Top 12 Scholars Are Named At Littlefield High School

INDUSTRY GROUP NAMES OFFICERS

Ware Heads Corporation

Kenneth Ware was elected president of Littlefield Industrial Corporation at an annual meeting of stockholders.

Arthur Duggan Jr. in a board session following the stockholders' meeting, which was conducted in the county courtroom.

is Jerry Kirby, who succeeded Ware in that position. M. L. Hall was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Stockholders named I. D. Onstead, Nelson Naylor, Doyle Patton and Kirby to the board of directors.

The corporation deals solely in financing of new industry in Littlefield. While many of its stockholders are active in Littlefield's efforts to contact industry, the corporation itself is not involved in that phase. Once an industry shows interest in Littlefield, the corporation is designed to provide financial advice and aid to worthy prospects.

One question posed during the stockholders meeting asked for reaction in the event the corporation was approached by young people attempting to start a small business.

"Our young people feel there isn't enough for them to do here. Should we challenge them to help provide an answer?"

The question was greeted receptively by some stockholders, and one of them remarked, "I think we should be willing to listen to anything we feel might be of benefit here."

GRADUATES HONORED

Today's paper honors Littlefield and area graduating seniors.

Pictures of the graduates from Littlefield and the other nine area schools are in section B, along with individual stories on commencement activities.

3 Girls Head Class Of '69

Three girls head the 1969 LHS graduating class.

Connie Wimberly is valedictorian, Janie Hyatt is salutatorian and Cathy Barton is the third highest student.

Littlefield's 99 graduates will have baccalaureate Sunday, May 25, at 8 p.m. in the junior high auditorium.

Commencement exercises will be at 8 p.m. Friday, May 30, in the junior high auditorium.

Connie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wimberly. She has a 95.84 average for her four years in high school. In addition to being named valedictorian, she has received many honors, including sweater awards for English, world history and chemistry.

Miss Wimberly has been in the Wildcat band and an FFA member all four of her LHS years. She was named outstanding homemaking student this year, and is a member of Future Teachers of America and the National Honor Society. She received the Classroom Teachers Association scholarship.

SALUTATORIAN JANIE HYATT has been band majorette all four years. Award sweaters in algebra I, geometry and trigonometry were awarded to her in her freshman, sophomore and senior years, respectively. She has been a member of the student council for the last three years, serving as secretary her senior year.

Miss Hyatt has been in the NHS her junior and senior years. She competed in University Interscholastic League short-hand competition this year.

Other awards were All-Wildcat Girl candidate and a member of the FTA.

Janie is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hyatt. Her over-all high school average is 95.57.

CATHY BARTON has a 95.51 average. She is a four-year band student and has received award sweaters in general science, English II and English IV. She is a member of the NHS, serving as vice president and secretary and was named scholarship winner of NHS this year.

She was in the Spanish Club her sophomore year and is a member of FTA and is senior representative of the student council this year. Cathy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barton.

Littlefield's Quiz Kids Have Musical Knowledge

Criteria for being one of the top 12 honor graduates of Littlefield High seems to be that of being a member of the Wildcat band.

Littlefield's quiz kids have musical knowledge.

Ten of the 12 top students are active in band, Milynda Morris and Elaine Tiller the only non-band students.

Milynda's creative talents chart the course of journalism.

Elaine attended Bula schools the first three years of high school where band isn't offered. Elaine took private piano lessons for eight years, however, and she is assistant pianist for the Bula Baptist Church.

The other top 10 have done their share in garnering awards for the LHS band—all of them four year band students.

Allen Williams has been vice president and is current president of the Wildcat band.

Diane Kelsey has won all-region band awards three of her four years and was named to the all-region choir two years.

David Conway made it to Hollywood, Calif., this year with his superior musical ability. He has been president of the band and was named outstanding bandsman his junior year.

Candace Porcher made the all-region band last year and is outstanding band student for this year.

Carla Chambers is pianist for Morning Watch in addition to her band activities.

Connie Wimberly, Janie Hyatt, Cathy Barton, Nancy Hall, and Lanet Gilley are the other four-year band students included in the "honor story with a moral."

WHITHARRAL SENIOR Sharron Wade shed tears in the reception line at her baccalaureate Sunday night. "I can't stop crying," she sobbed, wiping away a tear with her right hand. About that time another tear slipped down the other cheek. Sharron is class valedictorian and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George (T. C.) Wade.

Patton Team Corrals Lead In C-C Round-Up

A team headed by Doyle Patton is the "first waterhole" leader, and Patton himself is the individual leader, in the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce's "Membership Round-Up."

After only two days of work, the membership wranglers reported Wednesday morning at the C-C office.

Trail Boss Kip Cutshall said 18 new members had been added to the Chamber's rolls during the two days.

"Our people have been working, and the response has been wonderful," Cutshall said.

The "second water hole" meeting, for a report of campaign progress, is scheduled Friday at 10 a.m. in the C-C office at the city hall.

A final "water hole" is scheduled at the same time and place Wednesday, May 28.

Patton took the lead in sales, the final winner of which will receive $50 toward a weekend at Ruidoso. All members of the winning team will each receive a ticket for one of the Texas Tech football games at a time satisfactory to the winner.

Patton's team had the lead for the football tickets also, but they were being pressed by teams headed by Jim Jones and John Clayton.

"Runner-Up Wrangler" will be honored at a dinner at the Hayloft in Lubbock. All members of the "drag team" will be presented special and appropriate prizes.

Minimum dues for an individual are $36. Minimum for a business is $60, and there is no maximum.

New names added to the Chamber rolls at the first report meeting were:

Jack Wattenbarger, Truman Jones, Gold Bond Stamps, John's Nursery, Inman-Howard Barber Shop, S&J Service Parts, Murdock Hotel, Jack Snell, Tasty Taco, Leon Richardson, Adair Bishop, Kenneth Heard, Judge G. T. Sides, Eddie Bishop, Paul Yarbrough, Garland Restaurants, Crescent Food Mart, and Haberer Trucking.

Once Upon A Time... She Taught 8 Grades

MILAH RODGERS
News Staff Writer

Mrs. Nannie Kathryn (W. D. T.) Storey spent in a one-room school house in the Red River Valley, walking to school each day in her high-top shoes, carrying her lunch and a cup to drink from a bucket lowered into the well by a rope and pulley.

She taught all eight grades. "And I just taught my pupils, I really did," she said. She played "whip crack, black man," "One apple, two apple, three apple" and "Oh, it was so much fun. I always wore a sun bonnet. I had a fair complexion and in those days we tried to keep it that way."

Each Friday afternoon we had a singing contest. The kids were just singing.

The big boys did all the chopping-making the fires, bringing in the wood and wood, sweeping the floors and mopping them with lye periodically to the mud out of the cracks.

Students who were really good got to use the erasers, wash the blackboards clean out the chalk trough.

After feeding the minds of her pupils with "sweet thoughts and sugared positions," she walked back to the front house where she boarded, high on "Red Bluff," a fertile green nook between two rivers, the sigh of cottonwood trees plaintive and pressive.

"I loved every foot of earth, every ridge and mountain peak," she said. "I loved every crook and turn in the road, and it didn't seem far to walk."

At this time she was deeply in love with a soldier in France who was fighting the "war to end wars."

Each evening she wrote him a letter, telling him how much she loved and missed him and was waiting for his return.

The Armistice was signed Nov. 11, 1918, but her soldier was put in the army occupation on the Rhine.

She became Mrs. W. D. T. Storey on May 1, 1920, when she married this "tall, good-looking man who was Littlefield postmaster for 20 years."

Forty-nine years later the messenger of death knocked twice on her door, taking

What The Leader-News Thinks

Futility Of Control

IMPERFECTIONS OF SOCIETY are rarely susceptible to correction by imposition of authoritarian controls.

For example, drunkenness was not cured by prohibition.

Inflation cannot be cured by rigid wage and price controls, and crime cannot be cured by police state firearms controls aimed at law-abiding private citizens.

Irrespective of the futility of total federal control over our lives, many people still favor total control or abolishment of firearms except for the military and the police.

ASIDE FROM THE repressive aspect of excessive firearms control, there is the proposition of cost of enforcement, which has so far received comparatively little attention.

A study sponsored by the National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence indicates that the cost of such control would run to about a half billion dollars annually.

Based on existing programs in New York and elsewhere, the researchers who conducted the study concluded that the cost of processing an individual application for a gun ownership license might range anywhere from $6.69 at a minimum to $51.99 for a thorough checkup including fingerprinting, investigation and mental competency report.

IT IS ESTIMATED that there are 40 million gun owners in the nation, and the study assumes that the owners would be licensed for 5-year periods thus involving some 8 million investigations a year.

AFTER ALL OF THIS, there would be no certainty that crime would be reduced or homicide curbed.

In Mexico, where gun ownership is subject to rigid controls administered by the Army, the homicide rate is more than twice that of the United States.

When will we learn that costly oppressive controls are not the answer to the faults of society?

PAUL HARVEY

Mountain Top

DURING A REFRESHING week in Arizona's sunshine I let myself get far away from the sustained volcano of crises, foreign and domestic.

Back here, in my big-city skyscraper office midst all the ugly sounds of humans colliding, we sit on the edge of our chairs from dark to dark.

IN THIS SARDINE society the only privacy any of us can know requires building a shell around our sensitivities, hiding like a turtle inside that shell, ready to snap at anybody who might invade that privacy.

Out there in the unspoiled West there's still room enough so a man can dare to venture out of that shell, into the sunshine.

I'VE A FRIEND running steers on 40 square miles of mountain side, so I spend most of my time in a golfer's paradise—wearing boots, playing cowboy.

And wearing brush jacket and chaps. I used to think those leather britches were intended only to give movie heroes a built-in swagger. But heading off and herding back strays in forests of cactuses, brush-poppin' through catsclaw and greasewood, ironwood and mesquite, a man's legs would be bare and bleeding in minutes without that extra layer of hide hiding his.

AND BESIDES, they do kinda swagger.

Many of the world's deserts are barren, rolling, wind-blown sand dunes. The Sonoran is a living desert, a forest of blooming things.

As you ascend the mountains, each microclimate offers a different variety of vegetation. From the mesquite we ride up into the paloverde, the giant saguaro, some bigger than a man can reach around. The ocotillo, really a member of the lily family. On up into the cool, then the cold, and the pine trees.

WE WILL BE INSPECTED by curious mule deer. We will disturb the wild pig rooting in the cactus pear and send him and his family scurrying away. Coyotes will dart across clearings. And perhaps a bighorn on a distant rise will silhouette himself majestically against the sky.

Hundreds of top-knotted gamble quail will scurry or fly as our horses pick their way carefully up steep trails in deference to the insecure dude in the saddle.

I'M NOT SURE I understand, or particularly want to, the strange fascination of cowboying. As boys, it's one of the earliest games we play. And, however long later, the higher a man's office is in a skyscraper the more he wishes he had his feet in the stirrups and his seat in a saddle.

Though I concede that chasin' a stray is most fun when you don't have to do it every day.

OUT THERE, horseback in the mountains, arms' length from the tumult, events have a way of shaping themselves and sorting themselves and, when the week is over, so much that newsmen thought worthy of your every-hour-on-the-hour attention—wasn't really.

Oh, I'm back into it already. Stimulated by the machine-gun staccato of the teletypes, borrowing trouble from Asia and Africa and Latin America, intermittently shocked by manifestations of man's inhumanity.

IS THIS WORLD REAL—or that one?

Is this turbulence important—or that tranquility? Some of each we need I suppose to keep either from going to sleep or going to pieces.

HOPEFULLY, I'll take you with me next time. We can see the world from there, you know. Perhaps from the mountain tops it's more clear than from here.

"Show some college spirit....that's what you're paid for!"

THE FARMER'S WIFE May Have A Case

By LIBBY MUGGETT

"GENTLEMEN, let me be sure I understand this correctly. You wish me as a lawyer to represent the combined churches of this small farming community and sue the whole Black Economic Conference for $500 million in reparations?"

"That's right."

"What's the charges?"

"GIVING EVERYBODY that's ever been embarrassed, vexed, or frustrated in church the idea that they could sue for past injustices."

"That's ridiculous! You can't sue ideas!"

"Well, those ideas are getting our churches sued and we wish to put an end to the whole matter. Will you represent us on both ends?"

"Both ends?"

"SUE THE BLACK Economic Conference in Detroit on our behalf and defend us against our suees."

"Suees?"

"Those who are suing the churches as a result of that controversial Black Manifesto. Now everybody's got up his own manifesto."

"Could you give me some examples?"

"WELL, THERE'S Farmer Jones' Manifesto. It claims that the church cost him a whole feed crop four years back because we are against working on Sunday. Some city expert told him if he'd started watering just one day earlier, his feed crop wouldn't have burned up. Naturally, that one day earlier was a Sunday."

"You should hear Sister Boohoo's Manifesto. She claims that the church cost her a nervous breakdown because Easter Sunday of '66 she wore her new $29.95 dress and ran into two other dresses just like it. Says if it had been an under $25 dress, she wouldn't have cared. Sued because of $4.95."

"BROTHER BASHFUL is suing just because he stood up with the fathers on Father's Day. I ask you, is it the church's fault because Bashful doesn't pay attention to what the preacher's saying?"

"What's wrong with standing up with the fathers?"

puts her artistic ability to work, "giving roses to the living."

A beautifully printed booklet, "The Pink Satin Pillow" is a bouquet to about 30 Littlefield women. Beneath each woman's favorite poem is Mrs. Storey's artistic impression of the lovely life each has lived.

"Everyone loves a little praise and flattery," Mrs. Storey said. "I know the old saying that 'action speaks louder than words,' but words do mean so much. To say that someone is brilliant or elegant means so much to an individual."

The flounces and ruffles in Mrs. Storey's personality shows in her talk, too. She belonged to the Women's Club for 47 years, giving many original programs. "I haven't made many talks lately," she said, "but I've made worlds of them—just worlds of speeches."

Mrs. Storey's love of diction is displayed in her many books and clippings out of newspapers and magazines. In addition she has a collection of her own writing, in her meticulous spidery script, almost enough for a book if she decides to publish one.

She is a collector and connoisseur of pretty things. "I love antiques," she said, "and it's a good thing. Everything around here, including the mistress, is old."

Her collections include jewel and music boxes, demitasse cups and saucers, little pianos, bookends, and dolls.

Many of the things were bought during travels with her husband. Many more are gifts. "There is a great deal of history in these things that have come to me from friends," she said.

"MR. LAWYER, Brother Bashful's a bachelor."

"Farmer Brown's Manifesto claims he lost a crop because our preacher preached too long one Sunday when the wind got up. Claims if he hadn't been so longwinded, he'd a gotten home in time to rig his sandfighter up and stop the sand before the cotton burned to a crisp."

"WE'RE GETTING sued twice for the same offense. Sister Warble claims she was made to sound as though she couldn't sing just because the piano was a might out of tune and Sister Tickleivory claims it made her sound like a beginning piano pupil."

"You should read Sister Facelift's Manifesto. Claims that when she was promoted out of the Young Adult Department it drove her into 'grieved seclusion'. Everybody knows it's been twenty years since she was a Young Adult, but nobody's supposed to."

"WE'RE BEING SUED by Brother Longhandles because we cause him coughing fits twice each Sunday and once each Wednesday on account of we have it too hot in the sanctuary."

"Why don't you just turn up the air cooler?"

"We did, but then Sister Nosleeves, Sister Lowneck, and Sister Miniskirt all threatened to get up their own Manifestos because they froze."

"SISTER ONCEAYEAR is suing because the preacher had her stand up while he was introducing visitors. She's been a member for twenty years, but she hadn't been since Mothers Day before last."

"We're being sued by Brother Songleader. We paid a visiting singer for our revival and Songleader's Manifesto claims that he's been doing the same thing free for years that the visiting singer was paid for and this causes him greater and greater hardship the more he thinks about it."

"WELL GENTLEMEN, you must have a case here. Let me do a little investigating and I'll get in touch with you later."

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

Here Again, She Says

Dear Editor:

I have taken a tranquilizer-----so that I may let everyone know just how bad the flies are at my home.

I live on the Bula road just out of the city limits and we are being literally covered with flies of every sort and size despite the fact I spray both inside and out plus carrying a swatter most of the time. This goes on three four seasons of the year with very little let-up.

I've lived on a farm most of my life with all sorts of domestic animals and I've never seen anything compared to the problem I now have.

What can I do?

I've talked to our State, County and City health officials, I helped get a petition and presented it, with others, to our Commissioners Court—they promised to look into it and see what could be done.

I still have had no let up in the flies and that was last year.

I live out of the city limits so I can understand why the City can't help but I can't understand why our County and State can't help. Isn't that a part of the work they are paid to do?

Will there have to be an outbreak of disease to get proper attention?

It is almost impossible to sell a house in this area—some have been for sale several years but as soon as a prospective buyer sees the inside walls fly specked, blood spattered, walls scratched from hitting flies, then knocks a dozen or so out of his face, flees to his car only to find he left a window down or a door open and his car full of flies, the dial is off and you walk slowly cracking and crunching dead flies under your feet with blood and guts left in your tracks and praying for a long, cold winter.

There must be a law somewhere that covers a case such as this.

The merchants of Littlefield are interested if they only knew what they are doing for their indifference. For example—my husband bought a new pickup truck last year, four new tractors and types of equipment but not for the Littlefield dealer, a new pickup from the Littlefield dealer, and some new furniture and that has been from out of town stores.

Why?

Simply because, if our business appreciated enough to help us with problems, then why should we help them? If we mean only money, then we don't mean much. Farmer and Merchant deal much farther than over the counter and trash.

When anyone asks me where I always say, "In that fly covered near Littlefield where nothing is done to control the situation."

I always advise anyone considering move to this area to look at my yard so they may decide themselves if they want to be almost every day and I've talked number of people this year.

It doesn't give my home a very reputation and it won't help Little Industry drive but I don't want anyone use their life savings only disgusted as I am.

Thank Mrs. Thomas Star Littlefield, P. S. I couldn't find some of the words wanted to use listed in the dictionary they are in my mind and my tranqu has about worn off. So, off to kill flies.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Ills Of Idleness

By BOB WEAR

THE ILLS OF IDLENESS are many, and yet there seems to be increasing demands for more idle time. This is one of the great areas of personal, inner conflict involving pernicious deceit.

When we are not profitably and constructively employed, we are idle.

IDLENESS, in contrast to useful employment, is destructive of all the desirable life elements.

It becomes a kind of insidious poison to those who are idle, and a threat to the welfare of the whole community. "Troubles spring from idleness, and grievous toils from needless ease; many without labor would live by their own wits only, but they break for want of stock."—Franklin.

IT IS UTTER FOOLISHNESS to think of idleness as some sort of personal freedom, because idleness is not freedom. It is, in fact, a kind of bondage. It may not be the worst kind of bondage, but it is bad enough to be shunned by all.

"Too much idleness, I have observed, fills up a man's time much more completely, and leaves him less his own master, than any sort of employment."—Burke.

THE DIVINE PURPOSE for us can never be served by idleness. Our Creator, wishing the best for us, has exalted industry, and given us great capacity for creative and constructive activity.

"Work while it is day, because the night comes when no man can work."—The Bible.

IDLENESS HAS BEEN EXALTED, in many ways, as some sort of great attainment and a worthy goal.

In fact, many, many persons actually shun constructive and useful work and service, in order that they may be idle.

There has never been, and never will be any value in idleness.

"GO TO THE ANT, you sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise: which having no guide, overseer, or ruler, provides her food in summer, and gathers her sustenance in harvest.

How long will you sleep, O sluggard? When will you arise from your sleep? Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep; so shall your poverty come upon you like a vagabond, and want like an armed man."—The Bible.

WHEN WE HAVE USED adequate time for rest, we are foolish, indeed, to accept idleness. We are here to be busy with useful, helpful and self-improving activity.

"If you are idle you are on way to ruin, and there are stopping places upon it—rather a precipice than a road."—W. Beecher.

THE ILLS OF IDLENESS many, and all are harmful, varying degrees, to the individual. Undesirable influence often leads into the lives of other people.

Is there anything to commend idleness? "By much slothfulness and building decays; and through idleness of the hands the ho drops through."—The Bible.

MANY OF OUR PRESENT-DAY ills would be healed by eliminating idleness. Until there is widespread seeking after, and acceptance of constructive and productive employment; there will be no improvement.

There is so much needing to be done that those who are idle could do. They are without excuse.

THERE ARE MANY sources of loss in the human experience, but none greater than idleness with all of its primary and secondary ruinous influences.

Howdy Neighbor

By BOYD PIERCE OF Burlison

A man of few words is most often a married one.

Today a fellow has to be a miser to live within his income.

Every family should have three children. If one turns out to be a genius, the other two can support him.

"I figure you'll work for about a year after we're married. Then I'll get a job."

Every person 65 years of age or older who is enrolled in medical, or doctor's Medicare may be able to receive reimbursement for the purchase or durable medical equipment needed for use at home.

John G. Hutton, security district assessor, pointed out that many people need wheel chairs, beds, special walkers, equipment, or similar use in their homes who are convalescing from an illness.

If such appliances are prescribed by a physician, patient may apply for reimbursement of the purchase price just as they apply for reimbursement of the doctor bills.

In submitting the reimbursement, the patient must attach an itemized bill for the rental or purchase statement from his physician showing that the equipment needed and an estimate of length of time it will be required.

Reimbursement usually is made to the patient monthly. Installing Hutton said.

For further information about this or other Medicare matters, Hutton said, residents should visit the Security Office at the Security State Bank, 204 E. 9th Street, Littlefield, Texas. The telephone number is PO 5-8541.

B&C Pump Company Sells, Services Pumps

B&C Pump Co. is a father and son partnership for both initials.

The B represents W. H. (Dub) Berry and son B. W. Berry.

C is for John Clayton Jr. and John (Johnny) Clayton III.

And all are avid sports fans with big tales to tell every morning when they get together for their coffee breaks.

B&C Pump Co. has been in business since 1951. They have expanded operations, and have a business in Levelland now.

They sell and service anything connected with irrigation or domestic pumps. B&C offers turn-key jobs with contract drilling.

Drilling includes a speed or fast bailer with suction that will get the sand out and activate the wells, oftentimes bringing in a much better well than one drilled without a fast bailer.

B&C sells California Western Pumps which includes a five-year guarantee on tube line and shafting.

They handle Red Jacket domestic pumps and Gold Crown submersible pumps.

In addition to the well and pump service, for new wells, they have a clean-out rig for old wells. They have winch trucks and a small domestic winch for house wells.

B&C does general machine work and welding, with a portable welder for making calls. They handle all types of agricultural bearings and sprockets.

John Clayton likes water skiing as his number one sport. He is a bowler, and likes spectator sports so much that he has been known to have on two television sets with a radio plugged in one ear—all at the same time. John is song leader at Parkview Baptist Church.

John III likes to participate in water sports, too, and is an avid spectator of all sports.

Dub Berry really has some tall tales of his fishing exploits, one being about his boat being lost and finding it 11 months later. He skis a little and drives a boat for other skiers. Berry likes hunting, fishing and is an antique collector.

B. W. Berry is in the Navy and stationed in Japan now. He, too, is a sports fan and likes hunting.

Big Scores Highlight Minor League Action

The leaders kept on winning and the losers losing in the Little League Minors, and no changes were noted in the standings.

Two of the games were run-aways. Security blasted VFW 21-5 and Leader-News blasted Production Credit 31-3. Coca Cola edged Piggly Wiggly 9-8, in the other game.

COCA COLA 9 PIGGLY WIGGLY 8

Coca Cola scored three runs in each of the first three innings Tuesday, and then held off a fourth-inning rally to earn a narrow margin of victory, 9-8, over Piggly Wiggly.

Ray Mandez allowed the losers only two hits in collecting his victory on the mound. Connie Black was credited with the loss.

Tommy Williams almost pulled the loss out of the fire for Piggly Wiggly in the top of the sixth inning when he attempted to steal home plate. But he was tagged out.

Coca Cola held a 9-4 lead after the third inning, but allowed four runs against them in the fourth. That was the last of the scoring.

Ruben Filbus had a double and David Trotter a pair of singles for the victors. Bobby Roddy had a single and a double for Piggly Wiggly.

SECURITY STATE 21 VFW 5

Security wiped out VFW 21-5 Saturday night.

The greatest lead that Security was able to rack up before the fifth inning was 8-0, but a rally in the fifth enabled Security to explode for 13 more runs.

Rudolph Smith and Stan Jackson were tied for the title of leading hitter for Security, with two singles each. Smith was the winning pitcher.

Vernon Wesely and Roy Gullintine were the leading hitters for VFW, with a single each.

Kevin Gardener was the losing pitcher.

LEADER-NEWS 31 PRODUCTION CREDIT 3

Leader-News ran over Production Credit 31-3 in Minor League action Monday night.

Candy Sales Ends Friday

Area baseball fans with a sweet tooth have only until tomorrow afternoon to purchase their Babe Ruth candy boxes.

Sales have been very good, but there is still more to be sold, he said.

Eleven Wrecks Investigated During April

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 11 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of April, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in an estimated property damage of $6,510. The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first four months of 1969 shows a total of 43 accidents resulting in 10 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $25,405.00.

School will soon be out. This will be the signal for summer vacations to begin with hundreds of thousands of people heading for the open highways.

To help insure a safe vacation and summer driving, the sergeant suggests that you have these items on your car safety checked:

1. Tires for worn and cut spots.
2. Steering and wheel alignment.
3. Lights and mirrors.
4. Springs and shock absorbers.

"And as a final reminder, the driver should be prepared for DEFENSIVE DRIVING," Sergeant Keffer said.

Inside the double-steel cabs, you'll find such Pacesetter Values as thick foam seats. Which provide stretch-out room for three.

Wrap it all up in a small price and it becomes pretty clear: Chevy will go to great lengths to please you.

Junior-Senior Banquet Highlight Of The Year

The Junior-Senior Banquet seems to have been the climax of activities for the 1968-69 school year. This is the banquet in which the juniors entertain the seniors in the best way they know how.

The banquet was held Saturday night, May 17, at 7:30 in the high school cafeteria.

Jan Christian gave the invocation, followed by Marshall Allen who welcomed the guests.

This year the theme was "Candyland". The cafeteria was gaily decorated with red foil paper, a variety of balloons hanging from the ceiling, and a gingerbread house which welcomed the guests as they walked into the land of candy. Everything in view was a reminder of different forms of candy.

The menu included chicken casserole, red-hot and apple gelatin salad, Duchess potatoes, rolls, tea and coffee, and peppermint ice cream.

Fifteen sophomore boys served the meal. Those who served were Steve Maner, Larry Purdy, Steve Berry, Mike Collins, Craig Gilley, Kenneth Richardson, Allen Hobratchek, Joe Williams, Marty Mangum, Jackie Howell, Wendell Horn, Bill Orr, Lynn Barton and Clifford Dunn.

The entertainment was supplied by Every Waters, Wally Sanders, Tonya Bingham, and Terry Walker, Gaylon Mills and Diane Kesey sang a number.

The faculty, the administration, and the seniors were all guests of the junior class.

Gary Garrison read the wills and Steve Owens gave the prophecy.

There were various committees that were in charge of getting the banquet in order. Those on the decorations were Jan Christian, Carolyn and Dianne Perkins. Those on the prophecy and will committee were Kay Burk, Geoffrene Grizzle, Georganne Debusk, and Gary Britt.

Those who were on the clean-up committee were Rodney Phillips, Bobby Crittenden, Monte Trotter, and Randy Brestrup.

THE BEAT GOES ON

By MILYND MORRIS
You know, I didn't realize there were so many campus disorders until just the other night when I sat down to watch Huntley-Brinkley.

The first fifteen minutes of the telecast were full of descriptions of about 30 college campus disorders.

What mystifies me most about this situation is that college officials are so cooperative!

Here is my stand on college rioters, and I have found as I have talked with other high school students, a common view.

First, college is NOT compulsory. Every student has not only his choice of whether to attend a college or not, but his choice of which college to attend.

Second, he is paying for an education—buying a product. If he doesn't like the product, he doesn't have to buy it any more—he can change brands.

Third, there are others who are satisfied with the product. They are paying for an education and would like to receive it.

Fourth, why should college administrators let dissatisfied young people disrupt the lives and futures of those intent on learning?

If I were a college administrator, I would swiftly and permanently expel any student who took over the administration building or burned the ROTC center. I would look for a solution to the problem of non-student involvement in college riots.

Now, I am all for freedom and expression and PEACEFUL dissension, but is violence an answer to anything? Will it bring about improvement in colleges, in nations?

This is the last edition of the SKAT. I hope the readers have enjoyed our paper.

I would like to thank all the students and faculty members for their cooperation and their contribution to the SKAT.

I would like to express my appreciation to the staff, Danny Gowen, Laqua Graham, Roy Bolton, David Roden, Junnie Gray, Juanita Samaniego, and Mike Moulden for their work and to Miss Joella Lovvorn for her patience and guidance as sponsor.

I would like to thank Bill Turner and the staff at the LEADER-NEWS for putting up with us—even when we missed deadlines.

And I would like to wish the SKAT staff of 1969-70 the best of luck.

ATHLETICS IN ACTION

By ROY BOLTON

SINCE THIS is the last paper to be put out by the SKAT, this will be a short summary of the year's sports activities.

The 1968-69 Wildcat football team ended up with a 3-7 season. They had some rough competition in all their games. (For instance, State AAA champion Lubbock Estacado, All-American linebacker A. G. Perryman of Dunbar, All-State fullback Dan Steakley of Colorado City, and others). All together, eight players from this district were named to the All-State team.

The Wildcats won that all important rivalry game with Levelland, beating the Lobos 31-6 to keep the Golden Trap. The Wildcats also beat San Angelo Lakeview, 49-16, and ended the season with a victory against Colorado City 28-26.

Although the Wildcat basketball team only won one game, against Tahoka, they played some very close and exciting games. They played all season long with that Fighting Wildcat spirit, and never gave up.

With the coming of track season, came the first annual Wildcat Relays. The Relays were a great success. Olton won the meet behind the outstanding performance of Charles McClain.

At the district track meet, Charlie Holt won the district pole vault championship.

The girls' volleyball teams had a fairly good season. The A-team won a sportsmanship trophy at Colorado City and a third place trophy at the Pep tournament.

The girls' track team placed third in the district meet at Idalou. Doris Ashley competed in the State track meet at Abilene.

Competition in sports brings about many happy memories. These memories will be cherished for the rest of our lives.

Win or lose, there is always a satisfaction of having competed.

In closing, I would like to wish all those who compete in athletics in 1969-70 the best of luck.

I only hope that you can make the sports program at LHS even greater and more respected than it already is.

GO WILDCATS!

habitually feelin' kinda blue.
time I try on

GOOD LUCK!!!

now everyone is looking forward to this
The ol' head will get crammed full of should have learned over the semester.
it's no fun if you don't have anything yes, think through it! Study hard and pass those finals!

On the shoulders
Of the old friends.
Can you imagine us
Years from today,
Sharing a park bench quietly?
How terribly strange
To be seventy
Old friends.
Memory brushes the same years.
Silently sharing the same fear.....

If you read our column last week, which you should have, you read a section on writers for the column next year.

Like we said, "It's really GREAT fun."
Last Monday night when we were writing this, our last one, we were so bubbled over with excitement, that we didn't get through 'till eleven!

Of course, it probably wouldn't take you that long! It's just the LAST one that you stay up so late working on, and that's because it's really a blast!

If you're interested, apply at the newspaper without delay, and....good luck!

At this time, us students wood like two think all hour teachers four the teechin' they has learned us: Us freshmen 'er shore thinkfull fer all yer halp, but cents yall larned us s'much; us is gonna take de sumer off--S'Long!---!i--?

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was.....
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago...it must be...
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

The preceding lyrics are not meant personally. They suggest the relationship between departing freshmen and their "good ole junior high!"

We've enjoyed every column and hope you have, too.
Good-bye.....
