The Wildcats will get to prove how good they are Friday. Last year, they opened against the Owls with a 38-0 win. It could have been even more impressive, had the Cats not fumbled ten

"I like the way we took care of the ball against Phillips," Blakely said. "We were able to move the ball outside well enough, but we weren't quite as strong inside. Of course, Phillips were stronger inside than Tahoka.

"Defensively, some of our people played better, and it looks like we're going to have some good football players on defense. Ben Farmer played well at defensive end. Buddy Jungman and Gary Lichte played well at outside linebacker, and Bryan Myres looked good in the secondary.

'Our quarterbacks (Terry Bryson and Kelly Pratt) ran the offense real well.

"We're in the stage right now where we need to play. We've gone through a lot of workouts, the boys are excited and we're very eager for our first game.

"I guess anytime you win your district twice in a row, you're going to be picked to win it again," Blakely said. "But actually, we've probably got fewer returning starters than anyone, with the possible exception of Friona.

"We've got six warmup games against some pretty good ball teams before district play starts, so we're just going to take them one at a time, try to improve, and by the time we get into district, hopefully we'll be ready to compete and defend our crown as true champions should."

The Cat starting backfield will be composed of Bryson at quarterback, Randy Cook at fullback, Pat Henderson at one halfback spot and Kenny Owens and Jungman at the other. Split ends will be Bill Turner and Stanley Fatterson, tight end is Chris Pope, tackles are Doug McCain and Ricky Hopping, guards are Skip Smith, Jerry Soria and Edward Yoakum, and the center is Ricky Richards.

Defensively, Myres, Turner, Bryson, and Henderson will play in the secondary. Jungman, Pope and Lichte will see action at outside linebacker, and Cook and Owens will man the inside linebacker post. Defensive ends are Farmer, Richards and Kenny Trotter, and defensive tackles are Smith, Hopping and McCain.

At present, five troops have leaders.

The first-year Brownies need to be organized (girls in the second grade), and the Brownies who are in the third and fourth grades are without adult leadership at present.

According to Kay Tunnell, the final payment will be made on the Girl Scout Hut this year. It takes about $1,000 per year to make the payment, pay the bills and keep the building in shape, and plans will be made at a later date to conduct the Girl Scout fund drive.

TGSP Board Election Deadline

The Sept. 15 deadline for mailing TGSPB ballots in the biennial election is approaching. More than 29,000 ballots have been mailed to potential voters in the 29-county Texas High Plains area and additional ballots have been mailed to county agents for those farmers who may qualify to vote but do not receive a ballot by mail.

Running for six year terms in the election are incumbents: A. W. Anthony Jr., of Friona, John Gilbreath of Hart, Don Marble of South Plains, and E. C. Witten of Edmonson. Also seeking terms are candidates: John Dunlap of Floydada, Don Nelson of Tulia, and Troy Sloan of Spearman.

To qualify as a voter, one must farm or cause to be farmed grain sorghum in the counties served by the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board. Those counties are: Armstrong, Bailey, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Cocharan, Crosby, Dallam, Dawson, Deaf Smith, Floyd, Gaines, Hale, Hansford, Hartley, Hockley, Hutchinson, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Moore, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Sherman, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum

The sealed ballots will be tallied by a committee of people not associated with the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers

Ballots can be disqualified for the following reasons: 1) if more than one ballot is signed by the same person: 2: if the voter fails to sign the ballot in the spaces provided and does not write his full address; or 3) if the ballot is postmarked later than Sept. 15, 1973. At last check with the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board office, located at 1212 14th Street, Lubbock, ballots were arriving at about 100 or more each day. They will be opened and counted Sept. 18.

Former Pep Minister Makes Italian Tour

EDITOR'S NOTE: Rev. Stanley Crocchiola, former pastor of St. Phillip's Church in Pep, has recently returned from an art tour of Italy. This account of the trip was printed in the Castro County News of Dimmitt.)

Rev. Stanley Crocchiola of Nazareth returned from his art tour of Italy with conflicting emotions.

After studying the great works of art in Florence and Rome, he couldn't bear to walk away from them. ("In a way, it's best not to see the art because you fall in love with it so much that you never want to leave it.")

Yet, to see Italy's great art, he had to put up with extraordinary rudeness from Italians, because he was an American tourist.

Illness forced Rev. Stanley to cut short his scheduled sixweek tour. During his fourth week there he became ill and had to make a choice: surgery in Italy or surgery in U.S. He chose to return home.

Despite his abrupt change of plans, he had a memorable trip. And he DID find a few Italians who were gald to see him-an aunt and uncle whom he had never met, "at least 60 cousins" in the Palermo area. For American tourists.

money has been a problem all over the world this summer because of the skrinkage of the American dollar. Rev. Stanley saw his dollars devaluated four times-by a total of 12 percent-during his four weeks in Italy.

'Each time we exchanged money, we got the feeling that they were thinking they wouldn't need our money anymore since ours was devaluating and theirs was going up." he said. "They told me many times, 'Your defeated us in the war, but now it's our turn.' And they told us on the streets of Naples, 'Go home-we don't need you American tourists anymore

Watergate had a lot to do with their attitude. The Italians are down

Americans as a result of Watergate. Rome has two English-language papers, both of which carried frontpage stories daily on the Watergate scandal.

Didn't it matter that Rev. Stanley's entire tour group were priests in their cassocks?

"No, priests don't count to many people there," he said. 'You know, Italy has the largest Communist Party membership of any country outside of Russia, exceeding even China in party membership, although the country has parliamentary government. Italy was ruled by the Communist Party until two years ago when the Central Catholic Party won control of the government.'

were There aggravations:

He had written ahead for a reservation at the English Hotel in Rome, where Hemingway and other famous American writers of the "Lost Generation" had lived and worked. But a mail strike in Italy kept his letter from getting to the hotel, and he had to shop around until he found a small boarding house.

And he didn't get to see the

He only has audiences on Wednesdays, and the man I was supposed to get a ticket from had gone to Florence. Before he and I could get together, I got sick and had to come home. I found out later-after I had gotten back home to the U.S.-that I could have gotten a ticket at the USO in Rome to see the Pope. That's something a lot of Americans are unaware of. If they had told me to go to the USO to begin with I would have seen the Pope.

But despite the natives' hostility, the dollar shrinkage the mail strike and the bad advice, Rev. Stanley was determined to carry out his pilgrimage to see the great works of the Italian masters and find his relatives and friends. As a result, he had some times he'll never forget.

One of his most memorable stops was at the Borgaese Palace in Rome, where he saw paintings by Michaelangelo, Raphael and Pisano, "and a number of others that most tourists are unaware of." And he visited St. Peter's Basilica five or six times.

Also, he spent more time than his fellow tourists in Florence, Pisa and Naples.

"When you stare at Michaelangelo's 'David' or 'Pieta', and the works of all the other masters, it just leaves you sick that you'll have to leave it and can't see it anymore," he said. "Now I find that I can't wait until I can see it again. But as far as just going to the country of Italy, well, there's no place Lodico, 79 in Palermo. And Mr. Lodico told Rev. Stanley about an aunt-Mrs. Felipa Ferrara. 92-whom Rev. Stanley didn't know existed. And he also met "at least 60 cousins," all from his mother's family.

"They took me to the place in Palermo where my mother was born," Rev. Stanley said.

'The bombers missed it by a block in World War II. Everything around it was still leveled, with rubble still around. The reason is that the government will not clean off individual property, and the individuals have moved to condominium apartments in a new section of the town. The old section is too close to the sea anyway, and may someday be turned into a new state park or something, when they get around to it.' In Palermo, Rev. Stanley stayed mainly with his newfound aunt, who hosted a constant "open house" so he could meet all his cousins. During their family reunions, they recalled how his mother and father had come to the U.S.

"My father was working for my mother's folks when gold was discovered in Alaska. They were sculptors. My father decided he wanted to try to find gold in Alaska. But before he left Italy, my mother's father was dicalled him to his best told him, 'You say you daughter, so I want make me a proma after you get to Alast send for her and you no one else but her's

Legitimate trade and vocational school operators became concerned, and urged that all the private schools be regulated.

As a result, the Texas Legislature passed a Texas Proprietary School Act, which took effect in 1972. The act, administered by the Texas Education Agency, requires T.E.A. certification of the private career schools; requires state approval of the courses they offer, and prohibits misrepresentations in course sales and advertising. As of now, some 240 proprietary schools have been certificated by the state, and applications from about 30 newly-organized schools are pending approval. This has been an obvious benefit to the Texans seeking to further their educational opportunities, and increase their earning capacities, in institutions apart from the college and university

Freedom Tastes Good

AMERICANS are a funny people One minute we're cursing the high cost of living, then we turn around and tell the joke about the lady who went into the butcher shop, took one look at the price of liver and exclaimed, "I want it for dinner ...not a transplant."

Or we tack bumper stickers on our cars urging the impeachment of everyone from the President to the city librarian, yet let a foreign country denounce the U.S., and a burst of outrage is sure to explode from many a citizen's lips.

YES, WE Americans are a stubborn, irascible, crazy bunch-proud of our country and able to laugh at ourselves and our troubles. We will defend our precious Constitutional rights such as freedom of speech to the death, if need be, while we're complaining about those nuts in Congress.

People in most other lands would never be able to understand these seeming contradictions.

To understand them is to know how good freedom really tastes.

Slow The Clock

THERE'S A NEW attraction in Washington, D. C. these days, and it promises to send many a citizen's blood pressure dangerously high.

It is called the federal spending clock. and it shows the rapid rate at which the federal government is spending your tax

THE CLOCK is located in the Chamber of Commerce building, and everyday the seconds tick off exactly how many dollars are being spent, a vivid example of how the federal spending spree has increased more than 100 percent in the last 10 years.

If you'd like to slow down the "clock"—and our nation's pell-mell race into bankruptcy, with its attendant evils such as inflation and high taxes to pay for such foolishness- let your Congressmen know today.

TOMORROW may be too late!

WELL IT FINALLY happened! For the first time in several years, cotton in our area has hit a market price of $51.95 per hundred, a jump of $5 over last week. This price is for Strict Low Middling Light Spotted with an inch staple and 3.5 to 4.9 mike.

The Dallas market jumped $5, in Houston the price hiked another $9, El Paso cotton increased $3.60 and so did Fresno. Phoenix had a price increased

The reason for the increased prices is a strong demand and short supply for the Western Region cotton.

Demand was good to excellent for most qualities of cotton being ginned in South Texas. Bidding on uncontracted cotton was brisk as many merchants attempted to cover previously made sales. Demand, particulary from foreign mills, contined to be good for cotton for forward delivery.

Merchants actively sought to contract 1973-74-crop cotton at most locations. Supplies of available new-crop cotton and 1973-crop acreage were short. Many growers had previously committed all or part of their crop. Contracting activities were brisk early in the week but slackened toward the last of the week hen offering prices began to fluctuate. Domestic inquiries were more numerous this week, mostly for cotton for prompt or nearby delivery.

The South Texas harvest gained momemtum late last week but was again delayed by varying amounts of rainfall the latter part of the week.

With the adverse weather in the valley it may be quite a while before harvesting could be resumed.

Insect populations built up in some Central Texas locations and control measures were being taken. Some growers in California's San Joaquin Valley were expected to begin defoliating in about two weeks. In Arizona the bottom crop was open in some areas and plants were continuing to fruit heavily.

Back home, some cotton has begun to open, most of this is noticed on early planted dryland patches that got hot from an insufficient amount of moisture. Some fields are beginning to show signs of stress from the lack of moisture, but on an overall average areawide, crops look good.

SOME FARMERS HAD a bit of bad luck this past weekend because of hail. Friday some crops received hail north of Littlefield and on south of Olton at the edge of the sandhills. Saturday, some farmers east and south of Pep received hail. This just proves one point and that is that it can hail in this country any month of the year.

FOR WHAT IT IS worth, cattle on feed in the seven states of Texas, Arizona, California, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa as of Aug. 1, 1973, totaled 9,122,000 head, an increase of 2 percent more than the 8,914,000 head on feed Aug. 1, 1972.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

The Common Good

ALL OF US ARE INTERESTED in "the common good". This has nothing to do with international communism, and is not part of it. "The common good" embraces our necessary in-terdependence, the many ways in which we can work together for the good of all.

The extent to which we fail to see, and accept this self-evident fact is a source of loss to us.

WE HAVE OUR WHOLESOME selfinterest, and we must recognize this for what it is. It is important that we understand this self-interest in relationship to "the common good". Each has a proper place, and neither one can be neglected.

If we do neglect either one of these, we hurt ourselves and others. In fact, justified self-interest, in its proper place, is essential to our maximum contribution to "the common good"; and a wise view of our responsibility for "the common good" is necessary to the full realization of happiness in pursuit of our self-interest.

"WHAT CAN I DO TO HELP?" This is the attitude of mind from which we gain both our personal satisfaction, and our eagerness to do our best for others.

If we try to live by the grossly selfish attitude, "What are they going to do for me?", we are in trouble; and will be the cause of trouble for others.

I CAN HELP, you can help, and everybody else can help. First, each one of us must exert our maximum effort to accept and meet our obligations.

Now and then we will to assistance, and, when we are doing our best, we will usual this assistance. We will also the opportunity, and the n

The program, however, does excite the imagination. If it is conclusive and proven that cloud seeding can dissipate hail, wouldn't you think that it would be is a good investment for our cities, as well as the rural areas?

THE MILLIONS OF dollars spent on new roofing and glass replacement in the urban areas could be contributed toward programs of hail suppression for city dwellers, also. Damage mounts up fast in these areas during hail storms. The insurance companies should be interested in this thing, as well as others.

On the other hand, if the seeding of these clouds could stop the rain, this would be an invaluable aid to the farmers during harvest times. (Or on festivities days for that matter!)

AT ANY RATE, I know that I haven't had to put a new roof on my house for the last several years, nor have I had my auto dented from hail stones. Only a few times tho, have I had trouble navigating down Delano River. This, however doesn't prove anything.

The same was true in 1947, the last year I farmed. Shucks, I saved a mint of money on hoeing, (Not enough rain to sprout the weed seed) and, I wasn't out all that expense on combining and ginning. If I'd only saved the expense of planting and early cultivation, I'd have come out pretty well!

Dear Ms. Lovvorn,

We would appreciate your help in our campaign to recruit Girl Scout leaders in your community. The Girl Scouts are having a national advertising program for new leaders. This is a new venture for the Girl Scouts in leader recruitment. Test runs of this advertising have been successful, and in our area we are hoping to utilize this national concern to help us recruit leadership in our own communities, where it is definitely needed.

Attached is a set of proofs which we hope you will place in your paper as a public service during September, when we have our national kick-off.

We need and appreciate your cooperation.

Very sincerely,

Field Day Activities Scheduled Sept. 11

The 64th Annual Field Day and Open House of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has been set for Sept. 11. A review of new developments in agricultural research on the South Plains will highlight the special occasion.

Announcement of the upcoming field day activities was made by Dr. George McBee, resident director of the TAES, and Oliver Newton, meteorologist with the National Weather Service and field day committee chair-

According to Newton, discussions and explanations of research work conducted by TAES and USDA-ARS scientists will be presented in 11 different field locations on the sprawling 320-acre site north of Lubbock.

'The field tours will begin at I p.m. and will include new research developments in cotton physiology, environmental effects on grain sorghum, cotton diseases, irrigation studies, cotton varieties, soil fertility, weed control, grain sorghum insect resistance, narrow-row cotton, sorghum varieties and oil-seed crops."

Says Newton, "We have added several new field tours this year, and as an aid to visitors, a shuttle service will be available. The shuttles will depart from the station headquarters every 15 minutes throughout the afternoon, allowing visitors to get on or off at any field stop. Visitors will be able to examine and discuss the particular area in which they are interested for as long as they wish, then catch another shuttle when ready to move

Also, reports the chairman, displays and exhibits of plant diseases, soil testing, plant physiology and a large machinery exhibit will be featured for public viewing.

Because of the recent developments in the agricultural industry," concludes Newton, "both the producer and the consumer should be interested in this informative examination of agricultural research work being done here on the South Plains."

Area Teams In Action

High School football makes its debut on the South Plains Friday with all of the area teams in action.

Littlefield hosts Silverton, Olton goes to Tulia, Springlake-Earth hosts Morton, Whitharral entertains Dawson, Anton takes on Sundown at home, and in a battle between two area teams, Sudan goes to Amherst

Bula, which tied for district last year in six-man football, won't field a team this year because, according to Coach Pat Risinger, "We just didn't have enough boys that wanted to play "Bula will compete in basketball, however.

Anton Coach Donnie Leonard said, "We feel like we're going to need a real solid performance out of our players to beat Sundown. They were pretty hard hit by graduation (returning only 8 starters from a team that tied for district hohors with Happy), but anytime you play Sundown, you can expect them to come out knocking heads. They've got a real good ball club.

On the plus side for the Bulldogs, Leonard points to Center Quinn Martin, Tight End Brady Goen, Split End Domingo Ramirez and Quarterback Tommy Gilliam to give them a boost. Goen, who made All-district a year ago, is returning to a team that almost won the 5-A championship last year against Plains. In a 0-0 contest, Plains won on penetrations

Sudan went 4-4-2 last year, under the tutelage of first year coach Jim Warren. Though returning only seven starters. the Hornets are deep in experience, with eight seniors returning Roby Lynn, All South Plains last year at tight end, is expected by Warren to keep up the good work. Fullback Pat Hedges, Halfback Mark Hanna, Tackles Donnie Noles and Richard Tamplin and Guard Terry Graves are other Hornets to watch, according to Warren "We have exceptional quickness and we feel like our kids are mentally tough and will get after it real good," Warren said.

The Hornets don't start district play until their fifth game, against Springlake, Warren picks Springlake and Vega to be the teams to beat for the district title.

In Sudan's two scrimmages, they lost to New Deal and Lubbock Cooper, both by 1-0 scores. Nonetheless, Warren was pleased. "I thought we played well in both of our scrimmages. I suppose we look at scrimmages different from other people, but it's not like a game to us, it's just more of a workout

"We expect a real fine football team out of Amherst. They're much improved over last year, and have much the same team, so they'll have experience. We're looking for a good start, but we're sure not taking Amherst lightly." "We're expecting Sudan to be larger than us and they've started a winning tradition, so we know they'll be tough,' said Amherst Coach Truitt Reed. "We haven't beat Sudan in several years, but I'm sure looking for an improvement over our record last year." The Bulldogs went 0-10 last year, but thus far in the season they've looked impressive. They dropped Friona's Bteam 40 in a scrimmage and followed with a 3-0 win over the Littlefield JV.

launch The Bulldogs straight into the District fight next week against Wilson. Right now, it looks like Happy, Matador, Sundown and Meadow are going to be the toughest in our district," said Reed.

"We've got about average speed and average size, but our quickness is good," Reed added. "I guess our biggest asset is our desire. We certainly don't expect to go 0-10 again.

The Bulldogs have several players that should keep them out of the cellar this year. Sandy Moore and Butch Sutton at halfbacks, D. J. Johnson and Scott Harmon at tackle center Ronnie Burton and fullback Danny Carter are all expected to play well.

For the Olton Mustangs, they'll be trying to improve on a 3-7 record for new coach Ed Miller Although size and experience could hamper their chances, Miller lists speed and attitude as definite advantages. For the Mustangs to have a winning season, they must mature rapidly, according to Miller. "The kids have worked real hard and are looking forward to a winning season," Miller said. "But, due to inexperience, we may be a year away The Mustangs will be tested early by a strong Tulia club that finished second in district +AA last year. Expected to give Olton the boost they need are six starters and 11 lettermen. Paul Almanza, Jimmy McCurry, Pat Britton. Glen Johnson, Jimmy Parker and Salvador Marquez are all counted on to give strong performances.

Springlake-Earth is characterized this year by vouth and speed. "We've got a real young ball-club this year," said Head Coach Duane Locke. "We'll probably start five inexperienced players on the line alone. Our center (Brad Haley) and guard (Dell Daves) are experienced, but that's it on the line. We have two returners in the backfield and defensively we're also young."

The Hornets host Morton, and Locke looks for the Indians to be a "real tough ball team. But our whole district is going to be tough, and wellbalanced overall. I would say Vega, with a lot of people returning and good quickness and size will be toughest, but nobody's going to be easy."

Speed, in the form of three members off the Hornet sprint relay team that went to state last year, should play an important part in S-E's plans. Jr. Sauceda at split end and Pete Rodriquez and Jacob Miller at tailback were on that sprint relay, and all return with excellent speed. Quarterback Hal Woods is back from a good year, and is joined in the backfield by Richard Cauna, Doug Jones, Rodriquez and Miller.

Tom Landry is in his 14th year as coach with the Cowboys. Don Shula is in his fourth season with the Dolphins and his 11th as an NFL coach. He moved from Baltimore in 1969 and immediately turned Miami's fortunes around. Landry's career record is 98-76-6. Shula is 105-30-5. Only nine coaches in NFL history have achieved 100 career victories. HOW IT SHAPES UP

"We've reached the point now where we're trying to set the tone for the season," says Dallas Coach Tom Lamdry. "Our starters played most of the game against Kansas City and will against Miami. I'm sure the Dolphins have the same thing in mind, so this should be a very interesting game."

Landry said Roger Staubach would start at quarterback against Miami, with Craig Morton the probable second half signalcaller. Staubach and Morton have divided time at the position this summer, and Landry has not yet decided which will open the season as starting quarterback.
