21ST ANNUAL REUNION

Pioneers Gather Tuesday

Lamb County Pioneers have their big day Tuesday when the carpet of welcome will be rolled to all old-timers in Lamb County Pioneers Reunion.

FRED LICHTER

Registration will begin at 2 in the front of the Community Center, located at the corner of West Third and Ripley Streets.

A huge barbecue, to be served at 6 p.m., will be one of the highlights of the evening when a 900-pound beef, donated by Security State Bank, will be served with all the trimmings. Lamb County Locker donated its services in curing and processing the beef.

More than 400 of the county's early residents are expected for this year's annual reunion, and several new members are expected to be enrolled. Requirement for membership in the organization is that the individual has lived in Lamb County 25 years or longer, or that he or she was a resident here at least 25 years ago.

for play parties, square dances and ice cream suppers in the summer time. The boys enjoyed hunting ducks, coyotes, rabbits and various wild game. Riding wild horses and steers was the most exciting entertainment for the onlookers.

"Changes from the open spaces on the prairies to the now green fields of irrigated land is one of the biggest differences from the early days," Lichte says.

"We used to travel 30 to 40 miles a day, and now we step in our modern cars and cross the state." "Where there was only two store buildings, a land office and yellow house hotel, now we have a town of modern businesses, motor hotels, swimming pools, schools, churches and lovely homes," Lichte said in comparing the times.

In conclusion, Lichte complimented the area by saying, "All in all we have a wonderful county, with friendly industrious people, who are lovely to be associated with." Lichte was married to the former Inez Brewer in 1927, and they have one son, Leslie Lichte, and one daughter, Mrs. Verma Carter. They have six grandchildren.

Serving with Lichte this year as officers are Eldon Franks of Olton, vice-president; Lyle Brandon of Littlefield, secretary; and Sid Hopping of Littlefield, treasurer.

Directors are L. L. Uselton of Amherst; R. L. Byers Jr. of Springlake; Mrs. Bonnie Haberer of Pleasant Valley; Mrs. Myrtle Clayton of Springlake and Ray Smith of Spade.

Visiting will be the order of the day, but a planned program will begin at 3:30 p.m. and will feature musical numbers by Zed Robinson of Muleshoe, fiddlers from Pleasant Valley; and a square dance exhibition, with Cliff Smith calling.

Mayor J. E. Chisholm will give the welcome. Judge I. B. Holt of Olton will give the invocation, and Judge G. T. Sides will give a memorial tribute to pioneers who have died during the past year. Gold ribbons will be given to those who have been in the county 50 years, and gifts will be presented to the pioneers who travel the farthest distance to come to the reunion, to the oldest man and woman present, and to the pioneer who has resided in the county the longest.

LITTLEFIELD LETTER CARRIERS will soon be able to take a load off their shoulders when they begin delivering city mail in these three new Jeep dispatchers. They arrived in Littlefield Friday afternoon and will go into service in about a week, when the drivers get their standard Form 46 licenses. The service is expected to speed mail deliveries—especially parcel post—to residential areas. Shown with the vehicles are postal personnel, Donnie Howell, George Thompson, and McKinley Bray.

Walking Mailmen To Get 'Wheels'

Littlefield postmen who ordinarily "hot-foot" mail to residences on three full residential routes, will soon be able to take a load off those feet-and shoulders—when they begin riding to and from their rounds in mini-sized Jeeps.

When he gets to his route area, the Jeep will be parked while he makes delivery of a handful of mail in that area—no more heavy mail pouches over the shoulder. After he completes one delivery, he will move the Jeep to another area until delivery is complete. "We're hoping the vehicles will help speed up mail deliveries—particularly parcel post, which has been delivered separately from the regular mail," Thompson said.

The Jeeps have a four-cylinder Chevrolet motor with a two-speed Chevrolet Power-glide transmission. The mini-Jeeps have a short 81-inch wheel base, with tires placed 52 1/2 inches wide.

Pioneer Natural Gas Co. Asks For Rate Increase

Pioneer Natural Gas Company has made application to officials of all the cities in West Texas system—Lamb County—for adjustment in the company's general service rate for gas delivered to domestic and commercial customers in those cities.

Littlefield Mayor J. E. Chisholm stated Friday that he and the city councilmen are studying the application and will take action prior to the deadline for a response.

The application stated that, if the 56 cities acted affirmatively within the 60-day period provided by law, the company would accept a rate increase of 16.2 per cent, rather than the 19.4 per cent requested.

In announcing the rate request, K. B. Watson, executive vice president of Pioneer said, "With the rising costs the company has sustained, it is in immediate need of additional revenue. To avoid any further delay and expense, an increase of 16.2 per cent would be acceptable although a rate increase of 19.4 per cent would yield less than a 7-3/8 per cent return on the fair value of the company's investment. As an indication of the problem," Watson continued, "the company was forced to pay an interest rate of 9-1/2 per cent on its recent borrowing of $20 million."

It was further pointed out that the Texas Railroad Commission had determined the proper charge for gas at the edge of the cities to be 32 cents effective July 1, 1970, up from 28 cents. "This rate adjustment will not result in increased revenue until the burner tip rate is changed."

"The rate increase was allowed in recognition of the company's increased cost in getting the gas to the communities through its transmission system. It does not include any consideration for the higher costs of distributing the gas within the cities," Watson said. The company pointed out that either of the proposed rates could be maintained in the foreseeable future. The company has recently connected two new areas of large potential gas supply which places it in a good position to meet the increased competition for future gas production," the letter stated.

Company officials have recently met with the committee that represented the cities in the rate proceedings before the Railroad Commission and with some of the city officials to advise them of the rate request. "We are inviting, and anticipate, immediate studies of our records and other information supporting this application," Watson said.

Theft Cases Investigated

City police have been investigating a rash of theft, vandalism and breaking and entering cases this past week.

Joy Parker at Parker Texaco reported Tuesday that someone had filed a lock on a Coke box and took $5 in change.

Wednesday Clint Penn reported that entry to the Little Diner or Blue Moon had been gained by knocking the pastebord out of a west window.

A cigacette machine was damaged, $8.25 in cash was taken, and other vandalism resulted in a total of $45.75. Benny Goss reported Wednesday that a light blue Schwinn boy's bicycle with a white banana seat had been taken from in front of his house sometime between 9 and 11 p.m. The serial number on the bike is H445905.

had climbed over the south fence around Crescent Swimming Pool sometime late Wednesday or early Thursday.

They gained entry into the building through a window that had been left unlocked.

Taken in the burglary were a public address system and $20 in cash from the jukebox.

Friday, V. M. Peterman of the Rocky Ford community reported that a yellow Chevrolet wheel mounted with an 845X15 tire had been taken from his 1966 Chevrolet pickup while it was parked on XIT Drive behind Thornton's Cafeteria.

Police jailed one adult male Thursday, charged with creating a disturbance. He paid his fine and was released.

One adult male is still in jail serving out his fine for drunk in public. He was jailed Saturday, Aug. 15.

Farmer Needs No Aid

By NILAH RODGERS
Leader-News Staff Writer
Who says a farmer can't make it without growing cotton and going along with the government program and subsidies? Merrill Brigrance, that's who. "I quit raising cotton 12 years ago," Brigrance said. "I don't want any more of it."

TEEN TOWN is a dues paying member of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce now. Sally Davidson displays a C-C membership card after adding Teen Town to the Chamber's list of members. Miss Davidson was the summer secretary at the C-C office and was instrumental in getting the group with 100 members to join in boosting Littlefield. Miss Davidson will be a freshman at Temple Buell College in Denver, Colo. this fall.

And as far as the government subsidies go, Brigrance says he wouldn't have it if they gave it to him. He plants what he wants to plant when he wants to plant it and harvests or not as he pleases and it's nobody's business but his own.

Brigrance's holdings of about 5,000 acres run from one side of the sandhills to the other between Hart Camp and Olton. With some of the best water there is in the country, almost any crop can be grown here and irrigated with rolling sprinklers.

Brigrance grew cucumbers three years. This year he is growing 145 acres of russet potatoes. These are the white spuds used for baking and french fries. Potatoes dug yesterday are being served today with steaks in some of the best restaurants across the country.

Brigrance said it costs 10 times as much to grow potatoes (as compared to the same acreage in cotton), that the risk is 10 times higher than in conventional crops, but the profit 10 times more if you win the gamble.

The 'taters are sold on the free market without any government guarantee, and you get the impression that he wouldn't have a spud growing if Uncle Sam had a hand in the potato business.

Bill Hill owns the shed at Hart where the potatoes are graded, sacked and sold, and the two have formed a partnership in the spud growing.

The potatoes are being harvested now, and Brigrance plans to follow the crop with winter pasture for his cattle.

For all the cattle, Brigrance didn't grow a stalk of grain this year. Instead, all the cultivated land is in wheat and cattle are grazing the stubble.

Brigrance started farming and ranching before he went into the service in 1941. He sees the day when all the sandhills from here to New Mexico will have the tops knocked off them and be in irrigated cultivation. "Maybe not in my lifetime," he said, "but the time is coming when crops will be growing on all of this."

Brigrance cleared and broke another quarter section this year and is in the process of putting in a new well.

Conservation minded, Brigrance served on the Lamb County SCS board of directors five years. "But I just didn't have the time to devote to it," he said.

Watermelons, Bad Or Good?

A warning was issued here Saturday morning by B. T. Kisner of the Soil Conservation Service, of possible poisoning from stolen watermelons.

Several farmers in the area are raising watermelons for seed and have sprayed them with long-lasting insecticides which fight fungus and insects as well.

Kisner has talked with area farmers about the situation and reports that reactions to the poisoning may not appear until months or years later. "Unless you know for sure the environment melons are growing in, it's best not to take one from the field," Kisner emphasized.

WATCH OUT FOR KIDS

Littlefield and Lamb County motorists are being urged to be mindful and on the alert for children who will be crossing streets on their way to school next week.

Littlefield citizens are especially asked to take care in driving habits because of conditions of the streets. "Because of the loose gravel, motorists must begin stopping sooner than they would otherwise, or they will skid into the intersection," Police Chief F. A. Fitzgerald emphasized.

"Although speed limit signs near the school spell out a 20 m.p.h. limit, we believe citizens will drive at a prudent speed because of the conditions," Fitzgerald said.

According to City Manager Pat Bradley, the crosswalks leading to the schools will not be painted for about two months, when the streets are settled. "We want to urge motorists to SLOW DOWN for the safety of our kids," he emphasized.

Visits With Mother
MR. AND MRS. Cleo Aduddell of Hollister, Calif. visited the past week with her mother, Mrs. Nettie Blackman, at the West Plains Nursing home in Muleshoe. They also visited with the Buddie Blackmans of Muleshoe and the John Blackmans at Bula. Other children of Mrs. Blackman's to visit with her were Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Blackman and Mrs. W.T. Carter of Lovington.

... IF A HORSE WINS 3 TIMES!

There's an old Chinese proverb (at least we think it's Chinese) that reads something like this:

- If horse wins once — that's luck.
- If horse wins twice — that's coincidence.
- If horse wins 3 times - better bet that horse!

What's the moral to that story? If we were able to please only a handful of customers only once or twice it might be luck or coincidence. But the fact that hundreds of customers are enjoying our service - and are bringing their work to us consistently, for their laundry and linen service, seems to indicate that you can bet on Littlefield Steam Laundry and Linen Service for top quality work and service.

We'd like to make a little suggestion to you. The next time you have need for laundry or linen service - drop the problem in our laps! You get a cordial greeting - courteous treatment - a fair and reasonable price - and a first class job. We think that's a combination that's hard to beat - and apparently plenty of our customers think so too!

Our Unending Service Consists Of:

- * Free Pickup and Delivery
- * Complete Laundry Service
- * Dust Control
- * Complete Commercial and Institutional Linen Service.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Courage Now

By BOB WEAR

BEING AFRAID now and then is part of being human, and there is much in our world to cause fear.

"FEAR IS IMPLANTED IN US as a preservative from evil; but its fury, like that of other passions, is not to overbear reason, but to assist it."

It should not be permitted to tyrannize in the imagination, to raise phantasms of horror, or to beset life with superfluous distresses.

THERE WILL BE SOME FEAR, but we cannot live under the domination of fear.

If we live anywhere near a satisfactory life, we must learn to be courageous: not foolishly, but courageously.

This doesn't mean that we are blind to dangers, but that we give ourselves the best we can and continue to live in the strength of good courage.

"Isn't life that matters: it's the courage you bring to it," Hugh Walpole.

IF FEAR BE THE TOTAL motivation for action, the action is going to be disastrous. Such domination of a life will de-vitalize, and dissipate the essential life elements.

It will also help create the climate in which evil and wrong grow bolder and expand beyond all limits. There is a better way.

COURAGE CAN BE ACQUIRED if we are willing to put forth the effort, and accept the life discipline which produces it.

It is closely related to faith, a clear conscience and a proper sense of values.

"TRUE COURAGE is the result of reasoning. Resolution lies more in the head than in the veins; and a just sense of honor and infamy, of duty and of religion, will carry us farther than all the force of mechanism."--Collier

THE TIMES DEMAND courageous living, but this has always been true. None but the courageous truly live.

Someone has well said, "The courageous die only once, but the cowardly die a thousand times."

THE REAL JOYS and enduring satisfactions of living are reserved for those who live courageously. The cowardly find the good in life to be very elusive.

Carlyle has given us a workable guideline: "The courage we desire and prize is not the courage to die decently, but to live manfully."

THE ONLY SOUND BASIS for courage is an enduring faith. In the absence of this faith, there is absolutely no foundation for moral courage.

We will find, in the experience of life, that our courage to live victoriously will increase as our faith increases.

Therefore we must put our minds to the right things, and put the right things in our minds.

CHRISTIANITY, the abundant life, is essentially and fundamentally the life of courage.

We cannot be courageous just because we think it is desirable to be so; but with sufficient effort, we can learn to be of good courage now. This courage is not the absence of fear, but is, rather, the triumph over fear.

A LIFE IS NOT IN VAIN as long as it lives and dies in the strength and resolution of good courage.

Quarterback Club Meets Tuesday

Littlefield Quarterback Club will hold its second meeting of the year Tuesday night at 8 p.m. at the high school cafeteria.

A WOMAN'S VIEW

Another Skin

By PEARL BRANDON

THEY TELL ME in order to be a good writer you must be able to get into the skin of other people and see the world from their eyes.

TRYING TO IMAGINE what it would be like living in that poor deformed body really put me to thinking.

How would it feel dragging those poor crippled legs around all day and having people turn away from me, or look at me in pity.

He was little more than a child and surely didn't look very rich. As he watches other active young people he must ask, "Why did this happen to me?"

ONCE KNEW a man whose health was very poor and he had a large family to feed.

He was out of work most of the time. I would see him in the cafe about mid-morning drinking a glass of milk.

I wonder what it would be like living in that pale, thin body, nursing an ulcer and trying to support a large family.

It isn't much fun trying to get into the skin of suffering humanity, and trying to imagine their story.

How must Jesus have felt when He looked out over the poor multitudes crowded around Him, begging to be healed, or trying to touch the hem of His garment.

All day He worked with the dusty crowds and "when even was come they brought unto Him many that were possessed with devils; and He cast out the spirits with His word, and healed all that were sick."

I CAN'T HEAL the handicapped negro boy or the sick man with the large family to support; sometimes I wish I could.

I wish I had the power to help all suffering humanity. I don't have that power though, and wouldn't know how to use it if I did, but I can point them to the same Jesus that walked here among men and healed them of divers diseases, made the blind to see and cast out devils.

His power is still in the world today and suffering people still have access to it.

MANY TIMES He said, "Thy faith hath made thee whole."

HONNY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

I KNOW of no one piece of equipment so commonly used, and so little understood, and so grossly mistreated, as the family automobile.--There's really no reason for this, other than we're just too lazy (or is too busy) to learn anything about mysterious gadget.

Everybody uses these things (usually, at least two per family) yet they remain one of the biggest puzzles of our lives.

Would it be amiss to suggest that our schools offer, at least one semester of automotive training in our lower grades?--I mean for both sexes.--Say, about grade nine.

NOT, YOU UNDERSTAND, that I think that everyone should be mechanics, (incidentally you call them TECHNICIANS now!) but, wouldn't it be nice if every auto user knew, at least, a little about their transportation?

Sure, I know you leave your car-care to your service station and mechanic, but I know many people that would stay out in the cold, and maybe freeze to death, if help didn't show up, simply because of a loose battery cable.--Many car engines are ruined because of as little things like broken fan belts.

HOW DO YOU know whether you're being fleeced, or not, by your service man or repairman if you know so little about your car?--Take, for instance, the California stationman that got so much kick out of selling antifreeze to Volkswagen owners!--or the fellow that pays a big tow bill just because he had forgotten to release the hand brake!

Usually, you're all right if you're doing business with your hometown people, but be careful about having trouble in strange places.--There's been lots of money spent for engine overhauls, when the trouble was of a very minor nature to start with. (No, my name ain't Nader!)

May as well face it, ALL people ain't honest

THE GUY the fellows out on Route 66 like to see coming, is the one that just jumps in the of family bus and takes off!--Don't even raise the hood to see if the engine is still there.--It's been runnin' pretty good around town, why worry?

I saw a fellow out in the Mojave Desert that made a mint of money just driving the road and offering tow-service to stalled motorists. If you're one of these you can expect to be tooken

OH SURE, the automobile is a very complicated piece of machinery. Might take three to four hours to become acquainted with it, but if you did, it might save you a tub of money!

THE PHILOSOPHER

A Crumble

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has made another startling discovery, he claims.)

Dear editor: The way it looks to me, science has now reached the last straw in claiming to uncover frauds.

It was one thing to have it report breakfast foods don't amount to much (it used to be said that the proof of the pudding is in the eating, but not now; the proof of the pudding now is in its nutritional analysis as reported to a Congressional investigating committee), or that mouth washes are mostly worthless after 5 minutes, or that many cities' water systems are far under par, or that some cars are un-safe, or that one pain pill is about as good as another, but according to an article I read in a newspaper last night, the last pillar of faith has been destroyed.

According to it, a scientist in California is now claiming that ants are lazy.

That's right. He said after studying ant hills scientifically he's found that individual ants spend a great deal of time just loafing, and the females spend a lot of time primping.

When you watch an ant hill you get the notion of a tremendous amount of activity, he said, but that's because there are so many ants and they all look alike. If you single out one and watch him closely, you'll find half the time he isn't working at all.

This is hard to handle. You mean to tell me that despite all the moral illusions throughout the history of man the ant has been no better worker than a grasshopper? Where can a sluggish look to if he can't look to the ants?

And yet come to think of it, the grasshopper, who is said to spend his summer frolicking his time away with no thought for the morrow, seems to be as prevalent today as he was centuries ago.

That does it. I'll tell you the foundations of the world are being undermined. Pass me another bowl of cereal. I'm going to be as busy as an ant today

Yours faithfully, J. A.

DOWN TO EARTH . . . SCHOOL

Celia

By JIMMY R. ALLEN

IT IS AXIOMATIC to every novelist that disaster strips men bare of their pretenses and reveals what they really are.

The unexpected fury of Hurricane Celia's destructive force in Corpus Christi area produced a disaster of major dimensions. Devastation is unbelievable. Houses, businesses and churches are ripped apart. At the same time artificial facades are also torn down.

IN EVERY DISASTER some men are revealed as crassly selfish. Profiteering off human need is as old as mankind. There is always a scheming Jacob to profit from a brother Esau's distress.

Some isolated stories of such profiteering trickle out of the disaster area.

HOWEVER, the overwhelming response is far different. It is a story of shock, disbelief, tears of realized loss, the gathering of resources and moving to meet needs.

Artificial differences of riches and poverty, race, religious divisions all disappear in the energetic commitment to helping hurting people.

DISASTER UNITS of Red Cross National Guard, and some religious denominations which are organized for such emergency, move into action, but they are undergirded by the ready response of volunteers who are eager to give of resources and time to help.

A group of 70 young people of Kansas City, Missouri, were in Corpus Christi on a choir tour. They were to sing at a church. They voted unanimously to cancel the rest of their tour and have been sleeping in the church house basement while working 18 hours a day. They unload and distribute food sent by that church group and do a myriad of tasks which the energy of youth equips them to perform.

THE EFFECTS of Celia are long-range. The task challenging Texans will not be over as the rubble is cleared away.

Rebuilding takes time and resources. Christian citizens, along with others of goodwill, will have ample opportunity to help.

For instance, work groups will be organized by some religious groups to go to the area and actually contribute manual labor in rebuilding churches, children's homes, etc. The gift to organized relief is important, but the gift of self and time is even more satisfying.

DISASTER UNITES men to meet human needs. The story is a thrilling one as well as a sad one. Experience proves that this kind of external pressure is a temporary cohesion.

The deepest bond to unite men should be the internal compulsion of the love of God drawing men to work together to meet needs.

Humanity wallows in the wake of disaster perennially--ignorance, illiteracy, poverty, racism, lawlessness--each takes its toll in human life. Into the rubble of this wasted world we are compelled to go by the love of Christ (II Corinthians 5: 20.)

WE NEED TO disregard artificial and superficial differences and to rescue men.

TWO PICKUPS were involved in a collision Thursday morning at the intersection of Highway 54 and Highway 84 By-Pass. David Earl Pettis of Lubbock was hospitalized after another pickup, driven by James William Rice, pulled from a stop sign into the side of the Pettis pickup, which was traveling northward.

PAUL HARVEY

Polls Worthless?

THE JUNE 18 general election in Britain was called an upset. It sure was. And nobody was more upset than the pollsters who, unanimously, had predicted that Labor would win.

The smoke has cleared now. The recrimination has subsided. The injured egos have been assuaged.

BUT THE CREDIBILITY of public opinion surveys remains much damaged, maybe irreparably.

The Times of London called the recent Tory victory in Britain "the biggest political upset since Truman beat Dewey."

GEORGE GALE, of the London Evening Standard said "No political journalist will ever again allow himself to be bamboozled by the pollsters."

Pollsters, themselves so wrong in their prediction of what would happen, now are trying to explain what they think did happen.

But nobody's listening.

YOU KNOW, a large part of the fascination of an upset derives from seeing the smugness of some so-called experts turned inside-out overnight.

Few human qualities are more generally fettered than supercilious smugness.

Labor Prime Minister Harold Wilson was so certain of re-election that he'd recently sold his family home in northern London, fully expecting to go on living at Number 10 Downing Street.

PART OF THE PUBLIC reaction could have reflected resentment of the superconfidence of the incumbent.

That means the same polls which contributed to their cockiness also mobilized the opposition.

To be told day-after-day that we are going to vote this or that way may engender resistance.

HISTORICALLY it was thought that the average voter liked to ride with a winner. And the more important newspapers endorsed a candidacy, the more voters would be inclined to climb on the winning bandwagon.

Maybe it works the other way, too.

MAYBE THERE ARE an equal or greater number of voters who rally to an underdog when the experts have tried to bury him prematurely, sort of a voter's rebellion at having his secret ballot counted in advance.

And now I am going to sound smug, but old Homer McKee always said "The hen that lays a good egg has a perfect right to cackle."

PAUL HARVEY NEWS has always picked the outcome of national elections five days in advance -- and correctly -- for seven elections, including even the so-called Truman surprise of 1948.

Five days in advance of each election I forward my regular newspaper column to publishers in more than 300 cities with instructions to print it the day after the election -- no matter what.

ONE TIME WRONG and you go the way of the Literary Digest, of course. But the risk is minimized because of almost constant travel in the hinterlands of America.

Recent elections, American pollsters have been catching on, doing more surveying in the provinces,

BUT OUT IN the untrifled nine-tenths of this country that's still country we don't always appreciate having our private opinions made public.

So the people who tell how they are going to vote may not be representative of the larger -- more silent -- majority.

Pastor Receives Service Award

Rev. Clarence Tedder of Whitharral received a public service award this week from the U. S. Weather Bureau for his part in evacuating the Whitharral gym the night the tornado struck Whitharral and other area towns.

Pastor of the Whitharral Baptist Church, Rev. Tedder heard the storm warning on television and rushed from his home to the school gymnasium and hurried about 40 volleyball players and spectators out of the building minutes before the tornado ripped through the town and practically demolished the gym.

Harold Frost, meteorologist in charge of the U. S. Weather Bureau at the West Texas Air Terminal in Lubbock made the presentation to Tedder and to the Department of Public Safety officers and ham radio operators from six towns.

Frost cited the Whitharral preacher for his "decisive action, based on seeing radar storm echoes and hearing Weather Bureau forecasts and warnings on television at your home prevented many injuries and saved many lives. Such efforts help make Weather Bureau warnings effective."

Fertilizer Symposium Slated For Lubbock

"Progress" will be the watchword for South Plains fertilizer dealers who will be participating in the South Plains Development Program (SPD) Fertilizer Dealers' Symposium Wednesday, Aug. 26 in Lubbock.

The symposium will be held at the Holiday Inn East and will get underway at 9:30 a.m., according to County Agricultural Agent Buddy C. Logsdon.

Theme of the morning session will be "Information for Progress" while the afternoon portion will be titled "Managing for Progress".

Fertilizer dealers play a vital role in the agricultural economy of the area and this symposium is planned specifically for them, points out Logsdon.

New ideas will be discussed and a jam-packed session will be held on "how to make more money in the fertilizer business through better management and improved customer-dealer relationships."

Discussions during the morning session will include "Organization and Function of the Texas Plant Food Educational Society (TPFES), Opportunities and Adjustments Facing the Fertilizer Research Now and in the Future and Fertilizer Application Equipment."

Guest speaker following the noon luncheon will be Dr. H. O. Kunkel, dean of the College of Agriculture, Texas A&M University, and acting director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

The afternoon program will include discussions on "Expanding Sales by Diversification, Selling a Service and Managing for Progress."

Featured speakers at the day-long conference will be Ross Irwin of Odessa, president of the TPFES; Bob Landry of Plainview, Bob's Farm Store; and James H. Valentine, James R. Rogers and Marvin O. Sartin, area soil chemist, assistant area agronomist and area farm management specialist, respectively, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Lubbock; Norman Hinchliff of Earth, Farm Chemical Co.; and Kenneth Wolf and Johnny R. Feagan, Extension Service economists, College Station.

Chairman of the morning session will be Billy C. Gunter, Extension district agricultural agent and SPD coordinator. Hinchliff will chair the afternoon portion of the program.

Logsdon encourages all fertilizer dealers in the county to make plans to attend the symposium.

Sponsors for the program, in addition to SPD, are the Extension Service and the TPFES.

Texas is nation's No. 1 producer of chemicals from oil and natural gas.

Jerry Burke Is Appointed To Committee

County Judge G. T. Sides of Lamb County has appointed Jerry Burke of Route 1, Littlefield, chairman of the County Committee on Children and Youth.

Judge Sides acted in response to a request by Walter Richter, chairman of Governor Preston Smith's statewide Steering Committee on Children and Youth.

The Lamb County Committee is intended to give both youth (up to age 24) and adults alike an opportunity to contribute their ideas on the problems of children and youth--and their suggestions for solving them.

These ideas on problems and proposed solutions may be expressed by County Committee delegates in writing to the Governor's Steering Committee in Austin, (Drawer P, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711) or voiced in person at the Governor's Conference on Children and Youth Nov. 2-4 in Austin, Richter said.

With an expected attendance of some 600 persons equally divided between youths and adults, the Governor's Conference is intended to develop "input" of information and ideas from Texas into "no national conferences."

--The White House Conference on Children (0-13), scheduled December 13-15 in Washington.

--The White House Conference on Youth (age 14-24), now set for February 1971, instead of next June as previously announced.

Councilmen Discuss Burning Waste

City councilmen discussed a light agenda Thursday night during their regular session, but completed several important matters of business.

They discussed and approved the burning of cotton waste at Littlefield Farmers' Cooperative Gin, pending approval by the State Air Pollution Board.

An airport lease agreement with Mrs. Georgia Hagley was approved, and she will fulfill the contract of her husband, L.D. Hagley, who was killed July 8 in a plane crash northeast of Littlefield.

Mrs. Hagley will operate the airport and her contract will expire June 30, 1972.

Councilmen received for approval the water purchase contract for city water sale to the Sunnydale Water Supply Corporation, and authorized the mayor to sign the contract.

Appearing before the councilmen in behalf of the Corporation were Ross Lumsden and W. D. Hall.

Dr. Ted Sansom, city attorney, was authorized to correspond with Congressman Bob Price and Senator John Tower concerning the airport grant situation.

Letters -- concerning the grant -- from Senator Tower, Congressman Price and Representative George Mahon were received for filing in city files.

Councilmen approved a request from the Chamber of Commerce that the Oldsmobile, to be given away Aug. 29 in a drawing, be exhibited in two parking spaces on Phelps Avenue.

Councilmen also agreed to have city police provide routine traffic regulations during Littlefield Festivities Days.

Spade Church Slates Meeting

The Church of Christ at Spade has scheduled a gospel meeting, beginning today.

Bob Wear, minister of Crescent Park Church of Christ in Littlefield, will be speaker for the services, and Mack Greenway, minister of the Spade church, will direct the singing.

Weekday services will begin at 8 p.m. and the two Sunday services will start at 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

AREA SERVICEMEN

BENN C. KINSLOW

Marine Master Sergeant Benn C. Kinslow, husband of the former Miss Janie Caldwell of Littlefield, was awarded the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry during ceremonies at Marine Corps Supply Center, Barstow, Calif.

He was cited for outstanding performance of his duties while serving in Vietnam.

Sidewalk Art Show

Littlefield and area artists are making plans to show their handwork at the Fourth Annual Sidewalk Art Festival, to be staged in Littlefield from 4 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. on the west side of Phelps Avenue, on the opening day of Festivities Days, Friday, Aug. 29.

The festival is sponsored by "We, The Women", a civic organization affiliated with the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce, Hart-Thaxton Hardware and the art associations of Littlefield.

Registration will begin at 4 p.m. in the 500 block of Phelps Avenue, and no entry fees will be charged.

Local and area artists may exhibit an unlimited number of works in two divisions--painting and arts and crafts. Each exhibitor is asked to provide his own table or display stand.

Paintings will be divided into three sections: 1. Adult, 2. Junior, (ages 15 to 18), and 3. Intermediate, (under 15).

Prizes in the painting division include: Adult section: first prize, $25 cash plus one $15 frame; second prize, $20 cash plus one $10 frame; and third prize, $10 cash plus one $7.50 frame.

Junior section: first prize, $7.50 frame; and second and third prizes, ribbons of recognition.

Intermediate: first prize, one $5 frame; and second and third prizes, ribbons of recognition.

Only one prize will be awarded in the arts and crafts division--$20 cash.

Only one award will be presented per person, and paintings and crafts exhibited in the 1969 Festival are not eligible for 1970 awards.

The cash awards will be provided by "We, The Women," and frames will be donated by Hart-Thaxton Hardware. Frames won as prizes may be exchanged at Hart-Thaxton for the exact amount in art supplies if the recipient desires.

Selection of winners in the show will be made by popular vote of the viewing public, and votes will be tabulated until 6 p.m. Announcement of the winners will be made shortly after that time, but exhibits will remain on display until 7:30 p.m.

An area will be provided for visiting artists to relax during the showing, and "We, The Women" will provide a food booth, where hot dogs, sandwiches, cakes and drinks will be made available. Proceeds from the food booth will go to help pay for costs involved in the show and for sponsoring other yearly projects of the organization.

A near-by building will be available to house the exhibits in the event inclement weather comes up.

A separate section will be provided for the sale of works that are not entered in the contest and are not being judged.

Co-chairmen for this year's festival are Mrs. R. N. Nicholas, Mrs. J. D. Hagler and Mrs. Hollis Smith.

13 Accidents Investigated

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 13 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of July, according to Sergeant Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person killed, eight persons injured and an estimated property damage of $9,543.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first seven months of 1970 show a total of 63 accidents resulting in three persons killed, 31 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $49,058.

"School days" are here again. The familiar yellow school buses are back on the highways. The Sergeant reminds all motorists of the state law regulating traffic in regard to school buses.

"The driver of a vehicle upon a highway outside of the limits of any incorporated city or town upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding 10 miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children."

A total of 286 scholarships worth $1,667,000 are offered each year to current and former members. These bring a total amount of educational funds given during the last 10 years to $14 million.

WORSHIP IN CHURCH

and get a spiritual lift for the whole week

...what is it dad? To me it seems to be a multitude of jealous people, who have forgotten God, and are experimenting with scientific formulas that could tear us apart. What does it mean — "Am I my brother's keeper?"

What a thought for this age... for men who literally carry our lives in their hands. At best we are confused. The time-table is tipped in favor of total destruction. Why, oh why, will wise men "deaf-ear" God? He said, "I am the way and the truth." He gave us His church where we could learn to love each other more, but many a man refuses to be called to worship. God, have mercy on all those who stray, and help us explain the world through love.

The BEST CROWD to FOLLOW is the CROWD GOING to CHURCH

RANGE PROBLEM

Some 20 million acres of Texas range lands are now suffering from infestations of pricklypear; but they are a problem on another 55 million acres. Severe problems often exist where mechanical brush control methods have been used. Best control measures have been obtained by burning the plants and following with a herbicide. Local county agents can supply detailed information on recommended controls.

Annual Field Day Drawing Scheduled

An expense-paid vacation trip for two to Acapulco, Mexico plus $500 in cash will be awarded to the lucky High Plains Research Foundation member who wins the door prize drawing during opening activities of the 14th Annual Field Day, Sept. 10.

Sponsors making the trip available are Plainview Co-op Congress, City National Bank, and Hale County State Bank.

The drawing will be made during the evening program. Merchandise door prizes also will be awarded.

The Annual Field Day will feature three field stops on the guided tour of Foundation research plots.

As an added feature, Dr. Tom Longnecker has announced that Dennis Mooney, Foundation agronomist, will conduct the Foundation's popular slide program of minimum tillage studies. The slide presentation has been acclaimed by farmers who have viewed the program as stimulating and informative.

This slide presentation will be presented during the afternoon in the Moody building.

"The minimum tillage program has been viewed by approximately 50 different groups and organizations this past year and continues to hold interest as minimum tillage studies prove to be adaptable to the High Plains," Dr. Longnecker said.

In addition to the Field Day activities, a special Farm Equipment Show begins a three-day run at the Foundation on September 10. Some of the latest modern farm equipment will be on display during this special showing.

LCC Students

Register Early

Registration for the fall semester at Lubbock Christian College will be Aug. 24-25, and the semester will end Dec. 15.

This new schedule eliminates the nagging worry of finals soon after the Christmas holidays.

Spring semester registration will be from Jan. 11 to the 13, giving a long, study-free holiday.

Dormitories are open for occupancy Saturday, Aug. 22 and a Faculty-Parents orientation meeting is scheduled for 2 p.m. in the Moody Auditorium on Sunday, Aug. 23.

That evening, there will be a lawn devotional led by members of the Student Senate at 8 p.m. Also on Sunday evening, there will be a President's Reception honoring all the new people on the faculty at 8 p.m. in the Betsy Hancock Campus Center.

On Monday, August 24, orientations for all freshmen and transfer students will be conducted during the day with recreation at the Field House in the evening.

Tuesday, the ACT test will be given for those requiring it, counseling sessions will continue through the day and the annual Faculty-Student Reception will be held between 7:30 p.m. and 9 in the cafeteria.

All freshmen will register in the lobby of the Mabee American Heritage Center on Tuesday, and the Sophomores and juniors will attend important counseling sessions.

Juniors and sophomores will register Thursday and softball games will start at 7 p.m. on the diamond south of the Field House.

Friday, Aug. 28, there will be a short schedule for all classes.

Each class will meet for 20 minutes for class orientation and initial assignment, and regular class schedule starts Monday morning at 8 a.m.

Returning Lettermen - - Olton's Powerhouse

Olton welcomes back 13 lettermen, including three all-district selections, and rather than starting again, head coach Jerry Blakely said the Mustangs "will go from where they left off last year."

Olton sports a strong senior class and this year's team will be a senior team primarily. Built around a nucleus of the 13 returning starters, Blakely says the Mustangs will be a better and stronger team than last year's 5-3-1 team.

Strong points will be the long standing winning tradition, experience and good attitude. Coupled with an iron clad passing game with most of the primary receivers back, color the blue and white Mustangs dark horse in district 3-AA.

The Mustangs were district champs in '67 and '68 and finished second last year, losing the deciding district game to Floydada 21-22 only after a desperation field goal with 50 seconds left.

Fast stepping, slinging QB Steve Stockdale will lead the passing department. Stockdale made All-District and All-South Plains as a sophomore, completed 115 passes last season that accounted for 10 TD's and gained more than 1,650 yards.

Gary "Bull" Durham, a 160-pound senior and one of the Mustang captains, is another All-District returner. "Bull" made All-District guard and corner back last season and won last year's Fighting Mustang Award from his teammates. Although Blakely will play as many as possible one way, Durham will be one of the two way starters.

Jim Key is another All-District letterman and a Mustang captain. A 6'1", 190 pound senior, Key will play center again this year.

The third captain is Johnny Arroyos (5' 11", 175, senior). Arroyos can go both ways as guard or tackle and at defensive end.

Luis Rey is another Mustang with the ability to go offensively and defensively. A 5' 10", 155 pound senior, Rey gives second and third efforts. He can catch in a rough crowd and is sensational at defensive corner back. He is also an All-District and All-South Plains selection.

Senior Mike Parsons (6', 155) is a gifted receiver. He did an adequate job as split end last year. He has good hands and the endurance required of a long distance runner. Parsons placed second in the mile at the state meeting for the past two years.

Defensively, the Mustang will run the Arkansas monster with some variations and many stunts. Last year's defense was largely responsible for the Mustang's success, and Blakely anticipates about the same starting defense this year.

Alfred Garcia is a 6'1", 185 senior tackle and can double as a linebacker. He could be an awesome force to contend with.

Luis Jiminez (5' 10", 185-pound junior) is the other tackle. Jiminez started at offensive tackle when he was a sophomore and big things are expected of him this year and next. Moving these two to defense gives back up power.

Alonzo Springer started defensively last year. A 5' 8", 140-pound senior, he will hold down one of the terminal posts this season.

Emiliano Marquez is recovering from a knee injury and looks good as an end again this year.

David Turner (5' 10", 185, senior) and Marlos May (6', 175 junior) are backs who started defensively last season. If these two boys prove themselves in the backfield, they will give the Mustangs the running balance to complement the splendid passing attack. These two are jostling for FB and when the decision is made the other one will move to defensive end.

All the above mentioned started one or both ways last year and are the nucleus to build around this year.

Good looking newcomers after the first few days of workouts include Jimmy Cannon (G,

Berry (T, 205, soph.), Gayle Long (T, 185 soph.), Keith Workman (B, 185 soph.), Steve Lewis (G, 150 soph.), Workman can catch and adds one more receiver to the passing game. If the Mustang backfield jells, other teams in District 3AA can well expect surprises in the Olton tradition. District 3-AA is one of the strongest AA districts in the state and the winner will likely have a chance to advance in the playoffs further than in the last two or three years. Olton hankers to move with a new bag of tricks fans won't be surprised thing.
