

Wildcats Fail In Regional Bid Against Childress

By ROGERS
Childress Bobcats muscled their way to the AA state quarterfinals with a 27-13 win over the Littlefield Wildcats in Plainview.

Childress put the Bobcats' record at 10-2 this year, and gave them the chance to win the state championship next week. Littlefield's record is 4-5 after their third win against eight wins, and any title hopes for this year are gone.

Childress wasted no time in starting their offense. They took the kickoff on their 36, and on the first play, Terry Hogue got the right end and picked up 13 yards. Quarterback Mark Brown ran for 10 yards. Tight end Tim Lewellen crashed over the line to the 39. Three more runs for 10, 10 and 10 yards, and the Bobcats led 10-0 on fourth and two. The gamble was Hogue went up left tackle for 10 yards.

Childress hit Mark Lanham on a 15 yard run to the 10, then Hogue got the right end on an eight-yard burst to the 10 on the next play. John Howard kicked the extra, and the Bobcats were off to a quick 7-0 lead.

Howard squibbed the kickoff, and Stanley Patterson fell on the ball on the Wildcat 43. Littlefield had to punt on fourth and nine, and a clipping penalty tacked on to Childress' return put the Bobcats in a hole on their eight.

Littlefield's defense stiffened, and Lewellen punted out of trouble to the 43. On first, Tailback Kenny Owens took the handoff up the left side, cut back to the middle, jumped over a tackler on the 50 and fought down to the 45. The drive looked like it might get going when Pat Henderson took a Terry Bryson pass to the 38, but Owens was stacked up on third and three. Pope punted into the end zone.

Childress cranked up their offense again and moved steadily downfield to the Littlefield 35. There, on fourth and 11, Brown dumped a screen pass to Hogue, and the hard-running halfback got some blocks and sliced his way to the 11. Childress was flagged for clipping on second down, and they had to try a field goal from the 17. Howard's kick was off target, but Owens had jumped across the line too soon and Childress had a first down on the four. Brown cracked over on his second try, but Howard's kick went astray to keep the score 13-0.

Randy Cook returned the ensuing kickoff to the 31. Henderson found a good hole on first down, and split up the seams for nine yards. But Bryson was dropped looking for a receiver on second down, and Pope punted from the 27. Hogue took the ball on the dead run and raced down the sidelines to the Cat 42. Lewellen bruised his way for 10, and then the Bobcats were again faced with a fourth down situation. Brown faked the handoff to the right, cut back to the left, then sprinted down the sidelines for a 20-yard score. Howard's kick put Childress up 20-0 with three and a half minutes left in the half.

Kelly Pratt came in at quarterback, and Bryson moved to split end. On second from the 23, Pratt threw long for Bryson. But Lynn Bryant stepped in for the interception on the 46.

Joe Arellano gave Littlefield a scare on first down by escaping around right end and rolling all the way to the 13. But Childress got only five more, and Littlefield lost 20-0.

Bale Count Tops 94,000 Mark, Harvest 1/2 To 2/3 Complete

Lamb County gins had tagged out most 94,000 bales of cotton by noon Friday. With estimates running from 50 to 60 percent harvest completion over the county, the 1973 cotton crops looks well easily pass any crop year in the 10 years in both production and harvest.

The cotton with good micronaire averages averaging 50 cents and better reported area wide.

Littlefield area gins accounted for 20,000 bales of this year's crops Friday afternoon. In the immediate area, giners estimated that harvest is 75 to 80 percent complete.

Littlefield Farmers Co-op, Lamb County Farmers Co-op, Lumsden Gin, and Nickels Gin and Burks

Brothers Gin had tagged out a total of 19,356 by mid afternoon Friday.

The Earth community is second in the production race. The Earth-Springleake area got an early start, and some giners estimated that 90 to 80 percent of the cotton crop has been gathered. The Nickels Gin at Earth and Pleasant Valley, Earth Gin, Earth Co-op Gin and Barton Brothers had issued 13,862 green tags by noon Friday.

Olton farmers may lead the cotton bale count this year. Circle Gin, Jack Straw Gin and the Olton Farmers Co-op had tagged out 12,397 bales of cotton when the bale count was made. All three of the gins estimated that the cotton harvest was at the half-way mark.

Four Amherst gins had tagged 12,694 bales. The Amherst gin managers estimated the Amherst harvest completion averaged from 50 to 70 percent. Grades were running from strict low to middling with 99 percent of the mikes in the range with no dock and staple lengths at 31/32. Prices were reported from 48 cents to 38.

Things are looking up in the Sudan area this year. After several crops lost due to hail damage, the western part of the county reports one of the best crops both yield and price in several years. The Sudan Farmers Co-op, Ellison Gin and Beck Gin had tagged out 10,374 bales by noon Friday.

The Spade area had issued 10,351 bale tag numbers. Harvest completion around Spade was estimated at 50 percent, 80 percent and 85 percent by the Hampton, Paymaster and Spade Co-op.

The Hart Camp Co-op, Fieldton Co-op and Hill Top Gin in the Fieldton-Hart Camp community accounted for 8,339 bales of the 1973 crop thus far. Harvest completion was estimated at about 70 percent.

Three Springlake gins had received about 6,530 bales by Friday. The Farmers Co-op estimated the harvest was 80 percent complete. All white cotton with prices running from 45 to as high as 60 cents were reported.

Lamb County's 1972 official bale count was 106,069, well above the 1971 bale count of 84,747. The 1970 bale count stopped just short of the 120,000 mark with 119,963 bales totaled by the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Hail and an early freeze stopped the 1969 production at 67,754. The 1968 bale count totaled 196,707.

County Agriculture Compared With State

The total agricultural industry, including agribusiness, continues to show growth in Lamb County," stated Extension Agent Buddy C. Logsdon, who made a review of the county's agricultural industry.

The latest figures indicate Lamb County's rank in Texas agriculture, due to the results of the 1972 crop year, as second in corn production, third in sorghum, seventh in cotton, eighth in sorghum, ninth place in cotton production, and tenth place in crops and livestock.

The 1973 ranking should definitely be better than 1974," Logsdon continued.

Cash receipts from agricultural products totaled $48,116 last year. That's a decrease of 5 million dollars over 1972. Cash receipts from livestock products totaled 20.5 million dollars in 1972 while receipts from crops came to 27.5 million dollars.

Total gross farm income totaled $111 million, up 9 percent from 1971.

Due to increased production expenses, net farm income was down in 1972. A boost in farm inventories brought total net farm income up somewhat. Cotton and grain sorghum is the county's leading cash crops. Other major crops include corn, soybeans, and castors. The county is among the state's leaders in the production of cotton, grain sorghum and corn.

There are a total of 1,452 farms and ranches which take in 92 percent of the 637,200 acres of land in the county.

About 45 percent of the county's labor force is engaged in agricultural production and agribusiness.

So, the agricultural industry is indeed big business in Lamb County, contends Logsdon.

Mental Health Committee To Meet Here

The annual meeting of the Central Plains Mental Health Center's Lamb County Advisory Committee will be held in Littlefield, Thursday, Dec. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the Lamb County REA Building, according to W. W. Allen, chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Raymond Lewis of Olton, the Center's Lamb County trustee said that persons representing the news media, medical profession, county and city governments, school officials, church and civic leaders will receive invitations to attend.

The Center services persons with emotional problems in a nine-county area regardless of age, sex, race or financial resources. "The Center is dedicated to helping the people in Lamb County live more satisfactory lives. Our professional staff is ready at all times to help with their problems," Allen said.

The dinner meeting will feature Center staff to explain the use of Center services.

Residents Slow Down, Insulate Attics

Residents in the Littlefield area seem to be accelerating efforts at energy conservation. Lamb Counties join other across the nation in response to President Nixon's urgent appeals telecast Sunday.

Superintendent Paul I. Jones said he advised school personnel to be as frugal as possible in the use of heat and lights. As of Friday, no plans had yet been made for afternoon rather than night basketball games. Jones said this matter would possibly be discussed at the December board meeting.

He added, however, that some thought had been given to moving school time up if we go back to Daylight Saving Time. Jones noted that starting school an hour earlier on DST would mean using more heat since the early morning hours are the coldest. It would also mean transporting bus students in the dark.

Banking hours could be changed, too, if DST is initiated. An area banker said it is very possible that banking hours will be moved up after the first of the year.

Highway patrolmen in Lamb County aren't entirely in agreement on the fact that motorists are driving at reduced speed limits on their own. Santiago Robles said it has been his experience the past two or three weeks that the majority of persons have lowered their speed limits voluntarily.

Patrolman Vincent Ponder said speeding violations seem to go in cycles like accidents, and that at times it appears that fewer people are driving at high speeds. Then the trend reverses itself.

THP Weldon Parson said very few motorists drove over the speed limit this week. Parson added that what he feared was that motorists might be tempted to carry a can of gasoline around with them. "In the event of fumes or a wreck, they'll have a live bomb on their hands," he said.

Some residents say they have turned their thermostats back. Others are doing their bit by insulating attics and putting up storm doors and windows.

Harold Clement at Higginbotham-Bartlett said they've sold more than the usual amount of insulation for ceilings the past two or three months.

USDA THREATENS CLOSING

Poultry Dressing Plant Busy Place

By NILAH RODGERS
Littlefield has the only custom chicken dressing plant in Texas.

At times Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McMahan are booked ahead two weeks. Plucking as many as 350 chickens a day means a lot of feather fly at the poultry dressing plant in the rear of the Littlefield Frozen Food Center on the Springlake Highway. McMahan has dressed so many fryers in the nearly 20 years he has been in the business that he couldn't even start to count the squawks.

There isn't even a custom poultry dressing plant in Lubbock, and he dresses 3,600 fryers at a time for the FFA youths at Monterey High in Lubbock. "And the Wilson school brings 700 to 800 every year," McMahan added.

Amarillo, Clovis, Friona, Ralls and Snyder are just a few of the points poultry comes from to Littlefield.

Indeed, there is no lack of business, even though most of the work occurs in a six-month period from late spring through fall. In spite of all this, McMahan said their days in business are numbered and they may not be able to accommodate their customers after the first of the year.

The choice isn't theirs.

"They tell us we have to go USDA inspection or they'll close us up," McMahan said in his soft-spoken voice. "That means all new stainless steel tables, vats and sinks," he said, "and tile on the walls. They want us to get two of those lavatories with foot pedals. We stand here with our hands in water all day. But I guess we're supposed to take our hands out of the water every few minutes and go wash them," he added with a wry grin.

The McMahans rent from R. B. Kirby. They don't feel that spending the $3,000 to $4,000 it would cost to come up to the government imposed specifications could be justified.

Kirby said he can't justify spending that much since none of the poultry is sold and the poultry dressing business is mostly just a service to the community.

"If we were selling out of the poultry dressing plant, that would be different," Kirby said. "But it's just custom work. And you know that with all that equipment it is a lot more sanitized than doing the work at home.

"If Mr. McMahan has to quit, I don't know what he is going to do," Kirby added. "It's hard for a man his age to find work, and that is about the only way he has of making a living. That's all he has done for 20 years."

The inspector said he could operate until the first of the year on sanitation inspection," McMahan said. "There are several things they can do after that, including putting a red tag on the door that means we can't open any more.

"They'll have to get a court order to close us. And that's what we intend to make them do."

Retail Merchants Discuss Holidays

A meeting Wednesday morning, members of the Retail Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce decided to leave the Christmas decorations on in Littlefield, unless a specific order is ordered forbidding it.

The showing of the film will run from 10 p.m. and children who attend are asked to bring a can of food for donation. The food will be donated to a needy family.

DO YOU HAVE THE RIGHT FURNITURE FOR YOUR FAMILY ROOM?

Because a family room is so many uses, by so many people, it needs extra planning and thought. Here are a few tips:

To give a family room the mood you want, you might consider a furniture piece that has shelves which can be used to display hobbies, or a collection, or something special you'd like to show.

Many family rooms are decorated with furniture that is light and airy, so it can be easily moved for the changing functions of the room—yet you should also consider getting furniture that is durable enough to withstand the hard use it is in a family room.

Since you probably want to leave as much space as possible for easy movement in the room, it still have enough storage, why not invest in chest drawers that can serve as table tops with storage units below.

The right sofa can be the making of a family room, and how about a real lounge chair and good reading lamp?

For a table in the room, you might want to think about getting one that can be used for both dining and for games.

They're Human Too!

THE TIME HAS COME for Americans to understand—and appreciate—the humanitarian nature of the law enforcement profession.

Obviously, there is much the police officer does that is distasteful to many. Depriving people of their liberty, even by lawful arrests, is rarely regarded as an endearing human act. The intensity of vigorous and penetrating investigations is likely to offend even those persons interviewed though they have no complicity with crime. The urgency and directness of many law enforcement inquiries necessarily fracture the social amenities some people would like to receive.

HENCE, IT IS NOT surprising that the actions of law enforcement personnel in their performance of duty often arouse criticism.

But the officer has no alternative—he must carry out his legal duties. He must enforce the laws of the land so that all of us can enjoy the benefits of liberty and justice.

FAR TOO FREQUENTLY, I regret to say, the human qualities of these men of the law are overlooked... or deliberately denied.

In my more than 30 years in the law enforcement profession I have known thousands of officers. They are not cold ogres, inhuman automatons, brutal sadists. No, they are human; they have emotions; they possess a deep and abiding concern in their fellow man.

IF CITIZENS could see the officer off duty they would realize that he enjoys his family and children, he is a good neighbor, he faces the sickness and tragedies of life like all of us.

Inconsiderate words or deeds by citizens can offend... and undercut... the countless acts of genuine compassion which these officers perform daily for their communities.

IS THERE EVER an hour in the day when an officer does not risk his life for a fellow citizen?

How many times has he helped the needy, the sick, and those who are accident victims?

How many times has he consoled the broken-hearted... shown kindness to the despondent... calmed the distraught?

I WOULD VERY MUCH like for Americans to look upon their police as friends—as men and women who are human, compassionate, and understanding.

In our democratic society the officer of the law is not to be feared... but respected for his ability, his fairness, and his humanitarianism.

This is the kind of officer we have today.

MAGICIAN

A Woman's View

By PEARL BRANDON

WE ARE NOW going through an uncertain time. The news of the world is not good. Nations who were never considered very important are exercising power that the average person never expected to happen.

But we here in America are a rugged people. We are a young nation but we are not a "bunch of sissies." Most of our ancestors are immigrants from every part of the world, coming here looking for a better life. All of us have a story to tell.

THE EARLY settlers were mostly trying to get away from oppressive laws, vile prisons, crowded conditions and trying to find a place of freedom to worship God as they pleased.

Many of our people came here as slaves, undergoing great hardship, and many are from south of the border where wages were low and living hard.

Very few of us have anything to brag about when it comes to prestige, or royal blood. We came from common, solid, hard working people and we know how to face hardship.

WE MAY have to buckle our belts a little tighter, close off rooms to keep warm, stay at home more and maybe even depend on God more—or on each other.

Here on the Plains we still have the beautiful traditions carried over from pioneer days. When some one is in trouble we gather in to help.

FARMERS STILL help cultivate and gather the crops when a neighbor who becomes ill or falls into misfortune. We still take in food when there is a death in the family. Here, it is people helping people, and it will continue to be so.

I HEARD a doctor say, "the American people eat too much, drink too much and exercise too little." Maybe this energy crisis will help that situation, also.

Anyway we can always face what we have to. Like the poet long ago who said "when we come to the deep sea place in our life and there is no other way but through," we go on because we have to.

OUR NATION is filled with courageous people who, when the going gets rough, keep going, facing into the storm.

We may complain and be filled with dread, but when it happens we wade in and do the best we can with what we have in a crisis.

IT IS THE same with our national heads of government.

They may not all be of the best caliber, but most of them are and they will work day and night to pull us through this period of crisis. The rest of us should get behind and push.

WE ALSO need to get on our knees and pray for God's leadership for officials and for ourselves to have faith in the future of this wonderful country in which we are privileged to live.

We happened to be at the hospital this morning when our friend, Dewey Hulise, was brought in dead on arrival.

Our heartfelt prayers go out for his family and his loved ones. He was a fine, gentleman and is going to be missed by all who knew him.

IN TIMES like this, we can only say with David, "The Lord is my strength, a very present help in time of trouble." Lean on Him.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Ups and Downs

By BOB WEIR

NO LIFE MOVES along through time on an even and smooth path, but fluctuates by moving above the straight line sometimes and below it at other times. For all of us, living is a mixture of "ups" and "downs."

Generally, these movements above and below the straight line are not extreme; but they offset each other so that a reasonable balance of life is maintained.

ONE'S LIFE IS NOT all success, or all failure; but is a mixture of the two. Sometimes we succeed, in that we accomplish what we plan to do and want to do; but not always.

There will be some failures and some setbacks. These may be our fault, but not necessarily so. Nevertheless, they do occur.

THE KEY TO a sensible and satisfactory life is in how we respond. We can let the "up" times carry us away to the degree of throwing us off-balance; but this is a mistake.

Yes, these times should be enjoyed; but within the context of reality. On the other hand, we can let the "down" times become so big that we are off-balance; but we must not permit this to happen.

IT SEEMS EASY for us to make too much of the "ups" and "downs". It is better that we be sensible, and learn how to cope with them so that they never cause an imbalance in our living pattern.

EACH "UP" AND EACH "down" can serve a very useful purpose. We make the decision. If, when we are "up" we assume that this is a permanent condition we will be disappointed; the "down" time is coming.

If we let the "up" time become too much to us, the drop below the straight line takes on unrealistic proportions. When this happens, we have a mistake which we cannot afford.

WE MUST CONTINUE to live life moves "up" and "down". One's life can be established, maintained so that it is able to endure the "ups" with gratitude and hope and the "downs" can be accepted about the same general spirit.

This is what constitutes an excellent life, a life in tune with reality worth the living.

IN SOME WAYS, the "downs" adversities, can contribute more to the fuller development of a life than the "ups" contribute.

Perhaps we should be thankful both, because we know enough of ourselves to know that we need some "ups" and some "downs".

"HE WHO CAN heretically adversity will bear properly equal greatness of soul; for the that cannot be dejected by the latter."—Fielding.

THE CHARACTER of a life disposition of a mind must not fluctuate with the "ups" and "downs" of

True Crime Control

SINCE ANTIGUN advocates insist that every firearm is inherently evil and must therefore be under government control, maybe we should go one step further and begin the methodical tracking down and registering of every knife, ice pick, hammer, rock and rope—in short, every object that has been used to kill and could logically be used to kill again.

That suggestion is nor more ridiculous than the idea that crime can be stopped by wrenching guns from the hands of law-abiding citizens.

TO FOLLOW the teachings of the antigun proponents, we would have to pretend history lies when it shows that criminals have always been able to obtain guns illegally, and we would also have to ignore the fact that possession of a firearm has saved many innocent lives.

The antigun philosophy finally boils down to the belief that "Big Brother knows best," and therefore we citizens are asked to cheerfully submit to government regulations, turning our backs on our heritage of freedom, including the right to own firearms for the defense of our homes and businesses and for sport.

THE TRUE CONTROL of crime will come not in the form of restrictive antigun legislation, but in forceful, non-nonsense laws which punish the criminal—not his weapon.

HONNY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

THERE'S A KIND of guy we used to know, that seems to be fading away. I'm of the opinion we're gonna miss him.

He's the fellow that always allowed as how he could jump higher, run faster, and spit farther than anybody he knew. He could hoe more cotton, head more maize, and plow more land than any two men in the county.

He took pride in his work, pride in his community, and no family on God's green earth could match his. He'd fight for his rights, his principles, and his nation at the drop of a hat, and drop the hat himself.

He might be a little prone to brag, a little overbearing about what he believed, a little quick to voice an opinion, but you never had to guess about what he thought about a certain proposition.

HE TOOK PRIDE in his own honesty, his word was his bond. He tried to fulfill his obligations, or let you know the reason why. He wanted full measure for what he bought, and gave the same when he sold.

He respected his God, his fellow man, and the laws of the land. He exercised the authority that was his, and obeyed the authority that was over him.

HE DIDN'T WANT charity. He expected to work for what he got. He was, however, quick to offer assistance to the unfortunate. Give him a job to do, and he'd try to do it better than it had ever been done before.

We say the man is fading. Perhaps this is a misconception, probably just sleeping somewhat that be the case, it's time he awakened. He might even be a good brother!

WHEN AND IF he is awakened, his influence is felt by those about, we're sure that our community and nation can't help but be proved.

WITH THE ENERGY crunch down on us, we're all busy trying to get around" in sequences. We don't like to be restless in the way we've become accustomed to livin'.

Stockpiling, hoarding, and so seem to be the obvious answers. Let conscientious take the brunt of the storm.

PERHAPS IT'D BE better if we make ourselves do some serious thing about how to comply, to the while bearing our share of the load.—Together, we'll lick it!

COMMENTS

By EMIL MACHA

ABOUT THE TIME our Constitution was being drafted some 200 years ago, Alexander Tyler wrote a book about the Athenian Republic. He predicted that no democracy could survive because of the eventual greed of its people.

Tyler said: "A democracy cannot exist as a permanent form of government. It can only exist until the voters discover that they can vote themselves largesse from the public treasury. From that moment on, the majority will always vote for the candidates promising the most benefits from the public treasury, with the result that a democracy always collapses over loose fiscal policies, and is always followed by a dictatorship."

ARTHUR LEE SPRULL

Funeral services for Arthur Lee Sprull, 67, of Sudan were held Friday afternoon, Nov. 16, in the First Baptist Church at Sudan.

Rev. Wayne O. Perry of Lubbock, and Rev. Eddie Freeman, pastor of the church, officiated.

Burial was in the Sudan Cemetery under the direction of Hammons Funeral Home of Littlefield.

Sprull, a native of Grapeland, died at approximately 6:15 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 14 in Medical Arts Hospital in Littlefield. He was a retired farmer.

Survivors include a daughter, Verna Munger of Sudan; two brothers, R. B. and E. L., both of Memphis, Texas; Nesbert Sprull of Fort Worth and Stafford Sprull of Amarillo; two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Mae Rogers of Anadarko, Okla., and Mrs. Louise Melton of Irving; and a grandchild, Rita Munger of Sudan.

Pallbearers were Duane Beale, Gary Duncan, Edwin Harper, John Burnett, Efton Graham, J. C. Moreland.

It is my opinion that the only way we can eliminate the possible dictatorship or communistic government is to assess a tax on property, instead of on the wealth of the middle upper class of people.

This to some seems cruel, but taxed the poor I'm sure that we eliminate most of our unemployment and welfare recipients. We eliminate the drain on the government coffers and, in turn, I'm satisfied the tax strain on all people in America would be less.

It is not what you get from government that counts, it is what do for it that really matters. The only applies to federal government also to state, county and local.

The BD-200 Czechoslovakian top spinning frame, donated to the Textile Research Center by the Plains Co-Mill of Lubbock, has been received and is now in operation at the Center. The machine has two sections with a total of 80 spinning units.

The BD-200 will be used in the continuation of TRC's research on short staple, low micronaire cotton. At the same time, the program is concentrating on material cleaning preparation prior to spinning.

The research on open-end yarns not only utilize the BD-200 frame but employ a Schubert and Salzer RK Rotorspinner. This second machine received at almost the same time as one donated by the Co-op Oil Research involving both pieces of equipment is under the direction of D. Towery of the TRC staff.

Area Artists Invited To View Exhibit

The "Annual Christmas Show" at the Baker Gallery of Fine Arts opens today with three artists, each tops in their respective field, yet in no way do they conflict with each other.

Wilson Hurley of Albuquerque, N.M. "is a landscapist in the grand tradition."

Barbara Harmon of Taos, N.M. "gives us the world of fantasy that not only children love, but adults as well."

Voris Hope of Albuquerque, N.M. "creates flowers and arranges bouquets that are breathtaking in their exquisite miniature detail," according to Oleta Whitfield of the Gallery.

All three artists will be in the Baker Gallery of Fine Art, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 2, from 1 to 4:30 p.m.

The gallery, located at 13th and Ave. L, is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday thru Saturday.

Program Should Be Planned Now

County agent Buddy C. Logsdon states that the application of fertilizer this fall, or as soon as possible after harvest, is a matter worthy of immediate consideration and decision.

All reports clearly indicate shortages of nitrogen and phosphate will be with us throughout 1974 and for an undetermined period thereafter, according to Logsdon. Contributing to shortages at the dealer level are insufficient supplies of natural gas, fertilizer exports, release of reserve acreage back into production, higher sale prices of crops, and transportation difficulties.

The effectiveness of fall fertilizer application on the heavier soils of the High Plains is well established. On sandy soils, phosphate may be applied in the fall but nitrogen application should perhaps be delayed until spring to prevent possible leaching loss. Advantages of fall application include getting the fertilizer while it is available and incorporating it into the soil in the initial tillage operation so as to avoid weather problems likely to occur in the early months of 1974. Logsdon offers these suggestions on fertilizer use for the next crop.

Veterans Should Inquire About Hospital Eligibility

"Many veterans become ill and use their life savings to pay for needed hospital care before they inquire as to their entitlement to be admitted to a Veterans Administration hospital," states Jean Sturdy, Veterans Service Officer for Lamb County.

Medical and hospital care are very expensive today, and most people who are regularly employed are covered by some type of health and hospitalization insurance. Many veterans fail to realize that they may be eligible for care in Veterans Administration hospitals even though they are covered by insurance.

Eligible for admission to any Veterans Administration hospital is a veteran who is discharged or released other than dishonorable conditions from active peacetime or a veteran who is a member of the United States Armed Forces during service.

Some veterans may have evidence of inability to pay the needed care before being admitted. This necessary if the veteran is seeking treatment for service-incurred disability.

... Wildcats

 Littlefield took over to kill the remaining time.

The first half stats emphasized the 20-0 Childress lead. The Bobcats had 15 first downs, had run 50 plays for 228 yards and picked up four penetrations. Littlefield had one first down, 19 plays for 24 yards, and their deepest thrust was the Bobcat 38.

The Wildcats had the wind working with them in the second half, and Pratt came in to try to pick up some yards passing. His first pass to Pope was good for 24 yards, which doubled the Cats' previous total offense. On third and 10 from the 34, Littlefield caught the Bobcats thinking pass, and Henderson carried up the middle on a delay for 12 yards. A pass to Cook was good for six more, but then Littlefield was faced with a crucial fourth and four. Pratt rolled left, couldn't find anyone, and threw across the field to Owens behind the line of scrimmage. Owens broke one tackle and headed for the right sidelines with three Bobcats in hot pursuit. Bryson threw a perfect block that wiped out all three, and Owens was finally knocked out of bounds on the five. Henderson went in from there, and Cook added the PAT to give the rejuvenated Wildcats seven points.

Following an exchange of punts, Childress started a drive from their 27. They crossed midfield to the 37, then Lewellen bobbled the handoff and Littlefield's Ed Yoakum swallowed up the loose ball on the 37.

Bryson ran one down at quarterback and kept around left end for 13 yards. On second, Henderson took a reverse handoff to the wide side of the field, and it appeared that the speedy flanker had enough room to break it for good yardage. But he cut back inside, and still picked up nine. Bryson got the first down on a sneak. Two passes fell incomplete, and on third Lewellen broke in from his linebacker spot to drop Pratt back on the 46. Pope punted to the 15.

Littlefield got another break on third down. Hogue carried up the middle, lost the ball, and Defensive End Kenny Trotter claimed it on the 23. Henderson carried on the delay for 13 yards, but on third and 10 Pratt tripped over a Wildcat blocker while trying to elude the rush. Childress stopped Henderson on fourth and took over on the 16.

The game was now in the final period, and Childress was intent on launching a steady and time-consuming drive. They drove to the Littlefield 40, then Arellano fumbled again and Bryson recovered.

Three plays netted minus two yards, so Pope punted the ball back. This time the Bobcats did not fumble on their drive, and Lewellen punched over from the four for the TD. Howard's kick made it 28-7.

Henderson broke away on a 41-yard jaunt following the kickoff, and Pope went to his knees for a catch to put the ball on the 19. Henderson cut around left end to the eight, and from there Pratt dropped back to pass. He got faultless protection from the offensive line, and drilled a pass for Pope between two Childress players. Pope wrestled with Jeff Reed for possession in the end zone, and the referees awarded Pope the catch. Cook's kick was to the left, and the Cats had 2:04 to score two touchdowns.

The on-side kick was taken by Childress on their 48, and they ran three plays before Lewellen punted into the end zone. Bryson tried to return the punt but three Bobcats caught him on the six-inch line. Pratt sneaked on second down for 17 yards, then lost the ball. The Bobcats' Lance Keys recovered, but it really didn't matter. Childress ran one play to run out the clock then gleefully accepted their Regional championship trophy.

It was a tough one for Littlefield to lose, but then they all are in post-season play. One slip and the season is over, and Childress' 20 point halftime lead was too much for Littlefield to overcome. But the Wildcats never gave up, as their last minute touchdown proved.

In Alpine, Childress faces an opponent that has been red-hot the last two weeks. They chewed up Hamlin 42-6 Friday, swamped Big Lake 43-7 the week before.

THE LAST TWO Littlefield Wildcat touchdowns of the year were scored in the Regional game Friday against Childress by Pat Henderson (above) and Christ Pope. Henderson sliced up the middle from the five on the Wildcats' opening drive of the second half to narrow Childress' lead to 20-7. Pope (85) hauled in a Kelly Pratt bullet from the eight with two minutes left in the game to give Littlefield six more. The final score: Childress 27, Littlefield 13. (Staff Photos)

Hart nipped Three Way 51-45 on the scoring of Danny George, who hit for 20. Three Way was sparked by Roddy Sowder, who popped in 21 points.

In the consolation game Saturday Whitharral met Sudan.

Whitharral, led by Danny Dukatinik's 17 points, bested Amherst 73-49, while Sudan outlasted Lazbuddie 43-40 on the strength of 17-point performances by Mark Hanna and Richard Tamplin.

In the girls' division, Spade and Amherst vied for the crown. Spade made it to the finals with a 41-36 win over Pep. The high scorer for the winners was Sherry McCoy with 26 points. Amherst blasted Whitharral 60-42 on the strength of Jeanie Young's 20 points, to make it into the final.

In the consolation game, Three Way will face Lazbuddie. Lazbuddie defeated Sudan 36-18 in the preliminary round. Three Way, with Debbie Ferguson leading the way with 16 points, beat Hart 40-34, despite a 28-point performance by Hart's Nelda Henderson.

Whitharral and Pep met in the battle for third place.

The Whitharral Panthers dropped Amherst Tuesday 48-35 in a boys varsity basketball game.

Danny Dukatinik ripped the cords for 17 points to lead the Panthers, and Jackie Bryant added 14 more.

In the B game, Whitharral won 27-18 behind Leslie Derkery's 15 tallies. Amherst salvaged one point in the girls game, edging Panthers 59-58. Rhonda Bryant scored 35 points in losing cause for Whitharral.

Visiting Anton overcame a 15 halftime deficit to edge Christ The King 48-46 Friday night.

CTK led 14-8 after the period and then boosted margin in the second quarter. However, the Bulldogs stormed back after permission to draw even into the final quarter. They outscored the Trojans on the stretch.

Carl Simek led the team and the game with points while Anton was paced by Brady Goen with 17.

Anton controlled the boards in the last quarter of the contest.

In the girls game, Amherst squeezed by CTK for a 34 victory. Elaine Halsell led losers with 16 points while Fisher had 20 for the winners.

The Littlefield girls varsity played Saturday for consolation trophy in Slaton Tournament against Tahoka. They earned the right to play for consolation whipping Grady 69-53 in Friday game. Tonie Gardner poured in 44 points in that game.

Marvin Matthews poured in 23 points and Randy Goen followed with 19 to direct Spade Buffaloes to a 100-70 shellacking of New Home Tuesday night. Roman Zarn led New Home with 24 points and Kyle Johnson added 14.

New Home won the game 63-58 with Donna Arns putting in 30 points. Walker had 21 for Spade.

Gen Tel Co. Slows Vehicles

General Telephone of the Southwest has announced that the speed limit on all company vehicles will be 50 miles per hour effective immediately.

General Telephone with headquarters here, serves more than 405 exchanges in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Arkansas, maintains a fleet of almost 3,000 vehicles.

"We are doing this voluntarily prior to passage of any laws which are expected to make compliance mandatory," L. Gray Beck, president of General Telephone said. "By lowering our speed now we can make a sizeable contribution to gasoline conservation. Our Corporate citizenship dictates our need to share the conservation responsibility."

General Telephone earlier reduced building heat to 68 degrees, turned off all outside and ornamental lighting, except that used for security, and reduced lighting in all non-work areas to a minimum.

Mail Order Complaints May Be Right Solution

Numerous complaints have arisen lately concerning mail order purchases, according to one authority.

"Most consumers complain that prepaid merchandise wasn't delivered or refunds not paid on returned merchandise—although satisfaction is guaranteed," Lynn Bourland, home management specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, noted.

If problems arise, consumers can take steps toward solving the problem, she continued.

"Should these actions fail to solve the problem, write the Office of Consumer Affairs, U.S. Postal Service, Washington, D. C. 20260; the Direct Mail Advertising Association, 230 Park Ave., New York, N. Y. 10017; or any consumer protection agency in your city.

"Whatever method, provide as much information as possible about your problem and the company."

Before making Christmas mail order purchases, consider the following questions, Miss Bourland advised.

- Does the company offer a money-back guarantee?
- What are the conditions of the guarantee?
- Does the offer seem too good to be true?
- Has an acquaintance received satisfactory service from this company?

Potatoes Important To Everyone's Diet

Potatoes fried, baked, boiled, chipped, chopped—anyway you like, they are an important part of almost everyone's diet.

While a potato may not seem so spectacular, laying there next to your steak at dinner tonight, this vegetable in reality is the number one vegetable crop in West Texas. Most important, the potato is a multi-million dollar business for the High Plains economy. In an effort aimed at producing a potato variety for West Texas which is profitable to the grower and of good quality for the consumer, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station here has initiated a new potato breeding program.

The work, which could take up to 10 years, is headed by Dr. Creighton Miller, plant breeder. The research will focus on the development of a variety specifically designed to perform under the trying West Texas environmental conditions.

"Potato varieties grown in West Texas are selected and developed for production in other states," said Miller. "It is only by chance that they perform well here.

Because potato production is susceptible to fluctuating market conditions and adverse weather, it is a risky business," the researcher declared. "What we hope to do in our program is to develop a high yielding, early maturing variety which would enable the grower to make a good crop each year and provide the consumer with a product of high quality."

According to the TAES potato breeder, the potatoes marketed in West Texas are primarily for fresh market consumption during July and early August when potatoes are in short supply from the other production areas of the nation.

"Development of an earlier maturing variety," he added, "would insure an ample supply of Texas potatoes during this period when prices are at a premium."

Dr. Miller explained that new potato varieties result from crossing desirable parents. Seed obtained from those crosses, referred to as "true" seed, is born on the potato plant and resembles a small tomato. This seed is then extracted and planted in the greenhouse the following year. Each of the seedling plants produce small potatoes one fourth to one inch in diameter.

The small plants are then harvested and planted in the field. The field-planted seedlings, known as seedling clones, are dug and the superior clones are selected. "This past year," he reports, "we selected 89 promising clones out of 5,000 field planted seedlings. These will be tested extensively to determine their potentiality as new varieties."

"We hope to expand our program in 1974 by increasing the seedlings grown for selection to over 10,000," he added. According to Miller, all the seed potatoes planted in the West Texas area are produced in northern latitude states where disease is less prevalent. Seed potatoes, he added, are similar to those found in grocery markets, except that they must be certified disease free and genetically pure.

Because of the stringent requirements for certification of seed potatoes, the Experiment Station program is being conducted in cooperation with other variety breeding programs, primarily with Dr. Robert Johansen of North Dakota State University. This cooperative effort enhances the success of the program and provides for a means of testing the newly selected clones in the northern latitude areas where the seed must be produced, Miller explained.

"The consumer and the producer deserves the best quality vegetable at the best price, and the producer deserve a reasonable return on his investment," concludes Miller. "The best way to satisfy both parties is the development of a superior potato variety designed for the High Plains environmental conditions."
