12-Year-Old Boy Killed Near Spade Sunday Afternoon

A Wilcox, Ariz. boy was killed instantly Sunday when he was struck by a car while playing near Spade.

Cary Johnson, 12, was pronounced dead at the scene on Farm Road 54 four miles east of Spade in front of the Wayne Tate residence where he was visiting with his parents.

According to Highway Patrolmen, Ray Cannon and Harry Keyes, the victim, his two brothers and the Tate boy were shooting B-B guns and playing in the bar ditch. The three other boys went through the culvert to the other side of the highway.

The Johnson boy started to cross the highway on foot. An oncoming vehicle from Hart struck the boy when he dashed directly in front of the vehicle.

According to the patrolmen, the driver was driving the legal speed and slowed when he saw the boy and thought the boy was going to stop. Instead of stopping, the boy ran across the road. The boy was knocked 100 feet from the point of impact. The body was taken to Hammons Funeral Home.

Patrolman Cannon investigated another accident over the weekend. Gerald Wayne Vaughn of Muleshoe was traveling west on U.S. 70 six miles west of Earth and failed to make a turn onto FR 303 due to defective brakes.

area where the operation is to be conducted to the material detriment of persons or property in that area, may issue a weather modification permit to each applicant who:

- (1) holds a valid weather modification license;
- (2) pays the permit fee;

Hammons Funeral Home of Littlefield, handled local arrangements.

The youngster was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident on FM 54, 3.8 miles east of Spade.

According to Department of Public Safety investigators, the child was playing with other children in a ditch near the road.

CLIPS & TIPS

By JOELLA LOVVORN

"ROUND UP BEEF steaks and broil them to perfection to please Dad on his special day, Sunday, June 15. Or choose any other kind of beef and prepare it for him," advise members of the local CowBelles organization.

Mrs. Doug Walden, CowBelle chairman of the "Beef for Father's Day" project, reminds citizens that beef certificates may be purchased at First National Bank for presentation to Dad so that he may select his favorite kind of beef.

BROILING THE STEAK to the exact doneness Dad likes guarantees a celebration that will satisfy.

If he's an outdoor man, make it a cookout. A steak can be broiled to perfection whether the site is backyard, park, beach or forest preserve when the rules are followed.

No matter what the equipment or fuel used, the beef will be at its flavorome best when broiled at a low to moderate temperature, points out Mrs. Walden.

BROILED PORTERHOUSE STEAKS Steaks cut 1 to 2 inches thick are best for broiling. Place steaks on grill over ashcovered coals. Steaks cut 1 inch thick should be placed 2 to 3 inches from the heat; steaks cut 2 inches thick, 3 to 5 inches from the heat.

Cook at low to moderate temperature. When one side is browned, turn, season with salt and pepper and finish cooking on the second side. Season as desired.

EARL B. LUCE

Funeral services for Earl B. Luce, 78, of Ozark, Ark., who died at 1 p.m. Sunday, June 8, at his home, were conducted Wednesday afternoon in the First Baptist Church of Ozark with Rev. Anderson, pastor of the Methodist Church there officiating.

Burial was in Highland Cemetery at Ozark with Greer Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Luce was born April 19, 1897 at Gause and went to Amherst in April, 1924 as station agent for Santa Fe, and was mayor of Amherst at one time. He came to Littlefield in December 1938 and was partner in the Luce-Rogers-Nelson John Deere implement dealership.

He was co-founder and one of the original directors of Security State Bank in Littlefield. He was a member of the Tourism Committee of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, was active in the Highway 385 Association as a director, and was co-author of the book "Paha Sapa", which was about his ventures on Highway 385.

While in Littlefield he was a member of the First Baptist Church, and was presently a member of the First Baptist Church in Ozark. He was a Rotarian and a Mason.

Surviving are his wife, Catherine; a daughter, Elizabeth Nelson of Ozark; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Steaks cut 1 inch thick require approximately 15 to 20 minutes for rare, 20 to 25 minutes for medium; steaks cut 2 inches thick, 30 to 35 minutes for rare, 40 to 45 minutes for medium.

BEEF ROUND STEAK can be the all-around best buy when shopping for a meat cut that will hold the budget in line and provide a nutritious entree.

Lean and practically waste-free, it supplies more servings per pound than most meat cuts. Each pound is a good nutrition buy too since it contributes significant amounts of high quality protein, vitamins and minerals. All in all, a round steak purchase is a good way to maximize the food dollar, Mrs. Walden advises.

ROUND STEAK STACKS

1 1/2 to 2 pounds round steak, cut 1/2 inch thick

- 3 Tbsps. flour
- 1 tsp. paprika
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. dill weed
- 1/8 tsp. pepper
- 3 Tbsps. lard or drippings
- 24 carrot strips, cut 3 inches long
- 8 thin onion slices
- 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed onion soup
- 1 package (10 ounces) frozen succotash

Pound round steak into 1/4 inch thickness; cut into 8 pieces. Combine flour, paprika, salt, dill weed and pepper; dredge meat and brown in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Top each of 4 pieces of steak with 6 carrot strips and 2 onion slices. Top with remaining pieces of steak. Add onion soup. Cover tightly and cook slowly 1 1/2 hours. Add succotash and continue cooking 15 minutes, or until meat is

MANY OF THE FARMERS are complaining about an unusually large thrip population in the cotton this year. Some have experienced quite a bit of damage, especially on the cotton that was planted in early May.

Some farmers have noted that as the cotton gets older, a certain amount of thrip leaves. I guess this may be a year for insects. The reason for this is that this whole area had an abundant amount of small grain this past winter and a lot of insects were able to survive the winter because of the green winter crops.

Probably a little rain would help any situation at present. I've been told by some of the farmers in the Oklahoma

HAWNY GRITS

By CORNBALL

GUESS VACATION time is here. We're seein' a number of peeling noses, backs, and what expose you. Seems it's too hot to even think about vacation, but the very thought is pretty enticin'. Somehow, I doubt that we'll pass up any opportunities.

Do notice that the state promoters are advisin' us to "See Texas First" and save energy. Shucks, I can't even see Texas on what energy I've got!

NONETHELESS MANY of us can't think about vacation without envisionin' "Fur away places", and that's where the expense begins. Not only do we have to cough up for motel bills, and high-priced restaurant meals, we find that the major roads to resort areas are lined with exorbitant-priced fuel stops.

Too, we need to make sure the ol' bus is in first rate condition, before we hit the trail. It's like playing' a kind of Russian Roulette when you just load the ol' family car and take off. Having auto trouble in strange country sometimes changes a common expression to "I was a stranger; and they TOOK me!"

YOU DON'T HAVE to be an expert in order to check out some of the major trouble spots on your rig. Just a little time and trouble may help you avoid some major trouble while away from it all. (Friends too!)

Usually you can eyeball your tires and know whether you can trust them or not. Bear in mind, as you look at them, that you're gonna be carryin' a heavier than usual load. Try to imagine them flexin' along, mile after mile and hour after hour, at temperatures of up to 200 degrees or more. And the less tread you have, the hotter the tire will run. Even steel belts will melt after they're slick (I've found out).

IF THE FRONTS are showing lopsided wear, that means the front suspension needs attention. It may be a little tricky, but it's a good idea to take your vehicle to a service station, and buy a lube job. This gives you a good opportunity to move around under it and look at your tires, check your exhaust system for evident leaks and broken hangers, look for leakin' or broken shock absorbers, and any notable oil or grease leaks.

And while it's up in the air, take hold of your front wheels and shake them back and forth. You can spot loose wheel bearings and tie-rod ends in this manner. If your service station attendant is the right kind of Joe, he'll even help you, and may point out some things you've missed.

UNDER THE HOOD of your car, the cooling system is probably the most critical. If you've been having to add water to your radiator quite frequently, tender and vegetables are done. 4 servings.

PICKLES AND RELISHES certainly can add a lot to warm weather meals. And now's a good time to plan for the ones you'll want to make when your garden is ready to harvest.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has a booklet to help you make your own pickles and relishes. It gives directions for selecting and preparing pickling ingredients and for processing pickles and relishes.

Included are basic recipes for old-time favorites such as pickled peaches and piccalilli. For a copy of "Making Pickles and Relishes at Home" send 45 cents to Consumer Information, Dept. 25, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

The booklet includes the following advice:

"Alum and lime are not needed to make pickles crisp and firm if good-quality ingredients and up-to-date procedures are used.

"Use tested recipes. And be sure to measure or weigh all ingredients carefully.

"Select tender vegetables and firm fruit.

"Use pure granulated salt if available. Do not use iodized table salt; it may darken pickles. Un-iodized table salt can be used, but the materials added to salt to prevent caking may make the brine cloudy.

Flat area that it rains on the just, and then the unjust, and then on us. So let's don't give up, our time is coming. Noticed around Hub that they had a lot of hail Monday night. Also some hail damage was reported in the Whitharral area. Spade was blessed with a heavy rain. Some in the area reported some hail.

In the Littlefield area and on west, the rain was spotted— maybe our time for rain will be later this week, just as soon as we get the wheat harvested.

I'D BETTER cut this column short this time because I've heard that Cornball has a rather lengthy novel again this week.

you have trouble. The engine has to be going someplace. Look for tell-tale water hose connections. The best these is in the early morning engine has been started. If water leaks in your system, you'll catch them right in time. Too, you can remove cap to check the water level having your face blown full with water.

MOST MODERN VEHICLE safety locks on the radiator simply turn the cap clockwise until you feel it hit the stop. You must exert pressure to allow the tangs to pass under as you continue to turn clockwise. Under no circumstances ever attempt to remove cap from a hot engine. No risk serious injury by number two: you're apt to be coolant. This especially if the the bondoos, some place vacation spoiler!)

Check your belts. They taut to the touch, and ragged around the edges. They should not be cracked. Even if they appear fair condition you should especially the one that drive and water pump. Power conditioning you can drive not the water pump and fan.

HAVE A LOOK at your catching one of the blades back and forth, between radiator, (engine NOT running!) you can tell whether pump and modulated fan-good condition. Excessive be inspected by someone. Of course this doesn't give the seal may not give away pump, but then, no one else this may happen, either. Thing for sure, tho, a water loose shaft isn't long for the new pump may cost a wad. it's better than dehydrating desert road, while waiting dollar-per mile wrecker!

IF YOU'RE going to drive sure your lights are all working order. (No use attention to yourself, by patrolmen.) If you're loaded silly) pretty heavily, it's a have your headlights adjusted you're ready for the road. In havin' your approach flashin' his lights in your line yours are too high and blind.

I love to drive at night. It seems to run better and cool my tires aren't running as hot. My air conditioner less, mileage is better— This can drive on a four-lane highway do this, be sure you have a coffee along, and are prepared during the day. But, this is point.

OF COURSE, YOU'LL want the ol' bus a road test before. If the engine goes, "Hummm" instead of "Pop-poppy-pop" ready for the road. That's a service station attendant has your oil and filter, lube'd checked the differential, the brake master-cylinder, and fluid level.

Now if your steering feels tires don't have rocks in the way speed, you're off!

What's this? You've already your vacation-money makin' roadworthy? That's too bad! should make it out to the location to see some of the kids play. And, who knows, some from even offer to buy you a hot-

Batter up!!

There are times when you just know you'll get a hit—until you swing and miss that third strike! Success is never certain in this world—even to the fellow with confidence written all over his face. Frequently, achievement comes with giving your best when you're not convinced your best will be enough. Religion cannot guarantee success to any man. It promises all men the spiritual impetus to realize their best. When you come to church next Sunday, you'll gain a deeper understanding of your virtues and of your faults. Such understanding—with God's help and God's forgiveness—inspires us to give our best to every challenging opportunity.

Pep Student Assists State Representative

Brenda Kuhler, sophomore from Pep and Jo Stanley, freshman at South Plains College, were in the Austin office of Rep. E. L. Short working during the final week of the 64th Session of the Legislature. They worked on the House floor as honorary pages in addition to general administrative tasks.

They also viewed and reported on the progress of Legislative sessions and committee hearings. Brenda and Jo attended the House Select Committee on Impeachment of Judge Carillo; this is only the second such proceeding in Texas History—the first being Gov. Ferguson.

Brenda, who is from Pep, said "First-hand experience and participation are said to be the best teachers. This program has allowed both that privilege and opportunity for me and many other students. Working on the House floor was the most beneficial and exciting way for me to see how the Legislature operates. It also creates a deeper realization for the work and long hours that are put in here. This is a great program and I feel very fortunate to have been able to participate in it."

Jo, who is from Levelland, said "I have enjoyed working at the Capitol this week. It was especially interesting working on the House floor among all the Representatives. Being able to see our government in action is so much more rewarding than studying it in school."

To me,
nothing tastes better than fine tobacco.
But I don't smoke.

To millions of Americans, the good taste of tobacco doesn't always come from smoking.

It also comes from tasting. From placing a pinch of tobacco between cheek and gum, and savoring it.

And yet, to millions of others, this age-old tobacco pleasure is still a mystery. Possibly because they've never tried it.

Or because, as is true, the use of "smokeless" tobacco is an art, and takes practice.

A pinch in a pouch.

So, to make it easier, we've made it different. We've made Good Luck. A whole new way to enjoy tobacco.

Good Luck is a pinch of choice "tasting" tobaccos, in a neat little pouch. And the pouch is what makes it different.

You place Good Luck, pouch and all, between your cheek and gum. Then, as it rests there, the pouch works like a tea bag. To let tobacco flavor out, while the tobacco stays in.

Nobody knows.

Naturally, any form of "tasting" tobacco takes a little getting used to.

But with Good Luck, it's easier because the pouch holds the tobacco all in one place. It sits comfortably, and no one knows it's there, but you.

Also, each pouch comes properly pre-measured, so you always get the right amount.

Sealed in foil.

To keep the tobacco fresh and moist, each Good Luck pouch is sealed in foil. That also keeps it from spilling into your pocket.

And because you don't smoke Good Luck, it's perfectly welcome in places where smoking isn't. Such as a courtroom, on a bus, or near inflammables.

And unlike a cigarette or a pipe, Good Luck won't tie up your hands. You enjoy its tobacco flavor no matter what you're doing.

Rich tobacco tradition.

Now you're acquainted with Good Luck's little pouch. But what about the tobacco that comes inside?

Well, it's made by United States Tobacco Company, whose other tobaccos, without a pouch, are now enjoyed by over 6 million Americans. And Good Luck is part of the same tradition. Only the pouch makes it easier to use.

Good Luck, Rich choice "tasting" tobaccos, in a neat, little pouch. Slip it between your cheek and gum, and the pouch works like a tea bag. The flavor gets out, the tobacco stays in.

For people like you.

But no matter how you use tobacco (or even if you don't), we think Good Luck will add to your pleasure.

Try it.

We put Good Luck in a pouch, for people like you.

Try Good Luck, a whole new way to enjoy tobacco.
