Summer Irrigation Postponed

Monday night's rain averaged 1.8 over Lamb County with some sections of town inside Littlefield city limits receiving more than three inches.

Lamb County soil Conservation Service personnel said they toured the county in every direction from Littlefield Tuesday morning and that the average rainfall was about 1.8 and "just what the famers needed" in most cases.

With many producers getting ready to begin summer irrigation, there was some talk among farmers Tuesday of making a crop without having to irrigate.

The Littlefield radio station recorded 2.8. In the Cannon Terrace area, 2.5 fell, and 3.1 were measured in the Crescent Park Addition.

Monday's rain brings the year's rainfall to as much as 21.65 in Littlefield. Littlefield received a total of 24.04 last year and only 10.61 in 1970. A 46-year precipitation chart shows Littlefield's annual rainfall is 18.85.

More Profit In Rocks Than Growing Crops

band.

There's rocks in them thar hills out by Bull Lake. And while there's no gold, there's more money to be made in crushed rocks that come out of the 320 acres that overlook the Lamb County lake than if the rocky farm was irrigated land with a good cotton and feed crop on Bill Perry oversees the operation that digs and crushes 12,000 to 15,000 yards of crushed rocks and caliche annually. The present operation has been "rocking" along for a long time now. Perry started his operations in 1966 after buying out two "little old ladies" who were handling the business.

Prior to moving to this site that surrounds Bull Lake on two sides, Perry said they were on the Jake Rice place eight years. "We spent $75,000 just on royalty only while over there," Perry said

The land they are working now is part of the Badger estate. Besides the royalty leases, the nine-man payrolls runs around $1,200 a week. Add another $6,000 to $7,000 a month for fuel, hardware and other supplies purchased in Littlefield for an idea of how much the little business contributes to Lamb County's economy.

Products from the operation leave the site in lots varying from a tub full to 30yard truck loads.

A nursery in Clovis sends trucks over on a regular schedule for crushed rocks used in lanscaping. A paving firm at Hobbs buys all their gravel and caliche from the Bull Lake operation. And a hot mix company in Lubbock keeps truck drivers busy making runs out to the lake.

Some people come out to buy one or two big rocks for landscaping purposes, but most buyers want the rock crushed in sizes from a fourth inch to one and quarter inch.

More and more rocks are being used in yards to cut down on grass mowing Tar paper, clear plastic and a load of rocks can end grass cutting chores.

Perry said there's 20 feet of solid rock at the site after stripping 16-18 feet. The rock is blasted with one stick of dynamite and 35 pounds of fertilizer to the hole. "Oh, it's really amonia nitrate," Perry said. "but 1 call it fertilizer.

The dynamite has electric caps which are set off with an electrical spark. Blasting must come to an abrupt halt on days when there's a bad sand storm, since the blowing sand can generate enough electricity to set off a charge.

Perry said blasing is done early in the morning for two reasons. First, before the wind gets up, and secondly, before people get out on the lake. "Lot's of curious people come up here from the lake to see what's going on," Perry said. "Especially on weekends. We haven't had an explosive accident, yet. You're just allowed one of those things.

THERE'S THAT SAYING - that "Politics makes strange bed-fellows!" - Seems we saw them all together, down Miami way this past week.

Never realized that there were so many of the "Minority Groups." Wonder where the middle, taxpayin' American was, and who was representin' HIM? Looked as tho the minority has the rest of us outnumbered!

WE'LL HAVE TO SAY this for the nominee, he's a pretty smart cookie. He knew just what strings to pull, and who was to do the pullin'. When you stop to think about it, there must be an advantage to being able to dictate the rules for a convention, while you're runnin' for the office the convention is pickin' the nominee for!

And he knew just what each group wanted to hear. However, as his nomination began to look like the cinch it was, many of these goodies began to go unmentioned. 'Course, he WAS challenged by a group of protesters, about his weakenin' on the "Stop The War' promise, and that before he was nominated! - It was too late, however, for that to cut any ice, besides, it would take a lot of soberin' up, before many people would notice!

HE ALMOST HAD ME on his side for awhile there. That promised $6,500 per year guarantee sure was enticin'. But by the time success was in the bag, he'd said: "Let's not set a definite figure on that' - let's leave it FLEXIBLE!" Spoken like a true politician.)

After he was nominated, he had the unmitigated gall to say, "We're gonna put ALL America to WORK! - Now, just a minnit there, fella; - If THAT'S not

That was against everything he'd advocated up to that point! I betcha he lost more votes than mine when he said that!

Anyway, the picture was really nice, for a while. - Free medicine, annual income guarentee, upgrading, and giving respectibility to the "Odd-People" legalized abortion, amnesty for our dear deserters, no tax money for the building of armament, instant end to the Vietnam thing, and all our armed forces home before next memorial day. - Oh, yes, and every child would be bussed to the finest schools! - Not to mention womens lib.

A chicken in every pot, and EVERYONE would HAVE a pot!

When all the hangovers are hung-up, and the people return to reality, we'll still have to say: "It was a beautiful dream, WASN'T it?" - A real trip!

I MISSED MY prediction concernin' Mr Kennedy, and I apologize. I predicted that he'd stay in the shadows, til the opportune time, then come rushing to the salvation of his beloved country and party.

He didn't have the chance.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE Good Order

By BOB WEAR

BEATURES

GOOD ORDER SHOULD BE our aim in our personal life, in our work, in the management of our personal business and in our environment, so far as it depends upon us. This aim is easily within our reach.

IT IS A WORTHY AIM, and must be pursued with sincerity and patience. If we are too intense and too pushy, we will be self-defeating. There is no reason to try for, or expect perfection.

In fact, we must not make the mistake of equating "good order' and "per-fection," because they are not the same

GOOD ORDER IS the foundation of all good things." -Burke.

WE SEE EVIDENCE every day that disorder is the bane of everything worthwhile. It makes one's life ineffective and inadequate. It is the great waster of our precious time.

Frustration is a constant companion of disorder, and becomes the source of discouragement, discontent, weariness, disappointment and such like. Disorder makes our work more difficult, our er, our da and multiplies our problems; in every conceivable way.

Even if this is all we are able to do, it must be viewed as a great and rewarding accomplishment.

WE MUST NOT PERMIT the disorder that is so widespread in our society to spill over into our personal life structure. Disorder is rampant, but we have a choice between good order and disorder for our personal life style.

Of course, we would like to see less disorder everywhere. Regardless, we can know the joy and satisfaction of "good order" in our manner of living.

GOOD ORDER is a source of personal power, because it gives us the best of our time, energy and ability. It also enables us to make better use of our opportunities, and make fuller application of ourselves to everything we do. Good order in our lives strengthens the spirit of confidence, and empowers our will to do.

Parks and Wildlife Commissioners presented Texans twin surprises with the announcement of the purchase of beachfront property in Jefferson County for development as the state's second largest park and a decision to buy the controversial, long-debated Mustang Island property in Nueces County for another beach park.

The Jefferson County purchase of 14,360 acres includes a five and a half mile waterway to the beachfront with a vast saltwater marsh inland. The $2,154,000 purchase lies due south of Port Arthur and stretches from the intracoastal waterway to the Gulf of Mexico.

Palo Duro State Park, in the Panhandle near Canyon and Amarillo, still holds its ranking as biggest of the state parks with 15,103 acres.

The Mustang Island purchase, delayed by court wrangles for nearly two and a half years, if no new stumbling blocks sudden appear, will cost about $600,000 less than the original $4.2 million asking price of the island property owner, Mrs. Sam E. Wilson Jr. of Corpus Christi.

The amount of property involved is less than the original 3,965 acres the state was looking at. Seems a survey of the property revealed the state already owned some of the property. Per acre price, however, remains the same -$1,100.

Announcement of the Mustang purchase came after Parks Commissioners asked Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin if he was sure he was right when he ruled earlier the state has a legal binding contract with Mrs. Wilson to purchase the property.

Martin agreed to review his own opinion, did, and told Parks Commissioners he was right the first time.

Dear Mr. McKinnon:

Dear Mr. Editor,

head.

Thank you very much for your letter. However, I believe the article you are referring to concerns the oil industry as a whole, and not any one particular individual. There are many, many individuals in the U.S. with riches that would make the kings of yesteryear envious. . . and certainly not all of these people want those loopholes left in our tax laws, so they can continue to pay no taxes

The oil holdings I have seen of just one man, and pictures of more of his property would make the kings of long ago envious. This man needs government help to keep his tax loopholes. He's in a sad way economically, bless his multi-millionare needy heart

HIGHER EMPLOYMENT

More college students - both full and part time - are working. Census Bureau figures show. Latest statistics disclose that nearly 37% of full time students were working, an increase of 12% in 10 years. The number of part time student workers jumped from about one-third to nearly 40% during the same decade, the data shows
