THREE CARS INVOLVED

Woman Killed In Accident

A 23-year-old woman was dead on arrival at the Littlefield Hospital and four persons were injured, one critically, following a rear end two-vehicle crash that involved a third car just outside the Littlefield city limits early Saturday morning.

Mrs. Lupe Ortega was pronounced dead, her 3-year-old son Timothy was taken to the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, her 2-month-old son Andrew, was treated at the Amherst hospital, and the drivers of the first two cars, Gilbert L. Ortega, 23, of Lubbock, and Monte Phillips, 34, of Littlefield, were admitted to the Littlefield Hospital and were in "satisfactory condition at press time Saturday morning.

The first of the two separate accidents occurred about 12:45 a.m. 8 of a mile west of Littlefield on U.S. 84 when Ortega ran out of gas and pulled the 1966 Oldsmobile he was driving off the highway and onto the improved shoulder of the road.

The eastbound Ortega vehicle was hit from the rear by an eastbound 1970 Pontiac driven by James Monte Phillips. The impact of the crash totaled both vehicles and sent the Ortega car down the highway east where it stopped in the roadway. The Phillips car came to a stop in the right bar ditch.

Three-year-old Timothy Ortega, who was asleep in the back seat, was critically injured in this crash.

According to Highway Patrolman Weldon Parson's report, Ortega couldn't open his car door following the impact. Ortega said he climbed through the window on the left side and went around the car and opened the door on his wife's side.

Mrs. Ortega was holding 2-month-old Andrew, and Ortega was holding 3-year-old Timothy when the second accident occurred about a minute later.

Llewellyn Jones Jr. 25, of Lubbock was east bound in a 1972 Chevrolet when his headlights picked up the two unlighted wrecked vehicles. Jones swerved to the left when he saw the cars.

Mrs. Ortega apparently saw the car approaching and ran toward the median of the highway. She and the baby were struck by the Jones vehicle. Mrs. Ortega was pronounced dead on arrival at the Littlefield Hospital.

The infant was taken to the Amherst

Hospital by a private vehicle where he was treated and released.

Another passerby took the 3-year-old to the Littlefield Hospital, and he was transferred to Lubbock.

Phillips and Ortega, who both refused to go to a hospital in the ambulance, were later taken to the Littlefield Hospital by officers at the scene of the accident.

County Cancer Unit Receives Merit Award

The Lamb County Unit of the American Cancer Society has scheduled its next meeting for Littlefield Oct. 17, at 8 p.m. in the XII Room of Security State Bank, when next year's officers will be elected.

The organization met Tuesday night in the Thurman Lewis home north of Earth, with Melvin Rape of Olton, vice president, presiding in the absence of the president.

Bill McDavid of Lubbock, district chairman of the American Cancer Society, explained different phases for recruiting workers for the Society's program, and told ways of making the program more interesting.

The Lamb County Unit was presented a certificate of authorization from the American Cancer Society in recognition of its meeting all the standards of the Society. McDavid presented the certificate to Melvin Rape.

The county unit was also presented an award of merit for exceeding the per capita income goal for 1972.

An award of merit for outstanding service was presented to Mrs. Thurman

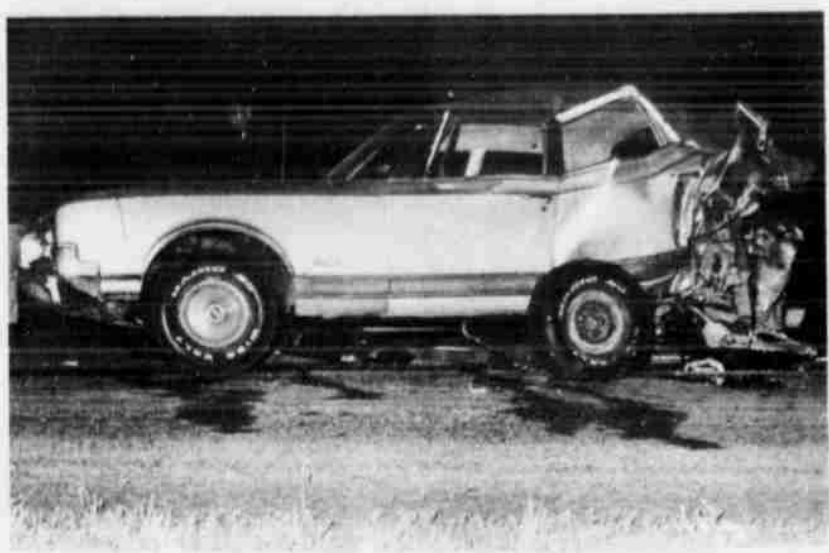

Lewis, who was chairman of a Lamb County unit, and whose unit collected more donations than any other city in the county.

Mrs. Bill Freeman was appointed to be in charge of the memorial fund at Citizen's State Bank in Earth, and anyone who wishes to donate contributions to the fund are asked to contact her. Mrs. Freeman will relay the contributions to the state office.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served to Mrs. Marshall Kelley, Mrs. Opal Lowe, Mrs. Marvin Sanders, Mrs. Henry Lewis, Melvin Rape, Bill McDavid, Ross Middleton, and Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Lewis.

SBA Representative To Hold Interviews

A field representative of the Small Business Administration's Lubbock district office will be available to interview and counsel small businessmen at the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce Thursday, Oct. 5, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A YOUNG MOTHER was killed early Saturday morning and two of her children were injured, one critically, in a crash west of Littlefield which involved three vehicles. The top photo shows the Ortega car after it was hit from the rear by a car driven by James Monte Phillips of Littlefield. Phillips is shown in the middle photo. Following the impact which knocked the Ortega car into the middle of U.S. 84, the car shown in the bottom photo struck Mrs. Ortega. Mrs. Ortega was dead on arrival at the Littlefield Hospital. Her 2-month-old son she was holding was only slightly injured. A 3-year-old son is in critical condition in a Lubbock hospital from injuries received in the initial crash. (Staff Photos)

"We were young, single men glad to find something different to do, but that maize heading contest turned out to be work! And if you didn't handle that maize heading knife right, you could get cut. Several of the contestants had cuts on their hands and arms."

No entry fee was required for the contest. Preliminaries were held in the morning with the finals in the afternoon. Each contestant was given a half-mile long row to head.
As each contestant headed the maize, the heads were thrown into a wagon pulled by horses. The load was weighed at the end of the row. For each maize head left on the row, the contestant was penalized 10 pounds.

The contestant with the fastest time, least amount of heads left on his row, and heaviest weight was judged the winner.

A large crowd of spectators witnessed the various heats of the contest. An even larger crowd, estimated at 1,500, gathered in the streets of Anton during the afternoon as the results were tabulated.

E. A. Whitfield, a Lamb County farmer who lived near Anton, won championship and the $50 prize in the first United States Maize Heading Contest. He headed 860 pounds of feed in 54 minutes and left only one head on his half mile long row. The champ averaged 15.93 pounds per minute.

The rules required a judge to ride on each contestant's wagon. Lee Stone was Alvin Whitfield's judge.

"Now days $50 may not seem like much money," Whitfield remarked about his prize money, "but back when people worked for $9 a week, $50 was lots of money to give away. Besides," he continued, "I won that private bet with my brother!"

V. E. Pritchard won second prize of $25 heading in his own field. Pritchard cut 920 pounds in 61 minutes and left only two heads of maize on his row.

Horace Hutton of County Line won third place and $10 with 590 pounds net in 41 minutes, leaving six heads of maize.

A. C. Evitt had the best time of 40 minutes. Ray Stephenson brought in the heaviest load of 1060 pounds and E. E. Whitfield, brother of the winner, brought

Parents Slate Back-To-School

Parents of Littlefield students will be observing back-to-school nights this week at 7 p.m., with the P-TA serving as hostesses.

Parents of Primary students will visit the classrooms Monday night. Tuesday night, Elementary I and Junior High School will be open for visitation.

Elementary II and High School visitation is slated Thursday night.

The P-TA is sponsoring a contest among parents of kindergarten through the sixth grade students. Students in the room with the most P-TA memberships percentagewise will receive a free sundae from the Dairy Queen.

The Wildcat mascot will go to all Primary rooms Monday during school for a visit with the students.

According to P-TA President Brenda Wilkinson, all parents are urged to bring books of savings stamps for the purchase of several types of balls for recreation periods at school.

Construction began Saturday for two swing sets and a cat walk on the Elementary I and Primary playgrounds. The Lions Club has donated a slide and merry-go-round for the grounds, and these will be erected at a later date.

County Bale Count Set At 110,000

Lamb County's cotton harvest is teetering on the brink of a record harvest despite a jittery start, hail and recent inclement weather.

In the latest cotton yield estimate made here Thursday by the Lamb County ASCS office, agricultural officials are sticking by the 110,000 bales forecast more than a month ago.

The extension office predicted 105,000 bales in an official estimate last month.

According to Richard Newman, county executive director of the ASCS office, these figures will give leeway both ways. "But we're hoping the yield will be higher," he said. "With a little luck farmers in this county have some cotton that can kick out an unreal harvest."

In areas that didn't get hailed out there is some two in two out cotton that can make more than a bale to an acre.

While the harvest looks good, grade and micronaire will be critical factors when it comes to the price per pound.

The recent cool, wet weather is expected to take its toll. Most farmers are hoping for another month of warm weather before a killing freeze hits.

Anton Study Club Hears Crime Report

ANTON—"In Texas alone in 1972 during the football season, $90,000,000 left our state never to return," said Officer Burt Sinclair, Safety Education officer of the Department of Public Safety in a speech before members of the Anton Study Club Monday night.

Officer Sinclair spoke to the club on the subject of "Organized Crime". He gave enlightening information on the extent of crime in Texas. He said three types of criminals operate in Texas. The criminal who conspires with one or two others to violate a law, usually minor crimes; the Dixie Mafia which extends from coast to coast which is loosely organized violent men who are psycho robbers and killers and La Costra Nostra—Mafia which is made up of 26 Italian descent families who own and operate most of the criminal activities in the U.S. One of these men is now living in Texas.

He said, "We know he is here, but we do not know why." The source of the power of the Mafia is secrecy and money. The main source of their money is gambling.

He continued, "It is estimated that seventy-five thousand dollars will be bet on Tech and $50,000 will be bet on Texas in the Lubbock area through bookies for the Saturday game."

He stated that law enforcement in Texas needs three things, an oral confession law, a wire tapping law governed the same way as the search warrant law, and electronic surveillance law also governed as the search warrant law. These laws are needed to aid in the arrest and conviction of persons engaged in organized crime.

Sixteen members and Miss Kim Newton, guest, were in attendance.

Kim gave a summary of the activities she took part in at American Legion Auxiliary Girls State held last summer at Texas Lutheran College in Seguin.

During the business session, the club voted to contribute $25 to Girlstown USA which is the Caprock District, TFWC project for 1972-73. Mrs. Orval Williams reported on the district reporting workshop she attended at Lubbock last Saturday. She is chairman of the Gerontology Division of the Home Life Department of Caprock District.

The next meeting will be Monday, Oct. 2 in the home of Mrs. Pat Byrum.

Miss Patricee Byrum will show slides and tell about her participation in the Church of Christ Campaign for Christ in Europe last summer.

Less Waste

"LESS WASTE" should be the aim of individuals, business enterprises and government.

Do you suppose that anyone has a tally on what is lost through waste? Forgetting about business and government, let us think about ourselves and the waste in our individual life pattern.

SOME WASTE is inevitable, but it is evident that we waste too much. Some of the lack of time about which so much is said is caused by the waste of time.

A big part of private financial difficulties, about which there is a growing concern, is attributable to the waste of money. We waste so much of everything.

WASTE IS SUCH a strange part of human behavior. It is such unnecessary loss, and is a constant source of difficulties.

Living would be better for most of us, perhaps for all of us, if we did not waste so much of life and all that is associated with living.

THE NEED IS NOT for more time, more money, more energy, more opportunity; in most instances, but for greater diligence, and for better use of these things.

We must make sure to stop the waste. There is an urgent need for less waste.

WE CAN STOP WASTE in our personal life sphere, and this is what we must do. For example, to whatever extent we do stop wasting time, it is just like being given more time.

The same is true about all of the other important things, including money. We will actually have more of the things we think we need, when we reduce waste of what we already have.

"WASTE NO, WANT NOT," waste makes woeful want. This came into being to describe the learned from the experiences of people.

We usually limit this material possessions, but it applies things which can be wasted. At the time, and then we say that we do not have time to do some of the important things. We waste our opportunities, and the lack of opportunity.

There is no way to estimate the extensive loss caused by waste. We take better care of the good things.

WASTE IS MORE THAN because it cannot be separated from total life structure; it cannot be set aside. It can and does under every essential element of an life.

It makes the capable man capable; it is a blot on the character will fragment one's integrity, a handicap a life which would otherwise be very capable and useful.

"LESS WASTE is the source of time, more life, more money, opportunity, and more of energy that is important to all of us.

WASTE, IF CONTINUED, will toll which none of us can afford, we lose so much more than just waste.

County Precincts Redistricted

During the regular meeting of the Lamb County Commissioners Court recently, a motion was made, seconded and passed that the Commissioners' Precincts would be re-districted for the purpose of more equally dividing the roads.

As it stood, there are 1,200 miles of county maintained roads. Out of the 1,200 miles, Precinct 3 had 85 more miles to maintain than the other precincts. Now after the re-districting, all commissioners have 300 miles each.

From the 85 miles that was taken from Precinct 3, 33 miles went to Precinct 1, 27 miles was transferred to Precinct 4 and the balance to Precinct 2.

It is the belief of the court that this division will give each citizen in the rural area a more equally maintained county road.

Also, in order to meet the new metes and bounds of the commissioners' boundaries, a new Lamb County Voting Precinct was added. It will be called Box 16.

It was agreed by the court, in compliance with Art. 2.04, Sec. (A) of the Texas Election Code, that a notice of the boundaries of the voting precincts and the commissioners' boundaries to be published in map form in the Lamb County Leader-News for three consecutive weeks. This notice will be a brief description in general terms, without the necessity of including in such notice the field notes or other detailed description of the boundary lines.

The metes and bounds on the published map for the County Commissioners and the Voting Precinct shall prevail over all others, effective Jan. 1, 1973.

Spade Woman, Fieldton Man In Rural Wrecks

Mrs. W.A. (Johnnie) Tindal was injured early Saturday morning when she was run over by the pickup truck while driving.

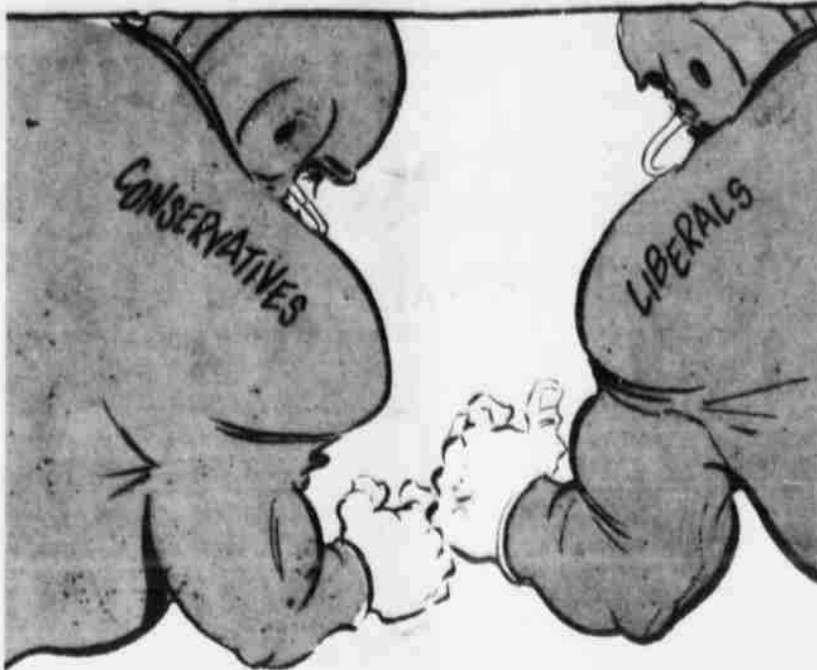

According to the investigating highway patrolman, Weldon Proctor, Mrs. Tindal was at the intersection of 168 and a county road about five north of Spade, and about two north of her home, when she appeared out of her pickup for some reason. The vehicle was left in gear or in into gear and knocked her down and over her leg. She was discovered by passerby saw the pickup backing circles.

Mrs. Tindal was taken to a Local Hospital by Hammons ambulance where her injuries weren't believed to be serious.

Donald Wayne Cowen escaped Thursday night when he hit a sign at intersection of FR 37 at Fieldton. Cowan said he went to sleep.

The right front of the 1972 pickup was driving hit the sign and ruptured gas tank and the pickup went into grain field.

He was brought to the Local Hospital for treatment of lacerations to his chin.

"GET THAT BALL!"

... CONTEST

in the second heaviest load of 980 pounds.

Other contestants were E. L. Caplin, T. E. Wood, R. L. and E. P. Pascal of Lubbock; V. E. Pritchard of Plainview; J. C. Grace Jr. of Arizona; Joe Sooter, W. B. Sooter Jr. of Shallowater; Fred Overman of Whiteface; W. A. Wilkinson of Sudan; Horace Hutton of County Line; E. W. Wright of Texarkana; B. H. Coston of Slaton; R. J. Wade of Whitharral; A. C. Evtitt, Leonard Shaw, Rudolph Dubec, Parker McBride, Ray Stephenson, G. E. Jackson, Clarence Bundick, Floyd Watley, E. E. Whitfield and Louis Dubec.

The second and final National Maize Heading Contest was held in 1941. Stricter rules were set up by the Farmers and Merchants Club of Anton.

Each contestant paid a $2 entrance fee and each contestant agreed to finish heading his row, win or lose.

The second contest was a two-day event with the preliminaries on September 24, 1941. The winner of each heat then entered the final day of the contest September 25, 1941.

J. V. Ratliff of Spade emerged champion. Paul Tullis, local farmer was a close runner-up.

The record for the first three winners was J. V. Ratliff, first place, time, 13.50, 205 pounds maize, left three heads, averaged 13.50 pounds per minute.

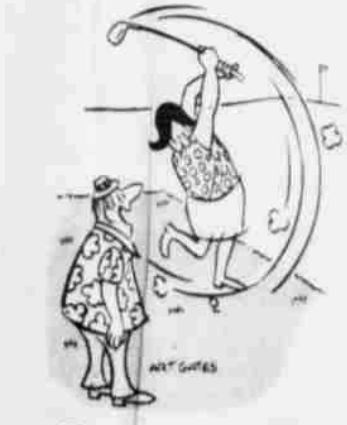

Paul Tullis, second place, time, 16.10 230 pounds, left two heads, averaged 18.61 pounds per minute. R. R. Pritchard, third place, time 16.50, 225 pounds maize, left five heads, averaged 11.88 pounds per minute.

Red White took consolation in this contest. He had a good showing except in heads left. His time was 19.50, 230 pounds, left 104 heads, and headed 24.71 pounds per minute. Red said he asked his judge if he was leaving many heads. The judge replied, "Quite a few." Red thought he said, "Just two," and he headed up a little faster. Due to the increase of Red's speed, he left a total of 104 heads of maize which penalized him 1940 pounds. When the awards were given out, Red received a $5 cash prize for making the poorest showing in the tourney.

The consensus among the contestants interviewed was that the main reason for entering the contest was "fun". For the crowd of visitors who thronged to watch the contest, the main attraction was "fun".

Due to the start of World War II, the contest was discontinued as many of the area residents were called away for military service. After the end of the war, the contest was not renewed. The development of the short stalk maize which can easily be cut by the combine caused the contest to be terminated. Thus one of the manual jobs of the farmer has been chased out by automation and some of the "fun" taken out of the rural life.

"That's much better. You kept your eye on the ball."

believe me, there are a lot more drunks in a dry town than there are in wet ones.

I don't know who all the concerned citizens are and I do respect them for standing up to what they believe. But I wonder if there are any in this present group that were in the group of concerned citizens that turned thumbs down to South Plains College when the college wanted to come to Littlefield. Littlefield had first choice. Lucky for Levelland, they could see the Silver Lining as they looked into the future. In 1957 Littlefield and Levelland were almost the same size. Now look at the difference. This semester is my 5th semester to attend college at South Plains in the evening. Whoever they were, I want to thank the Concerned Citizens of then that turned thumbs down to South Plains College for my having to pay out of district tuition fees, the 50 miles I travel per night to attend classes and also the wear and tear on my car.

Like them, I also am a concerned citizen, a concerned Citizen for Progress.

Sincerely yours,
s/Lawrence Macha

Dear Editor,

I'm all for legalized liquor. What's wrong with legalizing something that is already here.

Oh, there will be a few changes alright. Our young people will be unable to get liquor. Or at least not as easy as now, anyway. And of course there is always our taxes. (They just might not go up!) Also we might draw some out of town trade. To say nothing of a few more stores going up. Oh yes, there may be a few new jobs created, too.

I've learned by experience if you live where you can get liquor easily, you don't buy it in large quantities. You can go home to drink it, therefore you don't have as many people drinking and driving or throwing beer cans on the road.

Anything easily accessible is soon taken for granted anyway. So why would it cause anymore drunks. Those that want it that bad will drive as far as it takes to get it anyway.

I would love to see Lfd. growing and prosperous once more wouldn't you?

Surviving are a son, James Bowen of Hurst; six sisters, Mrs. L. J. Watkins of Arlington, Mrs. Mattie Marshall of Fort Worth, Mrs. Ann Furr of El Paso and Mrs. Jimmie McArthur, Mrs. Lilen Hendrex and Mrs. Betty Reeves, all of California; three brothers, Carl Coggins and H. L. Coggins, both of Fort Worth and J. C. Coggins of Euless; and three grandchildren.

Three Break-Ins Reported To Police

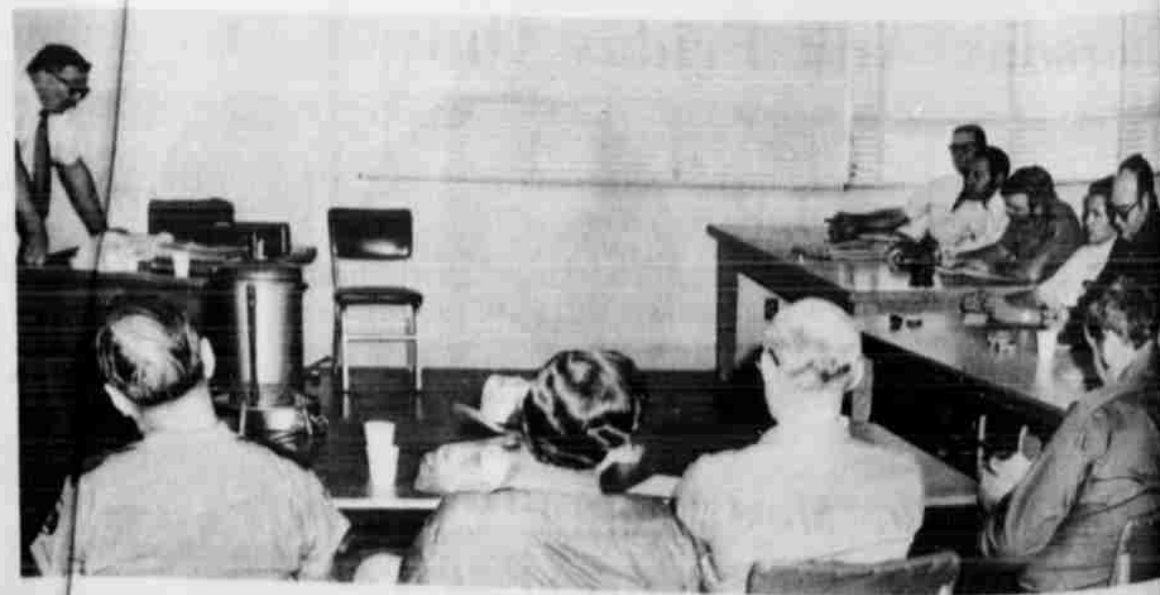

City police officers have investigated three break-ins the last portion of the past week.

Early Thursday morning, between 4 and 5 a.m., entry was gained to the Curly Top Drive In through a window at the order counter. Taken were 10 Snicker candy bars.

Sometime Thursday night or early Friday morning, entry was gained to the Lamb Wrecking and Garge through a broken window in an office door on the south side of the building.

Taken were a dark gray Remington adding machine, valued at $100, an electric clock and Dr. Pepper. Damages resulted to the Coke machine when the door was pried loose, and all drinks were taken.

Sometime Thursday night or Friday morning, a citizen on North Sunset reported that entry to the Triangle Cafe was gained through a window to the kitchen on the west side. Taken were a gum machine containing gum and money, a prize machine, approximately 20 pennies, all candy and chocolate pie.

TOM O'MALLY of the FBI at Amarillo instructed the last class of "Criminal Investigation" for law enforcement officers, which was conducted in the courthouse this past week. FBI officers who instructed Monday sessions were Lee Stephens and Ben Harrison of Lubbock. Earl Cullum of Dallas taught the Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday classes. Officers who completed the 40 hours of study include, left to right, Mason Benton, Gary Lightfoot, Jimmy Esquivel and Sheriff E.D. McNeese. Presenting the certificates was Jim Ford. Others receiving certificates were Police Chief James Cox, Judge Noble, Officer Kermit of Sudan, Wayne Cooper, Kerby, Jerry Collins, Johnny Gregg, Sydney He training assistant for SPAG at Lubbock, and Nelson Jaco.

Dear Sr:

Having lived a number of years in the wet precinct of Oak Cliff in Dallas, it was my good fortune to see the citizens there get their craw full of the blight legalized alcohol brings, and voted to dry out. They became weary of homicides, DWIs, and ambulance sirens—even back then before crime was a lucrative and secure profession.

This issue calls to mind the saying, "I've been poor and I've been rich, and believe me, rich is better." Same goes for legalizing the sale of liquor. Having seen both, there is no doubt in my mind—dry is better.

Sincerely,
s/Warren R. Donworth

Dear Editor

I feel that as a concerned Freedom Loving American Citizen I must express how I feel about the actions the so called "Concerned Citizens" are taking.

The democracy of our great nation was founded on the premise that "all" the people wanted, and are given the right to express their opinion on all issues by their vote, so our founders established our constitution and separated the government from the church.

Now there are some of the church leaders (from which we don't get one dime in taxes from their multi-million dollar organizations), who are, thru all kinds of slanderous threats of harassment and intimidation are trying to prevent people from signing a petition that only gives you and me the right to cast a secret ballot as to how we feel about liquor in Littlefield.

I have no quarrel with the right of the dries expressing their opinion and trying to influence everyone they can to vote dry, but I do get really upset when anyone, for any reason, wants to deny me or any American the right to vote. In the majority of the world today the people have no right to vote on anything but thank God this is one of the rights we still have left. How in the world can we have or keep a free country if we allow any group to intimidate our businessmen by threats of loss of business and by outright slanderous harassment if they sign a petition to give everyone a right to vote.

If we allow this to happen on this issue, it could very well happen on any issue and soon we might not have a right to vote on anything just because some group thinks it is wrong.

Sincerely
C. E. Hauk

Dear Editor,

I believe that there should be some corrections made on some of the letters that you have been receiving. I noticed where Jerry Burke has been doing some book work on the liquor issue. Apparently he's reading the wrong books. First of all, it doesn't cost over $3,000.00 per year for license. The first year the cost is $2,000.00, second year $1,500.00, third year $1,000.00, fourth year $500.00 and $500.00 per year thereafter.

And as far as beer being sold at high school football games, forget it. There is a state statute prohibiting the sale or consumption of any alcoholic beverages at any kind of school sponsored sports event. The school itself regulates this.

Also Jerry, there is more than one man backing this liquor petition. As far as increased crime is concerned and extra policemen needed, I can't quite buy that. In the 1960s I was stationed as a law enforcement officer in two Panhandle cities of about the same size, 25,000 to 30,000. One was wet, one was dry. The dry city had 4 more city policemen than the wet, 2 more highway patrolmen than the wet, 3 more deputy sheriffs than the wet. The wet city did not have a liquor control agent stationed there. The dry city had one. There was one constable with no deputies in the wet city. The dry also had a constable with one deputy to assist him.

I have lived in large and small cities and towns, wet and dry. And you can

Meet The Minister

Ellen Dietz and Martha Watkins

The Foursquare Gospel Church, located at 715 Phelps Avenue, had been out of service to the community for a while until Ellen Dietz and Martha Bell Watkins came here from California to begin their first pastorates.

Mrs. Dietz is a native of Kentucky, but was reared in Southern Illinois. She received her Bachelor of Theology degree from LIFE Bible College in California. She spent one year in Jamaica, and most of her 10 years in the ministry have been spent in Christian education in Wyoming, Michigan and Long Beach, Calif. before she came to Littlefield June 28, 1971.

Mrs. Dietz graduated from LIFE Bible College in 1971 one day after she became 60 years old. "This fulfilled a lifelong dream," she reminisced.

Mrs. Watkins has spent 50 years as a lay minister in Santa Barbara, Palm Springs and Los Angeles churches. She was the student body vice president while attending Bible School.

"We believe God is prospering the work here, although it has been a slow growth," she stated.

Mrs. Dietz commented, "When we came out here we expected to stay." Both of the ministers remarked about the friendliness of the people in this area and both enjoy the clean air, compared to the smog in California.

Mrs. Dietz has two daughters in the ministry. Her oldest daughter was instrumental in establishing the Palm Springs Church 22 years ago, and her other daughter works in the church headquarters. Her son lives in San Diego. She is proud of her seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Watkins, who has been a widow since 1955, has no children.

She serves as the bookkeeper and church secretary, and reports the church has had a recent record high attendance of 41 persons. They began the work here with virtually none, and the church now has 18 members.

Mrs. Dietz enjoys gardening, crocheting, doing different kinds of crafts, and likes to paint walls. The two are currently doing some paint-up on the church property.

Mrs. Watkins likes to knit, crochet, do bead work and especially enjoys spending time in the kitchen. She says she hopes to teach this fall in the primary or elementary grades.

Dear Abby

Lovebirds, keep Johnny out of the house tonight

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Ralph and I have been married for 10 years, and we are still very much in love, but here's the problem: Ralph is "scheduling" what used to be our beautiful and romantic moments, and I don't like it. He says, "No romance until after Johnny Carson."

Abby, sometimes I don't want to stay up to watch Johnny because I have to be up at 6 a. m. sharp every day. Ralph stays up to watch the whole show no matter what.

I think he's being selfish, and he thinks I'm stubborn. I'd like your opinion. And in case you think this is a gag, I'm signing my full name, but please don't sign me . . .

DEAR GAL: If your husband isn't turned ON when Carson is turned off, you need more help than I can give you in a letter. I'm afraid the honeymoon is over when the boob beside you ignores you for the tube.

DEAR ABBY: As a supervisor in a typing pool, I have consistently informed my girls that there is no such word as "reoccur," and the word should be "recur." Now, to my horror, I find that you have used the word "reoccurring" in your column, and since you are an expert, I feel that there must be some basis for using the word, or you would have printed it in your column.

Please restore my faith in you, and inform your readers where we can find the word "reoccur." It does not appear in my copy of the American College Dictionary. Sincerely,
MYRNA IN COLUMBIA

DEAR MYRNA: You will find the word "reoccur" on page 1923 of The New Webster's Third International (unbridged) Dictionary. It's between "reoccupy" and "reconscience." I make my share of reoccurring errors, but I'm not one of them.

DEAR ABBY: I do not drive a car, so I do a lot of walking. My problem is that I have been threatened, frightened, and nearly bitten by dogs. How does one defend himself against dogs without appearing ridiculous?

I can't always carry a cane. Besides I've been told by a dog that sees a cane, he knows it's a weapon, and the carrier practically invites attack.

I know there are laws where I reside, stating that dogs must be on a leash, but nevertheless I see plenty of loose, and worse yet, they see me.

DEAR ABBY: Will you take a tip from a veteran mail carrier who has picked many a bone with a dog? He says the government provides each mail carrier with a can of "spray," which is an animal repellent. Also, instead of a cane, carry a leather belt with a big knot in the back end, and if a dog attacks you, give it a good clout on the nose with the knot. Also, never turn your back on a dog, run, for he'll surely attack you. Finally, if you are in a dog's territory, as to the dog's friendliness, check his tail. If it's wagging, reach for the spray!

DEAR ABBY: I wonder if any of your readers are bothered by the same thing that bothers me. When shopping I will often look up and see someone watching me. I realize that with all the shoplifting going on, they have to watch people, but you would think they would have trained personnel who could do this subtly so as not to make our customers feel they are being spied on.

A friend of mine who works in a supermarket told me that he was told to keep his eye on me! (I have always talked to my lawyer about this.)

If I am suspicious looking it must be from a complexion. I am shy by nature and do not like to look people squarely in the face. I can't help it. It hurts to think I'm not trusted because I would never steal anything.

Thanks for letting me get this off my chest.
INNOCENT BUT LOOKS GUILTY

DEAR ABBY: I think I have an even more confidential for the person who says, "I'll tell you something very confidential if you promise not to repeat it."

Say, "Don't tell me. You know I can't keep my mouth shut any better than you can."
STEVEN

CONFIDENTIAL TO HARRY IN DUXBURY: While hereditary factor in baldness is of prime importance, agree, proper hair care will help a man keep his hair longer. But let's not split hairs, Harry.

Mules Kick Cats, 42-14

By ANDY ROGERS

There is supposed to be a silver lining behind every cloud. And if one looks hard enough and long enough, one just might find one on the Wildcat's 42-14 loss to the Muleshoe Mules.

It was a meeting of two undefeated teams with identical 3-0 records, and in the end, the Mules emerged with their fourth victory over a class 2-AA team. The Muleshoe team looked impressively strong and well-disciplined.

Muleshoe beat the Cats at their own game, with long runs and a bruising defense that made few errors.

The silver lining is really quite obvious in the fact that the Wildcats, down by 28 points, never gave up. They were out-manned by a very good AAA ball club but the Cats definitely played 48 minutes of football Friday night.

The wind was blowing slightly when the game started, and the Cats chose to kickoff and go with the wind for the first quarter. Muleshoe took over from their own 27, and on the second play of the contest they demonstrated what kind of a game they play. David Wheat, only a junior but already a very fine runner, took the handoff and raced down the left sideline for 45 yards. Only a "come-from-behind" tackle by Pat Henderson stopped the touchdown. Three plays later, Ronnie Parker swept left end and raced into the end zone for the score. Wheat kicked the first of six extra points, and after two minutes, the Mules held a 7-0 lead.

The first quarter was all downhill for the Cats as Muleshoe scored again on an 11-yard pass, and Littlefield had to wait until the end of the second quarter to light up the board. However, they did drive to the Mule 21 before being stopped on downs.

The big play in that drive was a pass to J.E. Johnson. On third and seven from the 44, Bryson rolled left, got a good block from Henderson, and threw to Johnson—all alone on the 35. Although the pass was partially tipped, Johnson took it and managed to get to the 24 on his own.

With 4:33 left in the first half, Wheat again shocked the Cats with a long run. This one was from 73 yards out on an option play, and upped the score to 21-0.

The Littlefield team took the kickoff from their own 28. Lenearl Lewis carried on second down and picked up 18 yards to the 46. Henderson carried on the next play, and picked up seven yards and suffered a hip-pointer on the play.

The Cats got to the Muleshoe 32. Faced with a third down and three yards to go, Lewis grabbed the handoff and bowled over Wheat on the two for the score. Larry Hobratsch kicked the point after, and it looked like the Wildcats after being blanked for nearly two whole quarters, were ready to get something started.

The Mules had 43 seconds to drive 68 yards, but a 50 yard bomb shortened it to 18. Then from the nine another pass made its way into the end zone, and the score at halftime was a gloomy 28-7.

There was only one score in the third quarter, and it was the all too familiar Wheat that was responsible. He took a handoff and threw the football for a change, but the result was the same—a 41 yard touchdown.

In the final stanza, Johnson scored the only other Wildcat touchdown on a 32-yard draw play. The drive started on the Cat 24, and on this drive, the Cats looked sharp.

Muleshoe scored once more on a desperation pass with 2:14 left. The final score read 42-14.

Floydada Nips JV's

Littlefield's junior varsity won in every way except on short end of the 14-10 score when they hosted Floydada here Thursday evening.

Mike Cotter kicked a 19-yard field goal to make it 3-0 at the end of the first half.

Floydada went ahead in the third quarter when they intercepted a pass and ran it all the way back. The extra points were good, and it was 8-3. Littlefield led 10-8 early in the fourth when QB Richard Barton scored a TD on a one yard run.

Then Littlefield's punter fumbled the ball on the punt and Floydada sacked it up and took it in for another score.

Fullback Jerry Soria led the rushing for the Littlefield JV carrying 16 times for 84 yards. The JV also cited QB Barton on defense.

Praised for offensive plays up front were guards David Bevins and Meredith Boyd and tackle Ben Farmer.

Defensive tackles Eddie Yoakum and Jimmy Sandifer, secondaries Ricky Hodges and Buddy Jungman also got the coach's nod for their fine jobs.

Littlefield made 14 first downs, gained 204 yards rushing, 23 yards passing and completed two of nine passes.

The JV travels to Lubbock Saturday to play Lubbock High in a 10 a.m. battle.

DALLAS COWBOYS

The Dallas Cowboys (2-0) meet the Green Bay Packers (1-1) today in Milwaukee County Stadium. The Cowboys defeated the Giants in New York last Sunday, 23-14, while the Packers were downed by the Oakland Raiders, 20-14.

The Cowboys' only victory over the Packers came in the teams' last meeting. That was on Thanksgiving Day, 1970, when Dallas won 16-3 in the Cotton Bowl. Prior to that, the Packers were 6-for-6 against the Cowboys, including triumphs in the NFL Championship Games of 1966 and 1967.

The Cowboys have 16 players who were on the roster when the Packers won the famous "Ice Bowl" for the NFL title on Dec. 31, 1967. In Green Bay, eight Packers remain from that team. Vince Lombardi's last Green Bay squad and the club that won the last of the Packers' unprecedented three straight World Championships. The nucleus of the fierce Dallas-Green Bay rivalry is there.

The Cowboys have won 12 in a row since starting the streak that carried them to their first World Championship last January. Dallas is tied with Washington for first place in the Eastern Division of the National Conference, and Green Bay shares the lead with Minnesota and Detroit in the NFC Central.

The major Dallas concern thus far is a pass defense that ranks last in the NFC. The Giants' Norm Snead burned the Cowboys last Sunday with 55 and 94-yard touchdowns passes to Rich Houston, the only touchdowns given up by Dallas in its first two games. The rushing defense ranks first in the conference, and Coach Tom Landry says it will have to be at its best when facing the powerful Green Bay running attack featuring John Brockington and MacArthur Lane.

The Cowboys are second in the conference in total offense—sixth in rushing and third in passing. The passing game received a boost last Sunday

FRIONA 47 Spring Lake-Earth 0

Springlake-Earth took a 47-0 defeat from Class AA Friona Friday night at Springlake-Earth.

The defeat gives the Wolverines a 2-2 record in non-conference play and also knots the ledger for Friona 2-2.

Friona started their scoring rampage early by chalking up 13 points in the first quarter and then went on to ice the win.

HART 35 ANTON 32

Hart rallied in the final quarter to take a 35-32 win over Anton Friday night at Hart.

Hart got on the scoreboard first when Jim Brown sprinted 53 yards on the fifth play of the contest. Wayne Eeheridge booted the extra.

Anton came back moments later with Alvin Williams scoring from the two and Brent Couch icing the TD with a two point conversion for an 8-7 lead.

Hart went ahead again when Brown tallied from the one about half way in the second quarter. The conversion failed.

Anton broke the game wide-open in the remaining minutes of the half, as Williams plowed over from the one, and Couch icing the TD with a two point conversion for an 8-7 lead.

Hart went ahead again when Brown tallied from the one about half way in the second quarter. The conversion failed.

Anton broke the game wide-open in the remaining minutes of the half, as Williams plowed over from the one, and Couch hit Brady Goen with a 35-yard TD pass. The two-points after touchdowns were good.

Anton padded their 24-13 halftime lead when Williams went over from the two for another Bulldog tally in the third quarter.

In the final minutes of the third quarter Hart controlled the ball and in the final stanza, reversed the game and scored 22 points for a three point edge.

when Billy Parks, who missed the first game with a sprained knee, came in to make four clutch catches against the Giants.

"Parks was the bright spot of our whole offense," said Landry. "He made the plays when we had to have them."

SHERIFF'S POSSEE PLAYDAY TODAY

A Lamb County Sheriff's Possee Playday is slated today at the Posse arena.

Registration for the events will begin at 1 p.m. and action will start at 1:30.

The competition is open to anyone, and persons do not have to be a member of the posse to compete.

FLOYDADA 17 OLTON 8

Floydada turned a 17-0 lead into a 17-8 win over Olton Friday night at Floydada.

The Mustangs broke through in the first two plays, but let them slip a 7-0 lead in the third quarter. Range Young charged from the two.

Keith Workman made by breaking loose and a dozen yards for a TD, and then trimmed the touchdown with a 90 conversion to narrow it to 10-8.

With seven minutes to go, Jerry Heaton yarded to ice the Floydada. Floydada is 3-0 this season and Olton is 1-2.

BORDEN COUNTY WHITHARRAL 0

Borden County racked points to down the Wildcat panthers 72-0 at Galena night for their fourth consecutive win and to top Panthers winless this season in eight months.

Borden county had 400 rushing, while Whitharral 70 yards.

THE HEAP is Joel Sinclair after he plows over one-yard line for Bula's final touchdown of the game against Union. Identifiable Bulldogs are Edward (64) and James Snitker (64).

GAME CALLED AT HALF

Bula Blasts Union, 63-7

It took Bula's Bulldogs only one half of a football game to dump Union, 63-7, in six man football and sent them back home at the intermission Friday.

The 45-point lead rule could have gone into effect at the end of the first quarter if it didn't state that the teams must play a complete half.

In the opening minutes of the game, Jimmy Risinger scampered 37 yards for his first of three touchdowns of the night. He then booted the two-point conversion.

Steve Newton was not to be outdone as he crossed the double stripes for his first of two tallies on a 17-yard sprint.

Risinger again booted for the two extra points.

Joel Sinclair crossed over on a 26-yard pass play for his first of three TDs to make the score read 22-0, with more than half of the first quarter remaining. Risinger kicked the PAT.

Kenneth Turney caught a bomb to complete a 30-yard pass play for another Bulldog score.

Risinger took a lateral from the mid-field strip and drove to the goal for his second score of the night, but failed with the conversion.

One of the highlights of the first quarter was when Sinclair snagged a Union aerial and ran back 60 yards for his second score of the night. The conversion was no good.

The second quarter yielded a new attack by Union as they attempted several long bombs, but the quickness of the Bulldogs' defense knocked down several passes in the end zone, although Union did plow in for a six pointer and ran the extra point for their only score of the night.

Newton crossed over for his third touchdown in the final minutes of the half by charging from the mid field strip. The PAT was no good.

Risinger got his longest TD of the night when he crossed over on a 31-yard pass play from Sinclair. The extra point attempt was no good.

The final tally of the game was a single-yard plunge by Sinclair. He then passed to Newton for a point after touchdown for the Bulldogs' last of 63 points earned in the six man grid battle.

Bula led not only on the scoreboard, but also in statistics as they led the first-down department 13-5, and led in penetrations 9-1. The Bulldogs racked up 435 yards rushing.

LAMB COUNTY FARM NEWS

Cotton Ginning Training Offered

Cotton ginning season on the South Plains will be getting underway within a matter of weeks; however preparations are underway at South Plains College to help insure that when the crops are ready for harvest that the area ginners will have a supply of trained workers.

The following is a schedule of where the courses are being held and on what days: Oct. 7-8, SPC; Oct. 9-10, Lamesa; Oct. 11-12, Tahoka; Oct. 16-17, Plainview and Oct. 18-19, Petersburg.

Instructors for the special courses will be O. R. Carey Jr., W. J. Wolverson and John P. Bock. Both are employed by Bock Electric and have considerable experience in repair of electrical equipment in cotton gins.

First Cotton Earns Premium

The gin paid 50 cents per ton for the cotton and per ton for the seed, hundred and forty dollars was collected. The ginners and individuals Arthur Hedges for the farmer Rodney Maxfield, Paul D. Bennett, gin manager and Tom Burton is the ginner.

AMHERST — Rodney Maxfield brought in the first bale of cotton, in Lamb County, in the 1972 season. It was ginned at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 25 by the Farmers Co-op Gin and weighed 508 pounds. The raw cotton weighed 2060 pounds, 880 pounds of seed. It was grown on six acres of Mrs. Sterle Harmon's farm.

The course includes applied math for use in cotton gins, basic electricity for cotton gins, cotton gin machine mechanics, and human relations.

Besides the classroom work, the students will spend much of their time in the cotton gins actually ginning cotton. The class will be familiarized with all aspects of actual ginning operations and procedures.

South Plains College will also offer a special series of short courses in basic electricity for Cotton Ginners over the South Plains Area.

These short courses are six hours each in length. Classes will meet from 7 to 10 p.m., two nights a week. These short courses are designed to assist persons who are already employed by cotton gins but who desire to know more about the work they are employed in.

On the same day, Rodney Maxfield brought in the county's first bale. The bale weighed 508 pounds and was ginned from 2,060 pounds of seed cotton.

Friday, Carl Reed pulled on the scales at Spade for his first bale of cotton. The bale was ginned Saturday.

This year's first bales are about two weeks later than last year. Last year the first bale was ginned Sept. 15, and the year before it was Sept. 9. All three years the county's first bales were ginned at Amherst.

AS FAR AS an official rainfall over the area, guess it will be hard to get one, because rain has varied as much as two inches within a mile in a single storm. In the southern part of the county, many of the farmers have reported more than 40 inches of rain this year.

THE SOIL is really wet. Noticed where some farmers are attempting to break some of their land and are having trouble getting the bottoms of their breaking plows to shed the dirt. All in all, it looks like we will begin next year rather wet.

DID YOU KNOW that in the Malaysian state of Sabah they have a rehabilitation center? It is designed to reorganize apes. If you have a pet ape and want him to live like an ape send it to the rehabilitation center so he can be encouraged and trained to eat bananas and climb trees and generally behave like apes.

HAVE YOU EVER had a day that just seemed unlucky? Perhaps it falls on one of the following days that is considered unlucky by early settlers who came to the New World.

From an old English source, here is a list of such dates, said to go back to the time of Henry VI.

January 1, 2, 4, 5, 7, 10, and 15. February 6, 7, and 18. March 1, 6, and 8. April 6 and 11. May 5, 6, and 7. June 7 and 15. July 5 and 19. August 15 and 19.

September has two days that are considered unlucky. They are the 6th and 7th. October 6th is believed to be unlucky.

WELL IT FINALLY happened. Yes, the area's first bale of cotton was ginned Monday at Pep. Conrad Demel produced the bale that weighed 470 pounds and was ginned from 2,000 pounds of cotton.

November 15 and 16, and December 15, 16 and 17 are unlucky according to tradition of some.

Of these unlucky dates, my wife was born on one and I believe that my mother-in-law was born on another.

NOTICED THAT THE commissioners' court is changing the commissioners' boundaries, thus giving each commissioner a total of 300 miles of road to maintain. Think this is a good move because especially this year when some parts of the county have had more than 40 inches of rain, it is rather hard for the commissioners in the larger precincts to maintain all of the roads as they should be. Maybe after the redistricting, all of us will note an improvement of our county roads.

TACT IS DEFINED by some as a rare ability to keep silent while two friends are arguing, and you know both of them are wrong.

The screwworm outbreak this year that gained national attention reviewed by John Armstrong, chairman of the annual committee. Armstrong told the cattlemen that Assistant Secretary R. E. Lyng personally assured him that some $2 million additional funds will be available so that Screwworm Eradication Project at Mission, Texas continue to operate. Mission plant was first cutback production of flies earlier this year limited funds.

The cattlemen were told that the TABC, with from the USDA will be more than 100,000 head of cattle a week at the shipping season, to control the problem.

Agriculture explains actions as individuals in an association they could stem the costly diseases sweeping the industry.

William C. Donnell, president over the session Sept. 23, and with Don C. King, TSCRA secretary-general, reported upon associated activities.

Farmcast

Compiled From Sources
Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Fall Harvest Underway ... Pecan Referendum Set ... Milk Production Shows Slight Increase ... Citrus Blackfly and Cattle Fever Tick Make Appearances.

With fall season approaching, Texas farmers are in the midst of cotton and corn harvest and are beginning pecan and citrus harvest.

Although yields are turning out better than expected for cotton, prices and sales of cotton are at a virtual standstill. For the most part, producers are apparently holding onto their awaiting the outcome of the present pricing situation. Cotton prices are now at or near loan levels.

For the state as a whole, cotton harvest is more than 25 percent complete. Corn harvest is more than 50 percent complete, grain sorghum harvest statewide is also more than half finished. Harvest of peanuts in the Blacklands and Cross Timbers areas is now underway. Rice harvest is virtually completed.

In South Texas, pecan harvest is getting started with an anticipated record crop of 70,000,000 pounds in store. The 1972-73 citrus crop continues to make good progress. Harvest of some early oranges has been reported. Grapefruit harvest should begin in early October.

CONTROL and eradication center has been located at Alice in Jim Wells County.

The infested area includes most of Jim Wells County, about half of Duval County and a small area of McMullen and Live Oak counties. Individual premises are under a quarantine established by the Texas Animal Health Commission in Dimmit, Nueces, Leon, and Kent counties.

Livestock producers who suspect their animals may have cattle fever ticks should contact the Texas Animal Health Commission at Austin or the tick eradication center at Alice.

MILK production in Texas during August was two percent above that of a year ago. Milk production in the state amounted to 278,000,000 pounds. Milk production per cow averaged 785 pounds, which is 15 pounds above a year earlier.

Nationwide, milk production is also two percent more than last year.

A NEW outbreak of the citrus blackfly has resulted in an enlargement of the quarantine in South Texas. Texas Department of Agriculture inspectors as well as federal inspectors are stepping up efforts to control the pest. Infested plants are being sprayed. The new outbreak is in an area near Los Fresnos in Cameron County.

Beef Carcass Show Slated

The Fourth Annual High Plains Fed Beef Carcass Show sponsored by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce is slated for Oct. 16 with $1,000 to be given in premiums plus $175 to feedlot managers.

Entry fee is $25 per pen. The objective of the carcass show is to identify steers which are efficient converters of grain to beef and produce carcasses which are closely attuned to all segments of the beef industry.

Entry blanks are available at the County Agricultural Office on the second floor of the Lamb County Courthouse.

Soybean Board Names Members

Three new members have been elected to the nine-member Texas Soybean Producers Board which administers a fund for research, disease and insect control, education and promotion of Texas soybeans.

Chosen by soybean producers to six-year terms on the board were Jack Witten of Edmonson, Hale County; Don Blacketer of Honey Grove, Fannin County; and Jack Soesser of Dayton, Liberty County.

They succeed Loyd Goldston and W. A. Mabry of Petersburg and E. O. Feagley of Littlefield, whose terms were expiring.

The organizational meeting of the new board is scheduled to be held in Paris October 17.

In a 1970 election, soybean producers voted to assess themselves a half cent per bushel for the fund which the board administers.

The election was authorized by Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White after a public hearing on the application of the Texas Soybean Producers Association.

SANTA FE DIVIDENDS

The board of directors of Santa Fe Industries, Inc., has declared a quarterly dividend of forty cents (.40) per share being Dividend No. 17 on the common capital stock of the company payable Dec. 1, 1972, to stockholders of record at the close of business Nov. 10.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Cotton producers across the belt are asking "What happened to our markets?" And, almost simultaneously, "What can be done about it?"

"There is an unfortunate but plausible answer to the first question, but the second is not so easy," according to Donald Johnson, executive vice president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. of Lubbock.

The carryover of cotton on Aug. 1 this year was down to 3.2 million bales, the lowest in 20 years and some 3 million bales below what most in the industry say is needed each year to prevent market losses to competing fibers.

U.S. production for 1972 is now forecast at 13.6 million bales, enough to satisfy this year's expected domestic and export offtake of 11.5 million bales and bring the Aug. 1, 1973 carryover back to over 5 million bales.

Are these facts alone enough to explain the drop in spot market quotations of over eight cents a pound since July 1 of this year? Do they constitute a reason why many producers in early harvesting

Wood Working Course Slated

An adult wood working course begins at Littlefield High School Monday, Oct. 2, with Byron Ford, instructor.

The 15-week course will cost $15.

Anyone interested in taking the course should call 385-6195 or 385-5612.

KNOW YOUR GLASSES

When buying sunglasses it's best to consider the quality of the lenses before choosing fashionable frames.

The Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness points out that since it is the frames which in most cases determine the cost of a pair of sunglasses, the most expensive are not necessarily the best. Poor quality lenses often contain distortions which put a strain on the eyes.

sections of the belt can't find a buyer for their production at any price?

"Obviously not," says Johnson. "The prospects for a 1972 crop of 13.6 million bales, coupled with the fact that expected offtake for this marketing year is expected to be some 2 million bales below that figure, is obviously a factor in the current market situation," he said, "but it is not the only factor."

Along with these statistics, Johnson notes, goes the fact that many mills contracted in advance for cotton to meet their needs well past the time when the 1972 crop will be fully available to the market.

"It was easy to predict that cotton prices would soften somewhat in July when prospects of a larger 1972 crop showed promise of easing the tight supply situation that developed last year. But this price softening was turned into a price nose-dive when mills, with no pressing need for cotton at the moment, withdrew from the market altogether."

"It is natural in a rising market, such as the one in late 1971, that buyers will rush to fill supply requirements before the price goes higher, and it is equally natural that they are reluctant to buy for future needs in a market that is going lower every day."

As for "What can be done about it," Johnson is of the opinion that preventive action should have been taken last fall when USDA announced provisions of this year's government cotton program, but that any remedial action that can be taken at this late date will be less than effective.

As an example of "preventive" action, he believes the loan level for 1972-crop cotton should have been set well above 19.5 cents per pound, the level announced by USDA in October, 1971.

He went on to say "PCG in early 1971 presented to USDA and to the Senate Subcommittee on Cotton an abundance of reasons higher loan level to producers against the fact that the legislative authority higher loan level, but avail."

PCG also urged raise the minimum price for stocks of cotton by the government additional means of up prices in declining situations. But this is rejected.

"Since that time," continued, "we have a lot of time and effort getting USDA to make effective use of the program in moving cotton to foreign markets, particularly the excess supply quality short staple cotton. In this respect we have been successful, but not enough to save off the dirt prospects we leave along."

Other organizations proposing that the loan for 1972-crop cotton be or that "emergency" some other form be used.

"But the sad fact is we are already into the next season, the damage short-sighted government policy has already done there is little or nothing USDA can do within its authority to alter the situation, and the Congress will not helpful legislation in short of a daydream," Johnson stated.

"But we can look for search out ways to prevent a recurrence present market situation. We can, PCG we will, insist on price protection for the level of the loan and resale policies of Cotton Credit Corporation."

And we can begin to develop in future programs a better to eliminate the inevitable disastrous prices we produce an adequate supply."

Register Boats With Spurious Marine Group

According to the Parks and Wildlife Department, the state's boat owners are being "touched" by the organization known as United States Marine. Marine does not exempt applicant from State or Federal registration requirements." The only boat registration Texans have to worry about is the one required by the Texas Water Safety Act and administered by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. The USMM is a private organization and is not connected to any federal or state agency. Located in Washington, D.C. it uses official looking stationery for its mailings to boaters.

The USMM seems to be working the state's major urban areas. Most of the complaints received by the Parks and Wildlife Department are from Houston and a few have recently been received from Dallas.

The scheme is reportedly under investigation by the U.S. Postal Inspector.

At $6 a head for the state's 400,000 boats, that's $2,400,000 in Texas alone.

4-H Week Proclaimed Within County, State

How often have we looked progress in the eye and then turned our backs because we were unsure which direction to go or which new method or technique to follow?

Well, 4-H is a venturesome organization of active boys and girls and these youngsters are constantly eyeing progress and taking the necessary steps to move forward and to grow and develop. 4-H is reaching out into new areas, involving youth with new interests and backgrounds, point out Lynn Bowerman and Bobby Brunson, County Extension Agents.

Thus it's appropriate that this year's theme of National 4-H Week, Oct. 1-7, is "A New Day - A New Way."

"4-H is reaching more and more of our youth across the state," says County Extension Agents. "It's reaching into urban areas and involving youngsters with a multitude of backgrounds, needs and interests. Thus 4-H has expanded its program areas to meet these varied needs and interests."

4-H actually has taken on a new look, according to Mrs.

Bowerman. Boys and girls are now encouraged to "do their own things," set their own pace, venture into new areas of interests.

4-H'ers are limited only their imagination, and that's what makes 4-H so exciting today. 4-H is also attuned to such present-day concerns as community development and improving the environment.

Although there now are more than 100,000 boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 19 enrolled in 4-H in Texas, many more are eligible to join. And with the upcoming observance of National 4-H Week, the call goes out to these youngsters to become involved in a real "action-oriented" program in 4-H.

Special programs and activities will be staged in counties throughout the state during 4-H Week to recognize 4-H'ers, their parents, friends and other supporters. This is a good time to learn more about 4-H and then to make the decision to invest a little time and energy to become involved in an organization that has something for everyone. Being a 4-H'er can mean the most exciting years of your life.

4-H is a part of the educational program conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M University. It is directed at the local level by county Extension agents who work with volunteer 4-H adult leaders and other local citizens.

Anyone interested in joining 4-H should contact the Extension office, 385-4004.

Salesmen Defeat Safety Devices

A surprising number of car salesmen are helping to defeat devices mandated by law to increase automobile safety, charges an article in the current issue of Consumer Reports magazine.

To encourage wider use of seat belts, one alternative of Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard 208 requires cars built after January 1, 1972 to have a warning light and buzzer that go on if the driver tries to drive away with his or the right front passenger's seat belt unbuckled. Unfortunately, says the Consumer Reports article, many car salesmen are all too willing to help motorists subvert that important standard.

According to the Consumer Reports article, one salesman said the dealer could disconnect the devices and two others said that the dealer might be able to. (A dealer who disconnects the devices before the car is sold is punishable by a fine of up to $1000 for each violation.)

THE INFORMED CONSUMER

'Are You The One?'

Thousands of Texans have received letters or legal-appearing documents recently stating that the sender has in his possession a copy of a will on an estate under probate. Usually these originate from an out of state source.

Of course the deceased has the same last name as the recipient. While there is usually some disclaimer such as "we are not attempting to state that the provisions set forth in said will have a reflection on you", just the opposite is clearly implied by the correspondence.

Typically the amount of the estate is not set forth but the impression is given that it is large. All of this conjures up a vision of inheriting a large sum of money from some unknown rich relative.

Not long ago thousands of families throughout the nation named Kelly received offers to provide information which could assist them in establishing a claim to an estate of more than $50,000 left by a Mary Kelly.

An investigation disclosed that every Kelly listed in certain telephone books received the same offer. And while the cost for the information was only $10, it still was a long shot bet that any of the Kellys contacted would be entitled to any money. Just as in the Kelly case, operators of schemes such as this normally sell information to literally thousands of families, usually selected at random, with no thought or intention that they may in fact be in line to inherit anything of value.

The cost of these worthless papers normally range from about $6 to $12. For this reason many unknowing people are willing to take a chance and then are reluctant to complain when they find they have been cheated.

HOMEMAKING TIPS

Preserving Nature

MRS. LYNN BOWERMAN
County Extension Agent

As the fall season progresses, we begin to wonder how we can preserve some of the lovely things, now in bloom or at full growth.

Many people plant a few gourds, to use simply as decoration, during the fall and winter season. But they do require special handling, to keep them attractive all winter.

Proper harvesting and curing methods are essential in order to preserve the color and attractiveness of the small decorative gourds frequently grown in the garden. The thick fleshy rind requires careful handling if they are to remain attractive for fall arrangements.

They should be picked when fully mature and before frost to reduce danger of spoilage during the curing process. The stem will shrivel and turn brown as they ripen. The rind will be hard but the outer skin will be tender. The fruit will usually be more attractive if a short portion of the stem is retained, so cut the fruit from the vine with pruning shears. Avoid bruising and scratching the gourds when harvesting as such damage will result in rot and unsightly spots. Using a cloth dampened with rubbing alcohol, carefully wipe each fruit to remove dirt and decay organisms. If the gourds are extremely dirty they may be washed in warm water using a mild soap or detergent. Use a household disinfectant in the rinse water. Dry each fruit with a soft cloth.

Place the clean gourds on a shallow slatted tray or open shelf in a well-ventilated porch, garage, or shed taking care that they do not touch each other. Turn the fruit daily and discard any that shrivel or develop soft spots.

After the first week of curing the skin will become hard and tough. They may then be stored in a shallow wood or cardboard trays in a well-ventilated room or attic for an additional three weeks to complete the curing process. Inspect every few days to remove any fruit which shrivels or shows signs of decay.

Do not store in a damp basement or in tight un-ventilated containers.

The attractive colors of well cured gourds will usually last three to four months. To enhance their appearance and prolong their usefulness for an additional month or two, apply a protective coat of white shellac, floor wax, or furniture wax to the dry, completely cured fruit.

The decorative gourds are especially attractive when used with fall and winter arrangements. They are extremely colorful when used in a fruit bowl, cornucopia, or as a loose arrangement on a table, chest, or mantel.

Judge Bean Colorful Lawman

Judge Roy Bean, the "Law West of the Pecos," was likely to handcuff prisoners to a handy tree 'til he could get around to a trial on his front porch. He reeled off decisions with the aid of a solitary law book, and backed 'em up with a six-shooter on the table beside him. Then to make it official, he made liberal use of his prized notary seal.

The old judge is long gone, along with the frontier Southwest he so colorfully represented. But his pistol, handcuffs, book and notary seal are now on display at the Texas Highway Department's Judge Roy Bean Visitor Center in Langtry.

The historic items, in private hands since Bean's death, are feature additions at the site where a slice of the old West is preserved in authentic detail. The relics are on view in a special case protected by an electronic security system.

Roy Bean wouldn't believe it. The weathered old "Jersey Lilly" his saloon-courtroom-billiard hall, is just like he left it. The State Legislature, in 1939, named it a historic site and directed the Highway Department to preserve it for tourists. Next door is the department's modern, air-conditioned Visitor Center. Inside the judge would find himself the star of a half a dozen dioramas, each with a special recorded program.

With his eye for the ladies, he'd surely go for the pretty travel counselors who are always on duty, especially since their favorite subject is the same as his: Roy Bean, and there, rigged up like the crown jewels—his pistol, handcuffs, law book, and notary seal.

The cactus garden outside would surely perplex the old judge. Neat paths lead to hundreds of cacti, yucca, and other Southwestern plants, each with a label of names and facts. Why in tarnation such bother for those pesky, thorny things?

But it's not likely that Roy Bean's ghost will be roaming the Visitor Center. There's one thing about it he just couldn't abide. It's all free. Imagine, folks dropping in every day of the week—from all over Texas, California, and even Canada—but not a nickel to be made. Thunderation!

Course, he'd probably be pleased that some old friends remember him. They're heirs of W. H. Dodd, a comrade of Bean's from the old days, and they made the Bean relics available to the Highway Department. Among them are Mrs. Pearl Dodd Nicholson of Langtry; William Harold "Bill" Dodd of San Antonio; Herbert Dodd of Uvalde; Cross Dodd and Mrs. Mary Hall Uzzell, both of Austin; Mrs. Dorothy Hall Frazee of Dixon, Ill.; and Mrs. Billie Hall Carey of La Crescenta, California.

Roy Bean says thank'ee!

Federal Grant To Aid State Education Agency

Fifty Texas counties, including Lamb County, which serve 65,000 children of migrant agricultural workers, will benefit from a Federal grant of $3,900,496 awarded to the State Education Agency by HEW's Office of Education.

Dr. George D. Hann, Regional Commissioner of Education for HEW's region VI, headquartered in Dallas, said the money comes from a 1967 amendment to Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 which provides special educational and supportive services to children of migratory agricultural workers.

Nationwide, the program served some 275,000 children at a cost of $65 million last year.

The programs are designed to try to make up for the frequently interrupted and ineffective schooling migrant children receive as they and their parents follow the crops.

The award announced represents about one-fourth the full amount—$14,014,787—requested by the State Education Agency and approved earlier by the U.S. Office of Education.

Payment of the remainder will continue in abeyance pending the appropriation of program monies.

The present award, authorized under a continuing resolution, has been limited to one-fourth the amount allocated to the State for fiscal year 1972.

This year, the Texas State Migrant Education Program will emphasize instruction in oral language, reading, and mathematics. Oral language development will also be stressed in a new program element specially set up for 4-year-old preschoolers.

Transportation, regular meals, and medical and dental care will also be parts of the projects.

The Migrant Student Record Transfer System, a computerized, nationwide information system which became fully operational over the past year, will make it possible for the students' health and school records to follow them from school to school in a matter of hours.

The computer system is operated in Little Rock, Arkansas by the Arkansas State Department of Education, where Federal funding was done about two years ago to collect data and establish the system.

Presley Image Changes

It's nearly 20 years since Elvis Presley first burst upon the scene as a pelvis-twitching rock star and we seem to have forgotten the insane initial public reaction to his emergence.

A section in "Elvis," the Warner Paperback Library book just released on the entertainment superstar, reminds of the petition demanding his banning on television, of the Michigan high school student expelled for refusing to modify his Presley-style haircut, of his being hanged in effigy in Nashville and burned in absentia in St. Louis, and of the eight students of the Notre Dame Convent in Ottawa who were expelled for attending an Elvis concert.

How times change.

Cub Scouts To Organize

OLTON—Troop 220 of the Olton Cub Scouts is open to receive interested boys, ages 8 and 9 years old, according to Wayne Phares, Scoutmaster.

A recruiting session will be held in the local Scout House Thursday, Oct. 12, at 7:30 p.m., when boys desiring to enter the program will meet with their parents for enrollment in the pack.

Monthly meetings thereafter will be conducted every second Thursday.

Ten-year-old boys with no previous cub experience may become members of Webelos.

As a fund raising project this year, Christmas trees will be sold.
