BULL LAKE is now a busy place for persons wishing to get away from the regular routine. A new gateway and road leading to the lake are open, and the city has future plans for improving the grounds. About 50 Littlefield young people cleaned up the lake area Tuesday, during the National Clean-Up Day.

Compliance Begins

Summer measurement service began this week as 18 crop reporters went to the field to measure approximately 800 farms that had requested the crops to be measured after planting. The ASCS office expects to complete the measuring service around the early part of July.

Measurement service is requested and paid for by the producer and is guaranteed for certification purposes. Failure to correctly certify the acreages could result in the loss of part or all of the program payments.

Farmers are required to certify their crop and set-aside acreages no later than August 1st, but Richard O. Newman, county executive director for the Lamb County ASC Committee, stressed that the earlier a producer certifies, the earlier he receives his program payments.

After a producer certifies, his crop acreages are typed in coded form on a scanner document and mailed to the New Orleans Data Processing Center where a computer figures the payment and writes the draft. The draft is then mailed back to the county office for signatures by local employees and mailed to the producer.

The time lapse between when a farmer certifies and actually receives his payment is from 14 to 21 days. July 1 is the first possible date that the payments can be made.

For 1972, Lamb County has 2,094 participating cotton farms, 2,017 feed grain farms and 161 farms participating in the wheat program. The allotments and bases on these farms are 134,823 acres cotton, 270,851 acres grain sorghum, 6,567 acres corn, 1,405 acres barley, and 2,060 acres of wheat.

Board Meets Monday Night

The following agenda will be considered at the regular meeting of the Littlefield school board in the school tax office at 7:30 p.m. Monday:

1. Minutes of previous meeting
2. Student-athlete insurance
3. Personnel resignations
4. Personnel employment
5. Cost estimates of maintenance needs
6. Financial statement.

Those who know about taxes are Jim Ford and Sid Hopping, and persons who researched information on transportation are Arlen Simpson and J. D. Haynes.

Labor and the problems, supply and demand, will be relayed to prospects by Roy Wilson and Richard Newman.

Resources and services available are being handled by Doug Walden and Clinton Byers.

New Organization To Promote Tourism

The Littlefield Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture has been named the corresponding secretary of the newly-formed Panhandle Playgrounds Association.

The organization is formed to promote tourism in the Panhandle-South Plains area, and immediate plans call for choosing a theme and designing billboards, brochures and newspaper and radio advertising for the 23-county area.

Littlefield directors to the association are J. L. Marcum and Charles Ary, who will represent the city at the next meeting in Borger.

Bill Payne, C-C manager, will serve on the program of work committee and his office will handle mailings to memberships of the association.

POLICEMAN, DEPUTY, UNDERCOVER AGENT

Yantis Misses Law Work

By NILAH RODGERS
L. N. Yantis spent 27 years as a deputy sheriff and Texas undercover agent before Mrs. Yantis hid his gun so he'd have to retire.

Yantis lives at 1117 W. 4th now, but before that he lived anywhere the call of duty took him as a peace officer.

Yantis first lived in Littlefield in 1943 and 1944 when Austin sent him here to rout out bootleg liquor. When Yantis retired in 1962 they moved to Anton for a few years. They bought a home in Littlefield six years ago.

Yantis farmed for several years, then taught school eight years before he took a job as a peace officer in New Mexico. During his 27 years as an officer he was a policeman, deputy sheriff and Texas undercover agent in the wild west.

As an undercover man, Yantis said he worked with thugs to clear bank robberies, cow stealing, liquor hauling and dope peddling. "When I'd been in a place long enough for the thugs to get to know me, Austin would move me to another place," Yantis said.

In his undercover work, Yantis said he

First Pageant Entry In, Sorority Seeks Beauties

An Amherst High School senior and awards recipient of "most dependable", "most courteous", and Spirit of '72, Miss Ralynn Mills is the first entry in the Beta Sigma Phi-sponsored fourth annual "Miss Lamb County" beauty pageant.

Ralynn is the 17-year-old, brown-haired, green-eyed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin R. Mills of Amherst.

Being a cheerleader at AHS for three years, Miss Mills will be head cheerleader for the 1972-73 school year. She was junior class treasurer, president of the National Honor Society, president of FHA, and received the Home Economics award.

She states her hobbies are cooking, sewing, furniture refinishing and collecting pennies.

The up-dated pageant, set for Friday, July 14, will take place in the Littlefield Senior High School auditorium. The beauty pageant rehearsal is slated Thursday, July 13.

This year's "Miss Lamb County" will be entered in the "Wheatheart of the Nation" beauty contest, held at Perryton August 19.

Jane Maddox is chairman of entries for the Miss Lamb County Pageant. Entry blanks have been distributed throughout Lamb County to business organizations for sponsoring a contestant in the event.

Entry blanks may also be obtained from any Beta Sigma Phi Sorority member or at the Lamb County Leader-News office.

Each girl entering must be 17 years of age by July 1, 1972 or 22 years of age by July 1, 1972. She must be sponsored by a civic club, organization or a business firm in Lamb County. A $10 entry fee, paid by the sponsor of each girl, must accompany the official entry blank with a recent picture of the entrant. Entry blanks and sponsor fee must be mailed to the beauty pageant's co-sponsor the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 507, Littlefield, Tex. 79339.

Two trophies will be awarded—a first place to "Miss Lamb County", and one to the alternate. The second, third, and fourth runners-up will be presented charms.

Last year, blonde-haired, blue-eyed Deana Sterling took the title of "Miss Lamb County" from a field of 18 entrants.

Jane Maddox stated "we would appreciate it if the entire county could be well represented by several beautiful girls from their town or area. We are looking forward to your participation."

Youths In NYC Program

Ten Littlefield students are working under the Neighborhood Youth Corp (NYC) program, and the Littlefield schools are hoping to get approval for more students.

The NYC program is handled through the school, then after the school fills their quota, students are placed on jobs at the Community Action, the Soil Conservation Service, and with the city of Littlefield crew.

Applications are filled according to the number in the family and the maximum income. This year there are more applicants than jobs. If 11 more applications are approved there will be 21 young people working this year—the same number as last year.

Students must be from 14 to 22 years of age and still in school. Almost all of the new applicants this year are 14 and 15-year-olds. At this age the young people are eager for their first job.

Some of the boys are in their third and fourth years in the summer program. Participants are allowed to work a maximum of 234 hours with a work week of from 22 to 35 hours. The Federal program pays the students on the minimum wage scale of $1.60 per hour.

The Littlefield school system has five boys and one girl employed. The girl is doing clerical work, one of the boys is working at the bus barn and four are working with school janitors, waxing, cleaning walls, painting, etc.

Two students are doing clerical work at Lamb County Community Action, and one is a clerk at the SCS office.

Last year the city had 10 youths working with the city crew. If additional applications are approved, several more boys will go to work with the city crew.

Money Theft Reported

Saturday, city police officers received a report from a citizen at Renfro Grocery that two boys took money from a purse that was left in a grocery basket.

Another person who observed the incident described the suspects for officers.

Officers received another report of vandalism which occurred sometime Wednesday night or early Thursday morning. A post at the tennis court was knocked down by an unknown vehicle.

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

WELL, YEAH, I WENT fishin', but me and those fish just couldn't get together on which side of the lake we wanted to do business!

Reminds me of some of my other insprations. When I had cotton, it was way down in price. Then if I decided to grow maize, it was worthless. Seems I always had "The luck of the Irish" — in reverse.

PEOPLE AT THE lake assured me that the fish had been very active a couple of days before I arrived, and if they ran true to form, would be getting hungry a day or two after I left. "Sa good thing we took a little bacon along!"

THEY TELL ME that water's indestructible, which may be a good thing! At the rate it takes a beatin' in the lake that I visited, it's gotta be tough! Tell you what, I've never seen so many speed boats and fishermen in all my years! Venture out on the water, and you'd better keep your eyes OPEN! If a super-sonic boat didn't run you down, there was always the risk of gettin' caught in the ear by an errant fishin' lure!

GUESS AT OUR present hi-speed rate of livin', people have to have their fun in a hurry, too.

Anyway, I finally figured out that the reason the fish weren't bitin', was that the lake had been churned around 'til they were all SEASICK!

TOO MUCH OF THE time we're prone to count our riches by the size of estates, and our bank account. TRUE RICHES must be peace of mind, and the love of our friends.

PARAPHRASED: Prejudice is a great time saver, it makes it unnecessary to listen to the other fellow's point of view.

THERE MAY BE just a very thin line between being strong-willed, and bull-headed!

SEEMS ABOUT THE only notable incumbent left in state office must be Robt. S. Calvert. (Oh, yes, and J. James). Makes one wonder if the message of the electorate is about to soak through. — Do you suppose the office holders, that are left, might begin to harken to the whispering public?

OF COURSE, I'm sure that the most of the people really don't know just what it is that we want, (myself included), but that change is desired, is pretty evident. Guess we may be of the opinion that any change would be for the better. Maybe so, or, maybe not. We couldn't be for sure.

Anyway, change is exciting, and right at the moment we're excited! We wait, with anticipation, to see what great changes the newly-elected may bring to bear.

IN ALL PROBABILITY, after a while, we will be brought back to the realization that no one or two officeholders can turn this ol' world upside-down by themselves! — They, too, will learn the lesson that if they don't play ball with the "INS", they just won't GET THE BALL! No minority group can buck the big political machines, and get away with it.

The fact remains, that if we want any change to amount to anything, we'll have to go after the bigger fish. But, guess we'd better remember that any MAJOR change might be for the worse, so maybe we'd better take it easy and hope that the big-wigs, also are hearing the voice of the people.

"M-M-GOOD —!"

What's Right With Our Country?

THE U.S.A. has a lot going for it, strengths on which to build. But too little of that message is getting through to our youth.

If we keep criticizing our country we can hardly blame our young people for looking elsewhere for inspiration.

WHAT IS RIGHT with our country? Let's take a few examples:

- 1) We had the foresight to found a republic and a social system where basic freedoms could survive through nearly two centuries of civil war, world war, depression, drought, and other disasters — until it stands today as the oldest democratic government in the world.
- 2) We had the ability to produce and innovate; to create job opportunities; reward excellence; raise living, health, and educational standards; support the arts and sciences; and provide unprecedented opportunities for personal achievement.
- 3) We supplied food, aid, and technical assistance to the needy — domestically and worldwide — in the worlds largest effort to help the less fortunate help themselves.

4) We stood by our defense commitments through two decades of the cold war, at a staggering cost to human and material resources.

5) We had the strength and humility to look at still-unresolved domestic problems where solutions are long overdue: ghettos, crime, race riots, and to take action toward their solution.

WHAT IS RIGHT with the great majority of young Americans (in contrast to the small minority of New Left radicals) is that they are searching for solutions to our still-unresolved problems.

They care more deeply about poverty and other issues than we, their parents, ever did in our day. And they want a piece of the action.

Lamb County voters approved Barefoot Sanders, Dolph Briscoe, Wayne Connally and Robert S. Calvert in the Democratic runoff last Saturday when more than 2,500 turned out to have their say on who will get their names on the November general ballot.

Only 23 persons voted in the Republican runoff, and of that number Hank Grover and Al Pay each received 11 votes.

Here are the tabulations from the 15 county precinct boxes plus absentee votes cast.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Quiet Times

THE NEED FOR QUIETNESS is obvious, and, in our better moments, we seek quietness. We want "quiet times". Of course, we are practically surrounded with noise of one kind or another.

Some of this noise is under our control, and we can stop it; if we wish. The other noise may not be enough to cause any real problems. If it is, we can probably get away from most of it.

NOISE POLLUTION is one of the relatively new problems of our times. In some areas and situations, noise is a real threat to our well-being.

It is to be hoped that solutions can be found, because this almost constant bombardment is very harmful to us. The harm is done in different ways, but the overall, personal loss is in the distraction caused by the noise.

THE REDUCED EFFECTIVENESS in personal performance is one of the great losses caused by noise.

Our mental and emotional strength is dissipated as the noise decibels attack the brain and the nervous system. We can never do our best in a noisy environment.

WE MUST HAVE "quiet times" for maximum life efficiency. This is when we are able to apply our full capabilities to our work, and to the successful solutions of our problems. We can and must make these "quiet times" for ourselves.

The noise around us, however, is not our biggest hindrance in our efforts to find the quietness we need. Inner turmoil can be a big problem.

THE INNER NOISE probably more people than the noise physical environment. Just as turmoil around us, there are often is, turmoil within us. We learn how to cope with all of order to make the much-needed of quietness which are so essential personal success.

This can be done. If we do how, we can learn how. The of values by which we form our life structure will be our best dependable help.

"MY NOTIONS OF LIFE are the same as they are about travel is a good deal of amusement but, after all, one wants to be in Southey.

MOST OF US CAN plus our schedule. Of course, there are things that must be done, but time we can use as we wish.

This gives us the opportunity "quiet times". We can stop or from the noise around us, and calm the tumult that is within.

IT WILL BE EVEN BETTER we can handle ourselves so the inner tumult.

This can be done. When we do we know to do, and are ourselves; we will be calm ourselves.

TO KEEP ONE'S LIFE in "quiet times" are a must.

Oil And Gas Add $936,803 To Economy

Sale of Lamb County oil and gas production accounted for $936,803 of the county's economic output for 1971, according to a study by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn.

In producing 242,403 barrels of crude oil and 550 million cu. ft. of natural gas, the county ranked 170th in Texas. Value of its crude oil was $853,259; natural gas value was $83,544.

The county is among 190 Texas counties with oil and gas production value topping $100,000, although 211 counties produce oil and gas.

"Lamb County oil and gas wells made a significant contribution to Texas' share of the nation's energy needs last year, but growing demand is sapping reserves in Texas faster than they can be replaced," Robert A. Buschman, Association president, said.

"As fewer new fields are discovered due to less drilling, the continuing economy and tax base of many counties may now depend on oil and gas production. We encourage wider use of new technology," he said.

The Association study shows Lamb County farmers, ranchers and other royalty owners received $936,803 as their share of the production.

The county's wells generated $936,803 in crude oil production taxes last year, according to a study by the government and $6,266 in state natural gas. Oil and gas production $294,676 in drilling four wells county last year, all being leased holes.

Dear Nilah

Do you know anyone in Littlefield who would donate a building for a Lamb County Museum? We are interested in donating our old Grist Mill to any club who would support and help finance the beginning of a Lamb County Museum.

I would like very much to hear from any person who would donate or even loan items to help build a museum. I have several items of the old Stehlik family that are collectors items and need to be shared with the younger generation, and the proper place for these items is in a museum. I think.

If any Lamb County resident would support a museum with their items I'd surely appreciate hearing from them. And if someone has a building on main street or anywhere in town to donate, we would appreciate any help and would like to be in contact with them also. Maybe if we all work together, we can have a project in full swing and the City of Littlefield or Lamb County can have their museum set up and in full operation for Festivities Days.

Thank you,
Janna Stehlik

Widow Files Suits

Pauline McCall, the widow of Rufus P. McCall, is the plaintiff in seven cases filed against seven insurance companies in district court this week.

Mrs. McCall is seeking a total of $79,000 from the seven companies named as defendants.

The suits are a result of the death of R.P. McCall in February. McCall was pulled from the city lake east of Littlefield after his pickup was discovered in the lake. An autopsy report ruled he died of a heart attack, and an inquest ruled accidental death.

Named in the suits are Great American Insurance Co., $25,000; Continental Casualty Co., $10,000; American Amicable Life Insurance Co., $25,000; Insurance Company of North America under Travelers Motor Club Group Insurance, $7,500; Combined American Insurance Co., $1,500; Pennsylvania Life Insurance Co., $5,000; and Community Life & Health Insurance Co., $5,000.

County Oil Wells Produced 242,403 Barrels Last Year

Lamb County oil wells have produced 11,844,232 barrels since recorded production began in 1945, according to a recent survey made by Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association.

In 1971, Lamb County produced 664 barrels a day for a total of 242,403 barrels.

Texas crude oil production in 1971 topped 1 billion barrels for the seventh consecutive year as reserves fell toward the 13 billion barrel mark, according to a study by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn.

Texas oil wells produced 1,210,818,658 barrels last year, bringing the state's 82-year production total to 35.3 billion barrels. Reserves dropped 172,000 barrels.

"With producers unable to increase drilling activities, additional oil supplies in Texas hinge on recovering more oil from existing fields," Robert A. Buschman, Association president, commented. Secondary recovery units in Scurry County contributed a major portion of the county's 5.5 million barrel increase in 1971, which jumped the county to No. 1 in Texas.

WELDON PARSON canned 59 quarts of plums and berries. Parson and his son, Gary, went to East Texas for a week's work on their ranch. Finding the plums and berries ripe earlier than usual because of dry weather, they brought back enough canned fruit for a year's supply of preserves and fresh fruit cobblers for the five Parsons.

Patrolman Preserves, Cooks Meats, Candy

By NILAH RODGERS

Weldon Parson is "plum" domesticated. Last week he canned 23 quarts of plums and 36 quarts of berries while in East Texas. This week he turned the canned fruit into rows of colorful preserves.

Parson took a week off from his work as a highway patrolman to go to Paris, Tex., for a working vacation on his farm. While there the wild plums were ripe and fat, juicy dewberries and blackberries begged to be suspended in sweet jam. So Parson not only built a stock pond, but brought back enough canned fruit to keep the Parsons in jams and jellies until next summer.

Preserving fruit is nothing new to Parson. Cooking is something he really likes to do. "I'm always making any kind of jam and jelly I can get my hands on," he said.

Making desserts and cooking meats are Parson's specialties, too. He likes barbecuing meats outdoors best, but turn him loose in the kitchen and he comes up with pots of stew, chili, tacos and meatballs.

Parson has been cooking most of his life. His mother died when he was 11. He was a seasoned gingerbread cook at 13 and 14, and he has spent quite a bit of time in the kitchen since that time.

According to Parson, his wife, Robbie, doesn't mind his messing around the kitchen "a tail" since he cleans up his own messes and washes the dishes.

Fourteen-year old Gary takes after his dad when it comes to cooking. He says he likes to look for "funny" recipes, or recipes his family has never tried. Gary makes goulash regularly. A can of frozen pink lemonade mixed with a can of sweetened condensed milk poured into a graham cracker crust and topped with whipped cream is a quick ice box pie Gary likes to make and eat.

Weldon Parson says this recipe for peanut brittle comes out just right every time, and this coconut pie recipe is a favorite dessert.

Peanut Brittle

- 2 cups white sugar
- 1 cup corn syrup
- 1/2 cup water
- 2 cups raw peanuts
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 1/2 tsp. margarine
- 1 1/2 tsp. soda

Cook sugar, corn syrup and water until mixture will spin into a thread. Add raw peanuts and cook until mixture becomes the color of butter, then add vanilla. Quickly add margarine and soda; stir, and pour on three well-buttered cookie sheets. Pull candy edges as it cools, then break into desired size pieces. Pulling will create crisp, thin candy.

Coconut Pie

- 1 c. sugar
- 1/4 t. salt
- 3 egg yolks, beaten
- 2 t. vanilla
- 5 T. flour
- 2 c. milk
- 1 1/2 c. coconut

Combine sugar, flour, and salt in top of double boiler; add milk and egg yolks; mixing thoroughly. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook 10 minutes; stirring constantly. Remove from boiling water. Add coconut and vanilla. Cool slightly then turn into baked pie shell. Add meringue. bake in (350) degree oven until brown.

Meet The Minister

CRESCENT PARK Church of Christ Minister Bob Wear and his wife, Vinita.

The Bob Wear Family

One of Littlefield's busiest men is Bob Wear of the Crescent Park Church of Christ.

Besides his duties in serving the people of his church, he and his wife, Vinita, share their various talents in numerous other ways in the community.

Wear writes a regular column for the Leader-News' editorial page and is a former columnist for a newspaper in Amarillo.

Wear is often called upon to serve as an after-dinner speaker, or as master of ceremonies for various organizations at their banquets. He recalls that he has had 40 years of "speaking experience" and was trained to do that particular job.

Wear and his wife visit the sick in Littlefield's two hospitals daily, and periodically make visits to the elderly folks at Littlefield Hospitality House and Knight's Rest Home.

Mrs. Wear's main hobby is "people", but loves cooking, sewing, ceramics and China painting, and plans to learn oil painting in the immediate future.

Under the instruction of Dr. Emilio Caballero at West Texas State University, Vinita has taken courses that touched on most of the mediums used in painting.

The Wears came to Littlefield eight years ago from Canyon, where they had resided 10 years. Prior to that, they had lived at Hereford nine years.

Wear spends most of his leisure time grooming and beautifying the grounds of their residence on East 23rd. He claims this is his main hobby. He likes to get in an occasional game of golf whenever time permits.

Both Bob and Vinita are natives of Seminole, Okla. Wear received his formal schooling at East Central State Teachers College at Ada, Okla. with a major in mathematics. His master of education degree was earned from West Texas State University with a major in counseling and guidance.

He is a certified counselor with the Texas Education

Association and has teaching certificates in all levels in Texas and Oklahoma.

Mrs. Wear studied through extension courses at the University of Oklahoma and has attended WTSU.

During World War II, Wear marched with the U.S. Infantry.

Before the war and for a short time thereafter, Wear was associated with Gulf Oil Co.

During the depression years, Wear worked with churches in the Seminole, Okla. vicinity. "In those times, church couldn't afford ministers. I had a good job, was a public speaker and could be of help to them."

While in Canyon, Wear temporarily stopped his church ministry. "We planned to retire," he explained. "We bought a home and went into the real estate business. Then we decided to come to Littlefield."

He is currently serving as president of the Friends of the Library organization, and serves as publicity director for the Community Improvement Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

While in Canyon, Wear served as president of the Canyon School Board, helped charter the cities of Canyon and Hereford when they became large enough to change to the home rule form of government. He organized Toastmasters and Toastmistresses Clubs at Hereford and Canyon, and helped organize the Hereford Kiwanis Club.

During that period he wrote a daily column for the Amarillo News about three years, then a Sunday editorial for the Amarillo Globe two years.

He is the author of one published book, "Ideas To Live By", and for many years has written regularly for religious publications.

In the early and mid 1950's, Wear had a television program on Channel 4.

The Wears have one son, John Wear, who works in Nevada.

Teacher Exams Set July 15

Prospective teachers planning to take the National Teacher Examinations at West Texas State University July 15 have until June 22 to submit their registrations.

Information describing registration procedures and application forms may be obtained from the WTSU Testing and Counseling Center.

Registration fee for both parts of the exams—common and teaching area—is $15. Fee for the common examinations only is $10 and for the teaching area only is $9. Registrations received after the June 22 deadline but before June 29 must include a $3 late fee.

LITTLEFIELD HOSPITAL

There's a man who gave and forgot

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: A woman wrote in to say that wives seem to forgive husbands who stray, but a man will never forgive his wife for the same thing. It's not so: My sister's husband came to town on a business trip and stayed with us for a few days. He [I'll call him "G"] said to me, "I'll call her 'E' one morning, 'I'll help you with the breakfast dishes.'" I went to the piano and was drumming out a tune with my fingers when I suddenly remembered I had to tell my sister something. I promptly headed for the kitchen, forgetting I was wearing my bedroom slippers. When I reached the door, I saw "G" with his arms around "E," and altho both her hands were in the sink, she was giving him a passionate kiss! I nudged back and made another entrance, this time shouting loudly to give them ample warning. I never let on to either "G" or "E" that I had seen that.

Perhaps I'm too forgiving, but why should I think it is that another man finds my wife kissable? "G" passed away a year ago, after a beautiful marriage of sixty years. I can truthfully say that I have never loved her more than I do at this moment. The type is growing. Goodbye. NEVER JEALOUS

DEAR NEVER: You're quite a gentleman in my book.

DEAR ABBY: Regarding your answer to "NAMELESS" on introducing his parents' new mates, I disagree! I am a second wife, a stepmother, and I am only five years older than my husband's oldest son. What a traumatic experience to simply as "Mother." And my husband's youngest daughter, 9, in attempting to welcome me into the family, said she could call me "Mother."

I told her that the relationship between a natural mother and her child is too sacred to be compromised simply because her father has a new wife. She calls me by my first name.

It would be unfair of me to expect my stepchildren to recognize me as their "parent." I am not. I am their father's wife and that is how I wish to be introduced.

Natural mothers and fathers, or adoptive or foster parents, deserve much more respect from their children than do stepmothers or stepfathers. We had nothing to do with their upbringing or training, and we do not deserve to be credited with having done so.

In my opinion, "my father's wife" or "my mother's husband" would be most appropriate.

Call me "STEPMOTHER" because that's what I am!

DEAR STEPMOTHER: Thank you for a candid [though unpopular] point of view.

DEAR ABBY: My aunt, who lives in a retirement home, has this item from their monthly newspaper. I hope it will brighten your day as much as it did mine. You may think it's funny enough to share with your readers. AMUSED IN MISSOULA

DEAR AMUSED: The item was both funny ha ha and sad if this "law" was actually enforced. Yes, it's worth sharing with my readers; and here it is:

"LADIES, BEWARE

Leap Year again, ladies. But if some of you have been capturing some unsuspecting man's heart, be careful! A colonial Jersey law of the 1600s decreed that all women, of whatever age, rank, profession or degree, who betray into matrimony any of His Majesty's subjects, shall be punished with stripes, whippings, washes, cosmetics, paints, artificial teeth, hair or high-heeled shoes shall incur the penalty . . . of witchcraft. The penalty? Death!"

DEAR ABBY: A Hurt Mother wrote that her son was married at a big fancy church wedding. She said she had a beautiful unmarried daughter who was 23, tall and thin who wasn't even asked to be in the wedding.

Without knowing any of the facts, I'll bet I know why she didn't ask that girl to be in the wedding party. She was TOO beautiful, and the bride didn't want any competition. SAME EXPERIENCE

DEAR SAME: That's a possibility that almost every woman would find easy to believe.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have a very happy marriage. At least we did until something happened which put a strain on it.

On my husband's last birthday, his sister and her husband gave him a large [practically life-sized] framed picture of a nude woman. Abby, I am not a prude, but I don't care for the painting, and I don't want it displayed in my home.

My husband has been rather passive about it, but when we suggested we exchange it for another one, he refused. In time he will probably hang it.

Until this happened my relationship with my sister in-law was good, but now it has soured. Am I wrong to object, or have you any suggestions? ANNOYED

DEAR ANNOYED: You're not wrong, and I suggest you remind your husband that it's your home, too, and you're entitled to a voice in what shall be displayed there.

If he wants to hang it, tell him to put it where he can enjoy it and it won't bother you. [Like in his place, his closet, or wherever.]

CONFIDENTIAL TO ALL WHO WROTE, REQUESTING RECIPE FOR MY MOTHER IN LAW'S FABULOUS SPICY AND SOUR SAUCE: Sorry, I don't have it. Nobody else ever measures anything.

Abby's booklets: Trust Abby. For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 69700, L. A., CALIF. 90069 and enclose a self-addressed envelope.

Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," is available to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069.

Watermelons in good supply and good quality... To Shrink Or not To Shrink... Pecan Hearing Set... Egg Production shows increase...

HARVESTING of watermelons is moving to the Cotulla, Pearsall and Pleasanton areas. Watermelons now are in ample supply and the quality is good, also. Market prices reported relatively firm.

WHICH OF THESE is the best deal? An offer of $24.50 for your 400-pound steer calves without a shrinkage allowance, or $25 with a four per cent shrink.

You can get the answer to this plus a lot of other valuable information on livestock marketing in a handy, compact booklet available from the Texas Department of Agriculture, Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711. Ask for Livestock Marketing Handbook.

In the question above, the first offer will net you $98; the second offer nets $96.

Information in the handbook consists of three basic types: 1. conversion of live animals into dressed costs; 2. break-even cost charts for cattle feeding; 3. shrinkage section.

Also included are pointers to look for in selling your cattle as well as U.S. federal meat grades, average and range in dressing percentages of various kinds of livestock by grades, and motor freight rates for livestock in Texas.

Average yield of carcasses into retail cuts is also included.

The booklet contains tables showing the dressed costs at varying yields, shrinkage tables, and break even cost charts.

Hail Damaged Cotton-- Leave It Or Plow It Up?

population to only two seedlings per row foot, and there is still no reason to replant unless the remaining crop is poorly distributed or there are long skips.

The specialist has some suggestions for evaluating hail damage. Most important, producers should not make a snap decision immediately after a storm.

"It will always appear much worse than the actual damage at this time," Metzger says, "a cotton seedling has a number of buds that provide a remarkable capacity to recover in a short time."

He also says the entire field should be examined to determine if the injury is widespread. Whether a field should be replanted depends on the area receiving the most severe injury.

The plants should be examined to determine the number of leaves or traces of leaves still attached to the stalk.

"A plant having only traces of leaves will still recover better than one with no leaves," Metzger says. But he emphasizes that a stand with no leaves can still make a crop.

Hail hits a portion of the South Plains cotton crop each year, and some producers must face the decision whether to replant or just hold on to the injured stand of earlier cotton.

This year, the problem is especially serious because of the shortage of good quality planting seed after a poor crop in 1971.

"Several factors such as growth stage, type and extent of injury and seasonal conditions must be considered in making decisions to replant," says Dr. Bob Metzger, Extension area cotton specialist for Texas A&M University.

He says that producers often wonder how much stands can be reduced and still give normal yields. Several years of research have shown that only two seedlings per foot in 40-inch rows will still give optimum yields.

"In fact, no yield difference was obtained with plant populations ranging from 26,000-65,000 plants per acre, or two to five seedlings per foot of row," he reports.

Metzger explains that a hail storm can reduce the plant

If the stem is intact, free of large breaks and the seedling has sound buds, recovery is still possible although it will be slower than plants having at least some leaves.

"However, if the stem is shattered and the bark loosened or broken at points below the leaf buds, then recovery is impossible," the specialist warns.

If the producer decides not to replant, a sandfighter should be run as soon as possible to prevent sand injury to vital buds on stubs left in the field. Metzger says that any regrowth hinges on either sound terminal bud (the growing point) or axillary bud located at the point of leaf attachment.

If the terminal bud is destroyed, then the axillary buds become active and begin growth. After sandfighting, the producer should cultivate immediately to prevent crusting.

The specialist emphasizes that hail injury in May or June will cause less yield losses than damage in July and August.

"If the damage is suffered early, a crop can recover to the point that the injured plants are difficult to distinguish from undamaged plants," he adds. Also young cotton that survives early hail damage is often more mature at first frost than a crop that has been replanted.

"When a crop is totally destroyed, the producer has no choice but to replant, especially if the damage is early in the season," Metzger says. Under these conditions, replanting becomes difficult and must be based on sound information.

Terri Wallace Wins District SCS Contest

Editor's note: The following essay by Terri Wallace won the Lamb County Soil & Water Conservation District Essay Contest in the 1972 Conservation Awards Program. Terri is a 1972 graduate of Spade High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wallace of Spade.

CONSERVATION— THE KEY TO SURVIVAL
By TERRI WALLACE

"I give my pledge as an American to defend from waste, to work for wise use and good management of my country's natural resources — its soil and minerals, its forests, water and wildlife."

We have six natural resources that we need to conserve: water, soil, minerals, wildlife, forests and grassland.

Water is required by all forms of life. Nature has many ways of conserving and controlling water, but man often upsets the water balance in his desire to use the water when and where he wants it.

Most of the food that supports life comes from the soil, either directly or indirectly. Theodore Roosevelt once said, "When the soil is gone, man must go."

Minerals are a nonrenewable resource. It took nature millions of years to make minerals, but a bed of coal that took a million years to form, can be mined and burned by man in a few years.

Wild animals play an important part in the balance of nature and furnish us with many important products. However, it's just as important to keep some animals from becoming too plentiful as it is to keep some animals from being wiped out.

related to water conservation. We depend upon our resources too much to risk its destruction. The fight for survival of our natural resources is a long one. We must conserve our resources indefinitely and provide for wildlife.

For more than half the States is grazing land. The damage to it is overpriced for grass to return to where it has been destroyed.

Range Riders Rodeo Slated In Amarillo

America's top cowboys are expected to compete for one of the largest purses of prize money in the 30-year history of Will Rogers Range Rider Rodeos when the first go-round gets under way on July 1 at the Range Rider Arena west of Amarillo.

"L. D. Ward's top rodeo stock and the excellent performances of the most colorful cowboys in the country have made this annual rodeo an Independence Weekend Tradition," stated Rodeo Chairman Cliff Lowrance.

The Will Rogers Range Riders have also joined with the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce to sponsor an Honor America Day Parade at 10 a.m. on Saturday July 1, in the downtown area.

Riding clubs competing for First, Second and Third place trophies will join with floats, marching units, elected officials and political hopefuls to ride a parade route starting at 12th and Polk Streets. The parade will follow Polk north to 4th and then proceed east to the Amarillo Civic Center.

Weekend festivities, in addition to the parade and rodeo, which will run Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 1 through July 4 nightly at 8:30 p.m.; a Rodeo Queen Contest will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. in the Range Rider Arena for girls 15 through 19.

A western dance will be held Saturday evening immediately following the rodeo performance.

Some box seat tickets are available for the rodeo and general admission prices are $2 for adults and seventy-five cents for children twelve and under.

Advance inquiries can be made to Rodeo Chairman Cliff Lowrance, Box 9002, Amarillo, Texas 79106. The phone number is 806-376-4387.

Grant To Aid Study

Area concern for preservation and protection of the underground water in the Ogallala formation can be noted in a recent grant to the High Plains Research Foundation by High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1.

The grant was awarded to the Foundation to continue its research for reasonable alternatives for preplant irrigation. Foundation scientists indicate that some of the water used in preplant irrigations is lost before it can be used by crops.

Results from a study in 1971 indicate that preplant irrigations may be limited, and in some cases, eliminated in favor of irrigation after planting to provide moisture for seed germination.

Foundation reports on the 1971 irrigation method study show that in two plots, the irrigation method beginning after planting yielded 6,861 pounds of grain sorghum while using 40.4 inches of water. The preplant irrigation method plot produced 6,853 pounds of grain sorghum with 50.6 inches of water.

District directors, in awarding the $1,000 grant, noted that all avenues of research must be explored that could lead to better water conservation practices and the prolonging of the area's water supply.

Call Issued For VEE Vaccination

Hot, summer weather is on the way and mosquitoes are becoming active.

This could be bad news to horse owners who have not vaccinated their animals for VEE (Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis), the dreaded sleeping sickness spread by mosquitoes which killed so many horses last year.

"It's urgent that all horses, mules and donkeys that were not vaccinated last year be vaccinated as soon as possible," emphasizes Dr. James Armstrong, veterinarian with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Animals that were vaccinated during last year's massive vaccination program need not be vaccinated this year since immunity from the VEE vaccine appears to last at least two years. However, if there is any doubt about whether or not the animal was vaccinated last year, by all means vaccinate again."

The Texas A&M University specialist hastens to add that there is one exception to the re-vaccination rule. "Foals that were vaccinated in 1971 when they were less than six months old should be re-vaccinated."

In high risk areas such as Texas, the U.S. Department of Agriculture recommends vaccinating pregnant mares and foals under two weeks of age during the mosquito season.

Studies are presently under way to determine whether there is any danger to mares or unborn foals if vaccinated during pregnancy.

Also, contrary to some earlier reports, tests in several states have shown that the vaccine does not cause brain or spinal damage in horses.

"If you have animals that require VEE vaccination, contact an accredited veterinarian as soon as possible and have him administer the vaccine," urges Armstrong. This year there is a charge for both the vaccine and the veterinarian's services.

Armstrong reminds horse owners to also vaccinate their animals against western and eastern strains of the sleeping sickness. This should be an annual vaccination. All vaccinations can be given during the veterinarian's single visit.

"Texas is still under federal quarantine for VEE," adds the veterinarian. "Thus horses must have been vaccinated for VEE at least 14 days before being allowed to move across the state line. A vaccination certificate must accompany the animals."

Armstrong suggests that horse owners check their animals regularly for any signs of illness that might be an indication of VEE. At the onset of the disease, the animal loses its appetite, is depressed and has a fever. If any of these signs appear, a veterinarian should be contacted at once so that an accurate diagnosis can be made. The veterinarian also recommends that horse owners spray their animals, especially those in stables and other biting insects confinement, for mosquitoes and other biting insects
