

Loyalty Day Rated Big Success Here

Customized flag waving, patriotic displays in parade floats, and potato salad and iced tea served under the shade trees in the park were the highlights of the second annual Loyalty Day observance here Saturday.

The spring day, big crowds and active participation in the Loyalty Day observance in this All-American town made for a complete success, Mrs. Bonnie Spade, VFW Auxiliary president said.

More than $1,000 was added to the Band Boosters' bank balance from the noon and supper pit cooked barbecue meals. All of the Littlefield bands played open air concerts while hundreds of Littlefield and area residents ate barbecued beef with all the traditional trimmings at picnic tables under shade trees in the park.

Commander James Rice of the Littlefield VFW said this year's parade was bigger and better than last year's, and that next year it is hoped more will participate and it will no longer be necessary to explain the "why" for a Loyalty Day parade. "We hope that in our own small way we can bring back the pride, love and respect that seems to be forgotten in this day and time," the commander said.

More than 500 dollars cash was awarded to winners in the float competition, and plaques presented for participation to the clubs, bands and the Drum and Bugle Corp that enhanced the parade.

The Sigma Phi sorority's float "Praise America" won first place and the $75 prize. A float with the theme "America, the Land of the Free" won second place and $50 for the "We, The Women" float. Leveta's Beauty Shop placed third and received the $25 prize for a float with the theme "Freedom's Symbols."

Prizes were presented to the Drum and Bugle Corp from Sheppard Air Force Base and to the Littlefield and area bands for participation.

The Texas Redwing Senior Riding Club took first place trophy winner. Second place plaque went to the New Littlefield Riding Club; and the Floydada Riding Club won the third place trophy. The Lubbock Rangers got the first junior trophy. The riding clubs were presented by the American Association of Riding Clubs and Riding Club rules and regulations.

30 ENTRIES OF LOCAL TALENT

Girl Scout 'Hootenany' Scheduled Friday Night

Johnny Cash and June Carter will emcee the Girl Scout sponsored "Hootenany" in the Littlefield Junior High Auditorium tomorrow night, Friday, May 7, at 8.

In lieu of the celebrated personalities, Stanley and Janice Aaron are filling in for the real Johnny and June Carter, and the much sought-after downtown Lubbock Lions Club Clowns will be on hand to keep things going at a brisk pace.

In addition to 30 entries of local talent, additional entertainment will be provided by a baritone quartet made up of Dr. Aaron Williams, Captain Daniel Hudson, and LHS students Glen Timmons and Marty Mangum. Square dance caller Cliff Smith will spark the between entry fun, too.

Admission to the Hootenany is 50 cents for students and $1 for adults.

EARTH INVENTOR GUS PARISH

'Poppa Gus' Has Ideas

If a better mousetrap is ever built, it will probably be built by a man in Lamb County, "Poppa" Gus Parish, who has already come up with some unique inventions.

Poppa Gus already has a popular exercise wheel on the market and a boot jack that is used all over the nation and has been praised in letters from "Festus" of "Gunsmoke" and Gov. John Connally. The boot jacks have metal prongs that serve as a vise to remove and also put on stubborn boots.

Parish came to the Earth-Springlake area in 1923 and operated a garage until 1927, then he established a hardware store and implement business. He planned for a son, Gus Jr., to follow in his business footsteps, but the son was killed while serving with the Marines in the South Pacific during World War II.

Another son, Doug, is manager of the company and with his father owns 51 per cent of the stock. Seven other family members co-own 40 per cent, making it quite a family business affair.

Poppa Gus is semi-retired but stays busy around the farm and office and his workbench, a very spacious one that Doug provided. Although Poppa Gus was slowed down physically for 10 years due to a heart attack, mentally he has produced quite a few useful items and was responsible for getting the family into the pump business.

The company has a reputation for having the best all-purpose irrigation pumps that can be obtained. A feature of their pump is a patented-Parish flow switch that is automatic with a mercury-actuated control that cuts power immediately when water flow diminishes. Earth-made Parish pumps are operating in thirty five states at present.

A Lubbock foundry manufactures the parts for their pumps but they are assembled at the Earth plant and the precision parts installed there.

Parish's most recent project is a windmill that in spite of the high winds so common in West Texas, is controlled by a revolutionary vane (tail) that regulates the wheels and pump rod strokes. Although the wind is gusting with powerful force, the Parish mill calmly turns 25 strokes per minute—quite a switch from the usual sight of other mills going full speed and pumping uneven water streams.

Since the dry weather situation exists, Parish things its time to put his windmill on the market and he plans to do just that very soon.

There are still approximately a million and a half windmills being used and about five thousand are replaced yearly. There are now only two manufacturers of windmills in the United States. Inquiries about the mechanism have been coming to the Parish place from all over the nation and the world and much interest has been shown in this area because of the dry weather.

Maybe the next project will be a better mousetrap, but don't be too surprised if Poppa Gus builds a better spaceship for trips to the moon.

From the twinkle in his eyes and the smile on his face there's no telling what he might dream up and build next.

EVEN IN "hang onto your hat" winds, Gus Parish's windmill pumps about 25 strokes per minute. "Poppa" Gus stands by a windmill tower at his home south of Earth. The slow pace of the pump rod in high winds is the result of the vane or tail that acts as a governor. Conventional windmills pump 40 or more strokes per minute in high winds. This churns up sand that wears out windmill parts and causes an uneven flow of water.

Your Mom 'Greatest?'

Boys and girls who think their mothers and/or grandmothers are the "greatest" have an opportunity to win $25 cash for themselves and $10 in gift certificates for their mother or grandmother.

The Leader-News and 12 Littlefield businesses are sponsoring the annual "Greatest Mom" contest again this year.

Any mother or grandmother in the Littlefield area may be nominated by any boy or girl 14 years old or under. The Littlefield area includes all of Lamb County, Anton, Whitarral, Pep and Bula communities.

With each nomination, state in 25 words or less why your mom or grandmother is the "greatest."

All entries must be mailed or brought to the Leader-News or any of the 12 participating stores by 5 p.m. Friday, May 7. The winner will be announced in this newspaper, Thursday, May 13.

PICKUP DRIVERS MUST BE 21

Farmers Get Federal Safety Rules

LAH RODGERS

New federal requirements for farm vehicles go into effect, farm drivers will get whacked with a far-reaching act that will put farms under the safety regulations as steel mill and automobile assembly lines, and allow a search of farms for a bevy of safety hazards.

Some of these regulations include requiring anyone driving a pickup to be at least 21 years old, pass a road test, take an annual federal motor carrier safety examination, carry a medical certificate within the past 24 months, and file with employer a complete history of employment, experience and education.

In addition to these proposals on pickups and farm vehicles, dozens of regulations on equipment, barns and outbuildings, and every facet of farming, will go into effect, it will require farmers match their farming practices to health and safety regulations laid down by the Secretary of Labor.

Anyone who violates a standard can be hit with a $10,000 fine and 180 days in prison for the first conviction. Repeat violators can be hit with a $20,000 fine and 360 days in prison.

The new regulations can require rollbars on pickup trucks and make it impossible to hire anyone unless a rollbar is installed. The Secretary of Labor could ban pesticides, issue standards on barns, feedyards and anything else on a farm, and all this power would rest with him alone without working through the USDA.

It is possible that all barns, etc. would have fire safety codes that must be used, the number and location on fire extinguishers, fire escapes, etc. Lighting standards will be announced, as well as other health possibilities like provision of sanitary toilets, hardhats and steel toe

Who Is Area's Oldest Mother?

Who is the oldest mother in the Littlefield trade area? The Littlefield Chamber of Commerce would like to recognize the senior citizen in the Littlefield trade area who is nominated as the eldest mother.

Names and ages may be turned in to the Chamber of Commerce secretary by phoning 385-4451 any time before the 5 p.m. May 6 deadline.

A big bouquet of red roses and congratulations from the Chamber on Mothers Day are awaiting the person named.

shoes, goggles, new shields and switches.

Since the Secretary could issue special standards for any situation, the age limit of over 21 for machinery drivers, formal training programs, and periodic medical examinations at the farmers' expense are included.

In the law, too, are labels or forms of warning on farm buildings and machinery and all sorts of new records to keep, and farms, along with most of the records open to agents of the Department of Labor vested with authority to inspect and investigate any places of employment and all pertinent conditions, structures, machines, apparatus, devices, equipment and materials and to question privately any employer, owner, operator, agent or employee.

Anyone of a farmer's employees can bring the Department of Labor in by writing a letter, and the Department will make a full investigation of a farm and keep the informer's name a secret.

If abused, the law will be rough on farmers. Union organizers could close down a farm on a moment's notice, even during harvesting or planting time, by finding so-called hazards.

Most farm organizations see "room for mischief" in the bill, and are pushing for an acceptable state program to free farmers of more Washington control since one way or another occupational safety standards for farmers are just around the corner.

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

VFW Post Says Thanks

Dear Bill,
The men and women of the V.F.W. and the Ladies Auxiliary Post 4854 would like to take this time to thank all the churches, organizations, riding clubs, and business establishments for making our annual Loyalty Day Parade a success.
We would also like to express our thanks to Sergeant McWhorter of Reese A.F.B. for making it possible for Sergeant Norwood and his 32 men of the Drum and Bugle Corp of Sheppard A.F.B. Wichita Falls, to be here.
The V.F.W. Color Guards, all Viet Nam veterans, are Royce Bussey and Rubin Ruiz-United States Army, Troy Tolbert-United States Marines, and Marvin Weaver-United States Navy. The Auxiliary Color Guard, included Stella Pugh, Bonnie Massengill, Jean Cheshier, Lillie Jarnagin, and Marie Matthew.
We know the Judges, Charles Barrett-Anthony's Dept. Store, Kenneth Ware-Ware's Dept. Store, and Doyle Patton-Security State Bank, had a hard time choosing the three winning floats. They were as follows-First Place for $75.00-Beta Sigma Phi; Second Place for $50.00-The Women; and Third Place for $25.00-Leveta's Beauty Shop. The other two floats participating were the Sunset Baptist Church, and our V. F. W. float. Several cars were decorated by the Hospital Auxiliary, Women's Club, and the Lion's Club and were driven in the parade.

Five riding clubs participated. They were from New Deal, the Texas Red Wings of Lubbock; the Lubbock Rangers, Floydada; and the Littlefield Sheriff's posse. The riding clubs had their own judges and were judged by A.A.S.P.&R.C. rules. The winners in this group were First Place Sr. Trophie-Lubbock Red Wings; Second Place Sr. Plaque-New Deal Riding Club; Third Place Plaque-Floydada Sr. Riding Club; and First Place Jr. trophie-Lubbock Rangers.
The Littlefield Wildcat Band and the Witharral Band marched in the parade and were given appreciation awards. A special appreciation plaque was given to the Drum and Bugle Corp.
This was the second Loyalty Day Parade to be held in Littlefield and we hope that next year more people will participate and that we'll no longer have to explain why we should want to hold a Loyalty Parade. We hope that in our own small way we can bring back the pride, love, and respect that seems to be forgotten in this day and time.
Thank you again for your help and we look forward to working with all of you next year, for even a bigger and better Loyalty Day Parade.

TOMORROW NIGHT'S "Hootenany" is filled with fun for everyone with clowns from the Downtown Lubbock Lions Club, and Stanley and Janice Aaron emceeing the show with their Johnny Cash and June Carter act. Cliff Smith will do a little hootin', and a local baritone quartet made up of Dr. Aaron Williams, Captain Daniel Hudson and LHS students Glen Timmons and Marty Mangum will provide entertainment between some 30 entries of local talent.

A WOMAN'S VIEW

Eager Youth

PEARL BRANDON

ONCE I HEARD a man talking about his son who was well on his way on the road of life and doing quite well.
He said, "I watched him pick his way along all these years, since he was a tiny little boy learning to walk. I tried not to help him too much. Many times I was afraid he was making decisions too far ahead of his years, but I let him alone. Occasionally he fell short. It was hard to wait for him to come to me for advice, but it had to be his decision."
AREN'T WE ALL like that? Afraid to turn our children loose for fear they will be hurt trying to work out their own problems.
We want to save them the pain and the heart-ache we have gone through. It seems we all have to learn for ourselves.
IN ORDER to wait we must have faith in the future and faith in our youth who are as capable (probably more so) as we were to solve our problems.
Life seems to be filled with so many dangers for the eager, inexperienced youth as he pushes forward...in this age trying to go too fast it seems to us.
THE BEST WAY we can help is to give them plenty of love, to live the best we can daily and to acknowledge our short comings to them. Believe you know we have them. Families need together.

Sometimes youth, as well as all so eager to go on they do not take to enjoy day by day living.
ONCE WE TOOK our little daughter to a kiddie carnival we had many kinds of rides such as trains, cars, boats and a merry-go-round. As she rode first one and then she was constantly pointing to the one she wanted to ride. She couldn't one she was on for looking forward to the next one she wanted to ride.
HOW VERY MUCH like her we don't enjoy the present for to project ourselves into the future.
We worry about what may or happen. The sun may be shining but we are afraid of what tomorrow bring. We are like children running ahead.
"Lord, let me live this blessed As I am passing through; To see the fresh new garden Covered with morning dew. May I hear the voice on trilling Flying against the blue; Let me enjoy this quiet time. As I commune with You."

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Looking Ahead

By BOB WEAR

WE CAN KNOW THE END from the beginning in many of the important aspects of life.
In fact, we have been given the opportunity to fashion the outcome of many things.
Of course, we must apply ourselves diligently in study and application of what we study. For example: -There is the law of sowing and reaping which, if wisely followed, enables us to control the harvest by the kind of seed we sow.
THE REGULARITIES OF LIFE tell us a number of happenings which concern us.
We can look ahead to the extent that we condition ourselves, and otherwise make preparation for the things we know are inevitable.
"HAPPY ARE THOSE WHO, knowing they are subject to uncertain changes, are prepared and armed for either fortune; a rare principle, and with much labor learned in wisdom's school."--Massinger.
The unpleasantness of the moment is permitted by many folk to cause them to give up, or turn aside from the way that would lead them to better days.
Others, looking ahead, endure the unpleasantness for the time being, because they can see the light of the future which lies farther along on this course; and they do not quit.
"ACCUSTOM YOURSELF to submit on every occasion to a small present evil, to obtain a greater distant good. This will give decision, tone and energy to the mind, which, thus disciplined, will often reap victory from defeat, and honor from repulse."--Colton.

Stumbling along best describes the persons who refuse to look ahead. They never seem to avoid the many stumbling blocks that are in the way they go. These people could live satisfactory lives, if they would stop looking back and picking flaws and finding fault with everything and everybody.
THE DISTRACTIONS and irritations which are a necessary part of the living experience are permitted to completely absorb the thoughts of many persons, and they cannot look ahead.
Stumbling blocks for some people become stepping stones for others. They keep looking ahead, learning from the mistakes they make and applying the most wholesome kind of self-discipline. Thus, they turn "stumbling blocks" into "stepping stones."

LIFE IS BEFORE US, if we have any life; and in a very real sense, we can fashion our future as we wish.
Of course, we must be wise; well disciplined and make full use of all that is available to us for guidance. It can be done; it is being done by many. We can do it, too.
"WHEN ONE DOOR closes, another opens; but we often look so long and so regretfully upon the closed door that we do not see the one which has opened for us."--A. Bell.

Looking ahead, with knowledge; enlightened faith; and diligent work; we move ahead to life fulfillment.

PAUL HARVEY

Hidden Costs

TO PARAPHRASE Sir Winston Churchill to fit this war, never have so many done so much for so few.
And above and beyond the obvious costs, our nation has suffered hurts which will never heal.
FOR MORE than a decade now the United States has been supporting Vietnam on your shoulders, and behind the fighting fronts the South Vietnamese have never had it so good.
A pedestrian in a Saigon street today is more likely to be hit by a Honda or a Mercedes than by a rickshaw.
RESIDENTS of the city are not hurting for food, appliances, even TV. And statistically they are safer walking their streets than you are strolling Manhattan.
You bought for the people of Saigon a fire-fighting system more efficient than that in most of our own cities.
YOU CREATED two dozen public health clinics, 10,000 new housing units.
The water purification plant which you built at Da Nang affords that city a better supply of purer water than is available in the average American town of comparable size.
You built countless roads and bridges, created 150,000 civilian jobs. And you continue to spend about $1 billion a year over there.
AND YOU HAVE transformed an un-uniformed, unequipped, ragtag army into a well-greased and fairly disciplined force of more than a million men. South Vietnam now has the eighth largest air force in the world, thanks to you: 50 squadrons flying 800 American-made aircraft, half of them choppers.

All this you have done for a knobby-kneed nation smaller than California.
The money we can replace, but there are hidden costs in this kind of war from which our own nation can never recover.
THERE ARE the 50,000 American men prematurely dead, and a half million armless or legless or both, or otherwise disfigured or sentenced to live out their years in a wheelchair or in a bed or in total darkness.
There are permanently debilitating diseases peculiar to an alien environment.
And from this frustrating, dead-end war tens of thousands of free Americans have been forever enslaved by narcotics.
AND AS IN no war heretofore, Americans have been reduced to putting bullets in the backs of their own leaders. Reluctantly the Pentagon admits that "fragging" - the lobbing of a fragmentation grenade by a GI with a grudge into the lap of his own officer - that this ultimately barbaric practice has killed many of those "noncombat" dead each week. How many, who knows?
Vice President Agnew says he fears a precipitous withdrawal from Indochina would be followed by a wave of isolationism in the United States. I should hope so.
FOR ALL THIS COST, the very best we can hope to leave behind in Vietnam - as in Korea - is the perpetuation of a military dictatorship. That is the best we can do for them.
We have paid an awfully high price for nothing.
Before we intercede again in the affairs of others, that must give us pause.

HOMINY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

HOW DO YOU write sensibly when you're boiling over inside?
How can you put your thoughts on paper, when, really, they're not nice?

The thing that's going on in our nation's capitol is enough to make an old timer turn over in his grave! To think that such Hooliganism is to be dignified by public acceptance and in the name "Constitutional Rights" is deplorable, to put it mildly!

WHAT HAVE WE come to, when a deliberate, pre-announced plan to paralyze our federal government is treated as a simple misdemeanor--(if treated at all). And its principals are defended as being "Antagonized by the police"??

If our Constitution defends such practices, then, it's time the thing was overhauled! And, throw in the supreme court along with the overhauling!

WHAT THIS COUNTRY needs is (not a good five-cent cigar) a set of lawmakers that are more concerned with protecting the statutes and dignity of this country, rather than trying to find all the loopholes in its constitution to make us look foolish and to protect the "Rights" of the incorrigible.

We're undergoing a revolution, and if our present laws won't protect the decent citizen of our country, then we'd better come up with laws that will, while decent people still have the power to make laws!!

CAN'T YOU IMAGINE the evil smirks of satisfaction on the faces of our enemies, as this outrage is taking place. Mr. Kruschev promised that they'd bury us, (and we're about ready).
If I remember, correctly, he said they'd defeat us from the inside (Not by open warfare)--Looks as if his dream is about to become a reality.

MEANWHILE, under the guise of "Constitutional Rights" these enemy agents are operating openly and freely right under our noses AND with the blessing of our Supreme Court!
Excuse me, I think I'm gonna regurgitate!!

THE PHILOSOPHER

Tapped Phones?

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm looks at the telephone tapping controversy this week.)

Dear editor:
Reports on tapping telephones, bugging offices, and other forms of eavesdropping have been showing up in every newspaper that turns up out here and I have given some thought to the situation.
As I understand it, some Congressmen are up in arms claiming their phones have been tapped and they want it stopped.
I have not listened in on any Congressional phone conversations but I have heard lots of Congressmen on television and sometimes it seems to me tapping their phones would be going to a lot of trouble for the returns you'd get.
While it is not considered phone-tapping, I have listened in on an 8-family party line and I can tell you right now there are far more interesting ways to spend your time. Unless you're interested in cake recipes and your neighbors' in-laws, it's hardly worth the trouble of lifting the hook off the receiver. I guess the worst job you could give an FBI agent would be listening in on a party line eight hours at a stretch.

As for bugs, I understand you can stick one of those on a wall in a room and it'll pick up everything said and broadcast it to a receiver in a car a block away. I know a man who lives in an apartment building in a city and he says what he's looking for is a bug that'll blot out everything yelled in the adjoining apartments, and that goes for rock-playing phonographs and violin pupils.
Almost on the same subject, I knew a combination station agent and telegraph operator in a small town once who called up a woman and told her she had a telegram and since it was raining would it be all right for him just to read it to her.
"Don't you dare open my telegram!" she shouted.
I don't know whether the FBI looked into this or not.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

LHS Speaks Out

By PAM BRANNON, JOAN TIMIAN, PATTI FOLEY and JANNA GILBERT

The question we asked this week is "What is now?" It baffled a lot of people because they didn't understand what the question meant.

We got a different answer from everybody. One person said "now is never." Another said "now is the time for world peace."

Here are some of the answers we got from the students:

Junior Castillo, (Jr.)-"Now is the time to be helpful, to be understanding and friendly with people."

Carol Chisholm, (Jr.)-"Now is, now was and now shall be."

Marsha Starnes, (Jr.)-"Now is today and tomorrow and all the other days to come."

Linda Hood, (Sr.)-"Now is what is."

Judy Curry, (Jr.)-"Now is something you can't capture for tomorrow."

Mr. Gilstrap-"The best years of our lives."

Becky Kirby, (Sr.)-"Now is never."

Joanna Rogers, (Sr.)-"Now is right this very moment, pronto and what my mother says when she gets mad."

Leanne Parson, (Sr.)-"Now is the present and the present is now."

Len Wright, (Sr.)-"Now is something that will happen now, not two minutes later."

Sue Davis, (Sr.)-"Now is what is happening, the time of day, the season, and now is anytime."

Grace Howard, (Jr.)-"Now is the time for world peace."

Virginia Vandenburg, (Jr.)-"Now is the time for self-expression."

Wrene Ratliff, (Soph.)-"Now is right at the present, but gone afterwards."

Paul Parsons, (Soph.)-"Now is what the whole thing is about. Who knows what the whole thing is about?"

Pam Brannon, (Jr.)-"Now can never be, because now is gone, and that now is gone, and so is this one. You can prepare for the now of the future, but once it is here it is gone. Now is never."

Donald Britt, (Soph.)-"Now is the incomprehensibly small amount of time (actually none) which we are always trapped in. Now is always changing as we change it and as it changes us. Think of now as a cage on wheels which carries us through time. When someone refers to now, they are actually referring to now as it existed when they said it."

Lord, before this day is done Grant me strength to tell someone.

Can you even say that you are looking forward to tomorrow? How do you feel - discouraged?

If there ever was a problem that engrossed the entire human race, it is the discouragement we face now. It can cause a lack of usefulness, a lack of progress, a lack of good judgment, and even suicide.

The most severe effect discouragement has on a soul is the attitude that it is helpless to improve and rise from its poor condition.

Just because one is a Christian does not mean that he will not experience some discouragement, but as Christians we know where to turn for our relief and help.

It can be the privilege of everyone to go to God. We so often wait until we are sick or even dying to a waken to our sins and feel sorry for them. Here is a prayer that we might pray:

Let thy Spirit work in me Miracles with their mystery. Let thy boundless power and might Make me worthy in thy sight.

Come, O Spirit, strive with me Till the pattern of destiny Printed on my soul's design Shows that I am truly thine. Keep me on the upward road, Never bending 'neath the load.

Holy Spirit, show the way; Brighten e'en my darkest day.

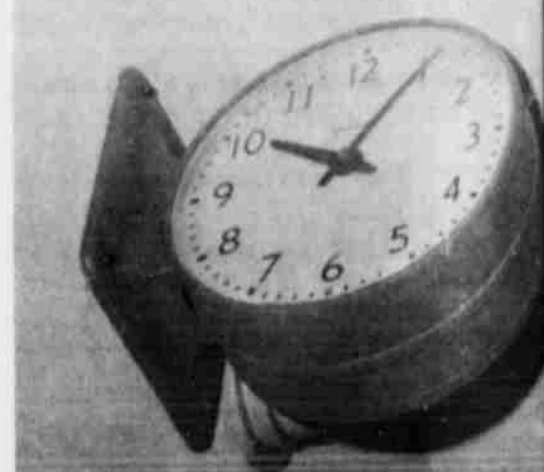

Give my lips salvation's song; Melodies to muse upon, Words to tell a neighbor dear, Words some lost one needs to hear.

Pardon, mercy, love and grace Come to those who seek thy face.

So are the perils of the beginning typist.

Trials Of Typing Students

The Typing I class comes into the room; and, of course, the lover boy of the class comes in late, as usual. After a killing look from the instructor, he sits down and remembers he has forgotten his typing paper.

Another glare from the typing teacher is earned as he leans over to borrow from his neighbor. As he starts to type his warm-up, the teacher says, "Type your name on two sheets of paper for your speed tests."

As lover boy gets halfway through his name, the teacher says, "Ready, type!" Poor lover boy, he's already behind before he gets started good. He types: Tje Car rAN; awRJJ, thk dat rsb SQAY. Bri-r-r-ring, there goes the bell. Now to tally his speed! Why this time it's only -78, up 13 from last time.

Now for the second timed test. Again lover boy types: Sgr cAs R a gax mq, and Rmg cug xong rns? This one is worse than last time-so had that lover boy starts crying.

After the speed tests are turned in, it is time to start work on the budgets. Lover boy is doing well until he realized that he has typed two letters on letter-head paper that should have been typed on plain paper.

Now lover boy jumps up from his seat and runs out in the hall screaming, "I-space H-a-t-e space T-y-p-i-n-g period space, space."

So are the perils of the beginning typist.

TO QUOTE a song, "Time Goes By So Slowly," and sentiments, or at least it seems that way to Senior Elliott, who's a clock watcher these days. Keep counting the minutes, Vickie, we only have three weeks and days to go!

13 Ways To Flunk

Flunking is not as hard as it may seem, especially if you're an expert. Here are 13 time-tested sure-fire ways to do it.

1. Never show up until you're at least half an hour late and try to think up a possible tardy excuse. Mr. Largent gets some doozies.

2. Let your hair grow long; and then when Coach Goubeaud tells you to get a hair cut, coolly inform him, "I am a girl!"

3. Accidentally burn up your textbook.

4. Throw bubble gum into Mrs. Reast's aquarium in biology class.

5. Write love letters in your American history notebook and forget to tear them out. Mrs. Betts loves 'em.

6. Read "The Catalyst" or "The Rag" in Miss Lovvorn's journalism class.

7. Sit in Mr. Wilson's chemistry class and answer your questions with a profound "Huh?"

8. Go down to the office fifth period and bug Mrs. Mangum. She hollers enough as it is!

9. Chew gum in Mrs. Lynn's English class. She might let you have another vacation.

10. Hide Harry Ford's desk and put an old doughnut in his bottom drawer.

11. Call Mr. Harris, Beryl D. to his face.

12. Tell Mrs. Smith you burned up your paper which you were supposed to correct. You really did burn it.

13. And last, but not least, leave poor Mrs. Houk to cope with the football boys in sixth period study hall all by herself.

Editor's Note: The idea for this piece of writing was taken from the Slaton High School page, "The Tiger's Cage."

A man, whose name was Joe Bill, played the bass drum in the town band. He went to a nearby town and bought a trap set, and had it delivered to his home. The set was delivered in a six by three by three foot pine box. It just so happened the box reached his house before he did, so the delivery man left it on the porch. Mrs. Bill, returning from a neighbor's house, saw the box and fell over in a faint. For on the side was a sign reading "This side up. Bill inside."

Ann C. - Where are your tickets?

Craig R. and Rob N - What happened to your houses??

Family Fun Night Observed At Earth

EARTH-The Earth Rodeo Arena was the scene of a "family fun night" on Friday night.
Games on horse back were played.

Included in the games were barrel racing, pole bending, flag and rescue racing for the children.

Rescue racing, husband and wife ribbon roping and steer roping.

A short business meeting was held to make plans for the Junior Rodeo April 30 and May 1.

A huge campfire was built from jack oak logs that Rev. M. B. Baldwin brought to the Roping Club recently from Grand Prairie.

Baldwin is a former pastor of First Baptist Church in Earth

BIGGEST INDUSTRY

Farming employs 4.6 million workers--as many as the combined employment in transportation, steel industry and the automobile industry. Agriculture's assets total $307 billion, equal to: about two-thirds of the value of capital assets of all corporation stocks on the New York Stock Exchange. The value of agriculture's production assets represents about $50,000 for each farm employee, so says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

A GAS outdoor grill gives food a tangy outdoor flavor without the time and bother of charcoal fire. Char-broiled flavor comes from the smoke of meat juices dripping on hot briquets. Charcoal itself provides no flavor.

Permanent ceramic briquets in the gas grill reach cooking heat in a few minutes, and there is no long wait to start cooking. The heat is regulated manually so there is no need to move a grill up or down.

The Backbone Of Business Today

The Credit Bureau is set up to serve the community. Both individuals and business can benefit by using it. The purpose of the Credit Bureau is to encourage the sound use of credit as an indispensable part of modern business.

Use the Bureau when you need a credit reference. For you see, the Credit Bureau is like your personal secretary, we keep a record of the credit transactions of Littlefield area residents.

Your credit experience is kept in a credit file. It is a list of your credit references. The file shows the way you pay your bills, any repossessions, past due accounts, and other information that pertains to credit transactions. Your file, good or bad, depends upon you. Past due accounts reported to your file stay on your record for several years. JUST ONE PAST DUE ACCOUNT CAN STOP YOU FROM BUYING A HOME, OR FROM GETTING THAT LOAN YOU NEED, OR FROM GETTING THAT NEW JOB YOU WANT. YOU MAY NOT NEED CREDIT NOW, BUT WHAT ABOUT TOMORROW OR THE NEXT DAY?

TAKE CARE OF YOUR CREDIT. IT WILL FOLLOW YOU IF YOU MOVE. Pay wisely, and pay promptly.

Clear Your Area To Avoid Snakes

Unfortunately, humans aren't the only creatures who emerged in the spring from their winter dens.

Snakes also like the warm sunshine and emerge to share the outdoors with campers, hikers and picnickers.

You don't have to go far to find snakes in the spring, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials. Some persons don't have to look beyond their back yard, especially if there is a rock pile, trash pile, stacked lumber, tree stumps or other debris close at hand.

These offer cover both for snakes and their food supply, and ridding the area of them will lessen the chances of an over-supply of reptiles.

Of the 103 species of snakes in Texas, only 16 are dangerous to man—10 species of rattlesnakes, four species of copperheads, coral snakes and cottonmouths.

Chances of dying in an auto accident are about 200 times greater than being killed by snakebite. But a bite can cause a great deal of misery and even permanent disability. Texas averages about 1,400 snakebites per year, and 24 persons have died in the past 10 years.

DORIS ASHLEY is set on the blocks getting ready to spring into as she warms up for her run in the state track competition. Doris compete in the 60-yard dash and the 100-yard dash.

the 100-yard dash. Her time in that was 11:5.

Miss Ashley holds the 100-yard relay girls' summer events with 11:0 unofficial best is 10:8.

This summer Doris will enroll in and will be a member of their track

SCS Employees Get Safe Driving Award

John D. Harmon, conservation technician, and Joe Blevins, conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service, Littlefield, received 30-year safe driving awards, respectively, this week. The awards were presented by Arnel Scott, area conservationist, Lubbock.

"This kind of safe driving record just happens," Scott said in presenting awards. "Its the result of defensive driving. You have set a day driving example that all of us try to follow."

Also Scott gave the Littlefield work an award for not having a previous vehicle accident in the last 15 years, another award for not having a personal injury from any cause in 15 years.

The Littlefield work unit gives assistance on conservation through the local Lamb County Soil Conservation District.

The awards for the excellent record were approved by Clyde Graham, SCS State Conservation Soil Conservation Service is cooperating the "ZERO IN on Federal Safety program whereby Federal agencies placing emphasis on eliminating causes of employee injuries calendar years 1971 and 1972.

Baby Boom Causes Concern

With a new baby boom beginning in the United States, reflecting the rising torrent of young folks reaching marriageable age, the question of population and family size is being widely discussed.

In Lamb County, how big is the average family? How does it compare with families in other parts of the country?

Now that there are nearly 25 million more people in the nation than there were 10 years ago and an even larger increase forecast for the next 10 years, there is concern in many quarters regarding housing, air pollution, jobs and the various other problems of a more concentrated society.

That concern has been recognized in Washington, where President Nixon has set up the "Commission on Population and the American Future," headed by John D. Rockefeller 3rd, to find out what we can expect in the way of population growth and how we can deal with its impact on living conditions.

In Lamb County, on the basis of the 1970 census figures, which show a total of 17,770 people in the area and 5,625 households, the average locally is 316 persons per 100 households.

Compared with most other communities, this is somewhat low. The average throughout the United States as a whole is 320 per 100 households. In the West South Central States it is 325.

As seen by Dr. Phillip M. Hauser, University of Chicago sociologist, the growing concentration of population, especially in urban area, poses a threat to the quality of daily life.

It creates health problems due to air and water pollution, difficulties with the disposal of waste products, traffic congestion, housing shortages and the like.

The commission appointed by the President will examine the effect of population changes on the environment and will even go into the heated subject of uncontrolled population growth.

To keep the population at its present level—no increase and no decrease—the average number of children born would need to be no more than 2.13 per couple, according to the Census Bureau. Currently the average is 3.18.

Three Thefts Investigated

City police are investigating three cases of theft, which were reported last week. Taken from a parked vehicle at the Speed Shop sometime Tuesday, April 27, were two mag wheels with tires.

Two pickup hub caps were taken from vehicles on the Mitchell Ford car lot sometime Tuesday, April 27 or Wednesday, April 28. They were valued at $75.

Sometime Friday night, a bubble gum machine was taken from Huckabey's Cafe. Police report that the machine had just been filled with gum, and that the machine probably had very little money in it.

AND THERE HE GOES!

The 1970 Houston Astros reached new club highs in base stealing. Not only did they wind up with the highest total of steals (114), but also they succeeded more of the time than ever before (a .736 percentage success in 155 attempts).
