Extension Course To Be Offered

Approximately 300 persons who had expressed an interest in taking extension courses in Littlefield from South Plains College this fall, will not be able to do so because of the disapproval of the extension courses by the Coordinating Board in Austin.

However, one course is being offered this fall. A 12-week course in conversational Spanish will begin Monday, Sept. 11, when registration will be held.

The class will begin at 7 p.m. in the high school building and continue until 9 p.m., with Frank Gonzales of the SPC staff serving as instructor.

Fee for the course is $25.

Other courses which were originally planned were not approved by the Board in Austin because of a ruling that Lit-tlefield is not outside the 45-mile limit of

Weather Dampens Festivities

A 30 per cent chance for rain turned into a steady downpour shortly before noon Friday.

But the skies cleared by the time artists were scheduled to set up their paintings for the sidewalk art show, and by the time the hot dog vendors and all the civic club members arrived with their goodies for the food booths set up along Phelps Avenue, the Chamber of Commerce couldn't have ordered better festive weather.

The weatherman predicted a 30 per cent chance of precipitation again Saturday morning, and before flea market participants could get their wares set up in the booths marked off on the Santa Fe plaza, steady rain fell from a solid overcast and C-C Manger Bill Payne hustled around to find indoor accommodations large enough to house the flea market. The flea market was moved to the compress north of the rail road track for a giant inside sale

All of the youth contests slated in Crescent Park Saturday afternoon were cancelled by 9 a.m. due to the inclement

With the parade, talent show, beard judging contest, and square dance all slated outdoors later in the day, the remainder of Festivities Days looked a little gloomy at press time.

The Leader News will carry complete pictorial coverage of the Fourth Annual Festivities Days in the Thursday edition.

Hundreds View Art In Show

More than 200 pieces of art, including several hundred persons in the Fifth Annual Sidewalk Art Festival in Littlefield Friday afternoon. Rain had threatened the show earlier in the day, but the weather cleared and the show went like clockwork.

Special guests to the show were Congressman and Mrs. George Mahon, who visited with art enthusiasts during the afternoon.

The show was judged two ways this year--by popular vote of the viewing ov private judge's done by Lawanda Murphy of Lubbock.

Mutt Still's "The Door" was judged Best of the Show" by Mrs. Murphy.

Neva Dell Busby of Springlake won a blue ribbon from the judge on her painting of a windmill, and went on to win first place on a huge oil painting of a horse in the popular vote in the Lamb County adults division.

yellow candles. Performing the ceremony was Bill R. Hughes, director of the Church of Christ Bible Chair at South Plains College. The ceremony was held in the Austin Street Church of Christ in Levelland, Monday, Aug. 14.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Dunlap of Levelland. The groom's mother is Mrs. June E. Kiser of Anton. His father was the late Kenneth M. Kiser. Given in marriage by her father, she wore a traditional gown of white Chantilly lace fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline, long tapered sleeves cuffed with a double row of scalloped ruffled lace. The natural waistline was adorned with a satin ribbon with a bow and streamers extending down to the front of the gown. Tiers of scalloped lace extended down the back of the gown extending into a brush train. Her shoulderlength veil of tulle was attached to a Juliet cap of lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white daisies entertwined with baby's breath. The bride wore a blue garter and a white Bible 'borrowed" from Mrs. O. L. Floyd and placed on the kneeling bench. A lucky penny for "something old", and the bridal gown for "something new" completed this tradition.

Serving the bride was matron of honor was Mrs. Cynthia Harris of Lubbock Bridesmaids were Carolyn Cox, cousin of the bride; Rene Dunlap, sister of the bride; (both of Levelland) and Peggy Kiser, sister of the groom of Anton. They wore formal gowns of yellow and white bonded lace designed with an empire waist tied with yellow satin ribbon streamers and wide brimmed yellow hats trimmed with yellow ribbon and daisies. They carried matching baskets of daisies.

Serving the groom as best man was Tommy Clevenger of Anton. Groomsmen were Robbie Kiser, brother of the groom from Anton, David McMasters, cousin of the groom, and Robert Dunlap, brother of the bride (both of Levelland).

Guests were seated by Danny Spradley and Randy McLarty, friends of the groom from Anton. Guests were registered by Mrs. Meloni Boyles of Shallowater.

Wedding music recorded by Kenneth Winegar of Lubbock

The bride and groom continued a tradition in his family by being the fourth generation to be married on this date.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given the couple by the bride's parents at the Church of Christ Bible Chair Building. Attending the bride's table were Mrs. Teresa Clavier, Miss Vickie Cathy and Miss Cindy Barndard of Levelland; Mrs. Susie Martin of Clovis and Mrs. Patti Harmonson of New Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Kiser will make their home at 508 Mauer in Anton following a wedding trip to Tres Ritos, N. M. For the wedding trip Mrs. Kiser wore a purple double-knit dress with white trim and accessories

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

'Thanks For Publicity'

Mr. Wade Warren Littlefield Press P.O. Box 72 Littlefield, TEXAS Dear Wade

Just a note to thank you and your fine staff for the wonderful publicity you have given the Beautification Committee of the Chamber of Commerce You have not only made our efforts easier, but have assured us of success by enlisting the support and cooperation of all the people of Littlefield. Your contribution to the community is most valuable and we want you to know that we appreciate it very much Progress is slow but steady, and I know you will agree that much has already been accomplished. The Steering Committee, and various other sub-committees, meet every Wednesday morning no exceptions in the XIT Room of the Security State Bank at 7:00 a m. We would consider it an honor to have any member of your firm join us. We are always open for any suggestions or constructive criticism. As you know, this is a "year around" continuous effort to try to clean up our city and make it more attractive to customers, visitors, guests, and prospective businesses.

We have just come through a weeklong special campaign to clean up our city, prior to the "Festivities Days," and the "Old Settlers' Reunion." The wonderful cooperation we have received from every phase of social life, civic clubs, and private citizens, is unbelievable. Our people have really come through, and met our highest hopes to an even greater extent than we had ever anticipated. Of course, there is much to be done yet, and there are many bad spots all over town, but then we knew we would never reach 100% perfection. yet it is worth all the effort.

The slogan adopted by our committee-Likable, Livable LITTLEFIELD"-is a catchy one which you will be seeing more of in the future. Bumper stickers in maroon and white are now available with this slogan, and it should help to advertise Littlefield wherever our people go Please encourage your personnel to secure them and use them.

A concentrated effort is now being made to rid our town of the hundreds

Lamb County Leader 1313 W. 4th St. Littlefield, Tex. Dear Mr. Warren

The Texas Employment Commission looks on newspaper articles about its services as a primary vehicle in getting information about our agency and its services over to the many people our operations touch.

On behalf of the Texas Employment Commission, may I thank you for publishing in the Lamb County Leader the information about our programs and operations? You have been most generous and cooperative in this respect. Since we are not funded for paid advertising, we must utilize the good will of public service-oriented organizations such as yours to communicate with the citizenry.

We do appreciate your cooperation and ask for your continued support.

Sincerely s/Roy Wilson Roy Wilson Manager

Children, Beware!

THE SOUND of school bells this fall means a lot of things -the end of summer, completion of school immunizations, a little bit more relaxation for the state's mothers AND uneasiness in sending first graders off to school for the first time.

If that youngster is riding a bicycle to and from school, there are precautions you can take to help ease that fear of an accident, says the Texas State Department of Health.

JUST AS GOOD health rules, such as immunizations, can erase the fear of disease, bicycle safety rules can release the anxieties of the daily to and from school routine, says the State Health

A quarter-million children are en-tering first grade this year, and total school enrollment is expected to reach 2.8 million. This boils down to a lot of congestion during the morning and afternoon school rush

IF YOUR CHILD is planning to bike to school, planning in advance will lessen the possibility of injury

Riders may reduce the chances of having an accident by:

1. Selecting the right size bike -one that is neither too big nor too little- and having it properly adjusted;

2. Keeping the bike in good mechanical condition; 3. Having the required safety equipment; 4 Obeying traffic rules and regulations; and

5. Following safe riding practices

IN TEXASLAST YEAR, there were 275 accidents reported to the Department of Public Safety which involved a bicycle or motor scooter colliding with a motor

There's no telling how many accidents involved only a bicycle and some other object such as a curb, a tree, or another bicycle

PARENTS DO HAVE a strong responsibility in seeing that their children know and observe safety rules and that the bicycles they buy do fit the child. A properly-adjusted bike will allow the rider's toes to touch the ground when he is sitting on the seat. His knees shouldn't hit the handle bars when pedaling or turning.

There's another important thing a parent can do-travel the bicycle route with the child, pointing out trouble areas and observing to see that the child obeys traffic regulations and uses hand

IN CHECKING the mechanical parts of the bicycle, brakes should get thorough test. Check the chain for damaged links and a snug fit, and replace missing spokes and tighten loose

Tires should have proper pressure and a good tread. Handle grips should fit snugly, and pedals shouldn't be worn. Oil the pedal bearings and spindles for proper movement.

CITY REGULATIONS may vary, but bicycles ridden at night should have headlights and tail lights or reflectors. A horn or bell is a good safety bet.

One of the major risks bicyclists take is failing to follow the same rules as motor vehicles. Riders must stop for all stop signs and obey all traffic lights and FAR TOO OFTEN you see bicyclists riding on the wrong side of the street facing traffic Like automobiles, the bicycle should keep to the right. If walking a bicycle, you should walk facing traffic as if you are a pedestrian.

A bike rider should travel as directed on one-way streets and avoid weaving in and out of traffic. And when you're at a corner, don't crowd into the space between a car in the right lane and the curb. If that car turns right, you may get caught in a traffic pinch.

YOUR BELL OR HORN can be used to warn those who may not see you. Be alert for pedestrians and give them the right-of-way.

How about intersections? Bicyclists are small and a lot harder to see than a car -especially in early-morning and evening- so slow down at intersections. It may be wise to get off and walk across busy streets. If entering the street from a driveway or alley, stop to see if the way is clear.

HITCHING RIDES on automobiles or other moving vehicles is strictly forbidden. And, more than one rider on a bike also is an invitation to an accident.

Many accidents occur when riders gnore common sense safety rules. Studies have shown that many accidents occur to the "show off" and the "speed demon" who darts in and out of traffic.

PARENTS, you can check your youngster's riding habits and steer him toward safety. And there's no better time than right now, says the Health

Capitalists All

FIGURES on the state of American affluence never cease to be amazing According to a late count released by the U.S. Census Bureau, four of every five households own cars and 30 percent own two or more. Nearly two in every three households own the homes they live in-and a growing number have second homes in the country. Ninety-five percent of u.s. families own at least one television set. Nearly half have color television. By 1971, about 45 percent of U.S. households had air conditioning. Nearly 100 percent of American homes now have refrigerators- 99.1 percent to be exact.

IN VIEW OF this striking evidence that nearly everyone in the country, measured by ownership of homes and other property, is most emphatically a capitalist and an integral part of an affluent establishment, it becomes somewhat difficult to explain the existence of so many antiestablishment enthusiasts Judging by the statistics, a lot of them must be indulging themselves in the capitalistic prerogative of owning homes, automobiles, refrigerators and so on. In other words, their antiestablishment convictions do not seem to be insurmountable. So maybe there is hope for the country.

UNION POWER BOOMERANGS

"The power labor unions have today has become a serious liability to the unions themselves. This power tends to lock union officials into a set behavior pattern at the bargaining table. It carries over into administering the labor agreement. And it's a pattern that's sure to hurt the interests of their general membership in the long run." Stewart S. Cort, chairman of the board, Bethlehem Steel Corporation.

"THE ABUNDANT LIFE"

No Resentment

RESENTMENT IS A FEELING which can easily cause us more trouble than we can handle. Of course, there will be many things and situations that can cause this feeling of indignant displeasure. We, however, must not let the feeling control us.

It can easily do so, and, under its influence, we soon find ourselves talking and acting unwisely. It is better that we learn how to be displeased without letting the feeling cause us to lose our common sense and good judgment.

WHEN WE ARE DISPLEASED, we can very easily become something other than our best self. Oftentimes there is nothing that can be done, and we may be adding frustration to resentment. If we do this, we make bad matters worse,

In many instances, perhaps most instances, we will be better off, and happier if we will just forget the whole thing. In most cases, this is a wholesome kind of self-protection.

SORROW AND REGRET are the most frequent results of words and actions which are motivated by resentment. In fact, these expressions of resentment often set in motion strife and ill-will which never ends.

This is a terrible price to pay for permitting ourselves to give resentment the momentary control of us. This momentary control is bad enough, but it is possible that, once it is given control, it never lets go.

Therefore, we must let go of it just as quickly as we recognize it for what it is.

SUPPRESSED RESENTED not be as harmful as open in resentment, but it can be more to must not, however, does selves into thinking that we not so long as we don't say or don't we are never alright until we selves of ail resentment.

Trio Tours South America

By MRS. JOHN BLACKMAN BULA-Mrs. V. C. Weaver, accompanied by her daughter. Mrs. Juanita Brannen and son, Earl, of San Antonio, arrived home Monday afternoon after a ten day trip to Bogota, Columbia, South America. They flew by Braniff airlines from Lubbock, Dallas, New Orleans to Bogota. They report a wonderful time, only trouble they were held up on their return home for four days, due to an airline strike from other airlines and travelers were having to transfer to Braniff. They took bus tours each day and visited many interesting and historical places, among those were the Salt Cathedral, Gold Museum, and National Museum.

They had to find room and board in a private home for a few days, since the Worlds International fair was in progress and people from all over the world were there. Data Processing Course Offered

A new program in the date processing field is being offered for the first time this fall at Amarillo College, for training computer operators.

The Computer Operators

course has been designed to train beginning operators in a 12-month period, which will be two semesters and a summer. Amarillo College will award certification upon successful completion and the credits

Bachelors Degree program. The curriculum will include a general introduction to data processing, a study of peripheral gear, data processing math, utility data programs, operating systems, a study of computer languages, two terms of intership or applications type work, systems and forms, and computer logic, as well as six semester hours of credit for on-the-job training Day and evening courses will be offered.

There is at present a great shortage of operators in the local area and good employment opportunities should be available upon completion.

Pastor Retiring

Rev. Louis Wetzel is preaching his last sermon as the pastor of a church today. After 43 years of missionary and serving congregations as a Lutheran minister, Rev. Wetzel is retiring. He is preaching his farewell sermon in the pulpit at Emmanuel Lutheran Church today. When Rev. and Mrs. Wetzel leave Littlefield next week they'll be leaving "God's Country" to move to a country home north of Seattle, Wash. "When we moved to Littlefield (in January of 1970), we were told we were coming to God's country- out where you can see things," Rev. Wetzel said.

After living a lifetime in humid climates of Minnesota, Florida, and India, they found the arid Plains quite different. "But the climate has been very good for us," Rev. Wetzel

"And we'll miss the sunsets," Mrs. Wetzel added. "Very often we go outside to watch the sun set."

The Wetzels spent 17 years in India as missionaries. Mrs. Wetzel kept all her correspondence while in India and has thought about writing a book about Indian Hinduism, their superstititions and caste system.

When they left India after WWII ended, they came back to the states on a troop ship. The Wetzels were allowed only 40 pounds per person, and had to leave all their furniture they'd had custom made through the years in India.

In Washington they will have the privilege of plenty of visits with three of their seven grandchildren. This will be the first time they have lived near either of their two sons since

In seminary, Rev. Wetzel had the opportunity to go into professional baseball. Now there will be plenty of time for watching baseball, playing golf, hiking and all the other things that the responsibilities of a congregation have limited.

This Sunday's sermon won't be the last one. He will still accept invitations to preach for ministers on leave, on committee assignments and fill in for pastors on vacation. "Most ministers, even retired ones, stay busy," Rev. Wetzel concluded, "but it will be quite a change not having the responsibilities congregation."

REV. LOUIS WETZEL

Meet The Minister

The Dean Jones Family

The Bible Missionary Church in Littlefield has a new pastor. He is Dean W. Jones, an Oklahoma native, who has come to like West Texas within the three weeks he has had his family here.

Both Rev. Jones and his wife, JoAnn, graduated from Okmulgee. Okla. High School, and shortly after their graduation and marriage, they moved to Tulsa.

Rev. Jones is a welder, and has only been in the ministry 3 1/2 years. His first pastorate was at Okmulgee in a mission, the Wesleyan Mission, where he served a year before he went to the Bible Missionary Church in Tulsa.

He was pastor of the Tulsa church 2 1/2 years, and hadn't served any church for a year prior to his coming to Lit-

Members of the Jones family are unanimous in liking the friendliness of West Texas and Littlefield "because it is a small town." In commenting on the difference in the country, Mrs. Jones stated, "We really miss the hills and trees, but the weather is so much cooler here.

Rev. Jones' hobbies include reading, rock hunting, fishing and singing. He sings often for services at the church and his wife accompanies him at the plano.

They have five children. Their oldest daughter, Kerry, 21, is employed in a hospital in Tulsa. Lynne, 15, will be an LHS sophomore this year; Steve 13, will be in the eighth grade; Phillip, 9, is a fourth grader and Darrell, 6, is in the second

Rev. Jones stated, "Any of our Bible Missionary friends are invited to get in touch with us, and attend any of the services at our church on Sunset and West Sixth. We specially invite everyone to the revival service which will be conducted at the church Sept. 21 to Oct. 1. A missionary of St. Vincent, Barbados, Wayne Stracener, will be leading the

Six Flags Extends Operation

"Sx Flags Over Texas", concluding the most successful season in its history, is adding five operating days to its schedule

The family entertainment center had been set to end daily operation Aug. 27 However, the park's general manager, Robert W. Freeman, announced that "Six Flags" will remain open daily through Labor Day, Sept. 4. Freeman said, "We have every indication that there will be large numbers of vacationers in the area during the week preceding Labor Day and we feel "Six Flags" should be available to those visitors." Following Labor Day the theme park will be open on Saturdays and Sundays only from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. through Nov. 26, when the 1972 season will end

Youth Program Evaluated

After marking up final totals in the summer employment program for youth, officials handling the program have concluded that, even though all the youth who registered did not get jobs, the program as a whole was a success.

The goal of the program was to attempt to get each youth who wanted to work some type of job. Co-sponsors for the program, Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, City of Littlefield and the Texas Employment Commission were pleased with the reception given the program by the business community and employers in the Littlefield area, but at the same time felt that more participation by more employers would have added immeasurably to the program.

The Texas Employment Commission referred 119 youth from the Littlefield area to jobs and of this number 97 were actually hired and went to work. Most of the jobs were in agriculture with the next largest number being in a service type job such as restaurant work, yard work, service station work, etc.

There were jobs in the clerical and sales field as well as construction and building trades. A total of 121 youth were registered or had been registered for summer jobs.

cooperation given the program by Wade Warren of the Lamb County Leader, Jim Vandenberg of Radio Station KZZN. Bill Payne, manager of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, Pat Bradley, city manager of Littlefield and Roy Wilson, Texas Employment Commission. It is hoped that the program can be operated again next summer.

S.E. Stockdale Enters Acade

Steven E. Stockdale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slockdale of Olton, is one of more than 1.300 freshman cadets who have entered the U.S. Air Force Academy class of '76. Cadet Sockdale qualified for final acceptance into the cadet wing by completing seven weeks of basic training that included physical conditioning, military and survival instruction and field training at a simulated frontline combat base located near the academy. He is a member of the history of the academy, now in its 18th year of operation with a current total enrollment of more than 4,000 cadets.

The cadet is enrolled in a four-year course of academic study and military training working toward a bachelor of science degree in one of 21 major fields of interest and a commission as a second lieutenant in the Air Force.

Cadet Stockdale a graduate of Otton Ha where he was a men National Honor So also lettered in basketball, track an Application Forms Speed Up Benefits

Minutes spent on completing application forms fully and accurately can speed up veterans' benefits by days and weeks, a Veterans Administration official advised

Jack Coker, director, said the advice is aimed primarily at veterans who will be entering school under the GI Bill

Coker cited VA's "package" plan for applying for education or training benefits as one example of how veterans can contribute to faster VA service.

Under this plan, the veteran brings his separation document and proof of dependency to VA and at the same time completes an application for education benefits, prior to enrollment. All the necessary forms are available at all VA offices. If the veteran enrolls in school before applying for GI Bill benefits, he completes the forms and asks the school to forward them to VA in one 'package" when the school certifies his enrollment.

He should check later with his school to make sure his forms and certification have been forwarded to VA.

"The 'package' plan cuts delay and permits VA to send the veteran his first education allowance check sooner.' Coker explained, and added. "usually it's just a matter of promptly providing the required information for a particular benefit." "Information on veterans benefits is available at all VA offices, veterans county service officers, and from local representatives of veterans service organizations," he said. The VA office in Lubbock is located at 1205 Texas Avenue. Information may also be obtained by writing to the VA Regional Office, 1400 North Valley Mills Drive, Waco, Texas 76710.

VETS ASSISTED

After tropical storm Agnes the Veterans Administration put into effect disaster relief measures to assist veterans whose homes were damaged or destroyed.

where our efforts are directed to testing commercial varieties and new strains of cotton for wilt tolerance. This nursery has been in operation since 1960. We are also selecting plants with bacterial

According to the researcher, the nursery has been specially treated to create high levels of Verticillium wilt. "We've applied various cultural practices that encourage wilt development. These are the things that producers should not do if they want to avoid serious will problems in their instance, if a wilt infested field is planted to wheat for three years, then we can expect to grow cotton for the next three years without too much of a wilt problem. The three-year rotation has been most effective in reducing wilt."

Minton also explains that studies are underway to determine how various row spacings effect the incidence of wilt in cotton.

Our studies show that wilt decreases in susceptible varieties as row spacings decrease. In other words, there is less wilt in cotton planted in narrow rows."

If producers have a severe wilt problem in their fields, the researcher recommends planting a tolerant variety, and using all of the known cultural practices which control the disease.

In addition to wilt and bacterial blight, other cotton diseases to be discussed at the field day include seedling disease, leaf spot, and wetweather blight. Wet-weather blight was especially destructive this year as it damaged about a half million acres over the area.

Other field day highlights will include drip irrigation. oilseed crops, cotton varieties, narrow-row cotton, soil fertility, vegetable crops, and grain sorghum breeding and

dcats Battle Tahoka To 1-1 Tie In Scrimmage

Wildcats had their first taste of combat against an outside opponent Friday night as they battled the Tahoka Buildogs to a 1-1 tie in a controlled scrimmage at Tahoka Friday night.

The Wildcats played the Bulldogs who are picked by many to give the perennial-powerhouse Denver City Mustangs a run for their money in District 5-AA) on even ground only on the scoreboard.

The Wildcats definitely outplayed the home town Bulldogs

Tahoka scored on their only serious threat while the Wildcats were close to pay dirt several times but were not able to score from inside the 20-yard line.

Commenting on this, Coach Jerry Blakely said.

Because it was a scrimmage, we elected to remain with an option-type offense near the goal lines rather than go into a power offense as we normally would in a regular season game. However, we were disappointed that we did not score. Generally speaking though, the offense did move the ball better than we thought we could.

Littlefield's lone tally came on a 67yard jaunt by tailback J. E. Johnson. The score came on the second play of the third offensive series. The series started on the Wildcats 30-yard line and the first play of the series saw fullback Arturo Soria pick up three yards on the right side. On the next play, quarterback Terry Bryson gave the ball to Johnson who had a big opening on the left side and then it was simply a foot race down the left sidelines to the goal line.

There were no extra point attempts kick offs nor punts in the controlled scrimmage

Tahoka scored its lone TD on a quarterback keeper by Phil McClendon from the three-yard line. The Bulldogs were able to move the ball during this drive through the efforts of Jimmy Baily, a little sophomore who ran well the entire scrimmage.

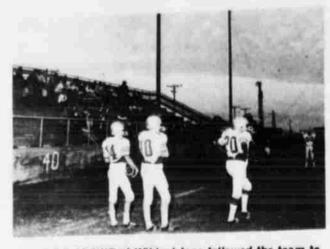

Blakely added, "The defense was not as agressive as we had hoped it to be. However, we think we can get that phase of the game corrected this week.

series were sparked by an 18-yard run by Pat Henderson and a 15-yard pass play from Bryson to Henderson. This drive stalled on the Bulldog 10-yard line.

The second series of offensive plays saw quarterback Kelly Pratt warm up his throwing arm and move the Wildcats toward the Bulldog goal line on a pass play to Wesley for seven yards and then two passes to Alan Mackey, one for 21 vards and another for 9 yards. However, this drive was also stalled inside the 20 as Tahoka recovered a Littlefield fumble at the eight-yard line.

"We were pleased with the complete passing game. the passing, catching and pass blocking," stated Blakely.

The Wildcats are scheduled to scrimmage Philips here Friday night at Wildcat Stadium. A complete, in-depth look at the Wildcats and other area teams is scheduled for a special football tabloid in the Thursday edition of the Leader-News
