Rural Development Enrichment Aimed

Rural and small town people are increasingly turning to the development of their community or area as a way of making possible otherwise unattainable quality characteristics in their everyday life.

"And with state and local people in the driver's seat, a federal action program is being launched to help them make the most of what development has to offer." That from Will Erwin, U.S. Assistant Secretary of Agriculture for Rural Development.

Speaking before the first nationwide school for rural development leaders, Erwin said, "This is New Federalism. It means helping people help themselves. Assistance will be largely in the form of self-liquidating loans and providing technical practical know-how."

"Putting action in the Federal rural development program was made possible by passage of the Rural Development Act of 1972. This landmark legislation, recommended by President Nixon, gives Federal recognition to the fact that the well-being of rural America requires more than adequate farm income."

"Rural development is aimed at enriching the quality of life in rural America, and an indirect result is increasing the tax and job base of an area. It stimulates the economy and otherwise makes possible activities, services and facilities which contribute to the full good life."

"One great advantage of countryside development is curbing the continuing widespread family-scattering which occurs when rural people must migrate to distant cities in search of work. Such scattering has involved over 25 million rural Americans since World War II.

And this has sapped at the vitality of community and family ties and has weakened the benefits of neighborhood togetherness.

"Rural development," Erwin continued, "involves four categories—community facilities, economic development, people building, and improvement of the environment."

"Community facilities include such basics as water, sewers, and industrial parks. Loans are available from the Farmers Home Administration for these purposes."

"Economic development fosters creation of business, industry and jobs; and, along with agricultural prosperity, improves the quality of rural life. Local lenders are encouraged to make loans for this purpose. But FHA will protect the lender against 90 percent of his losses on approved loans."

"People building is the most important ingredient in the rural development process. And the U.S. Department of Agriculture has much experience in this vital area."

"The enhancement of the quality of the environment is the most pressing development ingredient. It involves the necessity of planning if the disadvantages of 'hit-or-miss, slipshod' development are to be avoided."

"Our concern centers on people. And we want to preserve the rural value system. By rural values, I mean the codes, ethics, and desirable standards that flow from rural life. These qualities not only contribute to the worth, integrity and personality makeup of the individual, but they enhance the ideologies and institutions which are necessary for enduring freedom", Erwin concluded.

'YOU'RE CLUTTERING UP THE ROAD'

Widow Is Raped, Police Investigate

A widow, in her late fifties, in the Circle community between Springlake and Olton was raped by a young Spanish man about 8:30 Wednesday evening.

According to Lamb County authorities, the woman had just taken a bath and had a bathrobe on when she answered a knock at her door. The man told her he was out of gas and the woman let him in to use the phone.

When he came through the door the man knocked her to the floor and held a knife at her throat.

City police checked four minor accidents Thursday. Luva Horton Shipley and Stevan Len Lowe were involved in an accident in the 300 block of Phelps

Wednesday morning Thursday morning Ed Frank Cummings of 619 E. 16th backed into a vehicle driven by William Henry Eidt of Dallas.

Cars driven by Clara Ball and Pedro Hernandez were involved in a mishap in the 400 block of Phelps Thursday morning.

Vehicles driven by Jess Andrew Rountree of 308 E. 18th and L.J. Walker of 102 E. 10th were involved in a collision at North Eastside and U.S. 385.

David Wayne Aills attempted a turn at W. Delano and N. Sunset Thursday evening and lost control of his car. The car hit a telephone pole, stop sign and street sign.

Rewriting the nearly-century-old Texas constitution is turning out to be stickier job than many figured.

The Constitutional Revision Commission went into overtime at a recent three-day meeting near here, but still failed to complete its agenda and slated another August 10-11 cleanup meeting.

Meanwhile, legislative planners for the 1974 Constitutional Convention, at which lawmakers will actually propose a revised constitution, disagreed on routine stage-setting.

House members suggested a new voting machine (which was later ordered) and new desks for delegates. Senate planning committee spokesmen indicated they would be satisfied to bring their own desks over from across the capitol rotunda and set them up in the House middle aisle.

The revision panel agreed: To keep the provision for real property taxation in the constitution for state purposes, but leave it to the legislature to write separate laws governing personal property taxation.

To retain the state highway users gasoline tax, with three-fourths of the revenue earmarked for highway building and one-fourth for public schools. A provision was made for abolishing the highway fund levy on statewide referendum with support of two-thirds of the legislature.

To keep the Permanent University Fund and Permanent School funds in the constitution. The university fund would be altered somewhat to include present and future branches of the University of Texas and Texas A&M University.

To add to the constitution a guarantee of "equitable" financial support for all schools and districts rich and poor.

To retain as constitutional elected members of the executive branch only the governor, Lieutenant governor and attorney general, with the legislature empowered to decide if the comptroller, treasurer, secretary of state, land commissioner and railroad commission should be elected or appointed by the governor.

'HOUSES' CLOSED

Two landmark bawdy houses—in La Grange and Sealy—were closed by local officials on request of state officials.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, Atty. Gen. John Hill and Department of Public Safety Director Wilson E. Speir sought action after reports aired by a Houston television station.

Briscoe acknowledged he had received calls from La Grange area citizens both supporting and opposing the action. He said he had been told he would be petitioned by a group who want the famed "Chicken Ranch" reopened.

Hill and Speir said they found no link with organized crime in operation of the houses, but Attorney General Hill added: "It is an illegal operation. The local officials were requested to take action. They took it."

RATE RAISE EXPECTED

An increase in some workmen's compensation insurance rates is due under a new law increasing benefits for those injured or killed in job accidents.

An average 19.5 per cent hike in the rates employers must pay for the coverage is anticipated under a State Insurance Board staff proposal, which would become effective if approved between September 1 and September 15.

Rates would have gone up 22.8 per cent in the absence of the federal anti-inflation program, a Board actuary indicated.

Under new law effective September, an injured worker can get up to a maximum of $63 a week in benefits, an increase from the present $49 top.

AG OPINIONS

A national bank does not come under definition of governmental bodies or institutions which are required to comply with the new open records act, Attorney General Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

A Laredo fireman injured in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, while on duty is entitled to benefits under the state Firemen's Relief and Retirement Law.

A Woman's View

By PEARL BRANDON

SO MANY of us in these days are looking toward the future afraid of what may happen. Food prices going up, and other essential things almost out of sight. We hear a lot about the "rich getting richer and the poor getting poorer." It is especially hard on the older people living on fixed incomes, but you know, they are the most optimistic of any people I have come in contact with lately. They say "I have lived on a lot less."

WE DIDN'T always have meat when we were growing up. We butchered several hogs once a year and cured the meat and lived on it until butchering time again. Sometimes it didn't last that long and we did without except for buying a little "side meat" to season with. We had very little beef. Someone would kill a calf and peddle it out in the community. There was no way to keep it very long as we had no electric refrigerators or deep freezers in those days.

BURKE SAID, "You can never plan the future by the past," but you can use your past experience to face the future. The same God that guided us through those dark depression days will guide us through the days to come.

Life is too short on this beautiful green earth to waste it worrying about what might happen. One of the old sayings that helps me as much as anything is "This too will pass." So Watergate will pass, the food crisis will pass, and our own personal problems will pass. Something else will take their place. To God none of these problems are great. They are just here today and gone tomorrow and we are his children.

LAST SUNDAY we had the Sunnydale reunion at the community house. About 40 people were there. You people that have lived in Sunny Dale missed a real treat. We had a wonderful lunch, good music, a white elephant sale and a lot of fun. All of us enjoyed visiting with old friends.

It was sad for the memorial service. The list of names who have passed on was more than those present. See you next Sunday, God willing.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

A Little Better

IT IS ADMITTED that each day brings enough news about troubles, strife, distrust, dishonor, self-seeking, betrayal, etc. to make us weary and discouraged; if we are inclined toward passivity. It is obvious, however, that we cannot afford to be overly receptive to these outside impressions and influences. Even though our society is so interrelated that we are not totally impervious to the happenings around us, we do have the privilege of being relatively selective about what they mean to us, and how we are affected by them.

REALITY IS REALITY, and must be recognized as such; however, there is one special consideration we must not let anything overshadow; because it is part of reality. We must never stop trying to improve ourselves, our personal situation, our immediate environment, our work, our skills, and our lives. We must maintain enough hope, enough courage and enough life interest to give us the desire to do "a little better"; to do "a little better" in our work, our interpersonal behavior, in our personal development and in our total response to the daily events.

"WHAT'S THE USE?" This attitude is expressed by some folk, it is seen in the rather lethargic actions of others, and is a part of the expressed discouragement of many more. All of us probably have some of the feeling, now and then, but if we are working under the resolution to do "a little better", and to be "a little better"; we will dismiss this fatal attitude of "What's the use?"

WE MUST NOT take note of what others are doing or what is happening around us. Our own understanding of our own life for doing "a little better" recognized need for doing "a little better" move along through time. We are not being victimized by the vicissitudes of either individuals or of our social structure. In becoming more and more able to cope with the whole life experience, addition to this, we are developing just as the legions and challenge of life require.

"USE YOUR GIFTS" fulfill them; they shall be enlarged; you know, and you shall attain knowledge." -Arnold

IT IS POSSIBLE for us to be discouraged, and even disillusioned; but we don't want this to be fatal to the extent that we are to personal misery and failure; not happen to us unless we want it.

WE MUST BE RESOLUTE purpose to follow the guideline to be "a little better" day; and to do "a little better" work, our talk, our treatment, and in the way we respond to developments in the world. This is much, much better than defeatism and worry.

HOLLYWOOD GETS

By CORNBALL BEE

SO MANY TIMES, or rather so much of the time, we get to dwelling on the ills and unpleasantness of current events, that we completely ignore the beauties and better things of the good that's so prevalent around us.

The manifold blessings of the Creator, so bountifully bestowed upon us go practically unnoticed because of the ugliness and misbehavior of a very few. The entire body is wracked with pain, simply because of an ingrown toe-nail!

THE SAME PEOPLE who are privileged to have good jobs or occupations, good homes, plenty to eat, clothes to wear, and, most of all, good health, are so many times among the first to complain about inflation, taxes, and Watergate.

Some people just ain't happy, don't intend to be, and wouldn't let you know about it if they were.—Their happiness comes from the privilege of being able to complain and exercise it!

ME, TOO!! Really hadn't thought about this so much 'til a few days ago when I was talking to some farmer friends. We were discussing the prospects of a bountiful crop, high prices of farm commodities, and the upcoming farm program.

"I REALLY live for the day, when you farmers won't have anything to gripe about!" I told them.

"If that time ever comes, I'm gonna change occupations!" was the ready answer.

AND, THAT, FRIENDS, just about sums it up.—Give a man a bushel of apples, and he'll complain because one of them has a worm. Guess it takes the bad to emphasize the good.

PITY THE POOR shut out, unoccupied, probably low in on nothing on the tube but Watergate.

I'm of the opinion that they've worn this hassle in several of the participants offered contracts from Hollywood, some of the ham-shaws, that is.

SPEAKIN' OF HOLLYWOOD they'd ought to turn Perry Mason on this Watergate case.—The butler must be the culprit. That is; since no one else seems to blame.

Never before has such a case stirred up, and able to cause amnesia, and so suddenly!

YEP, I'M SURE it was because it was the maid's sign was it??

DOESN'T SEEM reasonable we're on the downhill side of the big things I'd planned for haven't even been started yet.

Anyhoo, first thing you know thinking about reserved seats upcoming football season, and winterwear.—About time accustomed to one season of we're entering into another.

WHEN WE WERE young was a very long time. You've just passed 39!

About time it gets to where the radiator cap on a '73 model '74s are about ready to debut.

THE WAY TIME flies, you better go ahead and wish you had a Christmas!

Turn Row COMMENTS

By EMIL MACHO

WONDER HOW MANY teachers we would have today if they had to live up to contracts that were signed about 50 years ago.

Samuel M. Barbiero, who recently retired as supervisor of the public personnel department of the Jefferson County Public Schools, found a copy of his first contract while sorting mementos of his 47 years in teaching. Here are some of the contract's provisions:

"Women teachers are not to keep company with men and agree to be at home between the hours of 8 p.m. and 6 a.m. unless attending a school function. Women teachers agree not to get married. This contract becomes null and void immediately if a woman teacher marries."

"All school employees are not to leave town at any time without the permission of the chairman of the school board. The teacher agrees not to smoke cigarettes. This contract becomes null and void immediately if the employee is found drinking alcoholic beverages."

"Women teachers are to dress and conduct themselves in a puritanical manner as follows: not dress in bright colors; not dye her hair, wear at least two petticoats; not wear dresses more than two inches above the ankle; not to use face powder, mascara or paint the lips."

"Men teachers may take a week for courting purposes if they attend church regularly on Sunday school class."

For meeting all the provisions, they pay was $12.00. There wasn't much grumbling about contract terms, jobs were not and by signing the contract they knew you had a warm place to winter.

LOOKS LIKE THE rotary get another boost here in the States as General Motors manufacture 100,000 Vauxhall engine Vegas in 1974.

When it comes to quitting men have it all over women. To a government survey 26 percent of women smokers have quit the habit. Those who have quit are a lot less successful male quitters. Between 1960 one man in 12 who had quit smoking; the ratio among women is nine.

THERE HAS BEEN a lot of the declining value of the country that has declined.

Rodeo Set Labor Day

This is the time of year the boys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch start getting ready for their annual rodeo and looking forward to a big Labor Day weekend.

About 150 boys will be riding as contestants while all of the 385 boys will have some part in the production.

The attendance for the 1972 rodeo was not as large as anticipated, so we are hoping for a bigger turnout this year. A large crowd of people driving to the Ranch and cheering the boys while they put on their show does a lot for them.

Approximately 10,000 people are expected to celebrate the Labor Day weekend by attending the 29th annual Boys Ranch Rodeo at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch.

Two performances of the rodeo are scheduled at 2:30 p.m. at the Ranch's Rodeo Arena where more than 150 boys will be riding calves, steers, bulls and bucking broncs. All of the 385 boys who make their home at the Ranch will have some part in the rodeo, either as contestants or working in the many behind-the-scenes activities. The older boys will ride professional rodeo stock under R.C.A. rules.

The Rodeo is also a traditional home-coming for those who have graduated from the Ranch and are members of the Boys Ranch Alumni Association. More than 2,500 boys have lived at the Ranch since it was founded by Cal Farley in 1939 and many travel long distances with their families for the rodeo.

Homemaking Tips

BY Lynn Bowermon

It's melon time, and that means good, refreshing eating on a hot summer day. Watermelon and cantaloupe are great treats for dieters, and they are a good source of potassium and phosphorus—two minerals essential for good nutrition. Watermelon also supplies some of the B vitamins, vitamins C and A. Cantaloupe is even a better source of Vitamins A and C. A half of a medium size cantaloupe contains 6,590 International units of vitamin A and 63 milligrams of vitamin C with only 40 calories.

To serve these melons, cut into slices or into balls and cubes for variety. Select a cantaloupe by a smooth clean thumbprint at the stem end, high and evenly distributed not-like surface. A watermelon should have a dryish stem and round surface.

Cantaloupe should be put into a plastic bag and kept in the refrigerator. Store it away from dairy products, lettuce and broccoli. Serve the melon chilled but not cold to enjoy the sweet and distinct flavor.

Try these ideas for recipe use of melons. Create a refreshing salad for summer months by combining the cool tastes of watermelon, cantaloupe, and honey dew melon balls. Add a few blueberries and peaches for an extra taste tingle. A very special entree....

Cornish Hen Ala Cantaloupe
2 No. 1 Cornish game hens
2 large cantaloupes
1 small onion
1 orange
1/4 cup rum
1/4 cup butter
Salt and pepper

METHOD: With heavy sharp knife cut hens in half lengthwise. Remove backbone. Sprinkle cavity with salt and pepper. Cut cantaloupe in half lengthwise; remove seeds. With a spoon, cut or scoop out enough of the melon to put half of hen inside. Chop onion very fine. Cut orange in slices. Sprinkle one tablespoon of chopped onion and slice of orange in bottom of cantaloupe. Put half of Cornish hen in the hollow. Cover the meat with scooped out cantaloupe. Put on a baking sheet and bake in 450 degree oven for half hour. Turn heat to 350 degrees and bake for 1 1/2 hours or until done. During the last 1/2 hour remove cantaloupe topping so the meat will brown. Baste with butter and rum. (This method needs a longer cooking time because part of the heat is absorbed by the melon.) Remove the meat from the shell onto plate. Garnish with a crescent with curry. Makes 4 servings.

Quick and easy...
Sunburst Salad
1 cup crushed pineapple, drained
1 pint cottage cheese
Lettuce
1 cantaloupe
2 tablespoons sour cream
METHOD: Combine pineapple and cottage cheese. Arrange on center of large lettuce-lined plate. Slice cantaloupe into half crosswise; cut each half into 8 sections lengthwise and cut off rind. Radiate melon sections from cheese in sunburst design. Spoon sour cream over cheese. Garnish with strawberry or cherry if desired. Makes 4 servings.
A nip of a dessert....

Cantaloupe Sour Cream Cake
1 small angel food cake
6 tablespoons muscatel wine
1/2 pt. commercial sour cream
1/2 cup powdered sugar
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 medium peeled cantaloupe, cut into small wedges
METHOD: Split the angel food cake in half crosswise. Turn cut sides of cake up and sprinkle each half with 3 tablespoons of muscatel; set aside. Combine sour cream, powdered sugar and nutmeg; mix well. Spread some of this mixture on bottom half of cake. Top with wedges of cantaloupe. Replace top half of cake; cover entire cake with remaining sour cream mixture. Chill for several hours, or overnight to allow flavors to blend. Just before serving decorate top of cake with more melon wedges or balls. Makes 6 servings. Cool and refreshing....

Cantaloupe Sherbet
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sugar
3 cups cantaloupe, pulp and juice (2 medium cantaloupes)
1 to 3 cups lemon juice

METHOD: Boil water and sugar together for 5 minutes. Cool. Add cantaloupe pulp and lemon juice. Pour into shallow pan and freeze until firm around the edge of the pan. Turn into a bowl and beat until smooth. Return to tray and freeze until firm. Makes 6 servings.

Another watermelon treat that will surprise your family is watermelon rind pickles. These are the ingredients:

- 4 qts. prepared watermelon rind
- 1 cup salt
- 2 quarts of cold water
- 2 tablespoons whole cloves
- 3 sticks cinnamon
- 2 pieces of gingerroots
- 1 lemon
- 8 cups sugar
- 1 quart of white vinegar
- 1 quart of water
- Trim dark skin and pink

flesh from thick watermelon rind; cut into one-inch pieces or as desired. Dissolve lime or salt in 2 quarts of water; pour over rind. If needed, add more water to cover rind. Let stand 2 hours if lime is used or 6 hours if salt is used. Drain, rinse and cover rind with cold water. Cook until tender. Drain. Tie spices in cloth bag, add with other ingredients and simmer 10 minutes. Add watermelon rind and simmer until clear. Add boiling water if syrup becomes too thick before rind is clear. Remove spice bag. Pack boiling into hot jars, leaving one-eighth head space; close. Process in boiling water bath 5 minutes. Start to count processing time when water returns to boiling. Makes 6 pints.

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE
Littlefield Feeders Inc., P.O. Box 1066, Littlefield, Texas 79339, has applied to the Texas Water Quality Board for an initial permit pertaining to a variable amount of rainfall runoff water containing wastes from the feedlot operation (30,000 head) which is to be located immediately South of Farm Road 37, at a point approximately one mile West of the intersection, Farm Market Road 37 and U.S. Highway 385, and approximately five miles North of Littlefield, Lamb County, Texas. The rainfall runoff water containing wastes will be collected in a Playa Lake and utilized for irrigation. There will be no discharge to the surface waters of the State. A public hearing on this application will be held in Conference Room C Municipal Building 509 East 7th Street, Amarillo, Texas 10 a.m. September 11, 1973 to receive evidence on the conditions, if any, under which the permit may be issued. Preliminary information available to the staff of the Texas Water Quality Board indicates that a waste discharge conforming to the conditions shown in the fact sheet would not unreasonably impair the quality of the waters in the State. Additional data will be developed at the hearing, but further technical information concerning any specific aspect of the discharge, if available, can be obtained by writing the Texas Water Quality Board, P.O. Box 13246, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Issued this 8th day of August, 1973.

Hugh C. Yantis, Jr.
Executive Director

However, the plastic pipe can be damaged by grazing cattle, the researcher points out. And in sandy soils it may be difficult to germinate seeds because the drip system may not wet the surface soil uniformly.

The second technique involves the development of a tractor-mounted rig to move
