City councilmen heard reports from McMorries and Associates, city consulting engineers, concerning cost estimates for repairing city streets, during their regular session Thursday night,

Bill McMorries presented alternate plans for street improvements--one to cost about $361,097 and the other, approximately $269,764.

Plan 1, described as the "Maximum desired plan," would involve more double seal coating, less single seal coating and more hot mix overlay than Plan II, or the "minimum

Plan I calls for $40,000 worth of curb and gutter changes in order to improve drainage throughout the city, compared to $20,000 called for in Plan II.

In addition to these plans, an additional cost of $18,000 and $20,000 annually would be incurred on seal coating. This would allow the city to seal coat one-fourth or one-fifth of the total streets in the city each year--thus the city would be namered every four or five Veurs. councilmen heard Joe Smith, city fiscal consultant, who pre-sented ideas on the feasibility of financing such a street improvement program.

The council made no decision on the matter, but asked that the item be placed on the March 5 agenda.

"Council members recognize the need for improvements to our paved streets, and they know that the streets must be maintained, or they will be lost," City Manager Jim Shearer stated, "Our citizens have a tremendous investment in streets," he said.

"If the council decides to ask citizens to decide on a bond issue, it will take approximately 60 days for the election to be called." Shearer said. Councilmen will consider an

Anti-Hail Group Sets Tuesday Meet

If Lamb County residents show enough interest Tuesday night, Phase I of the hail suppression plan could begin in April of this year, An open meeting of the Plains Weather Improvement Association is set for Tuesday, Feb. 24, at 7:30 in the district court room in the Lamb County Courthouse. Everyone interested in stopping damaging hail storms is invited to attend, Lamb County directors H. L. Messamore of Amherst and Kenneth Burgess of Olton said this meeting will determine further interest of all communities in the county and financing the program will be discussed.

"This meeting and the entire project is for town and farm people alike," Messamore said, adding that everyone knows the effects of hail on the economy of the county, especially after the past two years.

"If the people want this pro-gram bad enough, the phase I study could begin in April," Joe Blevins, district conserva-

Allan McDonough has been driving Littlefield school busses for 34 years, and he has never hauled a mean kid yet!

"Kids are just ornery," Mc-Donough said, "full of devilment. They've got to be doing something if they're not into something else, or I worry about them-think they are sick.

McDonough, who is Mack of Mack's Barber Shop on Phelps Ave., started driving a school bus in 1936, "Lyle Brandon was bus superintendent then," McDonough said, "I was cutting his hair one day. He said one of his drivers was gone and he sure did need a bus driver for few days. He asked me about riving a few days until the othr driver came back." The driver didn't come back and McDonough didn't quit, and those few days are now Since that time, McDonough has claimed the 20 to 52 children on his 23- to 45-mile bus routes as "his kids". "I tried to figure out what kind of bus driver I'd want for my kids if I had any, then I've tried to be that kind of driver,"

McDonough said. in these 34 years of driving, McDonough has never had an accident nor had a student riding his bus to get hurt.

McDonough said so many things have happened while he has been driving that it's plumb pitiful. "Doggone, they're al-ways doing something," he said, rubbing his hand across his receeding hairline. A smile creased his face from his Irish nose to his ears, "I was driving g his bus to get hurt. route one one year and l There have been times when heard the kids back there talkhe had to threaten to turn some ing and I knew something was of his little charges across his lap and spank them or stuff the waste basket, but the neck with a water gun,

De-Fanged

HAVE YOU EVER SEEN anything like the way President Nixon has de-fanged his detractors? In my own recollection, which dates back to F.D.R., there has never been such applause from both sides of the aisle an election year.

If President Nixon has not excited his proponents he has not stirred up his opponents, either.

HE HAS EVEN FORMER Vice President Hubert Humphrey holding his coat, Humphrey, characteristically at his political best on the attack, is saying such things as, "I'll stand with the President even if things go bad."

Humphrey expects more and more American combat forces will be brought home from Vietnam this year, most of them by the end of this

REALISTIC. he recognizes that this will certainly be a politically popular accomplishment. He says critics of the President's Vietnam policy might have that limb sawed out from under them before November's election

If disengagement is accomplished this year, Mr. Humphrey wants to be able to say that he, too, told us so.

BUT HE SAYS FURTHER that if the withdrawal gets snafued, for whatever reason, he. Humphrey. is not going to turn on the President and blame him.

"If they're going to put you up against the wall, Mr. President, I'll be there alongside you.

Now, from a political point of view, that says everything that needs to be said--and a little more, Unnecessarily, the titular head of the opposition party thus closed his own

THAT'S NOT ALL. The President's most caustic critic, Sen. J. W. Fulbright, has recently expressed only mild displeasure that we are not getting out of Vietnam faster; he has been otherwise silent.

His earlier intention to embarrass the Administration with a public hearing by his Foreign Relations Committee has been suspended indefinitely.

AND NOW MONTANA'S Mike Mansfield, leader of the Senate Democrais, is praising the Republican President, "He's done a pretty good all things considered. At least he's got us going the other way in Vietnam, with troops coming out--not fast enough, but coming out."

This is government "by the people" working. These men returned to Washington for Christmas at home aware that out where the votes come from there is increasing support for the President.

FURTHER, they've seen surveys confirming the President's popular-

GOP National Chairman Rogers Morton says the Democrats are dropping Vietnam policy as a 1970 issue because they know "an overwhelming number of Americans support President Nixon in his search for peace."

Among the 35 senators whose terms expire this year are 25 Democrats -- and as their leader, Senator Mansfield, says, they are likely to 'catch more voters with honey than with vinegar."

WHEN MY DREAM-BOAT comes in, I bet'cha, one of the few luxuries 1'm gonna have, is my own private shower -- Complete with it's own water main, it's own water heater, and the whole works.

Really, there's nothing as enjoyable, at the end of a hard day at the mill, as a nice, warm shower. (Now, some, advocate cold showers, but then, I don't even CLAIM to be

NOW, IF YOU ARE, at all, familiar with a shower, you know you don't just "turn-it-on": --you "tune-it-in" -- Ya got two taps to fool around with until you get that temperature just right.

The sad part of the situation is, that any change in water pressure is either the "hot", or "cold" lines, will change the temperature of that water a considerable amount! -- This is where the project can become pretty tricky.

IF YOU'RE GONNA take a hands,) shower at my house, you gotta be a little cagey about how you go about it .-- First, you just take a stroll through the house, and see what the other three-fourths of the family are doing,

Let's see -- the washing machine is idle, -- the dish-washer is just setting there, seemingly, minding its own business, -- Deduction number one is in his room, studying, or, something, -- Deduction number two is outside, shooting baskets, -- The Helpmeet? -- She's out in the yard, foolin with some flowers of some kind. Seems the coast is clear!

SO, YOU GRAB a change of unmentionables, and trot down to the shower, skin out of the fatigues, and reach into the stall and tune 'er in, This takes a little time, as the hot-line has to flush out the water between the tap and the heater, --Finally, the water is j-u-s-t I want is r-i-g-h-t, --you enter the stall and pull the curtain.

Ah, JOY! -- ectasy! -- What a sense of well-being

Believe I'll just wash my hair while I'm in-grab the shampoo and lather up -- Whoops, soap in my eyes! -- Can't see!

SUDDENLY, Chaos breaks loose all over -- I'm being cooked like an over-sized lobster. (Wife-mate has decided those flowers need water, so she opens the out-side tap, taking my cold water).

I fumble for those shower taps. still can't see, finally find them, and throttle that hot water down! --(Whee-e, wonder if I've got second or third-degree burns -- 7 -- Tune er in again, and start washing the soap outta my eyes.

Then, as if on cue, that water turns to ice -- (Deduct No. 1 has opened the HOT tap in the other pathroom, to wash the ink off his hear the bathroom tap shut off, -- Maybe -- just maybe, the worst is over. -- I start tuning those taps in, slowly, once more.

Ah, I think I'm gonna make it, -- then, hot-water again (Deduct No. 2 has decided he needs a drink!)

HO-BOY, I grit my teeth and try to last this one out, -- just ease the Cold water tap up a little bit .-- Suddenly ,-- ICE CUBES!!!--No. 2 has enough to drink, and at the same time, mama takes the flowers off the list! -- I bail out! --Enough is enough!!

Roll Up Sleeves

THE TIME HAS COME again to conduct the annual fund drive for the American Red Cross which is always during the month of March.

No one likes fund campaigns. When I worked for Red Cross I dreaded them from one year to the next, and wished there was some other way to support the organiza-

However, if it was supported by taxpayer's funds it would just be another government agency. Secretary of Defense, Melvin Laird put it this way in his statement on "The Guy at the Other End". Quote:

"FOR THE AMERICAN Serviceman, there just has to be a Red Cross.

To serve his country he must leave his family behind and go overseas, or he must move them where he goes and cherish them in strange places.

Military service creates individual personal problems for every serviceman--problems which the government cannot handle with taxpayer's funds .-- What the Red Cross does for the serviceman is the personalized act.

it is what a man would do himself for his family, or what his family would do personally for the man, they were not separated". End

ALMOST EVERY FAMILY emergency affects some serviceman, somewhere, Approximately 265 contacts were made by our Lamb County Chapter last year.

Any organization is as strong as the people who work for it.

WE ARE FORTUNATE to have some of the finest people in Lamb County serving on our Red Cross board...,and we have a dedicated and efficient executive secretary in Mrs. Roy Wade, who is our only paid worker.

Our greatest need in this campaign will be for volunteers help solicit as very few people fail to give to the Red Cross when contacted,

THEME for this year's campaign is "Roll Up Your Sleeves'

So let's roll up our sleeves and help make our goal in Lamb Coun-

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

Don't Watch Eclipse

Mr. Bill Turner, Editor Lamb County Leader-News Littlefield, Texas.

Dear Bill.

With the solar eclipse due March 7, 1970, there will be scores of people across the nation who will be either partially or totally blinded trying to see this rare phenomenon. You might wish to warn your readers of some of the hazards since many people still believe that they can view an eclipse comfortably and safely with various home-made devices all the way from a smoked glass to dark photographic film sheets. This simply is a mistaken idea. The only safe way is to wait and view it on television after professionals have made pictures of the event,

The real danger comes from the invisible infra-red rays which can cause damaging burns to the eye's light-sensitive retina in a manner similar to the way a magnifying glass will focus the sun's rays on a piece of paper and burn a hole in it. The retina, not being sensitive to pain, would hardly feel a retinal burn at the time, However, all vis-

February 20, 1970 ion specialists realize retinal burns are incurable and produce a blind spot. Should the burn be in the vital macula area (point of most central vision) the patient would most likely lose all usable central vision in that eye permanently.

Other complications of solar damage seen by the eye specialists following the last partial eclipse of the sun on May 20, 1966, include bilaterial central scotomata, macular hole, severe macular edema, persistent paracentral scotomata, bilaterial macular lesions, macular burn, obstruction of central retinal vessels, retinal hemmorrhages, etc.

I hope it is possible for the people of our area to get by without a single incident of damage. This is only possible if they fully under-stand the dangers. The only rec-ommended way to view an eclipse is indirectly. This can be done by taking two pieces of white card-board and make a pinhole in one, then with the sun at your back focus the eclipse image through the pinhole board onto the second cardboard. Better yet, wait and see

Sincerely yours B. W. Armistead, O. D.

=THE ABUNDANT LIFE=

Hang On

THE WILLINGNESS to hang on is one of the most helpful and one of the most rewarding working prin-ciples in an individual life.

We call this life-element perseverance or persistence--the character which enables us to keep trying.

"Perseverance gives power weakness, and opens to poverty the world's wealth, it spreads fertility over the barren landscape, and bids the choicest fruitsand flowers spring up and flourish in the desert abod of thorns and briers." -- Goodrich.

GIVING UP IS probably the most common reason for human failure. All of us know that people often fail because they give up.

In fact, many of us can remember failures in our lives because we gave up. We can also recall successes because of our persistence.
All of us have probably seen people of lesser ability succeeding where those of more ability fail. This is not uncommon. The difference can usually be found in the continued effort. The person of lesser ability continued to try long after the more talented individual quit trying.

LIFE OBVIOUSLY reserves it best rewards and greatest happiness for the folk who refuse to give up. "Persistent people begin where others end in failure. -- Eggleston. In a very real sense, to continue trying is to continue living.

DISCOURAGEMENT COMES from many sources, and is the common lot of all persons -- none are immune. This, however, is not sufficint reason for giving up.

We must learn to persevere even in times of discouragement. "Never despair, but if you do, work on in despair." -- Burke.

This is the spirit we can and must maintain.

WE MUST KEEP TRYING even though we are not likely to succeed in everything we try to do.

Maintaining this vital spirit, we will accomplish many worthwhile things. Ours will be a successful life mae up of some failures and some successes.

"He conquers who endures." -- Persius.

STAYING POWER may be the course, this quality must be enchanced by the best possible judgment, and the highest Ivel of "know how".

Nevertheless, none of us will ever accomplish much without staying power. The people who give up, and many do, are no longer living: they are existing,

"I have been watching the car eers of young men in the city for 30 years, and I find that the chief difference between the successful men and the failures lie in the single element of staying power." -- Parker.

WE MUST NOT OUT just bcause we feel like giving up. All of us have this feeling now and then; times when we feel that we have reached the end of the rope, These times are very important, because they provide opportunities for major decisions. We must never be careless or hasty in trying to reach a conclusion about giving up or holding on.

GOALS WHICH ARE WORTHY and reasonable are attainable, and we cannot afford to give up. The practical value of persistence in our behavior is well empressed in the saying, "When you get to the end of the rope, tie a knot in it and hang on."

REFUSING TO GIVE UP can usually change seeming failure to successful accomplishment,

Freak Wreck Damages High, Two Injured

One wreck involving three vehicles Sunday resulted in about $3,000 damages and sent two persons to the hospital.

Mrs. Mamie Simpson of Hereford and Atiallino Rosalez of Dimmitt were taken to the Amherst Hospital following the collision near Earth late Sunday af-

Rosalez was driving a '58 Ford pickup and towing a '62 Pontiac on FM 1055 two miles south of Earth when he collided with a '69 Oldsmobile driven by Robert Lee Simpson. According to Weldon Parson investigating Department of Public Safety official, Rosalez, who was driving south, either lost control of the vehicle he was driving when he went around a curve or was attempting to pass another vehicle when he collided with the Simpson Oldsmobile coming from the north.

The right side of the car in tow struck the right side of the Simpson car in the north bound lane. The pickup and the car Rosalez was driving then broke lose and slammed together in the bar ditch, with the left side of the car hitting the left side of the pickup.

mailed to residents. 5. Discussed city membership dues to Water, Inc. for 1970 and agreed to increase dues to $100 for this year. Last year's dues were $25.

City Manager Jim Shearer advised, "The city has had a problem in collecting $12,667 in grant funds from the FAA on the improvements which were completed in March of 1968. The problem was called to our attention by the FFA in the fall of 1968, after the work was completed, it involves a disagreement between the city and the FAA concerning terms of the grant agreement as it relates to the land values permitted under the grant."

7. Discussed, but did not make appointments to the Tax Equalization Board, The appointments will be scheduled for consideration in the next few weeks.

8. Considered investment of idle funds -- funds which will be spent for city operation this year, but will not be needed before 90 days. The city manager authorized to contact the matter.

One cow was killed and three were crippled when Stephen Wayne Robbins of Hereford hit the herd of cattle that had strayed onto U. S. 84 six miles west of Littlefield, something and they'll mind, I've never had any trouble with kids not minding." McDonough does notice a big difference in his riders now compared to those when he first started driving, however. "They aren't as well behaved now," he said, "Back then they got teaching and raising from their parents at home. Years ago they knew they'd get a whipping at home if they didn't do what they were told to do, Now they do it if they want to and don't if it doesn't suit them. But they aren't mean.

There were no heaters or defrosters in the first buses McDonough drove, "I'd drive a mile and stop and scrape the ice off a little peep hole," Mc-Donough said. "Then I'd drive another half mile or so and scrape again. One evening when it was cold, and I mean cold!, two boys got on the bus with their coats zipped together with both boys inside. When it came time for the first one to get off, they couldn't get unzipped. It took me 10 minutes or more to get them unzipped, Some of the sand storms Mc-Donough has driven through were so bad that the bus wouldn't run without taking the distributor cap off and flipping the points every little bit. "I'd flip the dust off the points and drive until the bus died again and get out and flip them again," he said, McDonough's driving hasn't all been just regular routes. He has driven seniors of years past on trips to Carlsbad Caverns and other points. One trip to Monahans with a load of football players detoured at a 10acre watermelon patch on the way home. "They won the game and ate all the watermelon they could hold and we didn't have a bit of trouble," McDonough band buses to all the football games. He considers the yelling as just part of the activity. "If Littlefield wins, then they really turn it on coming through town. There is a first time for all the little children that ride Mc-Donough's routes. "I always teach them how to cross a paved road, that I'm not going to run off and leave them and not to dash across the road without looking both ways. All they think about, especially in the evening, is hitting the ground running to the ice box or their favorite television program, If there is a car coming I just don't let them out until it stops or goes by."

McDonough said there were a few years here that hardly a day passed that some bus driver didn't have to turn in a license number of some driver who had passed a stopped bus. "But that hardly ever happens any more," he said. "The highway patrolmen we've got here now know every bus route, and they've trained drivers that they may be setting out there on the road somewhere. Most kids would surprise grown people with what they know about traffic laws. Very seldom does a the city depository. Security car pass when it shouldn't, but State Bank, and check on when one does, every kid on that bus will try to get his license number.

"I sure get a kick out of driving a school bus," McDon-ough concluded, "I understand 'em more and get more fun out of it every year. I've been driving so long, if one of my customers comes by and finds the barber shop locked, they say 'he's out on the bus route', and they wait,

Sheriff's Office Recovers Property

Numerous stolen amounting to thousands of dollars have been recovered by the Lamb County Sheriff's office recently. A $4,143,85 1970 Dodge pickup that was driven off the Garland Motor Company lot last month was found abandoned in front of a grocery store in Goodland, Kans.

The six-row crust buster that belonged to Charles Flowers, who farms the Ivan Fowler farm three and one-half miles east of Spade, was found, Deputies located the farming implement near Spade where it was hidden in some weeds at a vacant house. A $300 Browning gunbelong-ing to Leroy Wallace of Spade was recovered 1.2 miles west of Spade at a culvert a week after the theft was reported.
A 21-inch television set taken from the Refugio Lopez home north of the Springlake-Earth Schools was found at Springlake two weeks after the theft was reported.

The theft of two alternators taken from Pontiac irrigation motors on the H. O. Sewell Farm three miles north of Spade was the only entry in the van-dalism records this week.

Through Regular Church Worship

What a tragic figure this man makes! But he never intended to make this picture. The first mile of this road did not look like this. But a great Teacher in the long ago warned him and us that we must choose the path on which we enter. There is one way that looks hard at the first but it "leads to life, and those who find it are few." So many are attracted to the other way the' is easy at first, but it leads to destruction, and those who enter it are many

How necessary that we older folk shall guide wisely the young feet! Shall I "go to heaven" as the goal of my living? Look at my feet this very moment. Which way are they pointing? "Heaven is being on the way to heaven" and heavenly people are journeying there together now. Will my "last mile" be one of pathetic regrets and of sorrowful steps? Shall I leave grief and sorrow in the hearts of those who love me? Now is the time to answer that question. For "Despair is being on the way to despair." Which way did our feet move yesterday? What is the goal we have set before us this day? Your Church Can Help You.

THE last drink will not destroy us, if we had not taken the first. The 'last mile' of hatred and malice will not come to us if we do not allow unkindness and jealousy and envy to creep along with us through the first miles. The end of the way will not be vulgar and vicious unless we have forsaken the path of decency and of integrity further back. Every one of us is choosing this day the road we shall take. "But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord and do His will. May this be our resolve today.

"NIGHTCRAWLERS"

Giant "nightcrawler" earthworms are not native to North America. They probably came from Europe a couple of centuries ago in soil used for ship ballast, says F. D. Hole, Uni-versity of Wisconsin soil scientist. Big they are, but they're pygmies compared to an Austra-lian type which attains II-foot length and is used as food,

The last five minutes of the last period were nerve wrecking for the players, spectators and the coaches. It was a constant exchange of points and tie-breakers.

Forsan led 52-50, but Belinda Thompson tied it up with a basket. Then Forsan bounced back with another 2-pointer, but Thompson tied again, Debbie Myers sank a 2-pointer, which gave Spade the lead, but Forsan came back with two and then fouled.

Miss Thompson made 2 free shots which gave Spade a 58-56 lead.

Another Forsan foul was committed and Myers sank one for a three-point lead, 59-56,

Forsan made it 59-58 with 15 seconds left and got the ball back on an out-of-bounds infraction, but was unable to get off a shot before the final whistle because of the extremely tight defense of the Spade Fems,

'Alaskan Safari' At Palace

"Alaskan Safari" is a full color, adventure film acclaimed as one of the most exciting motion pictures ever made on Alaska, and will be shown at the Palace Theatre Feb. 22, 23, and 24.

Theatre audiences travel by horse, tracked vehicles, and planes through the magnificent far north country in pursuit of all the arctic animals.

Movie-goers not only see these animals in beautiful color, but also hear the hair raising growls of the grizzly bear and all the other sounds peculiar to this primitive land, In Southern Alaska Mother

Nature has produced the most perfect home for bears of anyplace in the world. In this region they grow to their greatest

And here the camera follows the hunter as he stalks the Alaskan Brown Bear--the largest carnivore on earth. This animal will outweigh the largest Indian Tiger or African Lion by 1,000 pounds. Some of the finest photographs ever taken of the polar bear are also shown as the camera man follows him across the ice pack of the Chukchi Sea.

In quest of the caribou, Dall Sheep and giant Alaskan Moose, pilots land on remote mountain tops and ocean beaches.

Anglers are also given a treat as the screen reveals fishing that most sportsmen are only able to dream about.

Mickey Jolly Has 'Cow Town' Band

Another Littlefield boy is on way from plain to fame. Mickey Jolly, who was reared here and attended Littlefield schools, now has what many Fort Worth residents consider "the best band in Cow Town".

Jolly organized the band him-self and is playing at Panther Hall in Fort Worth. In about three weeks, Waylon Jennings, another Littlefield boy who has made good, will entertain in the same club.

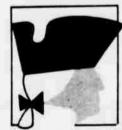

Jolly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jolly, have also moved from Littlefield to Fort Worth where they are making

Sorghum Awards Presented

More than 200 leading Texas sorghum growers--including Bill Brown and Gene Smith of Lazbuddie, James Sanderson and Wisian Farms of Springlake, and Clayton Cowen, Donald Cowen, Roy Jones, Troy Jones, Neil Landrum, Bill Sibley and Loyd Webster, all of Littlefield--have received Trainload and Carload Sorghum Grower awards from Northrup, King & Co., as part of a new national program spon-sored by the Minneapolis-based seed firm to honor an exclusive group of 300 large-volume grain sorghum producers.

The Texas winners produced nearly 169 million pounds of grain using Northrup King hybrids -- the equivalent of about 845 giant hopper carloads, or a train nearly 13 miles long.

qualify for the awards. Trainload Grower produced more than a million pounds from one or more NK hybrids and each Carload Grower more than 200,000 pounds from a single NK hybrid.

Two Texas men earned special awards.

Phillip Jeffers, Ferris, was tops in the state with total production of 5,880,000 pounds, mostly from NK 222A hybrid. Paul Wheeler, Floydada, had the highest yield per acre in Texas with 8,102 pounds per acre--a total of 380,000 pounds from almost 47 acres of NK222G.

Happy Birthday, George Washington

George Washington - surveyor, soldier, patriot, statesman and "Father of our Country"-was born Feb. 22, 1732 at Wakefield, Va.

In recognition of his birthday, statements made by Washington pertaining to the Army and its role are reprinted below.

On Soldiers-When we assumed the soldier, we did not lay aside the citizen. On Preparedness-The militia ... is certainly an object of primary importance, whether viewed in reference to the national security, to the satisfaction of the community or the preservation of order. On Leadership-An Army formed of good officers moves like clockwork . . On Discipline-Discipline is the soul of an army. It makes small numbers formidable; procures success to the weak and esteem to all . . .

On Freedom-Remember officers and soldiers, that you are free men, fighting for the blessings of liberty-that slavery will be your portion, and that of your posterity, if you do not acquit yourselves like men.

On Peace-If we desire peace, one of the most powerful institutions of our rising posterity, it must be known that we are at all times ready for war.

On Command-Impress upon the mind of every man, from the first to the lowest, the importance of the cause and what it is they are contending for.

Several SPC groups, includ-ing area students are joining the Levelland Public Schools in the pageant.

The groups participating are Harley Bulls' choral group; Jack Nowlin's Texan Band; Mrs. Helen Roberts drama group; and the Tex-Anns under the direction of Mrs. Mary Shea,

Also performing will be the 600-voice Levelland Elementary Choir composed of fifth and sixth grade students, under the direction of Mmes, Wanda Falch, Frances Raymond, Frances Vaughan, and Rose Davis: the Levelland High School and Junior High School Choral Departments, Jerry Baxter, director: Levelland High School Band, Marlin Lindsey, director: Jun-ior High School band, Jack Moody, director. The SPC Drama Department will be featured three times. The first presentation will be by the Oral Interpretation Class. It is called "The Day the U.S.A.

The second presentation will be performed by Kathy Hardin, Linda French of Littlefield, Jana Orman, Ann Estes as they portray Indian maidens telling the Delaware Indians' story of the creation.

During the section on the Civ-War John Chain will read the Gettysburg Address as he portrays Abraham Lincoln.

The women's drill team, the Tex-Anns, will do a military drill to the accompaniment of the Texan Band, Also, in the finale each Tex-Ann will carry an American flag while everyone sings "God Bless Amer-

The SPC Choir will sing an eight-part arrangement of "America" written by the Engcomposer, Granville Bantock,

The first stanza will be sung by the girls, the second will be men only and the third stanza will be in unison with an elaborate piano accompaniment, and the fourth verse will be sung in eight parts a cappella.

Hog Production Parley Slated

A "Money in Hogs" Con-ference will be held in Lubbock at the Raiderland Convention Center Tuesday.

The conference will give South Plains farmers and ranchers and agribusinessmen an opportunity to find out more about pork production and to look at the enterprise as another economic opportunity for West Texas, reports Billy C. Gunter, district agricultural agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service which is one of the sponsoring organizations.

The program will get under-way at 1:30 p.m. with slate of speakers to discuss all phases of the pork production business.
