Calendar Switch Due To Conflict

Littlefield schools' annual Spring Vacation has been changed from March 22-26 to April 12-16--the week following Easter Sunday--to avoid a conflict with University interscholastic League band contests.

The school board voted the new dates Monday night at a regular meeting.

Change in the school calendar capped a meeting in which the trustees heard reports on enrollment, an audit of the Title I program, football income and other financial affairs.

The board also approved a $487,561 tax roll based on evaluations totaling $27,086,772.

Tentative approval was given a one-night-per-week vocational woodworking course for adults to be taught by Byron Ford, the shop instructor. Details were to be worked out for the school to be exempt from personal liability, and for the class' responsibility in the event of damage to school equipment.

The change in the school calendar came after Supt. Paul I. Jones told the board the original setting of March 22-26 for Spring Vacation would throw a kink into preparations for the UIL band contests.

The contests are scheduled on Tuesday of the week following March 22-26, and Supt. Jones said Band Director John McGee would need at least four days of practice sessions immediately before going to contest.

When the spring holidays were originally set up, the school planned the vacation period to coincide with holiday dates set up by Lubbock schools and Texas Tech, along with most other colleges of the area.

This would have allowed parents with students in college to have these youngsters home for vacation at the same time Littlefield students would be free, Supt. Jones said.

However, UIL band contests were scheduled at a different time than anticipated last summer when the school calendar was originally approved, Supt. Jones explained.

The board first considered early April dates for the vacation, but learned that UIL literary and track and field contests would conflict on April 3 and 10.

Trustees then settled on April 12-16, the week following Easter Sunday. Weekends before and after the week's vacation will give students and teachers a total of nine days free.

The second six-weeks period of the second semester will close on Friday, April 9, and the vacation break will fall between six-weeks periods.

More Inspections!

The Title I reading program in Littlefield schools has been rated A-OK following a federal inspection of procedures, materials and equipment.

A federal inspector was here recently and told Supt. Paul I. Jones the Littlefield program was one of two in the state he would rate as outstanding. Ordinarily, the story would end right there, but the inspector added: "You really have a model program here, and if you don't mind, it's one I'd like to recommend for some of our other people to come out and look at."

BREATHALIZER is now in operation in County, and the level of intoxication of driver suspected of DWI will no longer be guess work. Patrolmen Bill Angel, standing, and Weldon Parson, seated, run the tests in their office for their district and any law office in the county.

Breathalyzer Makes You Drive A Straight Line

County-wide campaign to get drivers off the road and out of the county in the new breathalyzer machine. The compact machine that costs almost $1,000 is operated by Highway Patrolmen Bill Angel and Weldon Parson. Parson took special interest in the new equipment this year. But while

Salvation Army Drive At Mid-Point

Littlefield Salvation Army is in the midst of its fund raising campaign. The drive had reached the $1,330 mark on Wednesday. More than $100 was raised on the first night of door-to-door drive. According to Captain Daniel Hudson we hope to reach our $3,000 goal by the end of the year.

Gibson's Open Next Week

The doors of the new Gibson's Discount Store are expected to swing open for business here next week, according to Kenneth M. Lynch, store manager.

Lee Vote Starts

Persons planning on being absent on the Nov. 3 election date, balloting by mail started yesterday, Oct. 15, and continues through Friday, Oct. 30.

Exes List Plans For Homecoming

Plans are underway for homecoming at Littlefield High School and a few entries for the homecoming parade, slated for Thursday night, Oct. 22, have been reported to the High School principal's office.

the patrolmen must run the tests, the new machine may be used by all law enforcement agencies in the county on persons suspected of driving while intoxicated.

Texas' new implied consent law implies that when a driver applies for a driver's license, he gives his consent for a chemical test to be made to determine alcoholic influence. Refusal to take the breathalyzer test may result in automatic suspension of driving privileges. Innocence as well as guilt is proven with the instrument. Sometimes intoxicated appearance is not really true, but are the result of heart conditions, diabetes or other physical disabilities. Thus the chemical test not only convicts the guilty, but clears the innocent.

The breathalyzer is somewhat misnamed since it measures the amount of alcohol in the body, rather than relying on the breath. It is absolutely accurate in telling whether a driver is tipsy, tury or stoned--almost to the point of saying how many drinks a person has consumed. A person doesn't have to be falling down, urping up his socks drunk to get a DWI.

"A driver whose alcoholic content measures .10 to .15 is under the influence sufficiently to be charged with DWI," Parson said, "and anyone measuring .15 and over falls in the can't hit the ground with his hat category."

A 150-pound driver who has drunk two to four beers or two to four ounces of whiskey would register from .05 to .10 and four to six bottles of beer or four to six shots of whiskey puts a person weighing 150 pounds in the "under the influence" .10 to .15 per cent.

Part of the breathalyzer contains a 10 per cent known alcohol which is a check to make sure the machine is operating properly. This part of the breathalyzer is heated to body temperature before the test is made and is sometimes referred to as the "imitation drunk."

The suspected driver must breathe one long breath into the machine and the instrument records the amount of alcohol in the blood stream.

Together with the implied consent law, the breathalyzer puts teeth in the drunk driving law.

the Lions Club will serve their traditional pancake supper in the Junior High School cafeteria. Lion President Clem Sorley reports they plan to serve bacon, sausage, and plenty of butter and syrup with the pancakes.

Ex-students will meet at the VFW Hall following the homecoming game, when they will dance to the band accompaniment of Emil Shattel and the Panhandle Playboys of Memphis.

During the business session, officers will be elected. Profits from the dance will go to the scholarship fund.

Wildcats Hope To End Frustrations At Friona

Whoever coined that phrase, "If at first you don't succeed... etc.," might do well not to bug the Wildcats about it.

The Littlefield Wildcats, that is, after five straight losses, four of them the close, frustrating kind, the Cats will be traveling Friday night to Friona, hoping to take out their anger on the Chieftains.

The Friona brand of Indians showed last Friday night what they can do when they work at it. They were razor-sharp in scalping the Dimmitt Bobcats, 14-0, before a happy homecoming crowd in Friona.

Dimmitt was highly favored, having previously played unbeaten Floydada its closest game of the season in dropping a 35-16 battle.

Friona had lost handily the previous week to Olton, which used a fourth-quarter touchdown to win a close one over Littlefield, 14-7, here Friday night.

So, after two weeks of play in District 3-A, the Chiefs stand at 1-1, and the Wildcats are 0-2, still hunting their first win of the year.

That's quite a comedown for the Cats, who were rated a contender in pre-season polls.

Inexperience and injuries to key people, notwithstanding the sidelining of Head Coach Deveralle Lewis after a heart attack, have taken their toll. There's no doubt, however, that the Cats are showing improvement. Their close one with Olton, favored in some quarters

Bales Picks 14, Wins Grid Event

There were several shifts in season standings in the football contest this week following a weekend of upsets and a tie game.

Librum Bales, with 14 correct, wins first place and the $5 prize this week. He is tied for eighth for the season.

Eight contestants picked 13 winners each, and Winston Cummings won second place and $3 by coming closest with his tie breaker scores. Floyce Pierce placed third for the $2 weekly prize.

Mike Nix was only one away from Pierce in the tie breaker. Others guessing the outcome of 13 games were James Self of Earth, Linda Hood, Doug Cummings, W. P. Holland and Bill Mott.

Four out of five of those in the top for the season are Amherst residents. Sue Bowman and Doug Cummings are in a two-way tie for first place, and Paul Yarbrough and Doc Bowman, all of Amherst, along with Ronnie Fisher are tied for second this far this year.

Mike Sadler moved down from second to third, while Doris Robison had a good week and moved up from fifth to third, and Joe Blevins holds down fourth for the season without any competition.

Everyone missed the Slaton-Frenship tie. Most often missed contests were the Amherst win over Meadow, Springlake's loss to Bovina, and Bula's win over Patton Springs.

Levelland Game Is Best Draw

The best game for Littlefield football this year is the Levelland game, by a healthy margin. A report from Sid Hopping, school business manager, showed receipts for Littlefield from the game with the Lobos totaled $1,253.

Local receipts from the Olton game were $793; from Crosbyton, $369; and from the Slaton game, $691. No return had been made from the Lockney game.

The two home games with Olton and Slaton totaled $1,484. In the first two home games last year, with Dunbar and Lakeview, the total was $1,170, including $718 from Dunbar and $452 from the Lakeview game.

SUE BOWMAN gives hubby Doc that old ho, ho, ho look as she edges him for the lead in the football contest. Doc was last year's winner of the Cotton Bowl tickets and expense money for the New Year's Day grid classic. After a weekend of upsets, Mrs. Bowman stands one better and in a tie for first place after five weeks of the 12-week contest.

WITCHES' BREW

By GAYLE MILLS
LEADER-NEWS SOCIETY EDITOR

IT BE long before the ghosts, black cats and pumpkins will be on again, so it's time to plan for the festivities of Halloween that are soon upon us.

Halloween means "a Holy evening" because the event takes place on All Saints Day.

Irish, being an old world, the Irish brought Halloween into America. They brought along with them superstitions and legends.

Some people have a legend about the origin of Halloween. It is said that a man named Jack was unable to get into heaven because of his sins. Jack could not get into either because he was a practical joker on earth. So he had to walk around the earth forever until judgement day.

Being an order of the ancient Gaul and believed that on Halloween the ghosts, spirits, fairies, and even elves would harm people. They thought that the cat was a magical animal and at one time human beings, but changed as a punishment.

At times in these United States Halloween was an occasion for playing harmless pranks. But as the years have passed, many boys and girls have taken Halloween pranks to a level that is not so harmless. The pranks have become so hard that some people are working hard all year long to try and prevent misbehavior from occurring.

NOT HAVE a Halloween party for your young-uns? Adults enjoy gala parties and by all means have the costume affair. This is a time to have fun for all and may be the place of some of the pranks the kids play nowadays.

Decorations should be no different. Pumpkins, black cats, ghosts, skeletons, and orange candles, all set the theme for Halloween. As an extra decorating idea, don't forget the autumn leaves that are falling as they can be used in your theme of decor.

Don't forget the special games to be played at Halloween, such as hobbing for apples, ghost stories and telling fortunes.

Get out the pot and brew up a batch of "Witch's Brew" or "Lemonade-Cider Halloween Punch" to serve along with a piece of "Harvest Moon Cake."

There's bound to be a lot of thirsty and hungry young and old alike looking for "treats" this Halloween.

WITCHES' BREW
1 pint cranberry juice cocktail
1 pint apple juice
1 pint ginger ale
Combine all ingredients in a large pan or pumpkin shell. Serve in mugs with Halloween straws. Yield: 12 servings.

LEMONADE-CIDER HALLOWEEN PUNCH
4-6 ounce cans frozen lemonade
4 quarts apple cider
Combine concentrate for lemonade with chilled cider instead of water. Pour into a punch bowl over an ice ring or crushed ice. Yield: 36 servings.

HARVEST MOON CAKE
3 eggs
2/3 cups soft-type margarine
1 1/3 cups sugar
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
1/4 cup nonfat dry milk powder
2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
3/4 teaspoons salt
2/3 cup orange juice
Beat eggs in a small bowl until light and lemon colored; set aside.
Blend together margarine, sugar, grated orange rind and vanilla in a large mixing bowl. Add beaten eggs and dry milk powder; blend well. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt; add to creamed mixture alternately with orange juice. Turn into two 8-inch layer cake pans, coated with margarine and dusted with flour. Bake in a 350-degree oven for 25 to 30 minutes, until cake is light brown and pulls away from sides of pans.
Let cake cool in pans for 10 to 15 minutes. Turn out onto cake racks and finish cooling. Fill and frost with your favorite chocolate frosting. Garnish with pieces of candy orange slices.

Warm Fresh Air

... direct from the manufacturer

Natural gas is the healthiest, most economical way to heat your house this winter. Gas is economical because it's the direct way to produce heat — you don't pay to convert heat to another energy source and then back to heat. And with gas you can afford to bring clean outside air into your home this winter instead of having to re-heat the same old stale air time after time.

So, if you're building or remodeling, be sure to specify gas heating. Gas is the "natural" fuel. It's like buying direct from the manufacturer. Call your heating contractor, plumber, or Pioneer Natural Gas.

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

Rich Influencing News

Dear Editor,
I have the impression that along with your paper many people believe "Big is Best and Big is Right" I contend that being big does not make you right. It doesn't have to make you wrong either. The Rich men and Rich companies have more power and control over our government and economy than at anytime in the history of this country.

Greed and lust for more power are at the roots of much of the trouble we now have. Interest rates, Government regulations and contracts, along with many other things are being manipulated to kill fair competition and the hope of the poor.

An example of this is in the meat packing business. In 1969 the Packers set a record for sales and net income. They had 18% more net income than the previous year. In the last two months the price paid to farmers for live pork has dropped from 25.50 to 18.00 per hundred. This a 30% drop. How much has it dropped in the grocery store? New government regulations are making it difficult for the small packer to stay in business.

The big packers were making a record breaking profit on 25.50 hogs. Why be so greedy? Oh, you say the farmers produced an oversupply of hogs. Well why not let the general public benefit? People might eat more pork if the retail price was lowered 30%.

No! The rich and powerful do not have to be greedy. They can treat their fellow man fairly and pay a fair price. It will pay in the long run.

I must conclude the fact that most advertising is paid by the rich seems to be influencing our local newspapers. The economy in this area is almost totally dependent on agriculture. Why then are so little true facts printed about the plight of the farmer, in Russia and China those in power control what the press, radio and tv can say. How much different is Texas?

I fully believe the future of this country depends on the honesty and courage of our news media.

Thank you,
Waymon Lewis

P.S. You might consider how many people Lamb County would have if all the farms had 5,000 acres.

WHERE WAS LITTLEFIELD???

On Friday, Oct. 9, 1970, Littlefield played their best game and the band gave its best performance of the season and the HOME stands were not even two thirds full.

Don't you think you owe it to your community and to yourselves to stand behind the team, the band and your CHILDREN.

Next time it is time to "stand up and holler" let us make sure we can be heard. Your support needed, please do not let them down.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Ask Too Much

By BOB WEAR

FROM ALMOST all directions, there is a clamor of voices with demands for just about everything imaginable. Some are saying, "You owe me this, and you owe me that."

Others say, "Help me, help me!" but they won't try to help themselves. All of these voices from persons and groups express, in one way or another, expectations which are unjustified.

Most of these, perhaps all of them, ask too much.

THIS DANGEROUS ATTITUDE and accompanying action are being encouraged by self-seeking persons, and persons who do not understand. The foolish efforts to meet all of these demands help the demands to grow bigger. The free loaders and parasitical dependents are increasing.

THE MORE THEY GET, the more they want. Their appetite of unjustified expectation grows by that on which they feed.

These people expect money they do not earn; they expect jobs for which they have made no preparation; they expect rights which belong to none but those who earn them; and they expect a rake-off from the labor of others.

NECESSITIES do not satisfy these people. They have the twisted view that what belongs to them is their's, and that they are entitled to a considerable portion of what belongs to other people.

They think that what they want, they should get. Their feeling is a mixture of greed, disrespect for the rights and property of others, and personal corruption.

THE SELF-RESPECT of these people has been lost. Thus, they are unable to respect others.

They do not care if they become a burden. In fact, they seem perfectly willing to impose their expectations upon other folk. They are surprised and hurt when anyone resents their impositions.

This loss of self-respect is a personal tragedy, because self-respect is one life principle no one can afford to lose.

"The pious and just honoring of ourselves may be thought the fountainhead from whence every laudable and worthy enterprise issues forth."--Milton.

PERSONAL INTEGRITY is also a victim of the attitude of asking too much, the attitude of over-expectation.

These people are always saying, one way or another, "What are you going to give to me"; or "What are you going to do for me"; or "How are you going to help me?"

They never ask, "What can I give to others?"; or "What can I do for others?"; or "How can I help others?" Their lives have become fragmented in the egoism of self-centeredness.

OUR CREATOR DOES NOT intend for any of us to be drones; that is, to live off the labors of others.

Of course, no reference is made to the extent of helplessness. We want to assist these people, but we are doing a great wrong if we help people who are able to help themselves.

This is a violation of the law of God--"If any would not work, neither should he eat."

ASKING TOO MUCH, as an expression of over-expectation, threatens to overburden the whole structure of the human framework for life.

Each person able to carry his load must do so for his own good, and for the good of all.

Youth Power

WHETHER 18-year-olds can vote still will have to be court-tested. But young people are asserting themselves politically right now in a manner unprecedented in our country.

Did you hear what young Democrats did in Utah?

Rational young people with some valid grievances against the Establishment have learned that the way to influence national affairs is to infiltrate politics, first at the precinct level.

THIS IS THE WAY all political bosses boss, for better or worse, by asserting influence from the bottom up.

School-agers who rallied 'round the candidacies of senators Gene McCarthy and Bobby Kennedy in 1968 learned to lick stamps and ring doorbells and conduct rallies.

BUT THE nitty-gritty of party policy is ground out behind the closed doors of county caucus and state convention.

Last year a bunch of young Democrats in Utah decided to overthrow the Establishment the American way, within the frameworks of the democratic process.

THEY SET ABOUT to introduce themselves and their objectives to their respective communities' politics.

By spring, when county conventions were selecting delegates to the state convention, students were able to win for themselves more than 10 per cent of the 1,500 delegate seats!

Thus 170 students were seated at the Salt Lake City convention of their party.

AND THOSE YOUNG delegates were able to translate their opinions into proposals which will be put before voters of that state in November.

They urged and won approval for half a dozen major platform changes.

They influenced the wording of the platform committee's report.

THEY SOUGHT and won domination of the resolutions committee and thus presented the convention with strongly worded resolutions relating to the war, the draft, abortion and sterilization.

They subsequently won convention approval for most of their resolutions, including those opposing the war.

THE NIXON Administration has duly noted this newest manifestation of youth power. Where the President used to express reservations about the "18-year-old vote," he's now all for it.

No party can afford to turn its back on that potential vote of 14 million.

WHETHER the 18-year-olds get to vote in all states remains undecided, but in all states they are a political factor, if only as campaigners.

Young people are characteristically long on ideas and short on patience. Politicking from the bottom up takes patience and persistence and some degree of elasticity. But it can be exciting, too.

If Utah's young Democrats are typical, we're in for a colorful autumn.

A WOMAN'S VIEW

Communion

By PEARL BRANDON

A FEW DAYS AGO I saw a picture on tv of combat soldiers taking the Lord's Supper before going into battle.

They were an unshaved, tired, rugged looking group as they stood with bowed heads, taking Communion on a lonely hillside somewhere in Viet Nam.

THERE IS SOMETHING about taking the Lord's Supper that lifts the soul and gives us courage; and also makes us feel fresh and clean inside.

There are many ways people take Communion but in our church we take the Lord's Supper by kneeling before the chancel rail, all of us together, the young and the old, side by side, as the minister recites, "Take, eat, this is my body. This is my blood which is shed for you... do this in remembrance of me... arise, go in peace."

REGARDLESS of how you administer it, the Lord's Supper is a great blessing to those who take it.

My thoughts go back to that first Lord's Supper long ago. On that turbulent night when evil was abroad in the land about Jerusalem. It was the time of the Passover when the Jews celebrated their deliverance from the Egyptians as they had done for many hundreds of years.

JESUS KNEW the time was approaching when he must be offered up as the supreme sacrifice for the sins of the people for all the ages.

He knew the end was near and he longed to eat this last supper with his beloved disciples.

THE CHILL of violence was in the air on this dark night as they gathered in the Upper Room. Satan was there also, lurking in the heart of Judas, who was clutching the money bags.

How Jesus must have yearned over those unsuspecting disciples as they jostled among themselves and disputed over who should rank the highest.

LATER THESE POOR disciples must have remembered the message he was trying to bring them when he took the cup filled with the elements of wine and passed it among them saying, "Drink this in remembrance of my blood which is shed for thee," and also taking bread, "Eat, this is my body... do this in remembrance of me."

Then, after singing the Passover Hymn, they went out in the wild night to the Mount of Olives, where Jesus wept in the Garden of Gethsemane. Where, also, the gentle angel came to strengthen him. He arose and went forth to face the enemies who were to take his life.

LAST SUNDAY the Baptist Church took the Lord's Supper to their "Shut-ins". This brought great comfort to my mother who is no longer able to attend church.

Once while living in Los Angeles, my husband had major surgery. His condition was considered quite serious. On the evening before the dreaded operation our young minister came to the hospital room and administered the Lord's Supper to us.

THIS BROUGHT us great comfort as well as strength to face the coming ordeal.

Is this not what the Lord's Supper is for?... to lift us up and give us courage to face the storms of life.

HOMINY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

WE WONDER ABOUT some of the tv ads nowadays. True, they're trying to take "professionalism" out of the old "Hard Sell" line that's been used for so long. But some of the jewels that they've come up with are so corny as to be ludicrous!

The families that share the same medicine cabinet must be the most comical of any, even tho it stretches the imagination to the nth degree. Could you imagine two apartments with only one medicine cabinet between them?

THE QUANTAS BEAR is another.--He approaches the selling line from the reverse angle.--Tho, one wonders, these days if he won't wind up in Cuba, Iran, or some other foreign port, if he boards ANY airline!

A certain shaving cream ad is something else. I think I'd like to use their cream, except, I don't want to go thru a football drill between putting it on and shaving!

AND THE after-shave lotion thing, I'm just not daring enough to use it; I don't know any karate, besides, I don't like to strike a woman!

I'm embarrassed to know that I hadn't noticed the bad grammar in a certain cigarette ad, until, the advertising people, themselves, called attention to it!

THE FAMILY name beer ad has become so homesome and sickening as to make one want to throw a shoe through the tv screen, or, do YOU think so?

It's comical to see some tv company try to advertise their color tv sets on my old black and white set.

REALLY, I think it unnecessary to cut the outer skin off an auto door just to raise it up in the air with a crane!

The "Gusto" beer ad is particularly disturbing to me.--The central theme is: "You only go around once in this life; grab all the gusto you can get!" In other words, it urges you to let all inhibitions go by the board and souse all your troubles in their beer!--A lousy suggestion to the unstable!

THERE'S ONE GUY that ought to sue his shoe supplier. He walked only a mile for a certain cigarette and wound up with a hole in the sole of his shoe!

I guess the people that write these ads must think we're a bunch of psychos and I suppose they're right. I remembered these ads, easily, without the tv being turned on!!!

Won't Work

ANOTHER EXAMPLE of the futility of passing laws that don't work is contained in an Associated Press dispatch from Washington.

The AP story described the Gun Control Act of 1968 as an attempt to keep tabs on guns in the hands of private citizens.

It tells how, after passage of this legislation, output of cheap handguns, known as "Saturday Night Specials", multiplied astronomically.

Reportedly, gun manufacturers spring up overnight, and "sometimes they close down the next day."

THE GUN CONTROL ACT is reminiscent of the days of prohibition. Virtually anyone can manufacture a gun or learn how to make bootleg whiskey.

However, there is a world of difference between a law that seeks to repress legitimate ownership of firearms and that statutory farce known as prohibition. Ownership of firearms by law-abiding citizens is a fundamental right under U.S. constitutional government.

Any law abridging that right strikes at the elementary principle of individual responsibility under self-government rather than at the criminal element. Such a law is unworkable because every law-abiding citizen in the country could be disarmed and the perpetrators of crime would go merrily on their way.

REPRESENTATIVE Al Ullman of the State of Oregon put the proposition in a nutshell when he said, "In my judgement, the answer to crimes committed with guns is stricter penalties for criminals not undue restrictions on law-abiding citizens."

The Gun Control Act of 1968 lumped the law abiding and the criminal in one pot.

It won't work.

Stays Fresh Longer!

OFFICIAL LHS NEWSPAPER

Students Ready For League Events

By JO REID

Representatives for the various events in Interscholastic League will begin working soon in preparation for the Spring meet.

The events are still open for anyone interested in such areas as debate, informative speaking, persuasive speaking, ready writing, shorthand and typing.

Debate trains the student to analyze a problem through thorough and adequate research, and to use the best principles of argumentation and evidence to present the most effective case for or against a given proposition.

Debate provides training in critical thinking, quick response and defending worthy ideas. Above all it provides training in leadership that is not available in any other aspect of school curriculum.

Informative speaking stimulates an active interest in current affairs at the state, national and international levels. It teaches the student to speak extemporaneously in a clear and impartial manner the facts about a subject as they appear in the best available sources of information.

In persuasive speaking, the student learns to analyze a current issue, determine a point of view, and then to organize and deliver extemporaneously a speech to persuade his listeners to agree with his view.

Poetry interpretation teaches the student to ascertain the meaning of poetry and to communicate that meaning to the listener to stimulate the reader's appreciation of literature.

Prose reading stimulates the student to find the meaning of printed prose and to communicate that meaning orally to his listener.

One-act play contest emphasizes high quality performance in this creative art and fosters the appreciation of good acting, good directing and good drama.

Ready writing consists of writing a short theme on any of several suggested subjects in a given time.

Shorthand and typewriting are contests in speed and accuracy.

In spelling and plain writing the students study a list of words so they can spell them correctly and write them plainly.

The University Interscholastic League, as it is now known, was first organized in 1910 at the State Teachers' Meeting in Abilene.

The League covers a larger geographical area, serves more different types of public schools, schedules a greater variety of contests, holds larger meets and enjoys a greater school membership than any similar organization in the U.S.

The purpose of the League is to organize and direct through the medium of properly supervised and controlled contest to assist in preparing pupils for citizenship.

When asked about the value of Interscholastic League competition Mrs. Ayres, sponsor of the literary events said, "I just can't stress the value. It provides invaluable training for one's future."

SIX WEEKS TESTS prompted LHS students to keep their heads in the books last week. Second period study hall is caught in action as students study to be prepared.

Students Relieved Six Weeks Ends

By this time, red, tearful, swollen eyes will have replaced the heavy-lidded, circled eyes caused by too much late studying last week.

The sounds of "Boy, am I gonna get killed when I get home!" and "Oh, well, I didn't want to pass English anyway" echo in the halls.

The occasion? Six weeks tests and report cards.

The tests, taken in all solid subjects and most electives, count as one-fourth of the six weeks grade.

Report cards were issued yesterday, and must be turned in today or tomorrow, or five cents will be charged for each late card.

Entries Soared For Parade At Homecoming

The Student Council of Littlefield High School is seeking entries for the coming parade, set for the day night, Oct. 22, at the huge bonfire on the cat Stadium.

They invite organizations, individuals and business firms to enter something in the parade, and ask that entries be called into the principal's office.

Peace Symbol Not Sign Of Communism Or 'Anti-Christ'

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Recently the SKAT published an article on the Peace Symbol. This article offers the other view point. It was written by James C. Suggs and was taken from the Christian Courier, Vol. 82, No. 9, Oct., 1970.)

Several community newspapers and church newsletters in Texas have carried editorials charging that the familiar peace symbol is a Communist "anti-Christ" sign.

That allegation has been made by persons who want to discredit the symbol and turn American Christians against those who use it. The tactic is to play on the fear of subversion by Communism.

The symbol in question is a wide inverted "V" with a vertical line passing through its point, all within a circle. It appears in decals, posters, jewelry and many other places.

Even persons who are reputedly fair-minded enough not to attack it with trumped-up charges.

Detractors say the symbol has been revived from the Middle Ages when it was "the sign of those who were opposed to Christianity." They warn that it is an upside down broken-armed cross: "the 'witches' foot';" "the anti-Christ symbol," "the symbol of the devil," "the mark of atheism." "The Communists are gleeful when they see this symbol worn by Americans," the alarmists say.

Actually the symbol was designed in England in 1958 for a group campaigning for nuclear disarmament (it is possible to call that a Communist plot too, of course). Since then, it has been adopted by other peace movements.

The symbol is a composite of the semaphore signals for the letters "N" (flags held in vertical line) and "D" (flags pointing downward at 45 degrees). These superimposed lines are in a circle representing the world.

Hence, to those who devised the symbol, it means, "Nuclear disarmament in the whole world."

But symbols are tricky. They can be read many ways. And they can be used to say different things at different times.

American Opinion magazine has a similar thrust.

On the other hand, peace movements that appropriated the symbol sometimes interpret the central lines as human despair and the circle as an unborn child.

A Christian Church pastor reassured the parents of his congregation that their children are not wearing a Communist emblem when he wrote in his newsletter that the symbol can be interpreted as "very Christian." He said that he chooses to interpret the circle as "a symbol of God and eternity" and "the dove's foot in the circle" as "a symbol of peace."

Not even the most respected symbols of the Christian faith have escaped corruption before or after their appropriation by the church.

Long before the Christian era, the cross was a sacred figure in religions of antiquity. And a form of the cross Christians inscribed in the Roman catacombs, the swastika, was painted on pottery by early American Indians and became the hated insignia of Nazi Germany.

The fish had meaning for pagans before Christians began using it as a sign for Christ. And the lotus blossom, an important symbol in Hinduism and Buddhism, has been incorporated meaningfully in Christian sanctuaries in Asia.

Don't be spooked into seeing Communists behind the peace symbol.

Juniors Order Sr. Rings

Last Friday, Oct. 9, the Junior Class met in the Auditorium to order their Senior Class rings.

The rings were ordered from the Star Engraving Company of Houston. The rings were displayed by Mr. Gene Baits.

The Juniors had a choice of three rings. The incised ring with a little L in the stone, the Phantom ring with a large L in the stone, and the Encrosted ring with an L on top of the stone.

The price of the boy's hollow back ring is $28.50, while for the solid back ring is $30.50. The price for the hollow back ring is $28.50 for the solid back ring is $26.50.

There was a $5.00 fee for the rings, and the Juniors receive their rings near the end of school.

LHS Speaks Out

By PAM BRANNON and JOAN TIMIAN

Question: If you could return to the past, what time would you choose and why?

Stella Rodriguez, (Soph.)-"I would like to return to the time of the creation of man. When the world was not corrupted because of man's desire for materialism. Only then could one have experienced the pure and simple beauty of life itself."

Calvin Kilby, (Sr.)-"I would like to return to the time of prehistoric man. Because I would like to know how they lived."

Chuck Eblevins, (Jr.)-"I would choose the age at which the Greek Empire was at its height. I like that period of history because of its simplicity and beauty."

Mrs. Lenton Smith, (English)-"To me, the most fascinating time to have lived would have been during "plantation days." Perhaps the hustle and bustle of our time makes me long for the seemingly leisurely life of that era."

Molly Green, (Jr.)-"I would like to return to the western times because I liked the way they lived. I like their laws and besides I like cowboys."

Jo Dee Fuller, (Soph.)-"I wouldn't want to return to the past. I enjoy today and I look forward to tomorrow. I like the present time."

Dorothy Williams, (Soph.)-"If I could return to the past I would love to live in Casa Grande, Ariz., when I could see a real live Indian. I have never seen an Indian before."

Darla Hanlin, (Sr.)-"I would like to go back to the time of Lincoln. Long dresses and tall hats are my favorite. Also horses and buggies are fun too."

Sharon Parrott, (Sr.)-"I would go back to the western days when they wore the long dresses and the men rode horses."

Leslie LeBoeuf, (Jr.)-"I would like to go back to the Elizabethan times when the dresses were long and flowing, and men had respect for the women."

Gail Williams, (Jr.)-"I like the time I am living in right now. Because things are going so good for me."

Pam Hastey, (Jr.)-"If I could return to the past I would return to the cave-men times, where everything was free. And there was no fighting."

Miss Krausher, (Typing)-"I would like to see and be able to meet Abe Lincoln."

Sandra Smith, (Soph.)-"If I could return to the past, I think I would choose to go to the Old Stone Age and really see how easy life is for us today. In the old Stone Age, one had to hunt for his food, and today all we have to do is go to the grocery store. I would just like to rough-it-out for a few days or so."

Mike Morris, (Soph.)-"I would like to go back to the Old West and be the marshall of Dodge City just because I have never been a Old West marshall and I like James Arness."

Shirley Priboth, (Jr.)-"I think I would go back to the time when witches were persecuted. I think it would be interesting, and probably gruesome. I would be able to see witches burned and tortured."

Don Trotter, (Soph.)-"If I could return to the past I would return to the early 1880's and be the roughest outlaw in the west and have 25 notches on each gun."

Deana Sterling, (Soph.)-"If I could go back to the past I would be in the Pioneer days. I think it would be fun to wear those pretty, frilly dresses and to live in old log cabins. Sure, they had a lot of hardships, but every generation has hardships in one way or another."

Pam Brandt, (Soph.)-"I would like to go back to the time of "Gone With the Wind". Then all the girls could wear those beautiful long, hooped dresses. But then the problem would be when you sat down. You might have to be a quick "hoop-catcher"."

Arturo Soria, (Soph.)-"I would go back to the times of the Romans, because to me at that time there were great men on the earth."

Time Out For Sports

By ALBERT SANCHEZ

Littlefield lost a close game, 14-7, to a undefeated team from Olton, Oct. 9, in Wildcat Stadium.

With almost 3,000 fans watching the game, the Wildcats put up a powerful defense that held Olton's scoring machine to 6 points till the fourth period. The defense was outstanding during the whole game. Outstanding players on defense were Larry Purdy, Jerry Kemp, Dennis Hartley, Matt Giles, Kenny Pratt and Leonard Huey.

Littlefield's only score came early in the game when junior linebacker Matt Giles blasted QB Steve Stockdale, causing the ball to fall into the arms of junior Ralph Funk.

Funk raced 55 yards for the Wildcats only score. Olton's points came on 10 and five yard runs by Keith Workman. Workman carved out 330 yards on 41 carries. But the Wildcats held the area's top passer to his lowest production of the year.

Steve Stockdale could only hit 5 out of 14 tries for 52 yards. With Wildcats keyed on Stockdale, Workman ate up big gains during the whole game.

Littlefield will try to get on the winning side this Friday, Oct. 16, against Friona. After last week's showing, the Wildcats should come out on top.

DECA Names New Officers

The Littlefield Distributive Education Club of America had its first meeting August 31 in the high school auditorium.

Officers were elected and moneymaking projects were discussed. Officers for the club are Jackie Howell, president; Gene Williams, vice-president; Sue Davis, secretary; Cyd Mc-Kinnon, treasurer; and Alton Brown, sergeant at arms.

Miniature flags and linen wall calendars have been sold by the D. E. Club and Halloween candy can now be purchased from members.

The D. E. Club is sponsored by Mrs. Henry and meetings are held the first of each month.

Choir Program Reviving

LHS is privileged to have a new choir director, Mrs. Marsha Martin.

Mrs. Martin says that the faculty and facilities of our school have definitely impressed her; however, Mrs. Martin has sensed a lack of pride among some of the students.

Mrs. Martin was born in Abilene, but reared in Corpus Christi. She went back to Abilene after graduating from high school at Corpus to attend ACC. After a short stay there, she went back to Corpus to attend Del Mar College for two years.

Mrs. Martin met Ralph, her husband, at Del Mar, and they then decided to attend the University of Texas from which they graduated together. The Martins have one child, a one-year-old girl named Maurya.

Mrs. Martin is a dedicated individual interested in reviving our choir program.

Anton Band Has Greatest Sound

Music filled the air at Brownfield Saturday during their annual Harvest Festival Parade and the sweetest music was made by the Anton High School Band under the direction of Vernon Williams. The 66-piece band placed first in the parade and won for the organization not only the first place trophy but a check for $100. The band was led by Drum Major Janet Synatzke followed by twirlers Judy Mott, Christi Stone, Kim Newton and Michelle Jones.

WILDCATS

by four touchdowns, was testimony to that. The Cats, if they have their dander up, will go into the Friona game rated about even with the Chiefs, who are 2-3 for the year. Littlefield's line-up will be about the same as the Olton game, with several starters still out, including FB Danny Estrada and Guard Chuck Blevins. Tackle Brad Nace is expected back for some action, but Tackle Pat Boone and Guard Lynn Wright are still down with injuries.

Wildcat season statistics show Ralph Funk the leading rusher with 283 yards in 63 carries, but Estrada has the best average, 15 per carry on 12 tries for 180 yards. Leroy Danford has gained 162 yards on 38 carries. The Wildcats have out-first downed their opponents, 70 to 65, and are almost even in total offense, 1214 to 1382, but they also have lost 20 fumbles-- averaging four per game--to their opponents' total of 11. Defensive leaders for the Cats have been Nose Guard Larry Purdy, 43 tackles, 17 assists and three fumble recoveries; Rover Jerry Kemp, 30-7-0; HB Funk 29-4-1, and two interceptions; HB Dennis Hartley, 27-14-1; Tackle Kenny Pratt, 28-12-1; and LBBlevins, 23-12-0.

Leading the Chiefs are a pair of running backs, Wesley Clark, a 140-pound speedster, and Mike Royal, 180-pound fullback. The quarterback is Don Fortenberry, 155, and the other half is Bill Bailey, 170. Most of the linemen go both ways, and they include 218-pound tackle J.V. Finley; Mike Mills, E-CB, 155; Mike Taylor, guard, 175; Dennis Anthony, guard, 175; and David Carlton, C-LB, 160.

BULA'S BULLDOGS came home whooping Friday night after whipping the Patton Springs squad, 30-12. It was the Bulldogs' first win of the year, but unfortunately, it was not a district tilt. Ron and Jim Risinger, Gene Stroud and Larry Clawson were the Bulldogs that scored in Bula's first win. They led Bula to 17 first downs over the Springs' 10.

SUDAN will take to the road this week to face a cellar-living Hart team. Hart was defeated 53-0 by Kress over the weekend. Sudan's Hornets came back from a 21-7 defeat at the hands of Springlake-Earth to beat out a favored Vega Longhorn squad. A preseason coaches tally in District 3-A showed Vega was the first place vote of confidence, but the Hornets didn't believe this and shook the mighty herd off.

The Steers struck paydirt early in the first period, and the coaches looked as if they knew what they were talking about. Then the Hornets turned right around and tightened up their defense, they also went to work on their offense. In the closing seconds of the first quarter they began a drive that was to take them 60 yards to a second period score. Hornet running back David Weaver sprang away from the Steer defense for the 20-yard TD. Weaver also stayed around to kick the extra point for the Hornets.

Just a few minutes after the first Sudan score Weaver took a Longhorn punt and ran it back 52 yards to set up shop on the Horns 38. Eight plays later Bo Lance carried from about the eight for the Sudan TD. Weaver then kicked his second extra point. Vega scored once more in the second period and made a two-point play to tie the game 14-14, at the half.

Both Weaver and Lance scored another touchdown, apiece, in the fourth quarter. Both scores were accompanied by extra point kicks that were good off the toe of Weaver.

IN THE 3-A race Springlake-Earth has fallen behind. The Wolverines stand even with Vega, Sudan, and Farwell with a 1-1 record. Springlake-Earth will face Vega this week. This game will determine which of the two teams will be able to stay in contention for the loop race, for the loser will have a 1-2 record that would set them too far behind to catch up.

Springlake-Earth watched a powerful Bovina roll past them. Bovina upset the Wolverines 21-7. The sole score from the Wolverine side came in the second period to knot the score 7-7 at that point.
