A Room Full Of Cats And A Kitty

'S IT LIKE BEFORE A GAME?- - This was the scene in the Wildcat dressing room before Littlefield on Sweetwater Friday night. Mostly, it's a rest period, and time to talk, as Larry Purdy (67) and Keith (20) converse in background. But for Monte Trotter and a lost kitten who's made the last three games the Wildcats, in foreground, it's time for dozing, or a "catnap," should we say.

ANCINECS FOUND. . .

Sweetwater's Brew Too Strong For Cats

That special treat that Littlefield fans were enjoying at halftime in Sweetwater Friday night turned out to be a dastardly trick.

A 7-3 lead held by the Littlefield Wildcat football team when it went to the dressing room vanished into thin air in the last two periods.

Sweetwater's Mustangs conjured up five touchdowns and a safety to cap off a Halloween night victory in District 3-AAA play, 40-7.

It was such a turnabout that a Littlefield fan could imagine, if he thought a moment, the illusion of a scraggly old witch leaping upon her broom and rising right out of "the pit," a name applied in the past to Mustang BowL

But probably no magic was involved. If anything it was a half-time hex that cast a spell on the Wildcats as they kicked off in the third period.

What appeared to be an onsides kick wasn't.

"No, it wasn't on purpose," said Cont. Deverelle Lewis der the game." "We wouldn't do that with a four point lead."

When Sweetwater took over at its 45 and drove the distance in six plays for a 10-7 lead, then hit touchdown bombs on the next two possessions, the Wildcats must have wondered if they'd been run down by a truck.

In less than six minutes of the third quarter, that 7-3 lead had gone up in Rodney Phillips pounced on the ball following Randy Mitchell's first punt of the game.

An apparent "touch" of the ball by a Sweetwater player went unnoticed by the officials, who ruled Sweetwater's possession at the Mustang 35.

When Sweetwater punted a few moments later and Littlefield's Wendell Horn fumbled, the Mustangs had the ball at the Wildcat 16. But three plays later, following

LITTLEFIELD NURSE'S

Stolen Car Recovered

The car belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Monte Phillips of Littlefield that was stolen from the Littlefield Hospital parking lot Monday was found in Portales, N. M., Wednesday.

A nurse, Mrs. Nowlin Tubbs, saw two men about 20 years old prowling through cars parked behind the hospital about 10 o'clock Monday morning. When the pair saw Mrs. Tubbs watching them, they jumped into a red and white 1965 Portiac and spe wity.

Mrs. Tubbs go, the licerse number of the car and called police to report prowling by the pair, not knowing the car belonged to nurse Phillips. The license number was checked out and officers theorized the car belonged to the pair who drove off in the car since the car was registered in Amarillo.

Mrs. Phillips discovered it was her car missing about 12:30 when she went to lunch. Mrs. Phillips said the car was filled with gas and that the keys were hidden in the car and the pair probably found them while prowling in the cars before Mrs. Tubbs saw them.

Portales police found the Phillips car. with the gas tank on empty, parked on a bank parking lot in Portales after a 1965 Oldsmobile was reported stolen off the same lot.

Mrs. Phillips said the car seems to be undamaged. Because there was enough gas to go further than Portales, the pair probably took many back roads, she said

One false step and there would be 13,000 sheep with no leader."

Ancinecs stayed in Prague 10 days. "Prague is supposed to be the most beautiful city in all Europe," he said. "Maybe it is, but I have no use for big cities. I want to see further than across the street."

Ancinecs stayed in the hotel reserved for Americans and watched from the balcony the four to five hour parade that preceeds the festivities. "Those in the parade would stop and look up at us and wave and smile. I couldn't help but wondering if it would be the same if it were the other way around, or if there would be boos instead of waves and smiles," Ancinec said.

Wet, soggy weather has made alley travel impossible, and residents have been placing trash containers at the curb on paved streets for pickup.

THE WIDESPREAD CONCERN about the human scene today is impressive, and obviously justified. Great efforts are being made to find some answers, to solve some problems, and to make some improvements.

Many different persons, from many different walks of life, are expressing ideas about what should be done.

ONE FAULTY VIEWPOINT that has been around for several years is that the individual must have more freedom to do as he pleases

I think the current expression is that each person must be free to 'do his own thing'

This view is backfiring; however, there are those who seem determined to make it work. They seem completely unmindful that it never has been successful, and is not intended to be. The record forces us to realize that it will not work

THERE ARE MANY, too many, who think that moral standards belong to some long-dead past.

They just do not seem to understand the whole inherent truth about immorality, and what it does to fragment the human life.

They either don't understand the importance of human integrity, or they don't care. Either condition is sad and tragic.

THE SPREAD OF PORNOGRAPHY is being made possible by the people who spend their money for the various forms in which it is being produced.

The freedom with which it is circulated is maintained under the guise of freedom of speech and freedom of expression.

The merchants of filth are growing rich while they produce the very worst form of pollution. This growing evil is perhaps the most insidious enemy of human integrity.

ONE PROMINENT SYMPTOM of the unfortunate loss of human integrity is the alarming use of drugs. This involves the people who produce the drugs, and, lacking in integrity, are careless about the sale of these drugs. Then, the other phases of the illicit traffic are conducted by fragmented human beings

With these, we must also consider the traggic victims; the users. All put together we have a sad and alarming situation.

A REMEDY HAS BEEN recommended. It calls for a concerted campaign to give people, especially the young, the hard, cold scientific facts about the tragically harmful effects of drugs. "Drugs must not be made a no-no." they say. There must be no preachments.

This is strange, because the climate of permissiveness is, in large measure, responsible for the loss of the personal integrity essential to a sober, sensible life style. As long as people continue to shy away from prohibitions and restraints, people are going to have big troubles.

THE INDIVIDUAL MAY LEARN hard, cold scientific facts about drugs. In fact, this must be done. This knowledge, however, will be of little value unless people have the character to make the wise decision and then stand fast. This means that there must be "no-no" preachments by people who practice what they preach.

IT IS HUMAN INTEGRITY that

THERE MUST BE MORAL individual life. The good old fashioned word "character" describes human integrity.

This is our great need.

Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm takes a sidelong glance at a national issue this week. It's hard to say what he sees.)

Dear editar:

I don't want to get involved in any Supreme Court controversy, in fact after eight years of Viet Nam I'm afraid "involved" is a word everybody is a little shy of, but according to all the newspapers I've been able to get hold of out here on this Johnson grass farm in the last few weeks there's a great controversy raging over the appointment of somebody to fill a vacancy on the high court.

I don't bother with personalities, I don't know the man the President has nominated. I don't even know any of the members already on the court or recently forced off, I've never been even before a traffic court, not to mention the Supreme Court, and my position is if they'll leave me alone I'll leave them alone and up to now I've held up my end of the bargain, whether they have or not, but what I started out to say is that I hope nobody nominates me to anything. The country is getting too enthusiastic mean, say somebody is nominated to something and you turn all the newspaper and television reporters and columnists loose on him, not to mention the F.B. I., three or four dozen lawyers and 50 or 60 Congressmen and Senators, each one fine-tooth-combing everything in the man's past, and the question naturally arises: where's the man whose entire past can stand such a glare? How many can you name? Look around carefully.

I don't mean to say anybody nominated to a high post shouldn't investigated thoroughly, he be should, that's a risk of the game and a democracy should demand no less.

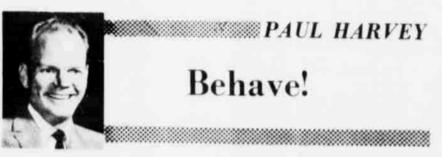

All I'm saying is that if anybody has in mind nominating me to anything, I'd like to say right now I decline. There are too few wrong ones sometime or other, makes no difference how well he has his bearings now.

In politics, my theory is the less you investigate a man the more honest you'll find him to be.

THOSE OF US who like honey on our breakfast cereal want it straight from the bee honeycomb. We don't want to buy some product that's been diluted with corn syrup.

And it's because cheaters were abusing the competitive system by mislabeling their products that our federal government produced a special "truth in packaging" law three years ago.

NOW, AS THE Federal Trade Commission begins to implement that law, manufacturers are being forced to abandon such deceptive labels as "large economy size" on packages that contain one-third air. Now the label must say how much the usable contents weigh. But where the consumer has a new advantage, he is simultaneously disadvantaged by the increased taxes he has to pay to police such government regulations.

IT IS ABUSE OF FREEDOM which invites government further to restrict freedom- and always at our expense. So we pay two ways; we end up with less freedom and higher taxes.

Yet, as we have piled laws on laws seeking to discipline ourselves, American industry and Americans generally are now inviting the further restraints and higher taxes necessary to write and invoke and enforce laws against pollution.

IT'S EASY for Americans, coughing in eye-smarting smog, to demand that industry "shut down the smokestacks," though most of us won't even discipline ourselves.

Dear Mr. Turner:

I was disappointed by the vote results defeating the "Water Bill." It seems some people are rather short-sighted. Some gratification exists in knowing Representative Bill Clayton, citizens and leaders are continuing their efforts to secure and develop additional water for the state.

I enclose a California publication that highlights their water development program. They continue to search for additional water looking north to the Columbia River.

Please forward the publication to Mr. Clayton.

Marvin entered school, and the father was associated with a grocery store. May 1929, Marvin came to Sudan and put in a tailor shop in the building at the rear of Alderson's Dry Goods. He drove back and forth until the parents moved in June. Their first home was 410 Temple Street.

Marvin had the misfortune of a fire so he moved to the rear of L. T. "Pop" Hunt's Barber Shop. The building was divided and the late Grace Sharrock Beauty Shop occupied the other side.

She and husband, Guy, lived in the rear. Living in the rear of your business was very common in those days. This building was owned by the late Cora King.

The late Bill McGlammery built near the bank, and it was occupied by Hunt's Barber Shop and "A One" Cleaners.

Marvin bought the lot and office of the late V. C. Nelson from the estate in 1936. The office was moved and a two-story building was erected. The bottom housed the "A 1" Cleaners and the late V. M. Jones Barber Shop and Vera's (Jones) Beauty Shop.

The top floor was occupied by the late F. E. Miller Land Office, the late Dr. Harold E. Grupe, Dentist, A. J. Sparks, Optometrist and West Texas Gas Co. (what Pioneer was known by then), managed by Mary (Vereen) Bowman Olds

Marvin was inducted into the Army March 15, 1942. He first served at Ft. Knox, Ky., with the Eighth Armored Division and then at Camp Chaffee, Ark., with the Fourteenth where he was discharged Oct. 1943 at the age of 36 vears.

May 1932. Marvin bought a lot at 409 Commerce from the late P. E. Boesen, and the home of the late A. J. Lenderson, who was at one time depot agent.

The house was moved to the lot and remodeled. At this home the father, Paul E., died Dec. 11, 1934. The mother, at the age of 78, became unable to care for herself so she made her home with her daughter. Lula Bernethy, until her death March 29, 1960, Both parents were buried in the Sudan Cemetery.

Marvin H. Greathouse and Willis Arlene Wyatt were married June 16, 1934, at Muleshoe. Arlene, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wyatt, and two brothers, Leon (Cotton) and G. W. came to Sudan Nov. 1930. from Vernon.

Joseph (Joe) Z., son of Charles J. (Walker County, Texas) and Armancy (Smith) Wyatt (Warren County, Tenn.) was born Oct. 25, 1887. Robertson County, Texas.

Chessie Alma, daughter of William Willis (Mississippi) and Miranda Ann (Rutherford) Pipkin (Alabama), was born March 9, 1890, Robertson County, Texas.

Joseph Z. Wyatt and Chessie Alma Pipkin were married Oct. 16, 1910 at Franklin, Texas, There were three children: Willis Arlene (July 15, 1911). Leon Alton (Oct. 25, 1913), both were born at New Baden, Texas, and G. W. (Aug. 13, 1916) Austin, Texas. Arlene started to school in Palestine, and graduated from Vernon High School in May 1929.

Marvin and Arlene have lived in the same neighborhood since their marriage-first at 409 Commerce Street and now at 411. The Glenn Gatewoods at 411 Commerce and the Greathouses at 409 traded homes in June 1956. Both families are still residing at these addresses.

Repentance

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

REV. E. E. HOULETTE United Pentecostal

REPENT was the first word used to declare the coming ministry of Jesus.

John the Baptist stood on the banks of the Jordon River shaking the Jewish nation with its blasting message. Never before had there been a man with a message like it.

Before this, the command was to sacrifice and turn away from sin. In ushering in a new dispensation the way to get to God is different. No more the blood of animals will suffice for sin. The dispensation of the law had fulfilled its purpose, but was now going out of force. Man is to learn under this dispensation that just turning away from sin will not suffice. To still retain the sin is not the plan of this age. A new plan, a new way, a new thought is being introduced. John gave them no other alternate

MEN MUST REPENT. This is the day of deliverance from sin.

The bondage and shakels of sin that have bound men and kept them in subjection for all these ages can now be broken by this life giving message preached by a man garbed in rough clothing and living in a wilderness.

NO WONDER THEY STOOD in awe of this primitive man and the message he preached. He had no building, pulpit, seats or any of the things we think so necessary now

Many hundred years before the Prophet Isaiah had prophesied of him and said (the voice of one crying in the wilderness).

History says that he had a voice like the lowing of an ox. It echoed over those Judian hills carrying a message with a content in it that gave life

There self righteousness broke up under its sledge hammer blows.

They began to feel a sense of guilt. It tore at the very vitals of their consciences.

WHAT MUST WE DO they cried. To all classes his only reply was to repent. Not one word was uttered about an animal sacrifice. Repentance is far deeper than the atoning blood of an animal can bring.

It is the device that gets down where the sin is and roots it out.

Repentence draws one into the presence of his condition. There God begins to show the blackness and horribleness of sin.

There was great joy in the city da when they repented under the pre-Philip.

God is no respecter of penon and joy to those who sincerely repeat Nor joy there is bound to be some thing any of. Repentence is the door into a new in

THE FIRST WORDS uttered to m sinners after the church was brought as day of Pentecost was the same Repent. (Acts 38). The message John getting people ready for the kingdom d was the same as Jesus preached.

Now the day of grace or the change brought in with the same message. How important. Have you?

Paul later wrote Ye are the body d and members in particular. What ap thought to realize that we can be an body of Christ Himself.

Be a part of Him.

He taught a church school class on Sunday and directed during the week the privately organized Littlefield State Bank. opened in 1916. He served as president of the school board. Deeply devoted to providing the benefits of education to rural and urban children alike, Duggan was instrumental in initiating about 1915 the free, public transportation of rural children to elementary and secondary school in Littlefield, one of the first instances in Texas of that now common institution-the school bus.

But Duggan's diligent, unsparing efforts, which were largely responsible for the first golden period in the history of Littlefield, were soon to be tested by the ever-present menace of the plains drouth. As the severe two-year dry period of 1917 1918 gained a deathly grip on the community, men began to talk of leaving. Duggan counseled his employer that, with "the future of this community....now hanging in the balance," the company should buy winter moistureless winds so parched the country that most wheat wilted and died. Duggan then turned to the federal government, to the Federal Farm Loan Act of 1916 which offered long term loans to farmers at low interest rates. Despite the assistance provided to some by those loans, the cloud of disaster over Littlefield grew darker. After United States entry into World War I in April, 1917, sales declined precipitously. Then the high income and excess profits taxes necessitated by American involvement in the conflict reduced Major Littlefield's profits from the sale of his lands to such a ow level that he determined to discontinue sales altogether. In May, 1918, Duggan received an appointment as Captain of Troop L. 4th Cavalry, Texas National Guard, left his position as sales manager of Littlefield Lands, and the company in July abandoned its sales operations. The company, of course, did not cease business altogether, for there were still collections to be made and the

In 1921, Duggan returned to Littlefield to do his part in helping the community, whose population had dwindled to about 400 persons in 1920. to recover from the effects of the drouth and the war. He joined with four other men in 1923, after Major Littlefield's death, in organizing the Yellow House Land Company to continue the work of selling for farms the fertile Yellow House Ranch land Dedicated to the development of West Texas as well as to that of Littlefield, Duggan subsequently served as vice-president and president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. 1925-1927, and as state senator from 1933 until his death on September 6

Were it not for men like Duggan, who saw a bright future for the expansive and at that time more-or less unfamiliar plains, and who were willing to pit every fiber of their being in the struggle to realize that future, this wind-swept province probably would have been long delayed in settlement and certainly would have lacked the close community of interest which has over been a distinguishing mark. The town of Littlefield, one victory in that struggle. stands today as a living monument to Arthur P. Duggan's devotion to his work to his neighbors, and to his region of West Texas.

Safari Moja Brings Hunt-Fish Adventure To Palace Theater

Anyone for safaris? Or, maybe you prefer a trek up the famed Alaskan Highway?

Whatever your bag, the color adventure film 'Safari Moja" promises hunting and fishing, wildlife and native life on two continents and the Polar Ice Cap to boot! It comes today to the Palace Theatre. Filmed and produced by internationally known sportsman-photographer Wally Taber, "Safari Moja" is whole family entertainment designed for those who share Bwana Taber's hang-up for the out-of-doors.

The film boasts more firsts than the New York Mets made all season. Taber bags a massive polar bear with bow and arrow, for example. As if that weren't enough, he blasts half a dozen rhino with blunt arrows to percipitate a charge for the camera! On the wild Ruvu River of Tanzania, he performs a canoe safari, while on the majestic Peace River of British Columbia, he uses a rubber life raft to catch up on his fishing. A trip up the famed Alaskan Highway reveals the hunting and fishing available to any who travel thataway. Using pack horses, bush-plane, boat and boot, Taber hunts and fishes up an enviable storm guaranteed to make more sedentary souls green with envy. He tops it with a trip above the Arctic Circle into a little-known Brooks Range for barren-ground caribou.

Daring fate's fickle finger further, the intrepid explorer goes above the farthest-north land mass in the world to stalk ice bear on the Polar Ice Cap itself. And, since he could go no farther north than the North Pole, he dropped down the other side of the globe to Mozambique where he filmed primitive man and the denizens that keep him alert.

Fish range from trout as large as your leg to perch big as our boat! And, while Taber doesn't put lion in your lap, he calls the wily predators of many species within spitball-throwin' distance. Using a wounded-rabbit call
