

School District Faces Increase In Tax Rate

Littlefield Independent School District faces with the probability of a 10 per cent increase in the local tax rate this year. The district maintains the "same program" now in effect.

The school system comes up almost $10,000 short in anticipated revenues for 1969-70 in a budget now under consideration by the board of education.

"The only way we can operate the school program we now have is to increase taxes," said Superintendent Paul Hancock.

Schools throughout Texas are facing money problems, he said, following the tax increase voted by the state legislature at the last regular session.

However, the Littlefield administrator said not all the new tax burden comes from the hike in teacher salaries.

"Costs are up in several areas of the school program, and our school system is losing state money for two classroom teacher units which we will lose because of a decrease in average daily attendance last year," Jones explained.

The budget under consideration by the school board calls for expenditures of $1,171,523 in 1969-70. Expected revenues from state and local sources come to $1,132,794—short of the expenses by $38,729.

That deficit in local funds is the result when the present tax rate of $1.80 per $100 of assessed valuation is applied against the school's total tax roll of $23,512,000 on a 96 per cent collection basis.

Increase of the rate by 18 cents—10 per cent—would bring in additional local money of $40,532, based on 96 per cent collection.

That is only slightly more than the amount needed to bring the income up to the outgo.

Supt. Jones said the school district hopes to end the 1968-69 fiscal year on August 31 with a surplus of about $20,000 in local maintenance.

But he added that he would not want to see the district go into that cushion for funds next year, because that amount is "small, when you consider that we are dealing with such large amounts in operating the school system."

The superintendent said he has been probing throughout the proposed budget in an effort to find places where money could be saved.

"We have considered condensing some (non-required) subjects where the enrollment might not justify the expense every year. Some of these, where interest is not particularly high, might be offered every other year," he said.

"We have 12 excess teachers, that is, teachers whom we pay locally and for whom we receive no state money," Jones said.

"We feel we need to maintain our present staff to keep the teacher-pupil ratio from getting out of hand."

The superintendent said the desired ratio is about 25 pupils per teacher, and trimming the staff would result in having possibly 35 students per classroom in lower grades.

"In short," the administrator said, "we just don't have places to cut without hurting the school program."

The additional $40,000 needed by Littlefield schools cannot be pinned to any one area.

But the largest share comes from the increased teacher pay.

Jones estimated the local share of the state salary increase would amount to about $14,000. About half of that comes from the fact the school has to bear the entire amount of the $603 per teacher pay hike for 1969-70 for its 12 excess teachers.

The tax rate will be set by the school board when it approves a final budget for 1969-70.

This will come at the next regular board meeting, Monday, Aug. 11, when a public hearing will be held on the 1969-70 budget.

Area School Costs Up

Like Littlefield, many schools in Lamb County and the area are faced with tax problems following the recent increase in teacher salaries on the state level.

Five schools—Anton, Springlake-Earth, Bula and Olton—say they will have to increase taxes this year to meet the money demands.

Three schools—Sudan, Whitharral and Hancock—feel they will get by this year without an increase. But they added their schools will be affected in future years.

Amherst Supt. Lamar Kelly couldn't reach for an appraisal of the tax situation there.

ANTON'S TAX RATE is $1.40 and Superintendent John Jones said he expects their rate to be increased to about $1.60 to cover the teachers' pay raise and offset the loss of a teacher on the combined Negro and white average daily attendance.

Formerly the state allowed Anton two teachers for 26 Negro pupils. This year the combined ADA allows one teacher for 24 colored students. Jones said another $3,000 additional local expense will be necessary to give elementary teachers a conference period.

Jones said the Anton school board hopes the additional tax raise will be enough to operate without another tax raise for six to eight years.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SUDAN Schools W. E. Hancock said the Sudan board isn't planning on increasing taxes, but added that their budget for the coming year isn't completed yet.

Hancock said Sudan is taxed at the maximum local maintenance rate and they feel that they can operate and stay on the same teacher average this year without a tax increase. The Superintendent said a tax increase may be necessary after this year or a cut may have to be made in excess teachers or on bonuses after this year.

"But we aren't figuring on any tax raises or cuts in bonus pay this year," Hancock said.

SPRINGLAKE-EARTH SCHOOLS are working on their budget now. Superintendent Bill Mann said he expects a tax increase of about 10 per cent will be necessary to meet the additional expenses.

In addition to the teachers' pay raise, Mann said the changes in the ADA rules cost Earth-Springlake two teachers.

Assessed values will be raised to meet the increased costs, he said.

SPADE Superintendent Joe W. Bailey said taxes will have to be increased about 10 per cent to take care of the teachers' pay raise and additional tax money will be needed to take care of the revised ADA ruling.

NO CHANGE in the tax structure is expected at Whitharral this year, according to Superintendent Archie Sims.

The Whitharral administrator said he didn't foresee any need to raise taxes in the near future, but added that the ADA that goes into effect next year will affect all schools.

PEP ISN'T expecting to make any change in its tax structure this year, Pep Superintendent Coy I. Keahy said taxes are based on 20 per cent actual value there and he feels this will take care of the teachers' pay increase this year.

With the additional increase in teachers' salaries next year and the ADA changes, Keahy said he expects a gradual tax increase of 10 to 15 per cent per year.

TAXES AT BULA will be increased 10 cents this year.

Superintendent M. J. McDaniel said another 10-cent increase will be necessary next year, bringing the total to the maximum local maintenance allowed by law, due to the reduction in the classroom teacher unit (CTU), the pay increase, and the loss of one half teaching unit in the combined ADA ruling.

OLTON'S BOARD of education has appointed a board of equalization that has been meeting twice a week for the past four weeks.

The exact increase in taxes will be known in about a week, according to Ray Schultz, superintendent.

Olton lost two teaching units as a result of the combined ADA ruling, "and this creates more of a problem than you'd think," Schultz said.

GOING TO THE MOON for lunar samples wasn't such an astronomical feat to Littlefield shade tree astronauts Blaine Banner and Todd Stafford who've made numerous fantasy flights. Their space equipment is assembled before the U. S. flag flown in the Dan French yard Sunday, "Moon day", and splash down Thursday. Blaine is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Babe Banner, and Todd's parents are Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Stafford.

Museum Association Forms, Elects Hall

Lamb County Museum Association is now an official organization.

A group of 16 interested citizens met Monday night in the County Courtroom of Lamb County Courthouse to elect a board of officers, hear the by-laws read, and name area membership chairman.

County Judge G. T. Sides presided over the new president was elected.

Manuel Hall took reins as the organization's first president, and Roy B. McQuatters for election of three other officers.

J. B. "Doc" Holt of Olton will serve as vice president; Charles Duval of Littlefield will serve as secretary; and Roy B. McQuatters of Spade will serve as treasurer.

After the proposed by-laws are read, a committee was appointed to revise the by-laws in selected places. Named to the committee were Truett Sides of Littlefield, Don Joiner of Fieldton, and Ann Rutledge of Littlefield.

Museum memberships will be sold as soon as membership cards are printed and delivered to area membership chairmen. Memberships will be divided into five categories—student, $1; adult, $3; family, $10; contributing, $20; and patron, $50.

Area membership chairmen who were appointed at the meeting were: Mrs. A. H. Schivally, Fieldton-Hart Camp; Ray Smith, Spade; Luis Hair, Olton; Mrs. Marshall Kelley, Earth; Mrs. Bonnie Haberer, Pleasant Valley; Mrs. Lester LaGrange, Amherst; Mrs. W. V. Terry, Sudan; and Mrs. E. D. Goertz, Lums Chapel.

Mrs. Roy B. McQuatters will serve as chairman of the membership committee.

The revised by-laws will be sent with the application to the state for a charter in the near future.

Members are seeking a suitable building in Littlefield. Some of the qualifications the building has to meet include: must be easily accessible to the public and tourists, must be fireproof, large enough, and have plenty of wall space.

Charter memberships are being sought by the Association, and interested persons are asked to contact area chairmen after membership drives begin.

Members, and interested persons, will meet Sept. 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the county courtroom to adopt the by-laws and complete other details in making a museum a reality.

AREA GIRL TELLS OF MOON WALK REACTION

Japanese As Proud As U.S.

By NILAH RODGE

Sharron Wade was rounded by Japanese shouting "Appie-O, Appie-O, Appie-O," last Monday morning.

"Then they jerked me out of bed," Sharron said. "I just took off after them; I didn't know what was going on, or what Appie-O was."

Appie-O was Apollo 11. The time was 5:30 Monday morning in Japan in the host home where Sharron was guest as a Lions Club international exchange student.

"The Japanese were so excited about the moon walk," Sharron said. "We'd be walking down the street and Japanese people I'd never seen would run up and hug me or wring my hand and say 'Congratulations American!' It was sort of embarrassing, because I hadn't done anything."

Sharron said she didn't miss very much, if any, of the excitement created by the lunar walk. "It was on TV every five minutes," she said, "with something about how it was going running across the bottom of the screen all the time."

The telecast was live, and Sharron heard the astronauts talk.

All the big department stores had big "moon sales" she said. "Everywhere we went there were big billboards and signs saying, 'Congratulations U.S.A.' and 'We're backing the United States of America.'"

"The Japanese people were so sure the American astronauts would make a successful trip that they had a full scale model of Apollo 11 right in the middle of Tokyo. And they already had a display of moon rocks and things in the U. S. pavillion at the world's fair, Expo '70."

"Everywhere we went the Japanese people would say, 'We knew America could do it.'"

Sharron said the Texas youths were treated royally by the Japanese people. "If you're from Texas, that's like being from another world," she said. "They think every Texan has a horse."

Sharron wants to take her family to Japan for the Expo '70 World's Fair. "It's going to be fantastic," she said. "They're building all kinds of highways, freeways and new trains just for the fair. And the fair is going to have air conditioned moving sidewalks and Japanese gardens all over the place."

"The people were surprisingly friendly after the first few days," Sharron said.

"Nearly every Japanese knows the English words to the 'Star Spangled Banner'. They sang the American National Anthem at our welcome and sayonara (farewell) party. And when we all got on the plane to come home all of the Japanese host families went to the airport with us."

"They shouted, 'I love you, I love you' in Japanese and tears streamed down their faces. Oh, it was so sad, I wouldn't take a million dollars for the trip."

Rotarians Loan 'College Money'

Seventy-one Lamb County college students are indebted to the Littlefield Rotary Club for their education.

Littlefield Rotarians have made 122 loans for educational purposes to 71 students since the loan fund was established in 1959 by the late Art Chesher, a past president of the club.

Chesher originally gave $5,000 to the Rotary Club Student Loan Fund and another $5,000 was received from Chesher's estate, for a total of $10,000. This amount has been increased to $11,922.93 by interest on loans and savings.

The loan fund committee of the Littlefield club makes loans for continuing education to high school graduates in Lamb County.

At the present time Littlefield Rotarians have outstanding loans made to 18 students, and are taking applications from students who need loans for the school term beginning this fall.

Jack Wicker is chairman of the loan committee. Other members of the committee are J. D. Hagler, Joe Montgomery, Houston Hoover and Paul I. Jones.

A city patrolman emphasized that if "Mexican Nationals do not have visa papers or birth certificates on their person, we will pick them up and hold them for the Border Patrol. We've been asked to check possibilities of persons who are illegally transporting aliens, and if we find such persons, we hold them for the Border Patrol."

According to "Documentary Requirements For Aliens In The United States", a booklet released by the United States Department of Justice Immigration and Naturalization Service, "Except for those aliens admitted specifically to work—such as agricultural laborers, nonimmigrant aliens normally may not accept employment in the United States."

"Students and exchange visitors may, with written permission, accept certain employment."

"A non immigrant alien is subject to deportation and 'wanted' by this Service if he violates the terms of his admission: abandons his status, overstays the period of admission, engages in criminal, immoral, narcotic or subversive activity, or accepts unauthorized employment."

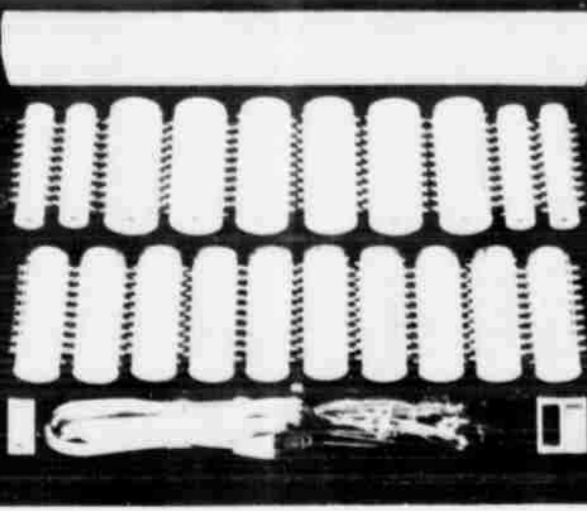

MANUEL HALL, first president of the newly-organized Lamb County Museum Association, read the proposed museum by-laws to 16 interested Lamb County citizens Monday night. After the by-laws were revised and adopted, members will apply for a charter for the organization.

Lynn-Rose Repeat Vows

Twila Fern Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Lynn of Littlefield, and James Milton Rose, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Rose of Chester, W. Va., were united in marriage Tuesday evening, July 22, in the Littlefield Church of the Nazarene with Rev. Rose officiating.

The ceremony was read before basket arrangements of pink and white gladioli and candelabra with pink candles. The church pews were marked with light pink and hot pink bows and pink candles burned in the windows.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Bob Black of Dumas.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a fitted formal-length gown of peau de soie fashioned with a scooped neckline and long petal point sleeves. The bodice was partially overlaid with chantilly lace and the lower part of the skirt was accented by lace appliques.

Her long flowing train of peau de soie fastened at the waistline was deeply pleated and featured a self-fabric bow at the back.

The headpiece of seed pearl petals and net petals accented by sequins and drop pearls held the elbow-length veil of silk illusion.

Following tradition, for something old, the bride wore a 120-year-old wedding ring which had belonged to her great-great-aunt and which her mother wore in her wedding; for something new, her wedding attire; for something borrowed, a necklace belonging to a close friend; and for something blue, the traditional blue garter. For good luck, she wore two pennies in her shoe—one minted in the year of her birth and the other in the year of their marriage.

Her corsage was a white cattleya orchid surrounded by white carnations and streamers and was carried atop a white Bible, a gift from the groom.

While kneeling at the prayer bench after vows were repeated, the couple was served communion to symbolize completeness of the marriage in Christ while the organist softly played "The Lord's Prayer," followed by a prayer blessing the marriage.

Rising from the prayer bench, the couple lit a large candle from two small tapers, symbolizing the unity of holy wedlock.

Wedding selections were presented by Mr. Kenneth Leonard of Oklahoma City, who sang "O, Promise Me," "Our Wedding Day Prayer," and "Oh Day of Golden Promise." He was accompanied at the organ by Miss Nancy Henson of Littlefield.

Mrs. Michael May of Bethany, Okla., the bride's sophomore roommate at college, was matron of honor.

Other attendants were Mrs. Velton Lynn of Canyon, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Eva Nell Pierce of Balko, Okla., college freshman roommate of the bride; and Miss Helen Wicker of Littlefield, a high school classmate.

Their formal-length gowns of hot pink chiffon had scooped necklines, full three-quarter length sleeves, and empire waists.

They carried pink carnations with streamers and wore headpieces of pink tulle held by ribbon bows.

Flower girl was Miss Jeannie Leonard and ring bearer was Steve Leonard, both of Oklahoma City.

Dennis Thompson of Cleveland, Ohio, was best man. Groomsmen were Velton Lynn of Canyon, brother of the bride; Tony Rust, of Bethany, Okla.; and Bob Bolton of Oklahoma City.

Derrel Evins of Muleshoe, assisted by Bob Bolton, Velton Lynn, and Tony Rust, seated the guests.

The mother of the bride, seated by her son, wore a sleeveless pink crepe dress with a matching long sleeved lace coat and matching accessories and carried a white hand-embroidered linen handkerchief, a gift from the bride to be carried at her wedding.

The mother of the groom wore a deep pink crepe dress and coordinating accessories.

Both mothers wore carnation corsages.

A reception was held in the Willie Room.

The bride's table was laid with a white lace cloth over pink. The centerpiece was a floral arrangement surrounded by the bride's bouquet and those of her attendants.

The four-tiered wedding cake topped by satin bells was served by Miss Pat Alexander of Littlefield.

Serving pink punch was Miss Beverly Evins of Muleshoe.

Appointments were of silver and crystal.

Miss Teena Evins of Needmore took little ribbon and net decorated baskets from a "rice tree", filled them with rice from a large crystal bowl, and passed out one to each guest after the reception.

For their wedding trip through the southern and eastern states, the bride chose a bone and yellow plaid long sleeved sheath dress with a coordinating yellow sleeveless coat and bone accessories. She

Coffee Honors Dottie Digby

OLTON—Dottie Digby, bride-elect of Emory Neal Jr. of Paris, was honored with a bridal coffee Thursday morning in the home of Mrs. Eugene Reynolds.

The honoree was presented a service for eight in white ironstone, a set of coffee mugs and eight place mats.

The party table was laid with a white lace cloth centered with an arrangement of yellow and white flocked daisies placed in a green compote. White tapers encircled with daisy rings and yellow napkins completed the table setting.

Lime punch, coffee and cake squares decorated with tiny yellow wedding bells were served from crystal appointments.

What The Leader-News Thinks

Greed Can Destroy

A friend of ours was telling us the story of a large boa constrictor, who crawled between the slats of a pen in which a small animal was being kept and ate the animal; when it came time for the snake to make his escape he found his enlarged stomach too swollen to fit through the bars. His greed destroyed him.

There are hunters who capture large numbers of monkeys by pouring some nuts into narrow-necked gourds. The monkey reaches into the gourd for a handful of food and cannot retrieve his clenched fist. The little creatures are too greedy to let go of the goodies and thus get caught.

Current attempts to organize farm workers, with the right to strike at any time (including the crucial harvest period), are similar to the stories cited above.

Many, if not most, of the nation's farmers are in a marginal position. Their entire income may depend upon yields from the harvest. Much of their investment in the crop may be borrowed capital subject to repayment with interest. Farm workers' salaries are in those fields of waving grain or in the trees of the orchards. At harvest time, one day can make the difference between success and failure of an entire year's work. That one year's crop could mean the end of the farmer's career if it is not sufficient.

In the case of manufacturers, a strike usually means only a delay. They can often stockpile at the first sign of an impending strike. The farmer has no such option. Crops cannot be stockpiled. Killing storms and severe droughts don't wait because of a work stoppage.

Congress should look very carefully at the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee's attempts to force the California grape pickers to join their union which is exempt from federal laws forbidding boycotts (e.g., the picketing of supermarkets, which hurts not only the target product, but thousands of other farmers and manufacturers.) One strike in one crucial crop could hurt the entire nation.

"We need your vote for Amendment No. 2 on Aug. 5."

THE FARMER'S WIFE

Hoe, EVER'BODY!

By LIBBY MUGGETT

THERE'S TWO phrases that the families of all farmers fear to hear the farmer come home and announce and it's a toss up which one is dreaded most:
"The banker said absolutely NO!"
"There's no hoe hands to be hired in this whole blasted county and this entire family has to get out and hoe or we're gonna lose this crop and I do mean EVERYBODY!"

AFTER THE initial shock of realizing that he really means EVERYBODY, there's decisions, decision, decision, from beginning to end, and all farmers' wives will know what I'm talking about.
Would it be better to get out in the field by sunup while it's still cool and be all wore out by lunch time, or start late in the afternoon and have the cool of the evening to look forward to?
Since the whole family has to hoe, reckon they'll all be so much hungrier that I could possible plead off on account of so much cooking and dishwashing?

SHOULD I WEAR that big floppy brimmed beach hat that the gnats always collect under, the shorter brimmed straw that doesn't protect the gnats or my face either, or go bareheaded and maybe have a sunstroke and get out of the whole mess?
Would it be better to write Ralphie Yarborough and ask him where in thunder are all of those Texas laborers that needed the work he said the braceros were taking away from them, or write Robert Finch and tell him to send everybody on his whole welfare roll down here?
Do I dare plead middle-age and just take one row, or go ahead and take two rows and get 'way behind the others?

IF I WEAR those thin cotton gloves without a lining, would the blisters be worth the chance of possible leniency, or would it be better to go ahead and pay 20 cents more for lined ones?
Just exactly how long can I get by with filing my hoe—five, ten, or fifteen minutes?

If the chemical companies are so dad-gummed smart they can develop fuel to put man on the moon, how come they can't develop a weed-killer that will last through a few hails, floods, and replantings?
If honey in the drinking water gives athletes quick energy during a ballgame, why not try it in the waterbag and just let everybody wonder where that strange taste came from?

WONDER IF I was to announce there would be a week long soul festival held out here, would there be enough people show up to get this place cleaned up if I called hoeing "soul work"?
Is it better to pick a row with the big weeds at the beginning so I can anticipate coasting along on the small ones at the end, or pick a row with little weeds at the beginning and hope a big electrical storm comes up before I get to the big weeds at the end?
If I offered free lemonade at the end of every row, I could probably bribe those hoehands in the neighboring farmer's field over here, but would that farmer's wife wrath be worth it when SHE had to hoe? Or would she go me one better and offer free spiked lemonade?

I COULD PROBABLY wear my swimsuit and wind up with a third degree burn which would get me out of hoeing, but would I be sorry later when I saw the hospital bill?
Where are all those unemployable people I keep reading about and should I contact those groups that keep yacking about them and inform them that it takes no special training at all to hoe?
Would it be worth it to sit down under that big careless weed to rest a bit, or would the stiff joints make me wish I'd never gotten the idea?
I read the other day where plumbers out in Los Angeles are striking to get eleven something an hour, they're only getting eight something now. Wonder if they accept women?

Angry Scorpion

IN A BOOK published in 1952 I wrote that "Communism, like an angry scorpion, will turn on itself and die of its own sting."

Excuse this immodest recollection but, as McKee said, "A hen that lays a good egg has a perfect right to cackle."

COMMUNISM HAS, indeed, turned on itself.

Last week Harrison Salisbury of the New York Times returned from Mongolia and the U.S.S.R. to predict "a major war between Russia and Red China which might last 100 years."

From our orbiting satellites we can spy on Soviet satellites and from this source we know that they are presently concentrating on staring at and photographing specific sections of Red China.

STATE DEPARTMENT and CIA officials, heretofore confident there would be no war between the Red giants, are much less certain now; they are holding conferences and writing papers propounding this possibility.

In both Moscow and Peking there is now open talk of a major war, each side blaming the other for starting it.

THE CHINESE CLAIM that since 1964 the Russians have provoked more than 4,000 border incidents, aiming "to annex more Chinese territory."

The Kremlin claims that Red China has "launched a struggle against the world Communist movement, has opened a 'second front' on the Sino-Soviet border.

THIS PAST SPRING, Russia summoned the Head Reds of the world to Moscow to try to get them to close ranks. They didn't.

Of the world's 88 Communist parties, only 75 sent delegations. Of the 75 who attended, only 69 signed the final unity agreement.

And by then that agreement had been so diluted that all Soviet condemnation of Red China had been removed from the document.

MOSCOW, which had hoped to dictate to the world, is unable to dictate even to the Communist world.

Indeed, Red China now directs a greater number of Communists than does Red Russia.

In modern war it takes "more than men" to guard a 4,000-mile-long frontier.

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

Replenish, Subdue Earth

State of Texas
House of Representatives
July 21, 1969

Dear Editor—
I have read many articles about the Texas Water Plan and have studied the effects of the Plan on the future of Texas. The thing that concerns me most is letters to the editors which express non-truths about the Texas Water Plan. Of course, I realize there are those who would like to turn our state back to the birds, animals and barren lands, but I think most Texans are more concerned about human needs. The Bible teaches that God created all things and his highest creation was man. To man he gave the charge to "Be fruitful and replenish the earth, and subdue it." I hope we do not forget these commands and principles when we try to provide for man's needs.

The Texas Water Plan is big and will be costly, but the benefits Texans and their economy will receive from implementation of the Plan will be much, much more than the cost. Our cities and industries will continue to grow if provided ample water supplies and our agriculture land will be able to feed and clothe the increased population of the future. The actual financing of the plan will be at the expense of the users of the water.

Constitutional Amendment No. 2 on the ballot August 5 would authorize an additional $3.5 billion in bonds to the Water Development Board Fund. This fund has already helped more than 60 cities in Texas by lending them money at interest to provide water facilities for their people. The $3.5 billion will be a continuation of this program with additional loans being made to political subdivisions for meeting their water needs for municipal and industrial use in the years ahead. However, it will all be coordinated and incorporated in a state-wide plan.

The plan also considers fresh water inflows for the bays and estuaries to provide an ecological balance in those areas. The enhancement to fish and wildlife will be tremendous as well as refreshing and scenic to the tourist along with all the recreational benefits. Water for agriculture is provided in the plan, but this water will be furnished in cooperation with the Bureau of Reclamation and the Corps of Engineers. Before projects can be approved by Congress, the Bureau studies must show that benefits will exceed cost and the government will be paid back by water fees under user contracts.

The $3.5 billion bond program would be for a period of 40-50 years as need arises. The bonds could not be placed on the market until approved in increments by a 2/3 majority vote of the legislature. This, in effect, assures flexibility in the Texas Water Plan by assuring that the needs of the people are being taken into consideration each time the legislature is asked to approve an increment of bonds for issue.

The program financing is similar to the Veterans Land Program and the Texas Opportunity School Loan Program which will not cost the State of Texas because they are loans at interest that are being paid back by veterans and young Texans who borrowed money to their college education. The and providing for future supplies will cost approximately 1/4 that spent on highways about 1/8 that spent on education per year. Without water there would be no need for highways, schools, cities, churches, etc. Water is one essential to all.

The greatness of Texas Texans will depend on how we and provide for the future. Proverbs it says that "Where is no vision, the people perish." Texans have vision and will pass August 5 by approving Amendment No. 2. If we as a people can the atom, put a man on the moon—and transplant a human hand—we must—and we will pay for our future water supplies. Sincerely, /s/ Bill C. State Representative Author of H.R.

Amazed!

Dear Ed:
I saw it on my "Boob Tube" I can still hardly believe it—the Moon! It was so thrilling I almost forgot that 355 millions bucks we had to dig up to get there!

I was disappointed, tho, the boss thumbed the idea of closing up on Monday. President declared it a holiday all federal employees you know. Considering the chunk that came out of my check each week I thought that I was qualified!

Anyway now that we do what next? Looks like it would be an ideal place to dispose of garbage—just load the stuff on a rocket and shoot!

I'm glad the boys didn't "Red" footprints in that grey. Had those guys made it then the rest of the world couldn't have lived with them anymore. As it is, they're ready to go partners. Of course, after analyze the samples and let the world know what they consist of. They'll say, "That's just what we made it out of!"
Of all the misgivings, surmising of things that CO could go wrong on the mission, disaster, no one ever thought of chance that the moon might be there at Rendezvous time! Sure that it had changed its course speed of travel? (not a chance!)
The things that God has in motion and put in their respective places are as unchanging as word with which He created it.
So-o-o? I'm confident that I can find that the moon and substance is best fitted for purpose for which it was created. lesser light to rule over the night having no light of its own but to reflect the light of the sun—as Christians SHOULD reflect Light of Christ upon those who lack them.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Strong And Free

By BOB WEAR

WE MUST BE STRONG in order to be free, because when we become weak, we will lose our freedom.

It is unfortunate that there is such widespread acceptance of the view that we can remain free without being strong.

It is also tragic that there is so much undermining of our strength through the abuse of our freedom.

STRENGTH OF CHARACTER is our strength. This means that we must be morally and spiritually strong.

The corruption of our people by the various devices of irreligion and immorality is undoubtedly the greatest threat to personal and national dignity and freedom.

THE RIDICULOUS over-emphasis of, and the growing corruption of, sex are, of themselves, sufficient perversion of life to weaken and bring us to bondage.

Historically, this is a very plainly revealed fact.

No culture has ever been able to survive such degradation.

THE WIDESPREAD superficiality is another weakness which threatens our social structure.

The spreading evil is contaminating, to some degree, every part of the human experience.

There is little strength in people who are principally concerned with surface aspects of life, and carefully avoid all but these.

In many areas of national life, there is an obvious lack of thoroughness or care for details. This is another loss of strength, and is movement toward bondage.

RUGGEDNESS OF OUR PEOPLE has always been an essential part of our strength. Generally speaking, we have been a robust, sturdy and hardy people.

Can we honestly say that these qualities are prominent in the life pattern of our people in the present time?

EASE OF LIVING and leisure are making us weak. There are a few special groups of people involved in specialized activities who might qualify as rugged.

What about the rest of us? We cannot afford to be soft and weak.

THE MIXTURE of materialism and humanism has caused an inversion of values. Much that should be first has been made last, and much that is good has been made evil.

The last has been made first, and the evil has been made good.

THERE IS A DISTRESSFUL confusion which is self-evident, and which weakens us.

Such adverse influences undermine the very foundations of individual and collective strength, and cause erosion of our freedom.

THE PREOCCUPATION of so many people, as spectators, with athletics, with sexy plays, and shows, and books; and with a whole multitude of trivialities is such a tragic loss.

These interests and related activities preempt everything that is essential to human strength.

The people of Noah's time "sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." During all of this "good" time, they were moving toward certain disaster. There is a warning here for us.

ENTERTAINMENT and recreation are being given more and more importance in the thoughts and activities of people.

It is admitted that there is a time and place for wholesome entertainment and recreation, but to make these a way of life is a loss of strength and freedom.

Felicia Hemans said, "Strength is born in the deep silence of long-suffering hearts; not amidst joy."

WE CAN BE STRONG and free if we are willing to put first things first in a proper conduct of life.

MR. AND MRS. AL MANN

Starnes-Mann Joined In Marriage

Miss Cynthia Diane Starnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Starnes of Littlefield, and Alvis Walker Mann, son of Mrs. Bonnie Mann of Littlefield and Leo Mann of Graham, were joined in marriage Friday evening, July 18, in the First Baptist Church Chapel with pastor R. B. Hall Jr. officiating. The church was decorated with a basket of pink gladiolas flanked on each side by candles.

Pianist, Melinda Pope of Lubbock, and soloist, Diane Perkins of Littlefield, presented traditional wedding music including "The Twelfth of Never" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Maid of honor was Debra Jane Grant of Levelland, cousin of the bride. Marsha Ann Starnes, sister of the bride, and Shannon Tragout, both of Littlefield, were bridesmaids.

Janie Lynn Starnes of Littlefield, sister of the bride, served as flower girl.

Ronnie Mann of Centralia, Ill., cousin of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Royce Bussey and Jack Shipp of Littlefield.

Serving as ushers were Ricky Kloilus and Max Lynch of Lubbock, Mike Slape of Amherst and Denny Walker of Littlefield.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Starnes was attired in a pink dress accented with a belt at the hips featuring gold buttons. She wore pink accessories and a corsage of hot pink carnations.

The groom's Mother wore a hot pink tunic dress of raw silk accented with covered buttons. Her accessories were of hot pink and her corsage was pink carnations.

The bridal attendants were attired in sugar pink floor-length gowns of imported organza, featuring a crescent waistline outlined in peau de soie and repeated on the rolled collar. A long train was accented at the back by a peau de soie bow. Their headpieces were of sugar pink silk illusion sparked with pearls. Each attendant carried a long stem pink rose.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire A-line dress of imported organza accented with Bordonne lace outlining the wedding ring neckline and the motif trimming at the waistline.

The watteau chapel train was encircled with bands of matching Bordonne lace.

Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was held by a headpiece of Bordonne lace with pearls and tiny white flowers.

She carried a bouquet made of frosted pink shasta daisies with pink and mint green streamers with English Ivy intertwined.

A reception was held in the First Baptist Church Parlor.

The table was laid with a white silk organza cloth with scallops accented by mint green and pink bows with wedding bells.

The three-tiered cake, mint green punch, nuts and mints were served to the guests by Sharon Bucy of Odessa, Christy Swenson of Stamford, Mrs. Barbara Starnes of Levelland, Mrs. Janie Kloilus of Lubbock, and Mrs. Roy Bussey, Mrs. Ples Helms, Mrs. Ed Trimmer and Mrs. Robert Kloilus all of Littlefield.

For traveling, the bride chose a beige dress accented with mint green at the waistline and a mint green coat. She wore bone accessories and the pink daisy corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride graduated from Littlefield High School in 1968. The groom is a 1966 graduate of Littlefield High School.

The couple will be at home at 1604 38th Street, Apt. 25 in Lubbock where they will attend Texas Tech.

Lamb County Youth Attend Seminar

Four high school students from Lamb County will travel by chartered bus Tuesday to Baylor University in Waco where they will attend a citizenship seminar July 29-Aug. 2, conducted by the Texas Farm Bureau.

They are Roseanne Funk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Funk of Littlefield; Linda Hopper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Hopper of Anton; Clinton Jones, son of Mrs. W. B. Jones of Sudan; and Junior Wisian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Wisian of Springlake.

Lamb County Farm Bureau is sponsoring the students at the four-day training school, where approximately 390 students from 140 counties across the state will be attending.

Four outstanding, nationally-known lecturers will address the Waco training school, according to Elroy Wisian of Springlake, president of the Lamb County Farm Bureau.

Car, Truck Collide

Thursday, Ernestine Gaston Cox of Lubbock skidded on fresh pavement topping and collided with the hot tar. Damages to the '67 Chevrolet she was driving were estimated at $170.

Guadalupe Garza of Lubbock was driving the '55 2-ton truck. Both vehicles were going west on E. Delano. There was no flagman on the street and Mrs. Cox applied her brakes when she met another vehicle and skidded into the left rear of the truck sprayer.

School Nurses Attend Health Conference

Mrs. Joyce Oliver, school nurse for Littlefield Independent School District, and Mrs. Dorothy Wood, school nurse for the Springlake-Earth School District, attended the first Conference on Optimum School Health in San Antonio July 22-23.

Sponsored by the Texas Medical Association and the Texas Education Agency, the conference was conducted in Chapman Graduate Center at the Trinity University campus.

Objectives of the conference were to increase knowledge of the scope of good school health programs; to increase awareness of school health problems in Texas and find solutions to these problems; and to understand and accept individual and mutual responsibilities of community-school health team members.

Panel sessions, involving numerous school and medical personnel dealt with the role, responsibility and contribution of key leaders in developing an effective school health program and how a school district can develop a model school health program.

MRS. JOHNNIE STOGNER

Best man was Tom James of Lubbock. Seating the guests was Bobbie Hare of Lubbock.

Mrs. Robert Baisden, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore an electric-blue princess designed formal-length gown of primo featuring white lace from neck to hemline. A bow accented a deep teal in the back.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a formal-length gown, candlelight satin featuring wide stand-up collar. A strip of belting extending each side of the lace panel in front to the back created the empire of the dress.

VISION

How far can you see? When you look what do you see? Vision means more than just to see something with the eye. Actually, the deeper meaning of vision would be to perceive what is just so close to the eye—a mental view of things. Even the eyes deliver 87% of all impressions to the brain. But vision means seeing further than we can see with the eye. We know 20/20 vision of soul has deeper meaning than 20/20 vision of the eye. Do you have vision? Have you seen God lately? Have you visioned His church on the water and all it stands for? When you read His Word can you anticipate all the glories of His second coming? May we develop 20/20 vision of sight, of mind, and of soul. May we have true vision.

The Christian's Hope

REV. JAMES GILLENTE
Foursquare Gospel Church

"IF IN THIS LIFE only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable." I Cor. 15:19.
The true hope of all Christianity lies not in this life upon earth, as Paul declared unto the unbelieving Jews, but in the Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

THE BIBLE is filled with many Promises unto those who follow Christ, and likewise many warnings unto those who reject Him.
To have this Hope within, one must first accept Christ in his heart, and then follow Him in this life, that he might be with Christ in eternity.

JESUS SPOKE unto those who followed Him and said, "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." John 14:1-3.

INDEED, this is the true Hope of Christianity. This is God's great plan for those who separate themselves from sin in this life.
Jesus said again, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life, and he that believeth not on the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Jo. 3:36.

PSALM 9:17 declares, "The wicked shall be turned into hell and all the people that forget God." Is not that a great price to pay for a few more pleasures, as we may call them, here on earth?

We are not living just for this life, but rather this life here is preparing us for eternity, either in heaven or hell. The choice is ours. Joshua said, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." We too must take our decision for Christ, if we desire that Hope within our hearts, one day to see our Lord.

MEN FIND many excuses to put off and say, "Some more convenient time." God says, "My spirit will not always be with you." Gen. 6:3. Paul said, "Behold, NOW is the accepted time; behold, NOW is the Salvation." II Cor. 6:2.

Why not make your choice today, if you haven't already? Tomorrow may be too late.

IF WE SEARCH the Scriptures beginning to end, we will find that the Coming of Christ is actually mentioned times as often as His First Coming.

This must mean that an even greater soon to take place for those who are for His Coming. Jesus said, "I will again." Are you ready for that day?

THERE HAVE ALSO been many who His Coming in recent days, and surely it is drawing very near.

In Acts 1:11 we read, "This same which is taken up from you into Heaven, so come in like manner as you have seen go into Heaven."

MAY WE NOT LOSE sight of the HOPE, and ever remember that we have one life to live.

May we live that one life for Christ, game Himself for us, that we might be glorious Hope in our hearts, and that His Grace we might be prepared for His Again.

Heaven surely would be worth any price we might have to pay, but Jesus paid that price for us at Calvary.

JESUS SAID, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh to the Father but by Me." Jo. 14:6. "For what shall it profit if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" Mark 8:36.

REV. WILLIAM H. REMMERT

Today's Sermon Ends Full Time Ministry

Rev. William H. Remmert, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, will preach his last sermon for the Littlefield church today, completing his 40th year of full-time ministry.

Rev. and Mrs. Remmert will be semi-retired at The Grove, near Temple, where Rev. Remmert was pastor of the church there 30 years ago.

The Grove is a semi-rural church with about 350 members, and "adaptable to semi-retirement."

Due to the nearness of Camp Hood, Rev. Remmert will do psychiatric counsel work, also.

Rev. Remmert studied psychology at Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill. Further studies in psychiatry were at Ft. Wayne, Ind., extension university.

The Remmerts came to Littlefield from a 1,750 member church in Denver, Colo.

Prior to the Colorado church, Rev. Remmert pastored the Redeemer Lutheran Church in Highland Park, Ill. The Illinois church had 100 members when he went there and in four years a $200,000 building with a seating capacity of 410 was erected.

Pastor Remmert served as director of the 15 congregation North Shore Bible Institute near Chicago, Ill., also.

Rev. Remmert has been pastor of the Littlefield Emmanuel Lutheran Church the past five years. He was a member and chaplain of the Littlefield Optimist Club two and one-half years.

BUDDY SYSTEM

Never swim alone. Half of all pool accidents and fatalities occur when the victim is not following the "buddy system." When it comes to swimming safety, think in terms of two's.

SUN'S AGE

The sun is estimated to be about 7,500 million years old and our galaxy 10,000-12,000 years old.

Father Abeyta Is Transferred

Emilio E. Abeyta, Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Abeyta, Littlefield, is now assigned to Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in El Paso.

He is replacing Erickson, who retired 20 years at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church.

Father Abeyta is Littlefield Public School minor seminary graduate Santa Fe, N. M., and completed his studies at the Pontifical Josephinum in Columbus, Ohio, and was ordained Priesthood May 28, 1958, Littlefield by Bishop of Amarillo.

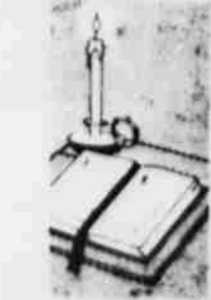

His first assignment associate pastor at Our Lady of Grace Church in Littlefield followed by his appointment pastor of Holy Angels at Childress and its mission Elizabeth at Paducah. His transfer to Our Lady of Guadalupe became effective July 14.

Lee Raney Joins Tour

Lee Raney of Littlefield, who was named one of the six outstanding trainees for the 1968-69 term of the Southwestern Public Service Company's Vocational Training School recently, will join the other five winners Monday for a week-long tour of their company's service area.

The outstanding trainees, who also receive a certificate for their training accomplishments, take a trip through their company's service area to get an overall view of its operations. A visit to the area in which each of the winners works is part of the tour and the group will be in Littlefield Wednesday for lunch with district manager Warren Dayton and a tour of local Public Service Company installations.

Raney, a journeyman lineman, was selected as outstanding for earning a 98.5 grade average in a basic mathematics course. All of the instruction in the vocational training program is on the employee's own time and Raney had a perfect attendance record for a course he had to drive 45 miles to attend.

The other outstanding trainees are Don Bednorz of Amarillo; Jan Fisher of Lubbock; Loyd E. Morgan of Dumas; Everett R. Yearwood of Pampa; and Billy D. Kincaid of Roswell, N. M.

561 students completed courses in the last term of the vocational school.
