

65,000 BOND ISSUE

Residents Vote On Streets Saturday

400-Plus Blocks In Repair Proposal

By JOELLA LOVVORN
News Editor, Leader-News

Only three days remain until all qualified Littlefield voters have their opportunity to express an opinion on the $365,000 street improvement bond issue. If voting in past bond issues is any indication, citizens could turn out by the "thousand," half that many, or by a mere few.

In November 1963, 1,099 voters cast ballots in the $988,000 water system bond issue and 1,091 votes were cast in the $148,000 storm sewer bond issue.

In December 1967 only 587 voters expressed an opinion on the $225,000 sewage disposal bond and municipal sales tax issues.

Saturday, all qualified voters in the city are eligible to vote on the street improvements.

Polls will open at 8 a.m. in city hall and will close at 7 p.m. Tom Hilburn will preside as election judge.

However, due to a new federal law passed in September, qualified property owners will place their votes in one box and non-property owners will place their ballots in another box.

In order for the issue to pass, the property owner's box must carry and the combined total of the two boxes must carry. According to Mayor J. E. Chisholm, "None of this bond money will be spent on the airport."

"Littlefield has more than $2 million invested in 41 miles of city streets, and they need to be taken care of," the mayor emphasized. "If this issue passes, we will insist that the very best job be done in the construction and repair of these streets," he said.

He continued by saying, "The more people we have out to vote, the better chance we have of getting the lowest possible interest rate on the bonds."

Mayor Chisholm also promised citizens that if the bond issue passes, some of the work will be done this summer. Many of the streets will be repaired and able to take the weather this coming winter.

According to studies made by City Engineer Bill McMorries, the city has completely lost 20 or 30 blocks of streets—including paving and foundation—in the past two years, due to heavy rains, snows and freezes.

About 20 percent of the more than 400 blocks which need repairing will receive only a single seal coat. About 55 percent of them will receive a double seal coat and 25 percent will be torn up, re-worked and paved with hot mix overlay.

Also to be included in the project will be curb and gutter work for about 20 blocks, for drainage improvement, and some dips at intersections will be concreted.

Phelps Avenue will be widened about four feet from 10th Street southward to between 17th and 18th Streets, and several large trees will be pulled up to remedy further curb and gutter damages.

Don't Forget! Reset Clocks

Don't forget to move your watches and clocks forward an hour before you go to bed Saturday night.

Central Daylight Saving Time officially begins at 2 a.m. Sunday, and persons who forget to change the alarm may wake up too late for church.

The Uniform Time Act, governing the change, was passed in 1966.

A catchy little phrase which is helpful in remembering which way to move the hands on the clock says, "Spring Forward, Fall Back."

Loyalty Parade On Election Day

Saturday, May 2, will be "Loyalty Day" for Littlefield and the surrounding area when the Littlefield Veterans of Foreign Wars and the VFW Auxiliary sponsors a "Loyalty Day" parade down Phelps Avenue at 10 a.m. The parade will be followed by a talk by a noted speaker at the Community Center in conjunction with the Ban Boosters Barbecue.

Cash prizes of $175 will be awarded to the top three floats, and trophies will be awarded to the riding and marching groups.

All businesses and organizations are invited to enter floats and all groups may march in the parade.

Littlefield Man Sentenced, Fined

A. Keithley, 52, former vice president of Federal Savings and Loan Association, was sentenced by Federal Judge O. Woodward to three years in prison (21/2 years and 6 months to serve) and a fine of $5,000.

Keithley is to report May 1, to start serving the six months' sentence.

A 10-count indictment against Keithley had been returned March 3, by a federal grand jury in Lubbock. Five counts were for attempted income tax evasion for the years 1963 through 1967, and five counts were for having made and subscribed income tax returns for those same years under the penalties of perjury.

Keithley entered a plea of guilty on March 18 to having willfully attempted to evade and evade joint income taxes for the year 1963, a year in which the indictment charged that the reported joint taxable income was $12,036.72 and the amount of tax due was $2,731.02. The correct taxable income was $23,651.48, with a tax due of $6,667.56.

The charges against Keithley resulted from an investigation by special agents assigned to the office of the District Director of Internal Revenue, Dallas.

The maximum sentence on the one count of attempted evasion of income taxes was five years imprisonment and a fine of $10,000.

LAMB COUNTY COIN CLUB is celebrating National Coin Week this week, April 19-25, and has two exhibits on display in downtown Littlefield. To the right, Mrs. Gayle Mills, treasurer and reporter, points to one of the special coins on display at Security State Bank, as Raymond Renfro looks on.

Rise In Payrolls Evident In County

The number of separate businesses in operation in Lamb County is at a high level, according to government figures recently released.

There are more of them in the area, in proportion to population, than in many parts of the country.

New businesses are being born in the county every year as local residents, with an urge to be on their own, embark on new ventures.

While the mortality among new businesses is high, with many of them falling by the wayside within a few years, a fair share of them survive the difficult early period and are able to carry on successfully thereafter.

The facts and figures on the local business population are contained in a series of reports, issued by the Census Bureau, covering every county in the United States.

They detail the number of people employed in these establishments, their payrolls and their distribution by industries.

The figures show that, in Lamb County, there are some 401 businesses in operation that employ one or more persons.

Of the total, 244 have 3 employees or less, 88 have from 4 to 7 employed and 50 have 8 to 19. The others are larger.

Small and moderate-size businesses in the local area have proved to be quite durable.

They have more than held their own, despite the tough competition from chain stores and other large enterprises.

As an indication of this durability, no less than 95 percent are firms that have fewer than 20 employees each.

The proportion is greater than in most sections of the United States, where only 88 percent are in that category.

In the West South Central States there are 89 percent.

The reports show that Lamb

SCHOOL WITHOUT A SKIP AT WHITHARRAL

Students Pitch In And Dig Out

By NILAH RODGERS
Leader-News Staff Writer

Whitharral residents are known for their community pride and spirit.

Call it single-minded purposefulness common concern or brotherly love. Whatever it is, it's spontaneous, sincere and always present.

If there is a single pivot point, it is the school. And with two-thirds of the school property demolished in the quick dip of the tornado Friday night, the community's charitable resources were called on again.

Almost before the tin stopped flying and bricks quit tumbling, residents blocked off the disaster area. And before midnight Friday, there was a security schedule with more than enough volunteers to watch every entrance to prevent accidents and looting.

"I'm used to going into places where there have been disasters," Don Kuykendal, Hockley County highway patrolman said, "and telling people what to do. But at Whitharral, people were telling me what to do. There was no need to call out the National Guard there."

A good per cent of these volunteers were high school boys who'd scribbled such phrases as "In the event of fire, please throw in" in plenty of text books in past years.

Early Saturday morning they looked at their gym where they'd unknowingly played the last basketball game that will ever be played in it.

Girls and boys alike pecked over in the rubble that had been their dressing rooms--that only hours before had smelled of sweat and liniment--where they'd jumped up and down in victorious elation and where they'd slumped in the quiet of a loser's dressing room.

Some of the girls tried to hide their tears. Others cried openly.

Boys became intent on stubbing their toes on fallen bricks or looking at the sky through the roof.

"Game called due to weather," one said in an attempt to joke.

Flashed trucks arrived and senior boys, who didn't care whether school kept or not the day before, attacked the job of loading tree limbs and rubble like they were in a championship playoff.

Breakfast was served in the Lions Club Building for those who'd spent the night guarding the town.

Women and girls began bringing in food and supplies to feed workers lunch and supper. And the doors were open and dinner was on until the last of the volunteers were gone Sunday night.

Saturday and Sunday, everything that might fall was pulled down. Every usable desk, chair and book in elementary was removed to storage rooms. P. E. clothing and sports equipment were dug out of the shambles.

Monday morning the buses ran on schedule.

With only five weeks of school left this term, Monday was like the opening day of school. Parents accompanied their small children to school to help them find their rooms.

Head start and kindergarten met in the Northside Church of Christ. The pulpit podium and communion table found new uses as teacher's desks, and the paved parking lot became a play ground for rope skipping, red rover and drop-the-handkerchief.

Various classrooms in the First Baptist Church became home rooms for first, second and third graders.

Littlefield Student Wins National Honor

Tonya Tunnell, a Littlefield fourth grader, has a head start on a writing career with an honor award from a national publication.

In the January issue of Jack and Jill there was a short story "Clever Algy" about a clever mouse who was trying to figure out how to get the cheese off a trap outside his door without getting caught.

The story ending was left off with Algy about to lie down so he could think better, and subscribers were invited to write the ending in 150 words or less.

Miss Tunnell's ending was chosen best by the national

Catch Up And Stay Up

Voters in Littlefield Saturday will decide on a $365,000 Street Improvement bond issue.

There hasn't been a lot of on-the-street debate about the merits of the program. And it's hard to guess whether it is disinterest or a foregone conclusion about the result that has made the time before this election such a quiet one.

We certainly hope it isn't apathy. A decision from a small portion of the eligible voters is worse than no decision at all.

Regardless of the result, we hope the people of Littlefield will turn out and make the decision.

The city council had two ways to go on the street program. The $365,000 plan finally adopted was the more costly of two under consideration, but it probably is the least expensive in the long run, particularly if, after we get our streets in good shape, we spend the money necessary each year to keep them in good condition.

To us, there is no question about the need for street improvements. The remaining thing to decide is whether to spend the money to get it done.

If we wait, our streets will continue to go down, and the cost of repairing them will continue to go up.

The choice seems clear.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

A Helping Hand

By BOB WEAR

HELPING OTHERS, as we have the opportunity, and the means for doing so, must surely be the greatest and most satisfying experience.

There are many ways in which we can help each other, and most of these ways do not involve money.

MUTUAL HELP is part of a meaningful interaction among people.

History reveals many instances in which people helping other people made the difference in survival and death; the difference between success and failure; the difference between going on and giving up; the difference between victory and defeat.

IT IS THRILLING to read the history of how our forefathers assisted each other.

Of course, they had their differences and conflicts; but they had to help one another in order to survive.

It was easy to see the urgent necessity of giving a helping hand.

THE DANGERS which threatened these early Americans were tangible, and everybody knew what they were.

When time came for action against the common enemy, the people just laid their differences aside and rallied to meet the challenge. Here is a good example to follow.

WE ARE JUST AS dependent upon each other now as they were then. The need for extending a helping hand may not be as obvious now, but it is just as real, and, in some ways, more necessary.

OUR WAYS of giving assistance are different, but the assistance must be given.

We must awake to the fact that we have common enemies; and common effort against these enemies will contribute to the common good.

"A BETTER WORLD begins with me" is a sound conclusion, and each person who accepts it as a working principle is doing much to establish the wholesome concern so greatly needed in our time. The majority of people will follow good examples, but somebody must take the initiative.

We cannot afford to stand back and wait for others to make the first move.

WHEN WE OFFER a helping hand, someone will see; perhaps many will see. Some who see our good action will be inspired to do the same, and others will be influenced for good.

The good thus set in motion spreads abroad.

WE MUST STOP being enemies, it is so much better that we be good neighbors.

We must stop working against each other, and following so many cross-purposes which so critically dissipate our strength and our resources. Our combined strength channeled in one unified movement against the evils which threaten our common well-being will bring the victory.

WE MUST JOIN HANDS and move together into the future. Our combined power, under God, will be unconquerable.

We help ourselves by helping others. "When you help someone up hill, you find yourself closer to the top."

DIVISIVENESS AND DISCORD are destructive forces in our society. These and related internal evils are the real enemy.

It would be so much better to help one another than it is to fight each other.

THE HELPING HAND extended is going to accomplish more for the good of all than the clenched fist raised in hostility and hate.

"I told you so! That hood is going to plead insanity!"

A WOMAN'S VIEW

The Hospital

By PEARL BRANDON

I'VE HAD OCCASION twice in the last few months to spend a few days in the hospital.

The hospital is a wonderful place to be when you are sick and in pain. Of course when you begin to get well you want to get out as soon as possible.

Most people are inclined to want to leave the hospital before they are ready, and start pestering the doctor to let them go.

PART OF THE TIME I wasn't very sick and I lay there listening to the sounds of the hospital.

The days pass pretty fast with the nurses rushing around, the technicians running tests and the doctors making rounds.

Your family comes to see you, and friends drop in. Usually the minister comes to see you and some one sends flowers.

THE NURSE brings a nice looking tray three times a day, and if you felt like eating the food would be good. They bring fruit juices between meals and plenty of ice water.

If you are able to be up you get acquainted with the other patients.

MORNINGS, the nurses are rushing their heads off to get everybody cleaned up and to answer the lights. Everyone seems to want something at the same time, . . . and a baby is crying in the nursery, wanting his share of the attention.

Time passes fast through the day, but the nights are something else. Visiting hours are over and I try to settle down and go to sleep.

That is when I start listening to the other patients. I hear the deep racking cough of an emphysema patient. . . the vomiting of a woman in the last stage of cancer. . . and the loud, short breathing of a heart patient.

These are distressful sounds to one who is not used to them. I suffer along with them.

I KNOW I'M A COWARD and should be able to sleep. The nurse wants to close the door but I have a feeling about closed doors. She gives me a sleeping pill which has no effect.

I have a small nagging pain which gets worse as I twist and squirm around. . . turning over, and fixing my pillow. I know it's silly but the pain gets worse. This goes on another hour or so.

FINALLY I TURN on my light and the nurse gives me a shot for pain. I offer a grateful prayer and drift off to sleep.

Thank God for nurses and doctors who have plenty of patience with people like me.

Another Vietnam

AMERICANS WILL not blunder into another Vietnam; that's all there is to it. This is not intended to comfort our enemies; I think they know now. This is intended to reassure anxious home-folks who really don't know for sure.

It is now the consensus of Americans that no place in Southeast Asia is a proper place for American troops to try to preserve, protect and defend.

OUR PRESIDENT and our secretary of state have declared and redeclared a new policy for us which says Asia must hereafter be defended by Asians.

Yet, while we talk of getting out--and show evidence of that intention in Vietnam--we appear to be increasingly engaged in a semi-secret war in neighboring Laos. Are we?

SEN. FRANK MOSS (D-Utah) recently spoke for a considerable number of his colleagues and for a great many American citizens when he said of hostilities in Laos, "Once again we seem to be heading down the same tragic road of escalation."

And it does sound like that when we hear of sky-blackening waves of U. S. super-bombers raining destruction on Laos. It is explained that we must thus intercept the Ho Chi Minh supply road which winds through Laotian jungles on its way from North Vietnam to South Vietnam.

BUT THEN WE HEAR that our bombers are also hitting enemy troop concentrations advancing toward Vientiane, the administrative capital of Laos--and it sounds familiar.

President Johnson eased us into increasing involvement in Vietnam while pretending nothing "really important" was happening there.

AND IN PARIS, North Vietnamese "peace negotiators" accuse us of increasing our involvement in Laos, of "extermination air raids."

American headlines hint at a secret war--continuing and expanding in Laos.

And then Prince Souvanna Phouma, the pipsqueak potentate who presumes to run that strange mountainous kingdom--while his generals trade in opium and play tennis--has the unmitigated gall to say "It is the duty of the United States to protect us. . . ."

SO AMERICANS are quite rightly anxious.

We are not going to fight for Laos; not under a Nixon administration.

The President sent State Secretary William Rogers and Defense Secretary Melvin Laird up the Hill to assure anxious senators in secret session that we will not send any ground troops into Laos, even if that country falls to the Communists.

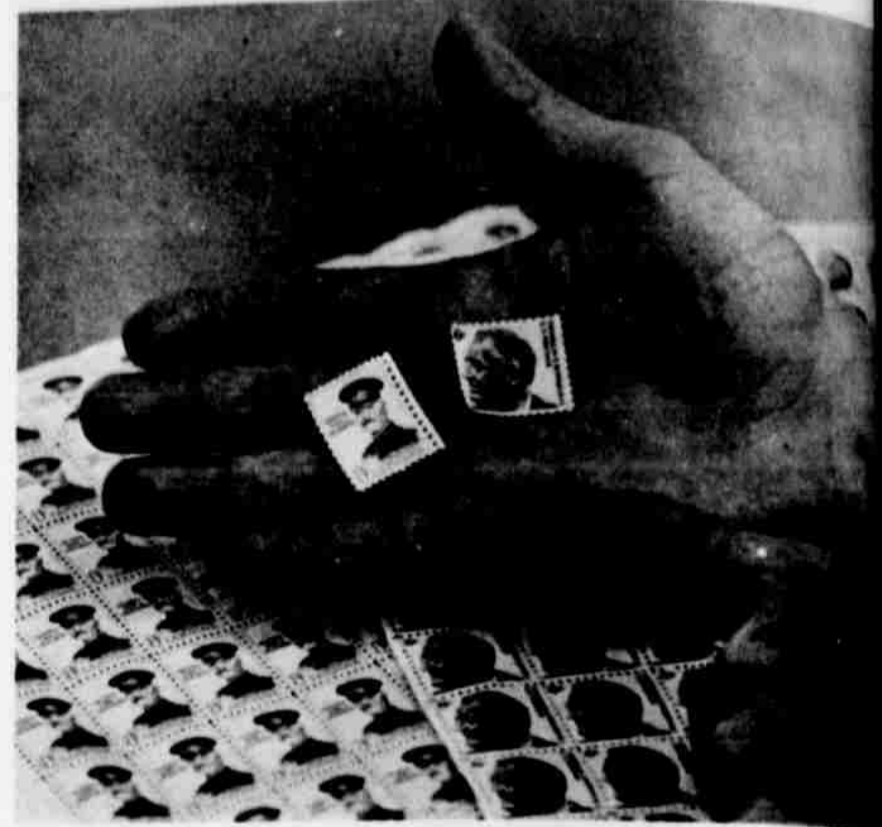

SEN. MIKE MANSFIELD (D-Mont.), a frequent critic of Administration policy in Vietnam, came away from that hearing "feeling better."

Since then, with so-so success, our President has tried to reassure us.

Our CIA does, and probably will continue to, support a clandestine war there, supplying aid to mountain tribesmen who want to resist Communists. Some of us question wisdom of even this much intervention.

BUT THE NIXON ADMINISTRATION has now satisfied its severest congressional critics that we will not send more footsoldiers to Southeast Asia.

What a shame that we cannot with similar candor concede that we goofed in Vietnam and disengage forthwith there also.

IS IT COMING TO THIS? It will if Congress approves the raising of the first class postage stamp to 8 cents, in order to make the postal system supporting by 1978. The administration has promised an eight per cent increase for postal workers, in addition to the six per cent pay boost for postal federal workers President Nixon signed Wednesday.

Girl Scouts Host Dog Show

Members of the Littlefield Cadette Girl Scout Troop 279 will sponsor a dog show Saturday afternoon, May 2, in the Crescent Park.

Special features include showing of pure bred dogs and their history, and dogs that can do tricks.

Any dog that is on a leash and has had shots may be entered in any one or more of the six classes by paying an entry fee of 25 cents per dog.

Classes are for the longest tail, dog with longest ears, smallest dog, best dog (from ground), and most original costume obedience.

Admission to the show is free and Cadettes everyone to fill out a blank below and bring their dogs to the show.

Joe Smith, has revealed that with the new bonds, Littlefield would have a total indebtedness of $782,000 on general obligation tax bonds.

He says Littlefield is in good shape financially and "can afford another bond issue."

If voters approve the bond issue, the bonds will require 15 years to be paid out, at an estimated 6 1/2 percent interest. City officials and Joe Smith, the bonding agent, were in hopes the interest would be slightly lower than 6 1/2 percent by the time the bonds can be sold.

Present tax rates are $1.09 per hundred of property value, at two-thirds of value, and if the bond issue passes, the annual increase would amount to about 20 cents per hundred.

If a property owner's assessed value is $2,000, his present tax is $21.80 and his tax would be $25.80 after the increase--about 33 cents per month.

Property with assessed value at $3,000 now pays $32.70 in taxes and would pay $38.70, an increase of 50 cents per month.

Property with assessed value of $5,000 now pays $54.50 in taxes and would pay $64.50, an increase of 83 cents per month.

An assessed value of $6,000 now pays $65.40 and would pay $77.40, an increase of a dollar per month.

Present tax on $10,000 assessed value is now $109 and would be raised to $129, an increase of $1.67 per month.

Taxes on $20,000 are $218 and would go to $258, an increase of $3.33 per month.

PAYROLLS

County's business establishments-- small, medium and large-- provide gainful employment for 2,210 men and women in "covered" jobs. By "covered" is meant employment that falls within the scope of social security.

Wages and salaries for these workers have been rising steadily, bringing payrolls to a new high. They have reached a total of $8,456,000.

NOT ALL AREA students had pulpits, pews and baptistries in their classrooms Monday, but the Whitharral students whose classrooms were moved to the church following the tornado Friday night found unusual furnishing Monday morning. These are part of the head start and kindergarten classes that were moved to Northside Church of Christ.

HOMINY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

FROM HERE ON IN, I'm goin' to be a firm advocate of everybody stickin' to their own thing.-- I've done promised my doctor that if he'll quit fixin' cars, I'll give up my medical practice!

And the same goes for my plumber!

THE CRACK-POT that designed the plumbing for my extra one-half bath must have had a weird sense of humor.-- (That, you know, is where my shower is located.) They ran a concrete floor over it!

This is all well and good, until you suddenly awake to the fact that the floor is stayin' extra warm, and your gas and water bill keeps increasing--A leaking hot water pipe under all that concrete!--

CALL THE PLUMBER!--But, first, look the situation over -- How can it be fixed?--Floor torn up?--Over head water lines?--Hector-Louise, IT'LL COST A FORTUNE!--Which I AIN'T got.

My piggy-bank has an acute case of malnutrition!

SO, IT'S DECIDED, I'll fix it myself.--after all, you use wrenches, don't you?

I get a droplight, open the man-hole in the floor, (Which, incidentally, is a good thirty feet from the trouble,) and proceed to crawl under the house. (It's split-level, you know: the rear bathroom was built, purely, as an after-thought.)

I crawl that FORTY feet to the back of the house, under sills, over pipes, through the debris that carpenters throw under the floors when they build, watchin' for snakes, water-dogs, spiders and bugs that might reside there, and finally locate the trouble.

SURE ENOUGH, the water is spewin' merrily along, and sure enough, the pipe is concreted down! --Gotta re-do and re-route that water line.

AFTER DECIDING what's to be done, I crawl that 50 feet back to the opening and out to get the tools, go to town and buy the necessary materials, and back under the house.--After crawlin' that 75 feet to the back of the house I remember that the water hasn't been turned off!--(Luckily, wife-mate was around, I nearly ran her to death!)

In the process of workin' with those pipes, (they were tight and rusted) I found myself with my knees under my chest, and my posterior firmly wedged under the floor.

BEGAN TO THINK I'd have to tear up the floor in order to get out!--Hung my pants and skin on the unclenched nails, skinned my fists, scooped my pants and shirt full of the fine, acrid dust, that accumulates under houses, strained my muscles in places I didn't even know I had, besides ruinin' my sunny disposition!--That, in addition to skinned knees, elbows, and pump-knots on my head.

After I finished, I crawled that 100 feet to the opening, and out.-- With the promise to myself that if my plumber won't fix cars, I won't plumb!--And even if he fixes cars, I still won't plumb!

Now, I'm gonna take all that chiro-practor, and maybe, a plastic surgeon!

Trouble Shooters Ready For Annual Competition

The annual search for America's top young auto mechanics is under way, and two Littlefield students will race against time in trying to figure out what's wrong with a specially-rigged car during the area contest at Lubbock May 5.

Mike Oden and Johnny Alanis will compete with other auto mechanic students from schools across the country who are entering the 22nd Annual Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest, according to Sid Landers, auto mechanics instructor at LHS.

The two students were chosen for the team through intra-class competition.

The winning team and its instructor earn an expense-paid trip to the National Trouble Shooting Finals June 15, 16, and 17 in Indianapolis at the famed "500" Speedway.

Contestants are competing for more than $125,000 worth of scholarships and awards.

The contest, slated for Fennert Tubbs Motor Co. in Lubbock, consists of two competitions: a written exam for each participating student which will count as 30 per cent of a team's final score; and a mechanical challenge worth 70 per cent.

Garland Motor Co. of Littlefield will sponsor the local team in the contest.

Purpose of the Plymouth Trouble Shooting program is to recognize and honor outstanding auto mechanic students and to encourage them to seek a rewarding career as an automobile mechanic.

The Mirable auto was making a left turn off Hall avenue onto East 14th, when the Jackson vehicle, which was traveling west on East 14th, skidded into the left front fender of the Mirable vehicle with the left rear bumper when the brakes were applied.

Thursday morning, a 1966 Chevrolet and a 1964 Ford were involved in a collision.

The Chevrolet, driven by Ernest David Goertz of Littlefield, and the Ford, driven by William A. Goldston of Littlefield, where both traveling south on Harrell Avenue when the Goldston vehicle slowed down to make a turn into a driveway and the Goertz vehicle struck it in the rear.

Troubled Young TV Program Set Saturday

A television special spotlighting America's "forgotten millions" will be shown in Texas and across the nation on NBC-TV stations the night of April 25.

The program, to be broadcast over channel 11 at Lubbock, will show what one hospital is doing about mentally-disturbed young people.

It will be called "Cry Help!" and it will be the network's statement, backed up by the National Association for Mental Health, about America's neglect of its troubled young.

"Cry Help!" will be aired from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Saturday and will be produced by Lucy Jarvis, who says:

"The public hospitals concentrate on the very young or the adult, and the adolescent is forgotten. But there are at least six million mentally ill young people in this country between the ages of 16 and 24, and less than ten per cent of them get any kind of treatment at all."

Mrs. Jarvis, the producer, spent two years researching for "Cry Help!"

Interest in loose stacking hay—without baling—continues to increase among livestock producers, according to County Agricultural Agent Buddy C. Logsdon.

Stacking hay loose may be a method where the cattlemen can reduce hay harvesting costs and conserve labor, continues Logsdon. The loose hay can be self-fed, and be as good quality as baled hay. These and other advantages mean less expense for maintaining cattle in good wintering condition.

Request a copy of the new publication, L-857, "Loose Hay Stacking," from your county agricultural agent's office to obtain ideas on how you can benefit from new practices on your farm or ranch.

OFFICIAL LHS NEWSPAPER

All-Wildcat Nominees Named

Does she have true spirit? Is she really loyal to LHS? Does she participate in many activities and offer her services?

These are just a few of the many questions that should have been on each student's mind as he selected his choice for All Wildcat Boy and Girl candidates.

This is one of the most important elections of the year. Students strive all year to meet each qualification. Qualifications such as, spirit, participation, loyalty, service and just a good "ole" Wildcat attitude, should be found in each candidate.

girl, run off between Junnie Gray and Dianne Perkins; junior boy, Wendell Horn; junior girl, run off between Kay Armistead, Kathie McBride and Rachel Harlan; sophomore boy, run off between Jay Trammell, Matt Giles and Ralph Funk and sophomore girl, run off between Linda Horn and Gail Williams.

Although Sally has not been going to LHS for three years, she has carried a pretty busy schedule.

Miss Davidson spent two years participating in intramural: volleyball and basketball.

Her memberships in clubs include organizations such as, Kat Klub her senior year, Latin Club and Spanish Club her junior year.

Interscholastic League Literary Events has taken up a lot of Miss Davidson's time. She entered the poetry events two years and drama two years. Her senior year she placed third at district.

With some drama experience behind her, Miss Davidson plans to continue her study of drama, at the University of Colorado, CARL DAVIS, JR.

Carl Davis Jr., president of the Vocational Industrial Club of America, has been going to LHS for three years. Before being president, Davis was parliamentarian of the VICA his junior year.

He has participated in two speedskill contests in VICA. This year he won first place and last year he won third in the Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest held in Amarillo.

Keith McGrew, first place winner, and Carl Davis, third place winner, display proudly their awards that they took at the state level competition.

Summer Term Schedule Set

Happiness Is...

FRIENDS!!

ND is someone who listens to you you with homework and laughs at you. A friend says, "Hi" in the hall for you at lunch. How many of us try for one? Friends! What would you do if they didn't? ? ?

He said to another: "Hiya, bud."

We'll have breakfast promptly tomorrow.

All right, ma'am, if I'm not here, don't wait.

Why are you crying? Why hurt his finger. You ought to laugh, not cry. Did that's why Daddy spanked me,

A NEW French perfume in honor of you. It's called "ETERNITY".

"Ya'know, I was invited to my girl party yesterday."

"Oh yeah?" What are you going to do?

That woman next door has a hat on. I guess that means you want to go out.

I guess it would be cheaper than that.

What's pointed on top, flat at the top, or pointed at the top?

A mountain. A mountain with ears? Sure. Haven't you ever heard of ears?

UPON A TIME there was a girl named. One day she was in front of her house when she saw three children without any clothes on, quickly hid them in her house and locked the door. The name of this story is, "Goldie and the Three Bares."

I understand your brother fell off and died. That's right.

OBITUARIES

PETRA ORTIZ
Mrs. Petra Ortiz, 78, resident who died Thursday night following lengthy illness, was said Monday at the Mission Catholic Church of Sudan. She was in the Sudan Cemetery with funeral home of Amherst in charge of arrangements. She lived at Sudan nine years. Survivors include three sons, Claudio Ortiz, Arnel Ortiz of Idaho, and Enrique Ortiz of California; three sisters and children.

Area Minister To Entertain

Rev. Hugh Jack Norwood will tell his life's story to Whitehall Lions and their wives at a ladies night meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m. Norwood overcame a wrong start in life, including time spent in jail and correctional schools, and then became a preacher. Norwood and his small son will also present musical selections in imitation of Johnny Cash and other western songsters. This will be a good program for teens to hear if members wish to bring their junior and high school-aged children.

Bored: Getting hanged.

Wife: The doctor is here, dear.
Husband: Tell him I can't see him, I'm sick.

Those two morons, Jeannie and Vicki got together again.
Vicki: Guess how many eggs I have and I'll give you all five!
Jeannie: All right, I guess you have seven.

DID YOU HEAR about the absent-minded professor who got up and struck a match to see if he had turned off the light?

Diner: There's a tack in my doughnut.
Waiter: Why, the ambitious little thing! He must have thought it was a tire!

Did you hear about the cannibal who went to see a psychiatrist because he was fed up with people?

THE BAND GOES to sightreading and concert contest tomorrow and they sound good. . . . They will miss all day of school and hope to come back with two "I's".
ALL THE WAY!!

MRS. PYLANT'S Driver's Education Class took their tests yesterday for their restricted licenses. Now the worst disaster of the year is predicted for Littlefield.- THEY START DRIVING!!!

MR. BURCH: Where's your homework?
RANDY: You'll never believe this, but on my way to school today I made a paper airplane out of it and someone hijacked it to Cuba!!

WEDNESDAY two of our FHA girls and our sponsor, Mrs. Dorothy Keeling, left for the state meeting in Dallas. Pat Kirby and Pam Brandt, both officers, were chosen to go. Congratulations!

LESS AND LESS
In 1964, a manufacturer of women's apparel needed about 3.2 square yards of cotton fabric to make a skirt. In 1968 he used only 1.9 square yards of fabric for a skirt. The current word on lowering the hemlines will directly affect the cotton textile industry and the man-made fiber manufacturers.

Think you can't afford an Olds? Here are two reasons to think again!

Our own surveys indicate that quite a few people think an Olds costs a lot more than it really does. Result? Many people buy an ordinary car and end up with a lot less car and value for their money.
It's so unnecessary, too, because Oldsmobile has many models that are priced right down with so-called low-priced cars. See your Olds dealer. He'll prove that you're closer to Olds than you think.

Outlass S: The sporty Olds—priced right down with the low-priced names. Included as standard equipment: Recessed wipers. Hidden antenna. Deluxe steering wheel. Wall-to-wall carpeting. Door side-guard beams. Flo-Thru Ventilation. Rocket V-8. Bias-belted tires. Foam-padded seats.

Delta 88: The big Olds with the surprisingly modest price. Included in that price: Power steering. Power front disc brakes. Regular-gas Rocket V-8. Bigger 124-inch wheelbase for a smoother, quieter ride. All the room and comfort and luxury you could ever want.

Clothes Washed, Dried, Dry Cleaned At M&M

Doors at the M&M Laundry are never locked. The automatic, coin-operated laundry is open all day, every day, seven days a week.
An attendant is on duty from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday. There are coin change machines, soap and bleach dispensers, and everything needed for laundering clothes for times when there isn't an attendant on duty.
M&M Laundry has 36 Speed Queen washers and 12 king-sized Speed Queen dryers. The water at M&M is really soft—so soft that just a little soap gets the grimest clothes clean. The washing machines are two cycle for normal and gentle washing, and water temperature controls allow selections of hot, warm or cold settings. The big dryers that line the east wall each hold several loads of wet wash.
Every first Monday of each month there is a dollar day special of five loads of clothes for $1 at M&M Laundry.
M&M gets its name from its owners, Mrs. Mearl Davis and Mrs. Mildred Montgomery. Mrs. Davis and Montgomery are experts on stains and washing problems and are happy to give advice to their customers. They have spotters on hand for problem spots.
M&M Laundry has a coin-operated dry cleaning machine that is just right for casual clothes, too. Eight pounds of dry cleaning costs only $2. Working ladies can bring their clothes by on their way to work and attendants at M&M Laundry will spot dry cleaning, put the clothes in the machine, and take them out and have them ready to go when they get off work. Use of the Jiffy Steamer is free with dry cleaning. Or you can press your dry cleaning with the steam presser at 10 cents for 10 minutes. M&M Laundry will press your clothing for you for 75 cents per load.
There is also coin-operated hair dryers at M&M, and customers can dry their hair while they wait for their clothes to wash, dry or dry clean.
Mearl and Mildred have owned the laundry two years. Mrs. Davis moved to Littlefield from Muleshoe and Mrs. Montgomery moved here from Earth. They are assisted by Mrs. Louella Witcher on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Whether you want to wash or clean your clothes or dry your hair or a load of clothes, they invite you to come in and try M&M Laundry.

If you find your name in small print on this page, you may go to that advertiser and collect $2 with no obligation.

Olton Class Celebrates Reunion

OLTON -- The Class of 1930 celebrated its Fortieth Reunion April 18 and 19. Experiences of childhood and high school days 40 to 50 years ago were recalled when 18 members of the 1930 graduating class of Olton High School gathered Saturday in the Olton Recreation Clubhouse for an all-day visit. The fortieth reunion came about at the suggestion of R. E. Womack of Midland. Womack was the youngest member of the graduating class, receiving his diploma at 15. Rev. Ernest Jennings of Lubbock holds the distinction of being the eldest graduate--going back to high school when he was the father of three. Several members worshipped together Sunday at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church where a class mate, Rev. Jennings preached. Sunday the group enjoyed dinner at a local cafe. At this meeting the group sang "Happy Birthday" to the Rev. Jennings. Serving as Master of Ceremonies was Elniece Womack of Midland. Mrs. Frank Cornelius, the former Ruth Brigrance, read the class prophecy from the 1930 "Lone Wolf" annual. Each student present gave a short summary of their lives the past 40 years.

South Plains Students To Aid Storm Victims

Approximately 150 South Plains College students have been aiding in the clean-up and reconstruction of homes and businesses that were destroyed or heavily damaged by the tornadoes of this past weekend in Whiteface and Whitharral. However, the South Plains College Student Council voted Monday night to expand this aid and attempt to raise money and secure food and clothing for these two communities. Activity proceeds to go to the campaign sponsored by the Council includes all-campus carwash to be held in about eight different places Thursday and Friday afternoons on the SPC campus. The proceeds from all carwashes will go to the tornado stricken towns. Carwashes will be held in the parking lots of all campus dormitories therefore anyone in town should find time and a place to have their car or cars washed. The price charged will be $1 per vehicle for an outside only; if the owner has both an inside and outside washed job, the charge is $1.50. Satisfaction is promised all vehicles washed by college students. The parking lots of Hall, Stroud Hall, Farmer, Lamar Hall, Magge Hall, Lespie Hall, South Sea and North Sea Spencer are the locations of the carwashes. In addition to the carwashes, the College Band and Choir will be engaged to make cash donations to bring food and clothing to the stricken towns. Receipts will be placed in the SPC Auditorium for the purpose of collecting items. The concert, which is an annual springtime event of the Music Department at the college, will be an entertainment program that will be enjoyed by all who attend.

TEAM QUALIFIES FOR REGIONAL

LHS Girls Place 2nd In District Track Meet

Neither mud nor high winds kept the District 29 Girls Track meet from taking place in Littlefield Saturday. The work crew was up early sopping up water from the south end of the field and the track was ready on time for the preliminaries.

All eight members of the LHS girls' track team placed high enough in the meet to go on to the regional meet.

The Littlefield girls racked up 134 points to give them second place in the meet behind Idalou.

Doris Ashley was the top winner for Littlefield scoring three blue ribbons in the 60-yard dash with a time of 7.3, the 100-yard dash with a 11.3 and the 440-yard relay with Vollena Francis, Brenda Feagley and Luanne Lucas with a winning time of 53.6.

Junnie Gray placed third in the 80-meter hurdles with a time of 14.2 and fourth in the long jump with a jump of 14' 11 1/2".

Shirley Durham placed first in the shot put throwing 32' 2 1/4" and first in the discus throwing 85' 5".

Sheila Jackson placed sixth on the discus with a throw of 63' 1/4" and was on the 880-yard relay which placed third in the meet. Other members of the team were Pam McNeese, Sharlyn Goss and Tonya Pickrall.

The high point girl of the track meet was Brenda VanWinkle of Seminole who alone scored 48 points for that team. Miss VanWinkle took first in the high jump, broad jump, triple jump and 220-yard dash. She placed second behind Miss Ashley in the 100-yard dash.

Mrs. Marti Toulmin, Littlefield's coach, wanted to extend her appreciation to all those people who helped so much in preparing for the track meet and especially to Steve Owens and Charles Carter for all their time spent in lining the track. Without them, it would never have been ready in time.
