THEY'RE HAVING A BALL!

Jolly Grandmothers Roll

The "Jolly Grandmothers" bowling team readily admits there may well be better bowlers in Lamb and Hockley Counties, but "we have as much fun as if we could bowl good."

Gray hair, granny spread nor bifocals can keep the Whitharral grannies and widows from having a "ball". The group includes Opal (Mick), Mixon, Margaret (Granny) Jones, Ruby Moore, Irene Howard and Pearl Polando.

Margaret Jones is Whitharral's official "Granny", the whole community having adopted her for her sweet personality, kind heart and helping hands. Granny, Ruby Moore and Pearl Polando are widows. The other two members, Opal Mixon and Irene Howard are fun-loving grandmothers.

The "Jolly Grannies" have been bowling just over a month now, and plan to continue their once a week bowling on Tuesday nights in Littlefield.

Before they started, Mick Mixon, Irene Howard and Granny Jones had bowled "one time at a Sunday school party about eight years ago." Mrs. Polando and Moore "had never bowled before in their lives.

Now they have added the words "strike" and "spare" to their vocabularies, and the wham of the ball making contact with the ten pins and the sweep of the pin-setter racking up new frame has added a new dimension to their lives.

No longer do they count sheep, if ever they did, now they count bowling vacuum hoses were taken off a 1969 GTO parked in front of Norma's on Phelps Ave. Monday night. The owner of the car was watching a movie at the theatre across the street when the theft occured. Coils on the car next to the Tolbert car were cut also.

An electric impact wrench was stolen from Pierce Oil Co. about 10:30 the same night.

Maron Mathews, one mile south of Lumsden Gin, lost a $40 storm door off a vacant house this week.

Jack Grace, Floyd Martin and J. D. Melton reported a large loss from vandalism. Four motors, two owned by Grace and one each belonging to Martin and Melton were damaged when vandals packed dirt in the oilers, gear heads and crankcases of all four motors. Vandals also tore off wires, panels, oil and gas lines and breathers. Irrigation pipe connections were also torn off.

Mrs. Mae Bozeman, 210 N. Austin, reported that someone threw a rock through her front window glass about 10:30 Wednesday evening.

Postal Department Awards New Contract

Postmaster General Winton M. Biount announced recently that a contract has been awarded to Craig B. Silverthorne, Plainview, to build the new Post Office Building in Whitharral, and lease it to the Post Office Department.

The announcement of the award to the successful bidder advances the new building closer to the construction stage. When fully operational, the Postmaster General said, the additional space and more modern equipment will, in the long run, more than offset the extra cost involved in producing more efficient handling of the mail, in accordance with present policies to provide the best possible postal service at the least possible cost. The new building will be leased to the department for five years with options to renew the lease for an additional 15 years at the annual rental of $1,410.00 for the basic term. The new Whitharral Post Office building is expected to be completed by early summer of this year.

Where The 'Apathy' Is?

The Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, in its latest bulletin to members, included a message on "apathy" which we think merits repeating here. Entitled "The Reward of Apathy," here it is:

APATHY has a lot going for

It is easy to catch and is painless. You can ignore it and nothing happens. The stronger it gets the less you feel you need to do about it.

It becomes most noticeable when it begins to spread over a large area. When it does, the individual feels it belongs to someone else.

Another appealing thing about apathy is the warm glow of nothingness it gives. The temptation is to leave it alone and it will go away. With this attitude it may stay.

Apathy demands a special treatment for it will not go away alone.

The treatment starts with a good dose of involvement followed by long periods of

It may be hard to get a confirmed apathetic to take the cure. And then it isn't permanent.

Action must be rewarded while apathy is to be condemned. Since it is easier to condemn than to praise, it stands to reason that apathy is here to stay. It is needed by those who would rather condemn than act.

Apathy has a lot going for it, but action is more fun. It must be. Have you ever heard anyone "Let's go where the apathy

Poverty Pays

WELFARE RECIPIENTS have now formed their own union-the National Welfare Rights Organizations (NWRO).

In 45 states, 30,000 families are taking part of their welfare checks to pay dues to this union so they can hire lobbyists in Washington, D. C., to lobby for more something-for-nothing.

As with most such organizations, poor people pay the bills so that the leaders can live mighty comfortably.

LAST FEBRUARY, 54 members of the "National co-ordination committee" for this outfit held a convention in Jackson, Miss. They converged by jet from all sections of the country, to wine, dine and convene at a downtown hotel.

Jackson News Editor James Ward, intrigued by the way 20and hundred-dollar bills were free-flowing around this poor people's gathering, invited himself to interview some of the delegates.

CONSISSIONS THE FARMER'S WIFE

"I BELIEVE I would have had the servants go get Teddy's

The occasion was a formal reception for congressmen and their wives, calling for black ties and long gowns. So what does the blonde haired Joan show up

A silver mini, a good six inches above her knees. Wouldn't you know?

The picture shows the President smiling broadly and gamely keeping his eyes glued on Joan's face (which isn't bad, either).

But not Pat. There she stands, primly decked out in her formal and long white gloves, next to the President, but her stare is definitely not on Joan's face-it's on her bare thighs.

THAT LOOK IS indescribable. There is thinly disguised shock, disapproval unbelief, embarrassment, all wrapped up in an expression somewhere in between a frown and a smile. Yet, in spite of all that, Pat still somehow manages to remain dignified looking.

Joan herself is smiling like the chorus girl that just got the lead on a new burlesque number.

There's a poor honor guardsman in the background that's doing his level best to keep looking straight ahead with no show of emotion whatsoever. He's ALMOST successful and gets A +++++ for effort.

Teddy's nowhere in sight. I guess he realized it was no use to

WELL, THIS JUST all goes to prove that the President's wife, whomsoever she may be, has to have lots of poise and tact and self control.

I showed the picture to several West Texas rural women and it's probably a good thing that none of them are our First Lady.

I posed this question to each one: "What would you have done if you had been in Pat Nixon's place at this particular time?"

Their answers follow: "I'd have had that honor guardsman escort Joanie home to change into a long formal. No, on second thought, I'd have had Teddy take her home. After all, HE'S the one that let her come like that."

"I'd have slapped my hand across Richard's eyes until Joan passed way on down the line."

"I believe in the theory if you can't beat 'em, join 'em. I'd have sent for the scissors and snipped all the other ladies' dresses off even shorter. 'Lessee-I think I'd have grabbed one of those long drapes in the background, yanked it down and thrown it over Joan's "Gee, I dunno. I guess I'd have done the same as Pat, but I'd make sure she was never invited to the White House again."

overcoat and take it to her. Surely she'd have taken the hint. "I'd have a swimming party soon just to see what Joan would turn up in-if anything." 'I think I'd have gotten my needle and thread and some flour sacks and tacked 'em on the bottom of that silver mini-right in front of the other guests. I really would." "I truly can't imagine what I'd do at a formal party like that, but I know I wouldn't have been as nice as Mrs. Nixon was."

"I'D HAVE MADE SURE some punch was spilled on her, even if I had to spill it myself."

"Well, I'd have been tempted to pull all that long blonde hair out by it's dishwater roots. Probably just tempted, though."

"I'd have told her that was a beautiful dress, it's a shame she didn't get it finished in time for the party.' "Well, if it happened in my home when I had knocked myself out to have everything real nice, I'd have sicced the dogs "I think I'd have reached

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Vigilance

By BOB WEAR

IN THE HISTORY of mankind, we find many thrilling accounts of how the people fought for and worked for the betterment of themselves and their situation. Sometimes the goal was political freedom, and sometimes it was religious freedom, or some other desirable blessing.

We are always impressed by their energy, sacrifice and dedication. The same general sources of information, however, also reveal the sad story of how these wonderful blessings and privileges were lost through carelessness and neglect. The time came when the people were no longer concerned, and had given up their spirit of dedication.

IT SEEMS THAT MANY PEOPLE NEVER quite learn that their blessings, privileges and opportunities must be guarded by eternal vigilance in order to be retained. History, if it teaches anything, teaches that misuse and neglect bring irreparable loss. There is never a time to cease our vigilance unless we are ready to give up all that makes life worthwhile.

We must learn that the continuation of our blessings and good opportunities demands the continuation of work, sacrifice and devotion. We must not only quard our rights against the threat of alien powers and influences; we must also guard against the loss we can suffer by relaxing our alterness and our dedicated service.

LET US NOT MAKE the mistake of thinking that just because we have certain rights and blessings today we will have them tomorrow, and on, and on, ad infinitum. If we take an honest look at life, as it is, and as we must live it, we will see that there is never a quitting time.

It was in September or October, 1952, and I was a graduate student at the State University of Iowa, assigned by the University newspaper to get Ike's picture.

That was back in the days when political campaigns were run on train wheels. Dwight David Eisenhower, a war hero with agreat, infectious grin, was campaigning to be president. A BIG CROWD awaited the train's arrival at the Iowa City station, and a lot of them were university students. But nowhere did you see hecklers, draft card burners, hippies, or the like. The only "pickets" were carrying signs that said, "I Like Ike." Occasionally, though, you would hear a "Hurrah for Adlai" I was 20 years old then, about to be 21 to cast my first vote in a presidential election.

Along with a lot of young people at that time, I liked Ike. And my first vote in 1952 would be cast for the next president.

THERE WERE a lot of ambitious photographers at Ike's whistle stop in Iowa City. I was among about eight

The train wasn't there long. Probably less than 10 or 15 minutes. And Ike's talk wasn't earth-shaking. It was more down-to-earth, a warm greeting with an optimistic flair. There wasn't long to tarry if I was going to get a picture. I finally nudged close enough to the rear platform to take one But another fellow in my group got the best picture, and his photo made the front page of the lowan the next morning.

Babe Ruth League Signup Is Tuesday

Babe Ruth League signup will be held between 7 and 9 p.m. Tuesday in the Pioneer Gas Building, according to league player agent Gene Pratt.

All boys interested in playing summer baseball, who are between ages of 13 and 15, are eligible to participate.

Players must bring with them to the signup at least one of their parents and their birth certificates.

Girls Playing Soccer At SPC

For the first time in the history of South Plains College, a soccer class for women is in full swing, under the instruction of Mrs. Judy Bryant, physical education instructor at SPC.

Coeds enrolled in the history making soccer class are: Donna Baker, Kathle Barton, Linda Becker, Gwen Brasell, Brenda Cole, Elaine Frerking, Leona Goad, Maria Gonzales, Karen McKennon, Teresa Marshall, Janet Morris, Lynda Packard, Carolyn Pinner, Jane Self, and Mona Welch.

Mrs. Bryant states about the class, The girls in the soccer class enjoy the new sport. They have had to learn a number of new skills, such as dribbling the ball with the feet, and using the head to stop the ball when it is in the air (the hands may not be used at all)." She also said that the girls had to learn how to take a few hard blows, once in awhile, that just ordinarily pop up in such a sport as soccer.

After mid-semester was completed Friday, the coeds enrolled in the soccer class were to begin lessons in the sport of field hockey. Mrs. Bryant says, "It may really get vicious out there on the field, when we get underway with the field hockey!'

There will not be two leagues for boys of that age this summer. Instead of Colt and Pony Leagues, all those boys except the 16-year-olds will play in Babe Ruth. The older boys will go into American Legion baseball.

All teams will be new when league action gets underway April 25, Games until school is out for the summer, will be played on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Fifteen players will be on each team. Sponsors in Littlefield are Ware-Richey, State Line-B&C Pump. Roden Drug and Dairy Queen. Should enough boys sign up for a fifth team in the city, Security State Bank will be the sponsor.

A team from both Amherst and Sudan will also be in the league.

League president Clayton Cowan attended a meeting of District 2, West Texas Division of Babe Ruth Leagues Monday night, where the dates for playoffs were set.

The District tournament for strictly 13-year-olds will be July 7, at Slaton. That will be a one-game elimination tourney, playing six-inning games.

The regular District tournament will be played July 14 in Morton. Six teams will be entered. A best two-out-of-three playoff will be held to determine four of the teams, and two others drew hves

Members of the District include Littlefield, Levelland, Brownfield, Slaton, Denver City, Lamesa, Post, Morton, Lubbock and Tahoka.

The Littlefield team will play against Lubbock, at Lubbock, July 11. and then here the following day. Should a third game be required to determine the tournament representative, the second date will be a doubleheader.

The winner advances into the District tournament. Denver City drew a bye, and host Morton has an automatic bye into the tourney.
