

Legion Drive For Members Opens Tuesday

The annual membership campaign of the American Legion will get under way here and other points in Texas starting tomorrow, Ed Fisher of the local post said that Big Spring membership goal is 650.

Tuesday has been designated as "Legion Day" all over the state. Some 600 posts in Texas will begin their campaign. However, Fisher stated that activity here will not be brisk until Thursday.

He pointed out that meetings are held every Thursday night, and that anyone having an honorable discharge who has served during war time can join.

At present the local post sponsors a Little League baseball club and is planning to initiate a junior safety patrol program at the city schools.

Funeral rites will be conducted here Tuesday for James Henry Appleton, 68, a former resident of Howard County, who died at his home Sunday at Lamesa.

Mr. Appleton had been ill for about three months. Funeral services will be held at the Church of Christ, 14th and Main, at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Mr. Appleton is survived by his wife, Mrs. Jennie Appleton of Lamesa; three sons, Forrest Appleton of Vincent, Eldon Appleton and John Appleton, both of Big Spring; and a daughter, Mrs. Vivian Harvey of Tahoa.

H. E. Wheeler, 43, former resident of Howard County, died this morning about 4 a. m. in Oakland, Calif. He had been injured in World War I but had an active life until last year.

He moved to Howard County with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wheeler, in 1891. He moved from here to San Francisco in 1941.

Survivors include his wife and six daughters of Oakland; two brothers, R. M. Wheeler and Joe Wheeler, both of Big Spring; two sisters, Mrs. Lella Lay of Coahoma and Mrs. Halle Abney of Abernathy, and one half-brother, A. W. Kingfield of Rotan.

Funeral arrangements are pending. Burial will be in the National Cemetery at Oakland.

Large Turnout At Barbershop Singing Session

A large turnout greeted the three visiting quartets and local singers at the "Harmony Show" performance given in the City Auditorium last Saturday night.

The show was presented by the local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, and proceeds went to the Quarterback Club.

The Big Spring High School chorus appeared on the program, and a local 30-man choir presented several numbers. Guest quartets were the Deseritales of El Paso, the Tune Tilters of Fort Worth, and the Cavem City Four of Carlsbad, N. M.

Several numbers were rendered by the Dustyaires, newly formed quartet of Big Spring. Each quartet had its own style, some rendering semi-popular numbers and others old favorites of past years. Western songs came in for their part of the program also.

Benson Seen Okaying Minor Grain Parity

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson was reported in congressional circles today to have decided to continue price supports on oats, barley and rye—a move which would counter one phase of reputed farm dissatisfaction.

Such a decision by Benson, expected to be announced soon, would be aimed at reassuring farmers as the winter grain planting season starts against the possibility of disastrous price drops later.

It might also have the effect of lessening criticism of the secretary, who has been reluctant to approve the present high level price support program. That criticism built up new steam over the week-end.

Announcement of continued supports for prices of minor grains might be interpreted in the farm belt as indicating that Benson is in line with President Eisenhower's statement that the principle of price props must be retained in the new farm program to be sent to Congress early next year.

The congressional informants who told of Benson's decision asked not to be named. The minor grains now are being supported at 85 per cent of parity under an order of the previous Democratic administration. Some members of Congress said it was possible that Benson might even raise this to 90 per cent, the level at which wheat and corn and some other farm products are supported.

Parity is a calculated price level said by law to give producers a fair return on their products in relation to prices they pay for things they buy. Farmers may get government loans at the fixed percentage of parity if market prices drop below those levels.

The Agriculture Department, meanwhile, foresees an end to another farm problem: a decline in cattle prices which has persisted for more than a year.

The department said in a summary of the situation that prices in 1954 are not expected to average lower than this year, but are not likely to regain their levels of a year or two ago.

Benson's political troubles were emphasized over the weekend when two Republican members of Congress—Sen. Young (ND) and Rep. A. L. Miller (Neb)—said it is time for Benson to be replaced in the Eisenhower Cabinet.

Young said in an interview that Benson ought to quit the Cabinet "because he has lost the confidence of the farmers." Miller, appearing on a television program, said the secretary has become "a symbol of lost confidence."

Sen. Hunt (D-Wyo) agreed with Miller, Rep. Curtis (R-Neb), appearing with them and Rep. Patman (D-Tex) on the program, defended Benson and said, "We are advancing on the farm front."

Pastor Attends Methodist Meet

The Rev. Marvin Fisher, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church, has been in Washington, D. C., where he attended a three day briefing and Citizenship Convocation.

More than 500 Methodist leaders from all parts of the nation participated. The conference was called, according to Methodist leaders, because of a new surge of interest in the drinking problem.

Highlight of the conference was an address by Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, resident bishop of the Washington area. He declared that "the Methodist answer to alcohol is abstinence. Methodists hope to make this the American answer."

One American in seven is of the Methodist constituency. The development of abstinence upon the part of the people called Methodists will profoundly influence the habits of the American people.

He assailed liquor industry pleas for temperance as inconsistent with nationwide advertising to encourage sales. On the other hand, he asserted that "abstinence is not a matter of coercion. Abstinence involves education and commitment."

Reds Vetoed On Force Demand

PANMUNJOM (AP)—Beaten in their demand that Indian troops force defiant Korean War prisoners to listen to Red persuasion teams, the two Communist delegations reportedly stormed out of a Korean repatriation commission meeting today.

The Polish and Czech walkouts—reported by reliable sources—threatened a collapse in the tension-ridden interviewing of 23,400 anti-Communist prisoners who refuse to return to their homelands.

The sources, who declined to be named, said the Swedish, Swiss and Indian members of the five-nation commission sided together.

The walkout stilled all activity of the commission, at least temporarily.

A commission spokesman said there would be no explanations Tuesday. The Reds had refused to interview Chinese instead of the North Koreans they had asked for. A 1 1/2-hour repatriation commission debate on the matter was ended by the walkout of Czechs and Poles, an informed source said.

One Roller Coaster Smacks Into Another; Six Injured

DALLAS (AP)—A runaway roller coaster whizzing an estimated 40 miles an hour smacked into another being loaded at the State Fair last night. The impact sent hurt and terrified passengers in the second coaster on a 25-cent nightmare round trip that could not be stopped.

Six persons were injured, none critically. Fred McHally, 21, sitting on a bench in the loading shed, watched helplessly as the runaway coaster bore down.

"Two of my friends had just gotten on the car at the dock. I didn't want to ride. I just sat down to wait for them. I saw the other car coming and fast. It must have been going 40 miles an hour."

"Two girls on the incoming car screamed. Then it hit. After that, there were a lot of screams and everybody started pulling people out of the car and stretching them on benches."

The second car was knocked about 20 feet—far enough to be hooked by automatic cables that sent it climbing relentlessly up the first steep grade.

Screams filtered down to crowds milling in the busy midway. The roller coasters do not have drivers. Cables raise them up grades and let go as they whistle down the other side. Attendants stop the cars by pulling levers, which clamp keels against the rails.

Unable to stop it, attendants watched the silver "thrill wagon" complete the three-minute trip around the track. They braked it to a stop at the loading shed.

Police were investigating whether mechanical or human error resulted in the accident.

They sidetracked both damaged cars. After a third car was sent on several test runs, people lined up again at the ticket window.

NO SPY HERE

Someone in Big Spring apparently has the spy jitters.

Police received a call Saturday night from an unknown party claiming that Morse code was being sent from the top of the Settles Hotel.

When policemen checked they found some boys playing with a flashlight.

McCarthy To Visit Fort Monmouth Lab In Radar Spy Hunt

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) said today he will visit the Army's Ft. Monmouth, N. J., laboratories tomorrow in his investigation of an alleged radar spy ring.

The Senator said Secretary of the Army Stevens will accompany him to lay groundwork for more closed door hearings in which McCarthy's Senate investigations subcommittee is studying report of security leaks at the fort.

He said he plans another closed hearing Thursday, at either Ft. Monmouth or New York City.

McCarthy announced a special investigation of the subcommittee in Europe with a Signal Corps officer to interview possible key witnesses who may shed more light on the possible theft of U.S. radar secrets.

He said James Juliana, the investigator, plans interviews today with a German scientist who is reported to have said he saw a motion picture film of U.S. atomic installations that may have been pilfered by spies, and who contends the Russians have a radar installation which may have been copied from supposedly secret U.S. plans.

He said Juliana, a former FBI agent, and the Signal Corp intelligence officer plan "a good investigation" of the scientist's story.

McCarthy said he is not sure at what hour he and Stevens will reach Ft. Monmouth tomorrow.

Riding THE GRUB LINE With Franklin Reynolds

A hardware salesman was in Mrs. Grace Morgan's Garden City Cafe complaining about business. Nobody was buying hardware. It was the same in Odessa, Midland, and everywhere else. He was going to have to begin to worry about eating, too, he said.

An elderly gentleman from Odessa who had dropped in to get his dinner had the answer. The country has run plumb, smack dab out of money, he said.

They went out while the Grub Liner was still eating hamburgers. "I don't believe that," Mrs. Morgan said. "I don't believe the country has run out of money. I just believe that the people are being more careful about spending money because of the drought."

Mrs. Morgan believes that as soon as the drought is broken, people will start spending again and so the young hardware salesman, among others, will be made happy again. The owner of the Garden City Cafe is a Democrat, but she doesn't seem to think that the change in administrations in Washington is wholly to blame for business conditions. She believes a change was made in the books, anyway, and that whenever there is a change in administrations it is bound to be reflected to some extent in general business conditions.

Mrs. Morgan has been running the Garden City Cafe for seven years and the last five as owner. She lived in Big Spring for a short while when her husband was working for the Art Tucker Transport Co.

The drought has touched Glasscock County in other ways, too. Because of it so many cattle and sheep have been moved out of the county, says County Judge David L. Smith, that the county lost $200,000 in valuations.

But this doesn't mean that county's income is down, explains Judge Smith. The oil industry pays 75 percent of the taxes in the county. The oil industry valuation is $8,775,835 as against a total of $10,563,000. As far as valuation is concerned new production in Glasscock last year increased the valuation by $782,000, so what Glasscock lost on livestock was more than made up for in oil.

At the Garden City School the Grub Liner was greeted by the new superintendent, W. A. Wilson, who we first knew when he was at Coahoma last year.

Wilson is quite enthusiastic about his new post and if school executives are to be judged like race horses, he is destined to make the folks down that way one of the very best superintendents any school has ever had.

This year there are 205 students enrolled in the Garden City School, the only school in Glasscock County. This is a decrease of about 45 students. Wilson thinks some of the loss may be attributed to the drought—families that have moved out of the county, or to the transfer of employees of the oil industry.

Wilson says his vocational agriculture instructor, M. T. Barber, and County Agent Oliver Werst, are giving each other a lot of help at the State Fair at Dallas. Both 4-H Club and FFA Chapter members are exhibiting there. Werst

Eisenhower Calls Civil Defense Meet For Dec. 14-15

MISSION, Tex. (AP)—President Eisenhower has called the nation's mayors to a White House conference on civil defense Dec. 14 and 15. It was announced that the purpose of the meeting is to give mayors or managers of the nation's larger cities all information that can be made available to them on the national defense situation.

Emphasis will be on civil defense.

Governors had a similar briefing in Washington last May.

The President called the second conference yesterday while resting at the South Texas estate of Gov. Shivers.

Eisenhower will address the opening session, to be attended by the mayor or city manager of every city with 75,000 or more inhabitants.

States without cities that large were invited to send representatives of some of their cities.

Secretary of State Dulles, Secretary of Defense Wilson, Federal Civil Defense Head Val Peterson and other top government officials will also address the conference.

Sen. Johnson Hopes Civil Defense Plan To Be Expanded

AUSTIN (AP)—Sen. Lyndon Johnson asserts that a third world war would almost certainly start with an attack on American cities and the nation is not prepared.

The Senate minority leader said in a broadcast last night he hopes Congress will consider expanding the civil defense program.

Johnson spoke shortly after President Eisenhower said he will call a civil defense and disaster meeting Dec. 14-15 in Washington.

Johnson touched on Texas water headaches. He said the state has the problem of both too much water and too little, that it's not unusual for one section to be flooded while another area is cracked by drought.

"I believe there is no more important problem before our state than the proper management of water. Our future depends entirely upon the wisdom that we can exercise in meeting this issue."

The Wheels Went Rolling Home

Once in a while the traveler finds an especially attractive country home, made so by some unusual and charming decorative scheme that carries a whole lot of attractive utility. Such is the home of the Marion J. Taylors, a few miles south of Gail on the Big Spring road, where the yard is fenced in with wagon wheels. Even though this is now a nation on wheels, some wheels are fast becoming antiques. Getting enough wagon wheels for a yard fence wouldn't be an easy job.

Mother, 5 Children Die In Home Fire

AMBLER, Pa. (AP)—A mother and her five children are dead in one of the worst fire tragedies in the history of this suburban Philadelphia community.

The husband and father of the victims and four guests of the family escaped the blaze which swept through their three-story home early yesterday.

An oil stove explosion touched off the blaze, firemen reported, and in seconds flames shot up an open stairway leading to the upper two floors. The victims were all trapped in their floor bedrooms. Two people on the second floor escaped.

The father, John Duckett Sr., 32, was on the first floor with a friend, Stanley Tate, 23, when the explosion occurred. The pair tried in vain to get up the stairway but finally had to flee from the burning home.

Meantime, Eva Dean, 17, Duckett's sister-in-law, and Louella Robinson, 24, climbed from a second floor bedroom to a shed roof and thence through the window of an adjoining residence.

Firemen raised extension ladders to the third floor in an effort to reach the trapped family but were driven back by the flames.

Duckett's wife, Dora, 29, was found lying in the doorway of the front bedroom with 3-month-old Ariene in her arms. The rest of the children, John R., 6; June 5; Dorothea, 4; and Calvin, 3, were found huddled on the floor of the bedroom.

Acting Coroner Dr. John Simpson said they had been overcome by smoke.

Man Rang Doorbell And Now Regrets It

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It's a cinch Leroy Broomfield didn't mean to ring the doorbell. But he did.

When John R. Peters, dressed in pajamas, opened the door he found Broomfield on all fours fumbling in the dark with the lock.

Broomfield scrambled to his feet and ran—right through a large plate glass window on the sun-porch.

Peters followed him out the window. Broomfield smacked into a wire fence. Peters smacked into him.

"C'mon, Myrt, get out here and help," cried Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters got Broomfield down, sat on him and yelled until a constable came.

In county jail, the 32-year-old Broomfield nursed scratches and bruises and faced charges of breaking and entering and assault with intent to wound.

Johnson Has Tough Senate Herding Job

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The man with the toughest political horse to ride in the next session of Congress may well be Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Senate Democratic floor leader.

The tall, lean Texan will be herding 48 party members stamped with almost every conceivable brand of political belief—including a few who are openly happy that a Republican, not a Democrat, is in the White House.

Johnson will have to deal with party colleagues who hold a one-vote margin over the opposition and yet remain in the minority technically.

He will have to quell balky steers on his right and left flanks if his party is to write any sort of consistent record of opposition to Republican administration policies. It must take this record into next year's election campaign for control of Congress.

He will need something just a little short of magic to keep the Democrats from falling out among themselves on some low-boiling-point questions, such as civil rights.

And all the time, he will face the ever-present necessity of writing his own record so he can win re-election himself next year. He may have unprecedented Republican opposition in a state which went for President Eisenhower in the 1952 presidential election.

To this monumental task, Johnson will be bringing a year's experience in corralling his Democratic flock during their first session under Republican control.

Well aware of Eisenhower's demonstrated popularity in Texas, as elsewhere in the country, Johnson was influential in advising the Democrats this year to avoid attacks on the President and to concentrate their fire on other Republicans from the Cabinet level down.

If the Texas senator is of a mind to continue these tactics, he is likely to find increasing pressure upon him from within the Democratic party to unhalter the opposition in the session which begins next January.

It is no secret in Washington that Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas, the House minority leader, is getting tired of what he regards as the political nonsense of cooperating with the Republicans on domestic issues.

Rayburn's complaint is this: Eisenhower, he says, blames the Democrats for leaving things in a mess whenever the new administration can't find a ready answer to a pressing problem.

Rayburn's views carry a lot of weight with Johnson. And the situation in Texas may well affect Johnson's reaction.

Gov. Allan Shivers, who might challenge Johnson for the Democratic senatorial nomination but probably won't, made it clear he regards the Democratic votes cast for Eisenhower in 1952 as not available to help elect a Republican senator.

Eisenhower's visit to Shivers' Texas ranch over the weekend probably produced some conversation on this score.

On the other hand, Eisenhower is being urged strongly by the national and Texas Republican organizations to give his blessing to a prospectively well-financed attempt by the Republicans to unseat Johnson at the polls next November.

N.Y. Lieutenant Governor Defends Trips To See Fay

By EUGENE LEVIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Acting Lt. Gov. Arthur H. Wicks likens his visits to an imprisoned labor extortionist to a national foreign policy seeking peace "by audiences with a Premier Stalin or a Marshal Tito."

Wicks, under pressure from Gov. Thomas E. Dewey to resign, made a dramatic radio-television defense yesterday of his Sing Sing Prison talks with labor extortionist Joey Fay, who has become a central figure in a political furor with potential national repercussions.

The acting lieutenant governor was the victim of a "human error" and light video programming which combined to diminish the effect of his plan.

National Broadcasting Co. personnel for a time could not locate the film of the television show, and viewers were shown a travelogue of Boston. An hour and a half after the scheduled time, NBC put the Wicks telecast on the air, but it went out on only one of the six New York state stations which had planned to carry it. Radio broadcasting was not affected.

Wicks, who has turned down a demand by Dewey that he resign as Republican majority leader of the State Senate, reiterated on the air that he visited Fay to keep labor peace without seeking or giving favors.

The visits were "lamentable," Wicks said, and added:

"But was it more lamentable than it is in our national foreign policy to seek peace and society's welfare by audiences with a Premier Stalin or a Marshal Tito?"

"My only purpose in going," said Wicks, who is from Kingston in the Hudson River Valley between New York and Albany, "was to keep labor peace and avoid jurisdictional strikes in my senatorial district."

He continued: "That is what I accomplished. That is all that I sought to accomplish. So help me God."

Fay, 61, an AFL building construction official, is serving a prison term for shaking down contractors for $386,000. A recent disclosure that 83 persons, including Wicks, visited him in Sing Sing started this chain of events:

Dewey and Wicks met several days ago, and Dewey asked Wicks to quit as Senate majority leader, the post which automatically made him acting lieutenant governor to the governor.

The governor then called a special session of the State Legislature for Nov. 17. Wicks said he will resign at that time as majority leader and will seek re-election to the post as vindication. His re-election would be a major defeat for Dewey, a factor making many believe the showdown might help determine the future of Dewey in both state and national politics.

B&PW And Guests Hear District Director

In a discussion illustrated by cards displayed on a flannel board easel, Christine Tipton, district director for B&PW, traced the history of the club from its organization in 1919 and showed the rapid development of clubs in all 48 states and Alaska and Hawaii, at Howard County Junior College Auditorium Sunday.

She told of the purposes of the club as a national organization and how it represents women in 700 businesses and professions. It is a non-profit, non-partisan, non-sectarian club.

The program that is developed annually by the organization is in four major fields, Education and Vocation, Health and Safety, International Relations and Public Affairs.

Mrs. Tipton explained how the program is directed toward a study of social, economic and political conditions throughout the world and provides an avenue for action through group study, discussion and exchange of information.

Mrs. Tipton said that Texas has 159 B&PW clubs with 8,358 members and they are still growing. She listed the special activities of the state organization.

Mrs. Tipton was assisted at the flannel board by Mrs. Addylene Lamb of Monahans. Refreshments were served under the direction of Ora Johnson, Lorena Williams, Pauline Sullivan and Jimmys Freeman assisted at the tea table. About 100 guests attended.

Advice From Barbara

Barbara Bates, popular Paramount star appearing with Martin and Lewis in "The Caddy", advises shopping with a plan if you want to look your best.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Good Line, Good Color Important To Fashion

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — "My goodness! Isn't the summer gone fast? And here it is, almost November already." Barbara Bates remarked as we had a salad lunch together at Paramount where she made "The Caddy" with Martin and Lewis. "One hardly assembles a wardrobe for one season when it's time to go shopping for another."

"Do you like to shop, Barbara?" I asked.
"I've learned the hard way not to go into a store without a plan," she answered. "This buying a blouse with no skirt to go with it, or picking up a sweater which is the wrong color but a bargain, proves to be no bargain at all."
I asked about this plan Barbara had mentioned.
"I am very systematic. I examine all my clothes from last year and decide what I'm going to carry over. I study the fashion magazines and go to a few fashion shows to help me decide what new things I want to add. Then I make a list of everything I need and I never go shopping without this list."
I asked Barbara how closely she followed fashion.
"I'm interested in new fabrics, colors, or in a new line," she told me.

Mary Margaret McBRIDE Says

Ever since this brisk, golden fall began, I've been thinking about another October 20 years ago, just as brisk and golden but also terrifying. Remember? Adolph Hitler had been given blanket power over Germany. His Nazis had boycotted the Jews. We heard the reports and we scoffed because they seemed too preposterous to be believed. Yet already the terror and oppression had begun.

America, in October, 1933, was beginning to struggle out of a financial depression, more concerned with new, legal 2:2 beer than the European situation. Besides, our people were Coax-ing themselves to prosperity and strength with a magic incantation: "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself."

On the 17th of that memorable month, a ship sailed past the Statue of Liberty bearing the small, shy, straggly-haired man, vanguard of the refugees from Nazism. Dr. Albert Einstein, world-famous scientist, was following the path of generations of refugees to the free climate of the new world.

For 20 years they've kept on coming, first from Germany, then from the Iron Curtain countries, a dramatic procession. Two Russian pilots fly into western sun and sanctuary. A young Austrian swims a border river at night with his fiancée on his back. An interpreter on a North Korean repatriation mission awaits his chance and slides to safety under American protection. A middle-aged Polish diplomat in New York on a United Nations mission tiptoes down the back stairs of a midtown hotel to an all-night drug store and telephones for help. He gets it—safety and protection in the country of his dreams. Here is high adventure, best cloak-and-dagger style, in the heart of New York.

Brave men, men of independent minds and stout hearts, risk life itself every day for the sake of freedom. And because of this constant demonstration of the universal yearning to breathe free, a hopeless world seems hopeful again.

It ought to cause us Americans to feel humble and grateful. Many of us have done very little to make or keep this land of the free and the home of the brave. We have simply taken and used with greedy satisfaction what we consider our rightful heritage. Maybe this brisk-golden October should be set aside for remembrance and soul-searching thanksgiving.

In every family, no matter how lately come to this land, there are must be stories similar to the ones my mother used to tell her children as we sat on Sundays around the glowing baseburner in our best room.

It was of a great-great-uncle that she spoke most often, a preacher in post-revolutionary War days who rising up against bigotry and tyranny in the part of Kentucky where he lived, led his entire flock through wilderness never before explored by white humans to a settlement where they could worship as they believed.

I am proud to acknowledge a debt to that determined, dedicated little man.

Something else I'm proud of those words on the Statue of Liberty plaque . . . "Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost, to me."

Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost, to me.

Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost, to me.

Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost, to me.

Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost, to me.

Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost, to me.

Oklahoma, Maryland Loom As Orange Bowl Elevens

Two-Year Pact Inked In Miami

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — November's wild scramble for bowl football teams was rapidly becoming a thing of the past today as the Orange Bowl entered into a pact with the Big Seven and Atlantic Coast conferences to supply its teams for the next two years.

Oklahoma and Maryland are strong favorites to dominate the two leagues and meet here New Year's Day in the first game under the agreement.

The Orange Bowl action, long expected, leaves only three major bowl berths open for competitive bidding—two in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans and one in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

Only the Sugar Bowl still selects both teams at random. The Cotton Bowl picks one at large to meet the Southwest Conference champion. The Rose Bowl is a closed corporation, matching teams from the Big Ten and Pacific Coast conferences.

The field from which the Sugar and Cotton bowls can choose was severely restricted by the Orange Bowl's success in tying up the Big Seven and Atlantic Coast groups.

Among the major conferences, only the Southeastern still is wide open for bowl bids. The Southwest Conference runner-up is available and after that the choice is limited to the independents. The No. 1 independent, Notre Dame, last week squelched reports that it might reverse a long-standing policy against postseason games and take a Sugar Bowl bid.

Eight months of negotiations for the Orange Bowl pact were completed in Kansas City yesterday when faculty representatives of the Big Seven voted in favor of it. The Atlantic Coast group already had voiced its approval.

Orange Bowl President W. Bruce MacIntosh said there still are some details to be worked out, including whether the conferences will allow the same teams to play in the bowl two years in a row.

Under the agreement, each team has been guaranteed $110,000 for the 1954 game and $112,000 for the 1955 contest.

Two-Year-Old Race Is Now Wide Open

NEW YORK (AP)—The stunning defeat of Porterhouse in the $70,000 Pimlico Futurity pointed up the fact today there still is no stand-out 2-year-old who can be rated winter buck favorite for the 1954 Kentucky Derby.

Porterhouse, from Mrs. M. E. Person's Llangollen Farm, made a neat grab for the juvenile crown when he topped the $117,000 Belmont Futurity Oct. 3. Then he let it slip from his grasp Saturday at Baltimore when Joe Gavegnano's Errard King made a runaway of the Pimlico Futurity. Errard King now has won six of eight starts, but Saturday was his first race out of New Jersey.

Baylor-Texas Bout Should Prove Teams' Title Mettle

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Writer Texas A&M, which had to go half a season before it could convince anybody it had a football team, meets Baylor, considered to have had one from the start, in the big game of the Southwest Conference this week.

Last unbeaten teams in season play left in the league, the Aggies and Bears get together at College Station Saturday and the fur is due to fly.

There are three inter-sectional games and another conference game on the schedule but the one at College Station will have no trouble taking over the show.

The Aggies came of age Saturday when they batted down tough and capable Texas Christian, 20-7. Baylor was moving along easily, strapping Vanderbilt, 47-6, in an inter-sectional tiff a week.

The Bears are unbeaten in four games, trimming three inter-sectional foes and lacing Arkansas, 14-7, in their only conference test thus far.

Every team now has had conference action with Baylor, Southern Methodist, Texas and Texas A&M all tied for the lead with 1-0 records.

Last weekend produced some surprises, the major one Southern Methodist's 12-7 victory over the favorite, Rice. The Methodists won on the strength of a 58-yard dash by Frank Eidom with less than three minutes to go. It stamped

Big Spring Again Has Top Game In District 1-AAA

Headline football game in District 1-AAA this weekend again takes place in Big Spring, where two of the three pace-setters—the Steers and Vernon—come to grips.

The contingent won their initial conference starts without experiencing too much trouble last week. Big Spring prevailed over Plainview, 32-0, while Vernon blanked Snyder, 20-0.

In other district contests, Snyder goes to Breckenridge while Plainview hosts Sweetwater. Lamesa confines its play to outside the district, meeting El Paso High in Lamesa. The Tornados should be able to improve upon the conference record in that one.

Bill Dendy, fleet Breckenridge back, stretched his individual scoring lead to 24 points by scoring a touchdown against Lamesa last weekend. Dendy now has counted 63 points, compared to 39 for Chris Krebs of Vernon, the runner-up. No less than nine scorers in the districts have counted 20 points or better each.

Snyder, though it yielded 20 points to Vernon in losing last week, still boasts the best defense in the conference, having given up an average of only 6.4 points a game.

The Tigers also boast the best offensive record, having tallied 133 points for an average of 26.6 points an outing.

SMU as the team for all to worry about. Texas started to live up to expectations with a 16-7 win over Arkansas and it virtually eliminated the Razorbacks from championship consideration. Two defeats usually mean the end for a team in this conference.

Texas Christian is in the same shape as Arkansas, thanks to Arkansas, which won its only conference game from Texas Christian.

Texas and Rice clash at Austin Saturday and the latter will be fighting for its life. The loss to SMU was a big blow in many ways. SMU, TCU and Arkansas will be playing inter-sectional games with prospects of giving the conference's already good record an added boost. The league's teams have won 10 of 15 games from outside clubs.

Southern Methodist plays overtime Kansas at Lawrence, Texas Christian goes to Pennsylvania to tackle Penn State and Arkansas faces Mississippi at Memphis.

SMU should be an easy favorite over Kansas, which has lost games to Texas Christian, UCLA and Oklahoma, the latter, 45-6. Penn State has dropped engagements to Wisconsin and Penn but has beaten Boston and Syracuse. Mississippi looks too tough for Arkansas. The Rebels have licked Chattanooga, Kentucky, Vanderbilt and Tulane and lost only to Auburn. Last week by Frank Eidom with less than three minutes to go. It stamped

IN AAAA FEATURE Odessa, Amarillo To Meet Friday

By The Associated Press The top divisions of Texas schoolboy football move into the heart of the conference schedule this week with district championship favorites due to emerge from important battles in virtually every area.

There are only five undefeated, untied teams left in both Class AAAA and AAA and two of those meet each other this week.

The headline game sends Edinburg against Kingsville in District 3 of Class AAAA plus Odessa, apparent kingpin of District 1, against Amarillo, making its last bid for a place in the sun. Amarillo lost to Pampa and the game with Odessa will show whether Odessa has anything to worry about. Pampa last week stumbled before a San Angelo team that doesn't appear in Odessa's class.

Left in the unbeaten, untied category in Class AAAA are Edison (San Antonio), Edinburg and Kingsville.

Four teams are undefeated but have been tied—Lamar of Houston in Class AAAA and Sweetwater, Sherman and Kilgore in Class AAA.

Fred Hawkins Wins Texas PGA Golf Championship

MIDLAND (AP)—Fred Hawkins won the Texas PGA tournament yesterday—the second year in a row for an El Paso golfer to take first money. Jack Harden won it in 1952.

Hawkins shot a 10-under-par 274 for the 72 holes and won $1,000. He had a one-under-par 70 in the final round and finished three strokes ahead of Byron Nelson of Roanoke who had 277 and won $700 second money. Nelson also had a 70 on the final 18 holes.

Low amateur was Ernie Vossler of Fort Worth, who finished with a 69 for 277 and a tie for second place with Nelson, while Ray Gafford of Dallas, Abe Beckman of Midland and amateur Spec Goldman of Dallas tied for fourth with 278.

Harden wound up in a tie for seventh with Tommy Bolt of Houston and amateur Don Addington of Dallas, each with 280. Scores of the top money winners:

LOOKING 'EM OVER With Tommy Hart

Isn't it about time the sports writers of this area concluded that Big Spring has a football team worthy of consideration as a championship contender, rather than one that achieves its victories with rabbit punches and eye gouging?

Big Spring worked over Plainview last weekend, and sure enough, someone has come out with the charge that the Steers play too tough. This time it is Sweetwater's Roy Scudgy, who happened to be nearly 70 miles away at the time the game was being played. Scudgy has suggested the same thing before.

Sports writers should confine themselves to writing the facts and let the officials call the game. If they level such charges, or resort to innuendo, they should be forced to look at the action pictures of the game in question. Such charges are pure libel and should be regarded as such.

Scudgy is also the authority for the remark that Carl Coleman is getting his last chance to make good here, as a coach. He apparently knows more than anyone here about it.

Certainly, Coleman has had less time to make good than Pat Gerald, the Sweetwater mentor, who hasn't won a championship in all the years he's been at Sweetwater and they're not after Pat's scalp, as far as I know.

Scudgy says the Longhorns need a spark to "really want to get up and go."

Scudgy, who respects the Big Spring power, is, of course, judging the locals off only one game. The provincials have come a long way since their opener and few are accusing them of not having the incentive. Fact is, they've shown more hustle and fire than any team has here in years.

Scudgy terms the District 1-AAA race "wide open." He has something there. No team can yet be counted out.

Wayne Bonner, the assistant football coach at Big Spring High School, said it after no one had taken the trouble to throw a block for a Steer back following a punt during a recent scrimmage at Steer Stadium:

"That's allright! Maybe you'll get the ball pretty soon!"

The half a buck most big time colleges charge for game programs is legalized robbery.

There was time when 25 cents seemed an awful price to pay for such things.

For a young man who hasn't been at it very long, Carlisle (Frosty) Robison of the Big Spring Steers is an amazingly fast kicker. He gets the ball away without any wasted effort or motion.

According to a recent edition of The Quarterback section of The Sporting News, the best seats in any football stadium are not on the 50-yard line.

A survey made by Ohio State University and published in The Quarterback found that 118 plays—59 in each half—occurred in front of the spectators seated on the 30-yard line in the north end of the field.

Persons on the 50-yard line got a close view of 110 plays while patrons seated on the 30-yard line to the south witnessed 74 plays.

In scoring, says the sports paper, four touchdowns were tallied at the south goal while three were registered at the north.

Texas A&M has been a surprise football club this season but it should field an even better club in 1954.

The Aggies have only one senior (Tackle Durwood Scott) in the line and only two in the starting 11. The other is Quarterback Don Ellis.

Ed Dudley, Pampa's fine football player, is headed for Oklahoma if, at Assistant Coach Aubra Noncaster puts it, "they'll have him."

They will have him, you can bet on that. A lad with Dudley's talents would be welcome in most any college in America.

Dudley and the Harvesters set down here last Thursday to work out for their Friday night game in San Angelo.

Cleveland Browns Are All Alone In Eastern Circuit

By ORLO ROBERTSON NEW YORK (AP)—Title picture in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League was much clearer today with Cleveland the only undefeated team. But not so in the Western Conference, where three teams are deadlocked for the lead, each with three victories and one setback.

Cleveland's Browns took undisputed command of the Eastern, 30-14. But the Detroit Lions, 1952 champions, were dumped out of the unbeaten class by the Los Angeles Rams, 31-19. And the San Francisco 49ers outscored the Chicago Bears, 35-28. That left the Lions, Rams and 49ers in a tie for first.

In other games the New York Giants and Green Bay Packers came up with their first victories. The Giants beat the winless Chicago Cardinals, 21-7, in their home debut and the Packers trounced the Baltimore Colts, 37-14. On Saturday night the Philadelphia Eagles whipped the Pittsburgh Steelers, 23-7.

The Western Conference race could be straightened out a little this weekend when the Lions travel to San Francisco. In their previous meeting a week ago, Detroit defeated the 49ers. The Rams play host to the Chicago Bears, who could prove troublesome off the scoring punch they showed yesterday.

The Browns will be in New York as the favorites but these two teams are famous for playing close-scoring games and now that Steve Owen's boys have discovered they can score it may mean trouble for Otto Graham and his cohorts.

The Redskins, playing before 93,963, the biggest Griffith Stadium turnout in five years, played the favored Browns to a standstill through the first 50 minutes and held a 14-13 lead midway through the final period. But Graham, who had plenty of trouble with his aerial attack, finally got his team moving goalward on a 58-yard drive eight minutes before the end of the game. The Redskins fumbled twice after that and the Browns cashed in for another touchdown and a third field goal by Lou Groza.

Norm Van Brocklin tossed touchdown passes of 40 and 45 yards and set another with his aerial magic in leading the Rams to their victory over the Lions before 55,772 fans.

The Bears took a quick 21-point lead over the 49ers but that was all their scoring until late in the game and after two Frisco touchdowns in each of the final two quarters had given the 49ers a 35-21 bulge. Chuck Conery let loose with a 60-yard pass to Ray Felkey and set up another touchdown with two long passes as the Glens made their home debut before 30,301 spectators. Conery completed 10 of 15 aerials for 174 yards.

A crowd of 18,713 saw the Packers cash in on three breaks at the expense of Fred Enke in beating the Colts.

Aggies' Don Ellis Pacing SW Backs

DALLAS (AP)—Don Ellis, Texas A&M's brilliant quarterback, has pushed into the lead in Southwest Conference passing and his working at doing something about that total offense thing, too.

The Aggie star regained the No. 1 spot at throwing the ball last week when he connected five times for 58 yards against Texas Christian. Francis Davidson of Baylor got only 47 yards against Vanderbilt and lost his leadership. Ellis has completed 40 out of 83 for 442 yards, 10 more than Davidson on 36 connections in 52 tries.

Lamar McHan, the Arkansas quarterback, still leads in total offense but Ellis is breathing down his jersey. McHan has rolled up 338 yards on 127 plays while Ellis has 529 on 154.

Nobody is about to overtake Kesse Johnson of Rice in the ball carrying department. The Big Owl fullback has roamed for 355 yards on 66 runs. L. G. Dupre of Baylor made the biggest stride last week as he romped to 94 yards against Vanderbilt, edging from fifth into second place. But Dupre has a total of only 268.

Sammy Morrow of Texas Christian continues his phenomenal punting. He now has kicked 12 times for an average of 48.4 yards—almost eight yards better than his nearest competitor, Ray McKown of Texas Christian, who has booted eight times for 40.6.

Jerry Norton of Southern Methodist is most adept at running back punts. He has averaged 16.8 yards on six carries. Charley Brewer of Texas is second with 14.1 on eight runbacks.

Floyd Sagely of Arkansas didn't catch a pass last week against Texas but he still is in first place in this department. He has earned 10 for 162 yards. Wayne Hopkins of Baylor is second with 158 yards on seven.

Baylor is the leading offensive team, averaging 375.3 yards per game. Southern Methodist has the tightest defense, allowing only 135.3 yards per contest.

Drought Seen About Over In The East

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two U. S. Weather Bureau experts said today they think the drought affecting the central and eastern United States is about over—but that it may return.

Jerome Namias, chief of extended forecasts, and Glenn W. Brier, chief of meteorological statistics, gave their views in a joint, copyrighted interview with the magazine, U. S. News and World Report. Their replies to questions were not individually identified.

"We think," they said, "that conditions from now on will favor a gradual abatement of the dry weather over central and eastern portions of the country."

"We think it will get started within the next 30 days, but we can't say whether this change will be temporary and that we won't return to a dry condition later on."

They were asked whether the current drought means that the country is in for "a cycle of drought" similar to that of the early 1930s, and gave this reply: "Well, we've been having drought in some areas for several years and it does look like a drought condition is building up. It is hard to call what is happening a cycle, however."

Eisenhower's Advance Budget Data Indicates Deficit Likely

By CHARLES F. BARRETT
WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional sources said today another federal deficit next year is indicated in the Eisenhower administration's advance budget prospects.

Final decisions have not been reached, they said, but administration officials wrestling with the problem are talking of this general outlook for the budget to be proposed next January.

1. Despite all efforts to balance the budget, defense spending and scheduled tax reductions probably will add up to a red ink figure of from two to five billion dollars for the year starting next July 1.

2. But the "cash" budget, which includes social security trust fund accounts and other items not counted in the regular administrative budget, probably will show a balance for the first time in several years.

John Wayne And Wife Open Divorce Trial Battle Today

By JAMES BACON
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Movie hero John Wayne, who admits he is scared of all women, battles his Mexican wife today in what promises to be one of the longest and stormiest divorce trials in movie-land history.

"Big Duke," the screen's top box office star, wants a divorce from the former Esperanza Bauer and also a sizable slash from what he terms "fantastic" separate maintenance demands of the 31-year-old Latin actress. Both sides charge extreme cruelty.

The Wayne forces are geared for a trial lasting until Christmas. However, producer Bob Fellows, Wayne's partner in movie-making, has a "hunch" that the case will be settled on the courthouse steps.

Wayne said that he offered his estranged wife "more money than she will ever get from any court" but that she turned all offers down cold.

Atty. Jerry Rosenthal, Mrs. Wayne's counsel, denies that the offers were that attractive and added:

"This girl doesn't care whether she gets 2 cents or 2 millions. All she wants is a legal definition of what she is entitled to—not an arbitrary one. She just wants a fair shake."

In a stormy temporary alimony hearing last May, Mrs. Wayne asked for $9,350 monthly to sustain her in the manner befitting a wife of a movie star. A judge told her she would have to get along on $1,100 a month.

Much of the trial is expected to dwell on the high cost of living in Hollywood.

"I know it sounds ridiculous," Wayne said at the hearing last spring, "but my wife and I just couldn't make ends meet on $200,000 a year."

Rosenthal said he would produce witnesses who will testify that Wayne beat his wife. Wayne denies that he ever hit his wife.

"Why," said the rugged 6-foot-4 actor who fears no man on or off screen, "women scare hell out of me. I've always been afraid of women."

Natural Gas Line Explodes In East; None Are Injured

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—With a roar that rattled windows in homes several miles away, an explosion snapped a 30-inch natural gas transmission line near here yesterday.

The blast ripped an 18-foot-deep crater in the earth. It was followed by a fire which spread across five miles of corn field.

Valves on the broken line were shut off quickly and no one was hurt. The Texas Eastern Transmission Corp., which maintains the line to move gas from the West to the Atlantic Coast, said cause of the break, which blasted out a 40-foot section of the line, could not be determined.

Repair crews were on the job quickly and gas is expected to be flowing soon again. Meanwhile, two parallel lines operated normally. A company spokesman said there would not be curtailment of normal deliveries.

Texas Pilot Finds Self Out On Limb

BLACKWELL, Okla. (AP)—A 54-year-old Texas pilot found himself literally out on a limb yesterday.

Thomas Dewep of Perryton was flying at 5,000 feet when he developed motor trouble. He tried to land the plane on a county road but a wing hit a mail box and dumped the plane on top of a hedge fence.

The large hedge acted as a cushion and the craft never hit the ground. A farmer climbed the hedge and pulled Dewep uninjured from the cockpit.

Negro Is Honored

Re-Elected To Post

FORT WORTH (AP)—J. P. Coleman of Wichita Falls was re-elected president of the National Stripper Well Assn. yesterday. Fred Semmann of Wichita Falls was named secretary-treasurer.

Husbands Don't Count In This Wife's Book

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Mrs. Sarah Brown Troutman, 43, signed a statement yesterday admitting she shot her husband Aubrey, 63, who was admitted to the hospital with a leg wound. Then she added: "I didn't do nothin' wrong."

"But you just shot a man," a police officer declared.

"He was just my husband," Mrs. Troutman explained.

Sooner Hard Liquor Really Proves Tough

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Lt. Jack Caldwell of the city vice squad reported he confiscated "six pints of hard liquor" in a raid.

The whisky must have been extra hard.

Caldwell said the bootlegger threw a case of the stuff over a 10-foot building trying to get rid of the evidence. Not a pint was broken.

Portales 'Key Club' Is Bootleg Special

PORTALES, N. M. (AP)—Roosevelt County bootleggers are getting exclusive with their own key club.

Clients are issued a key. The key unlocks an empty house—empty, that is, except for a well-stocked refrigerator. The guest leaves a donation, carefully outlined by a price list on the wall.

Roosevelt County is dry under a local option state statute.

BALTIMORE (AP)—Mrs. Ella Nora Baker, 80, who caught fire while smoking her pipe in bed, died late yesterday at Union Memorial Hospital.
