S-E School Dispute State Hearing Set

J. W. Edgar, the commissioner of the Texas Education Agency, has notified parents, attorneys, the Springlake-Earth school superintendent and interested parties of an appeal which will be heard in Austin Tuesday concerning disciplinary action taken against S-E band students recently.

Woman Charged With Murder

Two women were booked at the sheriff's office this week. Marie Bridges, 44, of Spade was charged with murder here Thursday after her husband died Wednesday morning.

The charge resulted from a shooting altercation at Spade last Saturday night. The shooting apparently occurred on a farm a mile east and one and half south of Spade where the couple lived. The victim, 35-year-old Ezal Devon Bridges, was brought to the Medical Arts Hospital by deputies who found him across the street from a cafe in Spade.

Bridges was transferred to the Methodist Hospital for treatment of a gunshot wound in the head. He died Wednesday morning, and the charges were filed Thursday. Mrs. Bridges remains in custody with bond set at $5,000.

Linda Graham of Parzan was charged with check law violation Wednesday, was fined and released.

missed a night band practice in October prior to UIL marching competition. Those who were absent were dropped from the band program and given a grade of 50.

According to the school handbook, unexcused absences call for taking three points off the offending student's grade for that nine weeks period. Prior to this, the S-E board did not have a policy which allowed students to be suspended for absenteeism.

Parents of two of the students, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Holder, parents of Guy Lynn Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thomas, parents of Larry Thomas, asked the S-E school board to withdraw the suspensions and grades of 50, and hired a Littlefield attorney, Mickey Ratliff, to represent them.

In a lengthy November board session which was attended by an estimated 300 persons and which lasted until almost 4 a.m. the following morning, a 5-2 decision upheld the disciplinary action imposed by high school principal Ward Cooksey and band director Tom Soffelle.

Ratliff was accompanied by court reporter Bob Rogers who recorded 190 pages of testimony in that session.

Bill Mann is superintendent of the S-E schools. Board members of the school system are Jerry Kelley, Ray Joe Riley, P. A. Washington, Dwayne Jones, Jimmie Kraft, Ardis Barton and Ed Dawson.

Dr. Edgar has set the hearing for 10 a.m. Tuesday in the appeals conference room of the TEA Building.

Store Window Winners Named

First place winner in the vacant store window decorations contests this year is the Littlefield High School's Student Council.

The DE students of LHS won second place with their "Santa Land" decorations in the old K-11 Shop building in the 400 block of Phelps. That organization gets a prize of $7.50.

Taking the third place prize of $5 is the WOW Court with their "Bible and Candle Theme," displayed in a window on the 300 block of Phelps.

The contest was sponsored again this year by Littlefield's Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, in cooperation with Southwestern Public Service Company.

Community Chorus To Present 'Messiah'

Voices from nearly every church congregation in the city will join in a united effort this afternoon, beginning at 2 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church, to present Handel's "Messiah," a well-known Christmas musical.

A 30-piece orchestra from Lubbock will accompany the Community Chorus in the hour-long presentation which will be directed by Mark Rogers and Buddy Wells.

To be included in the chorus will be sixth grade music students of Mrs. Ginny Chambers.

Soloists will include Mark Rogers, Buddy Wells, Jan Sisson, Mrs. Rhea Bradley, Mrs. M. J. Cotter and Mrs. Clem Sorley.

"We plan to have the program presented in time for football fans to return to their games," Rogers remarked, "so we invite the public to hear the program."

Local businessmen and organizations have contributed funds to pay expenses of the orchestra in coming to Littlefield for practice sessions and the final presentation.

OVER-VIEWS

Wade A. Warren

ELVOR SEZ: "Temper is a funny little spoils children, ruins men and spoils steel."

CITY COUNCIL in Monahans is considering the passage of an ordinance which, if passed, would make "the killing of webworms in one's trees illegal. This ordinance is similar to the one from Alamogordo, New Mexico, which calls for a fine from $1.00 to $200.00 for not treating webworms found on their property.

The ordinance would also allow the city to treat the webworms at the owner's expense. This would be within city limits and extending outward to the area falling under the city's territorial jurisdiction.

Under what kind of provision the ordinance will have for a fellow who kills the summer fighting the daddy things but still never gets rid of them.

CHERRY HILL, N.J., a woman moved into the city council carrying a brick and an idea to place a brick into the toilet tank in town.

An unusual proposal to save water and the council—but it was approved. And it so convulsed this mental community of 65,000 people that they accepted the scheme—to become the first community in America with a brick in the tank.

The idea is that the brick will take up the extra hard beige bricks, displacing a certain amount of water that is not normally needed for flushing.

It was a wacky idea that got people laughing, and also made them aware of people pollute and people can't live," said Mrs. Tilly Spetgong, a mother of two.

The council voted up $2,000 to buy extra hard beige bricks, the kind that break up in any kind of water through for every toilet in the town's homes.

Last weekend, about 175 persons and teenagers—distributed 27,000 gallons of water to a house.

"If the average family of four washes a total of 20 times a day we have 34 million gallons of water used in Cherry Hill."

Help Still Needed To Supply Baskets For Poor Families

Cash, canned food and toys are still needed for the baskets which will be distributed to the needy this year.

The local Salvation Army service unit is in charge of the drive with Warren Dayton as chairman of the SA service unit. Cash donations may be sent to Charles Duval at the Pioneer Natural Gas Co. Donations of fresh canned food and toys may be sent to the Community Action Center on North Highway 385. The phone number there is 385-3425, and donations will be picked up.

Others active in the food and toy basket drive are James Settle, drive chairman; David Hamblin, churches; Lee Benke, drive co-chairman; and Jeni D. Brunson, women's clubs representative.

Last year the Salvation Army service unit provided baskets of food and toys for 56 needy families in Littlefield, and it is estimated no fewer families than that will need help this year to have a nice Christmas.

About 15 local volunteer firemen will distribute the gifts under the leadership of Leon Durham.

NEW OFFICERS of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture Directors include Rev. David Hamblin, president; Dr. Craig Wallace, administrative vice president; Benny Zahn, treasurer; Barry Armes, agricultural vice president; Ken Day, industrial vice president; and Rad Richardson, vice president of community activities. 4-H's Slate 5-Acre Cotton Contest

The Lamb County 4-H 5-Acre Cotton Contest is coming to a close for this year, states Bobby Brunson, Lamb County Extension Agent.

The 4-H cotton participants are to have their record books turned into the County Agents Office by Jan. 8, 1973.

There will be cash awards for the best production of quality cotton. The cash awards will be paid first through third in both dryland and irrigated, but a youth may not enter both dryland and irrigated. The cash prizes are donated by gins throughout Lamb County.

The contest is open to 4-H youths between the ages of 9 and 19 years of age, and the youth must own half the five acres of cotton.

The purpose of the contest is to promote greater yields and quality per acre of lint cotton on farms in Lamb County by better cultural practices. This program is to promote cotton farming interest among Lamb County youth.

Any youths interested in participating in the program next year should contact their ginner or the County Extension Agent located on the second floor of the Courthouse in Littlefield.

Texas oil and gas operators paid $2.4 million in regulatory taxes, and $859,474 in well servicing taxes in 1971.

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

Dear Editor,

This is a letter I don't quite know how to word as I am so confused over the paradox of the people of Littlefield.

Our newspaper was concerned enough about the drug problem in Littlefield that they gave a front page news item about a free one hour color film shown at the junior high school auditorium at 8:30 Monday night, Oct. 30, and our fine radio station gave many, many public service announcements about the film — yet there were only about 25 adults and 25 teenagers who attended the showing.

Drugs are a big problem in Littlefield and marijuana is running rampant and many other drugs are being used by our teenagers and young adults in Littlefield.

The so called Concerned Citizens of Littlefield have had such a concerted effort and spent no telling how many man hours and money trying to keep legalized liquor out of Littlefield, but where were all these concerned citizens Monday night?

Are they hiding their heads in the sand just like they hide their heads about our bootleggers, which make Littlefield the wettest dry town I believe left in the nation.

I noticed that only one minister was at the movie.

Where were the leaders of the Concerned Citizens who should be more interested in the welfare and future of our young generation, and the adults which can buy illegal liquor any time they want it.

Thank goodness all our schools did show the film and about 1,200 youngsters did get to see it, but I believe the film would have helped every person in Littlefield have a better understanding of our growing drug problem here.

It is no wonder to me now that we have such a great generation gap between our adults and youngsters, as so few took interest in this film which everyone could learn from!

Help Stop Holiday Accidents

AUSTIN—Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today asked motorists and pedestrians to help prevent an estimated 87 traffic deaths in Texas through the Christmas and New Year holiday periods.

Speir said the DPS has estimated 46 traffic fatalities will occur during the Christmas period which runs from 6 p.m. Friday, December 22 to midnight Monday, December 25.

The estimate of New Year deaths is 41 between 6 p.m. Friday, December 29 and midnight Monday, January 1.

The DPS director noted that many serious accidents can be prevented if drivers and pedestrians will practice safety awareness during the holidays.

He urged Texans to Drive Friendly by obeying all traffic laws and regulations, by avoiding drinking while driving, and by taking frequent rest stops on holiday trips to prevent fatigue.

In an effort to keep expected heavy traffic flowing smoothly during both holiday weekends, the Department of Public Safety will place all available patrolmen on the highways. And Speir said they will be keeping a close watch for motorists who drive too fast for conditions and those under the influence of alcohol.

In addition to stepped up enforcement activities, the DPS, local law enforcement agencies and news media of Texas will again be cooperating in a special traffic safety education program known as "Operation Motorcade." The DPS director said this program seeks to focus public attention on traffic safety through the timely reporting of fatal accidents and unusual conditions during major holiday periods.

Bands Schedule Christmas Concert

The Seventh Grade, Junior High and the Wildcat Band members and directors invite the citizens of the Littlefield community to their annual Christmas concert Tuesday evening, Dec. 19, at 7:30 in the Junior High auditorium.

Admission will be the presentation of a 1972-73 Band Booster membership card for adults, or $1 for adults and 50 cents for school age children.

This will be the first public performance during the 1972-73 school year for the seventh grade band. The band is under the direction of Mike Threadgill, and will play three numbers for the concert.

In this Christmas concert, the Junior High Band will be making its 16th appearance this school year. Their director, Mike Threadgill, states that this group performed at two junior high football games, 11 pep rallies for the junior high football games, entered a pre-UIL marching contest at New Deal, and then the UIL marching contest in November when they received an "excellent" rating.

Darle Rountree, Wildcat Band director, states that the Christmas concert will mark the 35th appearance for the Wildcat Band this year. Their appearances have consisted of nine half-time shows at Wildcat football games, 15 pep rallies before Wildcat football games, homecoming parade, UIL marching contest where they won a "Superior" rating, and then at the end of the first period on Friday's prior to games at the high school, the Wildcat band played "Maroon and White" nine times this year.

All of these appearances for the Wildcat Band were in addition to their regular classroom routine, as well as the regular practice for their UIL marching contest.

"The performances of this band created an atmosphere of intense school spirit before and during the Wildcat football games this year," stated Band Booster President Hubert Henry.

"The Band Boosters of Littlefield believe that the continued excellent, superior and sweepstake performances of the school bands the past two years have helped make the public aware that there are more than 300 students that have brought as much honor and recognition to our community as any group of students in our local schools," Henry continued.

Cook, Hamblin All SP

Two Littlefield Wildcats, Randy Cook and Bill Hamblin, have been named to the defensive Class AA All-South Plains grid squad.

Honorable mention All-South Plains selections include three more from Littlefield's All-District team, J.E. Johnson, Terry Bryson and Kenny Francis.

Cook, Hamblin, Bryson and Francis were previously selected All-District along with Alan Mackey, Kenny Owens, Leneral Lewis and Jerry Cox.

Floydada, which advanced to the quarter-final play for the first time in the school's history, paced the 1972 Class AA All-South Plains team with four first team selections.

Tulia, which shared the District 4-AA title with the Whirlwinds, and Cooper, which won District 5-AA in its first year in class AA each had three picks. Littlefield, Denver City, Friona and Morton had two selections each.

Cooper moved from Class A to AA this season after the UIL realignment and won the wild District 5. The Pirates took and won the title over Tahoka and Denver City. For guiding a team to a loop crown in its first year in a larger classification, coach Pete Hurst was tabbed coach of the year.

Cook, a 190-pound junior, was picked defensive lineman along with Tony Edwards of Tulia, Terry Bunch of Floydada, and Kevin Wiseman of Friona. Cook was the only Wildcat to be named to both teams in the All-District team, coping both defensive lineman and offensive tackle slots. Cook is one of three juniors in the top 22. There were no two-way selections.

Bill Hamblin, a 170-pound senior, shares the linebacker choices with Kevin Jones of Cooper and Tony Goen of Floydada. Hamblin was one of the six unanimous choices as defensive linebacker on the All-District team.

J.E. Johnson who finished the season with 54 points is an honorable mention running back on the All-South Plains team. Center Kenny Francis is an honorable mention guard, and QB Terry Bryson made the honorable mention selections.

Otton's Steve Lewis is one of the HM guards.

By CORNBALL BLEV

I'M A LITTLE hurt! Here I've missed a couple of issues, and my phone HASN'T been ringing off the wall by readers wantin' to know why AND, you know what? The paper is coming through on schedule, without me!

Truth of the matter is, I've been doin' some more of that panelin'. I'd put it off so long, I had to learn all over again. Same ol' mistakes and all. If you want to keep your time occupied, just buy an old house, and do the remodeling yourself!

long has the family, with one of the unfortunates born to them, been feelin' embarrassment and shakin' their heads though the fault were theirs. Problem that's with us, and will be helped by buryin' our heads in the sand and pretendin' it doesn't exist. Some education, too!

These children will probably have a normal life span, with a mental age in some cases may never be beyond a nine or ten-year-old. They can never look forward to a life, as others.

I'D HEARD ABOUT this new dance that's taken the town, but hadn't given it much thought 'til a couple of days ago. It's called "The Bath-Room-Two-Step." VERY unfunny!

SOME TIME AGO, the wifemate, being filled with gratitude and goodwill toward her fellow citizens, asked me to help her write a letter to the editor.

"Whatta want to write?", I queried. "I just want the people of Littlefield to know how glad I am to live in a place where people are as concerned about the unfortunate, as they are here," quoth she.

IN CASE THERE'S someone out in the backwoods that don't know what she was drivin' at she's speaking of the people that are helping, in various ways, with the care and keeping of those handicapped children in the State School for the Retarded. She's one of the instructors.

MENTAL RETARDATION is a disease (?) that may be visited upon families of any standing, or locality. It is no respecter of persons or positions. Too

MOST OF ALL, they need an understanding. One of the jobs of the instructors is to cause us to recognize that these are fellow human beings and need our help. Any progress at all, in the least, these children, is a giant step. Anything they learn toward making easier for themselves, or ease those in contact with them, is progress indeed. AND (may I say) it is a special kind of person to work with children, day after day.

OUR COMMUNITY is becoming more aware of the work that's done here for these people, and tendering more help. For these our local instructors are grand. I want to say "Thanks!"

CHRISTMAS: The time of year to substitute a gift for the simple "I love you," and try to prove much, by the cost of the gift!

DO YOU suppose winter will be colder than fall???

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

A Good Time

By BOB W.

A GOOD TIME may be different things for different people, but some people have very strange ideas about what a "good time" is. They seem to think that it is a time when they turn from decency, and honor, and morality, and sobriety.

For them, it is a time of self-indulgence; a time of lawlessness; a time of betrayal; a time of vandalism; a time of self-abuse; a time of degradation; or some such unwise and hurtful behavior.

joy, no real joy, in general conform to the well-established standards of conduct.

They mistakenly feel that with framework of their life pattern, nothing to give spice and zest to it. How sad! This unwarranted view many splendid people into expert which mar their entire life.

A BRIEF PERIOD of being foolishly called a "good time" causes a lifetime of heartfelt regret. How can such hurtful acts called a good time, when there is no good about it?

Such so-called "good times" are themselves, but, even worse, spawn worse times. Some people do this and admit that it is true, but others never seem to realize it's wrong.

If they do, they never change, though the "good time" they seek forever elusive.

IT IS UNFORTUNATE that so many folk think that a "good time" requires a temporary departure from the desirable and wholesome behavior patterns.

They feel that they are entitled to a "little fun" now and then, and think that they must step aside from their usual decent mode of living in order to have this fun. They call this a good time, but it has been a bad time for them; and they know it.

THESE FOLK, because of misconceptions, think that there is no

Reward Offered For Information

Virrel Roberts is offering a $50 reward to the first person who provides information leading to the identity of the person or persons who took the outside door and carpet off a 75' mobile home one and one-half miles west of Tide Products.

Roberts bought the trailer for salvage after the new home overturned in the bar ditch on U.S. 84 in a high wind storm.

The carpet was red and orange shag, and measured approximately 14'x20' and 14'x14'. A rug sample is at Roberts Lumber and at the sheriff's office.

The factory door is finished in dark walnut inside and the outside is chrome and ivory aluminum.

Roberts said a man in a white late model Ford pickup had stopped and measured the door saying he wanted to buy it for a stock trailer. A pickup matching this description was seen at the trailer later the night of the theft.

Persons giving information will remain anonymous.

IF THE FRUIT of our behavior regret and remorse, or something worse; how can we call it "a good time"? Calling a "bad time" "good time" cannot make it so.

How can anyone say that which causes sorrow and guilt weakens character, injures reputation, undermines morality, and wastes and substance is a "good time"?

WE MUST NOT permit ourselves to be led astray to the extent that we our standard routine is boring and dull.

We must not accept the sophisticated attitude that life must be exciting in order to be desirable; that we must aside now and then, and eat forbidden fruit. Unfortunately, what many people mistakenly call "good time".

THERE IS NO SOUND BASIS for the view that the decent, respectable, wholesome way of living is uninteresting and monotonous.

People who think so must sooner or later, that they are wrong.

IF IT IS RECREATION we need, be sure that it is constructive, law-abiding, helpful; so that it will be, in fact, "GOOD TIME".

She Keeps Interest In Nursing Field

Mrs. Ruth (Charles) Hinds' interest in the Hospital Auxiliary is the extension of a lifetime of interest in the medical field.

Following graduation from high school she was in registered nurse training. She lacked a year when she married and quit. And she is still a little mad at herself for not completing the program because with the Medicare ruling she would have to start all over again.

It is through her volunteer work with the Hospital Auxiliary that she started working part time as a ward clerk at the Littlefield Hospital. Even though she works at the hospital almost every day, Mrs. Hinds still tries to do a half day of volunteer work each week.

Mrs. Hinds is a charter member of the Hospital Auxiliary, is the immediate past president and now serves as corresponding secretary and is in charge of the publicity. She enjoys working and talking with the elderly. "So many can't have anyone to come see them," she said.

Mrs. Hinds was one of about 15 charter members in the Auxiliary which doubled in its first year. Hinds is a farmer and "works constantly" doing custom combining in the fall. Mrs. Hinds said she got into the auxiliary because she spent so many hours alone at home.

Their oldest daughter, Pat, attended college three years and is now employed in Dallas. Charlotte is a sophomore at Tech.

Membership in the Auxiliary varies, but averages about 30-35. There are several elderly associate members who pay dues and attend meetings and luncheons but aren't able to work. "And we need more associate members," Mrs. Hinds said.

Dues, profits made off the hospital carts and money received from projects all goes into the Auxiliary fund which is used to give a scholarship each year. Any boy or girl who wants to go into the medical profession is eligible for the fund which they pay back interest free.

Mrs. Hinds' hobbies include refinishing furniture and cooking. Her love for cooking is shown in her collection of cookbooks and recipes. Among her books is her mother's cook book which gives measurements in terms like "a pinch of salt, butter the size of a walnut, and a goblet of flour."

Among some of Hinds' family favorites are these recipes for green enchiladas, brown stew and date nut roll candy.

BROWN STEW

3 lbs. fat
1 clove garlic, cut in half
2 lbs. beef chuck, cut in 1 1/2 inch cubes
2 tps. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 small bay leaf
4 cups hot water
3 medium potatoes, cut in halves
4 carrots, cut in thirds
1 cup celery, cut in one inch pieces

1 can tomato sauce
Heat fat in Dutch oven, deep stew pan or large skillet. Add garlic and meat. Brown meat on all sides in hot fat. Add salt, pepper, Worcestershire sauce, lemon juice, bay leaf and two cups water. Cover. Simmer two hours; stir occasionally. Remove bay leaf. Add two cups water, potatoes, carrots tomato sauce and celery. Continue cooking 30 minutes or until vegetables are done. Makes eight servings.

GREEN ENCHILADAS

2 lbs. ground beef
Salt, pepper and garlic seasoning to taste.

Brown beef in skillet using no grease. Remove from skillet and let drain.
2 cans cream of chicken soup
1 can water
1 small (4 oz.) can chopped green chilies (for hot enchiladas use 2 cans chilies. Combine and simmer for approximately 10 minutes in same skillet (removing fat). Add meat to sauce mixture. Simmer slowly for approximately 10 more minutes.

1/2 to 1 pound Cheddar cheese
1 large onion, chopped
12 flour tortillas
Soften tortillas in hot grease, put meat mixture (1 large tablespoon, letting most of sauce drain off), grated cheese and onion in tortillas and roll up, fasten with tooth pick. Repeat.

Pour remaining sauce with meat over enchiladas. Sprinkle remaining cheese and onions on top.

Pour enchilada sauce over tortillas and bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes until enchiladas are hot and cheese is melted.

Makes approx. 12-14 enchiladas.

ENCHILADASAUCE

1/2 stick butter or margarine
4 tbsps. flour
2 cups milk
1/2 pound Velveeta cheese, chopped.
1 can 4 ozs. green chilies
Melt butter. Slowly add flour and stir to make a paste. Then add milk slowly, stirring constantly. Add cheese chunks and chilies and cook until melted. Pour over enchiladas in casserole.

DATE NUT ROLL

1 1/2 cups chopped dates
2 cups chopped nuts
2 1/2 cups sugar
1 cup evaporated milk
Cook sugar and milk over medium heat to soft ball stage (235 degrees F.) stirring constantly. Add dates. Again cook to soft ball stage, stirring all the while to blend dates. Stir in nuts, cool. Turn into buttered pan.

Knead until creamy and stiff. Shape into four rolls. Wrap each in waxed paper or aluminum foil and put in refrigerator.

CARAMEL COATING

1 cup sugar
Few grains of salt
1 cup light corn syrup

1/4 cup butter
3/4 cup evaporated milk
1/2 t. vanilla extract
Cook sugar, salt and syrup rapidly to firm ball stage, 245 degrees F., stirring occasionally. Add butter and milk gradually so that the mixture does not stop boiling at anytime. Cook over medium heat to firm ball stage, stirring constantly because the mixture sticks easily at the last. About 12 to 20 minutes are required for cooking. Add vanilla.

Let caramel stand until mixture stops bubbling. Then dip each date roll immediately in caramel to coat, then roll at once in pecan halves.

Under The Influence

Two drivers dead, one seriously injured. All had been drinking.

Typical holiday accidents? Not really. A trio of experienced volunteers had agreed to participate in a highly controlled experiment to demonstrate the deadly effects of mixing drinking with driving.

Each participant downed three of his favorite alcoholic concoctions at a "jolly hour" before climbing behind the wheel of a stationary simulator car.

The drivers were confronted by specially filmed traffic situations requiring sound and speedy judgment. The film segments were excerpts of movies used regularly by Aetna Life & Casualty to teach good driving techniques to thousands of high school and college students as well as military personnel throughout the U.S.

After an hour the drivers' reaction time had deteriorated sharply and the average driving performance, as measured by Aetna's Drivotrainer system, had plummeted 50%. In fact, if these drivers had met on the road the situations they met in the simulator—two would be dead, the other seriously hurt.

Their "fatalities" could have been avoided. The American Medical Association says flatly that three drinks in an hour are too much for anyone who intends to soon step behind the wheel, for some people, two are too much.

A driver is considered legally drunk in most states when his blood alcohol level (BAL) is 10%. But many tests show a driver's ability becomes impaired when the BAL exceeds .05% (the BALs for the three volunteers were .07%, .065%, and .055%).

Suppose you have one too many. There's no quick way to get out from under—just wait. An individual's blood alcohol level will drop .08% each hour. During this holiday season take this good advice from Aetna, one of the country's largest automobile insurers:

*If you must drink, drink slowly.
 *Know how much you're drinking.
 *Set a limit before the first one, and
 *Be honest—if you've drunk too much, admit it and ask someone else to drive.

Named to the Class A All-South Plains offensive team was 6' 180-pound junior end Toby Lynn from Sudan. Eight other Hornets landed on All-District offensive, defensive and honorable mention teams. Sudan's Kevin May is one of the 1972 3-A All-District selections on the offensive team, and Gary Edwards was picked as a linebacker on the defensive team. Edwards was also named HM fullback on the offense.

Guard Terry Graves is an honorable mention selection on the offense. Pat Hedges got an HM nod both ways. Hedges is a back on the offense and a tackle on the defense.

Four other Sudan Hornets complete the HM defensive list with Kevin Humphreys, end, Don Noles, tackle, Richard Tamplin, tackle and Brad West, defensive fullback.

Dear Abby
 arrested, leaving stranded at game
 By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old boy who is really bored something that happened and I don't know who to write to so I am writing to you. I live in the country, and Dad and I sometimes drive for the football games. Saturday we two drove to the game. Dad had some pills for his hay fever and then he drank a can. At halftime he went to the men's room and said he was right back. I waited and waited and the game was over. Dad wasn't back yet so I got worried and went to the car. Dad's car was parked. I waited some more and Dad showed up. I stayed until the stadium lights were off and all the other cars were gone, and by this time I was worried and scared so I called home and my sister to come and get me. She finally came and the two of us drove to the city station to report that Dad was missing. We found out Dad had been picked up at the game by the police and arrested for being DRUNK! They locked Dad up and wouldn't even let him use the telephone to call home and let them know what had happened, and here I was, a 14-year-old boy stranded alone in a strange city. I don't think this is fair. My father was fined $25 for being "drunk," and the matter was dropped. Can anything be done about this now?
WORRIED ABOUT JUSTICE

DEAR WORRIED: Perhaps your dad had all the symptoms of being drunk and the arresting officer was only doing his duty by locking him up to prevent him from driving. Refusing to allow your father to use the telephone is another matter. He should definitely talk to a lawyer.

DEAR ABBY: I despise my sister who I caught in a room with my husband 27 years ago. My husband had been happily married for nine years at the time. My sister was also married when this took place. I never told a thing until I caught them, but my husband confessed to me that it had been going on for several years.

DEAR ABBY: My sister became a widow last year and I want nothing to do with her. The affair was terminated when my husband was a Christian, but I know my sister and I'm taking her money. I even despise her letters, and never answer them.

DEAR BITTER: I can understand why you don't want to see your sister as a house guest, but I see no reason why you should explain it to your brother.
BITTER MEMORIES

DEAR ABBY: I have been married four years and have two children. I recently came across some papers my ex-husband had hidden away. There was his birth certificate, security card, and some identification papers and letters. All belonging to him, but they were under a name other than the one he married me by. When I asked him to explain this to me he refused to give me a straight answer. I went to the city hall in the name which he said he was born and asked for a birth certificate for the name he used when he married me, and he told there was no record of anyone by that name. Is our marriage legal? Are our children legitimate? I don't know.
ALL MESSED UP

DEAR MESSED: If you can't afford to hire a lawyer, contact the Legal Aid Society and ask for their help. You need a lawyer to tell you where you stand legally.

DEAR ABBY: I am a very worried girl and can't do anything about my problem because I am underage, but I need to know where I can get a free VD test and necessary treatment without my parents knowing it. I am sure I need it, and am ashamed to tell you that I have it.
NEEDS HELP

DEAR NEEDS: Telephone your COUNTY health department. Explain your problem, and you will receive a free examination and necessary treatment. Please do this.

DEAR ABBY: A woman wrote that she sold kisses at a fair last summer to raise money for a local charity, and she didn't forget the way one stranger had kissed her. (She said she wasn't much to look at, but wow, could that man kiss!) Then she wanted to know if it was possible for a man to kiss a woman so much without feeling anything himself. I replied, "I hate to destroy your illusions, but it is possible for a kiss to be a one-way proposition."

DEAR ABBY: I am one who has played the male lead in more movies than you would believe. I can verify your statement. I have been in "many beautiful—but foul smelling movie actresses' kisses, and have gotten nothing out of it but nausea. Some were chronic garlic and onion eaters. Others were bathed, but used great quantities of perfume instead. If you print this, please withhold my name. I am up in the air now, but am still remembered by many.
AGING ACTOR IN MALIBU

DEAR ACTOR: Your secret is safe with me. The only thing worse than a man who kisses and tells is a woman who kisses and smells!

DEAR ABBY: The couple who were undercharged by a lawyer helping at his parents' business are teaching the lesson. A lesson in "Do unto others before they can do unto you."

DEAR ABBY: I wonder if the boy is being docked the $3 from his pay? I wonder if the couple would feel that the boy was "right" if they later discovered that he had accidentally been overcharged them $3?

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: I'm disappointed in myself. I was right. I should have advised them to pay the additional $3.

Bula ISD Fully Accredited Following Visit From TEA

Following a visit of the Bula schools by an accreditation team from the Texas Education Agency, the TEA accreditation team recommended that the Bula

Independent School District be continued as fully accredited for grades kindergarten through the twelfth grade.

The following are remarks made in the accreditation report:

All of the district's physical facilities appeared to have received adequate preventative maintenance and custodial care. During 1970-71 a bus garage was constructed, and in 1971-72 all of the instructional facilities were refurbished. Maximum utilization of facilities by students at all levels was evidenced by the sharing of the cafeteria, gymnasium, auditorium, and central library.

The educational program offered substantially met accreditation standards. The major limitation, inherent in small schools, was the small number of students and staff which restricted the variety of curriculum offerings. At the elementary level the instructional program was basically self-contained with the exception of physical education. The kindergarten program was taught by a certified teacher assisted by a bilingual aide.

Each elementary teacher taught a two-grade combination in grades one through six. Each elementary classroom contained a well-balanced book collection in terms of subject areas, reading levels, and interest levels. Other supplementary and reference materials were also provided.

The junior high school program, grades seven and eight, was departmentalized, and in several courses the students were combined for instruction. Electives included drama, a second year of science, occupational training, and typewriting. While the curriculum for grades seven and eight provided for instruction in all required subjects and technically met minimal requirements for elective courses, the limited nature of those electives did not fulfill the intent of accreditation standards.

The curriculum in the high school program (grades 9-12) provided programs for both college bound and non-college bound students. Excellent laboratory science facilities, equipment, and supplies were provided for the secondary science program. Elective courses included bookkeeping, drama, advanced laboratory sciences (chemistry and physics), as well as advanced mathematics courses (offered on alternate years); the vocational courses consisted of four units each of vocational agriculture and vocational home-making.

The district's guidance, counseling, testing, and follow-up programs were under the direction of the principal who was a certified counselor.

A total professional staff of 12 was employed for an enrollment of 110. The salaries of eight staff members were paid from Foundational School Funds, and four were paid locally. In addition to the regular staff, one aide and a part-time remedial reading teacher were paid through Title I funds. Through the South Plains Special Education Co-op, the services of a full-time special education teacher and one-half-time aide were available. A cooperative agreement with Pop Consolidated School District resulted in the employment of the vocational agriculture and vocational home-making teachers on a half-time basis.

During the current visit, the credentials of all professional personnel employed by the district were examined. All were graduates of colleges and universities approved by the Texas Education Agency, and were properly certified for their assignments.

A central library served the secondary level and was staffed by student helpers under the supervision of a qualified part-time librarian. The library collection was in the process of being inventoried and reorganized, but it seemed to be somewhat limited for fully effective support of the instructional program. Also, the professional collection for teachers did not appear to be adequately supplied with a variety of journals, periodicals, and books.

Throughout the district audio-visual hardware and software of acceptable quality and utility were observed, and facilities, supplies, and equipment for teachers to prepare their own audio-visual materials were furnished. The district was participating in many of the services provided by Region XVII Education Service Center.

Based upon the generally high quality instructional and administrative practices observed, as well as commendable school board and community support of the educational program, the recommendation to recommend the Bula Independent School District be continued as fully accredited for grades kindergarten through twelve.

to the low cost of electric heat

electric heating estimate

More SPS customers switched to electric heat last year, because they found out, through a free estimate, they could operate an electric heating system for little more than they were spending already. Do you think they made a wise decision? Ask any of them. They're our most convincing salesmen. And, ask us for an operating cost estimate. It's free. It's accurate. It's a real eye-opener.

Employees Receive 5 Prizes

Charles Harlan, installation and maintenance foreman, and Billie Harris, repair clerk for General Telephone Company's Littlefield District, won five prizes in a contest recently held by the company.

The numerical figure "one" was used as characters denoting the "one to one" philosophy adopted by the company last year.

Entries were sent to New York and judged there by Arnie Copeland, Robert Baker and Alice Moseley, director of design writer, respectively. Howard Muncie, a Visual Marketing Specialist, New York cartoonist.

They both received cards for being the first 100 to submit. Mrs. Harris placed winning a lady's watch. They both received radios for being first.

The grand prize expense-paid weekend trip to a National League game at Texas. Second prize, a watch was won by Waldrop Busby, Administrator in Sub.
