children," he concluded.

CLIPS & TIPS

By JOELLA LOVVORN

TIRED OF BLAND, tasteless foods? Pickles and relishes stimulate the appetite and add tartness and color to meals.

Made from fruits and vegetables, pickles and relishes are sources of minerals and vitamins—especially A and C. They retain most of the vitamins because of the high acid content and short heating time in a waterbath canner.

Dilled okra adds variety of shapes to a relish tray. Seasoned with pepper, garlic and dill, the spicy flavor will add a distinctive touch to a buffet supper or backyard picnic.

Pepper-onion relish made from end-of-season garden vegetables gives flavor sparkle to cooked dried pinto beans.

JANE OWENS of Littlefield said she's had so many compliments and requests for her recipes, she has the writer's cramps from copying them so many times, and the telephone has worn her ear down, so she brought them by here for this column.

She gave me a jar of the Pimientos, and believe me, they're delish.

PICKLED OKRA

Sterilize 4 quart jars, or 1 gallon jar

Place in each quart jar:

1 clove garlic
6 peppercorns, or 1 hot pepper
a flower of dill
Scald $\frac{1}{2}$ peck of tiny fresh okra. Wipe each to remove blossoms and stickers, pack in jars.
Bring to a boil 2 quarts vinegar, 1 quart water, $\frac{3}{4}$ cup salt.
Fill jars with mixture and seal. Let stand for 5 days or longer. (Better to let stand 4 to 5 weeks.)

PIMIENTOS

Wash pimientos
Chop in grinder
add nothing

Put in baby food jars and stack one on top of another in pressure cooker. Pressure at 5 pounds for 8 minutes.

JANE'S UNCOOKED RELISH

1 gal. green tomatoes
5 sweet bell peppers (red or green)
2 or 3 hot peppers
12 small to medium onions
1 large head cabbage
1 large stalk celery
3 pints cider vinegar
4 cups sugar
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup salt [not iodized]
2 tps. turmeric
1 tsp. powdered mustard
1 tsp. mustard seed juice of 4 lemons

Grind tomatoes, peppers, onions cabbage, and celery with coarse grinder. Put in bag and drain for 30 minutes.

Mix sugar, salt, and spices dry, then add vinegar and lemon juice. Mix thoroughly, then add drained vegetables and mix again. Can cold.

SWEET PEPPER RELISH

15 red bell peppers
15 green bell peppers
18 medium white onions
Mix all together, drain.

Cover with 1 pint vinegar, 3 scant Tbsps. salt, $3\frac{1}{2}$ cups sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ Tbsps. mustard seed (or more if you like).

Boil 5 minutes and can.

FOR ADDITIONAL recipes for pickles and relishes, send 25 cents and your request for B-188, "Pickles and Relishes" to the Department of Agricultural Communications, College Station, Texas 77843 or call 385-4004 for a self-mailer from Dorothy Powell, County Extension Agent, at the Courthouse.

Here is a recipe from this publication:

CRYSTAL TOMATO PICKLES

7 pounds tomatoes
2 gallons water
1 quart slaked lime
9 cups sugar
2 quarts vinegar
2 Tbsps. salt
6 strips cinnamon bark, $1\frac{1}{2}$ -2 inches long
1 tsp. grated nutmeg
1 tsp. ground ginger

Slice green tomatoes $\frac{1}{4}$ inch thick; place in glass or porcelain-lined container. Cover with 2 gallons water in which the quart of lime has been dissolved.

Let stand 24 hours.
Remove from lime water and rinse well through several cold water baths to remove all lime sediment.

Dissolve sugar in vinegar; add cinnamon stick and cloth bag containing nutmeg and ginger. Heat the vinegar and spices to boiling and allow to stand for 1 hour.

Add slices of green tomato and cook rapidly until slices are glazed and syrup clings to the spoon.

Fill hot jars with the slices, arranging cinnamon sticks attractively with the slices in the jar. Discard the spice bag.

Heat spiced vinegar to boiling; pour over tomatoes. Close. Process in boiling water bath 5 minutes. Start to count processing time as soon as water returns to boil.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

We can be strong

IT IS NOT EASY, but it is possible to live with the sense of satisfaction and accomplishment. This will have to be done, in spite of the problems and dangers of present day living.

We do have some choices, and these must be made with wisdom and good sense.

"WE CAN BE STRONG", strong enough to prevent fear, anxiety and alarm from overcoming us; and destroying our moral fiber. The intelligently simple life will help, because it is basically a strong life style.

This requires a true sense of values, the courage to keep first things in first place, and a realistic perspective of life. A strong faith, related to enduring values, will provide the stability and strength so essential to one's personal well-being.

WE MUST BE more interested in doing what we can to preserve that which is generally known to be right and good, than we are in our personal ease and pleasure. We must think straight and with sober judgment, and we must continue to encourage each other and build up one another.

This is the way of strength for us, and for others.

IN THIS POSTURE of personal strength, we will have more time, energy, thought, ability and resources to give to the generally recognized, truly important aspects of living.

We will be well equipped, whatever the challenge. All of us will probably have some momentary stirrings of the perverse and disturbing feelings about problems and difficulties, but we can dispel them.

IN THE PAST, our crises of lifetime was the most that had to face; and many of a generation lived the whole of lives without a major crisis.

In those times, if the crisis come, it was not necessarily but it was usually compensated minor and localized. We, on the other hand, seem to be living time of almost constant crises.

IN THE PRESENT TIME national and world crises, these crises seem to follow one another in rapid succession; a burden is placed on each individual life.

Obviously, we must be and "we can be strong." If something we can do to help must do it. If, however, nothing we can do about undesirable situation; we must let it burden our mind. This is part of our strength.

OUR STRENGTH will prevent the invasion of such destructive feelings as fatalism, anxiety, terror, confusion, fear and gloom. Any one of these can spoil otherwise satisfactory man's life.

None of them are inevitable; they can be removed successfully.

WE WILL BE REALISTIC, honest. While we seek solutions for problems, and look for ways to cope with difficulties, will be fully enjoying all of blessings and all of the other things.

Tower added that anyone reading this brochure would have a hard time trying to decide whether it was written for morons or by morons or both.

Among the safety tips dispensed in the booklet were such gems as: "When floors are slippery and wet with manure, you could have a bad fall."

"Don't fall. Be careful that you do not fall into the manure pits.

Put up signs and fences to keep people away. These pits are dangerous and may have an air of "Wear the right clothes. No feet or sneakers aren't safe around cattle."

"Tired or hungry or frightened cattle can bolt and trample you." "Hazards are the main cause of accidents."

"Ladders that are not strong have broken steps can cause a fall. If yours is broken, do not climb it."

"Door sills are where you step up and beams that are low can hurt you."

Caprock-Plains Baptist Center formally opened in Plainview

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS Dr. Strauss Atkinson [center] discusses plans for the new Caprock-Plains Baptist Area Center in Plainview which opened Thursday, Sept. 16, for churches in a 15-county area. With him is Charles Lee Williamson [left], missions division director of the Baptist General Convention of Texas in Dallas, and Ronald Mooney, a member of the Center's governing committee. [Center Photo]

The Caprock-Plains Baptist Area Center in Plainview formally opened Thursday for a three-day grand-opening celebration, bringing into reality a long-awaited dream to have its own offices and working space.

The $250,000 facility, originally given to the area missionary's headquarters which had been in Wayland Baptist College's Flores Bible Building has been renovated and completely refurbished. It was donated to house the area offices by remaining members of the Second Baptist Church who signed over the building to local Southern Baptist leadership, and placed their memberships into nearby sister churches.

"It was a most gracious, and welcomed act of Christian benevolence," said Director of Missions Dr. Strauss Atkinson. "It will enable our area to do things we never dreamed possible before."

The Caprock-Plains Area Center was presented to the Staked Plains Baptist Association for the use of an area center for four Baptist associations of which Atkinson serves as director of missions. These include Caprock, Llanos Altos, South Plains and Staked Plains associations. The Second Baptist Church disbanded on May 2 and presented its property, located at 10th and Utica Streets, debt free, to the association.

"The offices for the area will be here, and assist in administering programs for 124 churches and missions on the South Plains," Atkinson explained. "The building will be used as conference center for church related services." These will include the Women's Missionary Union, Baptist Men, Sunday School, Church Training, and music and youth organizations.

More than 49,604 members make up the churches and missions represented through the new area center.

Amherst Study Club meets for business

AMHERST— The Amherst Study Club met in Fellowship Hall of the United Methodist Church for the first meeting of the club year Saturday, Sept. 18 for a breakfast.

Mrs. C. A. Thomas and Mrs. A. J. Mote were hostesses.

The u-shaped table was laid with white and autumn leaves in fall colors. They were on the length of the table.

A metallic boot filled with fall flowers and an upright American flag was the center decoration.

Mrs. R. H. Campbell offered the invocation.

Mrs. Thomas, club president, welcomed the members and Mrs. Mote, chairman of the yearbook, read and discussed an outline of the programs for the year. Mrs. Bill Elms reported on the Bicentennial projects for the club. The major one was the "Little Miss Bicentennial program held at the time of the Aug. 7 celebration for Amherst.

She showed several of the "thank-yous" written by girls who participated.

Two new members, Mrs. Annie Fern Smith and Mrs. Ray Womack were introduced by Mrs. Campbell, as was Mrs. Trudy White, a charter member of the club who has become an active member again.

Macrame course begins today

The mysteries of knot tying, from square to Josephine knots, will be unraveled beginning today, Sept. 23 in a macrame course at South Plains College.

Jo Raines will instruct the five-week course, which meets from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Thursdays at SPC. Cost is $15.

Jute will be provided for the first project, a hanging plant holder, although students will need to provide a 2 1/2 or 3 inch metal or wooden ring for the first class meeting and beads for later sessions. Selection of the second macrame project will be up to each student.

Mrs. Raines will teach the basic square and half square knots and more elaborate ones such as overhand, Chinese crown and Josephine knots.

The community service short course is being offered through SPC's Division of Continuing Education. For more information, contact the office of Don Yarbrough, dean of continuing education, at 894-4921 ext. 259.

Churchmen across the Panhandle converged on the center Saturday, Sept. 18, for a formal dedication from 10:30 until 11:30 a.m. Open house on Saturday was held from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. and from 11:30 to 12:30 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, open house was from 9 a.m. until noon and from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Special speaker for Saturday's opening was Dr. Charles P. McLaughlin, secretary for the State Missions Commission of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. His offices are in Dallas.

The purpose of the Commission is to facilitate and support the work of the churches across the state. Included in its broad function are programs of evangelism, missions, special services through training and music, Sunday School, vacation Bible schools, stewardship, disaster relief services, and coordinates cooperative efforts with the Woman's Missionary Union of Texas and the Texas Baptist Men, both of which are missionary outreaches among the laity.

An area committee of representatives from various churches serve as a coordinating board. Chairman for the group is the Rev. Floyd Bradley, pastor of Floydada's First Baptist Church.

The committee includes these from this area: Glen Smith, First Baptist Church, Springlake; A. J. Kennemer Jr., First Baptist Church, Littlefield; and John Lewis, First Baptist Church, Olton.

Several new area leaders will be elected in October.

The area center already has a media center provided for a library and visual aids. A seminary extension program was initiated Sept. 9 with several ministers and lay people throughout the area enrolled.

On Monday, missions division director Charles Lee Williamson of the Baptist General Convention of Texas met with pastors in the Staked Plains Association for a strategy planning meeting.

"We feel that this meeting helped pastor and their churches to visualize the needs of the churches and the work that the association needs to do," said Atkinson. He added that the meeting will enable church leadership to "determine their goals and make some long range goals on the bases of one, three, five and 10 years."

Christian social ministries will be undertaken at the center as the programs can be worked out, explained Atkinson. "As the planning is done, ministries will be added as needed."

Already in operation is a literacy program. To be provided in the future are home, domestic, counseling programs, ministries to minorities, and family life services.

Farm Bureau president says there's beef crisis president of the Farm Bureau, Carroll Chouppka said beef prices are in a crisis situation that may affect beef supplies. "I'll never be a time for housewives with their freezers with beef," the Daihart and beef producer.

"There's been a gradual decrease in cattle prices all summer, but the situation in the past three or four weeks has become disastrous," he said. Chouppka said there is a disappointing lag in the pass-through of lower prices at the retail level. "However, beef is selling in the stores for about 13 percent less than a year ago. This is a real bargain, and we want to let the housewives know about it so we can move some of the present glut of beef off the market," he said. The president of the 190,000-member general farm organization said that efforts are being made by Farm Bureau to bring "more efficiency and fairness" into marketing of beef. "The American Farm Bureau Federation has asked Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz for a step-up in ongoing investigations into factors affecting the farm price of beef," Chouppka said.

meat cutter unions either prohibit or severely limit the movement of boxed beef into at least 12 major cities, including Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Houston. Another issue relating to labor unions involves labor contracts with meat cutter unions which prohibit the sale of meat after 6 p.m. in some large cities. The Farm Bureau is also asking the U.S. Department of Agriculture to find out what can be done about the lag in "passing through" lower cattle prices at the retail level.

Chouppka said USDA statistics show that retail beef prices never come down as fast or as far as cattle prices. He said that the farm value of beef dropped about 25 percent in the past year while the retail value is down only 13 percent. According to USDA, the spread between cattle prices and consumer beef prices has widened 9 cents a pound since July, 1975, and is now at a near-record spread of 64 cents a pound. Labor contracts with

"For example, we want to know whether or not labor unions are blocking the movement of boxed beef into markets and if so, what effect is the blockage having on beef prices," the farm leader said. Boxed beef involves the breakdown of beef carcasses at the packing plant and packaging the meat cuts for shipment to retail outlets. It means a savings over shipping whole carcasses and reduces labor costs.

"Everything we build is made to the customer's specifications. In addition to cotton trailers we can handle anyone's steel needs for repairs."

"West Texas Steel also builds steel buildings and collection tanks for irrigation systems."

"Yes, we've been busy the past few months, but we enjoy working with people and turning out quality jobs," Wallace concluded.

Wallace and his wife Maria have three children. Kim is 18, Kevin, 16 and Robert, 14.

Turner earns varsity berth

Bill Turner, a former all-state Littlefield running back, will see action Saturday when New Mexico entertains Texas Tech. The freshman has worked his way onto the Lobos second team. UNM coach Bill Mondt believes in playing a lot of people so Turner will see his share of the action.

Mondt says, "Turner gives me a lot of peace of mind about the monster position. Only Roark Shirley is ahead of him at the position. Bill is ready to step in." Turner has already seen some action in the UNM freshman game against Mesa Community College, the number one junior college team in the nation last year. Turner also saw action as a punter for the freshmen. He boomed one punt 4 yards.

Ninth defeated 20-0

Littlefield's freshmen fell to Levelland 20-0 Thursday night.

Levelland scored seconds before the half to take a 6-0 lead to the locker room. They added six more points in the third quarter and then again scored in the last minute of the second half to take the 20-0 victory.

Hooper singled out tailback Johnny Ortez as playing good on offense for the freshmen. Defensively, Lester Wormley and David Smith drew praise.

The freshmen return to action Sept. 30 when they host Floydada.

Coach Eddie Hooper said that the freshmen were learning the complicated Littlefield varsity system and that the team was

Women lead predictions

The ladies moved into a commanding five game lead over the men in the Peerless Pigskin Prognosticators this week.

Sarah Tollett and Pat Yarbrough enjoyed 11-3 weeks while Sherry Campbell was 10-4. Emil Macha and Kip Cutshall were 9-5 and Jerry Tidwell tightened his hold on last place with an 8-6 showing.

Tollett and Campbell moved into a tie with Macha for the overall lead. All three boast 27-15 season records. Yarbrough trails by two, Cutshall three and Tidwell five.

Macha and Tidwell missed the Amherst-Sudan winner and Macha, Yarbrough and Tidwell missed the Littlefield-Slaton contest. Yarbrough was the lone guesser to correctly pick the Lockney win over Olton.

Cutshall and Tollett erred in picking Cotton Center over Three Way. Campbell, Cutshall and Yarbrough missed Auburn's narrow loss to Baylor. Cutshall and Tidwell were wrong on the Arkansas-Oklahoma State encounter and California did not upset Oklahoma as Campbell predicted.

Tidwell was wrong in picking Cincinnati over Baltimore. Macha was incorrect on the Green Bay-St. Louis game and all members of the PPP panel missed the New England upset of Miami.

Armchair quarterbacks second-guessing

Armchair quarterbacks are still having to second guess some of the area teams as favorites have fallen and underdogs seem to have come from out of the shadows and are beginning to establish winning reputations.

For example, Whitharral and Three Way, two area schools that have been given very little creditation by some of the experts in their football ability are making history in six man football by crumbling their opponents.

Whitharral, after several years of drought football wise, has had 40 points scored against them in the three games they played this season while scoring 138 to remain undefeated.

Three Way, now a consolidated school with Bula, also remains undefeated in six-man football this year. So far the Eagles scored 82 points in the two games they have played this season and allowed their opponents 59.

Friday will be the battle of the powers as Whitharral Panthers will host the Three Way Eagles.

Panther Coach Jerry Miller stated that the Panthers are looking forward to the game with Three Way and the game could determine the district championship. He also stated that Three Way will be the best team they have faced this season.

Whitharral opened their season with a 35-0 win over Cotton Center, beat Patton Springs, 52-20 the following week and won over West Texas Christian, 51-20, Friday.

Three Way took a 50-34 win from district favorite

Wellman in their season opener, had an open date the following week and squeaked by Cotton Center, 32-25, Friday.

Amherst and Sudan held their annual gridiron feud before a capacity crowd at Amherst Friday with the visiting Hornets coming out winners, 24-14. The Sudan Hornets with a 2-1 season record opens their district competition by traveling to Valley Friday. Sudan blanked Sundown, 20-0, in their season opener, fell to Anton, 16-14, and dumped Amherst, 24-14, Friday.

Anton won over the Valley team, 20-0, at Valley Friday.

Amherst now 1-1 for the season opens their district play at home by hosting Smyer. The Bulldogs opened their season by beating Springlake-Earth, 41-19, and lost to the Hornets, 24-14, Friday.

It was reported Tuesday that the Bulldogs will probably be without the services of their big 295 tackle, Guyle Roberson, who has an arm in a cast because of a bone separation.

Smyer won over Dawson Friday, 14-10, beat Nazareth, 18-10, and Klondike, 39-0.

Anton, 2-1 in season play entertains Meadow Friday before a homecoming crowd in their first district bout of the 1976 football season. The Bulldogs first game of the season was a 34-20 loss to Hart, but rallied in their second game to edge out Sudan, 16-14, and flooded Valley, 20-0, Friday.

Meadow romped over Tatum, 42-20, Friday and New Home, 22-0, the week before.

In other football action, Springlake-Earth, 0-3, in season play entertains Silverton at Wolverine Stadium. The Wolverines having to rebuild after losing several top quality athletes because of graduation and from various other problems may be in pretty good shape Friday. The Wolverines fell to Dimmitt, New Deal and Amherst in earlier games. Silverton lost to Claud, Friday, 25-6, Hart, 26-0, the week before and Kress, 19-0 in their season opener.

Olton will play at Floydada, Friday without the services of Quarterback Steve Johnson because of a shoulder separation received in the Lockney game Friday.

Johnson underwent emergency surgery at the Methodist Hospital late Friday night and from reports he should be back in uniform and playing in about a month.

Olton is 2-1 for the year. The Mustangs edged out Tulia, 7-6, and beat Abernathy, 20-8, before falling to Lockney, 12-7, Friday.

Floydada was beaten by Post, 14-6, Friday and opened their season with a 31-0 win over Friona.

Dana Clayton gets all right

Eleven-year-old Dana Clayton correctly picked all 12 games in the Leader-News football contest and took the weekly first prize in the process. The sixth-grader recorded the first perfect score of the season.

Eight contestants missed only one game. W. W. Fry earned second place on the basis of guessing 41 points would be scored in the Miami-New England tie breaker contest. The two teams combined for 44 points. Fry missed the Olton-Lockney game.

E. Tucker of Lubbock placed third. His tie breaker total of 38 was six off. Tucker missed the Auburn-Baylor tilt.

Others with 11-1 marks were Richard B. Wright, David Goen, Gary Hall, Pat Diersing, Brenda Davis, and Bret Goen.

In the race for the season winner David Goen took the lead. Goen has picked 27 games correctly. The season winner receives two tickets to the Cotton Bowl game.

L. A. Bales, Dana Clayton, Tony Hall, Ernest Mills, Dean Walden, Randy Wesley and Richard B. Wright are only one game behind the leader.

Hitting on 24 games are

Jeff Birkelbach, Brenda Davis, Walter Liles, Mandy Miller, Shelli Miller, Arthur McLelland, Gaylene Rogers, Kenny Trotter, Mark Yarbrough and Jimmy Randolph.

Domingo S. Davila, Arthur Duggan, W. W. Fry, Dennis Jackson, Terry Mangum, Ed McCanlies, Ricky Parker, Lloyd Pollard and Pat Privett all have guessed 23 games correctly.

With 22 right are Gary Birkelbach, Phelps Blume, N. C. Horn, Gayla Moore, Laurice Moore, George Nicholson, Harold Pollard, Steve Pollard, Julian Saenz, Bill Smith, Jason Warren and Lamar Pollard.

Curtis Archer, Pat Diersing, Stephen Ford, Jack Hall, Rodney Hampton, Jay Lee, Floyce Pierce, Kay Rodgers, Terry Rodgers and Jill Yarbrough have 21 right picks.

Those who have guessed right on 20 games are Eddie Harris, Lloyd, Stevie Jackson, Bill Rickey, Linda Smith and Herbert Spence.

Cawthon crowned new club champion

From a field of 41 entries, Wiley Cawthon was victorious to win the Littlefield Club Golf tournament over the weekend.

Cawthon shot a two over par for a score of 144 in 36 holes to take the championship flight, one stroke behind the winner, Nick Nichols who was 3 over par and a stroke in front of third place winners, Smiley Monroe and Neil Duffy. Monroe and Duffy tied for third in the championship flight.

Bill Healy was not only the winner of the first flight with seven over par or for a score of 149, but was also awarded a golf bag donated by Crafton Glass for making a hole in one on the fifth green.

Following Healy in the first flight was Rodney Nichols with his second place score of 151 and David Keithly placed third with 159.

Charles Duval won the second flight with his 167, Benny Hall mustered a 169 for second and tying for third with 174 was Dale Wathall and Author Duggan.

Third flight winners were Jerry Don Denton, David Jones and Jay Bridwell winning first through third respectively.

Winners of the tournament were awarded gift certificates from Ernest Mills' Pro Shop.

A new member to the club, Dale Ezell was awarded a Graphite Shaft Little David Long Iron valued at $125 for longest drive in the Tournament. The award was donated by the Security State Bank, Birkelbach Machine, Wares, Roden Drug and Ernest Mills Cotton Co.

AREA NEWS ROUND-UP

Paving reviewed at Olton

OLTON— The council met Tuesday night, Sept. 14, for a regular session in which they adopted an ordinance pertaining to the paving of streets in the city, received news of a grant for community improvement and agreed to accept bids on park playground equipment.

Bids on playground equipment will be opened Oct. 11, a regular meeting for the council.

Aug. 1, 1977 is the date which the park improvements are to be completed.

Federal funds have been made available for the improvements, which will be matched by the city.

Paving of several streets in the city has been approved by voters and after looking over the proposed paving plans, council members voted to accept bids on the proposed paving, subject to alterations.

A hearing will be set at a later date for the residents to state their views.

Tom Sluder made a resolution to the council that they make application to qualify for flood insurance.

Councilman Vernon Mixon made a motion that all city maintenance equipment being used for personal reasons, should be operated by city personnel. Those wishing to use the equipment, must check with city officials. Rates will be posted at the city barn.

Alan Connell, night patrolman, was granted an increase in salary when he finishes police school in the near future.

Mayor C. J. Givens notified council of a $100,000 block grant approval which the city applied for to make improvements to the sewer and for paving.

Councilman Nixon asked that the council "go on record as supporting police action to stop reckless driving, fast driving and excess noise."

Olton school board meets

OLTON— Members of the Olton school board met for business of the school in a short meeting Monday night, Sept. 13.

Resignation of Eugene Reynolds, CVAE instructor, was accepted at the Aug. 31 meeting and Mrs. Lucy Bley was given a year's leave of absence because of health reasons.

In Monday night's meeting, Dennis Black was employed to replace Reynolds. Mrs. Bley's replacement was named at the last meeting.

Report from Superintendent Joe Turner showed a slight increase in attendance from a year ago.

Members made plans to attend a state school board and administrators meeting in San Antonio, Sept. 26.

S-E School Board meets

EARTH— Members of the Board of Trustees of the Springlake-Earth school met for their stated meeting Monday night, Sept. 13.

The board reviewed enrollment figures and learned that this year's enrollment is down four from last year. Superintendent Bill Mann explained that the S-E high school enrollment was down and elementary is up.

Mrs. Macky McCarty and a representative from St. Paul Insurance were present to discuss the building insurance coverage and rate, but the board did not decide which company will be used to insure the building. Mann explained that insurance rates have doubled over the past 10 years.

The school's present coverage is with Ranger Insurance of Lubbock.

The board reviewed the student handbook and made no changes in policies.

Many phases of maintenance were aired, including lighting adjustments on the football field.

The board also discussed the upcoming Legislative session, when they would take another look and perhaps rework values of property in accordance with the ability to pay. "In that case," Mann stated, "state aid will probably be cut and the money will have to come from local taxpayers."

The board appointed a grievance committee, in accordance with a request in Title 9 from the HEW. Members include Melvin Chisum, chairman; Mrs. Gladys McCord, Mrs. Janet Jones, Lexie Branscum, Mrs. Monarae Cummings and Dewitt Kelley.

The committee is to hear complaints from individuals who feel they are victims of discrimination, and the committee is to make recommendations to the board.

All members of the board were present.

The game will be played Nov. 7 and the Cowboys will meet the improving New York Giants. The Giants are led by all-pro

The Promises of God

By CARL F. KASTEN

"The fear of the Lord is the instruction of wisdom and before honour is humility." Prov. 15:33

Many people are seeking help in making decisions and in looking for wisdom in their everyday lives by consulting horoscopes, astrology, fortune tellers, E.S.P. and divers signs.

But we read in James 3:15 "This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish."

While in James 3:17 we read, "But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy, and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy."

A good example of this is found in the Old Testament in the book of Daniel, when he and his three companions were taken captive by a heathen king. For three years, they were to receive special training, language study, and given a daily provision of the king's meat and of the wine which he drank.

However Daniel 'purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the kings meat or the wine which he drank'.

He asked to be excused because of his moral convictions and commitment to God and to be given a ten day trial period to prove if they might not be stronger and of a better countenance.

At the end of that test period, they were found to be much healthier and better in appearance than those who did eat of the kings meat. Thus they were not required to eat of the kings meat or drink of his wine for three years.

When they were then brought before the king and he inquired of them in all matters of wisdom and understanding, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

Thot: If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. James 1:5
