"Get That Trap! Get That Trap!"

HENDERSON SCATS FOR 221 YARDS

By WADE A. WARREN

The storm that hit Levelland Thursday night was tame indeed compared to the pack of Wildcats that jumped on the Lobos with all "claws open" Friday night in the home opener for the Wildcats. In the game that was originally scheduled for Levelland but had to be moved here because of water on Lobo Field, the Class AA Wildcats completely dominated the game as the heavier AAA visitors never could get started.

PAT HENDERSON carries for the Wildcats in one of his 17 efforts that totaled 221 yards and three TDs in Littlefield's 34-6 win over Levelland Friday night.

★ NOTICE ★

"The Trap" is coming back home and will be presented in an assembly Monday.

Try It — You'll Like It!

I TRIED IT AND I THOUGHT I WOULD DIE

By NILAH RODGERS

For an idea of what's really good to eat and details on just how to cook it, ask a five or six-year-old.

Steak, gravy, potatoes and spaghetti rank high on their list.

DeAnna Sanderson likes "smashed" potatoes and steak. According to this six-year-old first grader you fry the potatoes about four hours, then "smash" them, put them in a bowl and put them on the table. For the meat, you put some flour on the steak and put it in a pan and cook it about six hours.

Gravy and fried steak are Gary Vaughn's favorite. "Ummm! That's so good I could eat it right now," the hefty kindergartener declared. For the gravy, you put a little meat crust in the pan, pour in about a quart of milk, add about a half cup of salt and some sugar and boil it about 10 minutes. How do you make steak? "Oh, that's easy," he said. "You put two drops of pepper on it and cook it in a pan in the stove about nine hours."

Samuel Wilson takes the wings out of the steak, gets some barbecue sauce and boils it about one minute, puts some salt on the steak and cooks it in the barbecue sauce about nine minutes. His favorite dessert is Jello. You cook some water and Jello about three minutes, put it in the freezer—a long time—about two days, and it will be ready to eat when you take it out.

Dean Spies likes fried chicken. "After the chicken is slaughtered," he said, "you put it in the oven about two hours or so and then put some barbecue sauce on it." To slaughter the chicken you tie it up and shoot it in the head. Then you cut it open and the chicken is in the stomach.

Colonel Sanders will probably never adopt Ronnie Dale Johnson's idea of fried chicken. You put some baking powder on it and cook a 1-o-n-g time.

Amanda Rios likes fried chicken, but according to her you boil it three minutes, then eat it with ham and sugar.

Tammy Lynn Boomer likes spaghetti and meatballs. To cook the spaghetti, you put it in the oven about 10 minutes, then add the meatballs. Where does she get the meatballs? "The same place you get the spaghetti at the grocery store."

Several students mentioned how much they like chocolate pudding, but kindergartener Ronald Hernandez has the most imaginative recipe—use a little bit of chocolate, put in some beans and corn and cook two or three hours.

FIVE AND SIX-YEAR olds have definite ideas of what they like to eat, but the way they'd cook is a little unconventional. Standing are Julie Ford with a drawing of her favorite food—macaroni—and Tommy Joe Hardaway with a drawing of "sketti." Seated are Roger Perez who likes watermelon, Deanna Sanderson with her "smashed" potatoes, and Danae Mott who likes to eat shrimp.

JP Doss Filed

Earlier This Year

Three more elected county officials have filed salary grievance complaints with the Lamb County Salary Grievance Committee.

In letters filed Tuesday, Ray Lynn Britt, district clerk; Lucy Moreland, county treasurer, and Herbert Dunn, tax assessor-collector asked that the Grievance Committee raise the trio's salaries a total of over $6,000 annually.

The grievances were filed after the commissioners' court granted annual salary increases of $300 each in September for 1973.

At the present time Mrs. Britt and Mrs. Moreland receive $5,580 annually and their salaries were increased to $5,880. In filing disputes the county treasurer and the district clerk are asking for $7,200 per year. Dunn's present salary is $6,600 and his salary was raised to $6,900 for the coming year. He is asking for an annual salary of from $9,600 to $10,430.

In August, Stanley Doss, justice of peace of precinct 4, filed the first salary grievance. Doss is receiving $4,980 per year and asked for $6,600 plus an additional $600 for personal and automobile expenses.

In setting the budget for the coming year, the commissioners' court set Doss' salary at $6,250 prior to a meeting of the grievance committee.

The grievance committee was established in Lamb County in January after authorization by the Texas Legislature. The committee is to review any elected officials' salary who files a complaint after asking the commissioners' court for a raise in salary and the raise is denied. The committee is made up of seven elected county officials and three laymen drawn from grand jury members.

County Judge G. T. Sides is chairman of the salary grievance committee and as chairman does not vote. Elected officials are Curtis Wilkinson, county attorney; Lucy Moreland, county treasurer; Mary Beth Willey, county clerk; Ray Lynn Britt, district clerk; Herbert Dunn, tax assessor-collector; and E. D. McNeese, sheriff. Drawn from the list of grand jurors who served last year were James "Sandy" Sanderson, Winston Cummings and Quentin Hodge.

A hearing must be called within 30 See COUNTY, Page 4

ASCS Advises Farmers

The Lamb County unit of the ASC reminds producers that the 1972 set-aside acreage may not be grazed until Oct. 15, and that no crop can be harvested at any time. At the same time tumble weeds and other noxious plants that might damage the farm or a neighboring farm must be controlled by plowing, mowing or shredding.

ASC personnel will spot check farms, and farmers are urged not to risk losing farm program payments by neglecting set-aside land or by harvesting a crop or grazing before the approved time.

The ASC has been advised that the quality of set-aside acreage for 1973 will be stressed more than in 1972. Again for 1973, the playa lake areas and areas that do not make crops some years will not qualify as set-aside.

For wheat and feed grain farms, when low quality acreage is offered for set-aside, the entire payment will be based on the productivity of the set-aside land. For example, if the grain sorghum yield is 100 bushels per acre and the acreage used for set-aside is one-half as productive as the average for the farm, then your payment will be based on 50 bushels per acre. This means the penalty for using less productive land for wheat and grain farms is twice the rate it was in 1972.

For cotton farms, the rate is increased from six cents per pound in 1972 to 13 cents per pound in 1973. This is over twice the reduction rate on cotton farms.

This information is given now so producers can plan farming operations more effectively. With the very heavy penalty for the low quality land, the ASC suggests that farmers consider sowing areas around lakes, other less productive land and sloping land in wheat or barley.

These crops will count as part of the feed grain acres, up to 50 per cent of the base or allotment, to keep up the base for 1974. This would give more average land to plant in cotton and use as set-aside acreage.

Under the program for 1973, this will not give farmers a wheat or barley base in 1974, but Congress may pass a new farm bill before the 1974 crop year, and there is no way of knowing what may be in the new bill.

'Concerned Citizens' Meet Today

There is to be a called meeting of "The Concerned Citizens of Littlefield" for 2:30 p.m., Sunday, in the Parkview Baptist Church, 1028 West 5th, Littlefield, Texas. This meeting will consider the re-organization of the group for a more efficient line of activity.

One concern at hand is the strategy needed to best represent the citizens of Littlefield who are not in sympathy with the legal sales of alcoholic beverages here.

All members or friends of "The Concerned Citizens of Littlefield" are urged to be present for this meeting.

Wade A. Warren

WARREN: "A sure way to cut spending is to pass a bill that raises legislators' salaries by whatever percentage they cut the budget."

Monthly Moonlight Sale by a Littlefield Merchants will be Thursday evening. This is the first since they organized to have such an event. All participants are urged to participate this time.

STARS AT THE University of Texas have amassed computer-backed data which, they say, goes to show that homicide rates are unquestionably phases of the moon.

Discovery, confirming centuries of lore about werewolves and other creatures that go bump in the night, puts arguments that the homicide rate is blamed almost entirely on the availability of firearms. The period of 14 years and 10 homicides in Dade County, Miami is the largest city.

Dr. L. Lieber, psychiatrist, and Dr. R. Sherin, clinical psychologist, said the computerized data shows the homicide rate beginning about 24 hours before full moon, simultaneously with the moon, and ending "normal." It reaches a peak at the time of the new moon. Congress could register as a menace.

Effects of the lunar cycle on behavior are small, the research shows, but may be enough to trigger people who are already on the edge of violence.

Every 14 months or so, a force is exerted by the gravitational pull of the moon. At such time, the computer shows, there are outbreaks of and bizarre crimes, while Dade homicide rate soars to four or five.

Strangely enough, these instances are followed by erratic behavior on the part of the victims as well as the offenders, and the period also coincides with general restlessness and nervousness in hospital psychiatric wards.

Statistical data are being compiled on violent assaults, suicides and deaths to determine more fully the effects of the lunar cycle.

Black-Woods Vows Read In Lubbock

Velma Joe Black of Lubbock and Capt. Charles W. Ellwood II of Reese Air Force Base were united in a double ring ceremony Sept. 15, in the Church of Christ, at 62nd and Indiana, before an arch of greenery with baskets of blue and white carnations on each side. Harold Fite performed the services for the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Black of Littlefield. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ellwood of Iraan, Tex.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length gown of silk organza trimmed with French Ancon lace, a sabrina neckline and long sleeves puffed at the shoulder. The Watteau train, attached at the waistline with a small bow, was also trimmed with French Ancon lace. She wore a waist-length veil of silk attached to a silk covered headpiece lined with lace and beaded pearls. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

The bride's attendants wore floor-length gowns of light blue crepe with butterfly sleeves and lace Empire waistlines. Headpieces were bows of matching light blue crepe. They each carried long stem white carnations with blue streamers attached.

Miss Sue Benner of Littlefield served as Maid of Honor and Miss Susan Ellwood, sister of the groom, served as bridesmaid.

Nolen Crow Jr., of Austin, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man and David Ellwood of Iraan, brother of the groom, was groomsman.

The couple chose traditional wedding music. Special selections were "Whither Thou Goest", "Because", "Faithful and True", and "Now Ye Go Ye On Your Way".

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Eddleman. Miss Sue Benner and Miss Susan Ellwood served the guests.

The reception table was covered by a white tablecloth with a lace border accented with blue satin bows. The table was centered with a basket of blue and white carnations and the bride's bouquet. A three-tiered wedding cake, nuts, mints, and bridal punch were served to the guests.

For her going away ensemble, the bride chose a dress of green dacron knit with a white collar, and white buttons accenting the front of the dress and pockets, with matching white accessories. The couple plan to spend their honeymoon at Corpus Christi. Upon their return, will make their home in Carlisle, Tex.

HOMINY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

I would bring a point worth mentionin'. —Three of my kids took drivers' ed. (The No. 2 son is still too young) and I have four that drive.
The older kid learned to drive by watching others, plus the instruction from mom and dad. —Guess which one scares me silly, when she's at the wheel!
The point is, that you don't do your kid, nor his fellow drivers justice, if you don't insist that he take drivers ed.
Most of us "Mature" guys learned to drive in the Model "T" and "A" —some of those Ts would do a scorchin' 50, but, gave you more feeling of confidence at thirty-five. (Besides, you weren't kept so busy replacin' con rods!) We learned to drive at 25 to 30 mph; our kids must learn at fifty or more.
On the other hand, the "A" would cruise nicely at 50, while the average top-end was around 70. This vehicle killed about twice the people per car as did the T.
One thing about it being that when you crashed the thing, you were assured of a nice lap-full of gasoline! (Nadar would have had a ball, with that one.)
Then, too, the average speed limit was 45 mph. When we stick our kids in the modern version of the auto, chances are that he's supposed to learn to control something like 275 to 325 horsepower with average road speeds of 70 mph! —There's a difference, yu' know.
Today's drivers who've reached mature age, can truly be considered "Survivors"! That, especially, if you've logged 100,000 miles or more.
So, when we think of driving defensively, it's a pretty good idea to think of the other driver as being careless, sleepy, drunk, or inexperienced! When you take him for granted, you're taking a chance.
When driving, be suspicious of the other guy, you may live longer!
We take the chance of driving for granted. We've grown up with the automobile, and it's a part of our daily lives. We no longer stand in awe at the thought that we are in control (?) of a couple of tons of weight (plus passengers) as we're hurtling along our busy highways at 70 or over!

Nor, (unless we're mechanics), do we realize the delicacies of some of the little things that hold the ol' tub together, nor the fine line between control and disaster!
We can lay aside one of our most prominent fears as of today. The new cars are coming out with that safety bumper! —Now, if you're driving along the road, and the guy, your meeting goes to sleep at the wheel, letting his vehicle wander over into your lane of traffic, just slow your rig down to FIVE miles per hour, and let him have it! —This new bumper is supposed to be safe at that speed.
Of course, it'd be a good idea if you could get him to slow to the same speed!
In my pet peeve department is: The bully that won't dim his lights, unless your lights can blind HIM! —The person that pulls up to a stop sign and never looks your way and pulls right out in your path. The fellow that barrels up to the stop sign and jams his brakes on at the last possible second —betting his life, as well as yours, that his brakes will take this abuse ONE MORE TIME. I don't like the sight of blood —especially mine!
The nimcompoop that invariably speeds up when you start around, and if there's oncoming traffic, so much the better! The fellow that drives along with one foot resting on the brake pedal, keeping his stop lights on! One who doesn't notice that his turner indicator didn't cancel, blinkin' merrily along the highway. And the guy that gets on your rear bumper at night, keeping his highlights shirring in your rear view mirrors, and windshield.

County Clerk, District Clerk, Tax Collector Ask For Raises

days following receipt of the written grievances.

If, after a hearing, the committee by a vote of six or its voting members decides to recommend a change in the salary, expenses, or other allowances of the persons requesting the hearing, it shall prepare its recommendations in writing and deliver it to the commissioners' court which shall consider the recommendations at its next meeting.

Should all nine on the committee be unanimous in a decision to grant a raise, such a statement is signed by all nine and it goes into effect without consent from the commissioners' court.

The following are statements from the three office holders:

I, Ray Lynn Britt, District Clerk, Lamb County, Texas, pursuant to the provisions of Article 3912k, Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, hereby present this application for a review of my salary by the members of the Salary Grievance Committee.

The responsibilities of the office are not from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. but continue 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Many hours of after-hours work are involved: staying in court until the Grand Jury completes its work; calling jurors at night, early morning and on weekends; going to the office at all hours to file emergency cases, issue citations and restraining orders, or take care of other business; working late almost every night a jury trial is in progress and very late on some nights while awaiting a jury verdict. While all of this extra work is not actually required by law, it is necessary if the people of Lamb County are to have the efficient service I wish to render and to which I believe they are entitled.

In 1972, there were 6663 tax on in 1971, there were 14,773 tax an increase of 121%.
In 1952, the County tax on the was $119,765.25. In 1971, the tax on the tax roll was $380,720.95, an increase of 319%.
In 1952, the Precinct tax on the was $22,455.98. In 1971, the Precinct on the tax roll was $64,515.95, an increase of 190%.

In 1952, the total tax was $183,682.09. In 1971, the total tax was $380,720.95, an increase of 207%.
Since 1952, the work in the office the amount of money handled has than doubled in size, but the salary increased only 37 1/2%.

There are 50 Counties in the Texas under 20,000 population that more salary to the Tax Collector than Lamb County pay average for these 50 Counties is $10,430.00.

I hereby request the Commission Court of Lamb County to set the of this office at $10,430.00.

I, Lucy M. Moreland, County Treasurer, Lamb County, Texas, pursuant to the provisions of Article 3912k, Vernon's Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, hereby present this application for a review of my salary, by the members of the Salary Grievance Committee.

As the County Treasurer's office does not have a deputy, I am required to perform all the duties of this office. It is almost impossible for me to be out of the office any length of time, due to the fact that a check might be needed for an emergency, or it is the regular bill paying day for the County, or salary checks or jury checks need to be disbursed. Money's coming into various funds needs to be received and receipt written for same. Also, all the bookkeeping records must be kept, various monthly and quarterly reports to be made to the Commissioners Court; the Texas State Library, The State Comptroller, Austin, Texas; and helping to prepare the County budget.

The County Depository Bank, being the First National Bank, Sudan, Texas, requires of me to have and maintain a personal automobile.

As you know, it would be impossible for any elected official to list all of their duties of their office, in which they are striving to serve the people of Lamb County; and I feel that each elected official has duties of importance to perform, even though these duties vary, all of them are necessary.

Therefore, I wish to ask that the Salary Grievance Committee recommend and approve a salary of $7,200.00 per year for the office of the County Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted, s/Lucy M. Moreland
Lucy Moreland, Lamb County Treasurer

I, Herbert Dunn, Tax Assessor-Collector of Lamb County, Texas, pursuant to the provisions of Article 3912k, Texas Revised Civil Statutes hereby present this application for a review of my salary to the members of the Grievance Committee established under the provisions of the said Article 3912k.

I ask for a review of my salary for the following reasons:
During the years in which I have been in this office, the salary has not kept pace with the cost of living.

The Commissioner's Court of Lamb County has refused to grant salary increases to offset the rise in the cost of living.

During the time I have been in this office, the work load and responsibilities have doubled and tripled, the amount of County taxes has increased 190%, the amount of car tag money has increased 175% and living costs have increased over 100%, but the total salary increase over the years has been 37 1/2%. And, the take home pay has only

I will request the Grievance Committee to approve and set my salary in one of the following ways:
On a percentage basis across increase on work load and amount and tag moneys, $10,430.00.
On a percentage basis based on increase in the cost of living $9600.00.

On a percentage basis of all Counties in the same population as that Lamb County is in which pay tax Assessor-Collector more than County pays, $9150.00.

On the same percentage basis the Commissioners salary has since 1952, 65%, $8220.00.
The salary of this office has kept pace with the cost of living.
In 1952, when I came into this office the salary was $4800.00. In 1971, the salary was $6600.00, an increase of 37.5%. However, the take home pay increased only 20%.

Since 1952, living costs have increased over 100%.

Early Detection

THE YOUNG CHILD with a hidden vision problem is in trouble. He cannot know he is not seeing as he should, since he has no basis for comparison: as far as he is concerned, everyone sees things as he does. And the inability to see properly can affect every aspect of his life, future as well as present.
Parents, says the Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness, have to be aware of the possibility that a child could have a sight defect even when no readily discernible symptoms exist and his eyes appear normal and healthy.
A complete professional eye examination to detect any possible vision impairment preferably by the time a child is four and certainly by the age of six is important, as the preschool years are the time when treatment for many vision problems is most successful.

correcting the initial condition, the muscle imbalance or other problem, and patching the good eye. This forces the child to use his amblyopic eye, thereby building strength and restoring visual acuity.
One in every 20 preschool-age children in the U.S. is estimated to have some form of sight impairment. The Society sponsors periodic preschool vision screenings in various locations, conducted by specially trained volunteers, to help identify children with amblyopia and other vision problems.
The screening process is not an examination or a professional test, but serves to determine the possible need for professional attention. Any child who as a result of the screening is suspected of having any form of vision defect is referred to an eye specialist.
The Society also widely distributes educational materials on children's vision problems, urging all parents to have their children's eyes examined periodically throughout the preschool and school years, to assure correction of any sight problem as early as possible.

Amblyopia, for example, is a common eye condition among young children which for most successful correction should be discovered before the sixth year.
Sometimes called "lazy eye," amblyopia develops early, as the child is learning to see, when an eye muscle imbalance or other defect causes the perception of a blurred or distorted image. To avoid the distortion, the child concentrates on seeing with one eye only. The other eye—the amblyopic eye—gradually weakens from lack of use.
Treatment for amblyopia involves the National Society or the Prevention of Blindness.

Founded in 1908, the national society is the oldest voluntary health agency nationally engaged in the prevention of blindness through a comprehensive program of community services, public and professional education and research.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

No Guilt Complex

By BOB WEAR

A WORTHWHILE LIFE is established and maintained by sincere and conscientious behavior. When we are sincere and conscientious, we must expect some guilt feelings. These will be the admission of the fact of having committed a breach of conduct. Since we are imperfect, we must not be unduly upset by our mistakes; however, we must respect the guilt feelings and learn how to handle them.
When we do wrong, or fail to do right according to our obligations or accepted standards, we will be guilty and feel guilty. Up to this point, everything is as it should be. If, however, we make too much of the guilt, we are in trouble. This is the way we form the guilt complex. We have exaggerated the normal reaction of guilt, and this is a mistake we cannot afford.

complex". In this connection, let us remember that the memories associated with the sense of guilt exert a dominating influence upon our personalities and our lives. This influence is always detrimental, and one we can do without.
Guilt serves a useful purpose, when we handle it wisely: when we let it move us to take corrective action. It can help us amend our behavior, and improve our general conduct, if we will respond to it as we should. This is guilt being handled as it should be, but the guilt complex will not serve any useful purpose. Worse than this, it can practically destroy an otherwise useful, happy life.

"GUILT UPON THE CONSCIENCE, like rust upon iron, both defiles and consumes it, gnawing and creeping into it, as that does which at last eats out the very heart and substance of the metal."
—South.

Many good people who do not have just cause to feel guilty insist upon keeping a strong sense of guilt alive in their minds. In doing so, they set themselves on a declining life course. They are overly conscientious, and permit a "guilt complex" to dominate them. This is too much burden for anyone to carry, and no one does carry it successfully.

A SENSE OF GUILT is part of a wholesome state of mind, and condition of life, when we know how to handle it wisely. If we do not know how, or if we do know how, and fail to do so, we are in a very untenable situation.
Some of the happenings which cause us to feel guilty have to be forgotten, and the guilt feeling discarded. In other instances, we must make the required corrections, and thus get rid of the guilt.

WE MUST NEVER PERMIT guilt to remain with us. If we do, it increases and becomes more intense, and we move into the destructive "guilt

WE MUST LET GUILT SERVE its rightful purpose, and when it has done this, we must let it go.

Disney On Parade Scheduled Soon

"Disney On Parade", the 2 1/2-hour live stage musical featuring Mickey Mouse and scores of other Disney characters, will appear for the first time in the Lubbock Coliseum, Tuesday, Oct. 10-Sunday, Oct. 15.

Performances are scheduled for Tuesday through Saturday at 7:30 p.m. with matinees Saturday at 2 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. Children 12 and under are $1.00 off for all performances.

The show brings all of the great Disney creations together for the first time in one unique show. Through the blending of all of the elements of live production, sound effects motion pictures, magic, music and special lighting, "Disney On Parade" recreates Disney masterpieces live in a new form of entertainment.

Famous Disney creations "come to life" on the world's largest portable arena floor—singing, dancing and performing in 12 spectacularly costumed numbers including "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "Pinocchio," "Fantasia," "Mickey's Band Concert," "Goofy and the Love Bug," and many more.

Colorful settings ranging from "Pinocchio's" Italian Street Carnival to "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" house transform the arena into a world of fantasy.

"The intention in creating the show," says Michel Griikhes, executive in charge of production, "was to use the same creative imagination the Disney experts have used on film to create a 'living' touring show based not only on great Disney classics, but adding new twists to some of their older themes.

The characters from "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "Pinocchio," and "Fantasia," join Mickey Mouse, Pluto, Goofy, Donald Duck, and many more.

Music goes all the way from Country-Western in the "Barnyard Bash" production with dancing chickens, eggs, rooster, fox and scarecrow, to "Fantasia's" famous "Nutteracker Suite."

A wholly new entertainment medium requires revolutionary staging. To that end, a completely portable stage (135 feet long and 56 feet wide) was designed, along with a mammoth proscenium at one end of the floor depicting the castle from the famous Magic Kingdom. The castle alone has 10 magic openings and doors through which the entire "Disney On Parade" cast can flood the floor in seconds.

CLASSIC—"Pinocchio" and his friend, Jiminy Cricket, are among the 100 Disney characters in eight big acts that "come to life" in the all-new and different edition of "Disney On Parade," the live stage musical appearing for the first time in Lubbock at the Coliseum, Tuesday, Oct. 10-Sunday, Oct. 15.

Martha Haynes Is Top RN

Top scores on the State Board Licensing Examination for the 90 Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing graduates who wrote the examination in July in Austin, Texas, were made by two Licensed Vocational Nurses who were granted advanced standing by the School of Nursing.

Mrs. Martha Haynes of Littlefield was one of the 13 LVNs in this graduating class.

Northwest was the first diploma program in the state and one of the first in the nation to develop a plan whereby licensed vocational nurses could be given credit in a registered nurse program for their one year of LVN training.

Under the present program a licensed vocational nurse can complete the vocational nurse program in one year, the registered nurse program at NWTH in an additional two years, and the requirements for a B.S. degree in nursing at WTSU in an additional year, making the total length of time four years.

A panel discussion was held concerning new election laws that will be in effect for the General Election and liquor election laws. The complicated absentee voting laws were discussed and it was agreed that the county clerks will request the next regular Legislative session to simplify the absentee voting laws.

In the afternoon session those present heard a program concerning the Salary Grievance Committee.

Most clerks provided a tour of the new Scurry County Courthouse. While touring the courthouse a group of clerks, including Lamb County Clerk Mary Beth Willey spent 10 minutes in the elevator when it malfunctioned. Even with the delay, all agreed the courthouse was something with its wall to wall carpeting, wood paneling, pink marble and new equipment and furniture.

the Problem...

It is no longer a surprise to find carpet outdoors or on walls or in kitchens. However, management of hotels, office buildings, and institutions including individual homes is surprised to find most of the methods and equipment available for carpet cleaning expensive, antiquated and ineffective.

the Solution...

Until now the rotary shampoo method was accepted as the industry standard . . . Sub-standard and obsolete is a more apt definition when compared to the revolutionary new process by STACY-MASON. The STEAMLINER provides a proven best method of carpet soil extraction. The basic working principle is simultaneous injection and extraction of pressurized hot water . . . This method is simple and effective if controlled temperature, pressure and vacuum is maintained. This control is built into all STEAMLINER equipment.

How it works...

STEAMLINER MACH I features two major components, the Power Brush Head and the Dual Tank Unit. The Power Brush Head performs the actual cleaning action while the Dual Tank Unit provides a heat generating reservoir of clean water, a pump, and a vacuum extraction tank. Simply stated, water is heated in the reservoir, pumped to the cleaning head where it is injected into the carpet. A revolving brush loosens the dirt which is simultaneously extracted with the water. The vacuum extraction tank receives the dirty water.

Why it's Better...

Engineers at Town and Country STEAMLINER have added exclusive features which have increased the effectiveness to outperform any equipment on the market. Patents are pending on two important features that provide STEAMLINER with a wide competitive advantage: Five jet valves are positioned at a strategic angle which causes an overlapping spray to penetrate and deflect in an opposite angle to the direction of travel. Fibers, water and loosened dirt are directed into the path of a reel type, adjustable brush, located between the injection jets and the extraction throat. The brush agitates and loosens soil impacted fibers as a powerful vacuum extracts the soil and water.

STEAMLINER

a complete soil extraction system for Carpet

STEAMLINER MACH I

The combined cleaning action of the STEAMLINER raises and fluffs the carpet nap, revitalizing and brightening the color while leaving the carpet damp dry. Depending on the density of carpet, up to 85% of the injected water is removed, virtually eliminating shrinkage. Carpet damaged by previous shampooing is instantly enlivened as old detergent and grime is dissolved and extracted by powerful vacuum. It doesn't require an efficiency expert to recognize the economy of protecting a carpet investment. Clean carpet lasts years longer and is much healthier. Because of the amount of germ laden filth that carpet can absorb, STEAMLINER carpet care is the ideal solution.

And while the visitors ran seven more offensive plays than the hometown Wildcats (54-16), the Lobos managed to get onto the scoreboard with only 1:08 left in the ball game.

The Wildcats wasted little time however to score as their first TD of the night came on their second possession. Levelland received the kickoff and was unable to move the ball and was forced to punt. Littlefield had the ball first and ten on their own 45 yard line after the punt but the first play of the series resulted in a fumble with the Lobos recovering the loose ball. However, this didn't hold too well with the hometown team as they promptly intercepted a Lobo pass and took over on their own 48-yard line.

On the first play of the series, junior quarterback Terry Bryson ran a keeper to the left and picked up a first down. J. E. Johnson then picked up three yards through the middle. Pat Henderson was called upon next and he also gained enough yardage for a first and ten. A pass play and running play resulted in no yardage gained and an offside penalty moved the ball back to the Wildcat 30-yard line.

Then Bryson handed off to Henderson, Henderson broke through left tackle and with 6:19 left in the first quarter, the scoreboard read Littlefield 6, Levelland 0. The extra point attempt was blocked and the score remained the same until the final seconds of the first quarter when Bryson sneaked over from the one to make the score 12-0 for the Wildcats. In the preceding series of downs, the Wildcats had a 46-yard run for an apparent TD by Henderson called back because of a clipping infraction. After the second TD, the Wildcats went for two points but the pass from Bryson to Henderson fell incomplete.

With 6:44 left in the first half, the Wildcats started moving again as the Lobos punted into their own end zone. A 15-yard penalty against Levelland moved the ball on up to the Cat 35-yard line. A series of running plays moved the ball down to the Levelland 30-yard line but there the Cats were stymied. A five-yard penalty and a loss of five yards by Bryson in a passing attempt caused the Wildcats to punt. End Chris Pope punted the ball to the Lobo five yard line where it rolled dead.

With 2:45 left in the first half, Johnson intercepted a pass from the Lobo quarterback on the 20 and returned the intercepted ball to the Lobo four-yard line. A five yard penalty moved the ball back to the nine where it was still first and goal. A pass from Bryson to Henderson fell incomplete but it was now time for Johnson who scored three times last week against Silvertown.

With 1:56 remaining in the first half, Johnson went up the middle for nine big yards to cross the Lobos' goal and make the score read 18-0. Again lining up in scrimmage formation, the Wildcats of Coach Jerry Blakely took advantage of Henderson's speed to complete the two point conversion and add two more points to the hometown tally.

Time ran out in the first half with the Wildcats on the Lobo 10-yard line with the score 20-0.

As the Wildcats lined up to receive the kickoff for the second half, the Wildcat coaches urged them "to get after the Lobos early!" And this they did. With a first and 10 on their own 20, Pat Henderson went 80 big yards for the Wildcats' first touchdown of the second half and the total elapsed time of the kick off and one play was 15 seconds! Larry Hobratschk kicked the extra point and with 11:45 remaining in the third quarter, the score read Wildcats 27, the visiting Lobos 0.

The Lobos got close to the goal line with 8:27 remaining in the third quarter when they reached the Wildcat 12 yard line with a first and 10 situation. A run by Sam Mitchell picked up 9 yards and the visitors were on the Maroon and White's three-yard line. Here the tough Wildcat defense got even tougher and forced the Lobos to fumble. It was recovered by the Wildcats on their own three yard line and it looked as if the Wildcat defense was determined to shut out another opponent.

However, on the first play from scrimmage after taking over on their own four, the Wildcats fumbled and the Lobos recovered on the Littlefield eight-yard line. However, there's a sign in the Wildcat dressing room that reads "when the going gets tough, the tough get going" and this is exactly what the Cat defense did. The Lobos managed to get down to the seven but that was all and a fourth down pass that fell incomplete in the end zone stalled this scoring opportunity for Levelland.

At this point, the teams exchanged possessions and it wasn't until there was only 3:35 left in the ball game when General Lewis made a dodging, darting run of 74 yards to make the score 34-0 in favor of the Wildcats. Lewis and his blockers left Lobos all over the field as they tried to catch the little 155 pound senior, Hobratschk's PAT was good and the score was then 34-0.

Levelland finally got their score with 1:08 remaining in the game as Mitchell went 17 yards for Levelland's first touchdown of the season.

For the night, Mitchell gained 117 hard yards for the Lobos. The pass for two extra points by the visitors fell incomplete in the end zone and the final score read Littlefield 34, Levelland 16.

For the night, Henderson picked up a whopping 221 yards on only 17 carries. Johnson ran the ball 4 times for 18 yards and Lewis picked up 82 yards on five carries.

Concerning the game,

Coach Jerry Blakely said the Wildcats had a very good mental attitude for the game and played outstanding football the first half. He attributed the big win to outstanding school and community spirit displayed all week, adding that he, the coaching staff and the Wildcats really appreciate the attitude the community takes toward the Littlefield football program.

Blakely gave special praise to five offensive players: Halfback Pat Henderson for three touchdowns and 221 yards in 17 carries; Arturo Soria for fine blocking effort from his fullback position; Leon Hodge for fine blocking effort downfield and on many

"crackback" effort; end, Kenny Francis for consistent blocking; and tailback General Lewis who turned in a most impressive running performance. Blakely said the line play was very good. Eddie Surret got a perfect performance on the defensive end. The tackle Jerry Conner tackled more than he has in two years. Randy was very well at the passer at the end of the game he has played with tackle Randy. It was also involved in tackles Floyd Smith much improved game in on numerous tack

JV Pops Tahoka To 7-6 Victory

Littlefield's JV slogged to a 7-6 win over the Tahoka junior varsity during a downpour Thursday afternoon.

Littlefield scored on a 62-yard pass play from Richard Barton to Larry Ashley. Mike Cotter added the extra point.

Statistic-wise, the JVs made 10 first downs, gained 154 yards rushing, 81 yards passing, completing three for six, received six penalties for 60 yards, fumbled five times and intercepted one pass with Stanley Patterson credited with the interception.

Offensively Coach Lewis Boomer cited Richard Barton for a good job at QB and as leading rusher. Buddy Jungman and Ricky Hodge handled backfield duties well; split end Larry Ashley and tight end Connie Bowman and Jimmy Stanaford also gained the coach's nod. Defensively, Ed Fragle and Merrett outside linebackers Lichte, defensive Cory Logsdon, linebackers performed well. The JV and freshman Levelland there with the fresh legs 5:30 p.m. and the JV

Local Frosh Skunk Tahoka Freshmen

The Littlefield freshmen blanked Tahoka 14-0 Thursday.

A 35-yard pass play from Bill Turner to Kip Elms put the frosh on the scoreboard just before the end of the first half.

The second score was a 20-yard pass from Turner to Jerry Stamps.

Coach Robert Bolton lauded ends Stamps and Elms, QB Turner and tailback John Baiza for outstanding efforts. Defensively, Bill whole team put effort allowing Tahoka one first down and the frosh broke only on the second half.

Wildcat Band presents excellent half-time show.

LITTLEFIELD LIONS had the largest broom sale in their history here this club sold $2,360 worth of goods made by the Texas blind, and of this total the club cleared about $650 for purchasing glasses for the needy and other activities. McQueen was chairman of the sale.

Amherst's Bulldogs took it on the chin Friday night when they were dumped by district favorite Wilson, 35-6, in their first district game of the 1972 football season.
Bulldogs fans were brought to their feet in the third quarter when Luis Jimenez, 120-pound senior took a pass from quarterback Randy Miller, 141 junior and scampered 60 yards for the only Amherst tally.
Neither team crossed over the double strip in the opening stanza as stubborn defense would not give up any extra yards.
In the opening minutes of the second quarter Wilson's John Fields plowed over for the first Mustang tally from 15-yards out. Fields booted the extra for a 7-0 score with 8:17 left in the second quarter.
The next time Wilson got the ball on a punt, Chris Coleman ran the ball back 50 yards for another TD only to have it called back on the penalty. The next series of downs netted another Wilson TD as Coleman and Fields teamed up on a 17 yard pass play. Fields booted the extra with 5:15 left in the air.
Wilson held Amherst after the kick-off and took the ball on the 33 and drove over for their third TD as Danny Trotter scored from 19 yards out. Again Fields booted the extra to make the score 20-0 with 1:19 left in the half.
In the second half Amherst received the kick-off but was unable to move the ball and had to give the ball up on downs.
Fields shot a pass to Coleman for a 45-yard pass play that gave the Mustangs their fourth TD. Fields kicked the extra to give Wilson a 28-0 lead with 9:50 left in the third period.
Amherst took the kick-off on their 31 and plowed for a first down with a pass from Miller to Wes Gage. The next play Miller passed the ball to Jimenez for a 59-yard gallop to the goal line and a Bulldog TD with 6:34 left in the third quarter. The two-point conversion attempt was stopped.

It was ball swap for the remainder of the quarter as neither team made an impressive showing against the other.
Fields gave the fans a repeat performance hitting Coleman with a pass for a 15-yard pass play and another Mustang TD with 5:06 left in the game. Fields made the score 35-6 with his conversion kick. Amherst controlled the ball for the rest of the game but was not able to score.

WES GAGE charges downfield after collecting a pass from Bulldog QB Randy Miller for a penetration and an Amherst first down.

Mules Kick Ponies

It's not how you play the game but how often you light the scoreboard determines whether you win or not. Olton was faced with this dilemma Friday night as they bowed to Muleshoe, 21-8, at Olton.
The Mustangs galloped for 316 total yards rushing to the Mules' 216, and the Mustangs collected 17 first downs to the Mules' 13, but the Mules crossed the double strips more often than the Mustangs to give Olton its second loss in the new football season.
Muleshoe scored twice in the first half by stopping Olton's drives on the 35 and 25 yard lines on fumble recoveries.
The first tally was for the Mules was a nine-yard plunge by David Wheat. Joe Elizarraraz took a 25-yard pass from Don Long for their second score.

George Mitchell capped a 52-yard drive in the third quarter to give the Mules their final tally of the game. Wheat booted his third straight PAT for a 21-0 lead for Muleshoe.
Keith Workman put the Mustangs on the scoreboard by driving nine yards in the third stanza and adding two more points in his conversion. Muleshoe is 2-0 and Olton is 0-2.

6-Man Battle

Bula opened its 1972 football season by dumping Southland, 55-6, at Southland Friday night in six-man football.
The game was called after three minutes had passed in the third quarter because of the 45-point lead rule that applies to six-man football.
In the rampage, Jim Risinger scored 23 points, Kenneth Turney 12, Edward Clawson 6, and Jerry Sowder booted for two.
Bula racked up 240 yards rushing to Southlands 30, and got 125 yards in the air and held their opponent to 32 for a total offense of 365 yards. Southland got sixty two.

Wolves Blanked By Cooper, 6-0

Cooper shutout the Springlake-Earth Wolverines, 6-0, Friday night at Woodrow.
The only score in the game was a 16-yard pass play from Pete Shoban to Bobby Claudie in the first period.
The TD was set up when Cooper recovered a fumble on the S-E 18 and drove over for their only tally.
In the defensive battle, S-E held another Cooper charge in the third stanza by recovering a fumble. Cooper did not allow the visitors to penetrate its 30-yard line.
Springlake is now 1-1 for the season and Cooper is 2-0.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

What does mother with 'senile old man'

DEAR ABBY: My father is senile and incompetent and Mother still lives together in their own home. All children are married.

My father has always handled the finances, and Mother still allows him to do so even though she knows no longer competent. She says she doesn't want to his feelings.

My father has not made a will because he is afraid about lawyers "stealing" everything he's worked so hard to accumulate, which is considerable. Besides, Mother suggested that Dad make a will, and he became so that she dropped it, and I'm sure she'll never do again.

What on earth can we do? Mother is perfectly sane except where Dad is concerned; she refuses to face the fact we're just about ready to let everything drift into suits in financial disaster for Mother. Then we say, "All right, we tried to help you, but you won't listen, so now you'll just have to suffer the consequences. The trouble is, we know we wouldn't have the best of it. We'd just end up stripping ourselves financially. So what's the answer, Abby?"

DEAR HOPELESS: Someone, somehow MUST Mother realize that she must take steps to protect Dad has worked so hard to accumulate—even at the "hurting his feelings." A trusted lifelong friend, father's would be ideal. His doctor? Clergyman? He doesn't trust lawyers; how about a friend in the department of his bank?]

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have a refrigerator that does something that irritates me no end. As soon as he comes into our home he heads for our refrigerator. He then opens it to see what's inside he helps himself.

Don't get me wrong, I don't mind letting him whatever we have, it's just the idea of him helping that burns me up.

I was taught never to open closets, drawers, cupboards or refrigerators in someone else's home, Abby, and don't like anyone opening mine.

This man is a good friend of ours and I don't want to hurt him, but it's gotten to the point where I am exploding. So how can I tactfully tell him to please stop using our refrigerator? ANONYMOUSLY

DEAR YOURS: Don't worry about "hurting" your feelings. It sounds pretty durable to me. Tell him that he is to anything you have to eat, but to please stay out of the refrigerator. He may get angry and never open it again. [And wouldn't that be lovely?]

DEAR ABBY: So many people ask you how to answer a personal question they don't wish to ask. I am reminded of an incident in the life of my late father. I think it's a classic:

Mrs. P. was traveling by train thru Pennsylvania years ago, and while she was waiting in the depot, sitting near her kept staring at her for a long time. Finally this strange lady leaned towards Mrs. P. and asked, "Say, are them your real teeth?"

Without a moment's hesitation, Mrs. P. replied in a quiet, confidential manner, "If anyone else asks you, just tell them you don't know."

MRS. J. S. P., ELKINS

DEAR ABBY: A man wrote and said his parents wanted to invite him and his wife to their country club. He wanted him to please ask his wife to wear a necklace with no cleavage showing as they didn't want to be embarrassed before their friends.

The husband said he didn't mind a little cleavage, and asked if that would be out of place at a club. You said "a little cleavage" was acceptable in country clubs. I have a better suggestion: That you should tell his parents to buy their daughter a large diamond pendant to be worn on an 18-inch platinum chain around her neck. That would cover her cleavage and would be acceptable in any country club.

DEAR ABBY: After trying without success for some time to have a child, my husband and I had fertility tests. We discovered that he was unable to have children, so we agreed that I should have artificial insemination.

Abby, twins have always fascinated me, and I have a pair of twins my dream would come true!

Is there a donor somewhere who could guarantee twins?

I asked my doctor about this and he said he was asking for too much, and I should be satisfied with one baby. Will you please see what you can do on this line? Thank you.

DEAR WANTS: No one can guarantee you twins, artificial insemination or otherwise. Only one out of 11,000 [in the U. S.] is likely to produce twins. If you twins fascinate you, do get the book [just out] "Curious World of Twins" by Vincent and Margaret. It's the most fascinating collection of documented facts about twins ever published! And one of the most interesting and informative books I've ever read.

DEAR ABBY: I agree, there is entirely too much wasted in some restaurants because they serve such large portions, and one can't carry home soup or salad or relishes.

We are two senior citizens, and naturally our aren't what they used to be, but we enjoy eating in different places.

A full meal usually consists of soup, salad, bread, butter, and by the time we get to the main course we can't eat it because we are so filled up with all these things.

Lo and behold, we went to a restaurant the other night, and we saw in bold print on the menu, "children's senior citizens' portions at a reduced price."

I wish more restaurants would give us a break like that. It's not only cheaper, but there is no food waste.

DEAR MOM: Maybe after this appears in your will. I hope so. Our senior citizens need all the help they can get.

Meet The Minister

REV. AND MRS. BENNY GOSS

Wanda Goss always maintained she'd never marry a preacher. So she married Benny Goss right after he and she graduated from high school.

Then two months to the day after they were married, Benny Goss surrendered to preaching and she found herself married to a Baptist preacher.

Rev. Goss has been preaching since 1951, and has pastored in churches all over West Texas and Eastern New Mexico. He has been pastor of Sunset Baptist Church in Littlefield for the past four years.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Goss grew up near Roaring Springs. They attended different schools but were members of the same church.

Most of the churches they have served have been comparatively small, and in supplementing his income Rev. Goss says he has done about every type of work there is.

But he counts his part time work done in Littlefield since he moved here as the most interesting. This includes painting commercial signs and announcing, doing spot commercials and advertising work for the local radio station.

In addition to his commercial art work, Rev. Goss is an accomplished artist and has done numerous pen and ink sketches and oil and water color paintings

A favorite topic for his drawings and paintings are historical sites, and Rev. Goss has done numerous drawings of various old hotels and buildings in this area that were once landmarks of the Plains.

He has chosen the best of all of these works and is in the process of publishing a book of sketches on early day Lamb County.

Mrs. Goss' hobby is sewing. She created her daughter's wedding dress and trousseau as well as doing all the sewing for the entire wedding party. She is presently learning pattern drafting.

The couple has five children. Curtis is 20 and is in the Army and stationed at Panama. Lee is 19, graduated from LHS last spring, and is employed at Furr's. Sherlyn is completing high school at Plainview while her husband Waylon Huffo attends Wayland.

Two of the children are still at home. Brian is 16 and a sophomore, and Sheila is 12 and in the seventh grade.

The Goss family said they have enjoyed living in Littlefield more than anywhere they have lived. They said they have found the people here friendly, considerate and helpful.

TURN OF ROW COMMENTS

EMIL MACHA.

THE WEATHERMAN JUST stated a 20 per cent chance for rain for tonight. That sure does sound good. That means we have an 80 per cent chance that it won't. Even with odds like that seems like we still loose. Oh well, let's hope that the temperature stays about 60 degrees and maybe it won't be quite so bad.

Even being wet as it is, cotton is opening. One thing about this wet weather is that it sure is helping to add pounds to the milo crop.

games are always the toughest.

WONDER IF ANY of you old timers remember when wooden wheels of the old Tin Lizzy began to creak too loudly and all you had to do was to drive it into a puddle of water and let it set for a while to swell the spokes?

ONLY A FEW days are left to register if you want to vote in the general election this year.

WAS VERY HAPPY with the turnout for the Conversational Spanish class. Those of you that did not have an opportunity to register last Monday may do so Monday night at 7 o'clock. There is a possibility that another class will be formed thus giving you a Monday and a Tuesday night class.

THOSE OF YOU who were planning to attend various academic classes here in Littlefield may still be able to. We hope to give a complete report before the next semester begins.

ACCORDING TO the Almanac, this wet weather is supposed to come to an end around the 24th of this month. That's just a few days off.

HARVESTING OF various Lamb County crops is underway. The first load of milo came in Tuesday. Go out east of town and you can see the carrot harvest underway and they have begun combining cantalope and watermelon.

I don't know how many acres of carrots, watermelon and cantalope are in the county, but it seems that the acreage is growing each year.

MANY OF THE farmers have begun sowing wheat and rye for cover crops and winter grazing. Speaking of grazing have you tried to buy a cow lately? They sure are high but a day old calf has an unbelievable price tag. Even hogs have a good price. Figure I lost $8,000 last week when cows went up a dollar a head and I didn't have a cow to sell.

AMHERST HAD ONE of the biggest celebrations Saturday that they had in years. The unshaven masters of the city unveiled a historical marker dedicated to the city. Learned a lot about our county while working with the people of Amherst in preparation for the dedication.

FRIDAY NIGHT WAS not a night for area football teams. Littlefield dumped Levelland for the only winning team in the county. Bula shared in the spotlight as being the only winning team in the area.

For most teams, things should be a little better as it seems that the first couple of

South Plains Enrolls 1,786

Final enrollment figures for the 1972-73 fall semester have been released by South Plains College, and the figures show a slight increase over the fall enrollment of last year. Final figures released by Dean of Admissions and Registrar Dr. Charles Sylvester show that 1786 students have signed up for classes which began on August 29.

The figure of 1786 represents an increase of 30 students over last fall when 1756 students enrolled by the end of the twelfth class day.

Of the 1786 students registered, approximately 1100 are out-of-district students (the SPC District includes all of Hockley County and the Whiteface Independent School District) representing dozens of Texas counties, several states, and thirteen foreign nations.

Approximately 980 of the students are freshman, 735 are classified as sophomores, and slightly more than 70 are classified as special students.

Forty-seven international students have registered at SPC for the year, representing 14 nations and a forty percent in increase over last year. Nations represented include: Korea, Japan, Hong Kong, Iran, Kuwait, Pakistan, Lebanon, Thailand, Palestine, Costa Rica, Bolivia, Columbia, Mexico, and Ecuador.

The retina of the human eye contains six million cone-shaped cells to detect fine lines, points and color. More amazingly, it also contains some 115 million rod-shaped cells to help you see at night.

TEXAS SENATOR Jack Hightower will be the speaker at the Earth Masonic Lodge's Past Masters' Night, Thursday, Sept. 21, at 7 p.m. when all master masons are invited to the big barbecue. Senator Hightower is a Worshipful Grand Master.

RESIDENTS, if you have any news, friends visiting in your home or you have been out of town, a son or daughter home from college or service, a birth, wedding, death in your family or someone hospitalized and you would like to have it in the Whitharral news please call me at 299-4267 and I will be glad to include it. I would also appreciate having all the local, school, club and church news.

JACK VICKREY of Port Arthur was in Whitharral over the weekend visiting in the home of his sisters, Mrs. Jo Waters, Mrs. J. L. Daylrymple and Mrs. James Blakely.

MR. AND MRS. T. C. Wade spent a week recently in Juarez, Mexico and Cloudcroft, N.M.

High Plains Research Advises Topping Cotton

A critical factor in cotton production this year will be the number of hours of temperature above 70 degrees experienced on the High Plains during the fiber development period.

Cool, wet weather, untypical to the area, has caused delay in cotton fiber development and scientists at the High Plains Research Foundation point out that cotton fiber does not develop in temperatures less than 70 degrees. However, for every 18 degrees increase above 70, the rate of fiber development doubles. This shows the importance of taking every advantage to expose cotton plants to the warmest temperatures possible.

One way to improve the cotton production climate that a producer can use even at this late date is cotton topping. By removing the vegetative top growth and small bolls that will not have time to mature, the producer can increase the amount of sunlight in the area of maturing bolls. Topping has proven to increase returns more than $8 per acre, mainly due to more mature cotton. In studies where the cotton has been mechanically topped, degree hours—degrees above 70 times the number of hours above 70—at the eight-inch height in the cotton row, was increased from 889 per day in the untopped cotton to 1,056 in the topped cotton.

Jim Valliant, research director at the Foundation, said this year looked like it would definitely be a year to top cotton. Besides allowing more sunlight to reach the plant, topping also removes immature cotton that lowers grades and prices. Valliant said that due to the amount of cotton expected to be produced this year, premiums may be paid for higher quality cotton.

"This is where topping shows a particular advantage. We have not shown topping to increase yields enough to show an $8 increase but the increase in quality combined with the slight yield increase has given the greater returns. Any yield increase would be from allowing more bolls to mature. Mature cotton weighs more than immature cotton," Valliant said.

Besides delaying cotton development, Valliant pointed out that growth in the top part of the plants maintains cool, humid conditions which promote the growth of insects and disease.

Offering tips on Cotton topping, Valliant said the operation is usually done the first two weeks of September so that the portion of the plants removed can deteriorate before harvest.

Valliant said the amount of foliage to be removed depended on the plants and fruiting. The portion of the plant with bolls smaller than nickle-size should be removed. Long range weather records indicate that the High Plains has some remaining time in which much cotton fiber can be developed if conditions are ideal, Valliant said. And with these ideal conditions and other practices, cotton should develop until the freeze, he noted.

Heavy Rains

Wreck Terraces

Heavy rains have caused considerable damage to terraces and diversions that were constructed on farms, in the past few years.

The most extensive damage was done this spring when the land was clean or the crops were small.

If you have terraces that were damaged and you need technical help such as staking and checking out the repair work, contact the Soil Conservation office in the courthouse in Littlefield. Also if you plan to build any new terrace or diversion on your farm to control or prevent erosion on your farm contact any of the personal at the SCS office so that you will have time to get the needed planning and engineering work done before construction is to be done.

Marketing Research, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Weslaco.

"Beginning Steps to Vegetable Production" will be discussed by Mario Trevino, Manager, Walker Brothers Produce Company, Plainview. "Financing Vegetable Production" will be discussed by M. L. Wiggins, president, First National Bank, WTCC Director, Munday.

The conference concluded with a "Wrap Up" by Dr. John D. DeWitt, professor of horticulture, Texas Tech University, Lubbock.

PAT RICE, Soil Conservation Service technician, needed repairs on terraces that were washed out on farm south of Littlefield following a hail storm and heavy spring rains.

5 Accidents In Lamb County During August

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated five accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of August, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person killed and two persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first eight months of 1972 shows a total of 67 accidents, resulting in seven persons killed, and 53 persons injured.

This was 12 more accidents, three more fatalities and 41 less injured in 1972, at the same period of time.

The veteran officer reminds you that as the world grows in population, so grows the congestion upon our Texas Highways. Drive friendly, the Texas way!

"For '73, there's more news than ever in our Olds showroom.
New styling, new features, even new kinds of Oldsmobiles.
Let me take you for a quick tour."

First they're Oldsmobiles. Then they're wagons.

All-new Vista Cruiser.

You get a lot to like, on a 116-inch wheelbase. New Vista Vent window in the roof. Over 85 cubic feet of load space. A new easy-lift tailgate that can be released from the driver's seat. Plus, a Rocket 350 V8, power front disc brakes, and exterior paneling. All standard. All nice. Available in 2- or 3-seat models.

Custom Cruiser—the ultimate wagon.

Our largest wagon (127-inch wheelbase) comes furnished to the hilt: Wall-to-wall carpeting, finely tailored upholstery and solid-foam seats. Power steering, power front disc brakes, power rear window, and a Glide-away tailgate that disappears. New hydraulic front bumper system and Swing-away Grille. Rocket 455 V8 and Turbo Hydra-matic transmission. Not to mention more than 106 cubic feet of sumptuous cargo space. That's a lot of room for something that looks and rides like a luxury sedan.

“And that's just the top of the Oldsmobile news in our showroom. We've got a lot more to see, and a whole lot more to tell you about. So come on in for a closer look.”

Oldsmobile reserves the right to make changes at any time, without notice, in prices, colors, materials, equipment, specifications, and models, and also to discontinue models.

TAKE AN OLDS FOR A SPIN.
We're celebrating the arrival of the newest Oldsmobiles in years. The best way to see them is from the driver's seat. Take a test drive!

"Here's a whole new kind of Olds for folks who'd like Olds quality in a smaller car. Omega's a compact—but with more luxury, more room, and a more stable ride than the average compact. It's a lot of Olds for very little money."

A compact—with big-car thinking built in.

Omega is nearly 500 pounds more car than some smaller compacts. Its wheelbase is longer—111 inches, not 108 or 103. Its track is wider, front and rear. It looks more like a bigger Olds than a little compact outside, and on the inside, too.

The good stuff comes standard.

Omega gives you things you may pay extra to get in some other compacts. Deluxe interior with new "wet-look" vinyl trim. Carpeting. Chrome around the windows and wheel openings. A vinyl-grip steering wheel. And a 250-cu.-in. Six that's bigger than extra-cost engines in some compacts. Even a choice of special sun-glow colors.

Open the big back door, fold down the rear seat, and you've got a 6½-foot trunk.

More good stuff you can add.

There's a Rocket 350 V8 with 4-barrel carburetor. Turbo Hydra-matic. Deluxe wheel covers. Protective side moldings. Bucket seats and a console. Vinyl roof. Even a camper-tent conversion for our hatchback. Your Omega can be as practical or as fancy as you want to make it.

Sure, you can get a smaller, lighter compact for less money—but it wouldn't be an Oldsmobile. And there's quite a difference.

Omega comes with 2, 3, or 4 doors. The 2-door coupe is our lowest-priced Olds—with a surprisingly low price for a car with the Oldsmobile name on it. We also have a 4-door sedan for just a few dollars more. And a special hatchback coupe, with a big back door and a rear seat that folds down, station-wagon style.

Omega

Toronado. There's nothing common about it.

"Here's a whole different kind of driving experience. It's more than a matter of luxury—it's what front-wheel drive does for you."

Toronado's front-wheel drive delivers the power of its Rocket 455 V8 to the front wheels.

Signal lights at two levels.

instead of the rear. You're pulled along the road, instead of pushed. And you have outstanding traction and directional stability. On straightaways. Around curves. It's a good feeling. A new experience.

By the way, front drive eliminates the drive-line hump inside so Toronado's front floor is flat. So you enjoy an extra margin of comfort.

No hump, more legroom.

It's built by specialists.

Another thing Toronado owners appreciate is the meticulous way it's built. On its own private production line. By specialists who work on no other car. Inspected and re-inspected by other specialists with a real sense of responsibility to future Toronado owners. Knowing this, you know the quality is there.

Driving's fun again.

You'll find yourself enjoying driving in a whole new way. With power steering and power front-disc brakes. Turbo Hydramatic transmission and power ventilation all working for you. With the comfort of solid-foam seats under plush upholsteries. Elegant metallic inlays. Even color-coordinated floor pedals. There's a special Toronado touch to everything.

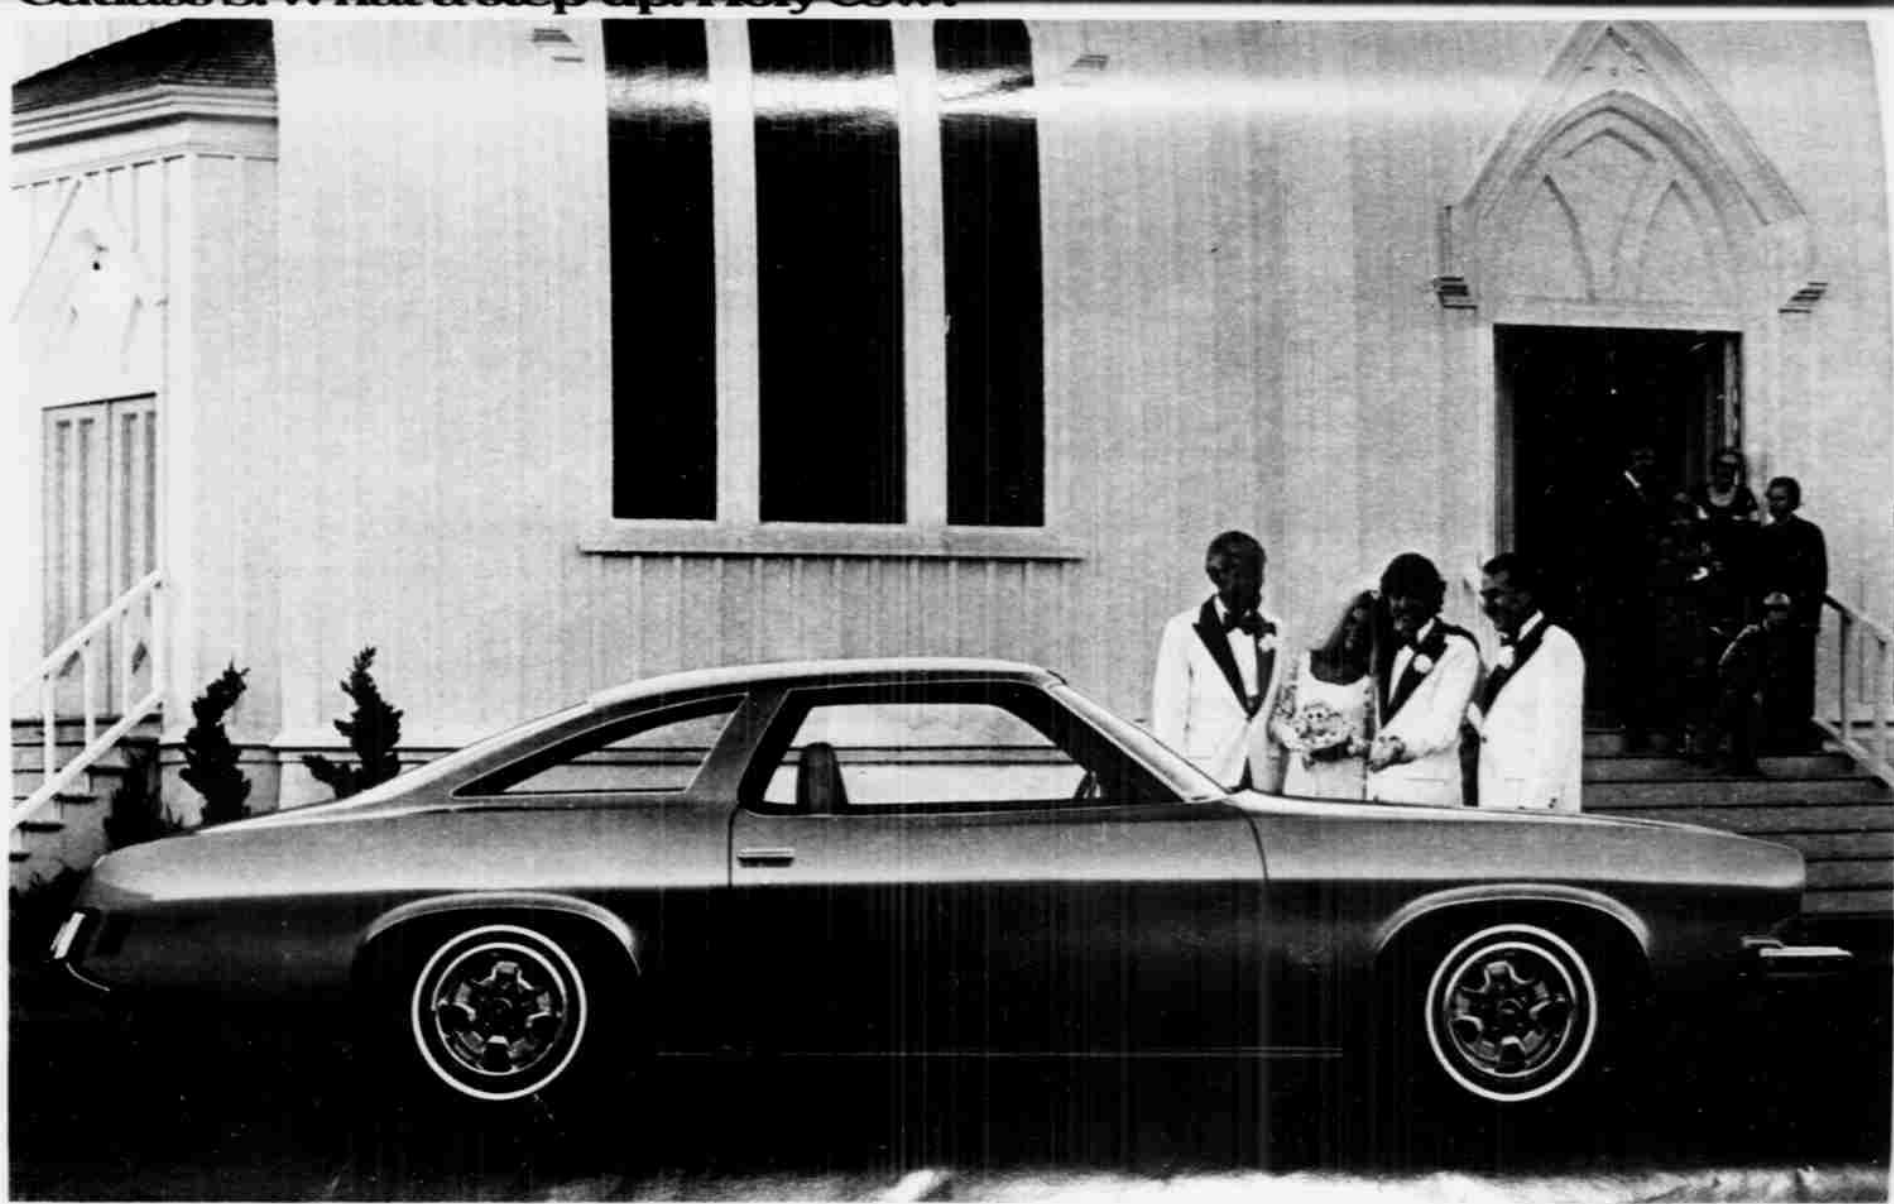

And when you come to drive it for the first time, you'll understand why it can spoil you for any other luxury car. People often buy their first Toronado for its distinctive looks. But they buy their second one because they've learned to love driving again.

“When Olds decided it was time for an all-new Cutlass S, they really went all out. Just looking at it, it’s hard to believe you get all that value at such a low price.”

It can happen, easier than most folks think. If you can afford any mid-size car, you can afford this one.

You can even order bucket seats that swivel.

For '73, Cutlass S is new all around. It's bigger. Heavier. And it has a new suspension system patterned after our bigger Oldsmobiles. So it rides smooth and easy—and quiet, too.

Yet it's still agile and nimble to maneuver, on its trim 112-inch wheelbase. Not just sportier. Stronger.

In this newly styled Body by Fisher, every change has a reason. The fast-back roof is two layers of steel. There's new room inside, in practically every dimension. (Especially in back.) The seats are solid foam, up to six inches thick. The trim is a dressy new “wet-look” vinyl. Even the instrument panel is new—and the individual panel units can be quickly removed for service when necessary.

Rocket 350 V8, standard.

It's still Oldsmobile's famous Rocket Engine—but we improved it with a new flex-head valve design. We also have a new hydraulic front bumper system that absorbs minor bumps—plus a new kind of Swing-away grille. It's hinged so that it actually moves out of the way of trouble when the bumper gets bumped.

New strength, new visibility in the Colonnade Hardtop styling of the roofline.

What about a sedan?

It's right there—in our Cutlass Series without the S. It's all new, too. And bigger. And... well, come on down to the showroom and see for yourself.

Our new Cutlass Colonnade Hardtop Sedan.

Ninety-Eight. Drive it and draw your own conclusions.

“You can pay a lot more for other luxury cars, and not get any more room, ride and downright luxury than in an Olds Ninety-Eight. Just look at our new Regency, for example...”

Luxury with a Tiffany touch.

Last year, Olds introduced the Regency as a special limited-edition model, to celebrate its 75th Anniversary. Now it's a regular part of the Ninety-Eight line—with its own special elegance, luxury and comfort.

For 1973, rear bumper guards are standard.

Like all Ninety-Eights, it has a 127-inch wheelbase, and a refined suspension system. The result is a ride that's outstanding, plus an ease in handling you just don't expect in a car of this size.

Power equipment is standard.

Regency's power steering is the variable-ratio kind. There's power brakes, with discs up front. Power windows. Power seat controls for the left side of the divided front seat. A big Rocket 455 V8. And Turbo Hydra-matic.

Inside, it's extraordinary. Regency's seat backs and cushions have a pillowed effect, like you see in fine furniture. And separate controls for each side of the divided front seat. Zippered pouches are sewn into the backs of the front seats. The clockface was styled by Tiffany's. Even the trunk is lined.

Other Ninety-Eights, too.

You can again choose the Luxury Sedan or Coupe, or the regular Ninety-Eight hardtop sedan, or hardtop coupe. All have the new hydraulic front bumper system, and a new, stronger rear bumper. And all, in their quiet way, offer what we think is as much luxury and value as can be found.

As they say in the ads, "Drive it and draw your own conclusions."

"This has got to be one of the best looking cars of 1973. I think you'll find it's more of a little limousine than ever—in everything but price."

Opera windows? Opera windows!

That's what they're called on $10,000 cars; that's what we call them on our little limousine. It's one of the nice styling surprises you get with our Cutlass Supreme Colonnade Hardtop Coupe.

The roofline is more formal, the body lines more distinctive. There's a special Supreme Swing-away grille, and new bumpers front and rear. All in all, it's the greatest-looking Supreme yet—and it's going to be even more popular.

The news doesn't stop outside.

Inside, the Supreme coupe is more

Inside, it's a little limousine, too.

elegant than ever. Exceptional upholstery and deep-foam seats set the tone —the look of French walnut makes it richer. Like the Cutlass S, there's new room all around, new comfort and silence—plus a unique feeling of privacy in the back seat.

It rides like an Olds, handles like a smaller car.

That's what happens when you create a new suspension system for smoothness, with a 112-inch wheelbase for easy handling. Front disc brakes are standard. So is our Olds Rocket 350 V8.

Cutlass Supreme is also available in a Colonnade Hardtop Sedan model . . . both great!

New Cutlass Salon—Oldsmobile's own 4-place, 4-door road car in the grand touring tradition. Both contoured front seats recline.

"If you like a big, heavy, smooth-riding car that's really built to take it—take a good look at this Delta 88. And it's got Royale luxury touches you'll really like."

It's tough all over.

Starting with a new and improved hydraulic front bumper system. And behind it, our all-new Swing-away grille, that's hinged to move away from trouble.

The basic Delta 88 is over 4100 pounds big, and moves on a 124-inch wheelbase. Which becomes even more impressive when you discover that you can pay the same money for a lot of other cars, and still get less weight, less wheelbase, and less car all around you. Believe me, Delta 88 is a real value.

Part of that value is in its standard equipment. Big Rocket 350 V8. Turbo Hydra-matic transmission. Vari-ratio power steering. Power Brakes with discs up front. Power ventilation. Famous G-Ride System. Everything you need is there to make this big, heavy, family car ride and handle like a dream. On expressways—and rural roads, too.

Another part of its value is the way Olds builds durability into any Delta 88. With things like flex-head valve design in the engine, and positive rotators at each valve. Super-shocks. A new wear-indicator for the ball joints in the front suspension. Even slots in the bumpers, to help you place the bumper jack in exactly the right position.

Seven models, including convertible.

Both Delta 88 and Delta 88 Royale Series offer a hardtop coupe, hardtop sedan and town sedan. Royale also offers a big, beautiful convertible. And every Delta 88 provides the interior comfort and roominess you expect in an Oldsmobile.

Our salesmen love to give demonstration drives.

With a car that rides and handles like Oldsmobile's Delta 88 Royale, we know it practically sells itself. Why not test your sales resistance right now?

New Delta 88 Royale interior. The seat is solid foam.
