City to enforce laws on mini bikes, dogs

relatively brief meeting night, Littlefield's City Council on enforcement of laws on running loose in alleys and on the streets, to issuing a special use permit for opening plant at East Williams Avenue, and ordinance amending the franchise allowing of the users' rates.

Although the dog and mini bike situations were not included on the agenda, and because laws are already in effect on the matters, councilmen felt a special warning should be issued to dog owners and to mini bike owners about violations.
City alleys are considered city roadways, and an ordinance is currently in effect prohibiting the use of these alleys for running mini bikes, unless the driver is licensed and the bike is properly registered.

Another ordinance states that dogs must either be kept on a leash or penned inside a yard, so that they will not be running loose on the city.
Councilman James Shotwell advised that he had received a complaint from a citizen who had reported one dog for destroying newspapers, and when it was picked up and taken to the pound, the owner got it out and let it run loose on the street again.
Councilmen recommended that all loose dogs be picked up, or owners fined for repeated violations.

Several reports about mini bikes running in alleys and across yards have been turned in as nuisances, and councilmen recommended that the laws be enforced.
Marcelino Duran appeared before the council to discuss the issue of a special use permit for opening his poultry processing plant. City Manager Jim Blagg advised that of all the surrounding property owners who were notified of the request, only one returned a negative response, requesting that the permit not be issued. N. L.

Witcher of Amarillo says the business would lower his property value. The other owners made no reply or ok'ed
the permit.
The council unanimously granted
the permit.
Ordinance number 284, which was passed by the City Council on June 3, 1971 regarding cable television, was amended on Section 11, paragraph A, and now reads: "Company may prescribe a residential rate not to exceed $7.50 per month per connection to any individual dwelling until including the two per cent gross receipts tax mentioned in Section 14. Motels, hospitals, schools, apartment houses and trailer courts shall likewise be charged a monthly rate not to exceed said sum."

Except as so amended, Ordinance 284 will remain unchanged and unaffected otherwise.

State voter registration underway prior to election

of State Mark White has led that his office is conducting the statewide voter registration drive this fall's Presidential election.
Registration drive was conducted last spring, White said, and it found 400,000 new voters to be registered.
White said, "We are trying to make sure every citizen is aware of that fact."
Under the new registration law,
Texans need only fill out a registration
postcard and mail it, White said,
adding that the registration deadline
for the Nov. 2 election is Oct. 1.

vinced us we need to enlarge our registration efforts," White said.
"The new Texas registration law makes it easier than ever before to vote in Texas, and we are trying to make sure every citizen is aware of
that fact."
Under the new registration law,
Texans need only fill out a registration
postcard and mail it, White said,
adding that the registration deadline
for the Nov. 2 election is Oct. 1.

Registration applications are available at the Lamb County Tax Assessor's office, or by calling a toll-free number in White's Austin office, he said. The number, which is open during business hours, is 1-800-292-9602.
The blank is also printed inside this issue of the Leader-News in both Spanish and English.
"Applications will also be on display in food stores around the state," White said. "We hope to literally put voter registration at the fingertips of most Texans before the registration deadline."
White noted that only 20 percent of voting-age Texans went to the polls in 1974, which was an "off year" involving no national elections. In the last Presidential election, White said, 43 percent of voting-age Texans cast ballots.
"Clearly there is room for improvement, and we hope our drive will help," White said. "We hope every Texan will register and vote."

questions you may have about house

Russia still racing to overtake U.S. arms

Li. Gen. Daniel O. Graham (ret.), former chief of the Defense Intelligence Agency, says that in the past decade, "By most standards of measuring military forces, the Soviets have surpassed or are surpassing us—despite the 'spirit of detente' and the ongoing Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT)."

In an exclusive interview appearing in the September issue of Reader's Digest, Graham contends that detente practices are more likely to move us closer to nuclear strife than away from confrontation.

To buttress his claim, he points to successful Cold War defusing of Soviet moves such as the Berlin blockade, the Cuban-missile crisis, and the grab for South Korea.

On the other hand, in an atmosphere of detente, the U.S.S.R. has helped in the conquest of several Asian countries—South Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos—and has established strong positions in African and Arabian countries.

The Soviets do not view nuclear power as a deterrent force, as we do in the West, Graham says. "Perhaps the most worrisome aspect of (their) strategy is their civil-defense program. It is now a high-priority matter, with a budget of more than $1 billion a year.... The Kremlin firmly believes that it can hold Russian casualties from a nuclear exchange to only ten million." While no Western country would subscribe to that figure preceded by an "only," Graham points out that Russia is indeed different—it suffered more than 20 million deaths in World War II.

That the U.S.S.R. is deadly serious in its move for arms domination is no secret, Graham points to the way in which Russians systematically duck detection in their arms build-up—"Acres of naval construction yards under cover," working on weapons development at night to escape satellite photography. What's even more tragic, the U.S. is assisting them by selling the U.S.S.R. military crucial technology which has aided their development of sophisticated ICBMs and MIRVs.

Graham feels acceptance of the B-1 bomber will help restore the balance of power, and calls for the development of the cruise missile, "a system that is expected to be so accurate that it can destroy targets at long distances even without a nuclear warhead."

At the present time he calls the U.S. "a first-rate power that has, through a combination of wishful thinking and inattention, allowed a second-rate power to surpass it in many aspects of military strength."

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Less is better

MORE, MORE, give us more seems to be one of the dominant attitudes in the human scene. In some areas, of course, this is a legitimate and wholesome attitude. It is, however, becoming increasingly clear that there are other areas in which it is a very hurtful attitude. We know this, as indicated by the frequently heard statement, "He has too much for his own good". In other words, "less is better". In moving into this consideration, it is necessary to recognize the importance of making our conclusions well-balanced.

WE HAVE THE TASK of making ourselves capable of being able to decide when enough is enough, and this is, obviously, not an easy task. We know that enough for one person may not be enough for others; but this is not a problem, and we must not let it become one for us. Some people will need more, and some will need less; but, in general, "Less is better".

ONE WAY OR ANOTHER, we are being told every day that we are faced with shortages in a number of critical areas. We don't know what to do, and there is growing concern. Serious studies are being undertaken in some areas which are seeking new sources of supply, and new ways of conserving present supplies. It is commendable that so many are willing to accept the challenge of trying to find ways to maintain our high levels of supply.

WE KNOW that waste has contributed to the present short supply. This includes continuing demand for so much more we need, plus the self-evident fact that we eat too much, that we have too much of other resources that we go too much, that we have too much entertainment, etc. Probably agree, in a general sense that "Less is better".

STEWARDSHIP REQUIRES a sensible approach to the use and the management of things. From this viewpoint, of life support the conclusion "Less is better".

WE MAY HAVE to back up the attitude which describes our aims for living—bigger, and faster, and more. Presently, circumstances are forcing us to make some changes of this kind; and it seems certain we will be forced to make other changes.

WE MUST CONTINUE trying all that needs to be done, but not require wild, unrestrained desires and actions. With us in full control, we will be better off admitting that "Less is better".

"We wish the Republicans could settle their differences as easy as Roger Staubach and Clint Longley—a lot of prime television time could be put to better use.

"But like the Democrats before them, the Republicans are not facing up to the issue.

"Neither the Democrats or the Republicans are willing to face up to a fact that most citizens became aware of several years ago: we've lost control of the government!

"And in our opinion, it doesn't matter two slices of a frog-hair which party puts their man in office in November—neither will be able to guide, direct, or control the federal government.

Whether Democrats, Republicans, congressmen, administrators, or senators are in office, the control of the government has been captured by the agencies and bureaus.

"No one in this country likes or wants busing. Yet we have busing. Everyone is convinced that the neighborhood concept of public schools is best for the elementary-age pupil, yet we're busing them across town.

"Those 1,500 lawyers that were employed during the peak of the Watergate investigation have not gone home. They've simply picked up their briefcases and moved into the employment of OSHA, Environmental Protection Agency, Internal Revenue, Federal Energy Administration, Health, Education and Welfare, Consumer Protection Agency and dozens of other bureaus.

"Those are the people that are running the government and slowly but surely strangling individual liberties, individual and business initiative, and personal and corporate freedom.

"And it's all done under the guise of being helpful! They're helping us down a one-way street to a controlled, socialistic society dominated and dictated by a handful of entrenched bureaucrats who supposedly know what's best for all of us.

"Congress or the administration created these monsters yet neither the Democrat-controlled Congress nor the Republican presidents have been able to cope, restrict, refine, or negate the rules and regulations that flow from these agencies like hot lava from an erupting volcano... and like lava, it is all-consuming, all-powerful, all-sweeping and nothing can stand against it.

"We've got more federal government than we want, need, or can afford.

"Busing is only one example. Practically everyone agrees that regulations of OSHA are unnecessary, unwanted, unwarranted, and outrageous. Yet does the Congress limit their power or restrict their activity? Nope!

"HUD reaches into our local areas and dictates that over half the money served in the cafeteria shall be away free. Does the Democratic-controlled Congress try to correct this situation? Nope!

"The EPA concerns itself with seat belts, buzzers, bells, etc. we breathe, the streams that feed our prairie dogs we feed. Even millions of complaints from citizens does congress move to limit agency? Nope!

"Congressmen and senators, administrators and agency heads go to the people each election year and Jimmy Carter, run on a ticket denouncing Congress, the administration, the Supreme Court, Washington in general.

"Then after election, they go back to Washington and vote money for more programs, more funding of more agencies, more money to more groups to control our lives and our activities.

"Like Senator Howard Baker Monday night, "We need our representatives in Washington to legislate less and listen more!"

A Woman's View

PEARL BRANDON

LAST WEEK I wrote about rushing around and working at unimportant things. I did the very thing I advised others not to do and landed back in the hospital for five days and was lucky to get out then.

TODAY I HAVE BEEN reading the 11th chapter of John, where Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead.

You remember the story of how Mary and Martha had sent for Jesus when their brother became seriously ill, but Jesus lingered on where He was for two days waiting for Lazarus to die. Finally He said "Let's go to Judea, our friend Lazarus has gone to sleep."

His disciples said, "Surely you are not going back there where the Jews have been trying to kill you." But Jesus told them there were 12 hours of daylight when a man could walk safely because he could see. It is at night time when most of the crimes are committed.

When He arrived at the place where Lazarus and his sisters had lived he sent word to them that He was there. Martha arose immediately and went to Him saying "Sir, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

Then Jesus uttered the famous words that are still repeated in our day and time that mean so much to us, "I am the one who raises the dead and gives them life again. Anyone who believes in me, even though he dies like anyone else, shall live again. He is given eternal life for believing in me and shall never perish. Do you believe this, Martha. Love addition of the Bible verses 25 and 26.

You know the story of how Jesus called Lazarus with a loud voice and he came forth bound up in grave clothes with his head muffled in a swath. Jesus said, "Unwrap him and let him go."

That must have been an awesome and joyous occasion when Lazarus came forth from the grave.

He had been dead four days. Many doubters believed in Jesus after that. Many of our friends have passed on this year and we are getting to the age when we know there isn't many years left at the very most but we have the assurance that He will call us too some day to a life eternal where there will be nothing to fear ever again.

I THANK THE dear Saviour for His words, "Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

Then He also said "I will be with you always even to the end of the world."

Pension checks hit $5,763,000

How much do Lamb County residents stand to gain from the boost in Social Security payments, which has just gone into effect?

What will be the average size of retirement checks to local beneficiaries under the new schedule?

Based upon the latest figures from the Social Security Administration, which show the number of recipients in the area and the amount they have been getting, their benefits during the remainder of this year will be approximately $174,000 greater than they were in the last half of 1975.

The total gain locally, over the next 12 months, will amount to $347,000 under the new rates.

The increase represents a 6.4 percent hike for those getting Social Security benefits as well as for most of the people receiving Supplementary payments, which aid the aged, the blind and the disabled in those states that participate in the supplemental program.

The added benefits, which will affect 37 million people in the two programs, will cost $5.3 billion over the year, according to the Social Security Administration.

The increase was mandated by a change in the law, which became effective last year, under which future increases in benefits are to be tied to increases in the cost of living.

The determining factor is the Labor Department's Consumer Price Index and the amount it goes up between the first quarter of one year and the first quarter of the next.

Under the new scale, the annual payment for a retired worker rises from an average of $2,448 to $2,616 and, for the average couple, where both are receiving benefits, from $4,176 to $4,164.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

Labor Day will be a day for concern, instead of a time for parades and picnics for many people.

Through the years, labor has seen changing times, changing conditions, changing requirements. In primitive days, man's muscles and hand skills spelled labor. The introduction of machinery brought changes.

One of the most revolutionary changes came about when Henry Ford set out to put the world on wheels. He virtually did so in making more than 15 million model T's.

His change to an assembly line procedure obsoleted skills, but it rolled out a fondly nicknamed Tin Lizzie every minute against previous production time of more than 12 hours per car.

In today's computerization and automation, monster machinery obsoletes more skills, devours more jobs.

This is viewed as a dragon of labor evolution, a Frankenstein of man's making which weakens a man's might for the right to work.

The Biblical parable of the five talent, two talent and one talent man is beginning to show special significance. It may perhaps provide the only answer to the problem...

Consumers may get help with mail deliveries

Consumers now have help getting mail order merchandise from "slow deliverers," Mrs. Dorothy Powell, County Extension Agent, reports.

The Federal Trade Commission has issued trade regulation rule for the mail order industry that went into effect this past Feb. 2.

It requires that when a mail order seller is unable to ship merchandise within the stated time, or if no time is stated, within 30 days after receiving an order, the seller must notify the buyer of the delay and give him an option to cancel his order.

Also, for this purpose, the buyer must be furnished an adequate cost-free means to notify the seller, such as a postage-paid card. Then if the buyer requests cancellation, the seller must cancel the order and refund the money, she explained.

The buyer's failure to respond to a seller's notice of delayed delivery and option to cancel will be taken as consent to a 30-day delay. But for delays beyond this extra 30 days, the buyer must expressly agree to the delay, she

A Banker's Viewpoint....

The lady lived, fearfully and frugally, in a run-down apartment house in New Orleans. She was 65 years old.

She existed on almost a sub-human level. She had piled up, uncashed, a number of social security checks, which represented her income.

She avoided contact with other people, and other people made no overtures to her. She was an elderly island in a sea of human activity, harmless and, one would expect, unharmed.

But she was attacked. She was beaten and raped. Both her arms were broken. So was her jaw. Her teeth were smashed, and she was injured internally.

Standing over her when police arrived was a 39-year-old man. This man had confessed in 1965 to the rape of a 4-year-old girl and was sentenced to prison for life. Nine years later he was released. After that came the attack on the old lady.

This is merely another episode in the disgraceful record of repeater crime in our country. People with records of violence are set free daily by governors, judges and parole boards.

These officials have the laudable desire to rehabilitate offenders, particularly the young who increasingly crowd our prisons. But the public has rights too, that are violated when vicious criminals are turned out to prey upon the innocent.

Clearly, better management of the handling of dangerous prisoners is called for everywhere in the United States. Far too high a percentage of violent crime — the senseless crimes that seem to be generated by cruelty and nothing else — are committed by people once or more times convicted, imprisoned, and then freed to do even worse against helpless victims.

We do not claim to be expert in the field of criminal psychology. But we think this:

For the sake of the public, as well as for the sake of the criminal himself and his family, a person convicted of violent crime should be held for the full length of his prison sentence unless a board of competent psychiatrists, criminologists, and a parole board all agree that he is safe to turn loose again in society.

In far too many instances our officials have been too forgiving of dangerous criminals. We have a notion the old lady in New Orleans would have agreed.

Amherst bites county rival 41-19 in season opener

By EMIL MACHA

In a head knocking bout, Amherst grilled Springlake-Earth on the Bulldog gridiron, 41-19, Friday night.

In the first 24 seconds of the game, Amherst HB Terry Sterling took the opening kick-off on the Bulldog 20 and returned it to the 47 and the very next down a 53 yard pass play gave the host team a 6-0 lead. The point after failed.

For the next 10 minutes it was ball swap as each team was plagued with fumbles and penalties. Although the Springlake-Earth Wolverines did control the ball the majority of the time as they rooted out five or six yards at a time with Wolverine RB, Rodney Geissler carrying the ball most of the time with RB Ben Johnson giving a breather now and then.

Tackle Kirk O'Hair pounced on a Bulldog fumble on their 20 yard line with a couple of minutes left in the first period of play to set the stage for Springlake-Earth's first TD in the game.

Geissler charged to the nine for a first and ten and then to the eight. Each time he was stopped by Gary McDaniel, a Bulldog guard. Then with 1:24 left in the first stanza, Geissler plowed from the eight yard line to knot the score 6-6. The points after failed.

Webster Johnson, Amherst fullback, took the kick-off from the Bulldog 20 and scampered 30 yards to regain the lead for Amherst with 1:09 left on the first quarter clock. PAT failed.

Wolverine RB Billy Houston took the kickoff and returned it to the 38 before being stopped by Barry Brown of Amherst. Ben Johnson and Houston each took turns in carrying the ball for the Wolverines to the midfield stripe only to have the gain annulled with penalties. QB Keevin Kelly in a desperate attempt with only a couple of ticks left in the first quarter unloaded to teammate Mark Barton who ran 73 yards to tie the score again as the count went out on the quarter. The kick after the TD went wide for no score.

On the kick-off, George Flores boot for the Wolverines went short and No. 77, Ricky Yantis grounded the ball on the 48. Johnny Rosemond made his scoring debut with a 52-yard touchdown run for Amherst with only 10 seconds used up in the second quarter. Johnson's two point try was short. Amherst took the lead again, 18-12.

Springlake-Earth used up over five and half minutes and ground out 51 yards with Geissler doing the bulk of the ball carrying with the exception of a breather when Johnson, Kelly or Barton helped in the chores offensively.

Geissler scored again on a yard plunge to knot the score, 18-18, with 6:03 left in the half. Flores' toe gave the Wolverines the lead by a single point in the PAT.

On the kick-off, Johnson returned, took the ball on the Bulldog 19 and carried it to the 36 before being tackled by Polo Gonzales. From this point Sterling, Rosemond, QB Ronnie Bearden and Johnson teamed up in ball carrying and rooted out behind their blockers 66 yards before Johnson gave Amherst a 24-19 lead by charging through the middle on a one-yard plunge. Rosemond plowed over for a couple of points to put the Bulldogs ahead, 26-19.

The Wolverines had trouble right from the start in the third quarter. Barton took the Amherst kick deep in their own territory and returned the ball to the 20, a penalty was called and the ball was brought to about the 13. The next play was a fumble and Bulldog John L. McLaughlin recovered it on the 17 for Amherst. Three plays later Johnson charged from the five for another Bulldog tally with 10:43 left in the quarter. Bearden passed to Rosemond for the two point conversion and a 34-19 score in favor of Amherst.

For the remainder of the quarter it was ball swap as each team was forced to give up the ball on downs.

Sterling stopped a Wolverine drive in the final quarter when he intercepted a pass on the Bulldog 30 and stubbornly ran 52 yards before the Wolverines brought him down on their 28 yard line.

After a drive to the five yard line, Bearden passed to James Ivory for another Bulldog score with 4:38 left in the game. Gary McDaniel kicked the extra point to ice the game for Amherst.

Springlake-Earth's Randy Geissler was the leading rusher for the evening with 163 yards in 34 carries. Johnny Rosemond took rushing honors for Amherst with 111 yards.

Amherst has an open date Friday and will play host to Sudan on the 17th.

Bulldog rally falls short 34-20

A fourth quarter rally attempt by the Anton Bulldogs was a bit late as hart rolled up a 34-20 win over the visiting team Friday night.

Hart mustered up 34 points in the first three stanzas while shutting out Anton only to have the tide turned in the final period as the activity on the scoreboard as well as on the gridiron reversed, with the Bulldogs mustering 20 points and holding Hart scoreless in all all out effort to reverse the final decision.

In the opening quarter, Hart's first scoring attack was a 40 yard drive after a 20 yard punt return by Running Back Kerry George climaxed the drive with a 14 yard run over the double stripes for a 6-0 ball game with 4:19 left in the first quarter. Extra points failed.

Hart scored 22 points in the second period of play, the first TD was a 55 yard drive with RB Elias Castillo crossing over from the six with 6:55 left on the clock. Again points after failed.

Lester Aven stopped an Anton scoring attempt by intercepting a Bulldog pass and returning the ball to the Longhorn 42. Castillo connected with Tight End Bryan Irons for the third Longhorn score of the game on a 58 yard pass play, a two point conversion was good.

Hart led 20-0 with 2:18 left before intermission.

Hart's next TD was almost a repeat performance from the previous one as Aven intercepted another Bulldog pass and returned the ball to the Hart 45. Aven then swept left end for 36 yards and George took the ball over from the nine with 28 seconds left in the half. The points after was good and the host team led 28-0 at halftime.

With 6:22 left in the third period, Hart's Aven ended a 70 yard drive by romping over from the seven for the Longhorn's final tally of the night.

In the final period of play, Anton came up with a new bag of tricks as they cross the goal three times in a comeback attempt. The fourth quarter was just a minute and five seconds old and when a nine yard pass from QB Zane Butler to TB Rex Jones netted the first Bulldog score. FB Lonnie Timms drove over the left side for points after.

After some ball swapping Anton gained control of the ball with good field position and Jones bulled over from the three for the Bulldogs second tally with 4:28 left in the game. PAT failed.

A 38-yard TD bomb from Butler to Craig Carlisle with 38 seconds left made the score 20 for Anton and 34 for host team. Friday, the bulldogs will journey to Sudan for another gridiron tilt.

Eagles back in business Three Way wins 50-34

Three Way is back in the football business after a couple of years rest and they really mean business as Coach Pat Risinger's Eagles clawed Wellman, 50-34, Friday night in a six-man season opener at Three Way.

The Eagles hit paydirt first as Albert Rand took a 65 yard pass from Donnie Young for a six pointer. Adam Rodriguez kicked the extra two points. (For the readers information, in six-man football, on points after the touchdown, you kick for two and run for one).

Wellman came back with a 65 yard run by Allen Berryhill to narrow the gap in the score, 8-6. The kick after was blocked.

Three Way retaliated with Rand scoring the next two TD's from the five yard and a 25-yard line. Respectively. Rodriguez's toe made the score 22-6 in favor of the Eagles.

Wellman got their second score of the night on a 19-yard run by Berryhill and Doug Matney's kick after TD brought Wellman within eight points of the host team.

During the second quarter, the Eagles scored twice on five and nine yard plunges by Jerry Waltrip. Rodriguez put icing on each to the TD's with a pair of extra points.

At intermission, Three Way led, 38-14.

Rodriguez opened the scoring period for Three Way on a 44-yard pass from Donnie Young. Eagles widened the gap by 30 points.

Louie Key plowed from the one yard line to the Eagles a 10-14 Wellman.

Wellman tried to comeback as they scored scoring rampage. Sansing catching a pass from Larry Matney booted the conversion for a 10 going into the final play. Jessie Lora ran yards for another Wellman within 18 knotting the Eagles Albert Rand was the rusher for the well gaining 160 yards tries.

Coach Risinger said, "We did a good job pass blocking but our blocking for runs needs to improve. We're delighted over the win. Sundown has an excellent team."

Anton and Sudan collide in a battle of top Class B teams Friday night in Sudan.

Whitharral ambushes Cotton Center 35-0

By JERRY TIDWELL

Whitharral declared open season on Cotton Center Friday night and gunned down the Elks 35-0.

The Panther offense went over, around and through the Elks while the defense completely bottled up Cotton Center.

The Panthers opened the scoring on their second possession. Whitharral took the ball over on downs at midfield. Jimmy Polk gained five before John Dukatnik bolted for 12 yards to the Elks 32 yard line. Dukatnik's ramble was good enough for first down.

Bobby Avery gained two yards and then was dropped for six yards loss. Polk failed to gain and that brought up fourth down. Punter Gary Chavez was roughed and the penalty gave the Panthers a first down on the Elks 25.

On the next play Polk scrambled in for the touchdown after taking a pitch out from Avery. Chavez' extra point kick was blocked and the Panthers led 6-0 with 1:43 remaining in the first stanza.

After two punt exchanges the Panthers began to prowl again. Dukatnik picked up two yards and six yards with an eight yard gain by Polk sandwiched in between.

Jimmy Avery then hit brother Bobby for a 42 gain to the Elks seven yard line. Polk rammed to near the goal line but a penalty moved the ball back to the twelve. Polk was held to no gain and then Jimmy Avery caught a pass from Polk on the next play to move to the five.

Dukatnik went up the middle to the two. On fourth down Dukatnik went off tackle and went in untouched for the TD. Chavez passed to Jimmy Avery for extra point and Whitharral boosted its lead to 13-0 with 1:09 remaining in the half.

Midway in the third period, Polk fielded a punt at his own 30 and zigged-and-zagged across the field to the Elks 29. Dukatnik gained seven on two carries before Polk fumbled the ball and picked it up for an eight yard loss.

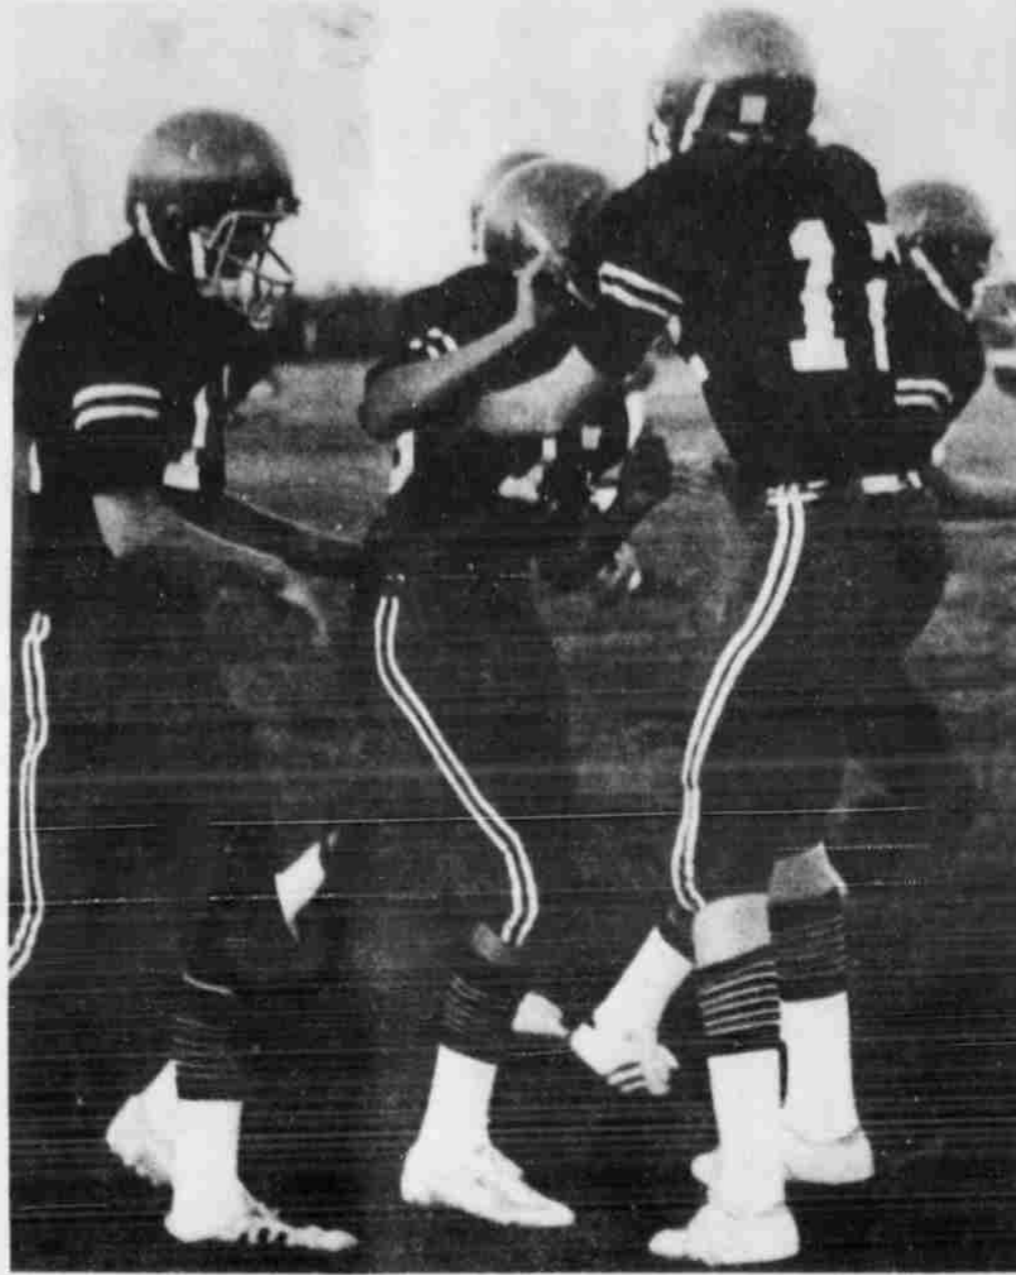

On fourth down with 16 yards needed for the first, Polk found Walter Kristinek all alone on the 20 yard line and he waltzed into the end zone untouched. That upped the score to 19-0 with 3:44 remaining in the third quarter. The extra point attempt failed.

Polk intercepted a Cotton Center aerial early in the fourth quarter. The Panthers set up shop on the Elks 26. Twelve yards were gained by Dukatnik in two tries and on third down Polk hit Brent Gage with a touchdown pass. Gage leaped high to snag the 14 yard pass. Chavez kicked the extra points and with 5:32 left in the game the Panthers held a big 27-0 advantage.

The final score came after a Cotton Center punt to their own 34. Bobby Avery was held for gain and Mitch Grant swept right end for nine yards.

Polk then pinpointed a pass to Jimmy Avery from 25 yards out for a touchdown and the Panthers led 33-0 with 3:14 remaining. Chavez kicked the extra points for good measure to up the final count to 35-0.

The invincible Panther defense yielded no first downs. Whitharral's Dukatnik was game's leading rusher with 82 yards on 18 carries. Bobby

JIMMY POLK is mobbed by teammates after scampering 25 yards to score Whitharrals first touchdown of the season. Polk, 13, in the center, is congratulated by Bobby Avery, 11, and Jimmy Avery, 12. The Panthers blasted Cotton Center 35-0 Friday night. [Leader-News Photo]

Martinez was Cotton Center's top ground gainer with 45 yards in 10 tries.

Whitharral hosts Patton Springs Friday night.

Late interception gives Olton win

Olton's offense failed to score in its opening contest against Tulia Friday night, but an 80 yard pass interception return for a touchdown and a rugged defense were enough to carry the Mustangs to a narrow 7-6 win over Tulia.

Until deep in the final quarter it looked like the game would end in a scoreless tie, but with only 2:30 remaining Steve Johnson picked off a Tulia pass and returned 80 yards for a touchdown.

Brad Allcorn's toe proved to be the difference as he booted the extra point to put the Mustangs out front 7-0.

The Hornets offense swarmed back and marched in for a touchdown. Larry Anderson scored for Tulia with only 46 ticks left on the clock to make the score 7-6. Spurning an almost certain tie, the Hornets went for win with a two-point conversion pass. The pass failed and Olton opened the season with their familiar winning ways.

David Johnson was the workhorse for the Mustangs. Johnson rolled up 136 yards on 28 carries. Anderson paced Tulia with 85 yards on 21 runs.

Mustang Coach Ed Miller praised his rugged defense. Standouts included Buster Loyd, Martin Brown, Leslie Gary and Mark Williamson.

The Ponies host Abernathy Friday night.

White-winged dove hunters heading to the Rio Grande Valley for the Sept. 4-6 and 11-12 dove season should have their 1976-77 hunting license and $3 White-winged Dove

Stamp in hand before leaving home. Last year, many hunters waited until they arrived in the Valley and found themselves standing in long lines at Texas

Parks and Wildlife Department offices and license sales deputies. Nonresident and five-day migratory game bird hunting licenses were in heaviest demand and shortest supply. Much the same situation is expected this year. Parks and Wildlife Department officials urge hunters to buy both license and dove stamp in their hands before traveling to the

Feed-out expense shows at grocer's

"First, the animal had to go to a feedlot where he was fed to obtain the grade and weight desired by most retailers. As a 1,000-pound steer, he was probably sold for about $400. A packer purchased him and found he yielded only a 620-pound carcass. The price for the carcass then was at least 64.5 cents a pound," says the county agent.

"The retailer buying the carcass must then cut and package it for the consumer. Cutting loss along with bone, fat and some moisture are lost during this process so that only about 440 pounds of meat are left for retailing. The cost goes up rapidly to about 91 cents a pound."

When the other costs of slaughtering, transportation, labor, advertising and packaging costs are added, the price goes up to about $1.40 per pound.

Of course, the $1.40 retail price is an average for all cuts of meat of a steer. Since the 440 pounds of meat included only about 16 pounds of t-bone steak, it must naturally bring a higher price than the cheaper and more abundant cuts.

"So, the next time you look in shock at the price of a T-bone steak, think of all the steps and people involved in transforming that 1,000-pound live steer into a neatly packaged piece of meat available at the grocery store," notes Logsdon.

In Remembrance of John Hubbard

THE BULA and Enochs Community and surrounding area has lost a very dear friend. We are poorer with his departure, but we know Heaven has gained a new member, and his work will go on. John or Johnnie, as he was affectionately called, was a very unselfish person with his every thought was to help someone else. No matter what was asked of him, he did it, but mostly he did without being asked, to help his friends, neighbors, church, schools, clubs, Boy Scouts and many others. For his undying love and faith in his fellowman, he will always be remembered, and will be held in highest regard. Yet the world is poorer to have lost him. We are richer to have known and associated with him over the years. This was written by one of his many friends, Harold Pollard.

Recirculating sprayer to be TAES feature

A recent innovation in weed control equipment is proving effective in controlling johnsongrass, a weed pest that inundates the Texas High Plains, reports a Texas Agriculture Experiment Station scientist at Halfway.

The innovation is the recirculating sprayer, a device attached to tractors which is used to kill weeds which are taller than the crop.

The sprayer is one of several featured highlights in the upcoming 67th edition of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station's annual field day, Tuesday, Sept. 14. The afternoon event will be at the Experiment Station at Halfway, 14 miles west of Plainway, on Highway 70.

Dr. John Abernathy, TAES scientist who heads up weed control research for the Lubbock Experiment Station which is co-hosting the field day, says the recirculating sprayer has given in research tests excellent johnsongrass control in cotton and soybeans at a cost of less than two dollars an acre.

"The sprayer is in commercial production now," says Abernathy, "and is locally available. Several commercial units will be displayed during field day activities."

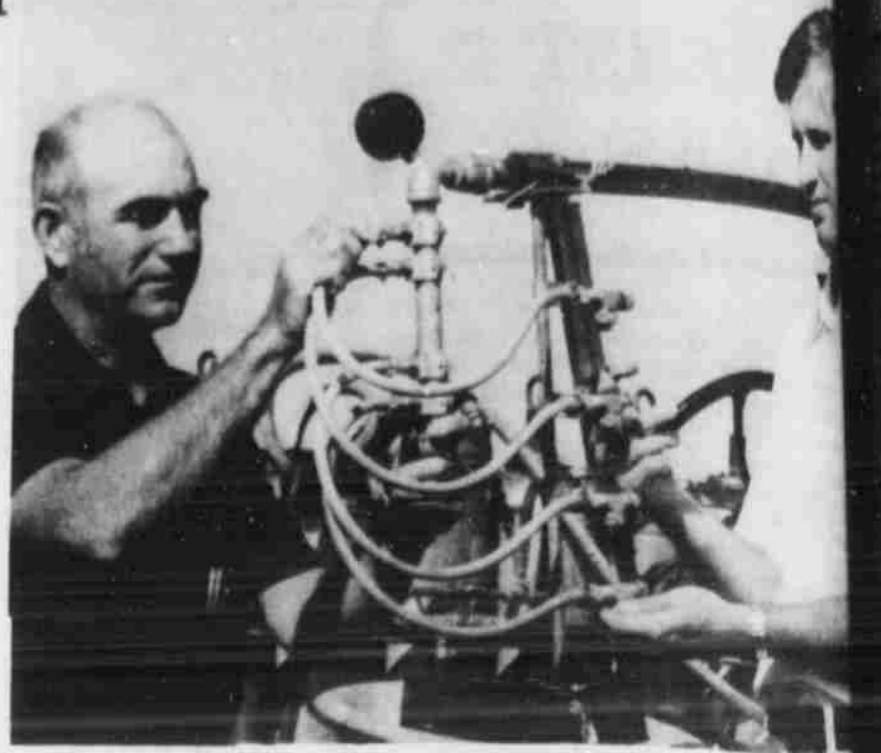

Guests will see experimental tests using the recirculating sprayer in such studies as chemical roging sorghum, johnsongrass and shattercane control in sorghum, whiteweed control in skip row, and volunteer sunflower control.

In addition, prairie sunflower, rough blackfoot, cottonweed, nutsedge, lanceleaf sage, and oakleaf thornapple, along with other existing weeds will be viewed from an identification and control standpoint in various crops, notes the researcher.

"A considerable amount of crop injury from herbicide use has been observed this season," he says. "We will explain the latest data on how much residual herbicide is required to cause injury to rotational crops as well as some specific herbicide injury problems in corn."

Abernathy adds that research over the last three years has shown wide differences in crop response to certain herbicides. He says some specific crop varieties are much more tolerant than others to various herbicides.

Tours of the 320-acre site begin at 1:00 p.m. with tractor-pulled trailers carrying field day guests along a one-hour route throughout the afternoon. In addition to six featured agricultural field stops, slide-audio presentations of research highlights and a large farm machinery display supplied by area implement dealers can be viewed.

Logsdon explains farm price spread

Although "farm-retail price spread" may sound like a foreign phrase, it is a big factor in how much you spend at the grocery store, says Buddy C. Logsdon, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"The farm-retail price spread or marketing margin is the difference between the retail price of an item—what you pay at the store—and the farm value," explains Logsdon. "It measures the assembling, processing, transporting and retailing charges added onto the value of the farm product. In short, it shows consumers where their food dollars go," he continued.

"Although there are minor monthly fluctuations in the farm-retail price spread, the long-run changes in the overall cost of food marketing are most significant," notes Logsdon.

"The farm-retail price spread has steadily widened in the past 10 years, due to rising prices and marketing charges—so-called middle-man costs," he concluded.
