County Rainfall More Than Usual

Depending on the location in Lamb County and the surrounding area, rainfall totals for 1972 thus far are averaging from 25 to 30 inches.

Following 2 rain here Thursday evening, the rainfall total in the immediate Littlefield area is up to 25.54 according to the official gauges kept by John Harmon at the SCS office.

All but a quarter inch of the rainfall for the entire year fell during the last four months, with the unprecedented total of 21.64 coming during July.

There was no measurable moisture here during January. Only .1 fell in February, .15 during March, none in April, 6.47 in May, 9.80 in June, 21.64 in July, and 3.90 in August.

With four months left, rainfall has exceeded the yearly average rainfall of 24.04 in this area.

Thursday's rains were spotted and measured from almost no precipitation to 4.5 and 5.0 in the Littlefield trade area.

The heaviest rains fell in the Bala and Beck Gin areas where 4, 4.5 and as much as 5 inches were recorded. The roads around the gin were still closed Friday morning because of the high rains. Toward the Oklahoma Flat community southwest of Littlefield, quite a bit of hail was reported Thursday and rains averaged more than 1.5.

Rains of as much as 1.75 and light hail fell northwest of Whitharral. Moisture was lighter in the Lums Chapel community where David Jones reported 1.

Agricultural officials said what the area cotton crop needs now is plenty of warm, sunny weather. Normally the cutoff date for irrigating cotton is between Aug. 20-25, and usually any moisture after the August dates prolong a maturing date for cotton and cuts cotton yields.

Prolonged cold, wet weather at this stage puts the area cotton crop in dangerous shape if there is an early frost.

While the rains are not what farmers are ordering for cotton crops, the moisture is good for producers putting in small grain crops. Moisture is also beneficial to the grain sorghum crops and soybeans.

Break-Ins Continue Within City

City police officers are continuing to investigate break-ins within the city limits. The break-ins this week are a continuation of several from previous weeks.

Sometime Monday night or early Tuesday morning, a new mobil home on the Garland Motor Company lot was entered after the lock was pried open. Taken from the home were a lamp and drapes, and an attempt was made to take the drapery rods.

A citizen on North Westside reported Sunday morning that his mobil home had been broken into, and that a coat had been left on the bed. Officers found that a window had been broken out.

Sometime Sunday night or Monday morning, the front door glass on the Gulf Station at the 84 and 54 overpass had been broken out and the building was entered. Equipment had been stored in the building.

Late Thursday night, police officers were notified that a glass was broken from the north side of the Goodyear store, and that two subjects were seen running from the scene. Taken from the store were a 10" GE colored television set, and an 18" GE black and white television set.

Officers are also investigating the report of the loss of a billfold at a laundry in the city. The billfold contained $60 (3 20-dollar bills), her driver's license, pictures and her husband's old driver's license.

Monday A Holiday For Some Offices

Most of Littlefield's downtown businesses will remain open Monday—Labor Day—and will be offering Dollar Day bargains to the shoppers.

However, offices in the courthouse and city hall will be closed, along with the post office, driver's license division, and all federal and state offices.

No rural or city mail deliveries will be made, but boxes in the post office will be serviced.

Chamber Schedules Month Of Events

Several activities are scheduled on the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture calendar this month.

A field representative of the Small Business Administration's Lubbock District office will be in Littlefield Thursday, Sept. 7 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon to interview and counsel small businessmen.

Friday, Sept. 8, a camper rally will be conducted at the free campsite on Highway 385. Members of the Silver Streak Trailer Club from throughout a wide area will gather for a meeting. The C-CA and other interested citizens will welcome them to the city.

Tuesday, Sept. 12, members of the P-TA, "We, The Women", C-CA red coats, and the C-CA board of directors will honor all of Littlefield's teachers at a reception in the Willy Room of the REA building from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Tuesday night, Sept. 19, the annual Pep Farm Dinner will be served in the Parish Hall at Pep.

A fly-in breakfast has tentatively been set for Sunday morning, Sept. 24 at the airport.

Saturday, Sept. 30, members of the Highway 385 Association will meet for a noon luncheon in McCamey.

Weekly Football Contest Begins In This Issue Of The Leader-News

It's time for grandstand coaches, arm chair quarterbacks and football fans to begin guessing the outcome of weekly football games again.

This year the Leader-News is offering $10 in weekly prizes to those who can guess who the most winners.

Those who forecast the most games within the entire year's contest will win two tickets and $25 in expense money to the New Year's Day football classic at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas.

PRYOR HAMMONS' PREDICTIONS

When Will It Freeze?

By NILAH RODGERS

If Pryor Hammons predictions are right, the Littlefield area will get its first frost about Oct. 20th and the first freeze will come between Nov. 1 and the fourth of November.

Hammons has been predicting freezes and frosts since 1905 when someone near Nacona told him how Indians foretold the first freeze and frost of the year by counting from the first norther in August.

"This year's weather has got me confused," Hammons said. "It's hard to tell exactly when the first wind was directly out of the north. The wind changed to the north and it blew in a rain on the 6th. But we actually had a norther about two weeks later."

According to Hammons' counting, that calls for a light frost about 20th of October and a freeze 10 days to two weeks later, or the first four days in November.

"That will be pretty close," he said, "this year's weather is really haywire. All the weather people are bumfuzzled. I'm just guessing."

Going by the first norther in August has been an accurate gauge for Hammons a number of years. "At one time I thought I was real good," the retired mortician said with a laugh. "I hit the first little frost and the freeze right on the date for four or five years."

When Hammons first started using the Indian sign in East Texas, he'd count ahead 60 days. "When I moved to Lamb County (in 1925), I was always missing it," he said. Then he started checking and decided he needed to add another 10 days for this part of the country. "So it's actually 70 days 'til frost."

Hammons goes by another Indian sign to predict rain. According to an old legend, if the moon is turned up enough to hang a powder horn on when the new moon first starts, you'd just as well hang up your gun because it will be too wet to hunt.

Weekly winners, plus the standings, will be reported in the following Thursday's issue of the Leader-News.

Weekly winners will receive $5 for first place, $3 for second place and $2 for third place. In case of ties, the tie breaker scores will be used to determine the rankings.

Quarterback Club Sets First Meeting

The first meeting of the Littlefield Quarterback Club will be in the High School Cafeteria Tuesday night at 7:30.

Films of the Littlefield-Taboka and Littlefield-Phillips scrimmage games will be shown. Anyone who has not previously signed up may do so at the Tuesday meeting.

Officers for this year are Billy Tom Grant, president; Warren Dayton, vice president; David Hamblin, secretary-treasurer; and Russell Blevins and Orville Bassett, directors.

PRYOR HAMMONS hits the first frost and first freeze in the Littlefield area almost consistently by going by an old Indian sign of counting ahead 60 days from the first norther in August. Depending on whether the first norther was considered on Aug. 6 or about two weeks later, Hammons said the first light frost will nip this area about October 20, and the first freeze should follow about Nov. 1 through Nov. 4.

JANICE BENHAM Bride Of
BUSTER SMITH

See Her Selections On Display In Our Store.

Miss Susan Everett and Jarold Neuenschwander exchanged vows in a beautiful and impressive double ring ceremony at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, July 30, 1972, in the Bandera United Methodist Church. Rev. Lewis White officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Everett of Bandera and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Neuenschwander of Littlefield.

Wedding music was presented by Everett McAuley of Beeville who accompanied Ray Owens of Pasadena when he sang "Ich liebe dich" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza and satin with Alencon lace applied with seed pearls and crystals. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to her crown of Alencon lace encrusted with pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Bill Crain of Pearsall was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frank Crone of Odessa, sister of the groom, Mrs. Zane Everett of Bandera and Mrs. Lee Moseley of San Antonio. They wore identical dresses of apricot crepe with white leaf lace trim and carried bouquets of apricot and white carnations.

Amy Crain, niece of the bride and Debbie Crone, niece of the groom, were flower girls and wore long dresses of apricot and white, styled similar to the bridesmaids' dresses. They wore apricot bows and flower cascades in their hair.

Attending the groom as best man was David Tullis of San Antonio. Groomsman were Zane Everett of Bandera, Frank Crone of Odessa and Bill Crain of Pearsall.

Serving as ushers were John Walton of Victoria, Allen Hobrathsch of Littlefield and Jack Shirley of Lubbock.

Lighting the candles was Byron Klein. Rice bags were carried by Jamie Klein and Dawn Crain.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at Montague Resort Ranch. Debra Klein registered the guests.

The bride's table was covered with a white satin and net cloth and centered by a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with fresh flowers and the traditional miniature floral and groom. A floral centerpiece of apricot carnations and white gladioli carried out the color decor.

The groom's table was beautiful with the tall gold candle holder and candle trimmed with ivy, which had been part of the wedding decor, and the massive German chocolate cake. Finger sandwiches and punch were served from both tables.

The bride chose a traveling suit of brown and white with brown accessories. The couple honeymooned in New Mexico.

Vows Slated At Pep

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sherley of St. Rt. 2 Littlefield, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Peggy Jo Sherley, to William James Demel. The prospective bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Demel of Pep.

Wedding vows will be repeated in St. Philip's Catholic Church at Pep at 7 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 15.

The bride-elect graduated from Littlefield High School in 1971 and attended South Plains College a year. She is presently employed as a checker at Pay & Save.

Demel graduated from Pep High School in 1971 and attended South Plains College in Levelland a year. He is employed at Pioneer Natural Gas.

MRS. JAROLD NEUENSCHWANDER

Vicky Davis, Max Huber Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Vicky Nell Davis and Gordon Max Huber exchanged double wedding ring vows in the Missionary Baptist Church Aug. 4 at 7:30 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wayne Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Huber of Littlefield.

The bride was presented for marriage by her step-father, Carl Wayne Davis. Rev. J. B. Cagle read the ceremony at the altar decorated with an archway with pink and white daisies and greenery. Candle trees with pink candles and arms containing large pink daisies, greenery and ribbons flanked the archway. Pink ribbons marked the pews.

The bride wore a full length white gown of dacron polyester organza. A lace trimmed illusion mantilla flowed softly forming a full length train over the gown trimmed with pearls. Chantilace outlining the oval neckline. The Empire bodice fell into an A-line skirt with the lace forming an apron effect. Full bell sleeves were accented at the wrist and elbow with lace.

Her bridal bouquet was of pink babydoll roses, pink daisies, pink baby's breath, ivy and streamers.

For something old she carried her great-grandmother's antique handkerchief. Her gown and veil was something new; she borrowed a Bible from the groom's sister, wore a blue garter belonging to the bride's aunt and wore pennies in her shoe minted in the year of the bride's and groom's birth for good luck.

As the bride approached the altar she presented her mother with a red rose, then kissed her father, James William Witt of Lubbock. Following the ceremony the bride presented her mother-in-law with a red rose.

Vivian Davis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Pam Huber and Cindie Huber, sisters of the groom, were bridesmaids. Melissa of Austin, cousin of the groom was flower girl, and Stovall of Littlefield was bearer. George and the Davis, brothers of the groom served as candlelighters.

Buddy Witcher of Littlefield was best man. Greg of Littlefield and Alan of Hereford ushered the bride.

The maid of honor, bridesmaids and flower dresses were made by the groom's mother. The honor and flower girls' length gowns were done and the bridesmaid's light pink were made of satin with square neck Empire waists and accented with lace and rosettes.

The bride's mother wore a formal length satin dress with gold sequins accenting the Empire and V-neckline. Accessories were white white rose corsage.

The groom's mother wore a formal length rose gown accented with trim at the waist with accessories and a white corsage.

Musical selections "Wedding Song" and "Twelfth of Never" by Wayland Hutto with Brandt at the organ.

Mrs. Clyde Tyson, the bride, registered and distributed scrolls.

Following the ceremony reception was held at the bride's parent's home, E. 20th. The serving table covered with a white and decorated with pink and bows, centered the bride's bouquet and set with appointments crystal and silver.

Vicki Grimes and Betty Betts of Littlefield, served three-tiered cake decorated with pink daisies and greenery along with strawberry mints and strawberry confections.

Following a trip to and Fort Worth, the couple at home at 921 W. Littlefield.

PEGGY SHERLEY

Mrs. McCleskey Is Honored

ANTON-Mrs. Henry McCleskey, formerly Melody Waters, was honoree at a bridal shower Saturday, Aug. 26, in the home of Mrs. Walter Walthall Jr.

Mrs. Eva Dee Wright served coffee, tea, fruit and nut bread from a table covered with a white linen cutwork cloth. The centerpiece was an arrangement of purple and pink flowers. China and silver appointments were used.

Twenty-six registered from Littlefield, Levelland, Floydada and Anton. Special guests were the bride's mother, Mrs. John Waters, Anton; her grandmothers, Mrs. Eva Waters, Anton; and Mrs. Beatrice Gardenhire, Littlefield; and her aunt, Mrs. Mary Tisdale, Littlefield; and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Emory Waters, Floydada; and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Allen Harris, Levelland.

Hostesses gift was a set of stainless steel cookware. Assisting Mrs. Walthall with hostess duties were: Mmes. Paul Reed, Sid Landers, Henry Bates, Eva Dee Wright, Thomas James, Paul Tullis, F. D. Stephens, Zade Hooper, Chester Jones, Ted Zant, R. M. Newell, Wyatt Batson and Miss Francis Collins.

Smith-Frisbie Vows Read Friday Night

A candlelight setting illuminated the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church for the wedding ceremony of Miss Sandra Smith and Michael Frisbie. Vows were exchanged in a double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 1.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith of Littlefield and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Frisbie of Lubbock. The Rev. David Hamblin, assisted by Father Hoffman of St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church, performed the ceremony before an altar centered with a large candle tree adorned with greenery and ivory tapers. Flanking the tree were matching arrangements of gold and bronze chrysanthemums and commadore trees.

For her wedding, the bride selected a formal gown of imported ivory organza and chantilly lace. The slim Empire silhouette featured a sabrina neckline outlined with seed pearls and full Gibson girl sleeves appliqued with lace. The A-line, three-tiered skirt was edged in bands of chantilly lace showing scalloped edges and a tiny fluted organza ruffle. A full length double-layered mantilla edged in matching lace and held by a lace halo adorned her head. She carried a bouquet of white glamelias and Hans ivy.

Following tradition, the bride wore the wedding band given to her mother on her mother's wedding day and also a blue garter belonging to her sister. A lavalier locket belonging to the bride's grandmother was also worn.

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Bobby Nelson of Littlefield. She was attired in a gown of ivory and iridescent brown and carried a bouquet of gold and bronze pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Richard Frisbie of Garland, a brother of the groom, was best man. Seating guests were Capt. John Frisbie of San Antonio and Steve Frisbie of Lubbock, brothers of the groom, and Bobby Nelson of Littlefield, brother-in-law of the bride.

Natalie and Brent Nelson, niece and nephew of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid and ring bearer. Natalie's dress and bouquet were identical to the matron of honor's.

Background music was provided by Gary Wood at the organ and Jan Harmon at the piano.

The bride's mother chose a gown of soft pink chiffon with a fitted lace bodice, full sleeves, and a flowing skirt. A corsage of pink sweetheart rosebuds complimented her ensemble.

The groom's mother wore a pale aqua coat and dress ensemble with appliques of lace. Her corsage was also of pink rosebuds.

Registering guests was Mrs. Larry Brown of Littlefield, cousin of the bride.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlor. Wedding cake and punch were served from silver appointments on a table centered with an arrangement of white spider mums and white sweetheart roses. Serving guests were Mrs. Jimmy Clark, Mrs. Steven Frisbie, Mrs. Richard Frisbie, and Mrs. Nick Biffle. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Jimmy Ratliff and Tana, Mrs. Billy Smith, Mrs. J. C. Smith, Jr., and Mrs. Gene Ratliff.

For a honeymoon trip to Juarez, Mexico, the bride wore a turquoise costume suit with flowers lifted from the bridal bouquet.

After the wedding trip, the couple will reside at 2308 32nd in Lubbock.

The bride is a graduate of Littlefield High School and Texas Tech with a degree in Interior Design, and is currently employed by Fox Film Co.

The groom is also a graduate of Texas Tech with a degree in English and is employed by the State Department of Welfare.

Operation Motorcide

APPROXIMATELY 48 persons are expected to die on Texas streets and highways over the Labor Day weekend, according to estimates by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

The DPS will conduct Operation Motorcide from 6 p.m. Friday through midnight, Sept. 4. This will be one of four 24-hour holiday periods that will be critical for all motorists.

NAJIB C. W. BELL, DPS Region 1 Commander said that all available uniformed personnel will be put into action for maximum enforcement of traffic laws. Mayor Bell said, "Each driver should drive defensively at all times." Mayor Bell suggested that each individual practice driving defensively—the Texas way.

DPS records show that the majority of traffic fatalities are caused by excessive speed and the drinking driver. The DPS reminds the motoring public that 0.10 per cent blood alcohol in one's body is the presumptive level of legal intoxication under Texas law.

APPROXIMATELY 500 National Guardsmen will assist the uniformed personnel in the Dallas, Tyler, Houston, Corpus Christi, San Antonio, and Austin areas. Many of these guardsmen will be riding in DPS patrol cars through the Labor Day weekend to enable the Department to have more units and personnel on the road.

Motor Vehicle Inspection Sergeant John Mason of Region 1 said two per cent of all fatal accidents on Texas highways are caused by mechanical failures. He strongly urges all motorists to be certain that their inspection sticker is up to date.

CAPT. SHELTON of the Driver License Service wants the unlicensed driver not to jeopardize his life, because last year seven per cent of all 284 Texas traffic fatalities involved the unlicensed driver.

It is the fervent hope of the DPS that Texans, and out of state motorists, will enjoy this American tradition of celebrating the Labor Day weekend in a sensible, safe manner. Let's prove the substantial wrong by keeping the actual death count way below the estimated 48 lives predicted to be lost. This responsibility is in the hands of those behind the wheel.

BELOW IS A LIST of rules to drive by, in order to celebrate Labor Day next year:

1. Don't mix gasoline with alcohol.
2. Use seat belts. Your chances of survival in a major accident are five times greater when you are buckled up.
3. Slow down, drive according to the traffic, weather, vehicle condition, and your own physical condition. Lives lost do not make up for the small amount of time you think you save!
4. Obey all traffic laws. They were ordained by Texas to keep the Texas motorist safe and alive for all times!

IF THIS WEEKEND is accident free, then we'll celebrate Labor Day in '73.

Dear Sir:

I hope some of your readers will be able to assist me with my genealogy work.

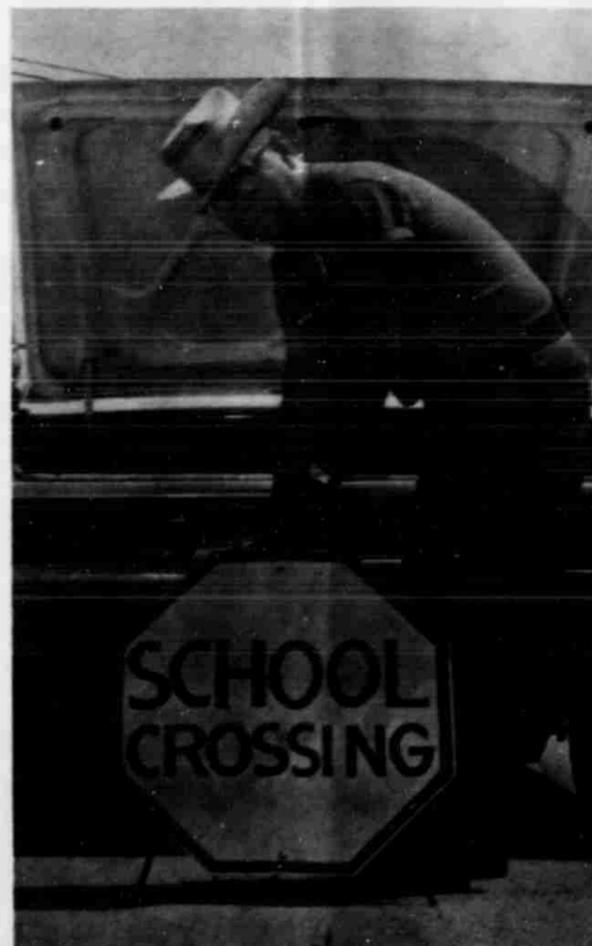

I am attempting to locate the background of my great-great-grandfather, Jeremiah Dungan. He was born about 1785, perhaps in Smythe County or Washington County, Virginia. He was also known as Jeremy, J., married Remembrance Cole, daughter of Captain Joseph Cole and Margaret Leaper Cole, in about 1805.

They left Virginia and went to various places, eventually settling in Pulaski County, Kentucky on "Fishing Creek". It is believed they lived, also, in Tennessee.

I have family records showing that several of the Dungans left Virginia and lived in Tennessee.

I have family records showing that several of the Dungans left Virginia and lived in Tennessee.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Mildred Dungan Cannon

HONNY GETS

By CORNBALL BLEN

IT WAS WITH INTEREST that I read the poll of those psychologists and fellow-Americans. Somehow I've come up with the suspicion that I've been GEESED! — (You GOOSE a person with more than one finger.)

It's not my intention to question the authenticity of the survey, or to even ask what these guys do for a living. Certainly, it must be important.

WHAT PUZZLES ME is that when the columnists' rating came around, how come the publisher thought of CORNBALL?

Even so, it would appear that I'd rate better as a columnist, than I do as an auto-repairman. That's the reason I say I was geesed, I've been fingered twice, and one right behind the other! (No. 18, as a columnist and No. 17 as an auto-repairman.)

I'M SURE THE publisher wouldn't stand still for me to defend my trade. He'd be wakin' to charge me for advertising. However, I might get away with the observation that most distrust for mechanics is displayed by the people that don't know a spark-plug from a lug-bolt!

Admitted, is the fact, that there are many of the unscrupulous who are just waiting to fleece these lambskins. The best insurance against this is to KNOW your repairman, else try to be sure you're dealing with a reputable concern. Aside from this, you might try to learn a little something about the care and feeding of your automobile!

WHAT STOPPED me, momentarily, was the trust of the physicians above the clergy! However, after a little thought, this might be understandable. It's pretty sure that you could go to several doctors with some common illness, and come up with the same diagnosis and treatment, but unless you want your brain scrambled, you'd better stick with your own clergyman, or at least one of the same faith!

WHICH MAY, or may not, open door for a discussion of columnists. These are the guys that take a few dollars and draw a conclusion and then draw an OPINION. And, of all things, they do this for a living!

Now, anyone of average intelligence knows that these guys have superintellect. They have the feelings, ideas, and prejudices anyone else. They read a lot, listen to newscasts, and stand quick to draw, with an OPINION I don't know do it for a living.

CANT' A FELLOW give an opinion and be HONEST? This is the way of our doctors and clergymen. Why not columnists?

But, then, of course, there's writers that are always ready to give an opinion without having any facts. Sure this would be MY category, but I'm not subject to the results of the poll, and stand on the fifth amendment.

Surely, then, I'd be rated way on the list, possibly with the publisher, salesmen, and tax collectors, not appearing in the top twenty!

HOWEVER, I'M OF the opinion that you want to have a guy's trust, all you gotta do is tell him what he wants to hear! This is the basis the politicians operate on. This is also the basis of popularity.

There's many places the truth won't do! Try telling the little girl just what you think of her new hair-do. Tell the neighborhood boy you're sorry he came into your yard and you wish he'd go elsewhere.

Tell a female acquaintance that overpainted and looks gaudy, or that looks repulsive in hot pants or a skirt. Or you might tell her husband he has a low sense of humor, and you don't want to hear any more of corny jokes! Tact, you know.

ANYWAY, IT'S NICE to know I decided not to be numbered with the untrustworthy columnists! Thank you mentionin' it anyway, Mr. Publisher!

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Endure Patiently

WE ENDURE PATIENTLY, when we continue, continue to try, to plan, to live, to hope. We may be enduring some undesirable and unwanted situation, that cannot be changed, or we may be enduring as this principle applies to the on-going experience of living.

Regardless, we are not going to do well unless we learn the value of continuing in the most effective way. We must not give up or even become unduly discouraged or frustrated.

THERE IS SOME DEGREE of victory for all persons who will endure patiently. There may not be total triumph, as we think we would like it; but there will be adequate success.

It will be enough, and will be so much better than the misery and waste in the life of the impatient people who let themselves feel overwhelmed, and either give up or blow up. Many promising futures have never been realized just because the persons did not endure patiently.

THE CHALLENGE OF LIFE is a very definite reality about which each one of us must do something. Some make a great start, and seem destined to run the full course in a grand way; but something goes wrong.

There are some setbacks, some disappointments, some obstacles and some discouragement; and the people quit. Others, with no easier way, refuse to quit. They know how to endure patiently.

WE MUST NEVER QUIT TRYING. We may have to change attitudes and methods, and it may be necessary to alter our plans; and some wise assistance may be needed now and then.

All of this, however, is part of practical principle which works to us endure patiently.

THE BASIS FOR SUCCESS continuing effort, it's strong reason to us.

we fit our behavior to resolution, we have a very good for satisfactory accomplishment.

THE TESTINGS which have possibility of making us strong never serve their purpose, if we give even if we whimper and whine complain. They will strengthen us, endure patiently, with a spirit of cheer.

Some of this enduring will submission, but it is submission to purpose; submission that does compromise any principles of right truth, but is the justified means to a worthy end.

WHEN WE ENDURE PATIENTLY we are cooperating with the formula. Whatever we do, or what our situation; the desired outcome never be attained unless we keep trying. This spirit helps to make the process tolerable, and usually makes it satisfactory.

MANY UNNECESSARY problems develop, and many uncalculated occur because people refuse to endure patiently.

WE WILL BE HAPPIER, accomplish more, too; when we do our best accompanied by undaunted spirit of perseverance.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID FRANKLIN DRISKILL

BULA—Miss Helen Louise Black and David Franklin Driskill pledged wedding vows Saturday evening Aug. 19, at 6 p.m. in the Bula Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Black, Route 1, Sudan and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Driskill of Amarillo.

Officiating for the reading of the double ring vows was Rev. Jerry Hailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Edmonson.

The ceremony was performed under an archway entwined with lilly of the valley and pink carnations, flanked on the sides by large arrangements of white gladiolus and pink carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bridal gown made and designed by her mother. The formal gown was fashioned with an Empire styled waist of bridal satin overlaid with lace, featuring long puffed sleeves fastened at the cuffs with tiny covered buttons with lace loops.

Her shoulder length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a bandeau of lace matching the bridal gown. She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, stephanotis and English ivy with an orchid lift out corsage atop a white Bible. The bride wore the traditional blue garter, for "something borrowed" was her white Bible from a friend; "something old", she wore her great-grandmother's wedding band; and for "something new" the bridal gown and veil completed the tradition.

Serving the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Barbara Black. Bridesmaids were Jodie Withrow, Route 1, Sudan and Susan Black, cousin of the bride, Route 1, Sudan. They wore formal gowns of pink linen styled with Empire waist, long sleeves fastened at the cuff with tiny covered buttons and decorated loops, the necklines of the gowns were trimmed with pink and white daisies trimming. They carried three long stem pink roses tied with streamers of white satin ribbon.

Flower girl was Dora Black, sister of the bride. Her dress was fashioned like the attendant's dress. Ring bearer was Donald Black, brother of the bride, the heart shaped pillow he carried was made of satin and lace to match bride's dress and was designed and made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. W. Black.

Charles Driskill of Amarillo served his brother as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Wayland Hutto and Shu Okumara both of Plainview.

Miss Margaret Richardson played musical selections and accompanied Mrs. Jackie Rumbough as she sang "Twelfth of Never".

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Black was attired in an aqua blue sleeveless dress, with a short sleeve matching jacket. The groom's mother wore a pink knit dress, both wore white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Bill Black of Lubbock, and sister-in-law of the bride, registered the guests.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church.

The serving table was laid in a floor-length net cloth over pink centered with a single pink candle in a ceramic candleholder surrounded by a ring of pink and white flowers. Assisting in the serving were Sherry Black and Diane Black, cousins of the bride and Mrs. Bill Black, sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride wore an ensemble of a tailored plae blue jacket with long sleeves accented with yellow buttons and yellow top stitching and a blue-beige and yellow plaid a-line skirt. They are now at home at

Olton Couple Slates Date

OLTON—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meinecke announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sheree Lee Ann, to Mickey Dean Crowder, son of Mrs. Glen Combest and Hoover Crowder.

Vows will be exchanged Saturday, Oct. 7, in First United Methodist Church at 8 p.m. Friends and relatives are invited to attend the ceremony.

The bride, a 1972 honor graduate of Olton High School, is presently employed with Sears in Plainview.

Crowder, a graduate of Olton High School and Kansas Institute, is currently associated with Marbax Shirt Company as a computer programmer.

Meet The Minister

Rev. And Mrs. T. F. Starnes

Following two years of not having a pastor, the United Pentecostal Church in Littlefield is now regaining its strength under the ministry of Rev. and Mrs. T.F. Starnes.

The Starnes came to Littlefield July 18 from full-time evangelism in the Dallas area.

Both Rev. Starnes and his wife, Ina, are natives of Wichita Falls, where they completed their public school education.

During his first pastorate in Abilene at the First United Pentecostal Church, Rev. Starnes completed correspondence courses through the American School.

During part of that same period of time, Rev. Starnes served as youth president of the Section One of the Texico District of the United Pentecostal Churches for five years.

In 1963, Rev. Starnes began his pastorate of the Emmanuel Pentecostal Church at Robert Lee. He served that church two years and four months.

Then in January, 1966, he organized a church at Merkel, and in 1967 he went to Sweetwater.

He had been in full time evangelism in the Dallas area from 1969 until he came to Littlefield in July.

At the present time, Rev. Starnes works as a salesman for the Sunshine Biscuit Company of Lubbock in order to supplement his income.

He enjoys singing and playing the guitar for the church services, and doesn't have much time for hobbies.

Mrs. Starnes enjoys sewing, crocheting and doing all sorts of handcrafts, besides her duties with the church. She presently works in the center of interest department of the Sunday school.

She was the home missions director while they were in Sweetwater, and served as the Ladies Auxiliary president in Oklahoma City in 1953.

She has taught classes in the Pentecostal Faith School in Oklahoma City.

The couple has a son and a daughter and two grandchildren.

Their son, Ronald Starnes is serving with the U.S. Army in Alaska, and he and his wife, Linda Gayle, have a 1 1/2-year-old daughter.

Their daughter, Linda Gail Boone, resides in Fort Stockton with her husband, Carlton, and their 2-month-old son.

The Starnes enjoy the friendly atmosphere of Littlefield, and readily compared the different parts of the county with the extra friendliness of people in Littlefield.

Their work in Littlefield is considered mission work, after the work has been closed two years.

In making his statement to the citizens of Littlefield, Rev. Starnes commented "Wanted, Saints. No experience needed. Will train." Then he remarked that this thought came to him while reading the classified ads one night.

'Cat Defense Dominates Scrimmage

PHILLIPS DEFENSE TOUGH TOO!

The Littlefield Wildcats, in their second controlled scrimmage of the young season, popped the visitors from Phillips here Friday night by the score of 4 tallies to 1. Two of Littlefield's scores came on goal line offensive work with J. E. Johnson scoring twice while Phillips managed it's only tally in that phase of the scrimmage.

Prior to the goal line drills, the deepest the visitors penetrated the Wildcats end of the field was to the Wildcat 24 yard line.

If you happened to get to the scrimmage over two plays late into the game, you missed the Wildcats first score. Arturo Soria, 160 pound senior, took the handoff from QB Terry Bryson and took advantage of a good hole on the left side and raced 70 yards for the first score of the night.

The Wildcats moved well on their first set of offensive plays which was highlighted by Soria's TD run. In this series, Pat Henderson had a run of 24 yards and end Chris Pope picked up 10 yards on a pass from Bryson but a fumble halted this drive.

Overall, the Wildcats fumbled 4 times and got the ball back twice. The tenacious 'Cat defense pounced on six visitor's fumbles.

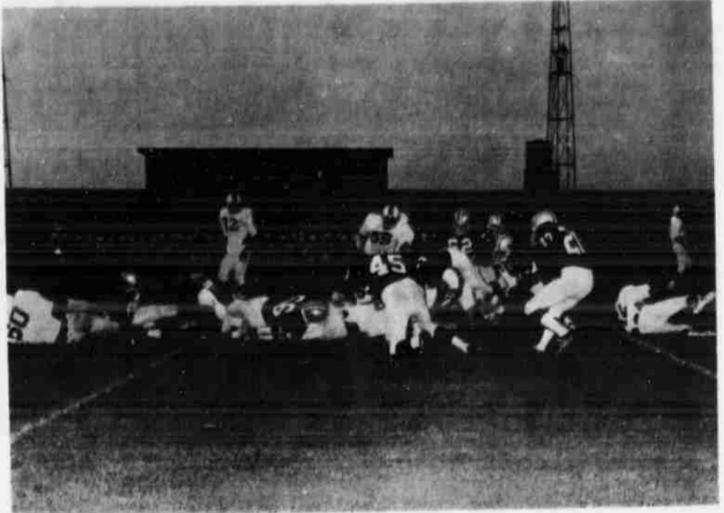

The second series of 20 offensive plays saw the Wildcats score quickly again. Starting from their own 30 yard line, the Wildcats moved upfield on three running plays and a pass from Kelly Pratt to Randy Wesley that picked up 13 yards. On the fifth play of the series, Kenny Owens took a handoff and raced 57 yards for the second TD of the night in a nifty broken field run. Owens broke two tackles at the line of scrimmage and then proceeded to out-manuever the visitors secondary on his TD jaunt. On this second offensive possession, Lenearl Lewis added a run of 30 yards.

During the third and fourth offensive possessions, Bryson had runs of 12 and 29 yards to move the Wildcats but the defense tightened somewhat and no touchdowns were made on these series.

The Wildcats completed 4 of 13 passes with two intercepted. Phillips threw 7 passes and completed two.

Coach Jerry Blakely and the rest of the coaching staff was "exceptionally pleased with the change in the defensive team in terms of aggressiveness from a week ago. We thought the linebackers performed well. Offensively, our lineman had a little trouble with their blocking assignments with their stunting defense."

Oil Painting Workshop Slated In Littlefield

LaWanda Murfee, a Lubbock artist and art instructor, will conduct a series of basic oil painting workshops in Littlefield beginning Sept. 21 and continuing for eight consecutive Thursdays. The classes will be held from 9:30 a.m. through 2:30 p.m. each week at a location to be announced later.

Interested persons may register by calling 385-5535 or 385-4774. Cost of the eight sessions will be $48. The course, sponsored by the Littlefield P-TA, is planned for both beginners in oil painting and more experienced persons who want a refresher course.

Beginners will work on stilllife, and experienced artists will begin with landscape design. The landscape painters will work with their own designs and limited palettes. There will be many demonstrations in groups, with group "through" designs which will draw out composition the next assignment. There have been very successful stimulating the imagination and improving design. Murfee said the landscape painter will be able to a mood by the time workshop is completed.

Mrs. Murfee has a basic oil painting at Municipal Garden and Center in Lubbock and youth classes for years. She has extensively and her painting won citations and many shows. She has studied Lindenwood College, Tech University, the Students League in New City, with Emily Smith and Frederic workshops in this area with Henry Provincetown, Mass.

LaWANDA MURFEE will be teaching a course in basic oil painting in Littlefield eight consecutive Thursdays beginning Sept. 21. Classes will be held from 9:30 until 2:30 p.m. each session.

Bankers Support New Debt Ceiling

The American Bankers Association has announced its support of a proposed $250 billion ceiling on federal spending.

Allen P. Stults, president of the ABA, said legislation to impose the ceiling on fiscal 1973 expenditures was endorsed this week by the association's board of directors.

Stults said the 23-member board unanimously adopted a resolution expressing concern about "the resumption of inflationary pressures and their potentially adverse impact upon the American people and the U.S. economy."

"The discipline of a rigid expenditure ceiling would alleviate the immediate danger of generating an excessively expansionary deficit," the resolution continued.

As a second step, said Stults, the bankers proposed a four-point program to develop permanent measures to control spending:

"Adoption of multi-year budget projections for total spending and specific programs. This will permit lawmakers to assess the ultimate costs of programs.

"Assign definite termination dates to new spending programs, and to existing programs of questionable value.

"Create a joint Congressional Committee to evaluate the federal budget as a whole.

"Subject trust fund programs to budgetary review, expenditure control, and accountability procedures applied to other tax-supported programs.

"This is one of the finest programs ever suggested for fiscal responsibility in our government," states Jack Wicker of the Security State Bank.

"Inflation and devaluation of our dollar is caused primarily by overspending and deficit spending by our government. That means all administrations within the past twenty or thirty years, and the congresses that went along or added to their requests.

"So many programs that are passed are continued long past their need. Other programs, even though necessary, are allowed to grow in cost each year until they are out of proportion to the good accomplished or the original intent.

"It is important to every family that you personally contact your Representative and Senators in the next few days, to urge them to support H. R. 10091 and S.3123 placing a $250 billion expenditure ceiling on the current fiscal year," Wicker stressed.

EMIL MACHA

LOOKS LIKE OLE man weather took his toll Thursday afternoon by hailing out a stretch of cropland four miles long and three miles wide. From reports, this section was about a mile and a half north of Lumsden Gin, west and south of Littlefield. Hope the damage is not as great as some might think.

IN ANOTHER REPORT of turbulent weather, E.L. Schlotman, who lives a couple of miles south and about a mile and a half west of Pep, reported that lightning struck an elm tree next to home. The impact knocked chips of the tree more than feet. I can remember a year back when a twister almost the same spot destroyed his home.

CAN YOU REMEMBER when the saying was "I'm a seven year old child and has never seen rain"? Like we may have to change to say that he has never seen dry ground.

WONDER IF RAINING insects? If it does, the insects in the Bala area will have a chance with the four inch they got Thursday night.

FOOTBALL SEASON for most schools this year. The area teams are looking great. The spirit is high, the material appears to be better each season. Looking there may be a few horses in the area that are coming out strong.

Speaking of football, Leader-News' annual football contest begins in today's paper. Ten dollars will be given away each week and season winner will get tickets to the Cotton Game plus a little extra money.

WENT TO THE scene Friday night and was happy to see the machine in action. Observation, I feel like have a lot of depth.

GOOD LUCK GRIDDER the area. We will be seeing off and on throughout season, and will try to best of our ability, to give the best sports coverage possible.

Swine Producers Discuss Problem

Many Texas swine producers are faced with making changes in their operations to comply with regulations set down by the Texas Water Quality Board.

The whole idea of the Board's regulations is that "treated or untreated wastes may not be discharged to water courses except under rare rainfall events."

Two agricultural engineers with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service have taken a close look at the overall situation of swine waste management and have developed a report to assist swine producers with the problem. "Liquid Manure Management for Swine" was authored by Dr. Billy R. Stewart, environmental control specialist, and Dr. John M. Sweeten, animal waste management specialist.

The Texas A&M University specialists point out that producers meeting certain criteria must register with the Texas Water Quality Board. Registration is based on the number of hogs in confinement, pollution potential and purpose of holding and feeding areas.

Registered producers must comply with several minimum standards for preventing water pollution from confined feeding operations.

"Proper design of swine waste management systems can yield benefits of pollution control, increased animal productivity and improved production efficiency," say the specialists. "In planning new or modified swine production units to meet environmental pollution standards, producers should attempt to incorporate all these benefits."

Basically, manure can be handled as either a liquid or a solid. In confinement housing, liquid handling will usually prove advantageous since it generally requires less labor, can be handled periodically rather than daily, and contains more nutritive value than stockpiled solid manure.

The liquid system must perform conveyance, storage, partial decomposition, transportation and disposal. Several methods could fill these requirements. Scraping and washing floors daily is one and slatted floors with temporary storage pits underneath is another. A third method uses slatted floors plus shallow underground pits which discharge continuously into outside lagoons. "Each must meet the requirements established by the Board," note Stewart and Sweeten.

Two agricultural engineers with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service have taken a close look at the overall situation of swine waste management and have developed a report to assist swine producers with the problem. "Liquid Manure Management for Swine" was authored by Dr. Billy R. Stewart, environmental control specialist, and Dr. John M. Sweeten, animal waste management specialist.

The Texas A&M University specialists point out that producers meeting certain criteria must register with the Texas Water Quality Board. Registration is based on the number of hogs in confinement, pollution potential and purpose of holding and feeding areas.

Registered producers must comply with several minimum standards for preventing water pollution from confined feeding operations.

"Proper design of swine waste management systems can yield benefits of pollution control, increased animal productivity and improved production efficiency," say the specialists. "In planning new or modified swine production units to meet environmental pollution standards, producers should attempt to incorporate all these benefits."

Basically, manure can be handled as either a liquid or a solid. In confinement housing, liquid handling will usually prove advantageous since it generally requires less labor, can be handled periodically rather than daily, and contains more nutritive value than stockpiled solid manure.

The liquid system must perform conveyance, storage, partial decomposition, transportation and disposal. Several methods could fill these requirements. Scraping and washing floors daily is one and slatted floors with temporary storage pits underneath is another. A third method uses slatted floors plus shallow underground pits which discharge continuously into outside lagoons. "Each must meet the requirements established by the Board," note Stewart and Sweeten.

Swine Producers Discuss Problem

Many Texas swine producers are faced with making changes in their operations to comply with regulations set down by the Texas Water Quality Board.

The whole idea of the Board's regulations is that "treated or untreated wastes may not be discharged to water courses except under rare rainfall events."

Peace Corps Volunteer Teaching In Dahomey, West Africa

Cove, Dahomey — In this West African nation whose economy depends on agriculture, a young Texas couple is serving with the Peace Corps to introduce practical farming and homemaking techniques into the traditional elementary school curriculum.

Fred Dooley, 24, who grew up in the ranching community of Christoval, is teaching gardening, farming, animal husbandry and nursery practices to youngsters at ten elementary schools near the town of Cove in southern Dahomey.

His wife, Linda, 23, of Littlefield, is teaching the schoolgirls nutrition and cooking, based on local foods and the new vegetables her husband is introducing in the school gardens.

Dooley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Dooley, who moved this year from Christoval, Tex. to Quemado, N.M.

Mrs. Dooley's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Aaron Williams, live in Littlefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Dooley, both graduates of Rice University in Houston, came to Dahomey as Peace Corps volunteers in December, 1970. Their volunteer assignment is to assist Dahomey's ministry of education in bringing basic agriculture and homemaking know-how into the formal, French-modeled elementary school system.

Only a minority of children in this French-speaking coastal country attend elementary school. In rural Dahomey, village officials and the few farm families who can afford it send their children to elementary school in the hope they will qualify for higher education and an eventual white collar job.

But many youngsters go no further than the elementary schools, usually because they cannot pass qualifying examinations for secondary schools or because their parents cannot afford the costs. Yet, until recently, the elementary schools have done little to teach their pupils the farming techniques most will need to earn their living from the land.

"Our program is set up to give kids an interest in agriculture and the idea that it is not degrading to practice agriculture. If these kids don't make it to any other school past these they will at least have seen that they can make a fairly good living in agriculture," Dooley said.

The Dooleys travel by truck or motorbike from their home in Cove to the ten schools within a 38-kilometer radius. Visiting each school at least once a week becomes a challenge during Dahomey's rainy season, when the red dirt roads are pockmarked with ruts and puddles. When the rains wash out the road leading to three of their schools the Dooleys wade, carrying their motorbikes.

Their schools have garden plots of about five acres each, donated by parents or parent associations. Under Dooley's supervision the students grow corn, peanuts, manioc, cotton, spinach, okra, lettuce, tomatoes, pineapples and other popular fruits and vegetables. Dooley has started several fruit tree nurseries and introduced hybrid corn, dug wells for three schools, and tried fish farming at schools located near a river.

Some of the produce is consumed by the school children in a UNICEF-sponsored hot lunch program; surpluses are sold by student cooperatives in the local markets. One school cooperative purchased rabbits for an animal husbandry program with its profits from last year; others have used the proceeds to buy seeds, fertilizer and sports equipment.

"The kids are spending more time than required working in the gardens because they like it," Dooley said. "The gardens are working as models for the rest of the villages, especially in the use of fertilizers. The kids go home and tell their parents."

Mrs. Dooley works with the older girls at each of the elementary schools — teaching sewing, child care, cooking and nutrition. In her cooking demonstrations she shows how to prepare vegetables grown in the school gardens and how to boost the nutritional value of traditional foods.

In her child care classes, for example, she teaches the girls to add protein-rich fish flour to cereal for infants. Stressing low-cost sources of protein, she demonstrates the preparation of nutritious peanut, dry bean and vegetable sauces for the local staple dish, a fermented corn flour paste.

One problem which disturbs the Dooleys is the relative affluence of their students.

"Only the rich kids get the benefit of the program because the rich kids are the ones who go to school," Mrs. Dooley said. "Those who could most take advantage of our educational program are not getting it."

These "rich" children, they noted, are those whose parents can afford the primary school tuition — one to two dollars a year. Dahomey's average per capita income is an estimated $70 a year.

The Dooleys both teach in French, the official language of Dahomey and the medium of instruction in the public schools. School regulations prohibit the Dooleys' pupils from using Fon, their local language, in the classroom. The Peace Corps trained the Dooleys in advanced French before sending them to their volunteer assignment in Cove.

The husband-and-wife volunteer team graduated in 1970 from Rice, where he majored in behavioral science and she in anthropology.

About 50 Peace Corps volunteers are serving in Dahomey in school garden.

Moon Rock Fragment To Be At SP Fair

A fragment of moon rock collection on America's first moon landing mission will be on display during the 53rd annual Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock Sept. 25-30.

The sample, weighing 31 grams, was collected by former astronauts Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin E. Aldrin, Jr. during extravehicular activity on the Apollo 11 flight.

The rock was secured from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration through the cooperation of U.S. Rep. George H. Mahon of Lubbock.

The sample is a fresh-appearing vesicular lava, similar in many respects to terrestrial basalts formed by extrusion of a hot gaseous magma onto the earth's surface.

The vesicles represent bubbles formed by the escaping gases within the magma, and they occupy about 15 per cent of the sample by volume, according to NASA scientists.

The shininess of the vesicle walls is due to well-developed crystal faces of the constituent minerals (feldspar and pyroxene).

Mineralogy was said to be 50 per cent pyroxene, 30 per cent ilmenite and 20 per cent plagioclase.

The moon rock will be on display daily throughout the fair run in the Agriculture Building. A guard will be posed with it during all periods of display. At 10 p.m. each night, it will be placed in a vault in keeping with NASA security requirements, fair officials explained.

Two other free attractions—an organ grinder and monkey and "The Sensational Leighs", performing in the giant space wheel—also is being offered patrons this year.

In addition, Charley Pride returns to headline Fair Park Coliseum attractions, opening on stage Monday and Tuesday nights. He will be sharing billing with The Pridemen, country and western singer Johnny Duncan, ventriloquist Alex Houston and Elmer and The North Door.

A gospel music show featuring The Blackwood Brothers Quartet, the Blackwood Singers plus J. D. Sumner and The Stamps Quartet is slated for Wednesday.

An all-star Mexican variety show starring Lola Beltran, Cuco Sanchez, Juan Puento and Graciela Flores, "Mexico's Miss Personality" and a mariachi band, will take over for a one-night stand.

Rounding out the week on Friday and Saturday will be Roy Clark, The Sound Generation and Tom T. Hall and The Story Tellers.

Pride show tickets are $5, $4, and $3. Gospel show tickets are priced at $3 and $2 and tickets for all other shows are $4.50, $3.50 and $2.50. Show times are 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. daily.

Tickets may be obtained at the coliseum box office from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday.

'Texas' Season Closes Aug. 26

The company of the musical drama, "Texas", by Paul Green, played the last performance of the seventh season on Saturday, Aug. 26. In 1972, "Texas" drew more patrons than in previous years. On August 24, the record attendance of 1970 was broken and the total for 1972 was 82,248. People traveled many miles to come. In 1972, 25 per cent of the audience came from out of state. Sixty-four per cent of the people traveled more than a hundred miles each way.

Thirty-four per cent were returning for the second (or third or even in one case, the fortieth) time, and many of those who were returning had traveled great distances to do so.

The "Texas" dates for the eighth season in 1973 will be from June 21 through Aug. 25. There will be one Sunday performance on July first and the other Sundays will be dark. For information about auditions for this coming season, write to "Texas", Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015.

Innocent victim denies rumor

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1972 BY CHARLES THOMAS, N. Y. NEWS SYND.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem I have asked you about in your column. I am a 38-year-old woman who was married for 10 years and bore two children. My husband died 10 years ago. Thank God I was equipped to take a job position in order to support myself and children. I am reasonably attractive, but am not the type who goes to bars alone looking for male companionship. I dated some, but not much, because as soon as I learn that I am not so sex-starved that I can be seduced on the second date, he looks for hungrier waters. My problem: Because I am not actively looking for a man, and have refused to be rushed into bed by so-called eligible bachelors who've dated me, the rumor is rampant that I prefer women. [This was told to me by friends, one woman and the other a man.] Of course, it's a lie, but I have become so self-conscious about it that I don't dare call a single man. I suggest we have dinner or go to a movie together. I am married and bore two children, doesn't that matter? The rumor, I'm told, persists. Now, you're supposed to be a wise woman, does an innocent victim deny such a rumor? PEGGY

DEAR PERSECUTED: The rumor may be rampant as you were led to believe it is. I would like to know the motives of one who would bring such a rumor. [Could a male be attempting to persuade you to "prove" the rumor false?] Or could a woman, who preferred women, be "testing" you? Don't let socializing with women. Forget the rumor, and do behave as you always have.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a man who sleeps with a smile on his face? CURIOUS IN AUSTIN

DEAR CURIOUS: He could be lucky he does in his sleep.

DEAR ABBY: I have a bone to pick with you. April my wife wrote to you, asking if she should come to my 20th high school graduation reunion. She said she didn't come from my hometown, and I know a soul there.

You advised her as follows: "Go anyway. Your husband enjoy himself reminiscing with old friends find plenty of other mates who won't know a soul in town. Well, she took your advice, and she had a better time than I did. In fact, when it came time to go home, she practically drag her away from "Red," the best guy in the class, who majored in football and who wife decided not to come because she wouldn't know either! Now my wife is looking forward to the reunion. Thanks for complicating my life. CLASS

DEAR CLASS: And thanks for answering my question I am asked by hundreds every year. I will accompany my mate to his class reunion! I want to see his soul there."

DEAR ABBY: Three years ago an aunt died and left me a lovely leopard coat. It's about 35 years old, but like new. It was recently restyled, is in excellent condition and has a lovely new lining and fits me perfectly.

My problem? You guessed it. I am completely in accord with the conservation of this animal as well as others in jeopardy, so I would feel terribly guilty to wear the coat—even tho it was purchased long before the leopard was in danger of extinction—or any measures taken to protect it.

I have stored it for three summers now without wearing it once. I don't think it would sell because of its current situation. If you were I, would you wear it? I have your suggestions as to what I should do. Sign me "SPOTS BEFORE MY EYES"

DEAR SPOTS: If I were you, I would not wear it because even tho you have no reason to feel guilty, you would be so concerned about what people might think that you wouldn't enjoy wearing it. You might consider giving it to charity and taking a tax deduction on it. Somewhere where it would be worn with pleasure without feeling self-conscious.

DEAR ABBY: My parents divorced when I was 10. My mother remarried a wonderful man when I was 12. My father always kept in contact with my natural father, and my stepfather was more of an acting father than a real father. I love them both very much.

My problem is this: I am now planning my wedding and I don't know who should give me away. My mother would be proud to do so, but I know each would be hurt and disappointed if he weren't chosen. I don't want to elope, so please don't suggest that solution. Would it be "koshier" to walk down the aisle with a father on each arm?

DEAR DE: Why not? My father [rest his hand on my shoulder] down the aisle with a DAUGHTER on each arm!

DEAR ABBY: That marvelous letter about the salesman who share the same mistress five days a week stuck up on my wall in front of my typewriter.

The lady, it seems, wants to report what she has done for money, that is for tax purposes, but it would cost her extra $1,518 a year.

She should check with her accountant. I think she should report her income as a gift. That way she pays no tax on it, which is nominal, and no tax on the first $10,000. The other possibility is that they consider a gift, for weekends, which, they say, the girl has to pay.

This situation reminds me of my law school days in the mid-'30s, when we were all broke, and about five of us once considered such an arrangement. We couldn't find a girl who would live on $1.00 a week in California, another is senior counsel for a law agency, one has a very successful private law practice (the brightest one) was killed in World War II, and the managing editor of a legal magazine.

I'm not sure what this proves, except maybe that a girl is better? ANONYMOUS, PLEASE, IN SAN FRANCISCO Problems? Trust Abby. For a personal reply, write to ABBY, BOX 69700, L. A., CALIF. 90069 and enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

Pioneer Gas Earnings Reviewed For Analysts

Pioneer Natural Gas Company's earnings for 1972 are estimated between $1.25 and $1.30 per share according to a prediction made today by Burton P. Smith, company president.

Smith reviewed the earnings of the company for this year for a group of New York security analysts. Earnings increased 11.4 per cent over 1971 and outlined plans for new and increased sales which will amount to $17 million on an annual basis.

Four executives of Pioneer appeared before the New York analysts. In addition to Smith, the company was represented by K. B. Watson, executive vice president and director, A. F. Cox, executive vice president and director, and president of Pioneer Natural Gas Company's subsidiary, Pioneer Nuclear, Inc., and E. S. Morris, president of Pioneer Natural Gas Company's producing subsidiary, Amarillo Oil Company.

Watson explained that Pioneer's gas reserves are excellent with the company's reserve life index exceeding 15 years at this time. He stated that the company continues to aggressively seek new gas supplies in the area of and adjacent to Pioneer's service area and reviewed new purchases made this year.

Watson discussed gas rates in effect for the company and pointed out that in 1970 Pioneer began expanding the inclusion of a "cost of gas adjustment" in its rates. Watson continued, "These 100 per cent cost of gas adjustment provisions are extremely important in this period of rapidly increasing field prices for gas."

Morris talked about the operations of Pioneer's producing subsidiaries and announced the start this month of three new deep wells in the Anadarko Basin, all in close proximity to the rapidly developing Hemphill and Wheeler County fields.

A. F. Cox reported on the activities of Pioneer Nuclear, Inc., pointing out that the company is one of 20 in the country now capable of producing uranium oxide concentrate (commonly known as "yellowcake") for sale to commercial users.

Using Atomic Energy figures, Cox projected a shortage of yellow-cake due to the many new nuclear plants being planned—especially in the latter years of the 70's and in the 1980's.

Cox indicated that, because Pioneer Nuclear's sales to Philadelphia Electric Company will not take all of the company's production, an important inventory of yellowcake will be accumulated for future sales during these periods of shortage.

Deer Tags Important

Tagging the deer is normally the last legal step, but one more simple procedure is required this season of hunters who send parts of their venison in different directions.

Recent action by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission requires that any portion of the kill given to a fellow hunter must have a note signed by the hunter making the kill with his name, address, hunting license number and the date and location of the kill.

The note, or the regular tag if the hunter making the bag keeps all of the carcass, must accompany the meat until it reaches its final destination.

Parks and Wildlife law enforcement officials interpret "final destination" as the permanent residence of the hunter or a commercial processing plant.

This helps game management officers do a better job by insuring that deer are harvested legally and identified as such.

Let's use an example of a hunter who kills a deer and wants to share the meat. He gives a ham to one hunting partner and the backstrap to another.

A note must accompany each cut, and, of course, the usual deer tag is required on the portion retained by the hunter.

'Sew Fair' Features Home Sewing Tips

Tailoring tricks. Recycled wardrobes. Designer hints. Pant suits that fit.

The parade of home sewing tips marches to Lubbock Sept. 15 and 16.

"Sew Fair, a panorama of exhibits and presentations, will be sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with home sewing industries." Roxanne Schnorr, Extension Service clothing specialist, announced.

Located at South Mains Mall, Sew Fair will feature representatives from nine major home sewing industries.

"These representatives will demonstrate a host of sewing topics, from installing a zipper to the latest pressing techniques," the Texas A&M University specialist said. "They will present continuous 30-minute talks from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Sept. 15 and 16."

a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 6 p.m. on Sept. 16, open to all and free of charge."

Representatives will also be available to answer individual consumers' questions.

Miss Schnorr added that Extension clothing specialists and Lubbock County home demonstration agents will assist at the fair to register interested consumers and assist participants.

Miss Schnorr named American Thread Co., The Armo Co., Belding Corticelli, Batterick Fashion Marketing Co., Coats and Clark, Inc., General Electric, Pellon Corporation, Talon and Unique Zipper Distributing Co. as companies cooperating to present Sew Fair.

"The traveling fair is visiting four other cities during September" the specialist noted. Cities include Hereford, Pampa, Midland and El Paso.

JET AGE SEWING

Making Men's Pants

MRS. FRANCES JONES

These instructions are for the standard side pockets that run up and down along the side seams. It is for this pocket that most commercial patterns give poor instructions. The western pocket that slants down from the waist to the side seam is much easier to make and pattern instructions are usually sufficient for them.

Let me show you how easy it is to make the straight side pocket as the tailor would make it. First, he adds 1/2 to 3/4 inch of cloth to the palm side of the upper pocket so there will be extra cloth for a good inside finish. The tailor leaves as few raw edges as possible inside a garment. However, if you forget to leave this extra cloth in cutting, do not worry. The allowance is from 1 to 2 on the sketch.

1. Stitch the facings (pant cloth) to the wrong sides of the pocket; 3 to 4 and 5 to 6. Sew only as shown. Leave the outside edges free.

2. Lay the pocket piece on the table inside up and place the pant front over it right side down along the knuckle side. Match the pocket markings; sew along the pocket mouth; backstitch at each end. Trim the seam; grade the pocket side closer to remove bulk; understitch. Press. 7 to 8.

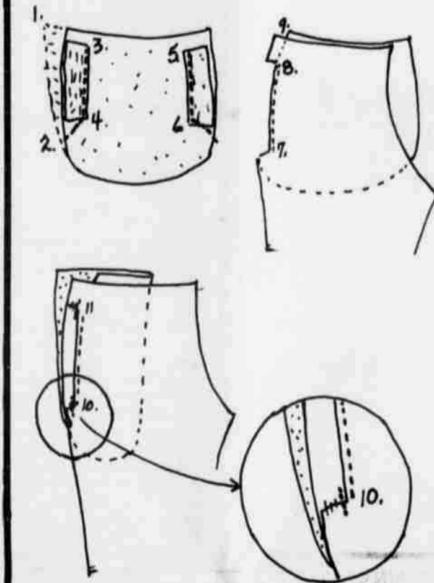

3. The tailor trims the pocket cloth from 8 to 9 to remove bulk. Cut only the pocket cloth.

4. Close the lower pocket bags with either a french seam or a plain seam as desired.

5. With the palm side of the pocket in place, baste the mouth of the pocket (10 to 11) through all layers. At 10 and 11 tack the pant front to the pocket facing (palm side) but do not catch the pocket cloth. Do not dig too deep with the needle. See the enlargement in the circle.

6. With the pants right side up, make a few stitches in an up and down direction exactly on the side seamline. See 10 and 11. Keep the pocket cloth out and sew only through pant cloth. This stitching will guide you and serve as a "seam track" when you stitch the side seam.

Press the pocket openings over a ham. Now you are ready to sew those long out-seams. This job will be explained next. Do not miss it because it is important that you do it correctly to obtain the well finished look you desire.

Ramona Hernandez Completes Course

Miss Ramona Cleo Hernandez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Hernandez of Littlefield, has graduated from the Job Corps Center for Women in Albuquerque, N.M.

and has been hired fulltime by the Friden Division of The Singer Company.

She has been in Job Corps vocational training the past 14 months learning to be an electronics assembler.

She dropped out of public schools in the sixth grade and earned her Gene Education Diploma from the University of Albuquerque Aug. 18 after passing a two-day, five-part test sponsored by the State of New Mexico. She had six weeks of on-job-training work experience on the assembly line at the Singer Company.

She will stay in Albuquerque following graduation.

While in the center, she was a floor officer, telephone monitor, lobby hostess and was active in the Ya ta Jay Public Relations Club. "Job Corps is a great thing," she says, "in Job Corps you'll be happy but you really have to work."

OUT OF ACTION

When Toby Harrah was sidelined by an emergency appendectomy in Alexandria, La., hours before the Texas Rangers' exhibition game with the Texas League All-Stars Aug. 14, it marked only the second time in his six-year professional career the spirited little shortstop was put out of action. Earlier this season he was shelved two weeks by a shoulder injury.

In six of these counties, the dates are subject to approval of county commissioners courts. They are Dimmit, Frio, Kinney, Medina, Uvalde and Zavala.

The commission adopted the change on a staff recommendation based on July census line data which indicated an increase of 182 per cent in the quail populations in the South Texas counties.

Many of the birds were one-half to three-quarters grown.

Unlawful Debt Collection Tactics

1. "If a person can't do a thing right, he shouldn't do it at all."

ART GATES

By CRAWFORD MARTIN
Attorney General
Credit purchases have become a way of life with most of our Texas families. When the debtor refuses or is unable to meet his payments when due, his account often is turned over to a collection agency.
Most of these agencies use reputable collection methods but unfortunately some agencies choose to resort to other means which are unethical and sometimes illegal. This article will deal with abusive collection tactics.

Collection is generally initiated with a letter mailed to the debtor. This letter informs him that the account has been assigned to the agency for collection and that payment in full is demanded.

The first letter is usually mild, but subsequent letters become progressively threatening. Also, the intervals between such letters also become shorter.

After a while, the collector may do any or all of the following: (1) he may send telegrams and registered letters; (2) contact the debtor's employer; (3) send messages that suggest legal documents; or (4) make direct personal contact with the debtor by telephone or personal visit.

Frequently, a form or printed letter is used which threatens the addition of court costs, attorney's fees, and interest in addition to the principal sum unless full payment is made.

Representing that a law suit will be brought unless prompt final payment is made constitutes debt harassment unless legal action is actually initiated.

This method of collection is deceptive since it is designed to collect without the necessity of bringing a lawsuit.

The use of any printed form or letter which simulates actual court papers or bona fide legal documents is illegal. Collection letters which have the tendency or give the appearance of emanating from a court or other source of authority are deceptive under our law.

Such forms cannot be used to collect debts even where the debt is just and valid because it tends to coerce and intimidate the debtor into paying by means of deception and false representations.

A commonly used deceptive practice is arbitrarily increasing the amount of the debt by the collection agency. This is done to invoke quick response, and naturally places the agency in a more favorable position of collecting.

Many times employees are instructed to use fictitious names when telephoning accounts. Behind this cloak of anonymity, the use of threats of bodily harm, bombing of property, injury to children or wives, or spreading the reports that the debtor is a "dead beat" to his employer or friends may be engaged in by the collector.

As an extra harassment, these calls may be made in the middle of the night.

The law, of course, does not condemn debt collection per se. Collection simply must be conducted legitimately, without harassment, coercion, or intimidation, or by the use of any means which are deceptive.
