A gutsy performance by the Littlefield Wildcats, from Dimmitt notched their first win of the season without a loss in the 3-AA opener for both teams.

seconds shy of thirty-three minutes out of a possible forty-eight.

While amassing an incredible edge on the statistical board, Dimmitt was unable to score until 3:20 was left in the third quarter despite being only inches away from paydirt twice before this.

Littlefield scored first on a Ronald Parmer to Bill Turner pass play that covered 74 yards in the second quarter but after the scoring play, the 'Cat offense ran only 17 more plays which netted them a total of 22 yards.

FIRST QUARTER

Littlefield received the opening kickoff as the Dimmitt kicker placed the ball in the end zone and the 'Cats started their first series of downs on their own 20 yard line. Turner carried for four yards on the first play of the game and fullback Rick Hopping added three more on the next attempt and the 'Cats had it 3rd and 3 on the 27. Turner took the handoff from Parmer and blasted through for the first of only two Wildcat first downs.

With a first and ten at their own 37, three running plays by Turner gained only 3 yards and Turner punted for the first of 6 times for the night and Dimmitt set up their offensive machine for the first time on their own 30 yard line.

City Sells Farm Land, Passes Resolution

In a rather brief meeting Thursday night, Littlefield's city council awarded a bid of sale for 80 acres of farm land northeast of Littlefield to the high bidder, J. L. Marcum.

Marcum was among four who submitted bids on the land, and his was $176 per acre, netting a grand total of $14,080. Others placing bids were Joe Montgomery, $155 per acre; George Tooley, $160 per acre; and John W. Gladden, $156 per acre.

As Mayor J. E. Chisholm and Mayor Pro Tem Paul Carmickle were both at a meeting in El Paso, Councilman James Shotwell presided for the session. All other councilmen, the city attorney, and the city manager were present.

In matters of new business, councilmen discussed a request for a water tap on the 24-inch water main coming from the sandhills, but councilmen decided to check into the matter further before taking any action.

Councilmen voted to pass a resolution encouraging the re-enactment of the General Revenue Sharing Bill. The bill was enacted in 1972 by Congress and was to run four years—or through 1976. But due to recent action by the President, the Revenue Sharing program could be considered an easy budget item to cut, and therefore, due to the fact that some of the prospective monies have already been designated for future city projects, the council voted to forward the resolution to the proper Congressmen who represent this area, urging the re-enactment of the Revenue Sharing Bill.

Councilmen tabled another item that was on the agenda—that of appointing members to the Board of City Development. Details were not complete, so the matter was tabled.

Other routine items included the approval of the minutes of the last meeting, the approval of payment of the bills.

Earth Brothers Get First Cotton

For the fourth year in a row, Shorty and Billy Wayne Barlow of Earth have brought in the first bale of cotton in the Earth community.

Last Thursday the men brought in 760 pounds of seed cotton to the Barton Brothers Gin. The cotton produced a 425-pound bale.

The cotton was grown west of Earth. It was planted May 10, fertilized and irrigated twice.

Ardis and Weldon Barton, owners of the gin, paid the Barlow brothers a $25 premium for bringing in the first bale.

FIELD's first bale of cotton was ginned by Lamb County Farmers' Thursday afternoon. The bale was grown by Emil Macha, left, and pulled from two acres west of Littlefield. Others shown with the bale are Sheldon Macha, Benny Hall, gin manager; and Jackie Cooley Cotton Co., Inc. of Levelland, who purchased the bale. The Macha experimental variety yielded 800 lbs. of seed from a ton of seed cotton. The gin offered free ginning and wrapping, and received $50 per ton bonus on the seed. A second bale was ginned Thursday afternoon from the same field. (Staff Photo)

Former Junior High Coach Honored For Saving Life

Carter, former junior high coach, who is now residing at Littlefield, serves as song director of the church while studying for the degree at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

their nightly meeting of the 40-hour advanced first aid course when the wreck occurred about five miles northwest of the meeting place.

Carter, a new resident of the Lipan area and song director of a Lipan church, related the course of events which led to special recognition by the Red Cross.

"We were in the process of taking the course and had just gotten to the hall. We had taken everything out of the ambulance for instruction purposes when the call came through about the wreck."

"Everyone was panic stricken trying to get everything back in the ambulance. The call said the cars were on fire and most of us also served in the volunteer fire department."

"With the fire truck and ambulance the whole class went to the scene of the accident. All of the people were out on the ground except one man who was pinned in his car."

"Bob took over immediately and told everyone to check for signs of life in each of the victims. We had just studied the night before about major accidents and were taught to start on the people that had the best chance first."

"Five of the people didn't have any signs of life. Three were still alive, a man about 20 years old and two girls, ages eight and five."

"I began working with the man, using the old form of resuscitation and had him breathing when the Mineral Wells ambulance arrived to transport him to a Weatherford hospital. I believe he was dead on arrival at the hospital."

"I then took the five year old girl. All the other volunteers were checking life signs of the other people and searching for other victims."

"Both girls were small enough that Bob and I put them on one stretcher to take them to the hospital. Both had compressed skull fractures and lacerations. He talked to the 8-year old girl all the way to the hospital which probably kept her alive. At the hospital, I believe the doctors said she went into shock and died on the operation table."

"I worked on the five year old girl. It took 25 minutes to get to the hospital. She arrested twice on the way showing no signs of respiration. I began applying cardiac massage and she started breathing after the first arrest."

"The second time I didn't think she would respond and at first I didn't think I could keep massaging but I thought what if she was my little girl."

"When we got to the hospital, they immediately did brain surgery and the last time I checked she was doing fine and they didn't think she would have brain damage."

The volunteer class had stressed emergency care of major accidents since the closest hospital to the town is 25 miles away.

The Lipan volunteers have just completed their advanced training course which met from three to five hours each night for four weeks.

Carter said of the course, "I recommend one-hundred percent that everyone get at least a basic first aid course because of things like this. There is enough demand in Lipan that a basic course in first aid will be taught here this month or next."

"I feel like ours is as good a system as we can have and we are as qualified a volunteer staff as any town in Texas," he said.

Mrs. Elinor Sutor, national representative for the American Red Cross presented the awards to Carter and Willingham upon completion of the course Aug. 17.

The award recognized the two as part of the Hood County Chapter of the American Red Cross with John Luton as chairman.

Carter and his family have lived in Lipan for two months. He attending the Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth, song director of the First Baptist Church of Lipan and working parttime in a Lipan grocery store.

NATURAL ENERGY Gas Heating

Fresh, warm air gently circulating from floor to ceiling... so nice to take for granted. Comfort is clean gas heat.

And that dependable comfort is such a bargain here in West Texas. Though gas energy costs a little more than it use to, gas furnaces still cost less than one-third as much to operate as similar electric furnaces.

And at the same time you're saving money with gas heating, you can also have a warm feeling knowing that you're helping conserve energy. Gas heating uses half as much energy as an electric system doing the same job.

Comfort, efficiency, and economy... you get it all with natural energy gas heat.

Dear Editor:

Recent trends in meat prices and supplies have sharpened the interest of nearly every family in what's happening to cattle, hogs and sheep.

And the price-cost squeeze has intensified the interest of farmers, ranchers and feeders in livestock market news.

To meet this demand, day and night, seven days a week, the U.S. Department of Agriculture offers "instant" market news by telephone—just dial Clovis, N.M. 505-763-3030.

This service supplements the excellent coverage which press, radio and television devote to livestock market news.

Sincerely,

A Woman's View

By PEARL BRANDON

LIFE SEEMS pretty rough sometimes when you have to face what we have the last few weeks, however, I know there is nothing unusual about our problems as everybody has serious troubles sometime in their lives.

At this writing my husband, Lyle Brandon, is still confined to the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, where he had surgery for lung cancer.

He still has the tube in his side so feel sure he will be here for several more days. He does seem to be improving, but not as fast as they expected him to, I don't think.

WE GREATLY appreciate all your cards, calls, gifts and flowers and your concern since Lyle has been ill.

TODAY I read to him his favorite Psalm, the 91st.

I especially love the verses, "For He shall give His angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall fear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone."

HE SHALL give his angels charge over us this means all the way through to the other side.

We all have obstacles in life, but we have a strong hand to cling to. He tells us "to be still and know that I am God."

EVEN WHEN our hearts are in a turmoil and the storm is raging outside, if we allow ourselves to be quiet enough we can hear that still small voice telling us to be still and know that He is with us, not only here but in the world to come.

"Ye, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil," so said David in the 23rd Psalm. That was a long time ago, but it is the same today.

THANKS, again, everybody for all your kindnesses.

What A Family Can Do

ARTHRITIS, our nation's leading crippling disease, strikes one in every four families. How can you protect your family against the pain and disability of arthritis?

First, be on the alert for symptoms of the disease. Watch for such warnings signs as persistent pain, stiffness, swelling or tenderness in one or more joints, particularly upon arising in the morning. Take notice of tingling sensations in the fingertips, hands and feet. Unexplained weight loss, fever, weakness, or rashes in children also can be symptoms.

IF ANY OF THESE warning signs appear, seek prompt medical attention. While the cause of arthritis is not known, and a cure has not yet been discovered, physicians have effective treatment programs to ease pain and help prevent crippling. But early diagnosis is essential.

Once proper medical care has been assured, is there anything else a family can do to help the arthritis patient? Absolutely.

THE FAMILY can play a key role in the progress of the disease. Their careful attention to the prescribed regimen of medication, exercise and rest is important. Since flare-ups of the disease often occur following emotional stress, a supportive and understanding family can be invaluable.

FOR MORE INFORMATION about arthritis, including free literature, contact the West Texas Chapter of The Arthritis Foundation, P. O. Box 3335, Lubbock, Texas, 79410.

$4,000 Country Club Theft Reported Wednesday Morning

Lamb County sheriff E. D. McNeese and his deputies are investigating a breaking and entering and $4,000 theft of the Littlefield Country Club here early Wednesday morning.

McNeese said entry was gained through the pro shop. Among the list of missing items are cash, 15 cases of beer and liquor, 12 windbreakers, 20 golf shirts, 47 pairs of golf pants, 43 pairs of golf shoes, 10 sets of golf clubs and three bags.

In other bookings at the sheriff's office since Wednesday, Izzy Vernon Wormley, a 19-year-old Littlefield resident, was jailed Thursday and charged with felony theft. He was charged with the theft of $400 cash, a camera and a ring.

Lamb County officials recovered the camera and ring and half of the money. Another Littlefield resident was picked up for investigation of theft.

Two 14-year-olds from Plainview are in the county jail charged with the theft of a car from Caprock Motors. County officers recovered the car owned by Freddy Zeisel.

Lynn Glasscock of Earth reported the theft of a battery and fence charger to authorities Saturday morning.

JOELLA LOVVORN, news editor of the Leader-News, accepts a framed document of appreciation from David Roden, District Public Relations Chairman for the Boy Scouts of America in the George White District, "in recognition of the Leader-News' support of scouting and the All-American Roundup" held recently. The document is the only one presented this year in the District to date, and such are usually presented to district scouting personnel. (Staff Photo by Tina Martinez)

THE ABUNDANT LIFE We Are Becoming

"WE ARE TOO EASILY satisfied with ourselves" is a charge that is often made, and it may be partially justified.

It is generally agreed that we are more easily satisfied with "what we are" than with "what we have".

We must have certain things, in order to supply our physical, mental and spiritual needs; and it is a mistake to minimize the importance of these things. This, however, is not the usual viewpoint concerning our possessions.

When speaking of what we have, we usually refer to our physical or material possessions; as they make up our wealth, over and above the supply of our needs.

"What we have" is a relevant consideration; but "what we are" is of greater importance.

THE RICHNESS and fullness of life depend much more upon "what we are", and "what we are becoming" than they do upon what we have; the "abundance of the things we possess".

Therefore, we restrict ourselves unnecessarily; when we refuse or neglect to improve ourselves.

THE WORTHWHILE LIVING, of which we are capable, can increase and enhance "what we are". This should and can be a continuing process of increase; because, in a very real sense, "we are becoming".

AS WE PROGRESS, within a wisely chosen living pattern, we can learn more helpful information; we can improve our skills; we can broaden and deepen our appreciation of worthwhile accomplishments; and we can continue finding opportunities to be used.

PERSONAL POTENTIALS limited, in some ways, but the great; and we should be busy developing them. We may develop our talents to the fullest extent, in some ways, but not the end of self-betterment. As we do move to our personal development in some areas, we can still be active in the process of "becoming".

Regardless of how well we develop skills and use our opportunities, will always be room for the activity of continuing self-improvement.

"A MAN WHO THINKS that he ought to be is obviously not what he ought to be. Anyone who has reached an ideal has not an ideal, and the world of moral action is as intricate as the world of knowledge."

WE CAN REACH plateaus of development, in some areas, which are quite acceptable; from all viewpoints. This does not mean, however, that there is no more progress to be made.

IT IS ESSENTIAL to "live", while we are alive, and means that we must not let us stagnate. It is a mistake to assume any time, that we must just drift. This drifting would be a drain on existence.

"WE ARE BECOMING" is a viable view of life, and is certainly justified understanding of living best.

MR. FORD DENIES that he made any deal with Mr. Nixon to get him to resign.

Somehow I've got to believe him.

And just for the record, I'm not offering Mr. Ford any deal to resign, in order that I might become president. "Druther try to keep peace in a nudist colony being invaded by a hive of angry bees!"

WELL, WE'VE GOTTA go through another year hearin' about the greatness of the Oakland "A's" baseball club.— Gets kind of borin', doesn't it?

Have to admit that I was rootin' against them, but then, I've rooted FOR the Dallas Cowboys, too. — Oh, well...

NO, WE CAN'T use Congress for our example in, "Bitin' the Bullet" in order to stop inflation. That is, as long as they are impowered to vote themselves raises and increases in expense accounts.

CHAMPAIGN, marshmallows, steaks, and strippers aren't examples we're supposed to follow at MY age, anyway.

WONDER WHAT'S WRONG Boston way?— Thought they were ones who were supposed to be setting the rest of the nation an example in solving of the integration and b... thing.

Could Mr. Kennedy be like advisors, without honor in his country?

MEANWHILE, BACK down on farm, the speaker of the house says thinks we should go down to Austin see a very important person. Guess do just that, see in how that person none other than that number of grandchild.

His daddy says he's about to start workouts, getting ready to be the Texas football team!

Turn Row COMMENTS

THE MURDER of the wife of the President of South Korea by a gunman, attempting to assassinate her husband also blew a hole in a big anti-gun argument—that criminals can't get firearms in Japan.

The gunman used a snub .38 revolver stolen a month earlier from Japanese police, official Korean sources said.

LIKE MANY political assassins in this country and throughout the free world, the gunman, Mun Se Kwang, had a Communist interest or background. This shouldn't surprise anybody.

So did the assassins of President John F. Kennedy and Presidential Candidate Robert Kennedy, and the would-be assassin of Presidential Candidate George C. Wallace.

Right now, the triggermen of the Irish Republican Army, the Frelimo in Portuguese Africa and the SLA in the United States have a political link in common—all are Communist-inspired or masterminded, to judge by published reports.

YET THERE ARE still those in the United States, including some in high places, who fail to recognize world Communism as a prime troublemaker both abroad and at home. More than a few of those who downgrade the role of Communism are loud in their support over legitimate gun ownership in U.S.

ONE IMPORTANT thing comes from any such study of positions.

Few, if any, moderates or conservatives, of whatever political favor firearms confiscation or other approaching it.

Nearly all of the urge for more control or gun bans comes from those who take a soft attitude toward Communism, toward marijuana and drugs, and to what many Americans regard as moral laxity.

The purpose of such people ought very obvious by now.

Services for Ruby Lucille Mathews, 68, of Sudan were conducted Friday afternoon at the Sudan Church of Christ with Mike White, former pastor, and James Whitton, officiating.

A native of Glen Rose, Mrs. Mathews had been a resident of Sudan 44 years. She was a member of the Sudan Church of Christ.

Survivors include her husband, Paul; a sister, Mrs. Hoyt Montgomery of Sudan; a brother, Quinton McCaghren of Sudan; and three nieces.

GEORGE DEWEY PARKER

Funeral services for George Dewey Parker, 73, longtime Littlefield resident who was dead on arrival at Littlefield Hospital at 7 a.m. Friday morning, were scheduled for 2:30 p.m. today at Littlefield's First Baptist Church where he was a member.

Officiating will be Rev. A. J. nemer, pastor.

Interment will be in Littlefield Cemetery with Hammons Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

He was a retired farmer, presently worked with his two sons at their service stations.

Surviving are his wife, Cheryl; two sons, George Lewis Parker and Joy W. Parker, both of Littlefield; daughter, Mrs. Doris Harrell of Littlefield; two sisters, Mrs. Maye Hendrix Lovington, N.M. and Mrs. Opal of San Angelo; a brother, Lester of O'Donnell; four grandchildren; two great-grandchildren.

The Greeks and Roman stirred medicines with the fourth fingers, believing that if the mixture was noxious, the heart would be instantly alerted.

Littlefield Woman's Club met Wednesday, Oct. 16, in the parlor of the First Baptist Church. The invocation was given by Mrs. Bruce Porcher. Following a business session, Mrs. T. L. Matthews, speaker for the program, entertained the group with an interesting and informative account of two of our First Ladies.

Starting with our first First Lady, Martha Washington, Mrs. Matthews reviewed the following story:

Martha was born on June 2, 1731. Her parents were upper-middle-class, her father owning a small plantation, but they were treated as equals by the large plantation owners.

Martha had very little formal education. Mrs. Matthews quoted from one of Mrs. Washington's letters in which she exhibited very little knowledge of correct spelling. For example, "gown-gound; color-corler; last-las; done-don, etc.

In spite of her lack of education, however, she had enough of the necessary social graces to put her in line for marriage to a son of a wealthy plantation owner, and a few years later to become mistress of a Virginia mansion.

After eight years of marriage, during which four children were born, her husband, Daniel Park Custis, died, and she inherited holdings consisting of 170,000 acres of tobacco land, tenant farms, 150 slaves, the mansion and 300,000 pounds sterling. She was a very wealthy widow and married George Washington 18 months later. They moved to Mt. Vernon.

Life for Martha was pleasant at Mt. Vernon. She charmed her visitors by her graciousness, was a thorough housekeeper, elegant hostess, and a magnificent cook.

The Washingtons never had any children. Mrs. Gerald Ford was the subject for Mrs. Matthews' second First-Lady story.

She was born Elizabeth Anne Bloomer on April 8, 1918. Her father was a representative for a rubber company, and is the youngest of three children.

She showed an interest in dancing at an early age and began dancing lessons at the age of eight. By the time she was fourteen, she was an assistant dance instructor at the Calla Travis School of Dance which she attended.

After graduating from high school, she attended Bennington School of Dance in Vermont for two years where she majored in modern dance under the direction of outstanding instructors, including the famous Martha Graham.

Betty, as she was nicknamed, continued dancing instructions under Miss Graham and became a member of the Martha Graham Concert Group. Later, she was a professional model at the John Robert Powers Agency.

She also formed her own dance group and taught black and the handicapped children. The performing arts and children's activities continue to be major interests of hers.

On Oct. 15, 1948, Betty married Gerald R. Ford, a Grand Rapids attorney who, a few weeks later became a representative to Congress.

The Fords have four children:

Michael, age 24; John Gardner, 22; Steven Meigs, 18; and Susan Elizabeth, 17.

Mrs. Ford's activities are legion, centered around her family, community, and church. Now that she is the First Lady, she is naturally involved in political and civic activities.

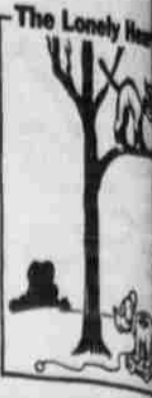

She is also interested in sports, playing golf and skiing until a painful neck injury forced her to give up these sports.

Gardening and collecting plates are her favorite hobbies. Now that she is First Lady, she is looking forward to the increased opportunity to assist in programs for the handicapped and bring more attention to the arts.

Fifty club members and eleven guests were present at the meeting Wednesday. In closing, Mrs. Dunlap reported that 207 members of the Caprock

District of TFWC board meeting Saturday, Oct. 12, at Floydada.

Hostesses for the meeting were: Mrs. Lindley, Harry Ford, W. D. Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Jewell, and Lyle Brandon.

Littlefield JV's Even Mark, 3 - 3

The Littlefield Junior Varsity evened their season record to three wins and three losses Thursday night as they defeated the Morton JV, 30-14.

JV coach Eddie Hooper complimented the entire team on their play and described the game as "probably the best overall effort of the season." Littlefield amassed 300 yards rushing and 89 passing for a fine offensive night.

Terry Foley scored the JV's first two touchdowns with the first coming on a 3-yard run and the second coming on a 1-yard blast. The passing combination of Rudy Ayala to Danny Martinez set up the second TD, plus the combo accounted for two extra points after the first score. Blake Wood scored the two extra points after the second touchdown and the score at the half was 16-6.

On the first possession of the second half, Martinez scored the 'Cats' third touchdown on a 60-yard run. Wood again scored the two extra points and the 'Cats had a 24-6 lead.

The final score of the night was made by John Marquez in the last minute of the game as he scored on a 6-yard run.

The coaches singled out the play of Martinez, Wood and Julian Saenz for their defensive efforts and Martinez, Ayala and Foley for their offensive play.

MORTON 8th GRADE 14
LITTLEFIELD 8th 6

The Littlefield eighth grade team spotted the Morton eighth graders a 14-point halftime lead that the 'Cats almost overcame, but fell short, 14-6.

The 'Cats' lone TD was scored on a 25-yard pass play from Jeff Lusk to Richard Morgan.

Singled out for their play on defense was Eddie Elms, Johnny Ortiz, Richard Soria and Rudolph Smith.

Hustler of the Week is Larry Heller.

LITTLEFIELD 7th 0
MORTON 7th 0

In what was described by Hulin as the best seventh grade game of the year, Littlefield battled Morton to a 0-0 tie. Blaine Banner and Greg Scott played well on offense, and while the coaches praised the entire defensive team, Craig Hammock and Joe Yabarra drew individual praise.

In describing the progress of the boys in the seventh grade program, Hulin and Comer said they are finally showing poise and aggressiveness. Stating that some boys who knew nothing about football when the season started are now showing up real well. The coaches described the system used for playing all boys every week.

The seventh grade is divided into three teams, Maroon, White and Grey. Each team which has been split as evenly as possible plays a quarter and the determination of the team that plays the final quarter is based on their performance in practice and their quarter of playing time.

In the eighth grade, the boys are divided into two teams and each play equal time.
