PROCESSING PLANT OPENS THIS WEEK

Anton Bunny Business Bounding

RODGERS
The rabbit industry at Anton got bound Tuesday when Rabbit Industries, Inc. flipped the switches and the gears rolling for the first processing plant.

Health and weight conscious consumers, there is a ready market for meat at supermarkets. It has a high value of seafood, is low in fat and high in protein. It is a recommendation for heart patients and by weight watchers.

Anton has a contract with a large processing company which has 21 plants across the southern half of the United States. Rabbit Industries made their first delivery of crust frozen rabbits this week which went directly into fresh meat cases in this area.

Later, the rabbits will be cut, packaged and hard frozen for nationwide distribution.

Rabbit meat is chunky, all white, has smaller bones and a sweeter taste than chicken. Rabbit dresses out about 50 to 52 percent. The meat sells for $1.49 to $1.79 per pound, making it comparable in price to chicken considering the protein and nutritive value.

The hare-raising venture includes processing the meat for distribution to supermarkets, tanning the pelts for use in women's coats, jackets and purses, the lining of men's coats and novelty items.

For the superstitious, rabbit feet are preserved in formaldehyde, dyed and dried and sold as key chains and good luck charms.

Blood and brains become important medical aids. Rabbit blood is the nearest to human blood of any animal. It can be reduced to plasma and used for diagnostic purposes. It takes 42 rabbits to produce one liter of serum, or a little more than a quart.

The brains are washed and after the blood vessels are removed they are blended with acetone, moved to a desiccator where they are dried into thermo plastin. This is used as a coagulant in human blood. Thirty to 40 brains produce one gram of dehydrated material.

Even the entrails are utilized in fertilizer, dog, hog and cat food.

"We'll just about break even with the rabbit meat," said plant manager Gilbert Lemmons. "If we're going to make any money, it's going to be in the by-products."

Rabbit Industries, Inc. has its own growing plant at Shallowater. With 1200 does, it is hoped they can raise 10,000 rabbits a year for the plant.

It is the smallest grower within a radius of 400 or 500 miles which will keep the industry operating, however.

They offer a pickup service, and go as far as Kansas to bring in a load of the live animals.

"Anyone with as few as 10 or 12 does will be assisted in any way possible," Lemmons said. "We've got the hutches, feed, medical supplies, nesting boxes, automatic waterers—everything needed to get into the business."

Cost to get into rabbit growing is about $50 for two or three does, a junior buck and hutches. A grower can expect about 24 to 30 rabbits per year out of each doe, and it takes nine to 14 weeks from the date of birth for the rabbits to reach the four to five and a half pound fryer size. At the present time a grower gets 42 cents per pound on the foot for his animals.

"Every rabbit raised should net the grower 75 cents to a $1," Lemmons said.

"Lots of people in a 200 to 300 mile-radius raise rabbits for their own meat. They can make this much per rabbit after paying for their own and their does' feed and medical supplies. An average doe will produce $18 to $24 per year net income. And that is a very conservative figure. Many growers make us feel silly by surpassing this figure each year."

Owners of the plant are a former Littlefield resident, Randy Aduddell, who now lives in Lubbock, and three Lubbock doctors, Dr. Ivan Barber, Dr. Royce Lewis, and Dr. Kenneth Scholz.

Bill Casey of Lubbock is consulting engineer and general manager.

Casey hopped into the bunny business about two years ago, and Lemmons has been raising rabbits about three years.

At the present time, Rabbit Industries hires 20 people, and will employ about 40 at full capacity. Up to 20,000 rabbits per week can be processed, but in the beginning phase about 3,000 to 3,900 a week will be handled.

Anton residents guaranteed the firm a $100,000 loan to get the plant in Anton. Also vying for the plant were Slaton, Crosbyton and Littlefield.

The former lumberyard location now boasts an investment of $300,000.

And the way things are hopping, it looks like the new plant is bound to be successful.

Judge Issues Judgment In Telephone Rate Case

Pat Boone Jr., presiding judge of the 14th Judicial District Court of Texas issued a judgment Tuesday in the case of the cities of Littlefield, Lubbock and Anton versus General Telephone Company of the Southwest, Inc. for rate regulation.

Boone ruled in favor of the cities, stating that being as the cities are regulatory authority over telephone rates and charges within their respective jurisdictions, and that the case of such authority is legal; and after the court's consideration of the pleadings, evidence and arguments as presented by both sides and after the court's failure to find a fair return upon the fair value of the property used and useful in the local telephone service; the court ruled that General Telephone's request for a permanent injunction to enforce the cities' rate ordinances be denied. The court ordered that General Telephone be perpetually restricted from putting into effect any charges or rates for telephone services other than those in the current rate order of the respective plaintiff.

The court ruled that the cities could not sue for presentation of evidence, or seek other relief that was not granted in this ruling.

Monthly rates for the three cities will include:

BUSINESS: Individual line service, $14.30; two-party line service, $10.50; and extensions, $1.75.

RESIDENCE: Individual line service,

$6.80; two-party line service, $5.85; four-party line service, $5.30; and extensions, $1.25.

OTHER: PBX-PABX trunk, $21.35; Key system line, $14.30; and Semi-public business one party, $14.30.

City Grants SPS Franchise, Sets Election For April 1

In a relatively short session Thursday night during their mid-monthly regular session, Littlefield's city council discussed four items of business.

In matters of old business, councilmen discussed and approved an ordinance granting a franchise to Southwestern Public Service Company for a term of 25 years.

The franchise was for construction, maintenance, equipping and operation in the city of Littlefield and to supply, distribute and sell electric energy to the city and its residents.

The new ordinance replaced the existing franchise agreement dated Feb. 23, 1925.

New business items included setting the date for the city election on Tuesday, April 1, and appointing Hazel Clement as presiding judge and Johnnie Ross as alternate presiding judge, and Blanche Dodgen as the clerk.

Janna Lou Reel was appointed clerk for absentee voting and Vera Moya was named deputy clerk for absentee voting.

Coming up for election will be the positions of mayor and two councilmen, as terms of Mayor J. E. Chisholm and Councilmen James Shotwell and Paul Carmickle are expiring.

The polls on election day will be open in city hall from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. that day.

Deadline for filing for placement on the ballot is Monday, March 3, or 30 days prior to the election day.

On other new business items, councilmen voted to recommend the establishment of a utility advisory board under the Texas Municipal League; and discussed the need for a mobile home park ordinance. Councilmen asked City Attorney Ted Sansom to secure samples of ordinances from other cities comparable to the size of Littlefield.

In reference to the mobile home ordinance, City Manager Jim C. Blagg presented the council with a memorandum in their agenda folders. It reads:

In response to a request by certain members of the City Council, the administrative staff has begun preparation of information and other facts related to mobile homes and their control through a Mobile Home Ordinance. The basic need to control mobile homes is two fold.

First, the placement of mobile homes should be restricted to prevent the placing of mobile homes in places where it is difficult to reach with fire and other public safety vehicles. For instance mobile homes are often placed on the back part of lots which already have houses on them or they are often squeezed between two existing houses. Both of these situations make it difficult to properly fight fires.

The second reason for control is to make sure that mobile homes are properly taxed. Mobile homes are difficult at best to tax due to the fact that they are mobile and can be easily moved. By again restricting their placement we make the likelihood of evasion of taxes more difficult.

At present, there are approximately 70 mobile homes within the city limits. Only about 13 of these are in a mobile home park. This number of mobile homes does not present a pressing problem, although the problems outlined above certainly would apply to any number. However, with the possibility of the location of a spinning mill in our community, I believe we can expect a significant increase in the number of mobile homes.

Due to the problems outlined above, it is recommended that the City Council consider passing a Mobile Home Ordinance. It is also recommended that the Council consider an ordinance requiring that all mobile homes placed in the City in the future be placed in a mobile home park, that mobile home parks meet certain minimum requirements as to design, construction, maintenance, etc. If the Council does not wish to require mobile homes to be placed in a mobile home park, some requirements should be placed on mobile home placement such as lot size, off street parking, no other buildings on the lot except storage buildings, etc.

Perhaps some combination of the two would be more acceptable and still satisfy our needs. Perhaps the Council would consider a Mobile Home Park Ordinance, but allow mobile homes in other areas if they met some requirements as suggested above.

With some direction from the Council as to the type of ordinance desired, the Administrative Staff will begin to put together the desired ordinance.

Residents To Be Refunded For Baby Food Purchases

Heinz U.S.A., division of the H. J. Heinz Company, announced today that as a precaution it is voluntarily recalling all boxes of its instant dry baby cereal, and Lamb County area residents may get refunds on these cereals.

The company said it is taking this action because a thorough investigation indicated that small metal fragments found this week in two boxes of the cereal could have been introduced during the manufacturing process.

Products involved are Instant Rice Cereal, Instant Barley Cereal, Instant Oatmeal Cereal, Instant Mixed Cereal, and Instant High Protein Cereal. All are dry cereal products produced only at the company's Pittsburgh factory. No other Heinz baby food products are affected.

In announcing the recall, Raymond F. Good, president of Heinz U.S.A., said, "We are taking this action because we cannot ensure the quality of every box of our dry cereal now on the market. Although no injuries have been reported and the possibility of any injury occurring is slight, we believe consumer safety must be our paramount concern."

Immediate removal of all dry cereal from wholesale and retail distribution is underway. Consumers are asked to discard the contents of any boxes in possession and mail tops, along with the address, to: Heinz, Pittsburgh, Pa. A refund of the purchase cost of postage.

Unrelated to the occurrences was an incident in which two were found by two in Charlotte, N.C. The Instant Rice Cereal later traced to a filling tank by a routine inspection. Filings apparently were later swept up during initial flow of cereal tank was filled.

Woman's Club Hears Speaker Present Library Program

Littlefield Woman's Club held its January meeting Wednesday. After a brief business meeting, H. C. Randall talked to the club on plans for the proposed Lamb County Memorial Library. In his opening remarks Randall said, "The topic of a new library for Lamb County is quite fitting for the woman's club since the Littlefield Woman's Club was the first to recognize the need of a library and bring it to the attention of Lamb County people. It has had the support of women from its early beginning. "The present library and its staff have served well," he said, "but now, as our needs have increased, it is necessary that the library be expanded. "Without any idea of downgrading our present library," said Randall, "allow me to say it does have disadvantages; its location is one of them. Being in the basement of the Court House necessitates descending and ascending stairs, and this often presents a problem for the elderly. Also the hours which it remains open must conform to the courthouse office hours. This prohibits students of our schools from its use on weekends. "There is a need for the VA PROGRAMS Since the first of the three GI Bills became effective in 1944, some 15 million veterans have taken training under some Veterans Administration program. That brings the total amount in contributions to $72,500, leaving a balance of approximately $175,000. We hope that local clubs, as well as individuals, will rally to the cause—clubs with money-raising projects, perhaps, and individuals who are willing to accept a contribution card, therefore pledging their help. "Can we do it?" Randall asked. "I think we can." After the conclusion of Randall's talk, members of the Texas Heritage Department of the woman's club urged everyone to make use of our own library. Titles of a list of books on Texas were quoted. Among them are: "Texas Missions", "Texas Forts", "Texas Court Houses", "The State Capitol", and "Texas Trees". Hostesses for the meeting were: Mmes. A. B. Brown, chairman; A.M. Dunagin, Jeff Perkins, Audie Collins, Roy Hicks, Alda Hutchins, C. O. Stone, Addie Abernathy, Frank Hayne, and W. D. Hall.

Highway Patrol Investigates Eight Accidents

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated eight accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of December, 1974, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area. These crashes resulted in one person killed and three persons injured. The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the year of 1974 shows a total of 109 accidents resulting in five persons killed and 55 persons injured. The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for December, 1974, shows a total of 598 accidents resulting in 11 persons killed and 340 persons injured as compared to December, 1973, with 499 accidents resulting in 17 persons killed and 277 persons injured. This was 99 more accidents, six less killed, and 63 more injured in 1974 at the same period of time. The 11 traffic deaths for the month of December, 1974, occurred in the following counties: three in Potter; two in Haskell; and one each in Clay, Garza, Lamb, Moore, Randall, and Wheeler.

Heart Resolutions

FOR RESIDENTS of Lamb County who haven't made their New Year's resolutions yet, the Lamb County Heart Association has a suggestion: Resolve to reduce your risk of heart disease by taking better care of your heart.

Tom Tollett, president of the Lamb County Heart Association, says the best way to begin is by getting a complete medical checkup. "Your doctor can tell whether you're a candidate for heart attack or stroke. And he can prescribe the preventative measures you and your family should take to reduce your risk."

Many heart attack deaths can be prevented if the victims or their families know and recognize the early warning signs of heart attack.

—Prolonged, oppressive pain or unusual discomfort in the center of the chest.

—Pain may radiate to the shoulder, arm, neck or jaw.

—Pain or discomfort is often accompanied by sweating.

—Nausea, vomiting and shortness of breath may also occur.

—Sometimes these symptoms subside and then return.

Blood pressure is another important area that Lamb County residents should resolve to watch. Some 23 million Americans have high blood pressure and half don't know it. The disease usually has no special symptoms. While it can usually be controlled, when left unchecked, it can lead to heart attack, stroke, heart or kidney failure.

Your doctor can tell if you have high blood pressure by performing a simple test. By following his orders and taking the prescribed medication, those with high blood pressure can reduce their risk of heart attack and stroke.

The Heart Association president cited other risk factors that can lead to heart attack and stroke. They include high blood cholesterol, cigarette smoking, a diet high in saturated fats and cholesterol, stress and a lack of exercise.

Living a heart-healthy life isn't a hard resolution to keep. All you have to do is make a few moderate changes in your lifestyle, such as having your blood pressure checked regularly, stop smoking cigarettes or at least cut down, eating foods low in saturated fats and cholesterol and getting regular daily exercise.

As part of your new, heart-helping lifestyle, resolve to make a generous contribution when a Heart Fund volunteer visits your home in February, designated as American Heart Month.

THE NOT SO DARK HORSE

AVALON -- FEATURES

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Begin Now

WE CAN NEVER BE ALL we may wish to be, but this is not justification for being upset. All of us have limitations which must be accepted, and then there are some things we probably have no desire to be.

Nevertheless, there are sufficient possibilities for all of us; but, for some, that which is possible will never be realized; because these persons will never make a beginning.

WE CAN NEVER do some things, because they are out of our reach. There are other things, within our reach, that we can do; if we can only get started.

Once we determine what we are able to do, we should "begin now".

WE MUST WAIT about becoming some of the things we can be, and we must wait about doing some of the things we can do. This does not mean, however, that we must be idle.

While we are doing the required waiting, we must be learning to be whatever we can be; and doing what we can do. For all who wish to make the best of living, there is an urgency which cries out, "begin now."

IF WE DESIRE IMPROVEMENT in our family life, we can accomplish some degree of this improvement by improving ourselves. If it is the desire to be a better father, or mother, or husband, or wife, or son, or daughter, we can be.

Why wait? The rewards more than justify the efforts, but there must be a beginning; therefore, "begin now".

WE CAN ADD to our work and the results will be very profitable. There will be personal satisfaction, a sense of accomplishment, and usually a financial compensation.

We often say to ourselves, "I will do this," but we do nothing. Why do we wait? It would be better for us to "begin now".

WE ARE GOING to do more things, we are going to improve our working skills, we are going to do the more important things we are going to do so many things we are able to do.

Yes, we are going to do all of these things, but we never put them into action, unless we "begin now".

"HOW MANKIND DEFERS to do the best it can do, and beautiful things it can enjoy, thinking that every day may be the last, and that lost time is lost forever," Muller.

MUCH OF OUR personal unhappiness and loss are caused by procrastination. These unhappy feelings are caused by our failure to do what we feel about our failure "to get started," and, in addition, there are the eventualities we incur.

WE MUST "BEGIN NOW" to do whatever we are able to do.

Littlefield, Texas

Dear Sirs:
Hello! I am a student of Sudan High School. In our history class this year we are required to do a term paper on the bicentennial year. In this report we are to tell of the progress, growth, prosperity, changes or whatever that have taken place in the last 200 years in Sudan and Lamb County.

I was wondering if you had any information that I could use. Your help would be greatly appreciated! Thank you very much!

Yours truly,
Shelley Hargrove

EDITOR'S NOTE: We'd be happy for you to come to the office here and look through our bound volumes of newspapers. We also have a copy of the 50th Anniversary paper that could give you some information.)

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is a copy of the letter that members of Bill Clayton's family left with him to accompany the "This Is Your Life" gavel and sounding block they presented to him Tuesday following his being named Speaker of the House of Representatives.)

Dear Bill,
The gavel was made from wood from off the old home place and made by James Packard of Springlake.
We have called it "This Is Your Life Gavel". On the band we have placed pins portraying your life. Weldon Findley of Littlefield gave his time and the lovely stones and Alvis Jones of Littlefield gave the gold band around the gavel.
The small cotton boll represents your life as a youngster on the farm and later as a farmer and business man.
This A&M pin representing college life is over 25 years old, and we imagine older than Aggie jokes.

Your work in church, Lions Club and Water, Incorporated is portrayed by your pins which we were able to secure with (wife) Delma's help. Your brother Don placed a Masonic emblem on the band.
The small gavel on the band represents your leadership on committees. It is over 30 years old and is a part of Mother's Eastern Star pin.
We added a tie clasp that belonged to Dad. It is a small bullet. Who would have thought years later that "biting the bullet" would be a popular political saying.
Dad left us the most treasured gift of all, a strong Christian heritage, a good example and sweet memories.
In the center of the band is your pin, the Seal of Texas, representing your service to the people of Texas.
A ruby has been placed at the top, representing your living, devoted wife, Delma. Proverbs 31:10-11 states, "Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her."
Surrounding the state seal are the birthstones of those so very dear to you: your daughter, Brenda; your son, Tommy; and precious granddaughter, Lisa. For they too are serving the state of Texas by sharing with you the people of Texas.
The sounding block has your first campaign card on it.
May you yield the gavel in all fairness, remembering that some day we shall stand before the All Wise and All-Knowing Judge, and may He say "Well done thy good and faithful servant."

With our love and prayers,
Ann, Mother and Don

A Woman's View

By PEARL BRANDON

IN THIS TIME of doubt and fear, when most of the news we get has a distressful tone, we need to keep our individual faith in ourselves and our God.

Once when John the Baptist was in prison he sent some of his disciples to find out if Jesus was the real Messiah or should they keep on looking for another to come. Jesus told them to go back and tell John about the miracles they had seen Him do. "The blind people I have healed, and the lame people now are walking without help and the lepers are cured, and the deaf hear and the dead are raised to life; and tell him about the Good News to the poor."

THEN HE SAID, "Give him this message, 'Blessed are those who don't doubt me.'"

John wanted to know if his work was done. He was in prison and must have been worrying about finishing the work he was born to do, that of preparing the people for the coming of the Messiah.

THE MESSIAH had come and John's mind could be at peace. A short time later he was beheaded, but he had fulfilled his mission.

The words of Jesus, "Blessed are those who don't doubt me," apply to us now. We have to go on living our daily lives, meeting and solving our problems as they come, placing our faith in God to see us through.

LIFE GOES ON. Children are born, young people marry and establish homes, older people must continue to be a solid influence in helping the young and inexperienced. All of us have our parts to play and we need to cling to that blessed faith in God who helps us solve our problems, or gives us strength to live with those we can't change.
I used to like that old rhyme that was in my school book as a child, "For every evil under the sun, there is a remedy or there is none. If there be one try to find it, if there be none never mind it."

JESUS SAID that even on up to the end of the age (or time) "there will be banquets and parties and weddings." So you see life for us will go on about the same, no matter what may happen, even in spite of recessions and inflation.

We probably won't be able to buy as much as we are accustomed to, but most of us have enough clothing in our closets to last many years. Most of us eat too much and we don't exercise enough. Our children and grandchildren have so much it is hard to find a gift for them.

SO IT WON'T really hurt us to tighten down a little and learn to share more. It certainly won't hurt us to get closer to God and pray more.

Usually when Jesus healed someone, He would say, "Your faith has made you whole." We need to keep our faith.

LIFE IS MADE up of good and bad times. The bad times are what makes life interesting.

When you are reading a book you are more interested in the character who has to claw his way up than the one who has everything.

THE THINGS we remember most about our past are the difficulties we managed to pull through—or the times when we were at our wits end and the Lord came through for us.

"Blessed are those who don't doubt me," says the Lord.

THESE QUOTATIONS today are from the "Love" addition of the new testament. I don't know who wrote the rhyme.

'Appliance Parade' Set, To Feature Home Aids

Kitchen clean-up chores get help with today's disposers and compactors—but often homemakers wonder about use and care techniques for these appliances, according to a local home economist.

An Appliance Parade from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday, Jan. 27, at the Lamb County Electric Co-op in Littlefield will offer area homemakers this consumer information, Mrs. Dorothy Powell, Lamb County Extension Agent, said.

"Local and area homemakers will hear tips on buying, care and use of major home appliances in short, 20-minute programs throughout the day," she noted.

"Exhibits of today's newest appliances will be open for viewing, also." Previewing Appliance Parade tips on disposers and compactors, the agent noted that the two appliances have "separate, specific duties."

"A disposer is not designed to dispose of non-food items such as paper products and tin cans—and using a trash compactor as a receptacle for left-over food can cause odors in your home.

"So to keep it simple, name food waste 'garbage' and non-food items 'trash'—then remember to grind the garbage and compact the trash.

"Because all appliances are designed to do specific tasks, a properly used appliance insures greater efficiency and less maintenance," she added.

The Appliance Parade is sponsored by the Lamb County Home Demonstration Council and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, in cooperation with major appliance manufacturers.

American Heart Association Makes Plans For Fund Drive

The Lamb County Division of the American Heart Association, Texas Affiliate met Thursday, Jan. 16, at 7 p.m. in the Willey Room.

Tom Tollett, president, called the meeting to order. Minutes were read by Carole Faver and were approved as read. Reports of various committee activities were given.

Plans for the upcoming Heart Fund Drive were discussed and finalized. Mary Johnson, regional director from Lubbock, showed a film "So You're Asked to Raise Money".

Turn Row COMMENTS

By EMIL MAW

HEY HUSBANDS! In case you haven't heard, I'd like to inform you of a method that is supposed to help you live longer.

As the story goes, according to a survey, husbands who kiss their wives each morning before they go to work, should live five years longer, and to top that off, those husbands who follow this practice have claimed to increase their earning power as much as 21 percent.

With that type of effect on the man, I wonder what it does for the wife?

HEARD THAT A COUPLE of fellows got into the cattle business in one of our neighboring counties. They thought they had a sure fire way to make money in this new endeavor. One was stealing the cattle and the other was stealing the feed and they were still losing $50 per head.

SPEAKING OF THE CATTLE industry... The Independent Cattleman's Association is attempting to strengthen their position with hopes of getting the cattlemen and other interested persons in Lamb County to organize with them.

A meeting is slated for Thursday, Jan. 23, at 8 p.m. in the Lamb County Electric Co-op Willey Room. Speaker for the evening will be Bill Masterson, who is the director for this district.

I.C.A. was formed about six years ago by T.A. Cunningham of Goldsboro, is now over 100,000 strong and grows each day. No membership dues are required, just signatures. It is believed that endorsement is the way to get from our federal government.

The purpose of the Independent Cattleman's Association of Texas is to help protect and protect the livestock producer, promote research and better education.

A local group, headed by Bill Blackwell, is urging all cattlemen, ranchers and beef producers to attend this meeting. Cornball is invited, because of the he possesses.

AND THEN ONE DAY we came across this particularly appropriate jingle. The Wall Street Journal: Are there love the birds and bees, willing to be in the dark and freeze? If the distance between realism and the viewpoint of ardent environmentalists has been effectively expressed than in this couplet, we haven't come upon it in the present, this tells the story.

BELOVED is the chap who can't see he's wrong without sulking about it who can prove the other fellow wrong without gloating about it.

TERRY RODGERS rolled a 299 game at the Lamb Bowling Lanes last week. James Grimes, owner, said the odds for this next to perfect game reads 272,000 to one. Grimes said Ernest Mills is the only person who has bowled 300 and Rodgers is the only person who has bowled 299 in the five years he has been operating the lanes. "Everything got so quiet in the tenth frame, all you could hear was the pin setter clicking and Terry breathing," Grimes said. For this score, Rodgers will receive a ring with 299 inscribed on it, a bowling ball and four patches. Patsy Grimes presents him with the five pin, the one that he missed in attaining the perfect score. (Staff Photo)

- 5 DID YOU KNOW... extended credit past 36 months is available through many dealers?
- 6 DID YOU KNOW... the 1975's have cleaner more efficient engines with exhaust cleaning by the new catalytic converter?
- 7 DID YOU KNOW... the costs of parts and labor to refurbish your present car, tires, tune-up, etc., make the 1975 models an even better buy?
