Some Areas Able To Halt Feed Aid

Rain has washed out a big chunk of drought in South Texas. In much of West Texas things are looking up.

A survey Thursday showed it's hard to generalize about the Texas drought. Broken down into sections of the 152-county region designated as a disaster area last July, this is the situation:

In the San Antonio country, the drought was broken in spots and scarcely touched in other spots by rains ranging from less than an inch to six inches.

Around Del Rio on the Rio Grande, hills and pastures were turning green from soaking rains which began Aug. 18.

Farmers in the San Angelo area reported good cotton prospects but they agreed the drought is not broken there.

Around Abilene and north beyond Lubbock and Plainview, cotton prospects are the best in years. Grain sorghum prospects are good. Ranges are improving, and drought aid is dropping off. But there hasn't been enough rain to restore subsoil moisture to the point where the drought can be called broken.

Pastures are so much better in the Wichita Falls area that A. K. Martin said he will pasture free "any distressed cattle in Baylor County." Martin, a rancher near Seymour, says he has "the finest grass you ever saw."

The Wichita County Drought Relief Committee said it will accept no more applications for government feed.

Through the middle of the West Texas plains from Big Spring to El Paso the drought still seemed as bad as during the driest days of July.

What has the drought cost farmers this year?

Agriculture Commissioner John White said Texas wheat farmers have lost 91 million dollars. He figured the loss on grain sorghums at 48 million. White said it's too early to estimate whether the cotton and citrus will show a loss or profit.

Runs of cattle to Fort Worth and San Antonio have been heavier than normal. Experts said this was partly because of the drought and partly because prices were dropping.

W. L. Joyce, assistant division manager of the Fort Worth stockyards, said to "get a ouija board" to find out the drought's effects on marketing, adding "There's not a man living who can tell you that." An acceleration of selling is natural when "prices start bearing down," Joyce said.

Lubbock—August brought 2.57 inches of rain. "The drought has

Fort Worth stockyards is that grown animals have been poorer than usual and many calves have been lighter.

Reports from sections of the drought country:

Corpus Christi—Rains totaling 12.64 inches in Corpus Christi—more in some surrounding areas—during August ended two years of drought, although the Weather Bureau still reports a slight rainfall deficiency for 1953.

Edinburg—Rio Grande Valley citrus and vegetable men expect the best season in years. Never has the Valley had more water available. Rains in the Rio Grande watershed will enable all water districts to fill their needs. Falcon Dam now has 600,000 acre feet impounded. Mexico's Marte Gomez reservoir is overflowing into the Rio Grande.

Austin Anston of the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers Assn. estimated the Valley will have 5 to 6 million citrus trees producing Jan. 1, the most since a 1949 freeze killed most of the Valley's 11 million trees.

San Antonio—Bexar County Agent Robert Tate said the drought is definitely broken only in spots. "Until last week's rains the drought areas had been expanding. The rains had the effect of cutting down on cattle marketing as ranchers began hoping for revived pastures."

Del Rio—Horace Fawcett, a member of the State Soil Conservation Committee, said pastures were looking promising at last and native grasses were greening out in many areas. Rain totaling 3.90 inches fell in Del Rio starting last Tuesday. Rain in the east part of Val Verde County totaled 4 inches or better. They were the best rains since May, 1952. But a soil conservation man, W. T. Jones, said some sections still were very dry.

San Angelo—Cotton men estimate the yield at 15,000 to 27,000 bales, depending on insects and the first hard freeze. Recurring showers have given bollworms a head start. An estimated 5,000 acres of small grains has been planted for grazing, and some sheep grazing should be available by Sept. 15.

Tom Green County Agent Marion Winn Badger estimated 50,000 to 60,000 acres of small grains will be planted this fall. Ranges are showing some weeds but grasses are slow in coming.

Abilene—Midsummer rains produced the best cotton and grain sorghum prospects since 1949-50. A. H. Jefferies, Taylor County PMA office manager, estimated the county's cotton yield at 13,000 bales.

County Agent Frank Martin of Haskell estimated the county's 180,000 acres will produce 75,000 bales, best since 1949. The county also will produce its best maize crop in history, about 3,000 an acre.

County Agent W. C. Vines of Albany said range conditions are the best in years and the drought emergency feed program was stopped after all applicants got an initial 30-day supply. Taylor County Agent H. C. Stanley said the feed program is likely to be suspended in his county in a few days. All stock tanks were full but farmers, stockmen and county agents agreed they won't consider the drought broken until moisture is restored completely.

Lubbock—August brought 2.57 inches of rain. "The drought has not left us, but nobody is hurting," said Tom McFarland, director of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District. The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal said farmers actually would prefer no more rain until cotton quits vegetating. Bolls thus could mature and insects could be checked. A bumper crop of 1,335,000 bales of cotton is expected on the South Plains. The harvest of cotton and grain sorghums is expected to hit 200 million dollars, by brokerage estimates.

Plainview—Hale County irrigated crops are excellent, with the best fruited cotton in the history of the county. Moisture is good and insects are at a minimum. Grain sorghums are infested in spots but not seriously. But County Agent Ole Limer said dry land farms have poor crops. The last good rains fell about two weeks ago. In this section, farmers would like a good rain, then plenty of sunshine until the cotton is harvested.

Big Spring and due west—No improvement in the drought situation. Many farmers are ready to plant small grain and legume cover crops if enough rain falls soon. Clouds Wednesday were the best prospect for a rain at Big Spring "in a long while, but crops and grass won't grow on prospects," Franklin Reynolds, farm editor of the Big Spring Herald said.

Blonde With Flair For Acting Bilks Cashiers Of $20

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A dumpy blonde with a flair for histrionics yesterday bilked two cashiers of $20.

Her act, according to police reports, went like this:

She made small purchases at four establishments, paying at each with a $10 bill and vociferously demanding change for a $20. It worked twice.

"She yelled so loud," one cashier said, "that we were trying to shortchange her, we just gave her the money to save embarrassment."

WACO (AP)—A herd of 12 buffalo will be displayed at the Heart of Texas Fair Sept. 25-Oct. 4. The animals will be lent the fair by Fred Hall Sr., owner of 30 head of buffalo on his Three H Ranch near Valley Mills.

TB Patients Complain On Federal Food

HOUSTON (AP)—Twenty-four tuberculosis patients have complained to their congressmen of food conditions at the Houston Veterans Hospital.

Dr. Lee Cady, hospital manager, said yesterday the patients also sent a letter to him, complaining that they were not getting enough food, that double helpings had been cut out.

The group earlier sent letters to U. S. Senators Price Daniel and Lyndon Johnson and to Rep. Albert Thomas, Houston.

Cady said the patients are making more effort to discredit the institution than in trying to get well.

He said tuberculosis patients in the past have received about 25 cents a day more rations than general patients but new directives have now put all patients on the same rations, about $1.10 a day.

Double servings in such foods as milk and eggs had to be cut out, although patients still get about 4,000 calories a day, which is one-third more than necessary, Cady said.

Eighteen of the 24 cases, Cady said, are non-service connected cases. Each case costs the government $7,000 a year, he said.

13-Year-Old Has Officials Stumped

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—There's a 13-year-old boy in jail here whose case has officials stumped.

Leon Davis, a former inmate of the Eastern North Carolina Training School, was arrested two weeks ago after allegedly breaking in skylights of two Raleigh stores and rifling their money tills.

A jailer reported that the youth unscrewed radiator valves and threw them out the jail window, hurried eating utensils through the window, slashed his mattress into strips and sailed toilet paper over the front lawn of the courthouse.

The problem became worse, the jailer said, when the boy put soapy water on the window ledge so the painters would fall.

The boy has been termed "completely incorrigible." Judge W. C. Harris says he doesn't want to send the youth to prison, but officials say he can't be turned loose.

Maybe They Found It A Fair Exchange

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Everything was quiet in the second floor apartment when Mitchell Lipschutz came home shortly before midnight. Unlocking the door and stepping into the darkened room, he was startled by a strange "meow." Snapping on the light, he saw a small animal carrier on the table. Inside were two kittens. They hadn't been there when he left some hours earlier.

Then he found a kitchen window pried open by thieves, who had escaped with clothes, cash and other items Lipschutz estimated to be worth $77.90.

Apparently the thieves also had left the kittens.

U.S. Operates Reception Center For Soviet Soldier Fugitives

By DANIEL DE LUCE
SOMEWHERE IN WEST GERMANY—Here is the open door for Soviet nationals who choose freedom. It is a reception center for defectors, many of them fugitives from the Soviet armed forces.

The center is paid for and operated by the U. S. government. It produces detailed information about conditions in the Soviet Union. It turns disillusioned ex-Soviets into free men.

The address is not revealed—for the safety of present and future defectors.

The reception center was founded 2½ years ago after the Korean War showed how little the U. S. government knew about the Soviet empire.

Dozens of defectors have passed through. It seems the word is getting back to Soviet forces.

The center occupies a series of villas scattered through gardens and woods. Its American personnel wear plain clothes and are gifted at foreign languages, human relationships, morale building.

In private offices, defectors and staff experts are paired off to write detailed studies on the Soviet Union as the defectors know it.

The topics may range from the activity observable at a Siberian factory to the price of food in Tils and the disposition of Soviet army formations in Poland. Precise data on developments inside the U. S. S. R. are gathered with especially keen interest.

The findings are sent to Washington, London and Paris. Exchange of information about the Soviet Union is on a reciprocal basis among the countries.

The center's responsibility is not finished when a Soviet national exhausts his fund of information. He must be helped to a new career and protected from Soviet reprisal.

The center enlists other U. S. authorities in helping him get a visa to a country in the Americas, preferably the United States, though Canada and Brazil are also favored destinations.

If he had a profession in civilian life, the center does its best to arrange for him to resume it. A dental officer from the Soviet army medical corps emigrated to one of South America's fastest growing cities.

If the defector is young, willing and single, he can join the U. S. Army. Under the alien enlistment program he gets American citizenship in five years. Veteran Soviet officers of field grade rank may go to Washington as advisers to U. S. defense planners.

Nobody says "deserter" here. The word is banned.

Defectors are usually still in uniform when they arrive. Sometimes they escape by walking across a sector border street in Berlin or Vienna. Others swim a river or steal through a forest.

Some do not flee alone. They bring a sweetheart—German or Austrian, Czech or Polish.

Despite secrecy, the center has no cloak and dagger atmosphere. It is more like a university graduate seminar in the country.

The administrative headquarters and briefing officers are in two spacious villas. Other villas not far away are "havens" temporary homes of Soviet fugitives.

There is only one Soviet occupant to a villa. He never sees another military fugitive. His associations are with staff personnel, headed by his case officer. But if he has brought his sweetheart, they are not separated. In due course, they visit the nearest village mayor and are married.

For the first two weeks, the defector undergoes questioning to establish his true identity and what, if anything, he represents. This is to make certain he is not a planted agent. A former major in the Soviet army is among his questioners.

Then he sits at a table with specialists, five or more hours a day, five days a week, recalling everything he can about his native land.

Lift Bridge Feels Sticky In Heat, Too

TROY, N.Y. (AP)—Feel sticky in this weather? So does a lift bridge here.

The span between Troy and Green Island in the Hudson River was expanded by the 100-degree temperature and wouldn't budge when operators tried to raise it for an oil barge yesterday.

The tanker still was waiting today for the 200-foot span to cool off.

He Was Dressed Too Warm, One Supposes

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—A man who collapsed from heat prostration yesterday as the temperature flirted with the 100-degree mark was found to be wearing five suit coats, a vest, a heavy work shirt, trousers and woolen underwear.

Between 75 and 80 years old, he identified himself as Thomas Moynihan, a hermit, with no regular address, police said.

classified under three headings: "the facts I saw, the hearsay I was told, and the rumors I got from idle gossip."

In the evenings and on days off—at his "haven"—he blossoms out as a personality.

The defector's villa is handsomely furnished and has beautiful grounds. On a short-wave radio, he can tune in both Moscow and Western stations. He receives a daily copy of Pravda, mouthpiece of the Kremlin, and a Russian-language newspaper published in New York. He gets both sides to hear and read.

He is outfitted with an American-cut suit, white shirts and American-pattern ties. This helps persuade him that he is being treated as an equal.

A group of Russian-speaking officials of the center call on him for dinner. He is the genial host and has picked out the Russian menu.

He has leafed through the catalogue of a U. S. mail order house and found it incredible. His case officer invites him to drive to a large town for a visit. He comments on so many automobiles. He stares at windows full of shoes, phonographs, furniture, fancy foods. He says the bananas, for example, must be wax. Then he buys one with a few cents of his pocket money and eats it.

All his life he has been taught that the Western masses live in utmost misery and that American Negroes are still persecuted slaves. He is taken to a night club patronized by the U. S. Army and sees Negro soldiers enjoying the same privileges as white.

Eventually, he moves to an apartment in the large town and spends his free time without any escort. Now he is studying the language of the country to which he will soon emigrate. It is English, Spanish or Portuguese.

His ticket is bought. There are two tickets, if he is a bridegroom. This new journey into the West is not like his first, full of uncertainty and fear. At the end of this one, a job and independence await.

Happy Birthday, 85 Times

Dr. Collins Honored At Barbecue Dinner

Dr. T. M. Collins, who laid aside a busy medical practice three years ago after 35 years of doctoring, celebrated his 85th birthday here Wednesday.
He was honored at a barbecue dinner given at the City Park by his sons and attended by relatives and a number of friends.
Dr. Collins took the occasion in stride, settling himself to a brisk round of dominoes at the park with Dr. M. H. Bennett and others. Heretofore, the birthday party always had been held at the farm home of a son, O. C. Collins, near Midland. This time, however, Alfred Collins insisted that he be host for the party.
Alfred and O. C. Collins were the only children able to be here. Others, J. B. Collins, Abilene, M. D. Collins, Lafayette, Ind., Mrs. Mary Dallas Stewart, Pensacola, Fla., and Mrs. Edna Earl Haag, Abilene, sent best regards.
A number of the grandchildren as well as his minister, Lyle Price of the Church of Christ at 14th and Main, joined with him and Mrs. Collins for the occasion. Mrs. Alfred Collins and Mrs. O. C. Collins helped with the serving.
Dr. Collins was born near Tipton in Lamar County on Sept. 2, 1868. He earned his medical degree from Fort Worth Medical College in 1895 and went to practice near his native town. In 1908 he moved west to Andrews County, came to Coahoma in 1912 and to Big Spring in 1917.
Although subjected to long hours and difficult transportation problems, he managed to escape sickness himself most of the time. During the historic flu epidemic of 1918 he saw hundreds with the flu but never caught it until two years later.

Testing Christian Truth Is Topic At Ladies Aid

The difficulty of appreciating the value of Christian training until one's faith has been tried by those who mock and ridicule it was the central thought of the discussion Mrs. Ad Hoyer led for the St. Paul's Lutheran Concordia Ladies Aid Wednesday.
The topic for the afternoon was "How Can We Test the Truth of Christianity?"
Although a youngster has known Christ from earliest childhood, Mrs. Hoyer pointed out, he may count many unbelievers among his friends.
Then as these young people are confronted with their friend's atheistic ideas, they begin to learn and realize the power and force of Christianity in their own lives," she said.
The women met in the Educational Building of the church. Rev. Hoyer opened the meeting with a Scripture reading from I Corinthians 2.
The group decided to pack clothing for Korean relief at the next social, Sept. 27.
They will sponsor the Lutheran Laymen's League Banquet Sept. 13. Sept. 23 was set for an all-day meeting for sewing altar coverings. A covered dish luncheon will be served.
The group will serve as hostesses at the Servicemen's Center Sunday from 2-7 p.m.

Roberts will lead the discussion.
Jackie Frayer is presiding at the revival meetings. Wednesday night Roberts talked on "James, the Brother of Jesus" and a brass quartet of Webb Air Force Base personnel played "Be Still, My Soul."
The crowds attending the revival have been estimated at between 1,600 and 2,000. The topic Friday night will be "The Number One Problem of Youth."

A state officer will present a chalk discussion at the tea on the activities, objectives and history of the B&PW in order to familiarize working women in Big Spring with the organization.

Alabama Will Break Precedent As White Woman Goes To Chair

By REX THOMAS
MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A nurse who poisoned the infant niece she had insured for $5,500, then calmly watched the body cut open for an autopsy, dies in the electric chair tonight unless Gov. Gordon Persons intervenes.

If she pays the penalty, 55-year-old Mrs. Earle Dennison will be the first white woman ever electrocuted in Alabama. One other white woman was sentenced to death, but the verdict was reversed on appeal. A Negro woman was put to death in 1930.

The governor, who can commute Mrs. Dennison's sentence to life imprisonment if he chooses to spare her life, will announce his decision following a morning clemency hearing.

Unless he overrules the trial court's verdict, the frail, impassive nurse will be led from her death cell at Kilby Prison at one minute after midnight and electrocuted for the arsenic slaying of 2-year-old Shirley Diann Weldon.

She also was charged with killing Weldon child, Polly Ann, but was never tried for that offense. Arsenic was found in the bodies of both girls.

The haggard, graying widow was convicted by a male jury at Wetumpka in August 1952, but the death sentence was set aside pending an automatic appeal to the State Supreme Court. The court upheld the verdict last June and then denied a rehearing a month later.

Gov. Persons then postponed the execution from Aug. 21 to Sept. 4 to give psychiatrists time to determine the condemned woman's mental condition. She had pleaded insanity at her trial. Doctors decided three days ago that she was sane.

Mrs. Dennison, who had been chief operating room nurse at the Wetumpka, Ala., hospital, was arrested May 8, 1952, seven days after Shirley Diann died in convulsions at the hospital.

She admitted in two signed statements that she gave arsenic to the blonde, curly haired child in a soft drink during a visit to the Weldon home near Wetumpka May 1. Mrs. Dennison recalled that Shirley Diann had climbed affectionately into her lap and hugged her around the neck just before she swallowed the poison.

While the child lay dying, Mrs. Dennison said, she drove to the home of an insurance agent and paid an overdue premium on a $500 policy on the child's life. The aunt was the beneficiary on that policy and on another one for $3,500.

Then, when an autopsy was ordered on Shirley Diann's body, Mrs. Dennison watched the operation which revealed the arsenic.

2 Lawmen Are Wounded But Assailant Dies

JACKSONVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Two Cherokee County officers were wounded in a gun battle yesterday in a private game preserve but fought back and killed their assailant, John Butler, 73.

Sheriff Frank Brunt and Constable Pete Bailey of Wells, 32 miles south of here, were called to evict Butler from the preserve called "Hicks' Pasture." When they approached Butler he wounded both officers with the same bullet. They killed Butler. His body held several bullets.

Bailey was wounded along the edge of the chest. The bullet then lodged under Brunt's shoulder blade. Neither was in serious condition.

Justice R. W. Anderson of Alto ruled that the officers shot in self-defense.

Brunt later gave this account from his hospital bed: Emmett Hicks of Wells had called him to evict Butler. Hicks said their hunting club had hired Butler recently as caretaker but fired him last week. He had threatened people with a rifle the club had given him. Hicks said Butler had refused to give up the rifle when he was fired and had also refused to move from his quarters on the preserve. Brunt and Bailey drove into the preserve and suddenly came upon Butler as he drove over a hill.

"First I drove by," Brunt said.

"I was sort of surprised, coming on him so sudden. Then I turned around and drove back by him. I stopped the car and Bailey and I got out," he said.

"I told Butler we were peace officers and asked him to put down his gun. He raised his rifle and started shooting. His first bullet passed through Bailey and hit me," Brunt said.

TO REST HIS FEET Chicago Picket Loses Job After Twelve Years

CHICAGO (AP)—A picket who has trudged an estimated 40,000 miles in 12 years in front of an automobile company lost his job yesterday as Chicago's longest strike was settled.

"It was beginning to get rather monotonous," said Alexander (Scotty) Orr, who had been on picket duty since 1941 at the Peterman Chevrolet Co. The AFL Auto Mechanics Union had picketed the company since 1939.

"I walked slow," said Orr, a 50-year-old ruddy-faced Scot. "If you walk too fast the people can't read the sign. Then, I was getting old on the job too—that slowed me down some."

Orr said the union bought him a new pair of shoes every six months and supplied him with a new sign.

"Weather's hard on those signs, and I marched eight hours every day, rain, snow or shine, barring Sundays and holidays," he said.

Asked what he planned to do now that he was out of a job, he said:

"I'll get me a rocking chair and sit in it for maybe a year. Of course, I'll soak my feet now and then, just from habit. I'll miss some of the nice people that used to chat with me every day."

Don Burrows, the union's business manager, announced the strike settlement. He said the auto firm had agreed to terms which other Chicago area Chevrolet dealers had accepted. He said the settlement provides for a union shop and wage scale with commission for mechanics, helpers and apprentices.

Carl Petersen, owner of the agency, said when the union attempted to organize his shop, his mechanics and other workers refused to join. Since, however, he said with the majority of auto service men signing up his workers finally agreed to become union members.

Rockies Have Cold Spell

DENVER (AP)—The first cold weather of the season chilled the Rocky Mountain region today while residents of the eastern United States sweated in record-breaking heat.

A cold air mass from Canada moved rapidly across Montana, Wyoming and Colorado last night.

The northeast entrance to Yellowstone National Park was closed by snow, sleet and ice. Park officials reported Beartooth Pass, near Cooke City, Mont., was covered with 2 to 4 inches of snow early yesterday. Later it turned to sleet and froze on the highway. Snow also fell in the Gallatin Mountains near Bozeman. Elsewhere in Montana, heavy rains were reported.

Montana temperatures early today were generally in the lower 40s and ranged down to 37 at Dillon.

Scattered rain storms hit Wyoming too, and spread generally along the mountains from Denver south in Colorado.

It dropped to 32 at Fraser, Colo., on the western rim of the Continental Divide, where President Eisenhower concluded a week's outing yesterday.

Soup Firm Loser In Eastern Heat Wave

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—The Campbell Soup Co. has ordered the destruction of nearly 100 truckloads of ripe tomatoes because the firm has no facilities to process them for canning.

A firm spokesman said tomatoes are ripening earlier than usual in the heat wave.

The company said farmers are being paid for their loads and that the firm is absorbing the loss.

Approximately 97 per cent of tomatoes delivered to the plant Monday, Tuesday and yesterday were ordered destroyed, the spokesman said.

The company said the plant is operating 24 hours a day, seven days a week in an effort to process as many tomatoes as possible.

University Official Will Burn Building

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—You've heard of officials throwing out the first ball, launching ships or cutting ribbons to open projects?

Well, the president of the University of Maryland is going to burn the first building here next Tuesday.

Dr. H. C. Byrd will open the 20th annual short course for firemen by setting the torch to a building. The firemen will then go to work and put out the blaze.

Youth's Aim Too Good For His Own Welfare

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Horace Boutwell's aim was too sharp for his own good.

The 13-year-old fired his air rifle yesterday at a .22-caliber rifle bullet resting on a saw horse several feet away.

His dead-center shot sent the hull of the 22 cartridge whizzing back into his left shoulder. At the hospital, Horace wanted to know if anything like that ever happened to Wild Bill Hickock.

Twenty Soldiers Drown In Fort Bragg Training Boat Accident

By BRYAN HAINSLIP
FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP)—Twenty soldiers, many of whom could not swim, drowned within sight of comrades on shore here yesterday when a training boat capsized in a reservation lake.

The post public information office said late last night it still did not know how many men were aboard. Only two of the survivors were hospitalized. Neither was in serious condition.

Some of the survivors were helped ashore. Others swam the 100 yards to safety despite their bulky fatigue uniforms and non-swimmers' panicky efforts to grab them.

The men were members of the 40th Engineer Brigade. Most were basic trainees. They were on an orientation ride on the mile-long lake in a boat consisting of two 14-foot-long assault craft bolted together end to end. It went down in about 10 feet of water.

Otto Edwards, Ft. Bragg safety director, said the normal load for such a boat is only about 25 men.

Army officials in Washington said they thought it was the worst training accident, not involving aircraft, since World War II. Edwards said it was the biggest single accident toll he had seen in 12 years as safety director at 27 Army installations.

The boat dipped water when it turned to go back to shore. It tipped over after some of the men became panicky, the PIO reported. Edwards said he understood about half of the men could not swim.

The swimmers were hampered by their loose-fitting clothing, combat boots and ammunition belts with attached canteens.

Army medical corpsmen tried for hours to revive the victims after their bodies were pulled from the water and lined up on shore.

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP)—The Ft. Bragg public information office today released the names of 20 men, all privates, who drowned training boat capsized on a reservation lake here. The victims and next of kin:

Unpaved Stanton Streets Rebuilding

STANTON (SC) — Stanton's unpaved streets are undergoing a rebuilding program through the cooperation of the city and county and through a project sponsored by the Streets and Highways Committee of the Martin County Chamber of Commerce of which County Judge James McMorris is chairman.

With the county furnishing the equipment and equipment operators, and the city furnishing the engineering information and water, all the unpaved streets are being plowed up and given a smoother surface with the holes in streets being eliminated and better drainage provided.

Some of the streets had gotten into such a condition that they were actually considered dangerous, officials said.

Stanton City Dads Okay Sanitarian

STANTON (SC) — The Stanton City Council has authorized the full time employment of Mrs. Leo Turner as city sanitarian to begin Oct. 1.

For the past year Mrs. Turner has served as joint city-county sanitarian with her salary and the expense of the office being shared by the county and city. Martin County recently withdrew from this arrangement and the city council decided to continue the work as a city project. It is expected that Mrs. Turner's office will now be moved from the court house to the city hall.

Who Will Star In 1953's Command Performance?

LONDON (AP)—Who will be the stars of this year's royal command performance?

A gray-haired Britisher named Harry Marlowe sits by his phone in the heart of London's theater district nursing that top secret of international vaudeville.

A call from Marlowe may start an American singing star arranging his schedule to be ready for a transatlantic dash to make the show at London's Coliseum Theater Nov. 2. Or it may bring overnight fame—and wealth—to one of the hundreds of small-time acts making the rounds of Britain's provincial music halls.

Actually, the royal command performance is nothing of the sort. The performers do not appear by "royal command" and officially it is just a first-grade charity show attended by the monarch. But the royal command tag has stuck and that's what everybody calls it.

The tradition goes back to the late middle ages, when actors played in London only on license from the crown.

The modern command performance dates from 1921, when the Variety Artists Benevolent Fund started looking for new ways to raise cash to help its members, and King George V let it be known he would attend a vaudeville show. Today Queen Elizabeth carries on the annual tradition. It has raised around 250,000 pounds ($700,000).

Marlowe is secretary of the fund and that makes him casting director of the show. He and his committee pick about a dozen acts for the big spots plus some 500 performers for elaborate production numbers and submit the list—and script — to Buckingham Palace. Once the palace gives the green light, the show goes on.

Everybody works free. After the show the Queen looks over the accounts—as with all charities she supports—and she likes to see expenses kept small.

Drought Felt Keenly By Tractor Dealers

Probably the businessmen suffering most from the drought are the tractor and farm equipment dealers. And, even if we were to have a good soaking rain tomorrow, their troubles would not be over, many of them think. Most local dealers agreed that it would take from one to two good crop years before tractor sales would rise to any great extent. However, their repair business would show more immediate increases, most thought. What little business they have

Five-Day Week For TEC Office

Big Spring employers customarily placing orders for workers with the Texas Employment Commission on Saturdays will have to seek their workers through the agency on some other day of the week, according to Leon M. Kinney, local office manager for the commission. Kinney said that effective Sept. 5, his office will be closed each Saturday as the result of a law passed by the Texas Legislature placing state employees on a 40-hour work week. "Claimants of unemployment insurance scheduled to file claims on Saturday necessarily will have to file on another day. Notification on the new date to report and file for unemployment insurance will go out to claimants this week. However, if there is any doubt in the claimant's mind on what date to report, he should report to the TEC office where he regularly files his claim and find out for certain," Kinney said. He added that his office will make every effort to see that employer's orders for workers receive prompt attention as in the past, and that workers are referred to jobs as quickly as possible. "We are not curtailing any of our services to the public as a result of the shorter work-week, but it means that the job will have to be done during the five days, Monday through Friday each week," Kinney continued.

Crop Prospects Get A Boost From Rainfall

AUSTIN (AP)—South Texas vegetable, citrus, range and late feed prospects did an about face last week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported today. The gloomy outlook suddenly brightened with heavy rains. The size of the Texas drought area is dwindling each week, the USDA said. Ranges that were greening in some spots got a healthy boost from the heavy to torrential rains, the USDA said. Recovery of some badly depleted ranges is expected to be slow in the south. Earlier showers in Northwest Texas helped ranges. Grass is coming along, but is still short there. Cotton and rice harvests have been halted in the South by the heavy rains. Irrigation water along the Rio Grande is once again plentiful. Commercial vegetable areas were drenched and winter crops will go into the ground as soon as farmers can get into their fields. The USDA said rains are gradually reducing the extent of the drought. The South Texas downpours washed another big area out of the drought picture. Rain is still badly needed in the southern High Plains, western Edwards Plateau or Hill Country, the vast Trans-Pecos region, and many scattered local areas passed up by showers.

Bank Predicts Less '53 Cotton, Corn

DALLAS (AP)—Rice, sorghums, hay, peanuts and potato crops in Texas are going to be larger, the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank predicts. Smaller cotton and corn production for 1953 were seen in the bank's forecast yesterday. Cattle shipments are expected to exceed those of 1952. Unemployment has increased because of the lay off of federal workers and the addition of students to the labor force, the bank said. The bank forecast a rise in employment for September.

Census Report Has Interesting Facts

By RAYMOND HOLBROOK
Associated Press Staff Writer
While lacking the zest of a Kinsey report, the Census Bureau's 250-page study of population characteristics of Texas turns up some interesting facts on Texans. If those 250 pages of tabulations prove nothing else, they show that Texans, even when interpolated and correlated into cold statistics, are individualists that can't be wrapped up into a simple little package marked "typical Texan." Some Texans get an early start in life. Take, for instance, heads of households. They may not be old enough legally to drive a car, but in 1950 there were 250 boys and 60 girls between 10 and 14 who were the heads of their households. And among the 14-year-olds, there were 300 married men, another 100 who were widowed and another 65 divorced. Among girls, 14, there were 625 married, another 25 widowed and another 30 divorced. Other Texans live a long time. There were 435 Texans 100 years or more in age in the last census. In between were 7,685,665 Texans in assorted shapes, sizes, sexes and colors. Mostly they are city-dwellers. More than half, 4,817,550, live in urban areas, places of more than 2,500 population. Another 1,578,635 are rural non-farm, which means they live in small towns or out in the country but do no farming, only 1,289,480 are considered rural farmers. The biggest age group are those six years old who are getting ready to start school this fall. Back in 1950 when the census was taken it was the three-year-olds, now the six-year-olds, from the bumper baby crop of the post-war era that constituted the largest single age group, 122,435. The median age of all Texans is 28.1, for the rural nonfarm area 26.5, and for the rural farm 28.6. The 1940-1950 decade was one of increase for women in Texas. Trailing in 1940 by a count of 3,193,721 to 3,221,103, they forged ahead in ten years, 3,646,465 to 3,839,300, to become the dominant sex. The Spanish word armadillo means "little armed one."

Wheatheart

Miss Jimmalene Richardson of Dumas, Tex., was crowned 1953 "Wheatheart of the Nation," in the seventh annual beauty contest held at Perryton. She won the title competing against 22 beauty queens from Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and New Mexico. The 1953 Wheatheart won the "Miss Moore County" beauty title at Dumas earlier this year. (AP Photo).

Law Library Due To Expand In New Courthouse Building

Although few books have been purchased recently for the Howard County Law Library, a number of new volumes will be added to the shelves after the move into the new courthouse. County Judge R. H. Weaver, who is president of the local bar association, stated Saturday that the book fund has a surplus of $450 at the present time. He pointed out that lack of space and facilities in the old county courthouse has kept the library from being expanded. But plenty of room will be available in the new structure. A special room has been designated for the law library. And it will have shelves, tables and chairs available for those wishing to "bone up" on their law. Judge Weaver stated that he hopes to see the money now available turned into books as soon as possible. The law library, he said, should be built into one of which the county can be proud. The law library, while it will undoubtedly be used mostly by lawyers, is open to the public. Anyone wishing to use the volumes can do so at any time. Weaver explained, however, that the books cannot be checked out of the building. Actually the public pays for the law books through the civil suits filed in the County and District courts. The regular filing fee has an added $1 to finance the purchase of books. Although the State Legislature has authorized up to $5 fee for the library fund on each case filed, Judge Weaver said he does not believe a raise will be made here. The Howard County Commissioners' Court approved the $1 fee and is in charge of book purchases. However, commissioners are usually guided by the suggestions of the local bar association. At present the library consists of a 55-volume set of Texas Jurisprudence; a 300-volume set of Southwestern Reporter, 1st edition; a 256-volume set of Southwestern Reporter, 2nd edition; a volume and supplements to Texas Rules of Civil Procedure; two sets of Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, annotated; 4 volumes of McDonald's Civil Practice, and a volume of Texas Writ of Errors.

The law library in the new courthouse will be on the 3rd floor near the district court room. In such a position, it can be used as a ready reference library by the lawyers involved in court cases.

HOWARD COUNTY IRRIGATION

Riding

THE GRUB LINE
With Franklin Reynolds

Don't let anyone tell you that Howard County doesn't have good irrigated cotton, too, because it does.

Louis Underwood, who lives at Luther, put down a couple of wells pretty close together, and while they aren't big irrigation wells by any calculation, only totaling 175 gallons per minute, they've been big enough to enable him to produce 30 acres of cotton, which he estimates will run a bale to the acre, and six acres of watermelons.

This cotton has been well watered three times this year from these two wells, and how well it has done is shown in the above picture where Marcus Stanley, young neighbor of Underwood's is standing in it.

It looks as if the success of agriculture in this area may not depend wholly so much on how much water is available but on how well such water as is available is used. Doubtless other wells will, in time, be developed in the county, even though small ones, but even such water as can be pumped out of a small well will grow more cotton and watermelons than no water at all.

Underwood has every reason to be proud of this project because not too far from this good cotton there is lots of drought-stricken land. This cotton is just across the road from the Luther store and Post Office. Drive out and look at it and see what a good farmer can do with just a little water.

After all, 30 bales of cotton will make a man's pockets jingle.

The Bluebonnet is a peculiar sort of Texan. They grow during the winter with no injury from frost and light freezes, and they bloom better in poor soil than in rich or heavily-fertilized soils.

And now, say the plant specialists, at Texas A&M College, is the time to plant bluebonnet seed if you want them blooming next spring. This is the season that Mother Nature plants bluebonnet seed. The specialists say that if a planting is made later than the middle of September, they can be started in cold frames, hot houses and plant boxes and then set in the open when the heavy freezes are over.

The cotton pulling contest scheduled for the near future between Judge R. H. Weaver of Howard County and Judge James McMorries of Martin County appears to be attracting a great deal of interest.

Since Judge McMorries stands well above six feet his backers insist the pulling should take place in high cotton. Judge Weaver's supporters say they want it in low cotton.

"If I can get him in low cotton," says Weaver, "I can wear him out stooping him over. Judicial dignity can't take that bending over for an hour. It'll be a clinch."

McMorries has also had some comment to make. "Since I am the senior judge," he says, "I think it should be in the tall cotton. If I can get my worthy opponent in cotton over his head I'll stretch him right out of the contest. He won't be able to make it because I don't believe Weaver can drag both a cotton sack and a step ladder down a cotton row and beat me."

But the man most enthusiastic about it is Mayor Woodford Sale of Stanton who is furnishing the irrigated cotton for the contest. He says: "I only have 450 acres of cotton and the way I expect to see McMorries and Weaver go down those rows I don't anticipate

It is understood that the T&P Railway is going to furnish a set of locomotive scales so the winner can be quickly determined as the two long sacks are rushed in over the finish line.

It's going to be a busy Labor Day weekend of roping for Toots Mansfield of Big Spring and Cotton Lee of Fort Sumner, N. M., according to the schedule.

Next Sunday Toots and Cotton will meet 11 other ropers in the annual Lasso del Llano, world champion steer roping, at Clovis, N. M., and then on Monday (Labor Day) they will rope as members of Texas and New Mexico teams in a match sponsored by the Midland County Sheriff's Office.

Other ropers at Clovis, where each of them will draw five steers, are Shoat Webster of Nowata, Okla.; Dean Merritt of Cheyenne, Wyo.; Jack Skipworth of Clovis; Everett Shaw of Stonewall, Okla.; Clark McIntyre of Kiowa, Okla.; Hugh Bennett of Colorado Springs; Jack Shaw of Rudisno; Ike Jude of Fort Sumner; Carl Arnold of Buckeye, Ariz.; and John Scott of Miles City, Mont.

The Clovis event will start at 2 p.m. (Mountain Standard Time) and the Calcuta Pool will be sold at 1:30 p.m. Admission will be $1.75 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Other members of the Texas team at Midland on Labor Day afternoon will be Bill Teague, Elmer Carter and Lanham Riley. In addition to Cotton members of the New Mexico team at Midland will be Bronc Curry, Sonny Davis and Tuffy Cooper.

Don't Want Candy

Some Colorful Post Offices Being Closed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some small Texas communities with colorful names are losing their post offices and others may be in line for the same fate.

The government is overhauling fourth class post offices to improve service and trim expenses. Protests have come from the hamlets and villages. Folk say they feel their identity will fade away if they no longer see letters go out bearing a hometown postmark.

Between Jan. 1 and Sept. 30 the Post Office Department will have abandoned 13 Texas post offices, including:

Birthing, where postal receipts last year totaled $255 while the postmaster's salary was $379; Cuthand, which took in $232 while $648 went to the postmaster; and Provident City, with receipts of $225 and a postmaster drawing $848.

These five were ordered closed by Aug. 15: Morrill—receipts $165, salary $685; Buenavista, $210 and $848; Bland, $256 and $797; Macho-vee (a third class office) $1,528 and $2,883, and Darco.

Others due to be closed by Sept. 30, with receipts and salary: Lusk, $255 and $979; Angus $482 and $1,441; Hunter, $93 and $326; Ibez, $88 and $326; King, $262 and $979; Pep, $725 and $1,914; Lazbuddie, $628 and $2,045; Roosevelt, $531 and $1,588; and Lincoln, $878 and $2,045.

Some of the smaller Texas post offices, with last year's receipts first and postmaster's salary second:

Fate, $849 and $2,045; Joy, $690 and $1,762; Loco, $654 and $1,762; Lariat, $593 and $1,588; Old Glory, $941 and $2,177; Moscow, $1,329 and $2,611;

Thrift, $411 and $1,327; Thrifty, $283 and $979; Dollarhide $1,144 and $2,494; Diner, $611 and $1,762; Pep, $725 and $1,914; Lazbuddie, $628 and $2,045; Roosevelt, $531 and $1,588; and Lincoln, $878 and $2,045.

MRS. H. H. MORRIS AND DEANNA KAY
... her special job

Coffee Cake Recipe Is 60 Years Old

The recipe Mrs. H. H. Morris has for almond-strawberry coffee cake is 60 years old, she estimates, but her three-year-old daughter, Deanna Kay, probably likes the cookie-like cake as much as any other youngster who has enjoyed it through the years.

The recipe is a hand-me-down from Mrs. Morris' grandmother. Although the cake can be decorated for special holidays, like Halloween or Easter, it's an every day favorite at the Morris house because it's so easy to fix.

Mrs. Morris uses cookie cutters to cut the dough. One of Deanna Kay's favorites is a chicken-shaped cutter, and her special job is to give the chickens eyes with cake coloring.

To decorate the cakes, Mrs. Morris suggests putting some cotton on the end of a toothpick and dipping it into the cake coloring.

Mrs. Morris teaches the sixth grade at Park Hill School. The family pet is a Weimaraner, a German retriever. Temporarily, until they receive his registration papers with his registered name, the family is calling him "Joe." The Morrises live at 106 E. 17th.

Although mixing the almond and strawberry extracts gives a very different flavor, either extract by itself or lemon extract are good, Mrs. Morris says.

For a variety of flavors separate the dough and flavor each portion separately. Food coloring may also be added to the dough. The dough may be placed in the refrigerator or freezing unit and baked later.

1 No. 2 1/2 can tomatoes
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

1 green pepper, cut in rings
3 cups cooked rice, if desired
Dredge both sides of the steak with seasoned flour. Brown on both sides in lard or drippings. Add onion, tomatoes and Worcestershire sauce. Cover and simmer for 2 1/2 or 3 hours, or until tender. Cook pepper rings 5 minutes. Serve steak on a bed of fluffy rice, if desired. Garnish with pepper rings. 6 servings.

Porterhouse Steaks

"Porterhouse" steak owes its origin, more than 100 years ago, to the proprietor of a popular Ale and Porter House in New York City. One day he took a sirloin roast from his private larder, sliced the meat and sawed through the bone to produce a steak. One of the leading butchers of the town soon began to specialize in these cuts and named them "Porterhouse" steaks.

Quickies Make Day Labor-Less For Mom

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Here's our annual contribution to Labor Day: recipes that will make the holiday Labor-Less Day for Mother. This year we have three really good tasting canned meat quickies to help Mom's kitchen liberation along.

First dish is for lovers of Southwestern cookery. Heat a one-pound can of chili con carne (with beans) and a one-pound can of tamales with chili gravy separately, according to the directions on the cans. Now stir the chili gravy into the chili con carne and turn into a serving dish. Top with the tamales and a quarter- to a half-cup of grated cheddar cheese. This will make three generous helpings—so just multiply the quantities to suit the number of folks you're serving.

Have ready a bowl of hot cooked rice and another of shredded iceberg lettuce mixed with a sweet onion cut into thin strips or rings—use a red onion if you can get it. Serve each portion of chili and tamales over rice and top with a generous helping of the lettuce and onion. This way of serving is our own idea, and one always applauded. It may seem strange to you, but just try it! We borrowed the idea from the way Mexican tostados are traditionally topped with shredded lettuce. (A tostado, like the tamale, is a tortilla—but a tortilla that is fried crisp in deep fat and left flat to hold its sauce and lettuce topping.)

A first course for this menu might be another Southwestern favorite—Guacamole. This is ripe avocado mashed fine and enlivened with olive oil, lemon juice, grated onion, and if you like, diced tomatoes. Serve it as a spread for crackers. For dessert you might have fruit or fruit sherbet, with cookies or small cakes.

Our second suggestion calls for a 12-ounce tin of luncheon meat, providing six generous slices. But this is a luncheon meat dish with a difference—it's served with pan-fried shredded cabbage and a wonderful mustard and pickle relish sauce.

Our third easy dish is sure to be popular—corned beef hash patties broiled with fresh tomato halves and onion rings. The seasonings on the vegetables give delicious flavor to the good taste of the savory beef and potatoes.

LUNCHEON MEAT SKILLET DINNER

Ingredients: 2 quarts shredded cabbage (1 large head) 1/4 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup water 2 tablespoons butter or margarine

One 12-ounce can luncheon meat
Relish sauce
Method: Put cabbage in large skillet; add salt to water and pour over cabbage. Dot with butter. Cut luncheon meat into 6 slices; place on top of cabbage. Cover with a tight fitting lid. Cook over medium heat 15 minutes. While cabbage is cooking, prepare Relish Sauce.

RELISH SAUCE

Ingredients: 1 tablespoon butter or margarine 1 1/2 teaspoons flour 1 tablespoon prepared mustard 1 teaspoon sugar 1/4 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup water 2 tablespoons vinegar 1 tablespoon mayonnaise 2 tablespoons pickle relish 1/2 teaspoon tabasco sauce
Method: Melt butter in saucepan over low heat. Remove from heat; blend in flour, prepared mustard, sugar and salt. Stir in water and vinegar and return to medium heat. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Remove from heat; stir in mayonnaise, pickle relish and tabasco sauce. Serve hot with luncheon meat and cabbage. Skillet may be used as serving dish. Makes 4 servings.

CORNER BEEF HASH GRILL

Ingredients: One 1 pound can corned beef hash 2 medium size tomatoes 4 onion slices 1/4 teaspoon salt 1/4 teaspoon pepper 1/4 teaspoon sugar

1/4 teaspoon basill 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Method: Open can of corned beef hash at both ends to remove in one piece. Cut into 4 slices. Halve tomatoes. Place corned beef hash patties on baking sheet, place under broiler; broil until browned on top. Turn patties; top each with a tomato half. Sprinkle with half the salt, pepper, sugar and basill; dot with 1 tablespoon of the butter. Place onion slices on top; sprinkle with remaining seasonings and dot with butter. Broil about 10 minutes or until heated through and onions are flecked with brown. Makes 4 servings.

3 Vegetables A Day

Serve three vegetables each day, either cooked or fresh. These should include one serving of sweet or Irish potatoes, one serving greens or yellow vegetables, one serving of other vegetables; this group includes all other vegetables which are not colored green or yellow.

Banana Spice Cake Ideal For A Labor Day Picnic

What's on the schedule for Labor-Day weekend? Is it a picnic you're going on? Then here's a special Take-Along Banana Spice Cake to which all our taste-testers gave high rating. The cake is frosted and cooled right in the pan; then it may be covered with foil and put in the picnic basket. It's a moist, fine-textured and delightfully flavored dessert, and the frosting adds just the right sweetness. Evaporated milk is used in both the cake and the frosting; you might also want to take along a small can of the milk for coffee. In that case, don't forget the opener.

TAKE-ALONG BANANA SPICE CAKE

Ingredients: 1 1/4 cups sifted flour 1 teaspoon baking soda 1 teaspoon cinnamon 1/2 teaspoon cloves 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg 2-3 cup mashed ripe bananas (about 1 1/2 medium bananas) 1/2 cup butter or margarine 1 cup sugar 1 egg 2-3 cup evaporated milk (undiluted) 2 tablespoons lemon juice
Method: Sift together the flour, baking soda, salt, cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg. Slice bananas into a small bowl; mash fine (so there are no lumps) with fork. Measure; there should be 2-3 cup. Cream butter and sugar; beat in egg well. Stir lemon juice into milk. Add dry ingredients alternately with soured milk to creamed mixture; begin and end with dry ingredients. Stir only until combined each time; do not overbeat. Mix in mashed bananas thoroughly. Turn into greased 9 by 9 by 2 inch baking pan. Bake in moderate (350F) oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean—40 to 45 minutes. Remove cake from oven to cooling rack. Prepare Broiled Frosting mixture; spread on cake; place under broiler until mixture is bubbly. It takes but a minute or two generally for frosting to broil, so watch cake carefully and do not scorch. Remove from broiler and cool in pan on cooling rack.

Makes 9 to 12 servings.

BROILED FROSTING

Ingredients: 1/2 cup chopped blanched almonds 3 tablespoons butter or margarine 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar 1 tablespoon evaporated milk
Method: Spread almonds in shallow pan and brown lightly under broiler. Melt butter in small sauce pan; mix in toasted almonds, sugar and milk. Spread on baked banana spice cake and broil as directed above.

Pineapple, Chicken Livers Sturdy Dish

An elegant supper is simple when the hostess serves a sturdy main dish like chicken livers with pineapple in a chafing dish. Accompany it with fluffy rice, a tossed salad and French bread. Ice cream with chocolate sauce would be a good dessert. The chafing dish is not a must, of course, for a frying pan over the kitchen range will make this dish just as well.

CHICKEN LIVERS WITH PINEAPPLE

2 pounds of chicken livers
Soy sauce
1/2 cup salad oil
1 No. 2 can of pineapple chunks
1 cup split blanched almonds
Sauce: 2 1/2 cups pineapple juice 1/4 cup vinegar 1/4 teaspoon salt 1/4 cup sugar 4 tablespoons cornstarch
Cut chicken livers in halves, dip them in soy sauce and brown lightly in oil. Add pineapple and blanched almonds. Heat for a minute, then pour on the sauce. Cook for four to five minutes, and serve with rice. Serves eight.

Chicken With Almond Rice Is Simple, Elegant Dish

For a platter of chicken to serve for Sunday dinner, try chicken with almond rice. It has a simple elegance that makes it the star of any meal.

CHICKEN WITH ALMOND RICE

Ingredients: 2 broilers (1 pound each) quick-frozen chicken breasts, thawed 1/4 cup butter 1/4 pound fresh mushrooms or two 4-ounce cans sliced mushrooms, drained 1/2 cup chopped onion 1-3 cup chopped parsley 2 tablespoons flour Dash of pepper 1 1/4 cups bouillon or 2 bouillon cubes dissolved in 1 1/4 cups hot water 1/2 cup light cream 1-3 cups (5-ounce package) precooked rice 1/4 cup sliced blanched almonds 2 tablespoons butter
Method: Separate chicken breasts and remove skin. Dry pieces well between towels. Melt butter in skillet. Add chicken, cover and brown 10 minutes over medium heat, shaking skillet from time to time to prevent overbrowning. Turn chicken once. Slice mushrooms and add to chicken. Continue cooking, covered, 10 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Remove chicken and mushrooms and set aside. Add onions to butter remaining in skillet and saute until lightly browned. Add parsley, flour, and pepper and stir until blended. Then add bouillon and light cream gradually, stirring constantly. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture is thickened. Add the chicken and mushrooms. Cover and simmer 20 to 25 minutes, or until chicken is tender. Cook rice according to directions on package. Sauté almonds in the 2 tablespoons butter and add to rice. Arrange rice on hot platter. Place chicken breasts on rice and top with sauce. Makes four to six servings.

Bell Is Authorized To Buy 4 Exchanges

The approval will become final in 40 days unless objection is filed. From the Southwestern States Telephone Company, Southwestern Bell proposes to buy exchanges at Pflugerville, Eules and Caps for $68,250 and the Crowley exchange from A. S. Teeter for $8,000.

Cubs Fuss For Bottles

Mrs. Mike Palermo and daughter, Mrs. V. F. Mascari are raising two of three lion cubs born at the Houston, Tex., zoo, for pets. The babies, which still refuse meat, are well-behaved so far, but they get fussy when hungry for their milk. They take two eight-ounce bottles each three times a day. (AP Wirephoto).

Condition In Kentucky Is Cause Of Heavy Rainfall

By BRUCE HENDERSON
Associated Press Staff

Downpours which forced thousands from their homes in lower Texas the past week and a half were caused by a rare weather phenomenon centered in Kentucky. John Zimmerman, weather bureau forecaster at Dallas, said it was a cool, heavy air mass which got stalled in Kentucky and stayed there longer than usual.

He said winds rotating around its center picked up moisture from the Gulf and dropped it as heavy rains on the Texas coast and parts of Central and South Texas.

This heavy air, called a "high" because it exerts high pressure on barometers, pushed from Canada. The cool air usually dissipates in a few days by mixing with warmer air around it. This cool air didn't. It was strong enough to retain its body more than two weeks.

Winds blowing around this center caused the Texas storms. It happened this way:

If the earth did not rotate, high pressure air would blow out in all directions, like that in a punctured balloon. But the earth's spinning deflects air around a "high" into a great system of spiraling winds covering hundreds of miles. In the northern hemisphere, these winds circulate clockwise.

At the bottom of the arc in its circular path, wind blowing around the Kentucky "high" traveled east to west across the Gulf and into Texas. It picked up moisture from the Gulf.

This air was cool and cool air cannot hold as much moisture as warm air. It becomes "unstable," which means the slightest turbulence is likely to condense its moisture into rain.

As the water-laden air drifted across the Texas coast, heat from the land caused turbulent updrafts.

The updrafts chilled the moisture and it condensed into thunderclouds. Heavy rains fell. They kept falling, because the Kentucky "high" causing the circulation failed to dissipate and the circulation of winds continued. After the winds unloaded the rain they were still cool. As they continued their arc by flowing in-

Turkeys, Hams Take Spotlight Across Nation

By The Associated Press

Turkeys and smoked hams will get prominent display in the meat counters of the nation's food stores this weekend.

Many stores will trim prices up to eight cents a pound.

Pork chops will be cheaper in many areas. Typical reductions from a week ago by one large chain: Down 10 cents a pound in New York and Boston, six cents in Pittsburgh and 16 cents in Chicago.

Leg of lamb and lamb chops will be reduced in some stores. Sirloin steak and rib roast will be higher in many areas and a bit lower in others.

Frying chickens will be two to four cents a pound cheaper in parts of the country. Egg prices will be up one to four cents.

One large baking company said it will raise the price of bread a penny a loaf Monday, and other big bakers are expected to follow suit. The company said the rise is due to higher costs of labor and materials.

One wholesale market specialist said he still considered cabbage a good buy. Also cheap, he said, are summer squash, onions, tomatoes and corn.

Rated as good buys are beans, eastern carrots, eggplant, lettuce, spinach and potatoes. Moderately good buys include cauliflower, celery and cucumbers.

Seedless grapes and peaches are a little higher, but still are considered good purchases. Washington prunes and California pears are becoming more plentiful, but prices are high.

Interests In Children Are Reflected In Shrine Circus

The Shrine Circus here next month will be a double reflection of Shrine interest in children.

Last year, when the circus made its first appearance here under Shrine sponsorship, more than 2,000 children were guests. This doubtless will be repeated this year. But back of this, and more important, too, is that part of proceeds from the circus will find their way into the Shrine crippled children's hospital.

The hospitals are the major concern of the Shrine organization. Since the first one was opened in 1922 in Shreveport, La., the program has expanded until now there are 17 hospitals.

They were constructed at a cost in excess of $10 million and require operating budgets of $3 million annually. In the past three decades, Shriners have expended $35 million in surgery and treatment for youngsters whose only requirement was being crippled and unable to afford hospitalization.

More than 200,000 children have benefited or been cured through the ministrations at Shrine hospitals. Annually more than 3,000 are helped, and always there is a waiting list of approximately 1,000 others who are taken in turn without regard to race, creed or color so long as they have not reached their 14th birthday.

Signatures of the parent and doctor, together with that of a Shriner as a sponsor is all that it takes. Patients average 104 days in the hospitals and cost more than $600 each. Shriners pay $2 each per year as an assessment for the purpose, and many others make permanent and voluntary contributions. Other help comes from bequests, such as that of the late Al P. Groehl, San Angelo and formerly of Big Spring, who gave this $30,000 to the Suez Temple for purpose. This was the largest gift reported by any temple in the country at the annual meeting.

The Suez Temple is backing the show here in September.
