NEW PHONE

Due to an increase in the number of incoming and outgoing calls, two lines were necessary, and the number had to be changed from 385-3131 to 385-4459. Because the change was made after the 1970 telephone directory was printed, the new number is not listed.

Greetings from Japan will be brought to Littlefield via a telephone call on the First Baptist Church radio program Sunday morning.

The Rev. R. B. Hall, pastor, will speak for three minutes via long distance telephone from the Baptist World Alliance, which will be meeting in Tokyo.

Prior to departing with five other Littlefield citizens on a 25-day tour of the Orient, Rev. Hall said early this week he would place the call at 2 a.m. Monday, the hour in Japan when it will be 11 a.m. Sunday in Littlefield.

"I will bring greetings from the Baptist World Alliance and the 20,000 delegates from 79 nations."

Tokyo is one of the first stops on the 25-day tour which is being attended by Rev. Hall, who is the tour escort, Mrs. Hall, Ann Pullig, Ellen Masingill, Alene Edwards and Mrs. D. C. Lindley.

The group left Lubbock Wednesday morning.

BILL TURNER, Optimist pitcher, shows his mascot and good luck charm to Mike Martin who is inclined to keep his distance despite the ball player's faith in his snake. Turner named the snake Ronald Farmer for the Lions' pitcher and claims the reptile has something to do with the Optimist and Rotary being tied. The two teams meet again in the Little League City Tournament tonight.

SGT. ROBERT TROTTER

Vietnam Vet 'Lucky And Glad' To Be Getting Army Discharge

Sgt. Robert Trotter will be a civilian again this week, and he is "lucky and glad." Twenty-year-old Trotter is getting his Army discharge after three years of service which included a year in Vietnam and Cambodia where he was shot down three times while serving with a helicopter crew. Trotter was 17 when he volunteered. After being stationed in Germany, he volunteered for duty in Vietnam to reduce his service time by six months.

Trotter was a Specialist 4 and serving as a helicopter door gunner when his chopper was first shot down over Vietnam. He was awarded the Air Medal for meritorious service in support of ground operations.

After promotion to the rank of sergeant, Trotter was crew chief of the "Hunter-Killer" helicopter team on lift bird, Huey, and directed rescue teams.

He was stationed near the Cambodian border and was on constant call to protect U. S. troops in battle and destroy

ROBERT TROTTER

Red sanctuaries inside Cambodia. Although he was in the Army,

Trotter volunteered for the helicopter flights. His lift chopper was shot down twice in Cambodia and the crew was pulled out by another rescue team. The tall, sandy-haired, sad-eyed youth slouched on the couch at his parents' home at 608 W. 6th and answered all questions with "Yes ma'am and no ma'am" and volunteered nothing.

"He hasn't told us anything," his mother said. "We didn't even know about his awards until we read about it in the paper. He doesn't like to talk about it."

"All I know is that he didn't sleep well when he first came back, and he can't stand to hear a baby cry. He just comes unglued--falls apart at the seams--said he's seen too many children hurt."

Trotter left Littlefield for Oakland, Calif. Wednesday morning after being home on leave for 30 days. In California he will be processed out and probably return to Littlefield following his discharge.

SIDEWALK SUPERINTENDENTS are more plentiful than construction workers on South Phelps where the street is being widened and raised. Watching two employees who were tearing out the curbs Tuesday are Robert and Michael Lewis Austin, left, and Vivian Diane Cooper and Bill Cooper.

Polio Attacking Very Young Again

The crippling, contagious disease of polio has struck the State of Texas once again. Following an epidemic of the disease in South Texas, state, local and federal health officials have mounted a statewide immunization campaign to protect all young children against this disease.

The virus is attacking primarily children under one year of age, with the oldest reported case only three years old. These reported cases are coming out of families who have failed to take their children to a doctor or their local health department for immunization against the crippling disease. None of the children under observation by health officials had received any polio vaccine. All cases have some degree of paralysis.

Polio immunization is carried out in five steps. The first dose of the Trivalent vaccine is recommended for the child of two months of age, when the protective antibodies the child received from his parents are beginning to diminish. A second dose is required at the age of four months. A third dose follows at six months of age, a fourth dose at eighteen months of age, and the fifth and final dose is recommended just prior to the child's admission to school. All five doses are necessary for full immunization.

Congressman Sponsors Farm Loan, Meat Bills

The House Agriculture Committee approved two bills of interest to Panhandle residents Thursday.

One, sponsored by Congressman Bob Price, will allow Farmers Home Administration to make maximum farm and ranch purchase loans of $100,000. The present limit is $60,000.

In testimony on his bill, Price pointed out that few economical farm or ranch units can be purchased for less than $60,000.

"The Agriculture Department has stated that the average investment for 200 to 400 acres of land alone might run from $40,000 to $160,000.

This means that the present relatively high acquisition and development costs of land render the $60,000 FHA loan limit obsolete. This increase is really quite modest when viewed in the light of farm sector credit needs," Price said.

A portion of the bill to raise the operating loan limit from $35,000 to $50,000 was deleted by the committee on a 15 to 9 vote.

The second bill will permit custom meat processors to sell inspected meat products without losing their custom processing exemption.

"At present the law prohibits a custom processor from selling so much as a can of soup made from meat even though the meat and product has been fully inspected.

"In many areas, particularly sparsely populated rural areas, the same establishments slaughter animals for their owners and sell groceries and meats. The Federal Meat Inspection Act requires these establishments to give up their retail business or the custom processing," Price added.

He pointed out that the bill approved Thursday, which has already been adopted by the Senate, would permit the sale of inspected meat by the custom processor, although he could not sell meat from animals he has slaughtered for individuals.

"I hope the House will act quickly on this bill before many small custom processors in our area are forced out of business," Price said.

Producing Well 8 Miles SE Spade

Suniland Oil Corporation completed the number one A. L. Reese drilling project as a producer in the Anton-Irish (Clear Fork) field of Lamb County, eight miles southeast of Spade.

Perforations from 5,948 to 6,172 feet pumped 41.32 barrels of oil plus 42.52 barrels of water in 24 hours. The gas-oil ratio was too small to measure. The section was stimulated with 22,500 gallons of acid.

The location is 330 feet from the north and east lines of the south half of the northeast quarter of Section 118, Black A. R. of the M. Thompson Survey.

McKinney-White Win Partnership; Duffy-Monroe Take First Flight

Lubbock golfers Robert McKinney and Ronnie White put on the pressure early and never let up in capturing the Littlefield Partnership here Sunday. The pair toured the Country Club course in a blazing 63 which, coupled with their 64 on Saturday, gave them a 36-hole total of 127, 15 strokes under par for the route. Their total nipped a pair of Reese Air Force Base golfers, Jamie Gough and Jim Newendorp, by three shots. In other flights, local golfers

Smiley Monroe and Neil Duffy had a fabulous second round of 66 to capture the first flight; Morton swingers Ted Whillock and Richard Houston won the second flight; and Olton's Jerry Blakely and Jim Weaver took the third flight.

McKinney, the Men's West Texas champion recently at Odessa, and White birdied the first two holes Sunday to take a one-stroke advantage over the first-day leaders, Gough and Newendorp. The twosomes stayed even through the first nine, but McKinney and White tapped in five birdies on the second nine while Gough and Newendorp tallied only a pair.

Ethel Gordon Retires After 33 Years Of Teaching

OLTON—Mrs. Ethel Gordon has retired after serving for 33 years as a teacher in Olton Public Schools. She was the only third grade teacher in the old red brick school building when she came here in 1936. She has taught second and fourth grades at Olton and for a time taught Spanish in the third, fourth and fifth grades. However, the most of the time she has taught third grade. She says third grade students now know much more about things on a broader level than they did when she started teaching. She believes this is partly because of television. Mrs. Gordon believes children now are taught to understand the meaning of what they read rather than merely calling words. Now reading classes are connected with interesting facts concerning history, geography or science. "There are no problem children, only children with problems," she said. I think of a teacher as more than an instructor or an indoctrinator of formal knowledge. She and the school must help in the child's social adjustment and train him to the ways of democratic living. "We must win the child's confidence while building his self-respect." Mrs. Gordon said.

"We need to praise him for work well done and encourage his efforts. "Looking the child in the eye giving them a firm squeeze on the arm and seriously asking: We won't do that any more, will we? works much better than a paddle." Mrs. Gordon was the former Miss Ethel Hulsey. She grew up at DeLeon, her birthplace. She was a student at a four teacher school in Comanche County and attended high school at Dickens. She entered Texas Technological College on "individual approval" as she graduated from a non-accredited high school.

Mrs. Gordon taught at Croton and Duncan Flat before she received her degree, and at Patton Springs School at Afton. In 1934 she graduated from Tech with a bachelor of arts degree in elementary education. In 1940 she married Fred Gordon who also was teaching in Olton. As the marriage was in December by special permission she was allowed to continue to teach the remainder of that year. At that time married women could not be employed to teach in Olton. When their son Freddie was seven weeks old, Gordon began his 44-months service in the Army. As there was a shortage of teachers Mrs. Gordon was one of the married women who was requested to teach at Olton. In 1950 she earned her master's Degree from West Texas State University. Mrs. Gordon has been named Teacher of the Year at Olton. She has served as secretary of the Olton Chapter of Classroom Teachers, and is a charter member and past secretary and reporter of Lamb County Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, National sorority of women educators. Mrs. Gordon has received many short notes from her students through the years. One reads: "Dear Mrs. Gordon, Each year I think 'This is the best teacher I've ever had' and the next year I change my mind. But not anymore. You'll always be the best teacher I ever had."

She has taught her students the importance of talking about their problems, especially to God.

Pasture Grasses Need Leaves To Grow

Good pasture management is a must for Walter Gray, who lives three miles east of Littlefield, and Thomas Alair, who lives five miles north of Springlake.

Both Gray and Alair have used irrigated native grasses for pasture, and received very good results from them.

Gray said he learned the hard way about his grasses because he had different varieties growing different heights, making a difference in how and when they were grazed and managed.

Knowing how plants manufacture food gives a better understanding of pasture management. A plant can not manufacture its food without leaves, and a cow eats the leaves for food. Therefore, if a grass is overgrazed it is minus its leaves. With a shortage of leaves the plant is starved and draws on the food stored in the root system. As the root system is depleted the plant is weakened and produces less foliage.

If this practice is continued, the grass will die. To avoid this problem, know grasses how much foliage must be left to maintain healthy vigorous plants.

On short grasses such as oats grama or Bermuda grass grazing can start at a height of about six to eight inches and grazing should be managed so that a minimum of four or five inches is left to sustain plant growth.

On tall grasses, such as Indian or Blue stem grass, grazing should not begin until the height of 18 inches to maintain a minimum height of 10 inches.

A grass that is properly managed will furnish more foliage tonnage and a longer grazing period. When grazing is started too early the plant is weakened and will play out much sooner even on irrigated pastures.

Anyone wanting information on grass and its management may contact any of the personnel at the Soil Conservation Service in the court house at Littlefield.
