Thursday and Friday mornings' below freezing temperatures cooled off farmers with planting fever. John Harmon, SCS engineer, reported a soil temperature of 48 degrees Friday morning. The highest soil temperature thus far this season was recorded at 59 degrees on March 26th. Through Friday, the average nine-day soil temperature was 55.2.

Sales Tax Proceeds Up

Littlefield has received a check for $26,637.79 in city sales and use tax allocation money for the last quarter of 1971 - an amount which is up nearly 2 per cent from the same quarter the previous year, when the city received $26,259.96. The returns are for October, November and December 1971, and are compared to the same period in 1970. Total receipts for 1971 were $96,475.55, an increase of 10 per cent over the 1970 figure of $87,610.04. Collections in other 1971 quarters included: $21,885.41 for the first quarter; $22,592.85 the second quarter; and $25,359.50 the third quarter.

KELLI HAMPTON, center, won first place pollution poster honors Wednesday in Lubbock at the 54-county District Garden Club Convention. Her poster won the Class II judging in Littlefield earlier in the month. Tracy Upton's poster won third place in the Lubbock contest for Class I. Presenting the certificates and cash awards is Mrs. R. N. Nicholas of the Littlefield Garden Club. Kelli's poster will now be entered in the state competition in Waco, April 27.

City Police Units To Aid

Littlefield residents are reminded that the tornado warning system will be tested at 8 p.m. Monday, April 3, provided the weather is clear. In the event of storm clouds, the test will be postponed, according to Leon Durham, fire chief and civil defense coordinator.

Six short blasts on the big fire whistle at city hall will be sounded this season. Durham said the warning will be sounded only when a tornado has actually been cited. Residents should seek shelter immediately after hearing the whistle. City unit sirens will run up and down residential areas upwind from the big siren to bolster the warning system this season. The addition of the police units running with sirens will give better protection to the town when high winds keep certain parts of town from hearing the blasts from city hall. To keep from confusing the public, police dispatchers will not sound the fire siren, even in the event of a fire, from now until the storm season is over. Firemen will be notified of fires by radio receivers.

One long whistle will be sounded for an "all clear." The basement of the courthouse will be opened to the public for a shelter when tornado warnings are sounded.

Drug Treatment Center Available

Are anyone in Lamb County who has become addicted to drugs and wishes to get the habit? Drug treatment center is available to help those who volunteer to sign up for treatment. Some cases are referred to the center by juvenile courts in the 15-county region which includes Central Plains Comprehensive Community Mental Health-Mental Rehabilitation Center in Plainview serves.

The program was begun in 1971 by the Plains Government Association with a $156,000 grant, and is planning to expand. The center works with parents too, in helping them help their offspring go through the drug de-toxification and rehabilitation therapy programs. Parents and teachers as well, are aided in becoming aware of the drug problem by training Roy Nickel Jr., project director of the drug treatment program at the center in Plainview, 79072.

The center is currently working on placing a center in Lamb County to serve as a link between the addict and the center. Persons who may be contacted in Littlefield are Municipal Judge J. N. Sides and County Judge G. T. Sides.

Persons React To TB Skin Test

Of the 405 people in Lamb County who took the tuberculin skin test in Littlefield Monday, 356 of them returned following Wednesday to have their test read. Of that number, 43 showed a positive reaction to the test. Nineteen of these were referred to their private physicians, and 24 were seen at a chest x-ray clinic in Littlefield April 7 - sponsored by the West Texas Tuberculosis and Laboratory Disease Association. Robert H. McCarty, medical director of Region I and II, TB Control of the State Health Department, provided the statistics to Joyce Sides, the program assistant.

Vehicle Registration Effect Today

Go anywhere in your car today displaying your new license. Vehicles were to display the new and white reflectorized plates by Monday, today. Motorists will be assessed motorists who failed to register their vehicles, and will be issued to drivers who drive without the new plates.

MRS. ANNIE L. RAY has a unique Easter dress. Her third grade students painted 5x7-inch squares of cotton pique with their own designs, and Mrs. Ray sewed the squares together and made her Easter frock. The bulletin board in the background is covered with newspaper items the children clip every two days. Brenda Royall chose the L-N clipping about the news tip contest offering a year's subscription for a tip that leads to a photo or story. She wins a subscription for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Royall, for calling us about her teacher's dress. She laughs and points to one of the squares she painted.

MVI Stickers Due On Autos

Police are issuing tickets on expired motor vehicle inspection stickers, and citizens are reminded to check the large black numbers on their stickers, which are located in the lower left corner of the windshield. If yours has a "3" on it, it has expired and you risk getting a ticket until a new one replaces it.

C-C Membership Drive Scheduled

April has been designated as Chamber of Commerce membership drive month, and Dr. Craig Wallace has promised some good times as well as hard work during the campaign. A special kick-off meeting of the two teams which will be involved in making the contacts will be held Monday, April 17. Both teams will make plans for their "victory" meal of steaks and beans. Team captains for the drive will be Kip Cutshall and Kenneth Day.

A general quarterly membership meeting will be held at noon Wednesday, April 19, when members of the Lions Club, Rotary Club and "We, The Women" will gather at the Community Center for a noon luncheon and business session. Rev. David Hamblin will serve as master of ceremonies and several "unusual" items are on the agenda during the program. Persons planning to eat are asked to contact the proper personnel in their organization, or if not a member of any of these organizations, contact the Chamber of Commerce office, 385-4451, by Friday, April 14. Tickets for the event are $1.75 per person.

Bula Fifth Grader Is Spelling Champ

A Bula fifth grader, Gerald Layton, was named winner of the Bailey County Spelling Bee Wednesday afternoon in the Muleshoe High School auditorium. Gerald is son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Layton of Bula, and correctly spelled the word "pallor" to win the county championship. His runner-up was Rhonda King, a Muleshoe sixth grader who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle King. Last year's second place winner, Cherylee Bryant, now a sixth grader and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Bryant, won third place.

LONG-TIME RESIDENT

M.C. Street Drayed, Fanned, Drove Bus

M. C. Street came to Littlefield in the winter of 1929 to dray for Foxworth-Galbraith. At that time the lumber company just had a team and wagons for all their hauling. Street had two trucks. Littlefield was a central shipping point for well pipe, lumber and wire. From Littlefield, Street hauled materials to Ralls, Levelland, Sudan and other yards. At one point during the depression, Street was draying for the lumber yard, driving a school bus and farming. "We worked at anything we could do to make a living back then," he said. Street drove a bus route for three years. The drivers had their own trucks and the school finished the bodies to put over them. "They were just old rattle traps with no heaters or anything," he said. During bad weather, his route took two and a half hours each way, and he'd have to run the truck holes in second. "We finally got some cattle together and milked 'em two or three years," he said. "We had our own chickens, and sold eggs and cream - anything to buy a few groceries." In 1936 he made two bales of cotton on 60 acres. "The feed just got knee high and didn't head out," Street said. "We farmed with teams and the mules and cattle had to eat. We used a sledge and cut two rows down at a time and raked that up and fed it for roughage. I went to Roswell, N. M. and got a load of hay and went to Altus, Okla. and bought a load of oats. The next year we made a pretty good crop." Street made his best crop in 1942 when he made over a bale on every acre. "And that was dryland," he added. "The most money I made on a crop was in 1946. It stayed dry so long, my son George gave up planting the big farm and took my combine and went to the wheat harvest in the Dakotas. When it finally rained in July, I prepared the land and sowed it in wheat. It brought $42,000. "We worked hard and saved and done without, and didn't go fishin' much. Now I go fishin' ever chance I get. I can't drive any more because of my eyes. Before they got bad I went to the coast most winters and stayed there." Street doesn't mind telling his age. "I've been here a long time," he said. "I'm having a birthday this week and I'll be 83."

WEDNESDAY'S SNOW didn't surprise M. C. Street. He has lived 83 years and he's seen all the kinds of weather the Plains can dish out. His back yard at 727 E. 12th Street is filled with fruit trees. This apricot tree is loaded with tiny fruit. The windmill on the east of his house is used to water his trees and garden. With him is his wife, Hattie.

The School Elections

With school trustee elections in progress throughout the Littlefield-Lamb County area Saturday, results were being awaited with much interest by the voters and the candidates.

The school board in any community has a great responsibility, and the winners in these elections face their tasks with no financial reward in sight and very little chance of being thanked for a job well done.

In spite of this, good people seek the office, for they realize the importance of a good education for all children.

We are happy to see many candidates announce in several area elections, because it reflects the interest of all the people in good schools.

This also was being indicated in the good turnout that were being reported at many area elections.

What will be accomplished in the future for this area's schools rests in the hands of the successful candidates, and the other board members whose terms are in progress.

With this in mind, we are reprinting a "Code of Ethics" adopted by the National School Boards Association. We think it's "must" reading for new school board members and good for review by returning trustees.

AS A MEMBER of my local Board of Education, representing all the citizens of my school district, I recognize

1. That my fellow citizens have entrusted me with the educational development of the children and youth of this community.

2. That the public expects my first and greatest concern to be in the best interest of each and every one of these young people without distinction as to who they are or what their background may be.

3. That the future welfare of this community, of this State, and of the Nation depends in the largest measure upon the quality of education we provide in the public schools to fit the needs of every learner.

4. That my fellow board members and I must take the initiative in helping all the people of this community to have all the facts all the time about their schools, to the end that they will readily provide the finest possible school program, school staff, and school facilities.

5. That legally the authority of the Board is derived from the State which ultimately controls the organization and operation of the school district and which determines the degree of discretionary power left with the Board and the people of this community for the exercise of local autonomy.

6. That I must never neglect my personal obligation to the community and my legal obligation to the State, nor surrender these responsibilities to any other person, group, or organization; but that, beyond these, I have a moral and civic obligation to the Nation which can remain strong and free only so long as public schools in the United States of America are kept free and strong.

IN VIEW of the foregoing considerations, it shall be my constant endeavor

*To devote time, thought, and study to the duties and responsibilities of a school board member so that I may render effective and creditable service.

*To work with my fellow board members in a spirit of harmony and cooperation in spite of differences of opinion that arise during vigorous debate of points at issue.

*To base my personal decision upon all available facts in each situation; to vote my honest conviction in every case, unswayed by partisan bias of any kind; thereafter, to abide by and uphold the final majority decision of the Board.

*To remember at all times that as an individual I have no legal authority outside the meetings of the Board, and to conduct my relationships with the school staff, the local citizenry, and all media of communication on the basis of this fact.

*To resist every temptation and outside pressure to use my position as a school board member to benefit either myself or any other individual or agency apart from the total interest of the school district.

*To recognize that it is as important for the Board to understand and evaluate the educational program of the schools as it is to plan for the business of school operation.

*To bear in mind under all circumstances that the primary function of the Board is to establish the policies by which the schools are to be administered, but that the administration of the educational program and the conduct of school business shall be left to the employed superintendent of schools and his professional and non-professional staff.

*To welcome and encourage active cooperation by citizens, organizations, and the media of communication in the district with respect to establishing policy on current school operation and proposed future developments.

*Finally, to strive step by step toward ideal conditions for most effective school board service to my community, in a spirit of teamwork and devotion to public education as the greatest instrument for the preservation and perpetuation of our representative democracy.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Depression

By BOB WEAR

"EMOTIONAL DEPRESSION is developing into an epidemic which could contribute to political demagoguery." This is the conclusion of Dr. Harold M. Visotsky, chairman of the department of psychiatry at Northwestern University.

He may or may not be right about the "political demagoguery", but there is an abundance of evidence to confirm his statement, "emotional depression is developing into an epidemic."

IN SUPPORT OF his conclusion, he said, "An individual cannot live in a condition of emptiness for very long. If a man is not growing toward something, his potentialities stagnate."

They turn into morbidity and despair, and eventually into destructive activities." Dr. Visotsky's credentials are impressive, and we must not take his evaluation lightly.

WE CAN AVOID emotional depression, because there is no reason why we should have an empty life. Our problems may be found in the faulty view that life can be filled with things.

In a sense it can be, but there is more to this than what appears on the surface. From human experience, we have this very astute observation, "An empty life filled with (material) things is just as empty still."

A LIFE CAN BE filled with the true, and the good, and the worthwhile; and the meaningful thoughts, actions, aims and goals. When a life is so filled, there will be no emotional depression.

This properly filled life will be a strong, buoyant, joyful, effective and thoroughly satisfied life. This life can be a reality for all persons who desire it, and seek it diligently.

GROWING TOWARD something is given as an absolute necessity by Dr. Visotsky. This places upon us the necessity of choosing the right kind of goals.

To do this, we must know our origin, know why we are here, and how to fulfill our purpose for being. All of this information is available to us, and we are obligated to find it and behave accordingly.

A CONSTRUCTIVE LIFE pattern is very obviously our best choice for a rewarding and truly meaningful life. This is the life style that prevents the condition of emptiness. This does not require some great thing, but can be accomplished in the day-to-day, commonplace activities. We can do the best with what we have, where we are.

THE DESTRUCTIVE ATTITUDE; with the accompanying negativism, pessimism, hatred, hostility and envy; is not the solution to the problem of "emotional depression".

It has the potential for making the restoration of emotional good health impossible.

AN ASSUMED "neutral attitude", if this is possible, will also cause "emotional depression". It is another form of emptiness.

OUR VALUE SYSTEM, and we can choose the best, can keep us out of the stifling fog of "emotional depression". Of course, we must use well-chosen guidelines to implement these values. These are available to us, too.

EASTER: THE TIME of year set aside to remember the resurrection of Christ. A time of renewed hope in things eternal, and calling attention, once more, to the age-old question: "If a man dies, shall he live again?"

IN THE VANITY of mind, we are hesitant to accept the fact that man must die, let alone the possibility of being resurrected again. The teaching that man must stand in judgement for "deeds done in the body", in this resurrected state, is likewise rejected by the finite mind.

I'm sure that Easter must have purposely set at this time of year, as we witness the rebirth of nature, with all her beauties. Surely, with all the testimony that she so freely gives, it shouldn't be so hard to accept the idea of man's rebirth, also.

WHILE WE MAY BE uncertain as to the exact date of the resurrection of The Holy One, we're glad that it is accepted fact, and we're also glad that it is brought to the attention of the entire world, at least once each year.

Now, if we can bring ourselves to the conclusion that WE, TOO shall be resurrected, to live for eternity, it should make much better people of us.

Especially, when we come to the realization that the kind of people we are will be the determining factor of WHERE we'll spend this eternity!

SOME SNEER AT religion as being "A CRUTCH". Betcha you can't find a stronger, or, more reliable, one!

NO, AUNT EDNA, the shop's battery charger won't work on PEOPLE!

I HAVE AN acquaintance that delights in needing me. I think I've got him psychoanalyzed! He has a loose connection between the brain and mouth!

JUST BECAUSE YOU read it in the paper, or hear it on the radio or tv, doesn't necessarily mean it's so!

Some of us haven't learned to tell the difference between a statement of fact, and an editorial. Statement of fact is one thing, while an editorial is one man's opinion.

Trouble is that some of our news media have begun to mix the two together. Seems many reporters and newscasters have deemed themselves to be "Instant Analysts". This is where the confusion of the populace beings!

IF YOU FAIL to see me dressed out in new togs on Easter, remember: April 15th draweth nigh!

In between our belted tire and our nylon cord tire is the best tire value for your money.

From Pampa to Odessa, you'll find Shook's recommendation: the Lee GS-300.

If you don't want to go the more expensive route of a belted tire but you do want better mileage than a nylon cord tire offers, you want the GS-300.

The Lee GS-300 has four full plies of polyester cord, the same kind of cord used in Lee's belted tires. Polyester is a man-made fiber with great strength to give the tire a soft ride. And long mileage.

See its low profile and wide tread? That's to make it hold the road on the straightaways and to keep from drifting when cornering.

And like all Lee tires, the GS-300 is Contour-Cured, a special process that assures a comfortable ride right from the start.

So if you do a great deal of driving, but you'd rather not spend a great deal on tires, stop by your nearest Shook Tire Center and see the Lee GS-300.

Between you and us, we think it's the best all-around tire since the beginning of Shook, 38 years ago.

The IMMORTAL

...and may we sing Hallelujah! For Christ the Lord is risen. The lilies are in bloom and men and angels are in jubilation.
 Because He lives, we know we too shall live.
 The Greeks were wrong.
 Man is not mortal, but rather immortal.
 For God hath set eternity in the heart of man.
 This Easter, we share the immortality of Jesus Christ. His journey to Golgotha transfigured the cross forever, turning that symbol of suffering into a symbol of triumphant life.
 Then let us live like women and men who expect to go on and on forever... world without end. This is indeed our true Christian hope. This is what Easter means to us today.

Easter Salad Supper Fetes Amherst Church Circle

AMHERST--Mrs. Bill Bradley was hostess Monday evening for the Annie Armstrong Circle's annual Easter salad supper. The menu consisted of an assortment of salads, assorted party crackers, cherry pie, coffee and tea. A gold cloth covered the serving table with a large net bunny for the centerpiece, complete with a hat and felt ears, and was nestled in green grass surrounded by Easter eggs, and three gold tapers burned in silver candelabras. The foursome tables, where guests were seated, repeated the decor of the serving table. Handmade napkin rings and booklets that held the menus and programs were in pastel shades, in the shape of eggs with bunny faces in the center, surrounded by tiny tie-die braid in colors for Easter.

Mrs. Glenn Willson had the Easter message. She concluded it with a record of the "Hallelujah Chorus", from the Messiah. Mrs. James Holland offered prayer for the benediction. The center decorations were taken to the Lutheran School for handicapped in Littlefield. Those attending were Mmes. T. L. Bennett, J. P. Brantley, Don Carter, Randall Crawford, A. O. Dickson, James Holland, Charles Jones, Charles Mixon, Vic Reynolds, Glenn Willson, Bill Bradley and three guests. Mrs. Paul D. Bennett, Bill Roper, and Mrs. A. H. Dailey, Holland's cousin from Rhode Island.

Mrs. Orr To Be Guest At White House Reception

Mrs. Orr will attend as a delegate from the Memorial branch of the League. One of her paintings was selected for the NLAPW state art show in January, and has been included in the 1972 National Blue Exhibition. The organization has headquarters in the Pen-Arts Building, Washington, once the home of Robert Todd Lincoln. President Abraham Lincoln's

Is now the time to buy land?

Acquiring that farm might seem more practical with financing through the Federal Land Bank. Land is easier to pay off when costs are amortized over extra years with a long-term Land Bank Loan. Your total cost of borrowing, too, can be less. Ask us for help: We know land values; we will inspect the property. We will then try to make a loan that meets your exact needs.

The U.S. Weather Bureau Report calls for partly cloudy skies, hot and dry.

Back in the days when Mother Nature had control over the weather, there wasn't much you could do. Except sit and wait for it to rain. But now you can order your own rain. Any time you want it.

With Gifford-Hill's 360 electrically-powered, pivotal sprinkler system. We've added several new features that make it even better than last year. An automatic end gun control option.

A new collector ring. A new alignment control linkage. A new direct gear drive motor on each section. A new moisture proof intermediate control panel. And a new weather-proof coating.

But where we really have it over the competition, including Mother Nature, is water pattern. By setting a dial you can apply as much water as you want to any portion of your field.

And because of our unique sprinkler spacing concept, your crops get the same amount of water at one end of the system as it does at the other. No compaction. No puddling. No runoff.

So, before you worry too much about weather reports, get a full report on the 360 from a Gifford-Hill representative. He'll give you a demonstration. That will convince you that the 360 is the most dependable, the most versatile and the safest pivotal sprinkler system on the market.

We want you to buy the 360. And forecast your own rain. Contact our representative today.

Driver Regulations Revised

Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has reminded Texas farmers and ranchers of revised driver qualification regulations which should give significant relief from the stringent regulations that were in effect in 1971.

New exemptions were made for farmers and ranchers by the U. S. Department of Transportation after many complaints were filed against restrictive farm driver qualification regulations last year.

The new regulations which became effective Jan. 1 include:

1. Farm vehicle drivers operating trucks weighing 10,000 pounds or less are totally exempt from the driver qualification rules.

2. Farm vehicle drivers operating straight trucks weighing in excess of 10,000 pounds within 150 miles of their farms are totally exempt from the rules.

3. Farm vehicle drivers 18 years or older operating a tractor-trailer unit within 150 miles of the farm are exempt, except they must be physically qualified but need not be physically examined and certified until Jan. 1, 1973.

4. Drivers employed by custom operators are granted total exemption while transporting custom harvesting machinery to or from a farm and while transporting the custom-harvested crops to storage or market.

His wife, Peggy, is the daughter of Mrs. Jim Pickrell of Littlefield.

Sergeant Stephens is a U.S. Air Force aircraft maintenance technician with the 516th Tactical Airlift Wing from Dyess AFB, Tex.

More than 23,000 Army, Air Force, Air Force Reserve and Air National Guard personnel are taking part in the largest joint operation to be conducted in the United States since the Vietnam buildup in 1965. The exercise, dubbed "Gallant Hand," is the first in a series of large-scale maneuvers planned by the U.S. Readiness Command.

A mythical overseas command established at Ft. Hood provides the setting for Gallant Hand. The command is being reinforced by a U.S.-based armored division and Air Force tactical airlift, fighter and reconnaissance units, which are being employed in simulated combat operations.

The sergeant's unit is a part of the Tactical Air Command, which is providing F-111 and F-4 Phantom fighter bomber, RF-4 Phantom reconnaissance, C-130 Hercules and C-123 Provider cargo-transport and OV-10 Bronco forward air controller aircraft for the two-week exercise.

Sergeant Stephens, who has served in Vietnam, is a 1957 graduate of Abernathy High School.

Jean Green Painting Wins

SPRINGLAKE—Jean Green of Olton was third place winner in Landscape at the Post Annual Judged Art Exhibition held Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, March 25, 26, 27.

Mrs. Green entered three paintings. The one which won her the yellow ribbon was a 15 x 30 vertical oil composition "Abandoned Mines."

She sketched the shacks in the Roubidoux area. This was Mrs. Green's first experience in doing her work in a judged exhibition. There were some paintings in all media from Lubbock, Springlake, Floydada, Lockney, Tahoka, Post, Snyder and other places. It was a pleasure that all entries be from sketches.

Mrs. Green and her husband, W. G., were in attendance the awards were presented Sunday afternoon.

Olton Student Is Art Winner

SPRINGLAKE—Miss Gayla Mills of Olton has been selected as second-place winner in landscape in the Students Art Exhibit in Harrel Memorial Auditorium at Wayland College.

Miss Mills is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mills and an Olton High School freshman. Her oil painting "Sunset" is 16 x 20. There were about 100 entries done by public school students.

Miss Mills received a cash award and a red ribbon, and had two other paintings in the exhibit.

MR. AND MRS. John Burnett were in Muleshoe Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bell to help grandpa Bell celebrate his 87th birthday.

MR. AND MRS. D. L. Gann and children of Fresno, Calif. are visiting this week in the homes of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delma Gann, his sister, the J. C. Dotys, and their grandmother, Mrs. M. M. Gann.

MR. AND MRS. Larry Hanna and Chad of Albuquerque, N. M. are spending the Easter holidays here with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hanna and Matt. They will also visit other relatives in the vicinity.

MRS. LULA STEPHENS is a patient in the South Plains Hospital in Amherst. She was admitted Monday and expected to stay about five days.

MRS. BOBBY FOSTER and Lucretia visited Tuesday afternoon in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pierce, Bruce, Brad and Celia. She also visited with her grandmother, Mrs. Fox.

ALMOST 200 acres of carrots are being planted in the immediate Littlefield area this year. Roland Roberts, extension vegetable specialist from the Texas Agriculture Extension Service, is shown adding vermiculite to the applicator in the carrot planting operation at Deb Bawcom's farm last week. Vermiculite was used in 45 acres of double row carrot planting. The expanded mica-like clay prevents crusting over, helps holding moisture around the germinating seed and prevents injury due to high nitrates. John Klemm, field man for Campbell Soup Company also helped with the planting operations. Bob Taylor, C. E. Jones and Joe Montgomery are growing a total of about 140 acres of carrots.

Road Costs Share Told

Car owners in Lamb County are beginning to realize that Uncle Sam's 42,500-mile Interstate Highway System, now three-quarters finished, has become a more costly undertaking than expected.

They know that because they, along with the rest of the motoring public, are footing the bill through their purchases of gasoline, tires and other items.

At the present time, the Federal government is collecting some $255,000 a year from car operators in the local area. The bulk of it is derived from the four-cent tax levied on every gallon of gas.

Not included in this total are the auto-use and gas taxes collected by the state.

The revenue is deposited in the Highway Trust Fund, which pays 90 percent of the cost of construction. The other 10 percent is borne by the states.

For the typical driver in Lamb County, who covers 10,000 miles a year and gets 14 miles to the gallon, the annual cost is about $30, according to government figures. For those who travel more or less than this average, the cost varies proportionately.

Based upon the 8,490 cars in operation in the local area during 1970, it adds up to $255,000 a year.

The increasing cost is attributed to the expansion of the highway system from the original 41,000 miles to 42,500 miles and to the fact that the expected completion date is now 1978 instead of 1972.

As a result of the changes, the ultimate expenditure will be about $75 billion, it is estimated. That is nearly double the figure set in 1956, when the project was started.

Because of the extended construction time, car owners in Lamb County will be contributing an additional $1,528,000 before it is finished, six years hence.

There is special interest in the Highway Trust Fund at this time because of the demand by many civic groups that it be used, in part, to support some public needs that they consider more urgent.

They contend that there is a pressing need to refurbish other transportation facilities, such as railroads, airports and mass transit generally, and that some of the money should go in that direction.

PEANUT PICTURE

Members of the Texas Peanut Producers Board and officials of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Agricultural Experiment Station recently reviewed the peanut industry in the state. Research and educational programs are underway on a wide scale basis to improve production and marketing techniques. Committees are active at the county level as well as the state level with result demonstrations being conducted in each peanut producing area. Disease and insect control are receiving major emphasis. Other work is being conducted in weed control, variety testing, breeding, fertilization, irrigation, harvesting and finding new uses for peanuts.

TRAVIS GRIMES is "Walking A Mile For A Child" in the special 15-mile hike Saturday morning to benefit the March of Dimes. He didn't have any blisters on his toes or heels at this rate — or at least as a result of his boots.

Tornado Warning Test Set Monday

The tornado warning system for the city of Littlefield will be tested at 8 p.m. Monday night, according to Leon Durham, Littlefield fire chief and co-ordinator of the city and county civil defense (CD).

This season, six short blasts will be sounded on the big whistle at the city hall to indicate a tornado has actually been cited, not just seen. Residents should find shelter immediately after hearing a whistle.

In addition to the fire whistle, two city units will be used this year in the tornado warning system. The two units will run with their "yelps" open. The parts of town the police cars will cruise in will depend on the way the wind is blowing.

Durham said the last time the whistle was tested, residents in Amherst heard the siren, but the warning wasn't heard in the southeast and southwest parts of Littlefield. The addition of the police units running with the yelps open is to give better protection to the town when high winds keep certain parts of town from hearing the blasts from city hall.

From now until the tornado season is over, the siren won't be sounded — even when there is a fire — if a cloud is coming up. Durham said. All firemen have plectrons and will be notified of fires by radio receivers.

The city of Littlefield has 37 CD members.

Eye Makeup Care Urged

By PEGGY WALKER
Copley News Service

Recent studies by the Food and Drug Administration have revealed a correlation between eye makeup and eye diseases. High bacteria concentrations in samples of eye-mascaras and shadows can constitute a hazard to the eye. These micro-organisms can invade a scratched cornea and cause infection, irritation, and it was found.

At present, apparently little is done to improve eye makeup safety, but women can protect their eyes from most eye problems by using cosmetic use, and by using common sense. Caution begins with keep-eyes products sanitary and what contaminates the eye.

Living bacteria in eye makeup come from everyday mixing mascara or eye-liner with saliva or even tap water, according to Dr. Wayne Bennett, an ophthalmologist. Storage conditions can affect cosmetics by allowing a suitable medium for bacterial growth. There are several minor irritants associated with use of eye cosmetics, such as conjunctivitis, or inflammation of the inner lining of the cornea, Bennett said.

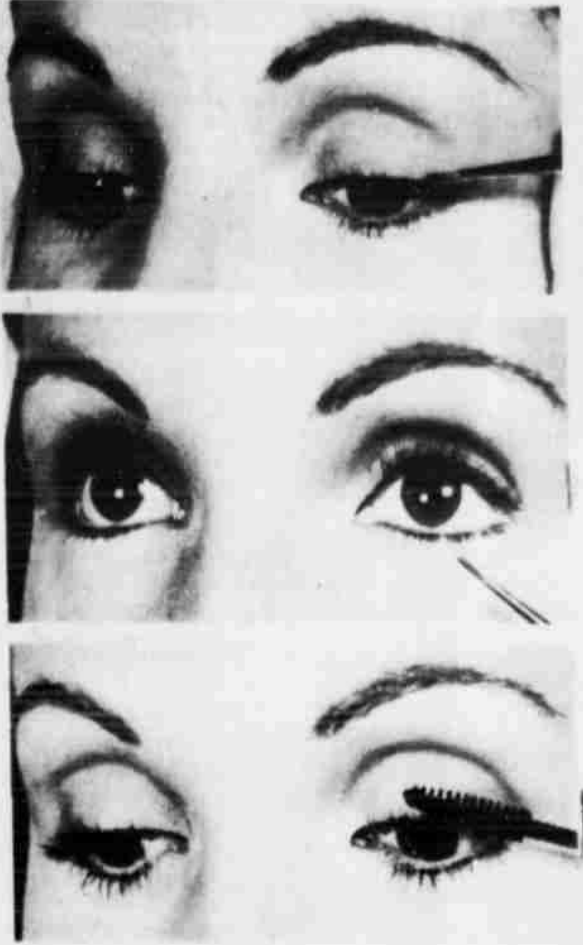

Most of these problems are the result of careless use of an eyelash brush, which can scratch the cornea, reducing its resistance to bacteria. There are several ways to protect yourself against potential eye problems, the ophthalmologist suggested.

Apply mascara to the outer lid, not the inside. If you're going to have eye surgery, stop using eye cosmetics at least a week before the operation. If you have an eye infection, stop using eye cosmetics before you are told it is safe to resume. If you have a contact lens, you will have to contact your eye doctor about your eye makeup.

Bennett said. He suggested that eye makeup should be discontinued in order to prevent recurring infection. "Some of the most serious eye infections have been seen in teenagers who pass eye makeup around and contaminate each other," he said.

The potential hazard of eye infections through cosmetics is not new. Bennett's clinical observation is that "it is surprising how infrequently cosmetics are responsible for serious eye infections."

Key word here, of course, is "infrequently." Cosmetics may be responsible for allergies, acute conjunctivitis, but there are hypoallergenic cosmetics available for those with sensitivities.

Cosmetics also may be responsible for direct eye irritations from particles, such as bits of mascara that flake off into the eye and scrape the eyeball or become embedded inside the eyelid.

But allergies, eye irritations and conjunctivitis are not considered serious or permanently damaging eye problems.

Bennett once encouraged patients not to wear eye makeup, but as he observed more and more patients over the years and failed to see many serious eye problems caused by cosmetics, he began to relax his former attitude.

While he would prefer his patients didn't use eye cosmetics, he now preaches strict carefulness rather than abstinence. "You have to be practical," Bennett said. "Some women tell me they'd rather go naked than go without their eye makeup."

While problems associated with cosmetic use are, generally speaking, controllable and not seriously damaging, they also are not uncommon, he concluded.

He would like to see greater controls on product safety before cosmetics are released for use.

"A good many of these things are not as well controlled as people might think," Bennett said. "The responsibility is pretty much left up to manufacturers. Buying reputable brands and using common sense are about the best insurance you can get," he advised.

Elderly Get Tips

By JOYCE ROARK
Copley News Service

Since we live in a youth-oriented society, people over 65 have problems in selecting clothes that are appropriate to them. The elderly have specific clothing needs that differ from the rest of us.

The senior citizens have undergone a physical change. Their bodies have shortened, there's a stiffening of the joints, and a shifting of body fat (enlarged waistline, etc.).

The abdomen and hips broaden, the legs and arms get thinner, and they are much more susceptible to temperature changes than is a young person.

The skin yellows, hair grays, and the blood vessels become more visible. The skin is also sensitive and irritates easily.

If you are a senior citizen or if you are shopping for one, keep these suggestions in mind:

Garments should open down the front. It's best if the garment does not have to be pulled over the head.

Avoid yellow, red, blue, blue-violet and purple garments. Bright colors are harsh on an older person and should be avoided.

Low necklines are not attractive. Clothes should be soft and have a minimum of seams.

Comfort is most important. Dresses should be designed with little accent on the bustline. The waist should be larger than normal and the design should deemphasize it. There should be a definite waistline or none at all. Avoid raised or lowered waistlines on garments.

Men's trousers should be shortened in the back and the waist should be increased in size.

Coats for men should have the waist enlarged but not the shoulders. The collar should be enlarged. Extra length in the back is needed for rounded shoulders.

Clothes for elderly people should be light in weight to reduce the pressure on the shoulders. Heavy clothing can create fatigue.

Shoes are important, too. They should support the instep. They should be able to be put on without bending over too far. They should allow for movement of the toes.

Questions on shopping problems may be sent to Joyce Roark, Copley News Service, P. O. Box 190, San Diego, Calif. 92112.

VEE Campaign Underway In County

Horseowners throughout Texas are urged to "get the jump" on VEE, Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis, that deadly sleeping sickness of horses. All horses that were not vaccinated last year should be vaccinated as soon as possible, advises Bobby Brunson, Associate County Agent.

"It was less than a year ago that the disease swept into the state from Mexico, killing hundreds of horses in its path," Brunson stated.

The 1972 campaign against VEE calls for vaccination of all equidae (horses, mules and donkeys) not vaccinated last year. In addition to Texas the vaccination campaign will include the Gulf Coast states and states adjoining Mexico. All these states have been designated "high risk" states by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The four categories of horses that should be vaccinated now are: (1) unvaccinated horses that have recently moved into the state; (2) foals born since last year's vaccination drive; (3) foals vaccinated under six months of age; (4) horses that were overlooked and never vaccinated, notes Brunson.

"Horses, mules and donkeys that were vaccinated last year need not be vaccinated again."

However, if there is any doubt as to whether the animal is vaccinated, it is best to vaccinate again, he pointed out.

Officials of the Texas Animal and Plant Health Service believe that the disease was confined to Texas counties in 1971, but it is important to vaccinate before mosquitoes, which transmit the disease, become active in the warm months ahead.

This year the vaccination program will be combined with the horse owner's annual check-up. Commercial vaccines are available and may be administered by a veterinarian.

Vaccination will provide immunity for more than a year and possibly longer. However, if there is any doubt as to whether a horse was vaccinated last year, it is best to vaccinate again.

Texas is still under quarantine for VEE and horses must have been vaccinated for VEE at least 30 days before being allowed to leave the state for other states. Horses for interstate travel must be accompanied by a vaccination certificate and individual animal's identification tag, tattoo or other mark.

About 92 per cent of the estimated horse population of 625,000 head were vaccinated in 1971. Almost 800 veterinarians participated in the vaccination campaign. More than 2.8 million horses were vaccinated in 1971 in the District of Columbia.

By appearance VEE is distinguishable from Eastern and Western Equine Encephalomyelitis. Symptoms include fever, loss of appetite, depression to stupor, staggering, blindness and death. More than 60 per cent of infected horses die.

All horse owners are encouraged to report any sickness in horses suspected of being encephalitis to their veterinarians.

A surveillance program is underway to check for infection in a variety of domestic animals in the Gulf Coast and Mexican states.

A BLOOMING TREE on South Phelps Avenue caught snow Thursday morning, but most of the snow had melted by noon, yielding .1 inch of moisture. The pink flowers were coated with the icy slush.
