FORMER COUNTY OFFICIAL

Retiring Postmaster Holt Honored At Olton Event

More than 200 persons saw "This Is Your Life" for I. B. (Doc) Holt, retiring postmaster, at Olton Saturday night. Master of Ceremonies Rev. Tommy Nelson carried the crowd back through the years, from Holt's boyhood at Big Spring to the present. After showing pictures depicting Holt's work in several county offices, as a state legislator, and as Olton postmaster the past 20 years, Rev. Nelson presented both the honoree and his wife, Jewel, with plaques.

In an emotional response, Holt thanked the crowd "for letting us live among you." A highlight of the appreciation banquet was the off-the-cuff entertainment of the Black Aces, a minstrel group composed of men Holt directed in presenting local minstrels many times in past years.

The event was sponsored by Olton Baseball Association, in gratitude for Holt's past work with youth baseball in Olton.

Included among those wishing him well were Governor Preston Smith and Congressman George Mahon, who sent telegrams praising his work for his county, state and nation.

A native of Kilgore, Holt had lived in Olton for 50 years. He had served as postmaster for 20 years.

When Olton was the county seat of Lamb County, he served as district clerk, county tax assessor and collector, and as county judge.

He served in the Texas House of Representatives from 1946 through 1949.

Holt was a charter member of the Olton Post of American Legion and a past president of the Olton Lions Club. In addition he has held numerous offices in the Post Masonic Lodge No. 1257.

He is an active member of the Olton First United Methodist Church, and a supporter of local baseball clubs. He helped organize the first Peewee Baseball Club there.

Lamb County Marriages Are Lasting Longer

How high is the divorce rate in Lamb County compared with the rate in other communities? How many local residents have been divorced?

For the great majority of men and women in the local area, marriage is a once-in-a-lifetime undertaking. For others, who start out with equally high hopes, their marriages end up on the rocks.

Data recently obtained from the Department of Commerce, from the Population Reference Bureau and others indicate the current trends in divorce.

In Lamb County, it appears, there are fewer divorced people, in proportion to population, than are found in most parts of the United States.

According to the latest estimates, some 33 out of every 1,000 local residents over the age of 14 are either divorced or separated from their spouses. That is exclusive of the number who were divorced previously but have remarried.

The rate compares favorably with the rate in other areas of the United States, where it averages 47 per 1,000. In the State of Texas, it is 50 per 1,000.

Special interest centers on the divorce situation at this time because of the actions taken in many states in the last few years extending the grounds for divorce.

In California, for example, if a couple appears before a judge and states that "irreconcilable differences" exist between them, he can grant a divorce forthwith.

In New York State, where adultery was the basic ground for divorce for many years, five new grounds have been added, including separation for two years or more. If a couple can show that they have been living apart for that length of time under an agreement, they can get a divorce for that reason alone.

Based upon the latest sampling survey of the country, the number of divorced and separated persons in Lamb County is now estimated at approximately 510. This compares with the 1960 total of 440.

Called for trial in Lamb County criminal jury settings will be Matilde Rangel, forgery.

Armond Gloria, Ruben Jacques and Manuel Jacques, will be the second case heard. These three are charged with burglary. Harvey C. Wilson, Mamie Mae Smith and Harry Lee Brown is the third case set, and the charge is burglary.

Alfred Williams will be tried for burglary.

Josephine Sanders will be tried for attempted forgery and passing.

Daniel Arguajo is charged with forgery.

Sixteen civil cases have been set for April jury trials.

Anton Man Dies In Crash

Thomas Leo Markham, 44, of Anton was killed near Anton about 7:30 p.m. Saturday when his late model car crashed into a parked tractor.

Markham was the driver and only occupant of the car. According to Don Kuykendall, Hockley County highway patrolman, Markham apparently ran off the rain-slick road and lost control of his car. The car, traveling north, veered off the highway to the left, and smashed into a tractor parked in the edge of a field three miles south of Anton on FM 165.

The tractor was owned by Anton Fertilizer and had been used to do some custom work on the farm where the accident occurred.

There was light rain at the time of the accident.

J. G. Greer, Anton justice of peace, pronounced the mande ad at the scene. Markham's body was brought to Hammons Funeral Home and later transferred to Franklin-Bartley Funeral Home in Lubbock.

Markham, a salesman and farmer, moved to Anton from Ropesville and had lived in Anton 10 years.

Survivors include his wife, Wanda; a son, Danny, and a daughter, Debye, all of the home; his mother, Mrs. T. K. Markham of Lubbock; and a sister, Mrs. Gerald Jarvis of Abilene.

Funeral services were conducted at the Anton Central Baptist Church Monday with Rev. Darvey Lavender and Rev. John Tubbs officiating. Burial was in Resthaven Memorial Park in Lubbock. Pallbearers were James Brookshire, George Miller, Jim Copeland, K. H. Spradley, Odell Newton and Billy Ray Glasscock.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN ANSWER FALSE ALARM

Littlefield volunteer firemen were called to the Deep Rock Cafe at 2:30 a.m. Wednesday. Firemen were called when someone noticed smoke coming from the building, but when firemen arrived at the scene there was only an electrical short and no fire to be extinguished.

LITTLEFIELD GIRL SCOUTS have 5,640 boxes of Girl Scout cookies to sell. Betty and Tammy Owen check on the five varieties of cookies that 186 Girl Scouts here will begin selling tomorrow. The sale will continue through March until the cookies are all gone.

drizzling weather kept the campfire from nor dampen the spirits of Road Runners who roosted Littlefield over the week-

Road Runners Travel Club is a group from Littlefield who like to camp in the hills. Cars pulling travel trailers began rolling into Littlefield Friday afternoon--and their electrical and hookups and everything. And we do appreciate this. Visitors in the Littlefield park included young couples with small children to retired couples. Occupations of the visitors varied from a farmer, an X-ray technician, mechanic, salesman, doctor, an elevator repairman and a banker.

While ages and occupations may be widely different, liking the outdoors and camping is the common denominator.

Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett have been camping out all their married life. "I was 15 and he was 19 when we married," Mrs. Fawcett said. "Camping was the only recreation we could afford. We'd take our small children, a bed roll and a wagon sheet. We didn't even have the money for a tent." They've graduated from sleeping bags and the barest necessities to a 22-foot travel trailer. "Our children say, 'We had to rough it when we were little,' Mrs. Fawcett said, "now you and daddy camp in Cadillac class."

The group hooks up to their trailers and has a get together at the drop of a trailer hitch. When Texas Tech had homecoming this year, the Road Runners and another Lubbock trailer club had a joint rally with 53 trailers in McKenzie State Park. A fun night included bingo and prizes. Sunday morning there was a pancake breakfast with the men doing the cooking and a guest minister held church services afterward.

"If we have very many out and a place for services, we always have a religious service on Sunday morning," Fawcett said.

Weather permitting the group likes hiking and outdoor activities. Most of the members have motor bikes and go trail riding whenever they camp out. Many meals are prepared outside and they all have tables and chairs for outdoor eating and card playing.

Weekend trips include jaunts to Buffalo Springs Lake, Lake Champion and Colorado City. This week members are making plans to attend the state International Travel Trailer Club of America (ITTCA) rally at Graham.

Every Thanksgiving this group hooks up and heads for Camp Arrowhead at Brady, Club funds are used to buy turkey and ham, and the women bring covered dishes for a Thanksgiving club dinner.

Thirteen Roadrunner families with their trailers went to San Diego, Calif., last summer for a rally. These trailer enthusiasts are now humming with plans for attending the international rally in Chilliwack.

THE PHILOSOPHER Licensed Reporter?

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm comes up with an idea which up to now we hadn't thought much about.)

I had planned to start up my tractor yesterday morning in preparation for the coming of spring but caught myself just in time--not going to catch me polluting the air unnecessarily with a gasoline engine, it's bad enough with people smoking cigarettes and eating onions--so instead I came inside the house and looked over a newspaper I'd been saving, although what I'm going to do when I get through reading it I don't know.

You can't burn it without polluting the air or throw it away without littering the ground. Understand, I'm not suggesting that publishing a newspaper is a prime cause of littering in this country, but if you can't find something wrong about whatever anybody is doing these days, you're behind the times.

Anyway, in this newspaper which I don't know what to do with when I'm through with, I ran across an article by a psychiatrist who is a member of the National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence who says, and I'm sure you and

I may have trouble following him on this line of thinking, that one way to cut down on crime and violence is to license newspaper reporters and writers.

That's right. He wants the government to license you newspaper people to assure the public, he says, "that the practitioners of the art are qualified practitioners."

As you know, psychiatrists are licensed and therefore qualified, which is the reason why in nearly any murder trial the prosecutor can find a psychiatrist qualified to say the murderer is sane and the defense can find one qualified to say he's insane. In a really big trial, you can get two or three or even four on each side with exactly the opposite diagnoses of the same guy.

Where would psychiatry be today without licenses? Where would the country be? Probably filled with crime and violence.

I'll tell you, if we want to put a stop to crime and violence, we ought to have every newspaper and radio and television reporter in this country psychoanalyzed in the morning.

But be sure to see two, so the verdict will be a toss-up.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Don't Lose Heart

By BOB WEAR

THE TWO PRINCIPAL sources of discouragement are: the knowledge of our own deficiencies, and the threats to our well-being which come from the world around us.

All of us have deficiencies and shortcomings, and some of us more than others. The existence of deficiencies, however, must not cause us to lose heart.

It is true that many people do become discouraged because of imperfections, but this is not a wise or proper response.

RETREAT TO DESPENCY is one of the greatest uncalld-for human tragedies. It is defeat beforehand, before we have done all we can do. Unfortunately, this loss of heart is made to appear to be some kind of personal nobility.

This, of course, compounds the difficulty; because it means that we are not going to try. We make ourselves failures in areas in which we could perform well.

"Despency is not a state of humility.--On the contrary, it is the vexation and despair of a cowardly pride; nothing is worse.--Whether we stumble, or whether we fall, we must only think of rising again and going on in our course." --Fenelon.

LOSS OF HEART is not inevitable. In many instances, insufficiencies can be overcome, or partially overcome. In no instance should they be permitted to overcome us.

They can always be accepted, graciously. Oftentimes they can be managed so that they become a source of strength. There are many living examples of this fact.

ONE THING IS CERTAIN, our deficiencies cannot cause us to be disheartened unless we allow them to do so. We can master them, rather than let them master us. They can actually be turned to our use. This is so much better than blowing them up, all out of proportion, so that they dominate us and our plans for living.

SHORTCOMINGS will not cause us to lose heart, unless we want them to do so. Some can be corrected, and all can be accepted; with good cheer.

Helen Keller, speaking from unusual experiences, said: "Face your deficiencies and acknowledge them, but do not let them master you. Let them teach you patience, sweetness and insight. When we do the best we can, we never know what miracle is wrought in our own life or in the life of another."

THE THREATS to our well-being which come from the world around us have the potential to cause us to lose heart. This is the second principal source of discouragement.

We are being constantly bombarded with bad news from all parts of the world: from nearby and far away. The news coverage during any one day is enough to cause us to feel discouraged, if we permit it to do this to us.

WE MUST FIND STRENGTH in the fact that there is still much good in the world. Let us keep remembering this.

Then, let us dismiss from our minds everything that is beyond our power to affect.

We must not be naive, but even this would be better than the turmoil of day and night worry about the things we cannot control.

WE MUST NOT LOSE HEART.

THERE'S BEEN much-ado about the supreme court, of late.--(But, not enough.)

Havin' trouble locating a replacement suitable to both factions of our lawmakers.--must be, he needs a degree in dentistry.--course, all he's gotta know about dentistry, is just how to pull teeth. He wouldn't need the full course.

SHUX, AFTER the job that's already been done on our laws, he wouldn't have to know too much about THAT!--if I ever saw a personage that's on a diet of "thoup, thyryp, and" thome kinds of thereals" it's our law enforcement officers!--No teeth left to use.

EVEN I remember when the violaters were just given a fair trial then hung, for a lot less than they get away with now.--(without even getting their hands slapped.)--Today's officer has to have an airtight case, before he arrests a culprit, then he runs the risk of having his case thrown out of court on some silly technicality--(if he himself isn't sued for false arrest, to-boot!)

Have a look at the comedy that's been goin' on up in Chicago the past 20 weeks.--('Tis far from over; it'll probably wind up in the supreme court.--and I can't think of a better place for the buzzards to come-home-to-roost!--) Might make a good re-run for the Three Stooges.--Sad part of the situation is, that Judge

Hoffman will, probably, end up being "de-benched" for what little he tried to do to the "Contemptibles"!

WHEN A GUY can lose his farm and still be deep in debt because he set a trap for a burglar on his own property.--When subversives can live openly, and operate full blast, in our country, without being questioned.--yeah, even protected by laws.

When rioters can laugh and spit in the faces of our police, then turn and walk away, my friend, you know there's something stinky in the northland!

--Yet, we celebrate Washington's birthday!--Bet that ol' boy would do a double-back-flip in his grave, if he could see what kind of country he'd fathered!

I AGREE, something needs fixin',--and without wasting too many guesses, I'd bet on it being the supreme court!--Don't think the guy needs to be too sharp on his tooth-pullin'--the jobs been pretty well done.--Now if he's good at makin' falsies, we could use him!

Meanwhile, lock your doors at night.--don't walk alone after sundown.-- carry very little cash.-- and if you just gotta get yourself robbed, or beat up, try to arrange for it to happen near a policeman, and plenty of witnesses.

And, by all means, DON'T strike back.--It'll more'n likely be You that winds up IN THE CLINK!

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

Open Letter

Littlefield Classes For Retarded Children Greetings!

This is an open letter to thank all you for your help since we began this program on Nov. 4, 1968 and to present our needs of 1970-71.

The Lubbock State School for the Mentally Retarded is the authority under which our classes operate. The teachers are hired, supervised, and paid by the State School. Classroom supplies are furnished in so far as the State School budget allows. Our local obligation as a supporting group is to provide a place of meeting, minimum equipment, refreshments and supplies beyond what the State School can furnish.

Thus far we have raised and spent approximately $1,200 for all purposes locally. We have successfully furnished refreshments such as cookies and drinks on a contributed basis. We have bought some items like this and some luncheon foods. We have bought two record players and provided materials for use in arts and crafts in the Post-school class. And, we have contributed $200 to St. Martin Lutheran and Sacred Heart Catholic churches to supplement utility costs.

As we look to the future, we want to pay at least $30 per month in the form of contributions to each church which houses the classes. This totals $720 annually. In addition we need to continue to receive and have on hand to expend through the year about $600 to $700 for lunches, refreshments and classroom supplies. A minimum need then is just under $1,500 per year. Our Advisory Board, with much consideration of the need, need to ask each church in the area to consider either budgeting a contribution toward utilities or to special offering to be applied to utilities.

We feel that if the churches do this to share the cost of the Martin and Sacred Heart, the clubs and organizations can provide the remaining cash needed.

So we make this direct appeal: will you consider this matter to your church organization and reply at your convenience?

We do thank you for your assistance in this worthy program of the past months, and we look forward to continuing the Littlefield Classes for Retarded Children, one of the services our community can perform.

Again, thanks for your help. Sincerely,
/s/ Clem G. ...

A WOMAN'S VIEW

Welfare Truth

By PEARL BRANDON

DID YOU EVER SEE a hungry child?....I mean a child that was really hungry, under-nourished and big eyed?

One time when I was working for County Welfare, a little Mexican boy, 8 or 10 years old came to my office and said, "Please come to my house, my mother is very sick."

I took him in the car and went to a half dug-out in the northwest part of town where I found his mother lying in the corner of the room on some old rags and cotton sacks, unconscious.

PULLING BACK an old coat I found she had suffered a miscarriage and was soaked with blood. I called an ambulance and took her to the hospital.

There were several other children in the room. The only furniture was a two-burner oil stove and a few unwashed pots and pans, a few old clothes and boxes.

I don't know how long it had been since the children had eaten but there was no cooked food in the house, only some dried beans and rice and things like that.

Although the weather was cold there was no heat. The children surely did not look over nourished.

TO MAKE A LONG STORY short, it turned out the family had come in at the end of the cotton season and the weather had been bad.

The husband had left them in the dug-out a few days before and gone over around Lamesa trying to find a place to take them.

No one knew how to get in touch with him. They were strangers here.

WHEN THE AMBULANCE came a crowd collected to see what was happening and some kindly neighbors took the children in and fed them. The husband came back the next day and as soon as his wife was to travel we helped them with and gas to go on their way.

THIS WAS AN ISOLATED case the social worker finds many cases similar to this....not always transient families; all types.

I noticed in a paper where Aid To Families of Dependent Children stood a chance to be cut by $120 per month to $106. This means a mother with three children have to live on $106 per month.

The same article said minimum rent in Houston was $33 per month. It isn't quite that much here for a family of four it will cost at least $50 per month for lights, water, and gas through winter. This leaves only $56 per month for everything else, including food. You can see that a welfare check is a supplement at the most.

THE SAME ARTICLES show the number of families on welfare had increased the last few months. This always happens in the winter.

More people get sick when they are out of work and the weather is bad. There are less jobs now, but more worry and more sickness.

I hate to see any welfare program cut. It means old people blind people, sick people and dependent children will suffer most.

THE WORD "WELFARE" has become a dirty word and we live in a second and third generation welfare. Second and third generations still on welfare is the usual rather than the usual. Most people had rather work if they physically able.

I have known many people who had to take help temporarily but are now among our finest citizens. I also know many people who are bodied who are not.

Conditions such as diabetes and heart disease are not detected by the average person.

PAUL HARVEY

News Distortion

RECENTLY SEN. George McGovern was being interviewed on the David Frost TV show. When the senator mentioned Ted Kennedy as a potential presidential candidate, the audience booed.

The boo was eliminated from the tape before the program was aired.

ONE REMEMBERS that the name of George Wallace has been booed on that program and THAT was never eliminated.

And THAT is the sort of thing Vice President Agnew has been talking about.

This is not intended to single out one TV talk show except as an example: most New York-based offerings persist in promoting the liberal-ism, however more subtly since Agnew's remonstrance.

WHEN THE Vice President toured 11 Asian nations, worldwide news services led almost every story with a mention of "demonstrations."

It was a pitiful handful of protesters who sought to embarrass our Vice President in Canberra, Australia, but here is the way UPI led its account of his visit there: "A protest barrage of tomatoes spattered on the bulletproof surface of Vice President Spiro T. Agnew's limousine...."

ACTUALLY, the limousine was unoccupied at the time. The Vice President was nowhere near.

A few shouts of "Fascist Pig" and "Go Home Spiro" were drowned out by cheering multitudes, but that noisy handful of not more than 40 persons got itself reported and quoted sufficiently to distort the whole world's important first impression of the events of that busy and productive day.

Other news services were equally myopic in their coverage of other steps. AP anticipated "hostile demonstrations to include some of our own Peace Corpsmen" in Afghanistan.

A FEW HIPPIE-TYPE demonstrators, not including any Peace Corpsmen, in that ocean of turbaned, gaily robed Afghans waving American flags, were utterly unworthy of the worldwide mention and attention they received.

And this is the kind of distortion Agnew has been talking about.

The National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence (the so-called Milton Eisenhower Commission) accused the news media of TROUBLEMAKING.

THE COMMISSION said the news media have "contributed to the widespread use of confrontation as an instrument of social change."

Now, the report concludes, "A crisis of confidence exists between the American people and their news media."

THE LAST GALLUP POLL seconds that notion. A majority of adults questioned felt the TV networks "favor one side" when presenting news dealing with political and social issues, a higher proportion believed that newspapers "favor one side".

John Macy, president of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, says, "Americans are seeing more news and believing it less."

NOW--IF THERE were a sinister top-level conspiracy designed to distort what you see and hear, you would not now be seeing and hearing Paul Harvey.

The Eisenhower Commission says the press should provide MORE interpretive reporting on social problems and should display fairly and clearly opinions, analyses and solutions from a wide variety of people.

THAT--AND NO MORE--is what Mr. Agnew was recommending.

SPRINGLAKE-EARTH'S Jimma Banks (20) does a basketball ballet with an Iran forward in the regional tournament at Lubbock Saturday. Jimma's twin sister, Jenna, watches the fancy footwork. The S-E girls lost out in the opening round of play, 50-38.

LHS Volleyballers Capture WTSU Tournament Trophies

Once again the Littlefield girls brought home wins from out-of-town games.

The Volleyball teams brought home with them the first place trophy and consolation trophy from the West Texas State University Tournament at Canyon.

The junior varsity started the action of the day facing Childress A team first. They won their first game 15-10 only to come back and lose the second one 10-15. In the third game of the match, time ran out at a score of 12-12.

After bouncing back and forth trying at 13-13 and 14-14, Childress took the match 16-14 placing the B team in the consolation bracket.

Iris Oberlechner was high pointer of the match making 12 points.

In their second match of the day, our JV faced Canyon A team. The girls won the first two games 15-9, 15-4, to knock Canyon A out of the race.

Carolyn Gray was high point with 17 for the match. In the second game, she scored nine straight points to demolish Canyon.

The game that decided the consolation winner was between Childress B and Littlefield B teams. Littlefield took it by winning two games straight 15-4, 15-10, playing solid defense.

Linda Hill, Brenda Feagley and Carol Chisholm led the scoring for this match with six each. Becky Broadus was right behind them with five points.

These six girls plus two freshmen, Pat Glazener and Cheryl Carter, made it possible for Littlefield to bring home two of the three trophies awarded.

The junior varsity record stands at 6-2.

In the varsity matches, the first team Littlefield had to meet was the Canyon B team.

As time ran out in the first game, Littlefield had taken it 10-7. Coming from behind six points, Mary Wilson put seven straight on the board to make Littlefield's win. Sharon Gray added the other three. The fems also came back to win the second game 15-5.

Miss Wilson was lead point for the match with eight followed by Vollena Francis with six.

The hardest match of the day for the Cats was next, battling Hereford's A team. The Cats took an early lead in the first game, but let the Whitefaces catch them at 12-12. With pressure on them the girls went on to win 15-12.

Sandra Carter was high pointer for this match making seven points with Miss Francis scoring six.

The second game was won with the score 15-3.

Littlefield entered the championship bracket against the Hereford B team.

In the first game the girls outscored them 15-8 killing Hereford with serves and spikes.

In the second game, Lisa Volpe pulled them out of the fire making five straight points to lead them to a 15-9 win.

Miss Carter was again leading pointer for this match with seven.

Other team members who made that first place trophy possible were Luanne Lucas and Junnie Gray, who made points for LHS by spiking at the net.

Tonight, the girls play host to Seagraves with the freshmen game beginning at 6:30 followed by the B then A teams.

Follett girls out-reached and out-jumped the Spade six in the regional tournament Saturday night to beat the Lamb County team out of a berth in the state finals.

Spade's fems tied the game twice and came within three points of becoming Region I girls basketball champs in the regional playoff at Levelland this week, but won the Region I second place trophy at the South Plains Texan Dome.

Two 5' 11", three 5' 9", three 5' 7" Follett girls out-reached, out-grabbed and re-bounded over the smaller home town team, 50-47, to gain the regional championship title and represent Region I at the state level.

Follett grabbed a six-point lead before Spade got on the score board Saturday night, leaving the Longhorns on the debit side of the 16-10 first period score. Spade girls then matched Follett point for point in the second and third quarters, knotting up the score twice in the second period. Belinda Thompson tied the game the first time at 15-15 with a free throw, Debbie Myers slapped in a field goal to tie the score again at 23-23.

Trailing by six at the beginning of the fourth period, the Longhorns halved the loss before the final buzzer, ending their season 27-8.

The Follett team averaged four inches taller and 18 pounds heavier than Spade, making jump shots and rebounds costly for the Longhorns.

Christie Adams led the championship game scoring with 19, Belinda Thompson connected on 18 and Debbie Myers added 10, Belinda Thompson collected 73 points in the three regional tournament games, scoring 29, 26 and 18. Christie Adams totaled 64 for the three-game series, tossing in 26, 19 and 19.

Bonnie Thompson, Linda Hopper and Ginger Cooper were the hard fighting Spade guards, Belinda Thompson and Ginger Cooper are the only Longhorn seniors with the remainder of the team returning next year.

VICTORIOUS SMILES followed Spade's win over Forsan and Loop in the regional tourney.

SPADE FORWARD Debbie Myers fights for possession of ball in the opening Forsan tilt.

OFFICIAL LHS NEWSPAPER

Class Favorites Show Versatile Personalities

Thursday, Feb. 19 and Friday, Feb. 20, "favorites" were elected by each class. Senior Favorites are Evah Tucker and Steve Owens, junior favorites are Rachel Harlan and Kim Hill and sophomore favorites are Carla Owens and Jay Trammell.

Evah Tucker is that smiling girl with frosty brown hair and gray eyes whom you have seen in LHS since she moved here in October of 1967. Church and school activities take up a great deal of Evah's time. She was active in helping start the recently opened Teen Town, is a member of the tennis team, Kat Klub and National Honor Society.

Evah loves to travel. She enjoys playing tennis and basketball for fun. Her less vigorous interests include sewing and knitting. Evah considers being elected as senior class favorite a "very special honor".

Steve Owens stands six foot one, with blonde hair and blue eyes. His two letters in football, two in basketball and two in track are proof of his love of almost all sports.

Besides football, basketball and track, baseball rates as one of his favorite sports.

When asked what it feels like to be elected as a class favorite, Steve replied, "I am really elated. This is about the most meaningful honor I have ever received."

Honors are plentiful on Steve's record. Besides lettering in sports already mentioned, he was football captain, has received three English sweaters and honorable mention in All-District, and is on the West Texas Academic Football Team.

Steve has been a member of the National Honor Society for two years and was its president for one semester.

He is active in Boy Scouts, United Methodist Youth Fellowship and Student Council.

Rachel Harlan, after attending LHS for one and one-half years, feels "very flattered" by being elected as a junior class favorite. Rachel has long, blonde hair and green eyes.

She is secretary of the junior class and has received superior ratings in band contests.

After her duties as hospital-ity chairman of the Business

Club, Rachel enjoys reading. When she has had enough music from listening to records and playing the piano, she likes to make her own music in the wind -- flying kites.

Kim Hill likes to take time out for almost any kind of hunting after football and basketball.

He has brown hair, blue eyes and is six foot one inch tall. Kim stays busy working on Student Council activities and is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He has one rather unusual interest--he likes to "mess with snakes".

Kim was a little surprised, but thinks it is "really great" that his friends elected him as a junior class favorite.

"Five foot two, eyes of blue" would very well describe Carla Owens, sophomore class favorite.

Carla was a twirler for two years in junior high and made superior ratings with her clarinet at solo and ensemble contests. Spare time activities for Carla include sewing, twirling and working for Mr. Fred Wright at Wright's Drug.

A member of FTA and the Spanish Club, Carla feels "really excited and happy to be chosen a class favorite".

With blonde hair, brown eyes, and standing five foot nine inches tall, Jay Trammell enjoys all kinds of sports, especially football and basketball. He likes to fish, but summer days will often find him water skiing.

JUNIOR CLASS Favorites--Rachel Harlan and Kim Hill.

Jay is active in Boy Scouts and has a job to keep him occupied on Saturdays. He also gives a lot of time to church activities as a member of the First Baptist Church.

Jay has attended school here for six years, moving here from Seagraves.

Concerning his recognition as class favorite, Jay says, "It is a great feeling."

Petitions bearing 25 signatures for class favorites were turned in to the office on Wednesday, Feb. 18. The first election was the following day with run-offs held Friday.

Fain Wins FTA State Office

Jan Christian officiated the meeting of the Future Teachers of America Monday, Feb. 16, in room eight.

Those members who attended the State Convention Feb. 13 and 14 gave reports about the workshops they attended. It was stated that approximately 4,000 students attended the convention.

The highlight of their activities was Margaret Fain being elected State recording secretary. Her duties will consist of taking minutes of all the state meetings of the executive officers of the FTA all year. To do this she will have to make trips to Austin for the meetings, along with Mrs. Daphne Smith, sponsor of FTA.

Margaret realized, when she won the office she would have to meet many responsibilities, but was excited about winning the office because it would be a good experience.

Margaret stated, "I would have never won if it had not been for my twin sister Kelly," who went along as her campaign manager.

Margaret will be installed sometime in April and her term will last until April 1971.

While in Fort Worth, Miss Christian, a senior, attended the workshop concerning programs. A film about the beginning teacher and her problems was shown. The discussion was led by El Paso's Burgess High School students.

Kelly Fain, a junior, attended the workshop on parliamentary procedure.

Terry Walker, a senior, attended the workshop on drugs and enrichment. Miss Walker listened to a guest speaker who had gone to prison because of his use of marijuana.

Dena Reast, a junior, went to the workshop which was concerned with Special Education.

A film on mental retardation was shown at this workshop.

Carol White, a sophomore, attended the scrapbook workshop. One of the things that was stressed at this discussion was to do the cover of one's scrapbook in either FTA or school colors. FTA colors are red, black and white.

Members were prompted to begin working for points to enable them to attend the state convention next year. They were also reminded that the people who attend the state convention are the ones who have the highest number of points as well as attend the district convention.

Many members this year had a high number of points, but they had not attended the district convention. Consequently, even those who had the most points, could not attend the state convention.

At the next meeting, March 16, a joint meeting of the surrounding FTA chapters will be held and the President of the Student Education Association at Texas Tech will be the guest speaker.

SEA is a college extension of the high school organized FTA. The FTA chapters of the following schools will be present: Levelland, Springlake-Earth, Sudan and Muleshoe.

A committee was appointed to supply the refreshments at this meeting. The committee is Amy Owens, Linda Horn, Carla Owens and Timmie Campbell.

ESP, Your Sixth Sense

Have you ever started to say something and your best friend said it first? Can you communicate with a boy's subconscious and get him to ask you out? Have you ever picked up the phone to call a friend, just as he called you? Can you concentrate on an object and make it fly through the air?

Sound funny? Well, these things have happened to other people. If they sound familiar to you, you may have extrasensory perception.

What is ESP? It is often called a person's sixth sense. It is an image that comes to your mind out of the clear blue. Experiences in ESP probably have happened to almost everybody.

There are four basic types of ESP.

The first is precognition of foretelling the future. An example of this would be dreaming about a dress and later finding it in a store.

You want a boy to ask you out. You concentrate on it and he finally gets your message due to telepathy or mind to mind communication.

If you imagine a certain letter to be waiting in the mail box and you find it there, it was due to a kind of ESP known as clairvoyance. This is the communication between mind and object or event.

The fourth kind of ESP is psychokinesis. It is the power of mind over matter. You have a date this weekend and you catch

Speaker Entertains Students

Mr. Gaylon Ammons, a court reporter from Bismarck, N. D., entertained the shorthand class by telling them of the promising career a person can have as a court reporter.

Mr. Ammons stated that a shorthand reporter takes down word for word everything that is said at a trial or hearing with the help of a shorthand machine.

"Court reporters are in great demand because a trial cannot be held without one," he stated.

Mr. Ammons demonstrated to the class the operation of the shorthand machine.

He stated that Plainview's Court Reporting School taught students from all over the United States. This school is well known because of its quality of training, according to Mr. Ammons.

LHS Welcomes Soph. Newcomer

Recently LHS welcomed a newcomer in the form of Judy Curry, a green-eyed blonde from South Houston High School, in Houston. The five foot seven sophomore likes fried shrimp, the color pink, the Iron Butterfly, Cream and enjoys an occasional game of tennis.

Judy likes the cordial atmosphere at LHS and especially likes the open campus.

She agrees with other LHS students in the opinion that a half hour is too short a lunch period.

LHS and the SKAT staff wish to extend a hearty welcome to Judy Curry.

The students who registered to take the test are Kay Armistead, Lynn Barton, Sandra Carter, Marsha French, Wayland Hutto, Kathie McBride, Dena Reast, Ken Richardson, Robert Rodriguez, Patricia Sanders, Mike Talburt and Gene Williams.

Foreign Language Creates Skill

The Foreign Language Department consists of two different types of languages, Spanish and Latin.

The Spanish and Latin Departments are headed by Mrs. Elizabeth Ayres. Mrs. Ayres has been teaching these subjects 26 years.

She has been teaching in Littlefield High School for 20 years. Mrs. Ayres received her Bachelor of Arts degree at Texas Tech and the University of Texas.

She believes to understand a language, one can understand one person, to understand two languages, one can understand two people and to understand many languages, one can understand many people.

Mrs. Ayres emphasizes in her teaching that whether boy or girl, the student is more significant in any subject.

She teaches approximately 100 students and is also in charge of University Interscholastic League.

Mrs. Ayres learned Spanish as a child. It was easy to speak for her. She liked it and has enjoyed teaching it.

To her, Spanish has opened avenues to many varied friendships and associations.

New Camaro. Feb. 26th.

We've never announced a car at this time before. But then nobody's ever announced a car like this before.

Super Hugger

If it were an ordinary sportster, we'd have introduced it at the ordinary time.

Instead, we took the time to build a whole new Camaro.

We started with a sleek new shape and a low road-hugging stance.

And added more hood. A faster fastback. Wider doors. And new deeply contoured bucket seats.

The instrument panel wraps around you. With enough dials to make you think you're piloting a 747.

There are four transmissions. And six power plants up to the Turbo-Jet 396 V8 that you can order.

Pick the one that best suits your driving. Then go pick on an open road.

And make it one with plenty of twisting turns. Because Camaro has a remarkable new suspension. And standard front disc brakes for a leech-like grip on the road.

New Camaro. The Super Hugger.

Other sportsters always feared it might come to this.

And they were right. Only their timing was wrong.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

See it. At your Chevrolet Sports Dept.

Local Taxpayers Claim $1,990 In Deductions

How large are the tax deductions claimed by Lamb County residents in their Federal income tax reports, compared with those taken by people in other parts of the country? What are the normal deductions, at each income level, for contributions, taxes, medical expenses and interest payments? These questions, of importance to taxpayers who are putting such figures together for the 1969 reports, are answered in a study made by the Commerce Clearing House, specialist in taxes and business law, on the basis of data obtained from the Treasury Department.

It shows that, in general, families throughout the United States that have incomes equal to the Lamb County average list deductions of about $1,990, equivalent to 18 percent of their total earnings. The percentages vary with income, it is found. They range from 14 percent to 22 percent. The deductions taken by low-income families represent a bigger proportion of their earnings than is the case in high-income families. For Lamb County families with incomes above or below the local average, the deductions will vary accordingly. Those who are in the $9,000 class, for example, will be deducting approximately $1,720 if they have had normal outlays. For those at the $5,500 level the deductions will be about $1,210. A breakdown of the deductions ordinarily taken by families with incomes equal to the Lamb County average shows that $302 represents contributions, $690 is for interest on installment and other debt, $652 for state and local taxes and $346 for medical expenses. As for contributions, because the government picks up part of the tab via deductions, the net cost of such donations is reduced considerably, the study shows. For an individual with a taxable income of $18,000, for instance, each dollar contributed costs him only 50 cents. The Custom Clearing House points out that the figures are only a guide to what most people are listing as tax deductions and that proper records must be available to back up all claims.
